FARM TO SELL—Situate within two miles of the Town of Guelph, being Lots 5 and 6, 2nd concession, Division D, Township of Guelph, containing 96 acres, of which from 70 to 80 are cleared and mostly watered place affords. There were some half-dozen pleasure wagons all well fitted. We hope they will have a pleasant time.

WILKINS vs. HASTINGS—This case was tried at the Galt District Court before Judge Miller. It arose out of a serious runaway that took place in Galt during last winter, when the horses of Mr. Hastings, of Wellesley, ran away from the Dumfries Mills, and in their course down Main Street running against several of the verandahs which had been erected and committing other damage. From running against the post of Mr. Wilkins' verandah one of the horses was killed. This was brought to recover the amount of damages done to the verandah. The evidence relates chiefly to the verandah, which the horses were seen to strike before they broke loose. Judgment was held over.

MURDEROUS ATTACK—A most brutal assault took place at Newry, on Thursday evening of last week. A number of persons were present, and after partaking freely of "potheen," a quarrel took place between Henry Porterfield and Henry Stephenson, but after considerable jangling all were quieted down. At this time Mr. Stephenson and Mr. Peitman, foreman of the gravel pit near Newry, thought it advisable to leave. They got out a short distance when they were overtaken by Henry Porterfield and John Hocking, who most brutally and cowardly struck them over the head with clubs, knocking them down, and pounding them in a shameful and disgraceful manner, leaving them lying on the ground for dead. At this time Mr. A. Prime, driver of one of Mr. Hendrie's engines, and Mr. C. Newton, happened to come along, and when lifting them up assured themselves that Mr. Stephenson was dead, and immediately gave the alarm. Drs. Nichol and Hill were the first to arrive, and when they arrived found that Mr. Stephenson's skull had been broken and that he had received a number of other serious wounds, but that the vital spark had not fled. Mr. Peitman had also received several wounds, but none of them of a serious nature.—Banner.

The East Ward Nuisance.
This case came up for decision to-day. The Inspector had given Mr. Gordon, the lessee, one week in which to remove the pigs, but owing to the great difficulty in the way of removal, and not wishing to do anything by which Mr. Gordon would sustain serious loss, and also in deference to a petition signed by a number of ratepayers in the Ward, requesting leniency in the matter, the time has been extended to two weeks from to-day. In the meantime Mr. David Allan proposes to have the yard cleaned as much as possible, and as soon as the animals are removed he will have the entire premises renovated, so that the nuisance complained of will be entirely abated. Mr. Gordon was fined in the nominal sum of $1 and costs.

A By-law was introduced at the Ferguson Council to limit the number of licensed taverns in Ferguson to ten—just four more than Elora. We suppose in this branch of business as in others the supply is governed by the demand.

Mr. C. F. Camp, book-keeper for Messrs. Cairns, Moray & Hart, St. Catharines, was robbed of $500 on Thursday while en route to the tender to pay the firms employees.

Captain Halpin has just successfully completed the laying of a fourth cable between Sidney, Cape Breton, and Placentia, N.F.

At an early hour on Friday morning one of the night reporters of the Globe, while going home from the office, was attacked suddenly by two ruffians, who were concealed at the side of the street. He was struck on the head, and knocked off the sidewalk on the street when he called "Police," but was caught by the coat and held for a time until they feared detection and made off.

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 26, 1873

Town and County News.
The Sunday fighting case has been further postponed till Tuesday next.

The North Riding Show will be held at Arthur on 1st and 2nd October, when upwards of $700 in prizes will be offered.

FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA.—James Halliday and family, of Hollis, started on the 19th for British Columbia, a journey of 4,000 miles.

TO CAMP.—It is reported that the Wellington Battalion will put in eight days' drill at Kinneston, in the first part of September.

Mr. J. M. DUNN for some time Head Master of the Guelph Grammar School, has received the appointment of Head-teacher at the Elora Grammar School.

The Davenport Brothers, who are accompanied by Professor Fay, the great illusionist, will give an entertainment in the Town Hall on Friday evening, August 1st.

FINE WHEAT.—Mr. Louis Noecker, of Maybrough, has a ten-acre field of fall wheat, called the "Mummy," one single head of which contained 84 grains. Fine article that for seed.

The Elora Observer says the crops in that neighborhood, though rather light in some places, look remarkably healthy, and should no misfortune befall them will give an average yield.

The market was abundantly supplied to-day with every kind of vegetables, berries, nutmeg, fish, &c., and the throng of buyers soon made many articles scarce, but there was no "corner in the market," which has now assumed its wonted quiet.

RAIN.—Last night we were visited by a copious rain, which had a very beneficial effect in laying the dust, which had become almost unbearable in our streets. The lightning was the most incessant and vivid that we have witnessed here this season. We have not heard of any accidents occurring as yet.

A HOLIDAY.—The employees of the Wellington Foundry, with their wives and sisters, and other fair ones, left this morning about 8 o'clock for Paislith Lake to spend the day in the various amusements which that now famous watering place affords. There were some half-dozen pleasure wagons all well fitted. We hope they will have a pleasant time.

Local and Other Items.

Who can beat it?—Mr. C. B. Stevens, of Walkerton, on three tons and forty pounds of hay from one acre of land.

A CURIOUSITY.—Mr. Samuel Patterson, of Thompson's Corners, Beverly, brought into the office of the Dundas Farmer the other day a branch from one of his apple trees which is laden with fair-sized fruit and is at the same time out in full bloom.

RYE AND FALL WHEAT are quite ripe in the vicinity of Brantford, and the farmers are in the midst of their harvesting. Root crops are well advanced, and grain of all kinds appears to be in good condition. A continuation of the present favorable weather for harvesting will ensure general plenty throughout the county of Brant.

RUN OVER.—A brakeman named McColl, belonging to a freight train fell from the tender on Friday evening, at Brighton, and the back trucks of the train were immediately sent for, and found that McColl's head was badly hurt, and it is of opinion that the poor man can only live a very short time.

The Victoria Standard says that the Government contract for carrying the mails between Victoria and San Francisco has been awarded to a Quebec firm for $54,000 a year, who will place upon the route two steamers, named respectively the Northern and Southern, 1,700 tons burden, each. It is calculated that they will be able to make the trip in seventy hours.

CHANGING THE GAGE.—Preparations are being made all along the line of the Grand Trunk Railway, between Stratford and Belleville, for the change to narrow gauge. Addition strings are being put in, ties being adjusted, and the progress of the work is such that there is scarcely any doubt but the change in this portion of the line will be effected in October next.

FORESTERS.—The different Courts of the Ancient Order of Foresters, are to hold a grand feis in the Crystal Palace Grounds, Toronto, in September, when the sum of $1,000 will be given for competition among the different bands in the Dominion, the competition to be open to all bands, military or civil.

EARLY WHEAT.—Mr. Robt. Myles, of Queen's Valley, Deputy Reeve of Enniskillen, commenced cutting his fall wheat this week. The crop is extra good, as indeed are the crops in general in that section of the country. In this township the wheat will be entered on this week also; and it is gratifying to know that the yield will be good, and that spring crops as well promise better than usual.—Meaford Monitor.

The Roman Catholic Church in England has lately sustained a somewhat serious loss in the person of Sir John Sutton, who joined its ranks some twenty years ago. Sir John was the eldest son of Sir Richard Sutton, a great celebrity in the sporting world, long connected with the Quorn hunt, and likewise noted for his splendid shooting preserves in Norfolk. He had a great income, a large lot of which he derived from house property in London. His estate there included Cambridge House, in Piccadilly, so called from having been long tenanted by Queen Victoria's uncle, the late Duke of Cambridge, who leased it of Sir Richard.

KILLED BY A BULL.—On Wednesday morning last, at Newry, a farmer, living near the neighbouring village of Arden, was engaged keeping a large and ugly bull from the cows while the women were milking, the bull got enraged and made a charge at him and got him down. Mr. Monks being about 60 years old, was not able to escape, and was severely injured before his men, who speedily came to his assistance, could get the bull away from him. Dr. Knight, of Tamworth, was immediately sent for, and did all he could to allay the suffering, which Mr. Monks endured for about eight hours, when he sank into the comatose state, and died early this morning.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Benjamin W. Eby, of Bridgeport, on Monday last, fell from a cherry tree and received a fearful fracture of both bones of the leg, just above the ankle. Dr. Bowly, who was called in immediately after, found a large open wound extending half round the limb, and the blood oozing copiously, and the ends of the bones projected. The doctor set the limb temporarily, and later in the day removed some pieces of bone, carefully dressed it, and made such arrangements as would add much to the patient's comfort. The wound is a dangerous one, but under the treatment being now near the blood oozing has ceased, and it is hoped no more serious steps may be necessary and complications prevented.

DESTROYING CEREBILOS.—A correspondent of the Government Telegraph says: "I have seen various methods of keeping these insects off plum trees, but none so simple, nor yet so effectual as the following: Soak corn cobs in sweetened water until thoroughly saturated, then suspend them to the limbs of the trees a little while after blossoming, being sure to burn the cobs after the fruit ripens, as they will be found full of young insects. A good plan is to change the cobs every few weeks. My theory is this:—that the insects deposit their eggs in the cobs in preference to doing so in the young plums. The first season I tried it upon one or two only, and in the summer was rewarded by a crop of as fine plums as ever ripened, when about half grown. Next spring had sweetened corn cobs dangling from the limbs of all my plum trees, and the summer found them full of delicious fruit.

An old woman named Scram, with three or four children, were turned on the streets of St. Catharines on Thursday night. The poor creature and her offspring were compelled to fix a bed on a vacant lot, and remain there all night. A poor piece for poor people is poor St. Catharines.

A Fort Garry despatch says it generally accorded that Lord Gordon was arrested by the Minnesota detectives a few hundred feet on the American side of the boundary line, as located by the recent Boundary Commission.

A sail-boat containing four men, was capsized on the Niagara River on Tuesday evening, it having run into one of the works of the International Bridge. One of the men, named Robert Starr, a Scotchman, 24 years of age, was drowned.

A number of convicts from the Halifax City Prison were working on a road in the suburbs on Thursday when six of them overcame their keeper and escaped. Four of them, after a long chase through the woods, were subsequently captured.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Great Fire in Baltimore.
Ten Blocks Burned Down!
Treaty Between Russia and Khiva!
Troubles in the Republic of Spain!

St. Petersburg, July 25.—The Government has received a despatch from General Lauffman, announcing that a treaty between Russia and Khiva has been signed. The Khan promises to pay Russia 20,000,000 roubles, and to abolish capital punishment in his Dominion. Russia guarantees the independence of Khiva. The Czar's troops will occupy Khiva until the war indemnity is paid. A portion of the territory of Khantasia is to be given to Bokhara for the assistance rendered Russian troops.

Barcelona, July 25.—Four officers of the Civil Guard of this city have been shot for attempting to desert to the Carlists.

Madrid, July 25.—Contreras, commanding the rebels in Carthagen, threatens to seize all the German ships now lying in the harbour of that port, unless the Vigilante, captured by the German man-of-war, is restored to the insurgents. There is a rumour, which needs confirmation, that the German Council at Carthagen has been arrested by the insurgents as a hostage.

Madrid, July 25.—Contreras, on assuming the title of President, and commander of the land and sea forces of the Cantons of Murcia, has addressed a circular memorandum to Foreign Powers.

The Gorgans have liberated the crew of the "Vigilante," for fear that the German Consul and his family at Carthagen would be shot. The insurgents have promised to delay the seizure of the German vessels in port three days, so that their commanders may have time to telegraph for and receive instructions from Berlin.

Baltimore, M. D., July 25.—A fire broke out at 10 o'clock this morning in Joseph Thomas & Co's spinning mill, between Liberty and Park streets, extending to three adjoining blocks.

Park street, from Lexington to Saratoga, was destroyed. The fire extended to Clay street, from Park to Liberty street, and the rear of Liberty from Lexington to the corner of Liberty and Saratoga on the south side of Saratoga and St. Alphonso school are gone. Also, on Saratoga, west from Park street, Mulberry street and the Maryland Academy of Art and the university adjoining are burned.

Baltimore, July 25, 2:40 p. m.—Eight blocks of fine buildings have been burned, and the water supply is failing. The intense heat prevents the firemen from working to advantage. Many roofs some distance from the fire are catching from flying cinders. Among the buildings destroyed were the first English Lutheran Church on Lexington street, and the Central Presbyterian Church, on the corner of Liberty and Saratoga streets, and many private residence on Mulberry and Park streets.

New York, July 26.—Among the losers by the Baltimore fire the Central Presbyterian Church's loss is estimated at $70,000, insured for $60,000. St. Alphonso's Church and Library loss, $80,000. The Herald's special says the burned district comprises ten blocks, bounded by Mulberry, Liberty, Lexington and Howard Streets. Total loss is estimated at half a million.

New York, July 25.—The weather here is hot and sultry.

The sinking of the Vanderbilt tracks in Fourth Avenue employs twenty-one hundred men, and costs the city eighty-five thousand dollars monthly.

Disastrous Fire at Strathroy.
Strathroy, July 24.—About one o'clock this (Thursday) morning the ominous sound of the fire-bell was heard here, and at the same time those abroad observed a heavy volume of smoke and flame ascending over the east end of the town. The impression at once got current that the woolen factory, the foundry, or some of the larger buildings in that direction were a prey to the more than dreaded destroyer. Fortunately none of these were the victims, yet the loss has turned out the heaviest of any suffered by the town. The fire when discovered was observed issuing from a detached building on the commons in rear of Banghart's Pop Works, and used by the Strathroy Woollen Manufacturing Company for storing wool. When seen the flames had obtained such headway that it became impossible to save either the building or its contents, the latter amounting to upwards of $27,000 worth of wool at the time. The whole was Cape and Australian wool of very fine grade, and as many as seven car loads of this lot were laid in about a week ago. The pop works and Mr. Banghart's house adjacent were beautifully saturated with water and but little danger resulted to these. The wool is a total loss. It was insured in the Queen's British America, Hartford and Western, for $28,000; no insurance on the building. The origin of the fire is unknown, but there is little doubt but that it is the work of incendiaries, and from wantonness and malice.—London Free Press.

The Dallas Herald tells a sad story of the suicide of a young man on the stage road from that city to Longview, a few days since. It became the son of an emigrant, and the family were from Louisiana, and on their way to Wise county, where they had recently purchased a home, and where they had hoped, by removing their son from the injurious influences and example of bad companions, they would eventually reclaim him to a life of usefulness. About twelve o'clock the father was awakened by a noise, which came from the wagon as of some one struggling, and upon reaching the wagon and looking in, found his son in the agonies of a terrible death, with his throat cut from ear to ear.

One thousand Mormon emigrants from Europe arrived in Salt Lake City on Thursday.

LITWORTH has got a new fire engine and says it is not a bit too soon. Right.

Spain.

The situation in Spain is none of the most reassuring to the friends of civil and religious liberty. There seems to be no one at the head of affairs competent to guide the Republic through the dangers with which it is menaced, and one Government after a brief tenure of power finds its efforts futile and gives place to another. The country is distracted by insurrections springing up in various localities and accompanied by disorder and assassination. The treasury is bankrupt, the army mutinous and discontented, while a majority of the fleet is in the hands of rebel crews. The whole fabric of Civil Government, in fact, seems loosened and taken asunder. To make successful headway in the face of such overwhelming obstacles, against a united and persevering enemy like the Carlists, might be difficult for better soldiers and more skillful officers than the National Government seem at present to be dependent upon. The recent Carlist successes, in fact; seem more due to the internal distractions that prevent efficient support being given to the republican troops opposed to them, than to any superiority on the part. They are enough, however, to inspire joy in the hearts of those reactionists who pray for a return of the old ecclesiastico-monarchical regime, when the Pope and divine right sovereigns held sway. Such is the effect in France that the present pseudo-Republican Cabinet there is said to be anxiously discussing the propriety of an early recognition of the rights of the Carlists as belligerents. Although this recognition has been formally refused for the present, the fact of the demand for it being made is significant. The Duke de Broglie is said to favor treating with the Carlists, might be difficult for better soldiers and more skillful officers than the National Government seem at present to be dependent upon. The recent Carlist successes, in fact; seem more due to the internal distractions that prevent efficient support being given to the republican troops opposed to them, than to any superiority on the part. They are enough, however, to inspire joy in the hearts of those reactionists who pray for a return of the old ecclesiastico-monarchical regime, when the Pope and divine right sovereigns held sway. Such is the effect in France that the present pseudo-Republican Cabinet there is said to be anxiously discussing the propriety of an early recognition of the rights of the Carlists as belligerents. Although this recognition has been formally refused for the present, the fact of the demand for it being made is significant. The Duke de Broglie is said to favor treating with the Carlists, might be difficult for better soldiers and more skillful officers than the National Government seem at present to be dependent upon. THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXIX.

JIM WAS PARTNER DANGER AND EXCITING

ADVENTURE.

"Cherokee," said the chief, pointing to himself and his companions.

"Oh, son of Cherokee, are you?" exclaimed Jim, changing his expression of contempt to one of unbounded admiration.

"Delighted to make your acquaintance, Masra, Cherokee—you're gen'lem, you are, quite hip-top, a mile at least above them low wretches o' Chickasaws. I'm an Englishman—they call me Jim Potts."

"Shimpo," repeated the chief, with a pleasant nod all round.

"Oh, well, Shimpo, if you like it better, anything to oblige—at least in present circumstances," he added under his breath.

"Paleface?" said the chief again, inquiringly.

"Well, yes, my face should be pale, but it ain't, all along o' them vile Chickasaws, wot smeared it with red juice, which I hope won't be long o' washing off."

"I give you my word of honor, gen'lem, my face was of the real pale sort the day before yesterday."

"Paleface" repeated the chief, in the same inquiring tone, for he failed to catch the import of Jim's elaborate explanation.

"Yes, paleface," answered Jim, more laconically; "most decidedly paleface."

Whereupon the chief ran towards him in the most friendly manner, took his face between his hands, and rubbed his nose against the sides of his own.

The same salutation had to be gone through by all the rest in turn, much to Jim's inconvenience and disgust, for each new rubbing left an additional quantity of rancid oil on his nasal organ, which was anything but pleasant to the olfactory nerve.

But the demonstration was too much in the way of friendship for any objection to be made, or expressed manifestly but that of unimpaired delight. Jim had therefore to grin and bear it, and he stood the ordeal with wonderful success—taking the first opportunity, however, to remove from his nose the accumulated grease, by the odours of which he would otherwise have soon been upset.

The next act of the Cherokee was to bring him a plentiful supply of the bread they had been cooking, and as the latter was ravenously hungry, it proved highly acceptable, even in the half-raw state in which it was presented.

Jim would of course much rather have had a feed of England's royal fare—roast beef and plum pudding; but as this was at present clearly unobtainable, he filled his hungry stomach with what was to be had, and washed it down with a copious draught from the river in which he had been so nearly drowned.

Breakfast being over, and friendly relations being thus satisfactorily established, Jim was naturally anxious to know what the next proceedings were to be.

He made inquiry as best he could by signs, and in reply he was given to understand that they were about to depart from that spot to join a large party of their tribe, which was marching through the forest at no great distance to attack a party of Chickasaws who were out in the war path.

Jim expressed himself ready to accompany them, as indeed it was the best thing he could do.

Before they set out, however, it was necessary to him that it would be highly agreeable to his new friends if he would cast aside the Chickasaw dress and don the Cherokee garb.

"With all the pleasure in life," said Jim, as with alacrity he denuded himself of the scanty covering which was around him, and to show how cordially he hated the Chickasaws, he threw the rags under his feet, stamped upon them ignominiously, then kicked them into the fire, which soon burned them into ashes—a course of proceeding which elicited many grateful grunts of satisfaction from the delighted Cherokee.

Arrayed in the more royal dress which the chief presented to him, Jim and his new companions departed from the side of the river and struck into the forest, where, after several hours' travelling they reached a glade where the main body was encamped.

Little did Jim anticipate the joyous surprise which here awaited him.

Dumas has some enterprising Town Councilors. The Banner says:—We understand that on Tuesday last a foot race was arranged between one of our Town Councilors and one of the "great unwashed" for a purse of $10—each party staking $5 in the belief that he would prove himself to be the fleetest of foot.

The distance to be run is fixed at 100 yards, and both men are in training for the event.

Few people unacquainted with physiological chemistry are aware of the quantity of iron in the blood, but all should know the importance of keeping up the supply, for debility, disease and death are sure to follow when the quantity becomes too much reduced.

The Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of Iron) supplies this vital element, and has cured many chronic diseases.

DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES AND CALICINA. Sandy Creek, Aug. 31st, 1872.

The Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calicina prepared by you I have been for two years using liberally in my practice, and I assure you that in my judgment there is no preparation of its kind that can compare with it where it is applicable. With feeble, anemic women, of whom we have so many, and in cases convalescing from prostrating diseases I should hardly know how to get along without it. In Dyspepsia it acts like a charm—in fact in any of the long list of exhaustive diseases it is the REMEDY.

I am, yours truly, J. LYMAN BUCKLEY, M.D.

FANS AT A BARGAIN.—Day has taken pity on the folks this hot weather. He is going to close out (not himself) but the fans to-night, if he can, cheap.

This course of Commander Reid, of the United States steamer Kansas, in conveying the Virginias out of Aspinwall, meets with general official approbation. They say the fact that the Virginias landed men and arms on the Island of Cuba to subvert her to being molested in a neutral port by a Spanish gunboat.

A lady in Lynn, Mass., last week sold a bag of rags to a peddler. She was perfectly well satisfied with her bargain until she remembered that in order to guard against thieves and robbers she had secreted in the bag two bank books, notes, and so forth, to the value of about $4000. But considering how careless she had been to be with all the energy and attentiveness of despair, she sought for that peddler, found him in Salem, and recovered her treasure.

FOR SUMMER TRAVEL.—Hand satchels, pocket books, purses, cases, and a host of other things for the above—at Day's.

THE SURF-BOARD SPORT AT HILO, BANDA-WICH ISLANDS.—Hilo is one of the very few places on these islands where you can see a truly royal sport—the surf-board. It requires a rough day and a heavy surf, but with a good day it is one of the finest sights in the world. The surf-board is a tough plank about two feet wide and from six to twenty feet long, usually made of the bread-fruit tree. Armed with these, a party of tall, muscular natives swim out to the first line of breakers, and, watching their chance to duck under this, make their way finally, by the help of the under-tow, into the smooth water far off beyond all the surf. Here they bob up and down on the swell like so many ducks, watching the opportunity. What they seek is a very high swell, before which they place themselves, lying or kneeling on the surf-board.

The great wave dashes onward, but as its bottom strikes the ground, the crest of the wave, under the impetus of the roaring wave behind him, yet seeming to have a speed and motion of his own. It is a very surprising sight to see three or four men thus dashed for nearly a mile toward the shore at the speed of an express train, every moment about to be overwhelmed by a roaring breaker, whose white crest was reared high above and just behind them, but always escaping this engulfment, and propelled before it. They look, kneeling or lying on their long surf-boards, more like some curious and swift-swimming fish—like dolphins racing, as it seemed to me—than like men. Once in a while, by some mischance the cause of which I could not understand, the swimmer was overwhelmed; the great comber overtook him; he was flung over and over like a piece of wreck, but instantly dived, and re-appeared beyond the crest of the wave, ready to take advantage of the next. A successful shot launched them quite high and stood on the beach far beyond where we dried to watch. Occasionally a man would stand erect upon his surf-board, blanching himself in the boiling water without apparent difficulty. The surf-board play is one of the ancient sports of Hawaii. I am told that few of the younger generation are capable of it, and that it is thought to require great nerve and coolness even among those admirable swimmers, and to be not without danger.—Harpers Magazine for August.

Coughs and colds, when left to themselves, frequently bring on pulmonary complaints, which lead to that distressing and fatal disease, consumption; but if attended to in time, "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" are a certain remedy. They stop the irritating cough, and soothe and strengthen the bronchial tubes, allaying all irritations and inflammations. They are also particularly adapted for the use of singers and public speakers. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

CURE YOUR HORSES.—It is to the interest of all who own horses to keep them in a healthy and sound condition; experience has proved that "Harley's Condition Powder" and "Arabian Horse Remedy" is the most efficacious, it has been used by thousands who will cheerfully confirm this statement. For heaves, coughs, colds, and all diseases which affect the wind of horses it has no equal, it purifies the blood, corrects and improves the appetite, and softens the skin; in fact, so great is the improvement in the condition and appearance of the animal as to have led many to doubt if it could be the same horse. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Harley & Co. is on each package. New York & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors of Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years.

When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

Genuine Thing!

10 per cent. off for Cash

As Mr. STEWART is leaving for the British and Continental Markets in July, he has determined to reduce his large stock of Dry Goods and Clothing by $20,000 this month. To effect this he has resolved to allow a discount of 10 per cent. on all purchases of $1 and upwards. So rare a chance of securing cheap goods seldom occurring, the public should avail themselves of making and saving money. Quotations of prices being no real criterion of cheapness, an inspection of goods is solicited.
