THE GREAT WAR VETS' ASSOCIATION

Interesting Meeting Held on Last Wednesday Evening Was Well Attended

A meeting of the G. W. V. A. was held at the Board of Trade rooms on Wednesday, December 14th.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Comrade W. E. Geeser, at 7:30 p. m.

Suggestions were made regarding a permanent memorial to commemorate the fallen in the Great War, and it is the intention of every member of the Bridgetown Branch of the G. W. V. A. to do his utmost towards securing a memorial that will be a credit to the town, and an appropriate tribute to the memory of the men who did not return.

The Bridgetown Branch of the G. W. V. A., through the kindness of the Editor of THE MONITOR, desires to express sincere condolence and hearty Xmas greetings to the relatives of all those who paid the supreme sacrifice during the war.

After the business of the evening, the winter's programme was inaugurated by inviting the ladies to be present at 8:30 p. m.

Despite the unpleasant weather, several prominent ladies availed themselves of this invitation, and a most pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Comrade W. E. Geeser, President, welcomed the guests on behalf of the Branch. The ever popular soldiers' game of "Houses" was the event of the evening, and most of our guests were successful in winning prizes.

Dr. N. R. Warey, Mrs. H. Ruggles, Mrs. Dechman and Dr. A. A. Dechman, in expressing their pleasure, promised to support the Bridgetown Branch, which ensures the success of the association during the coming winter.

Although we are privileged to publish the records of our meetings through the press, this is no excuse for the non-attendance of members at the meetings. If any member who has neglected the association desires to renew his friendship, be sure to be present at the next meeting on Wednesday, January 11th, 1922, at 7:30 p. m.

The "Veteran" is sent weekly free to all paid up members.

GEORGE H. WAREY,
Secretary-Treasurer.

ALBERT WINSLOW

SEVEN PERSONS BURNED NEAR WINDSOR

One of the saddest events that ever occurred in Hants County took place Saturday night when Mrs. Reuben Johnson and her six children, all colored, were burned to death in their home at the colored settlement five miles from Windsor.

The father left the house about seven o'clock to go to the assistance of a neighbor whose chimney was on fire. He called upon another neighbor en route home, and while there heard cries of fire and rushed out to see his own home in flames. The fire had spread with such rapidity that access by the back door was impossible, and the front door, which was seldom used, was broken open, and here were huddled the remains of the mother and family.

A pathetic scene occurred on Monday's east bound D. A. R. express when two survivors of the family were returning home from Weymouth Falls read the news in one of the Halifax daily papers. The young girls were somewhat cheered up when Mr. W. H. Smith, of St. John, presented them with $18 or $20, the result of a hasty collection among the passengers.

MAIL YOUR CHRISTMAS PARCELS EARLY

Remember that thousands of other people are mailing an unusual number of letters and parcels, too, at this season, and if they all pile up together the last few days, it is impossible to get everything handled and delivered on time, and somebody is bound to be disappointed. Mail early and see that your friends get your Christmas greetings before the day's festivities are over.

Many of our citizens will no doubt take advantage of enjoying a good Christmas dinner and at the same time save the lady of the house a lot of extra trouble. This is especially convenient in small families. Those intending to avail themselves of this opportunity should ask for reservation at once, either personally or by telephone.

As a citizen of our community, Mr. Phinney will be greatly missed; he was a man of sound judgment, progressive ideas, and was always found supporting any measure for community betterment.

We tender to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy.

MRS. MARGARET A. WHITMAN

Mrs. Margaret A. Whitman died at her home in West Paradise at nine o'clock yesterday morning, aged fifty-seven years. She had been ill for several years but only seriously ill since Friday. WEDDING BELLS

MARSHALL-LONGLEY

A very pretty wedding took place in the Gordon-Providence United Church in Bridgetown, of which both are members, Wednesday night, when Rev. J. H. Freestone united in marriage Cyril E. son of Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock Marshall, of Beaconsfield, and Miss Alberta L., daughter of Mr. Israel Longley, of Upper Granville, the bride residing with her sister, Mrs. Atherton Marshall, of Clarence. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who later gave her away. The double ring service was used. The maid of honor was Mrs. Alex. Campbell, sister of the bride, who was dressed in white organdy and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern, and the bridesmaids, Catherine and Ellen Marshall, sisters of the groom, and Edna and Belle Clarke, cousins of the groom, while the duties of best man were performed by Mr. Clarence Longley, brother of the bride. The ushers were the Misses Bessie Young, Ruth Jackson, Henrietta and Mary Miller.

The bride was dressed in white satin wearing the conventional bridal veil and orange blossoms, the latter being a gift to the bride from an intimate friend, Mrs. Charles DeWolfe, of Boston. The bridesmaids were dressed in white. The ring bearer was little Lawrence Chute, cousin of the groom. As the bridal party entered, the organist, Mrs. A. R. Bishop played Lohengrin's wedding march, the other musical pieces being "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," and "Mendelssohn's March." The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and packed to the doors with friends of the contracting parties.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Marshall and guests were conveyed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Atherton Marshall, Clarence, where a reception and supper was held, nearly one hundred invited guests being present. The happy couple left Thursday for Halifax and other parts of the Province. On their return they will reside for the present in Clarence. The wedding gifts were beautiful, consisting of checks, cash, silver ware, cut glass, china, linen, etc. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace set with diamonds and pearls and was the only ornament worn by the bride. Both have a large circle of friends in this vicinity who extend best wishes and congratulations for a long, happy and prosperous wedded career.

DR. LOVETT'S MAJORITY

Wednesday was Declaration Day in this constituency. Dr. L. J. Lovett was declared elected with a majority of 2,235. The new member addressed his constituents at Digby, thanking them for their support. In the evening the friends of the Liberal party held a "rally" in that town and celebrated the victory.

MORE SHOWERS

Another shower was held Tuesday night for Miss Grace Ricketson. This one was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allison FitzRandolph, Carleton Corner.

Previous to the Marshall-Longley wedding a shower was held for the bride at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Chute, Clarence.

A SCOTCH EVENING AT LAWRENCETOWN

A Very Interesting Entertainment Held in the Demonstration Building

Under the auspices of the Literary Association a very interesting evening was spent in the Lawrenceford Demonstration Building, Wednesday, December 14th. The following program was carried out:

Biography—Scott—Mrs. J. B. Hall.

Scotch Reading—Mrs. A. H. Whitman.

Solo—Mrs. J. Hudgins.

Travelogue—Dr. Vernon Morse, Paradise.

Social Period—candy.

Solo—Mrs. L. F. Wallace.

Solo—Miss J. Buthlay.

Aud Lang Syne—all.

Much credit is due the Literary committee (of which Dr. J. B. Hall is Convenor) also to Mrs. R. J. Shaffner, pianist, for the splendid arranged program. Each member deserves special mention—at length—but space forbids. But we must speak of solos rendered by Mrs. L. F. Wallace, Mrs. J. Hudgins, Miss Buthlay and Rev. H. T. Jones, as being particularly enjoyable, each one being in the best of voice.

Then, too, the paper by Mrs. J. B. Hall was full of information, showed much careful thought in its preparation, and was listened to with marked attention.

Mrs. A. H. Whitman's rendering of the selection from Ivanhoe was well received and showed Mrs. Whitman to be a reader of more than average ability.

Dr. Vernon Morse, of Paradise, gave us a Travelogue—a motor trip from London to Edinburgh, holding the audience spell bound as they, in imagination, journeyed with him to the wonderful old city of Edinburgh. The sobriety of the evening was not only broken by the short intermission and candy treat, but by Rev. A. H. Whitman, when the audience was convulsed with laughter, as he told stories of Scottish wit and repartee.

A pleasing feature of the evening was an exhibition of a Scottish dance by Mrs. J. Hudgins.

The collection of $15.00 was made $25.00 by the generous donation of $10.00 by Miss Blackadder. She has the thanks of the association.

On behalf of the audience a vote of thanks, moved by Mr. T. G. Bishop, and seconded by Mr. F. G. Palfrey, was extended to all those who so ably assisted in making the evening such a splendid success.

I. C. FREEMAN, Secy.

BEATS THE "OUTHOUSES" AT TIVERTON

A circumstance occurred at West Public where a booth known as D'Entremonts contained 435 voters, all of that name, and it is very questionable if there is another section in this broad Dominion where so many people of the same name can be found. Out of the 435 there were 304 who deposited their ballots on election day.

THE CLIMATIC VAGARIES

Observations Made by Mr. Thomas F. Anderson in a Trip Provinceward

(From The Boston Transcript.)

Some recent remarks on the subject of climatic vagaries were a piece of good fortune for the Nomad's readers, for they have brought this pleasant account of the observations made by Mr. Thomas F. Anderson, in a trip Provinceward: "On Thursday evening, November 17th, I departed from the North Station, Boston, on the Halifax steamer, the weather being wet and muggy with no snow in view. Next morning, going through Maine and New Brunswick, the jingle of sleigh-bells was heard at each station, for there were several inches of snow on the ground, with a couple of feet of the beautiful reported some miles in the interior. There were also reports in the St. John morning papers that the St. John river was frozen over between Fredericton and Gagetown, the earliest freeze-up on record, with two exceptions. By the time we reached St. John, around midday, the snow had entirely disappeared, and at Moncton, the great New Brunswick railroad centre, there was only a trace of it. The Petcodiac River, by the way, was tide-full, so that I missed the pleasure of seeing the famous 'haze' in Halifax, the next day, the weather reports announced that that city was the warmest spot in Canada, and it certainly felt so to those who had come east dressed for blizzards.

"After two days of rain, fog and mist and a little snow, the Monday morning sunrise gave promise of the first fair day in about a week, and the pilgrim from Boston sped westward on the Dominion Atlantic train for Yarmouth, wondering what new vagaries of weather the day would bring forth. He was not long in finding that out, for at Windsor Junction, where the road begins to climb to its highest altitude (about five hundred feet), a night's snowfall had transformed the country into a picture for which the conventional description 'fairyland' seemed tame. The fluffy, downlike mantle covered the trees, spruces and other evergreens in a wonderful combination of white and green, while all of the leafless trees and shrubs were encased in its clinging embrace, so that for miles the landscape was a continuous symphony of Christmas trees crowned with cotton wool and millions of ostrich plumes, tropical palm-fronds and other fantastic creations. Even the thin wire fences had assumed the properties of heavy enameled cables.

The enchantment of the picture presented by the reflections of these wonderful snow pictures on the glassy surface of the lakes and ponds which they encircled is difficult to describe. The hundreds of 'tourists' who had been revelling in the summer scenery and climate of Evangeline's land only a few weeks before would have enjoyed a rare and almost thrilling contrast, could they have returned at that moment.

"It was literally too good to last, for suddenly, when the outskirts of Windsor, at the head of the Bay of Fundy, had been reached, the snow had miraculously disappeared, and again was there a vivid 'contrast of climate.' Even the brown of the fields on the Halifax side of the province had merged into verdancy, especially in the depressions; and where the apple trees on the 'backbone' of the peninsula had borne nothing but snowy decorations, here there were even some with leaves still green, to say nothing of red-cheeked apples as yet unpicked.

"Grand Pre and storied Minas Basin, with their sentinel Blomidon in the background, were shortly in view, and here, too, the meadows retained much of their summer greenness; and the bronze Evangeline, standing in the new Grand Pre park in stately but buoyant attitude, seemed to be inviting the spirit of summer rather than pronouncing its benediction. None of the scores of head of cattle to be seen in the historic Acadian meadows a few weeks back were in evidence, but everywhere they rested were to be seen prosperous-looking stacks of marsh hay piled up by the farmers against the coming long and cold winter, even as they had been erected by the ancient Acadian farmers prior to 1755. It was a semi-melancholy brown-green landscape with gray overtones, and Blomidon appeared to have retired within himself, for his mantle was unmistakably 'misty and mournful'.

"Rather saddening was the sight of hundreds of barrels of neglected and wasted apples that were to be seen on the trees and beneath them throughout the entire seventy miles of the famous orchards of the Annapolis Valley, and I was told by a visiting expert that not less than ten per cent. of the 1,500,000 barrels of apples that ripened in the Valley this year had been allowed to go to waste. Think of it! At least 150,000 barrels of apples that many a family in both Canada and the United States would have been eager to enjoy, utterly eliminated as a factor in human subsistence. Someone ought to page Mr. Hoover.

"It was 'brite and fair' whilst we lunched in the cosy private car of General Manager George E. Graham, of the Dominion Atlantic System, as we wound around the sinuous shores of Annapolis Basin to Digby. At Weymouth, where our train travelled to take aboard a few tons of live lobsters for the ever-hungry Boston market, I picked a red clover in full bloom—and there was sleighing only a few miles away across the Bay of Fundy! "And when the red sun that we had seen rise in splendor in Halifax finally sank to rest in his glorious bed of pink rose-leaves behind Lake Annis, it was indeed the end of a perfect day of Indian summer!"

On Thursday evening, December 8th, the friends of Mrs. Norris Mitchell gave her a pleasant surprise at her home, when our pastor, Rev. D. W. Dixon, presented her with a very handsome Casserole and a silver metal fork in recognition of her faithful service as organist. Mrs. Mitchell, though taken by surprise, received the gifts with much pleasure, at the same time thanking her friends for their kind remembrance.

WANT A WARSHIP!

There are about two hundred obsolete warships which the Admiralty want to sell lying in ports around the British Isles.

Anyone can buy a battleship or light cruiser if he is willing to give a guarantee that it will be broken up and not used for war purposes.

Every part of a ship is dismantled and disposed of, and all the delicate scientific instruments are sold.

It takes forty men twelve months to break up a warship. Those ready for disposal belong to the 1906 to 1908 classes, and include Dreadnoughts and lesser types of vessels.

Fig On Both Ends

Obnoxious Young Gentleman (picking up a piece of pork on the pig of his fork): "Do you call this pig?"

Pretty waitress (sweetly): "To which end of the fork do you refer?"

MINE BOSS SAYS HE WAS HELPLESS

Arizona Man Was Simply Down and Out and Couldn't Even Move Himself

Harry E. Scott, a well-known mine boss, whose address is Box 683, Tombstone, Arizona, writes:

"I was down and out nearly all the time with rheumatism and finally got to where I couldn't move, even to feed myself. My wife thought I would never get well again, and she knew my condition better than anyone else. "I was absolutely helpless when my wife started giving me Tanlac and in four days I ate a hearty meal for the first time in many months. Tanlac put me on my feet and I'm back on the job working hard and feeling just fine. I have gained eighteen pounds in weight, too."

BAPTIST NOTES

According to the Christian Register, which has made a careful investigation of the matter, the number of students enrolled in thirteen of the leading theological schools of America for the present year is 1,506 as against 1,299 in 1914, an increase of 15.9 per cent. The Southern Baptist Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky, has the largest enrollment and shows the largest gain. The number for 1921 is 345 against 235 seven years ago. Boston University School of Theology comes next with 277 this year and 238 in 1912.

The World-Wide Church News reports that the ingathering among the Baptists in Siberia is growing so rapidly that it is probable that Dr. W. B. Glass, one of the leading missionaries of the North China Mission, will soon be transferred to Siberia and made superintendent of the work there and in Manchuria.

At a meeting of the Chicago Young Men's Christian Association held October 11th to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Sir George Williams, founder of the general organization, it was announced that John Wanamaker had donated funds sufficient for the erection of a building in Moscow, Russia. This is the sixth Young Men's Christian Association building given to foreign lands by Mr. Wanamaker, the other five being in Madras, Calcutta, Kyoto, Seoul and Peking.

Baptists are coming into prominence in China as well as in many other lands. Here are several Chinese people of eminence who are Baptists: The mayor of Canton, the secretary of foreign affairs, the chief surgeon of the military hospital the wife of Sun Yat Sen, and the wife of the ambassador to Great Britain.

On account of declining years and feeble health, Marion Lawrence, the great Sunday School leader, is retiring from the secretaryship of the World Sunday School Association. He has served in many capacities, beginning his work in the Sunday School organization as a superintendent of a Congregational school in the State of Ohio. His administration has been characterized by vigor and dignity blended into a program of constant progress.

Chief Rabbi Kook, of Jerusalem, has announced that a new Yesh'bah will be founded in the Holy City for the purpose of instructing men of priestly and Levitical parentage in their duties in the temple. This includes formulas of sacrifice. The rabbi believes this to be an urgent necessity, since he is persuaded that the rebuilding of the temple is near at hand. It will seem strange to see the Jews beginning ritual sacrifices to Jehovah in Jerusalem in this day of the world.

AGED VOTERS

Probably the oldest voter in Ontario was Mrs. McDowell, of Janetville, who passed her 107th birthday.

Among the thousands in the County of Kings who realized the high privilege of the franchise on December 5th and cast their votes were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Schofield, of North Alton. Mr. Schofield was born August 13th, 1821—90 years ago. Mrs. Schofield was born February 12th, 1825—96 years ago. They were married August 25th, 1854—sixty-seven years ago. Both are hale and hearty, and enjoyed the right to vote at the Federal elections.

The Caledonia Gold Hunter says. Caledonia has probably the distinction of having the oldest woman voter in Nova Scotia. She is Mrs. Rebecca Parker, mother of Geo. J. Parker, and is ninety-eight years of age. Intellectually bright, and a great reader who does not need glasses.

Mrs. Edward Beals of Bear River, aged ninety-eight years and 2 months, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Brooks, was the oldest voter at Centreline.

Mrs. Annie Todd, of Dalhousie, who will be 100 years July, is said to be the oldest voter in this county.

Mrs. Pitzen Cress, of Deep Brook, aged eighty-eight years, was the oldest voter in Deep Brook.

There have been many very interesting instances of longevity among the voters throughout the rural districts of the province, but perhaps the most extraordinary combination comes from Shelburne County, where there were three brothers and a sis-

APPRECIATING OUR EFFORTS

A Montana subscriber writes: "I wish to congratulate you. The MONITOR is a very different paper from the one published a few years ago, and I for one very much appreciate the change."

A subscriber writes from Hollywood, California: "Enclosed find check for $2.00 for which send The MONITOR another year. I have been here for thirty-three years, and cannot do without my home paper."

One from Penacook, N.H., says: "Give us lots of Village Notes. I find that quite often there are three or four weeks that we do not see any items from our home village and we are therefore disappointed. This is why we take our home paper, so that we may hear from 'Home Sweet Home.'"

THE IMPERIAL FRUIT SHOW

The Annapolis Valley Cider Co. Wins Second Prize For Cider Apples

The official list for prizes in the Imperial Fruit Show at the Crystal Palace, London, have just been received. It is gratifying to note that the Annapolis Valley Cider Company's English branch (under the name of H. Whiteway & Co., Ltd.) obtained second prize for cider apples open to the whole world. No less than thirty varieties were shown, all of which were apples specially grown for making into cider and not suitable for table or culinary use. The first prize was awarded to E. Vincent of Worcester, England. The cider apple and cider making section was one of the most popular features in this fruit show, as the following extract from the London Daily Mail will show:

"WINE OF THE ORCHARD"

"The cider section was packed with people watching the whirring press which cut and pressed the little cider apples and squeezed the sweet juice into the vats. Cider firms were busy all day cutting wires and popping corks as they pressed upon their visitors the rich vintages of the orchard. From 3 p.m. until late in the evening the theatre was packed with visitors watching a series of fascinating films illustrating branches of the fruit-growing industry and listening to lectures. For the first time a film was shown giving in picturesque form the story of cider-making. The scenes were taken specially for the Fruit Show on the famous orchards of Messrs. Whiteway at Whimple, Dorset. Out of a bottle of cider danced the spirit of the orchard into a spirit scene with blossom-covered trees. While the wondering audience watched, the trees were covered with fruit which women picked. The whole process of cider-making was then illustrated. The film will be given during the Show, and, like everything else in the Crystal Palace, is free to all visitors."

A TIMELY WARNING

A contemporary gives the following advice to its delinquent subscribers: "If you have frequent fainting spells accompanied by chills, cramps, convulsions, chilblains, epilepsy, and jaundice, it is a sign that you are not well and liable to die any moment. Pay your subscription in advance and thus make yourself solid for a good position in the next world."

NINE DEAD AND THREE INJURED

Victims of Blaze Two Miles North of Detroit—Kerosene Used To Start Fire.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 13—Nine persons, seven of them children, are dead and three others are seriously burned, one perhaps fatally, as the result of a fire early to-day that destroyed the farm home of Mrs. Margaret Wakeu, two miles north of the Detroit city limits. The dead are: Mrs. Wakeu's husband and her four children; Mrs. Eliza Conick, of Detroit, and the latter's three children, who were visiting at the Wakeu home. Mrs. Wakeu is not expected by hospital authorities to recover. Joseph Wesewaki, thirty-four, a boarder at the home, jumped from a second storey window, his clothing ablaze. His condition is serious. Another boarder escaped uninjured by jumping from the window.

The fire started from an explosion caused when Mrs. Wakeu poured kerosene into a kitchen stove to start a fire. The Wakeu and Conick children were burned to death in their beds.

UPPER GRANVILLE

We understand a concert will be held in Upper Granville school house on Wednesday 2nd inst.

Mr. Thomas Darling, of Balhousie has purchased the property now occupied by the Lingley family in town (west end) and will, with his wife, take possession shortly.

Mrs. Caleb Wheeler, once a resident here, besides being a happy wife and mother of a large family, is also one of Nature's nurses, and has by her gentle ministrations brought relief to several prominent citizens who have passed on to their final account. By a strange coincidence she has nursed the mothers of three town mayors, one in Pictou County, two in her adopted town, where she, with her husband, resides. May many more years of wedded felicity brighten life's decline.

Christmas is near and little ones must be made happy though older hearts are sad, the season of all others when hearts grow warm and mysterious tenderness seems to pervade the very atmosphere. Everyone is busy, but happy little surprises are planned which must be carried on in secret and the wishes for more money, not for ourselves, but for it would be so nice if some of our lovely things we see were ours to give away. Why is it that the only thing talked of this season is the giving of gifts. I had almost said that none were so poor but some love tokens passed from their hands to a loved one and even if nothing tangible can be given, is not the "Merry Christmas" and Happy New Year," passing from mouth to mouth a gift? Simple and lightly spoken as the words may be, can we utter or hear them without our minds going back to the "gift of all gifts?" Even the "Holy Child Jesus" at whose birth on this happy morn, Hallelujahs were sung and "Glory to God in the Highest and Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men Proclaimed. When we cease to trace the love and tenderness which possesses all at this time, to this cause, we cease to acknowledge ourselves Christians and recipients of the great gift even the Father's well beloved son.

INGLISVILLE

Mr. L. M. Beals spent the week end with his son, Mr. Chester Beals, of Bear River.

The W.M.A.S. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Naugler on Thursday afternoon.

The shareholders of the Inglisville Rural Telephone Co. held their annual meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allister Taylor on Saturday evening, December 10th. Their secretary, Mrs. Taylor, was presented with a gift. Refreshments were served, and a good time reported by all present.

KEEP YOUR COWS CLEAN

Pride should compel every dairyman to maintain his cows in an attractive and sanitary condition every day in the year. In a way the appearance of the cow is an accurate measure of the owner. In the same degree that neglected fences, over-run fence rows tumble down buildings and abandoned machinery typify the careless ne-or-do-well farmer, dairy cows which are dirty indicate the milk farmer who does not safeguard his customers.

AN OLD TIME "CHIEF"

A Marine Engineer Who Was Well Known Quarter Of A Century Ago.

St. John had a visit for a few days from an old time marine engineer, Duncan Gunn, of Moncton. Speaking of his presence in the city, the Globe says: "In making a survey of the improvements at the winter port, he expressed himself delighted with affairs. Mr. Gunn is one of the old time engineers. He learned his trade at the Phoenix Foundry and Locomotive Works, when conducted by George Fleming. He served as engineer on the steamer New York, between this port and Boston; on the steamer Empress, belonging to Hatheway & Small on the Bay of Fundy route between Windsor and St. John, and Annapolis, Digby and St. John; also on the steamer Sead, on the same route; on the steamer May Queen, on the St. John River, and he served, too, for some time on the harbor ferry as engineer on the steamer Osangony. He then went to Moncton, to the I. C. R. Shops, and worked there until he was superannuated. Mr. Gunn comes to St. John occasionally to see old friends and to look about. He is interested in port development at St. John."

AT THE WRONG END

(Ottawa Journal)

Women's dresses must not be cut higher than "where the spring of the calf begins," proclaims a clergyman in the United States, fulminating against various things which he does not like to see as at the wrong end. He should consider his business to be with the minds of women—and men. He should be preaching Christianity, not long dresses. If he can instill Christianity into his people, their fashion in dress will not do any harm.

The mistake is one that is common with most of us—we think we can improve morals by outside coats of whitewash. This would not matter so much but that in giving our effort to application of whitewash, we forget the mainspring of the morals.

Inculcation of honesty, of decency, of manliness and womanliness, of fair dealing and generosity, and above all, of Christian faith and Christian principle—this is what will do real good on the part of any preacher. And if it is earnestly and well done, the preacher will not be needing, in his own flock at least, to worry about the precise line at which to fix a limit to a skirt.

ETHEL CLAYTON HAS DIFFICULT ROLE IN "SINS OF ROSANNE"

Ethel Clayton plays a sort of feminine Jekyll and Hyde in her latest Paramount photoplay, "Sins of Rosanne," which will be presented at the Primrose Theatre for two days commencing Monday next.

The heroine is an English girl who was mothered for two years by a Malay woman and was imbued by her with a passionate desire for bright stones and the strange power to cause injury to those whom she might hate.

An excellent cast supports the pretty star in "Sins of Rosanne." Jack Holt is the leading man, and Fred Malatesta and Clarence Geldart are also in the company.

WHITE XMAS PROMISED

Weather predictions in the current issue of Belcher's Almanac hold promise of a "white" Christmas this year. The forecast calls for snow and sleet during the early part of the month up to the twelfth, promising much dampness, followed with blizzards to the 16th, when we are to have, it declares, fair weather until the 20th; thereafter, to the end of the year, the forecast is for continued storms, Christmas day not excepted, and snow and sleet alternating, accompanied by high winds.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

An event of more than usual interest took place at St. George, N.B., last Friday, when Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Kennedy celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy entertained the family at a dinner party at four o'clock, and they had the pleasure of having with them all their children, Mrs. Clotilda Hickie, of Waverly, Mass., Mrs. T. R. Kent, of St. George, Medley, of Beaver Harbor, Otty, of Granville, N.S., and Morton, at home. Besides these there were present Mesdames Medley and Otty Kennedy and Miss Branscombe, of St. Stephen. Numerous letters and telegrams of congratulations were received during the day.

In the evening Mrs. Hickey and Mrs. Kent held a reception at the latter's residence, Hillcrest, when about forty guests were present. The bride and groom of fifty years ago, received in the drawing room, assisted by their daughters. The evening was spent in games and music. During the evening Rev. Mr. Wetmore, on behalf of the family, presented Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy a purse of gold. Mayor Gresson, on behalf of their friends, also presented to them a purse of gold. Mr. Kennedy replied very feelingly, saying he appreciated their kindness, but valued their friendship even more than their gift of gold. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

(The above from the St. John Telegraph, refers to the family of O. V. Kennedy, of the firm of Kent & Kennedy, drillers of artesian wells. Mr. Kennedy is well known in Granville, having drilled several wells during the past year. At present has one under way for Mr. James D. Harris, which he expects to complete when he returns after Christmas.)

A GROWING INDUSTRY

Only a short time ago we reported that Mr. J. S. Mosee was starting the manufacture of mice meat and sausage. Besides the local demand, Mr. Mosee is now averaging the shipment of more than half a ton a week, or two tons a month to places in the Annapolis Valley and towns along the South Shore. We wish him continued success. His goods are excellent and the buyers are more than satisfied with the demand from their customers. A series of newspaper advertisements in the Nova Scotia weekly newspapers would compel Mr. Mosee to greatly enlarge his output.

THE CHRISTMAS RUSH

As December 25th comes on Sunday this year, Monday will be celebrated as Christmas, which will mean two shopless days following the year's biggest shopping carnival. Already the Christmas buying fever is on in Bridgetown and the stores anticipate a tremendous rush to-day and all of this week, with the grand wind-up Saturday night. Merchants advise those who always put it off till the last minute not to do so this year.

RIGHT THIGH BROKEN

Andrew, the five year old son of Herman C. Morse, Barrister, had his right thigh broken half way between the hip and knee about 8 o'clock Monday night, falling on the stairs at the home of his parents, Queen street. Dr. M. E. Armstrong was immediately summoned who set the limb. He appears quite comfortable and indications point to an early recovery.

The latest issue of the Journal of Education announces that there will be two weeks vacation allowed the public schools for the Christmas holidays, and five days for the Easter holidays.

HOME FOR XMAS

Home for Christmas! There's a joy For the weary grown up boy, Or the little girl who now Feels the years upon her brow.

Home for Christmas! Back once more To the mother at the door And the old hearth with the blaze And those happy yesterdays.

Home for Christmas! Back to be Once again at mother's knee And to feel her fond caress In the spell of happiness.

Home for Christmas! Girl and lad, Going to the kindly Dad, Who has waited through the year For his loved ones to appear.

Home for Christmas! Back again To the simple joys and plain, To the refuge sweet with rest Where is love made manifest.

Home for Christmas! Oh, that I Could recall the years gone by, And could know once more the bliss Of the glorious welcome kiss.

Home for Christmas! Girl and man Claim that gladness while you can Swift must come those years of pain When you'll long for home in vain.

YOU WILL NEVER REGRET

Keeping your temper under insult or serious provocation. Telling the truth when a lie would have helped you out of difficulty.

Turning away from pleasure that would injure your health or your manhood.

Holding steadfastly to your purpose when everyone insisted you were on the wrong track.

Forming the habit of always trying to better your best, to improve something somewhere every day of your life.

Having the courage to wear shabby clothes rather than go in debt for what you could not afford.

Daring to say "No" when "Yes" would have made you a "good fellow" and won the applause of your companions.

COMPACT FACTS

Few people realize that 26,445 Canadian ex-service men have been established on the land and are nearly all making good; that Canada's water-power development represents an investment of $475,000,000, while the power produced would otherwise require 18,000,000 tons of coal yearly or that nearly 88 per cent of the world's supply of asbestos comes from the Province of Quebec. The Natural Resources Intelligence Branch of the Department of the Interior, has just issued a revised edition of "Compact Facts," which contains in concise form, information regarding Canada: its area, population, trade and industries; their extent, capital invested, wages paid, values of live stock, principal crops and amounts produced; mineral resources and present production; also forest resources and forest products. Copies of the booklet are available on application to the Superintendent, Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. NOVA SCOTIAN'S GREAT SUCCESS

Alfred C. Fuller, Born Near Grand Pre, Last Year Did a $100,000 Business

A week or so ago many readers of the Saturday Evening Post may have seen a full page advertisement, nicely colored, proclaiming the merits of Fuller's Brushes, but we question very much if many of the perusers of that popular journal are aware that the manufacturer of those brushes is a Nova Scotian and was born near Grand Pre. Such is the case, however, and in the American Magazine for November there appears a splendid article from the pen of Thane Wilson on the career and splendid success of Alfred C. Fuller in the business world. Mr. Wilson prefaces his article as follows:

"For years," said Mr. Fuller, "I have been watching big business men carefully, and I have found few men of spectacular talents among them. They have three well-balanced qualities: to observe, to reflect, and to apply. Wherever they go they observe everything that will have a possible bearing on their business; they weigh this information in the scale of common sense, and sit out the good from the bad; then they apply the good. Any man of ordinary intelligence who will keep his eyes and his mind open can do this."

"A man must keep his eyes open. He must see and assort things, and figure out the value of everything to him. The captain of a Gloucester fishing schooner once remarked to me: 'I ain't read many books. Perhaps you might say I don't know much. But I comprehend a devil of a lot!' And that's why he was captain of the schooner."

In his talk with Mr. Wilson concerning his early life, Mr. Fuller said: "There's not much to tell. I was born up around Grand Pre, Nova Scotia, next to the youngest of twelve children. Five of the boys had come to Boston before I followed them at the age of eighteen—with seventy-five dollars in my possession, the savings from a year's work on a farm near my father's."

"I managed to get a job on the surface lines of the Boston Elevated. After a few days of training as conductor I started in handling the 'last' line that ran between Boston and Cambridge and Arlington. These spare assignments used to bring me in about twelve dollars a week."

"At the end of eighteen months there seemed no chance of real advancement, and I was getting a bit discouraged. One afternoon I was about to start on a run. The motor-man was late in getting around, so I jumped onto the front end of the car and ran it out of the barn. I didn't stop it as soon as I should have, and it slid across the sidewalk. For a conductor to move a car at all was against the rules, so the superintendent discharged me."

"When I was looking around for another job I heard that a rich woman over in Somerville wanted someone to take care of her horse and carriage, and keep the garden manured and the lawn shaved. Being a farmer boy, I figured that I could do this until something better showed up."

"I stayed there a month, much of my time being consumed in carding and currying out the horse, a white horse who could shed hair faster than any animal I have ever seen before or since. One day I got interested in a tulip bed and forgot to give Major the usual amount of attention. When my employer and her daughter came home from their windy afternoon drive their coats were covered with Major's nomadic hairs. That ended my stay there."

"My experience on the express wagon was even briefer. It was work for which I was unsuited and in which I took no particular interest. My exodus was by mutual consent and with mutual relief."

"In the meantime, I had been thinking a good deal about my brother Dwight, who had died of consumption several years before. After coming to Boston he had founded a small brush company, that made brushes on the 'twisted-in-wire' principle. The inroads of the disease made it necessary for him to sell out his business—a fact he always mentioned with regret, up to the end. I used to lament over not being old enough to take up the business and carry on."

"I decided to go to the new owners of my brother's company and see if they wouldn't give me a job selling from house to house. Eventually I hoped to learn enough about the business to start in for myself, the way Dwight had. They took me on."

"I wasn't a particularly good salesman. I made no pretense at being one. But I had four or five different kinds of brushes for household use, including a clothes brush and a bath brush—and they were all articles that people really needed. That helped a lot. I averaged about twenty dollars

HOG BREEDERS ON WRONG ROAD

Increase in Non-Bacon Types A Delusive Advantage. Last Year's Transfers

There are too many non-bacon type hogs in Canada. It is a curious and unfortunate state of affairs that just when an increase is being recorded in the total number of swine in Canada the indications are that the additions are in those types which are not really wanted.

It may be taken for granted that the sales of purebred hogs, which include the boars that become the sires of our commercial hogs, are a good barometer of the trend of breeding. Transfers and registrations among purebred swine in the Dominion thus show what is happening. They are a check on sales because no sale can be made without a transfer by the Swine Breeders' Association. The record shows that only about one-half of the total are of the recognized bacon type. That means that improvement in breeding stock is taking place along the lines emphatically approved at the Ottawa hog conference only in one-half our herds!

The returns from 1921 are not yet available but in 1920 the recorded transfers numbered 6,578 in Yorkshires and other bacon types against 6,012 in non-bacon types. And the comparison is only as favorable as it appears if 50 per cent. of the Berkshire breed are classed as bacon type; the others fall into the lard-type or doubtful subdivision of this double-variety breed. Transfers for last year may be thus classified:—

|-----------------------|-------|
| Yorkshires | 4,759 |
| Berkshires (one half) | 1,324 |
| Tanworths | 485 |
| NON-BACON TYPES | |
| Berkshires (one half) | 1,325 |
| Chester Whites | 1,594 |
| Poland-Chinas | 733 |
| Duroc-Jerseys | 2,066 |
| Hampshires | 211 |
| Large Blacks | 43 |
| | 6,012 |

Where is this going to lead? A strictly limited number of the non-bacon type can be absorbed by domestic consumption but when this relatively small demand is satisfied the surplus will find no profitable outlet. Already the supply for this demand seems to be approaching the limit. As bacon hogs increase in numbers under the stimulus being given to their production the prospects for the other classes will recede, because the domestic market will give increasing preference to the lean, streaky bacon from that portion of the supply which may not grade out, after slaughter, as suitable for export.

American breeds which have done well in the cheap corn area of the United States have been popularized by useful propaganda, especially among Western farmers, where increased numbers are reported. These hogs cannot be raised in Canada competitively with the same breeds in the States nor can they be marketed in Canada at a profit. Canadian packers plainly repeat the grave warning that their market openings for lard-types, no matter how successful they may be in the States where demand is different, are strictly limited. The recent adoption of grading for hogs—a grade built in the last analysis upon the standard of an animal which will yield an exportable Wiltshire side—should be seriously weighed by producers in East and West alike. Packers can undertake to market all the Wiltshire bacon which farmers can furnish. But they cannot be expected to take off farmers' hands a class of bacon for which they clearly state there is no large scale outlet nor any prospect of such outlet.

"This impatience frequently leads to over-expansion on borrowed money. That has caused hundreds of business collapses. I believed that every business should be financed from within. A man who is financing himself must be prudent and frugal; he must work hard and keep his eye on the ball. This self-reliance sharpens his faculties and keys him to a high pitch."

At Sea
Mrs. Smith was on her first ocean voyage.

"What's that down there?" she asked the captain.

"That's the steerage, madam," he replied.

DEARNESS & PHELAN

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

A western evangelist makes a practice of painting religious lines on rocks and fences along public highways. One ran: "What will you do when you die?"

DIGBY COUNTY NEWS

Mr. Alton Snow returned home via Saturday's express.

Mr. Beckwith, of Berwick, was soloist last Sunday evening in the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lyman Brooks, Plympton, who recently underwent an operation in Lynn, has returned home, much improved.

Mr. P. W. Holdsworth, one of our well-known druggists, has been in Prince Edward Island this week on business.

Victor Taylor and family have gone from Berwick to Little River, Digby County, where they will make their future home.

Mayor H. T. Warne, who was on a brief business trip to New York, returned this morning and proceeded to his home.

Mrs. J. E. Charlton, of Middleton, is seriously ill, and her daughter, Mrs. George Potter, was summoned to her bedside on Wednesday.

A donation party for Rev. J. H. Copeland was held at the home of steady Stollen, New Tuskot, Saturday last. A large number of gifts were donated as well as a purse of money.

Mrs. E. Hart Nichols was hostess at an enjoyable little tea at her home in Halifax, on Monday afternoon. Pink and white carnations were effectively used in the decorative scheme and delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. George Mitchell assisted.

G. R. Condon's store has changed hands, having been purchased by Misses Mary Hatt, daughter of Rev. D. E. Hatt, and Miss Jessie Wallis, daughter of the editor of the Courier. It is the intention of these ladies to carry on the same line of business as in the past.

The ladies of the Baptist Church at Westport held their annual sale and tea last week and realized the sum of $120. Although the season has not been a good one for the fishermen, yet the congregation have raised considerable money. They have replaced the old bell on the church, repaired, painted and papered the parsonage and have done considerable work to the church and vestry. Westport is now taking up the matter of a new community house, and have raised considerable money towards that. Fire protection is also to come in for attention.

RECEIVING THEIR PERSONAL ATTENTION

An English farmer had for a long time been petitioning the local council to fill up a deep mud hole on the common before his house, but without result.

One very wet night, as he was seated comfortably before his fire, a cry for help was heard from the outside. The farmer, seizing a lantern, opened the door and peered out into the darkness, to find that three councilors, on their way home from a meeting, had missed their way across the common and were now struggling in the mud hole.

"Well, gentlemen," said the son of the soil, as he surveyed them grimly, "I am glad to see you stirring in this matter at last."

SUPPER AT KARSDALE

The ladies of the Episcopal Church at Karsdale, held a supper and sale at the residence of George W. Chisholm on Thursday evening, 8th inst. The weather was fine, travelling good, so that the attendance was large. A splendid supper was served and a most enjoyable evening spent. The proceeds amounted to $70.

Wasted

It was a missionary sermon, and a little girl who had accompanied her father to the hall seemed restless. When she reached home she asked her mother whether the natives of Africa wore any clothes. "No," replied her mother. "Then," retorted the observant young lady, "what was the use of that button father gave to the collection?"

LOCAL DEATH ROLL

GEORGE C. KING

Saturday afternoon the body of George C. King was laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery, Annapolis. For several years Mr. King has not been in good health. Since the big fire he called rapidly. Recently he went to the Victoria General Hospital for treatment, but got no relief. He returned home last week and Friday morning, after severe suffering, passed peacefully away, aged sixty-three years. He was widely known in Western Nova Scotia, in the eighties he was in the stage coach business, when that was the only mode of passenger traffic. He was always courteous and obliging, the friend of everybody. When the gold boom struck Queens County he opened a clothing store at Caledonia and later one at Molega Mines. He had a considerable share in a mining property in Brookfield, Queens County, but the slump in gold mining in Nova Scotia tied up the property which only now is again coming to the front. In his later years he was travelling sales agent for gent's furnishing firm of A. M. King and Son, Annapolis.

His first wife was Miss Rosann Theriault, of East Ferry, who was the mother of his children. Later he married Mrs. Thomas, formerly Miss Fisher, of Berwick, who survives him. His living children are two daughters, Mrs. Charles Ritchie, Annapolis, and Mrs. Frank Norris, Boston, and two sons, George, living in Boston, and Robert in New York. He also leaves an aged mother, who is past ninety years of age, but able to attend the funeral, and three brothers, Arthur and Capt. William, in Annapolis, and Charles in New Glasgow. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Clayton A. Munro, of St. George's and St. Andrew's Churches, Annapolis. He was a member of the Annapolis Lodge of the A. F. and A. Masons, and was buried with full Masonic honors. There was a large turnout of Brotherhood to pay respect to his memory.

HERBERT L. JONES

The community of Weymouth was shocked to learn of the very sudden death of Herbert L. Jones, of Weymouth North, which occurred at seven o'clock Friday morning in the sixty-fourth year of his age. Mr. Jones, though not in the best of health, was seriously ill only one day, he was one of the most prominent citizens of Weymouth, and represented Digby County in the Federal Parliament in 1888. Thirty years ago he married Miss Kate D. Black, of Halifax, who survives her husband. The deceased leaves one son, Reginald, with Cunard and Co., of New York; five brothers, Dr. Howard, of Dalhousie University, Halifax; Sidney and Harrison, of Weymouth; Ceceno, of Brasport, Mass., and Fred, of California, and two sisters, Mrs. Carl Stayner, of Halifax, and Miss Josephine Jones, at home. His aged mother, Mrs. Sinclair Jones, also survives, to whom the death of her son was a great shock. The late Mr. Jones was a member of the Board of Governors of King's College, and a regular attendant at the Synod meetings of the Church of England. In politics he was a Conservative, and in religion a member of St. Peter's Anglican Church. The deceased took a profound interest in everything pertaining to the betterment of his native place. He was President of the Board of Trade, and also was President of the W.A.A.A., since its formation in 1912. The funeral was held Tuesday, Dec. 13th.

MRS. ALBERT N. WORMELL

Alda Jane, widow of the late Albert N. Wormell, died suddenly at her home, Lighthouse Road, Digby, early Tuesday morning, aged sixty-seven. About one year ago she suffered a severe attack of paralysis, from which she recovered sufficiently to attend to her home duties. She is survived by four children. Mrs. Joseph Le Reaux, Randolph, Mass.; Percy J. Roland A., and Mrs. Sadie Turnbull, of Digby; also thirteen grand children and three great grandchildren, and one brother, Capt. David Hayden, of Port Wade. She was an active worker and member of the Methodist Church, and had a large circle of friends who will regret to hear of her death. She was a good woman in every way, and very charitable to those in need. Funeral from her late home at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, Henry Trask, Guy Dunn, George and William Turnbull, acting as pall bearers.

MRS. F. W. VROOM

Universal sorrow is expressed at the death of one of Windsor's estimable women, Mrs. Vroom, wife of the venerable Archdeacon F. W. Vroom, which occurred at the Payzant Memorial Hospital Friday afternoon after a short illness. Mrs. Vroom was formerly Miss Agnes Jessie Campbell, third daughter of the late Honorable Colin Campbell, M.L.C., of Weymouth, and the surviving sisters are Mrs. Dart, widow of Bishop Dart, of New Westminister, B.C., and Mrs. R. Holland Taylor, Weymouth, both of whom

THE HORRORS OF INDIGESTION

Relieved by "Fruit-a-tives" the Fruit Medicine

Indigestion, Weak Digestion or partial digestion of food, is one of the most serious of present-day complaints—because it is responsible for many serious troubles. Those who suffer with Indigestion, almost invariably are troubled with Rheumatism, Proliferation of the Heart, Sleeplessness and excessive Nervousness. "Fruit-a-tives" will always relieve Indigestion because these tablets strengthen the stomach muscles, increase the flow of the digestive juices and correct Constipation, which usually accompanies Indigestion. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. recently sailed from Halifax for England, intending to remain for the winter. M. G. Douglas Campbell, Weymouth, is a brother. Besides her husband, Mrs. Vroom is survived by one daughter, Miss Mary Vroom, in Church and University work Mrs. Vroom always took an active part and her cheerful and generous support and keen interest, manifested on all occasions, makes her passing away an irreparable loss. The body left Windsor Saturday evening for Weymouth, where on Sunday morning, at nine o'clock the funeral was held. The Rev. Rev. Morris Taylor, officiated.

WILLIAM BROWN

Mrs. William Brown, Mt. Rose, received word of the death of her husband, William Brown, who passed peacefully away at Paisley, Scotland, November 23rd, of heart trouble. The deceased was sixty-seven years of age and was a member of the Mt. Hanley Baptist Church. He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father, a widow, and three sons and two daughters: Burton, in Keene, N.H.; Willie, of Bridgeport; Mrs. Minard Brinton, Port Lorne; Guy and Winnifred, at home; besides a large circle of friends. Burial took place in Paisley, Scotland, November 25th.

To earth and sorrow more, He heard the angels singing Some songs on heaven's far shore, And knew the mystic boatman Had sailed across the sea, And borne the soul of father To God's eternity.

MORRELL FARNSWORTH

The death occurred on Friday at his late residence, Centreville, Digby Co., of Morrell Farnsworth, following a very brief illness of two or three days. Mr. Farnsworth was fifty-nine years of age. He has served as a janitor in the Methodist Church of which he was a very active member for many years. He leaves four brothers, Thomas, of Digby; George, of Lynn; John, of North Range, and Darius, of Centreville, also a sister, Mrs. Celia Hall, of Lynn. The funeral was held on Sunday, the 4th, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. H. H. McNeill, pastor of the Methodist Church, of Centreville.

OFF FOR FLORIDA

(Kentville Advertiser) This week Mr. and Mrs. Manning Ellis, of Port Williams, left for Florida, where they will remain the winter. They went by all rail via Truro. Mr. Ellis spent last winter there, being interested in an orange property at Haines City. Next week Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clarke, of Woodville, will again leave for Haines City, Florida. They will be accompanied by Mrs. H. G. Harris, of Kentville. A little later Dr. G. E. DeWitt and Mrs. DeWitt, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. WEDDING BELLS

DANIELS—PUBLICOVER

On Wednesday, December 7th, Miss Thelma Saxton Publicover, younger daughter of Mrs. Minnie Publicover, of Lynn, Mass., was united in marriage to Warren Lyndon Daniels, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Daniels, at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Henry C. Franks, of 20 Lafayette street, Waltham, Mass. The double ring service was performed by Rev. H. E. LeVoy of the Beth Eden Baptist Church in the presence of the immediate relatives.

Previous to the ceremony, "The Voice That Breathed Our Eden" was splendidly rendered by Mr. Francis. The bride, accompanied by her maid of honor, Miss Margaret Flynn, entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by another sister of the groom, Mrs. Arthur L. Graves, of Lexington, Mass. The wedding party stood in a window alcove decorated with palms and laurel, carnations and yellow chrysanthemums, gave the necessary color. Chrysanthemums were also used in the dining room. The bride was attired in her going away gown of navy blue crepe de chene and carried white columbine roses, and the maid of honor wore a canton crepe also of navy blue and carried pink roses. The best man was Ernest G. Nelson, of Hartford, Conn., a close friend of the groom during their service in the late war. After the wedding breakfast the guests enjoyed music until the departure of the bride and groom. The bride is a graduate of Kings County Academy, Nova Scotia, and of the Union Hospital of Lynn. The groom, who is employed in the J. J. Grover & Sons Co., Lynn, was graduated from Tilton Seminary, Tilton, N.H. The bride's gift to the maid of honor was a cameo ring, and the groom's to the best man a cut platinum stick pin set with a sapphire. After a brief wedding trip the happy couple will reside in Lynn.

RITCHIE—FAIRN

A very quiet wedding was that of Friday evening last when Frank Ritchie and Miss Marie Fairn were the principals, the event being celebrated at the Rectory in Round Hill, Rev. John Reeks officiating, after which the happy couple drove to the Ritchie homestead in Lequille. Miss Fairn had only returned on Friday from a long absence in the States and the many friends of both are glad to see them settle down in their old home community.

Guy Bartheaux, who was working in the saw mill, had his face and neck badly burned by steam. Dr. Braize was summoned and the latest reports say he is doing as well as can be expected. Mr. Fred Tupper while skimming Mr. Wm. Jefferson's house, had the misfortune to fall, striking his head and giving him a bad shaking up. He is confined to his bed, with Dr. Braize in attendance. Mr. John Williams fell from the tender of the engine while in Yarmouth, and had his ankles sprained. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Sorry to report Mrs. J. H. Amberman suffering from an attack of La Grippe. Miss Greta Ritchie, of Toronto, is visiting at the home of Mr. Loren Buckler. Capt. and Mrs. C. W. Croscup, who have been spending the last months in different parts of the U.S.A., arrived home Friday. Miss Pearl Melanson, accompanied by her friend, Miss Marjorie Custiver, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rhodes.

Isn't it strange that motorists who can see a bent nail twenty yards ahead can't see a pedestrian until he hits the radiator.

MARINE NEWS

Aux. schr. Lucelle B., sailed from Weymouth Thursday with lumber from St. George, N. B., shipped by the Weymouth Shipping Co.

The schrs. Thomas & Robert, Capt. Ansel Snow, and A. W. Longmire, Longmire, are the only vessels of the Yarmouth fleet that were out Friday.

The repairs to the Digby schooner Dorothy M. Smart, which for the past ten days has occupied the marine railway at Yarmouth, are about complete.

Commodore W. A. Chute has completed his work of raising the str. Valinda four ft. above the regular marine blocks at Bear River to enable Mr. Reginald Benson and his staff to make the necessary repairs to the hull.

Among the vessels anchored off Digby last week were tern schr. Win-the-War, Capt. Keans, with apples and latus for New York; tern schr. Leo LeBlanc, with latus for New York, and two-mast schr. Valdaire with lumber for Boston.

The hand liners A. W. Longmire, Capt. Longmire; Catherine M., Capt. Telephone D'Entremont, and Thomas & Robert, Capt. Ansel Snow, arrived at Yarmouth on Saturday afternoon with 3,000, 9,000 and 5,000 lbs. fresh fish respectively. The vessels were still in port Tuesday and several members of their crews went to their homes for the election.

Friday's Yarmouth Telegram: The D. G. S. Laurentian, Capt. McLean, arrived here last evening from St. John, which port she left Thursday morning. The ship has a large quantity of coal and other supplies for the Larcher lightship and while in this section the Laurentian will attend to the re-lighting of the Hen and Chickens buoy in Yarmouth Sound.

Boston Post: Charters recently closed include the Boston bark Belmont which is to load a full cargo of lumber at Ingramport, N.S., to River Plate. Years ago the export of lumber from Boston to Argentina was one of the most flourishing trades out of the port and kept a big fleet of square-riggers and schooners employed the year round. Since the war, however, very little in this line has been done, although there are signs of a revival.

The recent storms in the Gulf of Mexico have caused the loss of several medium sized schooners, and in the late shipbuilding era shipbuilders have overlooked the building of that type of vessel, so shippers at the Gulf ports will be much inconvenienced by the lack of suitable tonnage to meet the demands of their trades. There is no reason why our shipbuilders in the eastern ports could not turn out several schooners of about 350 tons each during the winter months. We believe they would find purchasers or charterers at fair prices at the many U. S. Gulf ports. There is and will be an increased demand for such tonnage in the Northern market as well.

Captain Elliott, of the steamer Keyingham, which is now lying at the government wharf at Digby, where she is loading a cargo of pulp for England, shipped by the Sisaboo Pulp & Power Co., was in Weymouth Thursday. The steamer Keyingham is the largest steamer ever docked at Digby and is 360 feet long. She has a capacity of six thousand long tons. She is owned by the Preston Steamship Co. and controlled by Beaker & Co., England. She arrived at Digby last Sunday direct from England.

NEW THEATRE AT ANNAPOLIS

The Finest Building of its Kind Between Kentville and Yarmouth

(Spectator)

The opening of the new Theatre marks an epoch in Annapolis Royal which will be noted many reasons. It is not only the finest building of its nature in Kentville and Yarmouth, but it is most modern in type, architecture, convenience of any in the province and it places this town as a center for gatherings which never before possessed. It is more than three centuries of existence has been existing in the town and would be difficult to find another town of similar size and excellence of building. It is now being occupied by the week of the day on which it was purchased, on Lower St. George street, opposite the Post office, the old theatre by St. James, was destroyed in the great September 7th. It was not possible for the public that one would be available before spring, but Mr. King has not trick and thanks to his industry and enterprise the building has become a fact, a feature to which citizens of any town might well with pride. In its erection the proprietor has not only covered his credit, but deserves the thanks of the community for having promptly and excellently risen to the occasion.

The new building reflects the skill and of a modern architect, Graham Johnson, of Kentville, in rapidity and efficiency of execution it is a monument to the skill of builders, Martin LeBlanc, of Annapolis Royal, who has the honor of having been entirely erected by work under his indefatigable and diligent superintendence, solving problems, masonry, painting, etc., as well as carpentry, and or his assistants' hands. The building is 42x100 feet and stories high. The theatre is 10 feet wide by 8 feet deep, an inside lobby 8 feet wide, feet deep leading to the auditorium which is 54x30 feet, besides a 20 feet deep with a dressing of 10 feet on each side. The auditorium has been built on a slope that assures the possible view of the stage from seat. The two aisles are each feet wide and the lighting, ventilation and acoustic properties are excellent. For the first time in Annapolis Royal the seats are of theatre orchestra chairs, having obtained from an Ontario factory at a special expense house seats 400 without the grade designed on the plans and which is installed later. The orchestra is 6x14 feet in front of the Theatre. The heating is by hot air furnaces. There are no posts or pillars to obstruct view. There is no plaster. The house has a modern metaling, 16 feet clear, interior to Douglas fir and hardwood floor theatre office is on the right, main entrance with the moving picture operating room on top of the house.

The new theatre building, not only a theatre, but a monument to the town for comfort and social purposes. The corner of the ground floor has been leased by the Annapolis Harbour Co., as offices, a general office 3 feet, private office 7½x12½ feet lavatory in rear. The south corner will be a store about 7x5 with an opening also on the lobby, conducted by Miss May with confectionery, etc.

A stairway six feet wide, South corner of the building, upstairs to the Oddfellows' hall, an area 40x45 feet, with ante-recreation room, toilet, etc., centre of the building. The tin roof will be equipped with cook stove and facilities for refreshments both for the fellows and for parties who may be in the front part of the second story, for transient rental for dance private functions.

Taken altogether the building comprehensive success from point of view and is bound to be a mecca of many attractions, besides the river and surrounding
