

THE RADIAL BILL AGAIN TALKED OUT.

Opponents of Bill Talked Against Time.

Lincoln County Council Favors Bill.

Graft Charged at Public Accounts Committee.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 6.—(Special)—The Railway Committee had the Hamilton Railway Bill under consideration again to-day.

Mr. Houghton (Lennox) opposed the measure because it should, in his opinion, remain under the control of the Province.

Mr. MacDonnell, of Toronto, went over the same arguments which he advanced yesterday.

Mr. Lennox proposed some amendments to the preamble, which would cut out some of the objectionable features.

Opposition speakers succeeded in talking the bill out until 1 o'clock.

More Alleged Graft. Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 6.—At the Public Accounts Committee to-day Mr. W. H. Bennett went into the matter of dredging at Matchedash, Pentanguishene, his idea being to show that the work of inspecting was being farmed out and that inspectors were charging two prices for one day's work.

NOT HAMILTON MAN

Who Committed Suicide at Paris Yesterday.

The following G. N. W. despatch was received in this city last night, and the local police were much puzzled by it:

"Horace Simonson, son of J. Simonson, Brantford, shot himself through the right temple about 8 o'clock to-night, and died shortly after. Deceased is said to have been engaged to a young lady here, and as she refused to marry him, he took his own life. He was a member of the Hamilton police force and is said to have gone to Paris while off duty for a day to see the young lady."

The explanation came later when the police got a telegram to notify Mrs. J. Simonson, 384 Victoria avenue north, of this city, that her son had committed suicide in Paris. She has been living here some time, but Mr. Simonson is still in Brantford, and received the first word of the terrible occurrence. Mrs. Simonson was notified and left for her home this morning, when the body is also being shipped. Simonson had no connection with this city, and was never connected with the police force here in any way.

—Mr. C. W. Meakins, who had a stroke of paralysis last night, is in a critical condition at his home, Main street east.

SALTFLEET LOCAL OPTION BEFORE JUDGE TEETZEL.

Argument Postponed Until This Afternoon--- K. C.'s. Present Their Commissions.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 6.—A motion to prevent Judge Snider from making a scrutiny of the ballots cast in the Saltfleet township local option vote was made before Mr. Justice Teetzel this morning by Messrs. G. S. Kerr, K. C. and J. A. Gauld, K. C., Hamilton, acting on behalf of Dr. Clark, president of the Saltfleet Township local option organization. H. T. Irwin, K. C., and S. D. Biggar, K. C., on behalf of the municipally consented to the granting of the order of prohibition. J. Lynch-Staunton, K. C., appeared on behalf of C. Siebert, the Saltfleet hotel man, who obtained a recount of the votes, regarding which Judge Snider has not yet given his certificate as Mr. Lynch-Staunton was engaged in another case. Argument was postponed until this afternoon. Messrs. Biggar, Kerr and Gould presented their commissions as King's Counsel to the judge and wore silk for the first time.

Mrs. Freeborn Gets Divorce and an Allowance of $2 a Week.

Buffalo, Feb. 6.—(Special)—Agnes M. Freeborn has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from her husband, John Freeborn, of Hamilton, Canada, a former well known football player and athlete. The proceedings aroused a good deal of interest here. The testimony showed that the couple had quarreled frequently and that their troubles had been aired in the Hamilton Police Court. Freeborn and his brother-in-law were rooming in the house of Mrs. Gardner

CAN'T DINE ALONE. CAUCUS FOR ESTIMATES.

Women Have No Right to Do It In N. Y. Hotels. Read Riot Act to Independent Boards.

Overdraft May Block Salary Increases. Pruning Knife to be Used Vigorously.

New York, Feb. 6.—In the twelfth district municipal court to-day Judge Spielburger and a jury decided in favor of the Hoffman House in the suit brought by Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch to recover $300 damages because of the refusal of the management to serve her and a woman friend with dinner because they were without escort on the roof garden one night last summer. It is reported that Mrs. Blatch may take the case to a higher court.

Mrs. Blatch, who is prominent in society, a club woman and well known on the lecture platform, made a strong plea for the rights of her sex in court. Attired in a striking green costume, with a large green hat, she testified as to the details of the incident, and was corroborated by her friend, Mrs. Graham, who was with her at the time. She contended that the rule forbidding the serving of meals to women without a male escort was an unjust discrimination against her sex, and that she had suffered great humiliation and inconvenience by the action of the hotel management.

The jury decided without leaving their chairs in favor of the Hoffman House, much to the chagrin of the fair plaintiff and her friends, who were heard urging her to appeal the case to the higher courts as they swept out of the trial room.

HOME INDUSTRY.

An Important Event at Stanley Mills & Co.

Starting to-day Stanley Mills & Co. have opened their third annual "Home Industry Week." Throughout the store are exhibits from 70 of the manufacturing firms in the city. The exhibits are to be considered from an educational as well as from a business standpoint.

Mr. Edmund Mills stated this morning that if there was only room in the store the firm could have received exhibits from as many more firms in the city. "Lack of space is the only impediment," said Mr. Mills. He stated that the object of the "Home Industry Week" was to try and show and convince the people of this city of the fact that Hamilton is turning out as good work as any other city in the country.

Mr. Mills stated that he was more than pleased with the interest that is being taken by the manufacturers. In the basement are mostly food stuffs, and on the first floor are the underwear, clothing, etc. The store has been tastefully decorated, and presents an attractive appearance. The exhibit will be continued all next week, and the firm will be glad to welcome all who desire to encourage Hamilton Industry. The exhibition is highly interesting as well as educative, and an hour can be spent in the big store to good advantage.

SIXTY SIGN IT.

Kickers Say They Have That Many Names on Petition.

Some of the younger members of the Street Railwaymen's Union, who have been threatening to make trouble over the case of President John Theaker, because, they say, they are receiving very little benefit from the union, announced this morning that they had been successful in securing sixty signatures to a petition for a new schedule. This action was taken because the young men say the old employees have all the best of it on the runs. It was also stated that fifteen of the young men, who are the leading spirits in the movement, will refuse to pay dues to the union this month. Officials of the union say this is just more talk on the part of a few kickers, who never have anything to say when the union meets.

FOREIGNERS GOING.

Local Labor Agent Sending Them to Railway Work.

L. Berowitz, of the Colonial Labor Bureau, 13 John street north, reports that there are over 1,200 foreigners in the city at present out of work, and in rather poor circumstances, as few had laid any money away. He has obtained a contract from some railway construction men to send a supply of laborers, who will work ten hours a day and receive $1.75. In a few days between 60 and 70 men will be sent away, and Mr. Berowitz expects to send at least 50 a week until work is again obtainable in this city.

Chance for Everyone to Subscribe

Ever since Miss Jeannette Lewis launched her scheme, now an assured success, for the erection of a hospital for children, numerous inquiries have been heard as to whether people who approve of the project, but who, for conscientious or other reasons, did not fall in with the plan adopted, would have an opportunity to contribute, in a small way, towards the hospital. Miss Lewis herself has met a great many people who expressed themselves quite willing to contribute the price of a ticket of two or three tickets, but who did not wish the tickets. The Times has also frequently been asked if contributions, large or small, might be made. Miss Lewis has not the slightest doubt that she will sell all the tickets she set out to dispose of, and raise the entire amount she estimated, but there will be need of more money and she would be delighted to have the support of all who wish to subscribe, no matter how small an amount.

In order that none shall be able to say that they did not have the opportunity to contribute to this worthy object, the Times, with Miss Lewis' approval, will receive subscriptions of any amount at the office, and the amount thus raised will be added to the total available for the erection, furnishing and equipment of the Hamilton Children's Hospital.

It is not intended that the hospital scheme shall be allowed to drag along. As soon as the Bennett's Theatre period for the benefit of the project expires the work of getting out plans and specifications will be proceeded with. Miss Lewis expects to have the building under way in the early spring, and ready for occupation before the end of the year.

Come around to the Times' office and put your name on the list for 25 or 50 cents, $5 or $10, or any amount you may desire to contribute.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

The Grand Trunk deserves a vote of thanks for its ready acquiescence in John Patterson's railway route.

The Legislature will now make a noise like a Parliament. Mr. Zimmerman is carefully watching the city's interests in the Radial road. Rely on Adam.

Unlike the Hamilton Herald, the Times never misrepresents statements made by a citizen, and when he proceeds to tell him to hush—that he did not say what he thought he said, but what the Herald said he said.

I notice that the defendants in the snow cases yesterday all began with one accord to make excuses, but none of them was declared not guilty on the ground of insanity.

There is still time to have the City Engineer's railway route along Garth street declared to be for the general advantage of Canada.

The Twentieth Century Club's smokers' proceeds might be contributed to the Con. Club rent fund.

I am not surprised that Mayor Stewart is afraid to go back to the Legislative Committee to ask power to borrow money to pay off the overdraft after what it told him last year.

The Canadian Club should invite Harry Brown to speak at its next luncheon. It's not every man who would go to the trouble he did in championing the rights of street car passengers.

Sir Mortimer Clark never wrote that speech he delivered yesterday at the opening of the Legislature. He could make a better one.

Is Engineer Solomon paid by the piece or by the day by the city? Countess of Yarmouth's marriage has been nullified. Does that mean that she can have another one?

The Radial Railway is getting a lot of free advertising down at Ottawa.

Of course, when a street car is full it may be expected to cut up.

If anybody is in want at Crown Point or any other place the city should see that the want is supplied.

"Presbyterian" writes to the Man in Overalls, asking if La Presse is jealous of the good work done by the Presbyterians in Quebec, and calling in question the literacy of the people. Now the Man in Overalls runs a highly moral, but not a religious column, and you can't mix him in with a religious controversy without first chloroforming him.

DEATH OF MR. MILLS

For Many Years a Prominent City Grocer.

Charles Mills, who for 30 or 35 years kept a grocery at the corner of Main and Spring streets, died this morning, after a lingering illness. About two years ago he had a stroke of paralysis and this was followed by two more strokes, one of which affected the optic nerves rendering him totally blind. Deceased was 66 years of age, and came to Canada from England when a small boy. He leaves a widow and two sons and two daughters, as follows: F. C. Mills, city; Geo. H. Mills and Mrs. L. H. Tasker, New York City, and Mrs. George J. McArthur, Blind River, Ont. He was a member of the O. E. F., the C. O. U. and the A. O. U. V. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon, from his late residence, No. 9 West avenue south, and will be private.

A few weeks ago Mr. Mills' mother died at the age of 92. His wife has been confined to her room for some weeks and is still very ill.

AFTER A SITE.

Buffalo Promoters Here and Evidently Mean Business.

The Buffalo promoters who recently announced that they would build a summer park in Hamilton have returned to the city and expect to arrange for a site this week. They say they are sincere in their intention of going ahead with the project, and will not require any local assistance. A park will be fitted up and attractions played on a percentage basis. Although the local people interested in the Canadian Amusement Company, which proposed building a big park on the Beach, have returned subscriptions to the subscribers, they still have hopes that the matter will be taken up again in a year or so. The indications are that Hamilton will have at least one amusement park this summer.

LOCAL CLERGY ARE IN A PREDICAMENT.

May Be Snowed in for Days Yet. Storm a Bad One for Steam Railways.

This Winter Has Been an Expensive One.

The snow storm which began early yesterday afternoon and continued far into the night added to the troubles of the steam and electric roads in keeping their lines open, although the latter fared better than the railway trains, which it was impossible to keep running anywhere near to schedule time.

The heavy fall of snow, accompanied by a high east wind, gave the street railway officials a scare, and they prepared for something like the storm which completely tied up the system two months ago. The big sweepers were kept going, and as the snow did not pack in the grooves of the rails there was not much trouble in removing it. The wind, which dropped early in the evening, sprang up with renewed energy shortly after midnight, and the gale piled up big drifts along the tracks. The sweepers were kept going until this morning, however, and kept the line clear.

On the suburban electric lines not much difficulty was experienced. The snow piled up in spots along the Brantford and Hamilton lines to Ancaster, and delayed the cars a little. The first car out this morning had to plunge through several snow banks, but they were running on scheduled time after that. The Dundas, Burlington and Oakville, and Grimsby and Beausville lines were all kept open without trouble.

Trains on the Grand Trunk and T. H. & B. were running from two to three hours late, and in some cases more than that. The ones from the west experienced the greatest difficulty. The big engine drawing the Chicago train, due here at 1.40, came into the Stuart street yards last night near 8 o'clock, sending the snow flying like spray from a battleship. The Chicago train due here this morning at 5 o'clock had not been heard from at noon. In some places on the line the snow had drifted as high as the fences, and the railways had their big plows and corps of men out cutting a way for the trains.

Word was received here this morning that Rev. Dean Mahoney, rector of St. Mary's Cathedral; Rev. Father Brady, of St. Lawrence's Church; Father Coffey, of St. Patrick's; and Father Englert of St. Anne's with a dozen other priests from various parts of the province, who went to Mount Royal to attend the funeral of the late Dean O'Connell yesterday, were snow bound and had to be expedited on the line, which was open for some days. The Hamilton priests will be lucky if they get back for Sunday.

There was a big cooking main at Buffalo last night in which a crowd of Brantford sports were to have taken a prominent part. The sports left Brantford early last evening and reached Hamilton at 1 o'clock this morning. It was impossible to get through to Buffalo in time and they had to turn back.

Street railway officials say that this winter has proved one of the most expensive yet in keeping their lines open. It is estimated that it has cost almost $10,000 so far. The snow that fell yesterday and last night added to the fall of the past week makes it necessary to clean off Herkimer, Lecker, James, King street, east and Barton street. This will give a large number of men employed. The company was not ready to tackle the job to-day, but will begin the first thing in the morning. Secretary Brennan of the Board of Works will go over the line with Foreman Haley this afternoon.

Quite a big storm raged at the Beach all day. The east wind worked the lake up into waves 20 feet high. These were capped with ice and about 300 yards out and every time a wave deposited its load a roar ran along the whole shore, followed by a seething noise as the water ran through the ice and snow. The sight was quite an imposing one.

YOUNG PORTUGUESE KING REVERSES FRANCO'S POLICY.

Restores Freedom of Press and Liberates Prisoners Revolutionists Active.

Lisbon, Feb. 6.—The commission appointed under the dictatorship to replace the elected municipality officials has resigned. Franco's father was attacked by a mob in one of the principal streets yesterday. The King has signed three decrees. One of these repeals the decrees issued by Franco, which restricted the freedom of the press; another repeals a decree issued on Jan. 31st, which suspended the privilege of immunity from prosecution of members of the parliament, and extended the powers of the criminal examining judge. The members of parliament now under arrest will be liberated.

In spite of the present tranquility in the capital and throughout the country and the general optimism as to the immediate future, there are pessimists who believe that revolutionary activity is more widely spread than appears on the surface, and that the situation for the throne is not improved by the combination of a young and inexperienced King, under the domination of an advised mother, with reactionary clerical tendencies, a make-shift ministry and a premier, who is a soldier rather than a statesman.

The pessimists have found an additional argument in the news that Franco, although his downfall is complete, does not intend that the campaign which he undertook against the rotative system of politics shall be abandoned.

He is arranging for the selection of a new leader for the Regenerator-Progressive party that is organized and who shall either be Senor Porto or Senor Remac, respectively the Minister of War

MISS MARGARET B. MCCOY.

PAUL VANE'S WIFE

La Bella Lorraine rose with a glittering smile and faced him. The glasses touched rims, the ruby wine was quaffed, and, standing there in the glow of the fire-light, they drank to the future, and never dreamed how black that future was fated to be.

And there was Eugene Fairlie while this first week of beautiful Lorraine's honeymoon drifted over the sea of love under the burning sun of passion?

He had been carried to Arcady in one of the wedding carriages, and installed in a quiet chamber, where he was attended by his physician and friends.

Lorraine entered the sick room where he lay sleeping the sleep of utter exhaustion that followed upon his momentary return to consciousness of his surroundings. With her luridly flashing eyes, her passionate face, loose dark hair, clinched white teeth, and trailing scarlet robe she looked like some fiery fiend whose mission was destruction and death.

CHAPTER XLIII.

"I dare not let him live, for I suspect that he saw me that night," Lorraine muttered, as she bent over the sleeper, watching the pallid, handsome face and closed eyelids, the thick fringe of the dark lashes lying so heavily on the cheek that it seemed as though death had already claimed him for its own.

CHAPTER XLIV.

Yes, Vivian Vane was trapped. In the very hour when she seemed about to be restored to home and love and her husband's heart, Fate, in the shape of Gordy Hall, had intervened to throw her back into the coils of a cruel destiny.

CHAPTER XLV.

Let them live in their fool's paradise yet a little longer. Let them quaff the full cup of happiness, that they may find how bitter are the lees," he thought, vindictively; yet he kept careful of himself, the truth of Paul's marriage to Lorraine. Bad and cruel as he was, he yet could pity the unhappy Vivian, who had been cheated out of all that made life worth living.

But to Paul Vane there came no such startling fancy. To him she was the embodiment of all grace, all beauty, all purity. The man, usually calm, self-centred and self-reliant, had been drawn out of and beyond himself by the intoxication of Lorraine's fervent love.

RAILWAY CROSSINGS

SENATE COMMITTEE CONSIDERING MR. LANCASTER'S BILL.

Objections by the Railways to the Enforcement of the Measure—Would Prevent Running of Fast Trains and Cause Serious Loss of Business.

Ottawa, Feb. 5.—The Senate Railway Committee this morning considered Mr. Lancaster's bill to compel railways to protect all crossings in thickly populated localities or reduce the speed of their trains.

The railways companies put up a strenuous argument against the bill, which, it is evident, will have a hard fight to get through, although the sentiment of the committee seems much more favorable than in previous sessions.

The case of the Grand Trunk was presented by Mr. T. H. Chrysler, C. C., who objected that the bill, as passed by the Commons, would compel railways to make changes on a very large number of level crossings within a year, or have to face the alternative of reducing the speed of their trains.

Another important point was that the reduction of the speed of fast freight trains would deprive the Canadian roads of a large quantity of traffic in fresh meats and fruit, which would go to the United States roads. He pointed out that cattle trains now went through to Montreal in 24 hours. If the bill were enforced this would be impossible, and the cattle would have to be taken out of the cars, fed and watered, with the result that the business would go to the American roads, which would not be hampered by similar regulations.

The length of the freight trains would also have to be reduced. The C. P. R. had 1,375 and the G. T. R. 785 crossings which would be affected by the bill. The installation of gates cost at least a thousand dollars, and it cost about a thousand dollars a year each to maintain them, so that the problem which the railways had to face was apparent. The fact was that the passage of the bill would mean an expenditure by the railways of at least $30,000,000.

Mr. Chrysler argued that this was a matter which should be left to the Railway Commission, a body which knew what it was doing. In the west villages had grown up after the railways had done there, and he argued that in such cases the municipalities should bear at least a share of the cost of providing such protection as was required by the bill.

Mr. G. A. Mountain, chief engineer of the Railway Commission, stated that the commission was looking into the matter of protection at railway crossings. In the past three years its officers had examined and reported upon 503 crossings, and had ordered bells, gates or subways at most of them. To install a bell cost about $300; to put up a set of double gates about $700, while the cost of maintenance was about $1,000 a year. As an example of what the bill would involve he cited the case of the subway at Bank street, in Ottawa, which cost $75,000. In the case of all new railways, the highway crossing plans were referred to the municipal authorities, and permission was not given to the railway to construct until the permission of the municipality had been secured. With the present staff it would take the commission several years to examine all the level crossings, but the number inspected was increasing every year. Each crossing ought to be dealt with on its merits.

Mr. Dillinger, traffic officer of the Railway Commission, said that to reduce the speed of a passenger train to ten miles an hour meant a minimum loss of time of three minutes, while in the case of freight trains it was twice as much. With ninety crossings between Montreal and Toronto, the increase in time for passenger trains would be from four to five hours.

Mr. Charles Drinkwater, speaking for the C. P. R., pointed out that his company had on the route a fast train, the Overseas Limited, to compete with the Suez Canal route to the Orient. This was scheduled to make the distance across the continent in, first, 100 hours; then 84 hours, and now it had been reduced to 72 hours. If that train were compelled to reduce its speed to ten miles at crossings, it would mean going back to the 100-hour basis, and this would inevitably result in the loss of the British mail contract.

Senator Beique, in view of the large interests affected, suggested an amendment, which would give the Railway Board power to make exceptions to the ten-mile rule, and fix the speed of trains at any rate which they might think wise at any particular crossing for any particular train at any particular time of the day. But the committee rose before the amendment could be considered, and it will be taken up at the next meeting of the committee.

G. T. R. Conductor Arrested.

Montreal, Feb. 5.—W. F. Bottomley, conductor of the G. T. R. freight train which was run into at St. Martin Junction and killed Engineer Symonds, was arrested for manslaughter. He pleads not guilty. The charge is that he had not protected his train by lights.

FIERCE STORM

Cleveland, Feb. 6.—The fierce storm of wind, snow, hail and sleet that raged over this section of the country for 24 hours finally subsided early to-day, after causing widespread destruction to telegraph, telephone and trolley lines. Practically all the trains from the east were from two to three and one-half hours late this morning, as a re-sult of the storm and the prostration of wires.

GOT THE APPOINTMENT.

The Railway Passenger Assurance Co. of London, Eng., has made an important appointment. Mr. Geo. R. Haslewood has been made agent for this city, notice of which appears in this issue. This company takes ac-cident, sickness, liability, elevator and other insurance at prices astonishingly low. It has paid over $300,000.00 in claims, and is a very strong finan-cial concern. Mr. Haslewood will be glad to give all information at his office, 37 James street south.

What We Miss.

We travel round for rest and change. To see the sights accounted strange; In frenzied chaos we spend our days And all the dollars we spend our days In Spain and Mexico and France, And everywhere we have a chance, In every far and foreign land, But miss the wonders close at hand.

That isn't anyway to act, We might do better, for a fact, By holding in some small regard The wonders in our neighbor's yard— His hen so roosting on the bay, That it turns out three eggs a day, The yellow rooster down the block, That answers nicely for a clock.

The mission traveler, perhaps, Made by some interested chap Just with a knife and an old sly, Some small assistance from old St. Or, right beneath our very hand, Hand painted china, very grand, Worth 30 cents, which one would art, Our wives with twenty had to part.

But, no, we miss the things at home And fly to Athens, Nice and Rome, Or down to see Niagara Falls Or some one's grand ancestral halls, Or take a trip to gay Paris, Or see the lights and wonders great to see, Go clanking down the old world beat, And miss the wonders at our feet.

Favorite Drinks of Statesmen.

Gladstone liked egg, milk and sherry. While speaking, Bismarck has been known to drink two dozen glasses of moselle and beer. Von Bulow likes a glass of champagne. Mr. Balfour prefers whiskey and soda. Lord St. Alders (Sir Michael Hicks-Beach) sticks to port. Henry Clay preferred rye. Daniel Webster took bourbon all his life. The Fairbanks' cocktail is already famous. But as for Senator Davis, we refrain from mentioning what he likes.

Stocks and Bonds

(From A. E. Carpenter, Stock Broker, 102 King Street East.)

New York, Feb. 6.—The market during the morning was about a character which might have been anticipated in view of confusion of sentiment which exists at the present time. Western houses have been sellers of stocks on early information of poor railroad earnings which are regarded by some Eastern interests as discounted. Some offerings of Amal. came from arbitrage houses. There was buying of good quality in U. P., R. D. G., Steel and A. R. with influential offerings in N. P. and U. P., Reading and Copper. Some indications of improved business in Copper and Steel are available. Stock prices are very low in many instances and the floating supply is not large. The persistent appearance of political agitation with reference especially to the manner of doing business in Wall street, the tariff and identity of candidates for the presidency is a factor which must be fully taken into account. On fair recessions we think stocks should prove a purchase for speculative turns.—Ennis & Stoppani.

BLACK DIAMOND.

Lehigh Valley Co's. Announcement Re Its Withdrawal Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—The Lehigh Valley Railroad Co., in a statement announcing the withdrawal on Feb. 9 of its famous "Black Diamond" express train, says: "Recent legislation in the State of Pennsylvania, with which the public is familiar, together with the legislation and administrative rulings of other States and the Federal Government, have only resulted in a considerable loss of revenue, but has, in affecting the management of train service generally, tended to increase the expense of operation. It is the hope of the company that the conditions will so change in the near future as to warrant the reinstating the service."

SURE OF LIFE.

Fate Suddenly Contradicts Jolly Boast of a Woman. Phoenixville, Pa., Feb. 6.—A few seconds after she had laughed at the fears for her health expressed by her friends, Mrs. Emma Emboldy, of this place, was suddenly seized with heart failure, and died while being conveyed to a physician's office.

PROMOTER AND ORGANIZER WITH MANY LIABILITIES MISSING.

New York, Feb. 6.—Search was instituted to-day for Charles W. Morse, formerly of Bath, Me., promoter and organizer of the American Ice Co., and the $120,000,000 Consolidated Steamship Company. Mr. Morse was not at his handsome home at 728 Fifth avenue, this city, yesterday, and he is not known to have been in the city since Monday, and may have left town earlier. With a judgment for $15,753 against him, a judgment for $253,321 brought against him by the receiver of the National Bank of North America, his home mortgaged in addition attached to cover the amount sued for; his accounts in several New York banks attached; his holdings of bank stock greatly depreciated, and two grand juries investigating his relations with the banks, he faced a condition

MUSICIANS AND PLAYERS

Manager Driscoll has secured for Bennett's next week that charming comedy actress, Miss Clayton. Miss Clayton is playing in Montreal this week, and has been given a very hearty reception. Her vehicle will be a comedy, entitled "What's in a Name," and in it she has ample scope for the display of her talents. The Boston Fadette Woman's Orchestra is the headliner next week, and all lovers of concerted music will flock to hear it.

The theatre has been filled all this week. Last night a large number of the employees of R. McKay & Co. occupied orchestra chairs and the balcony. To-night the theatre will be patronized by the employees of the Eagle Knitting Co. The popularity of Miss Lewis' hospital scheme is undiminished, and the large enquiry for seats is a good indication that the theatre will be filled in the same way as it has been for many weeks past.

This week "The Futurity Winner" has been found satisfactory by all who have seen it. The elements of excitement, pathos and humor which make up a good comedy are all well mingled in it. The race between the favorite and two other Kentucky racers is, without a doubt, one of the most skillfully contrived pieces of mechanism ever put upon a vaudeville or other stage. Schroeder and Mulvey, with their fierce circus of monkeys, bears and dogs, and an anteater, have proved most attractive, while Lola Cotton is a living enigma. The remainder of the bill has attracted a good deal of attention.

and artistic sketch, "David Garrick," in which Henry E. Dixey, assisted by Marie Nordstrom, appears. Two numbers that swept the house with hilarity were Ferrie Corwey, the English musical clown, and Elsie Graham's rollicking funny sketch, "A Matrimonial Bizzard." This skit is sufficiently rich in swiftly moving incidents to keep the entertainment running to the finish. It is undeniably a valuable laughing number, with strong comedy values. The rest of the bill pressed in every particular. It included Carson Brothers, marvels of grace and skill; Paul and Healy, clever singers and dancers; the Jolly Prices, colored entertainers, with a snappy little offering; Delmo, the juggler, and the pictures.

The amateur night entertainment which will follow the regular performance to-morrow evening promises to pack the house to capacity. The advance sale has been unusually large, and there are not a score of competitors, insuring an interesting programme. Variety is plenty is promised, the list including a musical act, illustrated songs, club swinging, a roller skating turn, comedians, vocalists and dancers.

The next week's big features will be the appearance of Huber, Wilkes and company in a sketch entitled "Remembrance," and said to be one of the cleverest little plays in vaudeville.

The Choir Singer.
"The Choir Singer," the attraction at the Grand next Saturday, matinee and night, should attract all lovers of the popular price drama, as the play is a good one. The scenes of the play are laid in Virginia and New York. An interesting complication in the heart story which is centered in the heroine and the young parson of the old church in which Alice has for many years led the choir is most naturally brought about through the jealousy of the parson's elderly sister, who, a spinster herself, does not propose to allow any other woman to take her place at the head of her brother's household.

The Spending Sex.
(Philadelphia Record.)
It was a woman who defined the masculine portion of humanity as the bill-paying sex. Miss Ida Tarbell enunciated the counterpart of that epigram when, in addressing the Consumers' League in New York, she said:
"It would not be far out of the way to say that woman's chief economical function is spending money, but the American woman has not learned to exercise this important function satisfactorily. Her usual plan is to take all the money she can get and spend it as she happens to. I think if we could analyze the cause of most financial perils here we should find that they were caused by the failure of American women to spend their money wisely and well."
The great truth that woman's chief economical function is spending money was expressed some time ago by a lecturing dressmaker, who, of course, was inciting her hearers to buy clothes, and who described parading the streets in a number, but refrains from so doing as I wish to do him no injury. As I have before said, the glaring inconsistency of this company is so apparent that any fair-minded citizen can see that in the prosecution of my self yesterday I went far of the mark to establish myself as a friend of the public. It has apparently reached a stage in this city when this octopus has become a dictator to the citizens as to how or where they shall sit or stand on a public conveyance. Such despotism only belongs to the dark ages, or the serfdom of Russia, and I hope that citizens generally will lend me some support in enforcing our rights and in a cause that should be considered for the general good. Yours truly,
Harry Brown.

Roselle Knott in Toronto.
Toronto, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Ernest Shipman, professionally known as Roselle Knott, arrived in the city yesterday from New York, to attend her husband, who is registered at the King Edward, and who has been suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis. Dr. Elliott, who is in close attendance, announces that the patient is rapidly improving, and will be about town in a day or two.

Demson Company, Toronto; Amateur Orchestra Society, Montreal; Canadian Conservatory of Music Orchestra, Ottawa; Burlington Pickwick Club, Burlington; and Ottawa Players' Club.

Elgar Choir Concert.
The Hamilton concert of the Elgar Choir promises to be one of the most interesting in the existence of the chorus. The Brahms' number, "The Dirge of Dardanus," is a departure from which much is expected. Brahms is among our most modern composers, but already he has been assigned a place with the greatest of them all. His choral works are so exacting on the choirs and make such demands on interpretive ability that they have but rarely received a recognition worthy of them. He has a marvelous talent for producing strange, new effects by wonderful changes of harmony, such as are only possible with unaccompanied voices. His most conspicuous trait is his partiality for clothing folk songs with peculiar harmonies, conflicting rhythms and themes. Opus 42, No. 3, of which is the Dirge, ranks among his best efforts. It is the wail of a barbaric lament. The Dirge has order and the tonal beauty and renowned woman of antiquity. The theme is peculiarly adapted to Brahms' temperament.

Nothing is better established in economic than the theoretical efficiency resulting from the division of labor. The allotment to men of the function of earning money and to women that of disbursing it is amply satisfactory to the women, and in the main adds contentment to the men. They are fond of getting the money, and if the family expenses are too high as they always seem to be when the bills come in, the men can have the comfort of laying the blame upon the hereditary propensity of Adam. But can the spending of money by women be described as an "economical function?"

When Knighthood Was in Flower.
When Miss Grace Merritt appears as Mary Tudor in "When Knighthood Was in Flower," at the Grand next Monday, local playgoers, it is said, will have the opportunity of witnessing a young artist who is credited with having made a great success. Mary Tudor is not the conventional heroine of the romantic drama. Hers is a character full of contradictions, at times a perfect shrew, then a woman most lovable; now haughty as the princess and sister of a king should be, then, finding her heart lost to a man beneath her station, though noble in character, giving it to him in all its fulness, and fighting for him with all the power of her passionate nature. In every phase of this tumultuous nature Miss Merritt is said to be good, and gradually tightens her hold on the sympathies of her audience. Miss Merritt is ably supported by Joseph Selman and a carefully chosen company. Seats will be on sale to-morrow.

At the Savoy.
Big business at the Savoy again last night was a tribute to the worth of the programme provided at that popular playhouse this week. The agents of the Frost Wire Fence Company, who are holding a convention in the city, to the number of two hundred and fifty were present, and the visitors enjoyed the entertainment with the keenest delight. Particularly was this true of the dairy

JUMPED DITCH
And Started to Climb a Mountain In An Auto.
Mr. John G. Appleton, manager, and Mr. William Stroud, proprietor of the Savoy Theatre, who just returned from New York yesterday, where they have been on business in connection with the theatre, had a thrilling experience while riding from Gotham to Yonkers in an automobile. The gasoline car in which they were travelling was breaking the speed laws on a driveway close to the East River, when another car in front of it, which had been going at a fast clip, bucked. There was not time to stop. It was a case of going over the embankment and into the river or jumping a ditch and climbing a little mountain. Hamilton is so proud. The river did not look good to Manager Appleton. "Don't," he commanded, when the chauffeur looked that way. The party took the ditch in a jump and went several feet up the mountain side without a spill. The car was not damaged, and a few minutes later they were whirling on to Yonkers.

Parties Roller Skating.
At this season of the year when parties of all kinds are quite the proper thing, the Alexandra is proving to be a popular place for roller skating parties again, as it was last year. Skating at one of the regular sessions as a purely nice way to give a party and as refreshments can be arranged for at the rink one need not disturb the home regulations in any way. Just do the whole thing at the Alexandra, and be happy. To-morrow night there will be eighteen skating numbers, making a special all skate session at which every one will be able to enjoy themselves. Complete tickets now on sale, only a limited number to be sold.

next season. Mr. Morris was in the old country three days before a cable reached America that he was there. The opposition offices seemed to awaken to the fact that Morris meant business, and that the talk of the circuit, which has been practically organized, although the details are being kept secret, was something more than a boosting scheme for his booking office.

YOUR LAST CHANCE FOR THIS SEASON

It is a well known fact that we carry the choicest stock of Shoes in the city.
It is a well known popular fact that we do a "one-price-to-all" business. The price is marked on the sole in plain figures on all of our Shoes as soon as we receive them, consequently even if we wished to do so we could not change the price in order to have a so-called "reduction sale."

STOCK TAKING—On the 10th of this month we commence our annual stock-taking. In order to reduce our stock as much as possible we have decided to have a ONE WEEK DISCOUNT SALE. From now until we close shop on Saturday night we will allow a discount of ten per cent. off all purchases for SPOT CASH. Everything in the store is included in this sale excepting "Sporadic Shoes," which will remain at regular prices. Bear in mind that this is a SPOT CASH SALE. Any goods charged will be entered at regular prices and no discount allowed.

GENUINE—We consider that the public can get more GENUINE VALUE at this sale than they can get at any so-called twenty-five per cent. reduction sale, and you have a large and up-to-date stock to select from. All Shoes where we have but a couple of pairs of a kind will be offered at cost.

All sizes in FIRST QUALITY Rubbers now in stock.

HERE'S A CASE. Mr. Harry Brown Says Something Worth Thinking Over.

To the Editor of the Times:
Sir,—As one having gained considerable unsought-for notoriety in last night's Hamilton papers in the case of the Hamilton Street Railway vs. Harry Brown, the particulars of which it is unnecessary for me here to recite, I wish to draw your attention and that of the public at large to the glaring inconsistencies of this so-called Street Railway Company and its servants. The ladies and two gentlemen. The ladies took their seats in the car, making ten inside passengers, whilst the gentlemen occupied standing room on the vestibule without protest from the conductor. I can give you the names of the conductor, number, but refrain from so doing as I wish to do him no injury. As I have before said, the glaring inconsistency of this company is so apparent that any fair-minded citizen can see that in the prosecution of my self yesterday I went far of the mark to establish myself as a friend of the public. It has apparently reached a stage in this city when this octopus has become a dictator to the citizens as to how or where they shall sit or stand on a public conveyance. Such despotism only belongs to the dark ages, or the serfdom of Russia, and I hope that citizens generally will lend me some support in enforcing our rights and in a cause that should be considered for the general good. Yours truly,
Harry Brown.

and the Minister of Public Works in the cabinet that has just retired.
This means the continuation of the three-cornered struggle from which the republicans expect to derive benefit in the future as they have in the past. Franco's admirers believe that it means his dramatic re-entry on the political scene at an opportune moment.
King Manuel has expressed in the strongest terms his determination to adhere unswervingly to the constitution and never under any circumstances to resort to a dictatorship while he reigns.

It is learned that King Carlos held, among other policies on his life, one with the New York Life Insurance Co. for $25,000, one with the Usabne Co. of Paris, for $30,000, and one in a South American company for $50,000.
Told to King Edward.
London, Feb. 6.—King Edward heard the story of the Lisbon tragedy last night from the Marquis de Soveral, the Portuguese Minister who made part of the fatal journey with King Carlos. The Minister reached London last evening, having left Lisbon on Sunday night with messages from the newly proclaimed King Manuel and Queen Amelie to King Edward.
As soon as he reached the Portuguese Legation the Marquis de Soveral was summoned to dinner at Grosvenor Palace. At the table he recounted the events at Lisbon before he left that city. He had been with the royal family at Villa Viscoia, and returned to Lisbon with them, crossing the Tagus on the same steamer.
He bade farewell at the landing and drove to his hotel. Five minutes later he heard the news of the assassination.
The Marquis had nothing to add to the interviews he gave in Paris. Speaking, however, of the visit of the British ships to Lagos, he said it had been the intention of King Carlos to review them.
Suspect Arrested.
Sarasagosa, Spain, Feb. 6.—A Portuguese named Laureano Figueira was arrested yesterday as he was leaving a train from Madrid. The authorities maintain the strictest secrecy, but it is understood that the prisoner was implicated in the murder of the King and the Crown Prince.

TOOK CHILD AND GUN TO BUSH. Heard Her Lover Suicide.

New Brunswick Farmer Disappears After Quarrel With Wife.
Hartland, N. B., Feb. 5.—According to accounts from Upper Knoxford, near Centreville, a most distressing affair occurred there a few days ago. Mr. Richard Gray, a farmer, aged about 50, had a dispute with his wife, who exclaimed: "I never want to see your face again!" whereupon Gray seized the newly-born child of his daughter, and taking a gun, started to leave the house. His wife succeeded in getting the gun from him, but he again got possession of the weapon, and with the child, started for the woods. He has not been seen since. Deputy Sheriff Foster has been searching for him, but so far without success.

DIED A JOLLY DEATH. Joke Provoked Fatal to a Girl, Who Expired Laughing.

New York, Feb. 5.—Hearty laughing caused the sudden death yesterday afternoon of Lena Dulitz, twenty years old, in her home, No. 85 Manhattan avenue, Williamsburg. The girl had always a habit of laughing heartily, and while she was seated at the dinner table one of her relatives told a story which provoked a laugh, in which the girl joined.
A moment later Miss Dulitz gasped and fell from her chair. She was pronounced dead on the arrival of Ambulance Surgeon Reilly from St. Catherine's Hospital.

Kashmir Electricity.

The Vale of Kashmir is one of the spots on the earth that poetry has fixed most conspicuously in the imagination, and the thought of its invasion by the electric engineer must forcibly strike every reader with a sort of surprise. It is reported that the electric plant designed for the upper part of the Jhelum river, which flows through the celebrated valley, will be the most important undertaking of the kind in India. It is expected to produce 20,000-horse power. It will light the city of Srinagar and heat the silk factory at that place, said to be the largest in the world. It will also work a wool factory, and operate a dredging fleet on the Jhelum. Of 147,256 babies born in Pennsylvania in 1907 over 87,000 were boys.

GOOD MEETINGS IN LAYMEN'S CAMPAIGN.

Fine Turnout of the Ladies In Centenary Church Yesterday Afternoon.

Mass Meeting In Association Hall and Young People's Gathering In St. Paul's Church.

There was a splendid attendance at the meeting of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in the Association Hall last evening.

The object is not for the purpose of raising money directly, but for the purpose of instilling into the men the right idea concerning missions.

Mr. Patterson gave the experiences of the business men in Toronto in connection with the movement. He said the meeting was being taken up with enthusiasm.

During the afternoon, Mr. W. H. Hewlett gave a number of short pieces on the organ and Miss Adeline Smith rendered a solo in her artistic manner.

He hoped that when the close of 1908 arrived, Hamilton and Toronto and all the other cities, towns and villages could join hands and congratulate themselves on having passed the mark set by each municipality.

Mr. Ellis' talk was largely in regard to the work done by young people's societies—particularly the Y. D. S. C. E. He said the present laymen's movement was really born in a society of this kind.

At the conclusion of his address, Mr. White called for general discussion on the subject by the audience, and many spoke, giving their views on the matter.

When put to a vote it was unanimously decided to form a branch here, and the following officers were elected for the first year.

Centenary Church was filled yesterday afternoon at the Women's mass meeting in connection with the Laymen's Missionary Movement.

Mr. A. T. Connell, who accompanied the body of his brother-in-law, the late Mr. E. J. Kerruish, from Winnipeg, gives authentic reports of his death.

Mr. White, in the course of a few remarks, said that no doubt an explanation was due the ladies as to why the meetings of the Laymen's Missionary Movement were being held for men only.

BUREAU OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Enormous Loss Sustained From Preventable Diseases.

Dr. Black Brings Up the Subject in the House.

Some Appalling Statements Made By Doctors.

Ottawa, Feb. 5.—Some startling revelations as to the ravages in Canada of preventable diseases were made in the House to-day in the course of a discussion on a motion by Dr. Black for the establishment of a national bureau of public health.

Mr. C. H. Lovell, the new member for St. Catharines, was introduced by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Brodeur, and took his seat amid the cheers of the Liberal members.

Mr. Gervais introduced a bill to amend the criminal code by providing that defamatory libel and other indictable offences may be tried, with the consent of both parties, without a jury. The bill was read a first time.

Quebec Bridge Subsidies.

Mr. Monk moved a resolution to appoint a select committee of seven members to investigate the conditions and guarantee under which the Government has paid money to the Quebec Bridge Company, and to ascertain what measures were adopted by the Government to insure the preparation of suitable plans of construction of the bridge, and of the sums already received and the guarantees given to the company.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that while he was not prepared to admit the general principle that special committees should perform the work which had been entrusted to the House, he thought the subject which Mr. Monk had brought up was a proper one for investigation.

On both sides of the House they were committed to the construction of the bridge at Quebec. Accordingly he agreed to the resolution. The resolution was carried.

Preventable Diseases.

Dr. Black moved the following resolution: "That the time has arrived when the Government of Canada should perfect organization whereby present sanitary knowledge should be made practically available for the suppression of preventable diseases."

Dr. Black declared that Government control and a properly organized Federal bureau of public health were the keynote of success in the prevention of disease. The first question was, "Could certain diseases be prevented?" and his answer was decidedly, "Yes." He pointed out what had been done in the direction of reducing the ravages of such diseases as typhoid fever, leprosy, smallpox and tuberculosis, and especially emphasized the need of a properly organized campaign against typhoid fever. He maintained it would cost less to keep their drinking wells clean than the loss occasioned by typhoid fever. He had estimated that in the United States typhoid fever alone cost annually $185,000,000. According to population that would mean that the cost to Canada by typhoid fever was about $5,500,000 a year.

Mr. Hodgett had stated that smallpox had cost the Province of Ontario two millions in the last ten years. It had also been estimated that one-third of the deaths from the disease were preventable. In Canada the average number of deaths from preventable disease was about every year 27,000 people were unnecessarily lost to Canada, which needed citizens as much as any country in the world.

At the valuation that a citizen's worth to the State is $1,000, there was lost to Canada from preventable disease every year $2,000,000, probably more than was paid in Canada.

Referring to infant mortality, Dr. Black stated that more than a third, and only a little less than a half, of the deaths in Canada from disease occurred within five years of age, and there were 3,000 more deaths annually under the fifth year than from the fifth to the fifty-fourth year. More than half of the deaths of children were caused by impure milk and impure food.

"The essence of sanitary science," continued Dr. Black, "is to show that the average death-rate could be reduced by one-third; infant mortality could be reduced by one-half, and germ diseases, like smallpox, diphtheria, etc., could be practically stamped out entirely under proper sanitary conditions."

The Government were now spending about half a million per year in looking after disease among Canadian livestock, but in respect to protecting human beings against disease the Federal Government were now doing nothing more than maintaining several quarantine stations and two lazarettos. Were not human beings, he asked, of more importance than animals? A central Federal health bureau could cooperate with the Provincial bureau and could accomplish much work that the Provincial or municipal authorities could not undertake. As head of such a Federal bureau he would have a permanent commissioner, who was a medical scientist of the highest rank, and who would undertake the work of the department with the enthusiastic support of Parliament.

Dr. Chisholm (East Huron), in seconding the resolution, emphatically endorsed the statement that under proper sanitary conditions germ diseases could be effectively stamped out. To accomplish this the principal thing needed was popular education as to some of the fundamental principles of sanitary science.

Ignorance of the laws of health was the greatest cause of the present appalling "slaughter of the innocents." The Government were spending hundreds of thousands of dollars to bring into the country half-crazy Russians and other undesirable immigrants, but no heed was paid to saving the lives of Canadian children, who were now being sacrificed to public apathy and ignorance respecting disease. Dealing particularly with the question of tuberculosis, Dr. Chisholm noted that if every sanitarium in Canada to-day were filled to its fullest capacity, there would still be forty-nine out of every fifty victims of the disease outside sanitariums spreading the disease among their fellows. If the public were properly taught how to deal with the disease, it could be easily eradicated from the country.

Dr. Chisholm introduced a bill to amend the Criminal Code by providing that defamatory libel and other indictable offences may be tried, with the consent of both parties, without a jury.

Do You Admire a Perfect Woman?

Who doesn't envy and admire a perfect woman. After all, her perfection and charm have a commonplace origin, for the secret of her loveliness is health. To be beautiful a woman must eat well, digest well, sleep well. Harmony must be maintained throughout her delicate organism—intricate functions must be vigorous and regular. Physicians say that of all woman's remedies, Ferrozone is the best. It vitalizes those functions upon which life depends. Pure blood is the secret of all, and it is the purest and richest kind, and plenty of it that Ferrozone makes. Think of it, a beautiful complexion, pure and spotless as the lily—that's one effect of Ferrozone. Sallowness and headaches disappear—tiredness in the morning gives way to vigor and strength—the nerves are given endurance—angular hollow places gradually take on flesh, and the symmetry of the body results. No woman or girl, however young or old, whether in sickness or health can afford to miss the benefit of so good a remedy as Ferrozone. Sold in 50c boxes or six for $2.50 at all dealers.

ASKS ONLY JUSTICE.

Argument for Defence at the Stoesel Trial.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 5.—Deputy Syrtlanoff, counsel for Lieut. General Stoesel, pleaded to-day before the court-martial that is trying the general on the charge of having surrendered Port Arthur to the Japanese for the full acquittal of his client. The speech was in reply to the summing up of Judge-Advocate General Gursky for the prosecution yesterday. Counsel for Stoesel laid emphasis on Russia's general unpreparedness for war, and said that Port Arthur under General Stoesel resisted heroically, repulsed all the attacks made by the Japanese, and surrendered only when it was as good as taken.

PARLOR CAR BURNED.

Peculiar Accident on the Grand Trunk Railway.

Ottawa, Feb. 5.—The parlor car on the G. T. R. train leaving Ottawa at 4.45 this afternoon was practically destroyed by fire between Vaudeville and Montreal. An explosion of gas is supposed to have started it. The passengers had a hasty retreat into the baggage cars, and west of Dorval the car was cut off. The crew shovelled in snow in an attempt to put out the fire, but in vain, and the accident will cost the company some $30,000. The cook lost everything, including his money, while the conductor in walking to Dorval station was hit by frost-bitten.

NOW AM WELL

THANKS TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Eli, Manitoba. I wish to state, for the sake of others who may be sufferers like I was, that I suffered from severe indigestion and constipation for years and that there was also womb trouble with unpleasant pains in my back which made me miserable, constantly. I tried physicians and took many remedies but I got no relief. I was induced to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I can truly say this was the first medicine that ever did me any good. "Fruit-a-tives" quickly relieved the constipation and indigestion and completely cured me of all symptoms of womb trouble. I cannot express too strongly my great gratitude to this medicine as I am as well now in every way as ever I was, thanks to "Fruit-a-tives". I can strongly recommend "Fruit-a-tives", it is easy to take and the effect is always mild like fruit.

(Sgd) Mrs. M. BREILAND. Many women suffer with what the doctors call "Womb Trouble"—"Diseased Ovaries"—"Female Complaints" etc.—when Constipation is causing all the pain. Cure the liver and make the bowels move regularly with "Fruit-a-tives" and the "Womb Trouble" will be cured at the same time. "Fruit-a-tives"—or "Fruit Liver Tablets" are sold by dealers at 50c a box—6 for $2.50—or will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

BEATEN BY SON.

AN AGED WOMAN DIED OF HER INJURIES.

Investigation Held in Nova Scotia Village at Instance of Pastor Reveals a Terrible Story—Given One Year and a Half.

Halifax, Feb. 5.—An investigation held to-day at Ohio, a village about seven miles from Yarmouth, disclosed a shocking state of affairs. Three weeks ago an aged woman named Caroline Hilton complained to the stipendiary magistrate that she had been beaten by her son Ebenezer, who used an axe handle as the implement of punishment. He was immediately apprehended and on trial was found guilty and sentenced to a year and a half in the common jail.

On Friday last the woman died, and Rev. Mr. Saunders, pastor of the Baptist Church at Ohio, refused to bury her until an inquest had been held. Accordingly Coroner A. M. Perrin, M. D., was summoned and held an inquest to-day.

Three witnesses were examined, the wife of Ebenezer Hilton, his daughter and the husband of the latter. The evidence showed that the son had beaten his mother into insensibility, had dragged her over the frozen ground, and kicked her. It was furthermore brought out that he had threatened to take her life. The evidence established the fact that the woman had never revived after her terrible ordeal.

The jury found that death had been caused by the beating received at the hands of her son, together with subsequent neglect, and recommended that the Attorney-General should immediately take the matter up.

WRECK AT RIDGETOWN.

Tire Slipped on One of the Driving Wheels.

St. Thomas, Feb. 5.—A wreck on the M. C. R. at Ridgetown last night caused the derailment of twenty-five cars and the tender of the engine, and five cars were demolished. The cause of the wreck was the slipping of a tire on one of the engine's drivers, jarring the train, breaking the drawbar between the engine and tender, and causing the spreading of the rails. Fireman Joseph Underhill, St. Thomas, was thrown off the engine and was rescued from almost certain death by Engineer Allen, who grabbed Underhill and pulled him from where he was hanging on the back of the engine to the cab.

As he did so he opened wide the throttle to prevent their being crushed by the oncoming cars, and the engine ran away going as far as Mull, where she "died." Allen and Underhill, who tried to reverse the engine but failed, jumped, escaping with a few bruises.

A MAN BADLY FROZEN.

He Partly Undressed and Lay Down in a Field.

Bolton, Feb. 4.—With the thermometer down to zero and a cutting north wind blowing, George Hepworth on Saturday night lay out on the snow. Hepworth, who is an employee at the Bolton Woollen Mills, which with the boarding houses are situated about three-quarters of a mile from the village, left one of the local hotels at about 12 o'clock on Saturday night. He wandered into a field at the outskirts of the village and took off his overcoat, overcoat, hat and mitts, and lay down to sleep.

Towards morning some neighbors about four hundred yards away heard cries of distress, and went to his assistance. He was carried to the nearest house, where Dr. Lepper was immediately summoned. The doctor found Hepworth's feet badly frozen to the ankles, and his hands to the wrists; also his ears.

La Grippe Cured

When Doctor's Prescriptions Failed, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Limes and Turpentine Cured the Malady.

The present weather is "playing hob" with the people. La Grippe is prevalent, notwithstanding the efforts to avoid it. This is easily understood. Wet feet, alternate days of sunshine, snow and rain, cold street cars, overheat- ing of offices and homes, each contribute their quota of sick ones. "People live not without hope," however, as there is within their reach Dr. Chase's Syrup of Limes and Turpentine, which has repeatedly cured persons of La Grippe. Don't accept our word as the only guarantee for the truth of the above statement, but consider the testimonials of thousands of people who have been benefited by it. Mrs. R. Hutton, 22 Claremont street, Toronto, says: "A year ago I had a bad attack of la grippe and all the doctor's prescriptions proved of no avail. I was told to try Dr. Chase's Syrup of Limes and Turpentine and found it a great blessing, as it thoroughly cured me. I would not be without it in the house for many times its cost." Get the genuine limes and turpentine, bearing the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for Dr. Chase's 1908 Calendar Almanac.

How Camphor is Made.

'To make camphor,' said a returned traveller, 'you put in chips at one hole, and out of another hold you draw the crude product, in coarse white grains, like salt.'

Wherever camphor trees grow you will find camphor distilleries. They are low buildings of mud brick and their odor is so aromatic that it can be detected two miles off.

In each building there are a dozen fires. On each fire is a kettle of boiling water, with a perforated lid. Fitted to the top of this kettle is an iron cylinder, filled with camphor chips of the size of your little finger. Fitted to the top of the cylinder is an empty inverted jar.

There is your whole apparatus—a simple thing, which works simply. The steam of the boiling water passing up camphor wood its oil. This oil, mounting still upward with the steam, settles like brine on the sides of the inverted jar at the top. This brine, when the fire goes out, dries into a substance like frost or snow.

'White and aromatic, the frostlike substance is the crude camphor. It is scraped off the sides of the jar and refined and pressed into those attractive balls and cubes that you buy at a high price everywhere.'

'Pretty, But Did They Mean it? Wrinkles disfigure a woman less than ill-nature—Duppy. Two smiles that approach each other end in a kiss.—Victor Hugo.

To a gentleman every woman is a lady in right of her sex.—Lytton. All the reasons of men are not worth one sentiment of woman.—Voltaire. Women may be pardoned for lack of common sense. The culprit in them is the heart.—Stall.

A woman seldom tender to a man than immediately after she has deceived him.—Anonymous. If Cleopatra's nose had been shorter, the face of the whole world would have been changed.—Pascal. Women, deceived by men, want to marry them; it is a kind of revenge, as good as any other.—Beaumont. A man must be a fool who does not succeed in making a woman believe that which flatters her.—Balzac. I have seen faces of women that were fair to look upon, yet one could see that the icicles were forming around these women's hearts. A woman is happy and attains all that she desires when she captivates a man; hence the object of her life is to master the art of captivating men.—Tolstoy.

The life of a woman can be divided into three epochs. In the first she dreams of love, in the second she experiences it, in the third she regrets it.—Sainte-Prospere.
