GENERALS FRENCH AND EWART SAY SEELY MUST GO OR THEY WILL STAY OUT.

Col. Seely Has Resigned a Second Time and is Said to Insist on Leaving the Cabinet

GENERAL ELECTIONS IN BRITAIN NEXT JUNE

BILINGUAL ISSUE IS NEARING SOLUTION

Hon. Dr. Reaume and Hon. Dr. Pyne Say the Problem Soon Will Be Settled in Ontario—Prolonged Debate in the Legislature Led by French Members.

Bilingualism strode rampant on the floor of the legislature afternoon and evening and the debating of racial matters in general stirred up such a storm of oratory as has not developed since the government measure of 1911. When Sir James Whitney took his firm stand on the handling of French-Canadian schools. There were declamatory and perverted speeches at times, but there was little bitterness. French-Canadian members of the house, however, united in declaring that they as a race were prepared to fight for the retention of their language as long as a handful of them remained. Nevertheless, they desired to have a thorough English education. The Liberal party, however, came in for some rough handling from Napoleon Champagne of Ottawa, who threw a challenge for an answer to a statement which was supposed to have been made in opposition to headquarters. This was followed by a similar challenge from Hon. Dr. Reaume that he would be willing to resign his seat if he could be told of a single French family that wished to have French taught alone.

Will Be Settled. "I believe this question has never been so near solution as it is today," declared the minister, "and I appeal to you, the people of Ontario, to give me an instance of a man or woman who only wants French taught in a school. The rays of light are on the horizon and this program will be settled in Ontario. Everything will be alright." He then attacked the leader of the opposition "for sitting thin-lipped and dumb as an oyster," when he had the opportunity of speaking. Hon. Dr. Pyne came on next with the statement that the government was prepared to follow out its policy with courage and determination. The platform had been laid down by Sir James Whitney and they would stand by it, believing it to be the best thing for Ontario. The whole program spoke for efficiency. Forbes Godfrey came out in flat-footed style to ensure the English language being thoroughly taught. It was not a matter of creed, thank God, but of language and every child should get his training. W. D. MacPherson, Chas. McCrea of Sudbury and Henry Morel of Nipissing followed up in the same sentiment. At an early hour this morning Mr. Rowell was continuing the debate.

N. T. R. MERELY COSTLY ORNAMENT CAN NEVER REGULATE CHARGES MEIGHEN'S STRONG ARGUMENT

Owner of Shingle Mill Might as Well Equip Plant With Marble Floors and Stained Glass Windows—German Declared Outlay Justified.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, March 26.—The vast deputations here today from all parts of Ontario filled the galleries of the house this afternoon and evening and heard the case of the government on the Stanton-Gutellus report strongly presented by Solicitor-General Meighen. The debate, which began on Tuesday of this week bids fair to last until Tuesday of next week, when a vote is expected. Mr. Meighen dealt exhaustively with the elaborate argument presented by Hon. George F. Graham, and many of his points were loudly cheered by his fellow members on the government benches.

Fantastic Purposes. He declared that the Laurier government had endeavored to build a railway without any regard to expense and had failed to remember that the purpose of the National Transcontinental was to provide cheap and efficient transportation. The excessive cost of the railway, in Mr. Meighen's opinion, would keep it from ever becoming a regulator of freight rates. Much money had been expended for merely fanciful purposes, as the owner of a shingle mill would equip his plant with a marble floor, a metallic roof and stained glass windows.

Mr. German, of Welland, replied with considerable vigor. He made merry with Mr. Meighen's sobriquet, "the rising hope of the Conservative party." Mr. German declared that the only question was whether it was good policy to build a first-class road in the first place rather than a second-class road which would have to be rebuilt from one end to the other. Gutellus Comment. Mr. Meighen defended Mr. Gutellus from a charge of incompetency. He had been engaged in railway construction continuously from 1888 to 1908. Mr. Emerson: "Was he a naturalized citizen when he was appointed to this commission?" Mr. Meighen replied that he did not think the date of Mr. Gutellus's naturalization would throw much light on his engineering ability. Mr. Graham had rested his whole case against the report upon the opinion of an engineer at Omaha, who had never been naturalized at all.

Big Fire at Fort William.

PORT WILLIAM, March 26.—Fire starting from an explosion in the furnace gutted the Hudson Bay store, containing stock valued at about $200,000, and the building and contents will be a total loss. Flames are breaking out in all parts of the building.

JUNE ELECTION NOW EXPECTED

Asquith Organ Says Appeal to Country at Early Date is Inevitable.

LONDON, March 26.—Many renewed rumors appear in the morning papers of the resignation of officers at Aldershot and Curragh, but none has yet been confirmed. The Chronicle, a government organ, writes that any such resignations must be dealt with by instant dismissal. The Chronicle also admits that it is no longer possible to think of postponing the dissolution of parliament until next year.

The general election, it says, "must come very shortly, and the advantage of popular freedom versus army domination is bound to dominate it." This probably means that the election will be held in June, directly after the home rule and Welsh disestablishment bills are passed. The Times' parliamentary correspondent alleges the existence of documentary evidence proving that the majority of the infantry officers in Ireland only agreed to go to Ulster on being informed that this was in accordance with the King's wish and in loyalty to his majesty and the army. Before this statement was communicated to them they had expressed their willingness to be dismissed rather than so.

ACCUSE WILSON OF TREASONING TO BRITAIN

Jingoistic Utterances Freely Indulged in by Supporters of Panama Tolls Exemption and Plea of National Honor Scouted—Objected to "Gag Rule."

WASHINGTON, March 26.—When adjournment came, with an hour of debate on the rule left for tomorrow, Speaker Clark who had not yet announced his position on the repeal policy, issued a statement vigorously opposing the rule. "Surely there is nothing sacred about this repeal bill, and there is no reason for this mad rush," was the speaker's statement, "and I will not be a party to jamming such a rule down the throats of members."

By agreement, debate on the rule was limited to three hours, one-half under control of Chairman Henry and one-half under control of Representative Campbell, managing Republican member of the rules committee. A number of the time to be allotted to the Progressives.

Representative Henry opened the argument for the rule. He declared that the free toll plank of the Baltimore platform did not represent Democratic sentiment. "I propose," he said, "to aid in the correction of a blunder that has been committed by."

FORGED TO AND SLAYER'S FLIGHT

Man Who Drove Motor Car With Krafchenko Abroad Said Revolver Persuaded Him.

MORDEEN, Man, March 26.—Wm. Dyck, who carried away in his automobile the Plum Coules bandit and the murderer of H. M. Arnold, today told on the witness stand the story of his fear-compelled drive with the bandit. He said that meeting John Krafchenko, the prisoner now charged with the robbery and murder the night before the crime. He said that Krafchenko had compelled him to drive a friend of Krafchenko's who had got into trouble with the police away from the Plum Coules. Krafchenko, swore Dyck, had given minute directions, which the following day at noon he followed out to that letter. Krafchenko said his friend would come from the lane behind the Queen's Hotel, would be dressed in a black coat and wear a beard. Dyck was to drive him away immediately he got into the car.

KILLED BY CAR DURING THE FOG

Mrs. Albert Whale's Son Saw the Accident, But Did Not Know His Mother Was the Victim.

While crossing Avenue road at Barnard avenue during the heavy fog, at 7:45 last night, Mrs. Albert Whale, whose husband and family live at 112 Hazelton avenue, was struck and instantly killed by a northbound Dupont car. John Cooper, 149 Yorkville avenue, was the motorman of the car, and A. Stevens, 559 Church street, the conductor. For several hours the identity of Mrs. Whale was not known. Her son was in the vicinity shortly after the accident, and saw the crowd which had gathered near the street car. He continued on his way. When his mother had not returned at 11:30, he walked to the Bates' Burial Co.'s undertaking establishment on Avenue road, and learned that it was his mother who had been killed. Her body had been removed to the morgue an hour or two previous, where an inquest will be opened today.

GENERAL INSIST ON RESIGNING UNLESS SEELY LEAVES HIS POST CHANGES EXPECTED IN CABINET

Secretary of War's Resignation May Already Be in Hands of Asquith—Report is Current That Seely and Lewis Harcourt May Exchange Portfolios, or That John Burns May Take Former's Post—Gen. French and Gen. Ewart Known to Have Given Straight Ultimatum to Government.

LONDON, March 26.—That the government is still facing a situation of extreme difficulty is proved by the fact that Premier Asquith was not in a position tonight to make his promised statement in parliament, and it was consequently postponed until tomorrow. The air is full of extravagant rumors, among the most credible being the report that Col. Seely is, after all, to quit the war office, by an exchange of portfolios with Lewis Harcourt, secretary of the colonies.

The only new facts in the situation today were to be found in the resignation of Field Marshal Sir John French, chief of the imperial general staff, and Sir John Spencer Ewart, adjutant-general, from the army council. The rumor persists that other members of the army council have resigned, but this cannot be confirmed.

STRONG PERSUASION. Negotiations and conferences between Buckingham Palace, the war office and Downing street were carried on through the day, and it was shown that the strongest efforts were being made to induce Field Marshal French and General Ewart to reconsider their action. The prime minister called a hurried meeting of the cabinet at his residence after it was decided to postpone the statement in parliament. In Ireland no change has occurred. Belfast remains quiet, and, "alitho it is asserted that the officers at the Curragh Camp are determined to resign because of the repudiation of Col. Seely's guaranteed by the government, no actual resignations, so far as is known, have occurred."

At midnight Field Marshal French authorized the statement that his resignation had neither been accepted nor withdrawn. Nothing is likely to be known officially until Premier Asquith makes his statement in the house of commons tomorrow, when it will probably be found that the removal of Col. Seely from the war office is the price paid for the withdrawal of the resignations of Gen. French and Ewart, and that the arrangement of this matter was the reason for the postponement of the premier's statement.

WOMAN STARVED FOR FIVE DAYS

Abandoned by Her Husband and Unable to Leave House, Endured Hunger and Cold.

HAMILTON, March 26.—In a rough frame shack, 181 East Jackson street, lives a woman who for the past five days has been existing on bread and water, without fuel or light in the house, altho in the last stages of pro-confinement. Her hardship is attributed to the absence of her husband, who left on Saturday and has not been heard of since. On Saturday the husband took in three loaves of bread. He went out again and has not shown up since. The woman, who was unable to leave the house, had to exist on this. As the gas bill had not been paid, the gas connections were cut off.

ROUTED WITH SLAUGHTER.

EAGLE PASS, TEXAS, March 26.—Federal officials at Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass, today announced they had received official advice of the defeat of Gen. Villa's forces at Gomez Palacio, a suburb of Torreon. Notices were posted in Piedras Negras declaring Villa had been repulsed with the loss of 2,000 killed and wounded and that the rebels were retreating toward Escalon, 100 miles northwest of Torreon.

FOUND DEAD IN ROOM AFTER LONG DEBAUCH

Robert Ferguson Took to Drink When He Failed to Obtain Employment. Robert Ferguson, 46, of 389 West Adelaide street, was found dead in his room at that address by his wife at 3:30 last evening. Beside him was a half empty whiskey flask, and the other surroundings of the room gave evidence that Ferguson had been drinking heavily. According to his wife he had been out of work for some time. Dr. W. H. Nelson, 508 Spadina avenue, examined the body and declared life had been extinct at least three hours before the discovery. The body was removed to the morgue, where an inquest may be held.

GEN. VILLA MET SEVERE REVERSE

Confirmation of Report of Federal Victory at Torreon Received—Rebel Losses Heavy.

MEXICO CITY, March 26.—Confirmation of the reported defeat of Gen. Villa's army at Torreon by federal forces under Gen. Velasco, was given in a message received at the Mexican war office at noon today. The rebel losses are said to be 700 men killed. The rebels are said to be retreating to Bermejillo, a town on the railroad 20 miles north of Torreon. At the war office it was said that the message was sent from San Pedro de Las Colonias, a town 37 miles northeast of the battlefield, and was filed by a federal officer. It was the first despatch to come thru from the fighting zone, and was signed by a newspaper correspondent at San Pedro de las Colonias, to the east of that city, in the State of Coahuila, where 247 rebels are said to have been killed by the federals.

BOYS WERE TREATED FOR CIGARET HABIT.

Dr. G. R. Phipps, 1338 East Queen street, last night treated fifteen boys for the cigarette habit at the East Riverside Boys' Club. The doctor swabbed the boys' throat with nitrate of silver and gave them follow-up treatment to take at their homes. The ages of the lads ranged from 10 to 18 years. The smaller boys admitted that their parents did not know they smoked cigarettes, while the older ones stated that they smoked from one to one and a half boxes of cigarettes every day.

RESUMPTION OF FIGHTING.

EAGLE PASS, TEXAS, March 26.—Following the repulse of Gen. Francisco Villa and his rebel army, fighting has been resumed in the attack on Torreon at Noe, a few miles north of Gomez Palacio. This was the substance of a brief despatch to federal headquarters in Piedras Negras late today, said to have come direct from the battlefield. The message was sent by Gen. Joaquin Maas.

Besides the projected line of the Ontario Government to Moose Factory, the Manitoba Government will construct a line east from Winnipeg to Port Nelson and the Quebec Government will lay a line from Montreal to Rupert House.

ASQUITH FACING NEW CRISIS IN RESIGNATION OF GEN. FRENCH

Other Leading Officers Expected to Hand in Papers as Outcome of Repudiation of Guarantees—Premier Urges French to Remain.

LONDON, March 26.—Premier Asquith was brought face to face with a new crisis by the resignation of Field Marshal Sir John French, chief of the imperial general staff and virtual head of the British army. Other leading officers of the army were also expected to hand in their papers, as a direct outcome of the repudiation of the guarantees given to army officers in Ireland by Sir John French, Adjutant-General Ewart and Colonel Seely, secretary for war.

The result of a meeting at the war office of the principal commanding generals of the British army was awaited with anxiety by the general public and in political circles today, as it was thought they might take some step which would virtually disrupt the army administration. In the north of Ireland itself, where the controversy between Nationalists and Unionists had been the cause of so much difficulty to the British Government, there was no disturbance of the peace. The two parties were seemingly content to await events in London.

BOOK REVIEW

UNEMPLOYMENT

An attempt has been made to review in the white light of science conditions whose continuance exacts a heavy toll of suffering, and to forge, if that may be, weapons wherewith to combat those conditions. So A. C. Pigou condenses the idea of his book, "Unemployment," a rather technical treatise which has appeared in the Home University Library.

Mr. Pigou rejects rhetoric and wordy denunciation of the evils of unemployment, or, as he styles it, "involuntary idleness." His book is one for the student rather than for the debater. The most interesting problem which Mr. Pigou holds up to view is that of the incompetent—the man who has not the ability to make it worth anyone's while to employ him, even at the minimum wage.

The public at large has no overwhelming interest in the disputes which organized labor carries on with the organized employers of labor. For many years, while labor was the under dog, a strike anywhere and for almost any cause was reasonably sure of universal sympathy.

This question of the unfit is the most striking note of the book. The author has dealt upon the discussion of this phase of his subject. The chapter which he deals with "blind-alley occupations" and their effect on the life of boys and girls is well handled. His plea for state interference in the way of education and the regulation of production is another of the many arrows which point humanity toward his golden age.

"Unemployment" is published by William Briggs, Toronto.

CHORAL SOCIETY MAKES PRESENTATION TO LEADER

The members of Woodgreen Methodist choir and Choral Society presented their conductor, John Adamson, with a silver-mounted baton and music stand in recognition of the success attending the first two months of the society's existence.

Speeches were made by the Rev. R. Corrigan, the pastor, and Dr. Walter Bonny, who made the presentation. Many Improvements. At present the church is being re-decorated and the choir is being re-organized and choir gallery. The re-opening will take place the Sunday before Easter, when the choir will be supplied for the first time.

During the week the choral society will combine with the choir in rendering special choral music. On the re-opening Sunday and also on Easter Sunday special selections will be rendered from the works of Handel, Verdi, Teichowalski and Dariusz-Bucki. For the Easter service Mr. Adamson has especially written a motet, entitled "Our Passover," published by Messrs. Whaley, Royce and Company of Toronto, which will be sung by many of the leading churches throughout the Dominion.

WOMEN'S INDUSTRIAL FARM SOON READY

Supt. Findlay of the Men's Institution May Be Placed in Charge.

Commissioner Chisholm is getting a list of requirements for the woman's industrial farm and expects to have city guests at the new resort by June. The occupants of the farm will not vacate until May 1.

The farm house is large enough to provide immediate accommodation for the supply of guests that will be on hand for June. Accommodations for a larger number can be provided at leisure, as the Toronto Jail will be available for a few years yet for any overflow.

Although the appointment of a superintendent of the Woman's Industrial Farm is in the hands of the provincial government, yet it is generally understood the position will be given Superintendent Findlay of the M.M.E.'s Industrial Farm.

Each Tuesday until April 28, the Canadian Pacific will run sleeper trains to Winnipeg and west, and for the accommodation of settlers traveling with live stock and effects a colonist car will be attached to regular trains from Toronto. This car will leave Toronto on regular train at 10:20 p.m., and on arrival at West Toronto it will be attached to settlers' effects train, as mentioned above.

For those not traveling with live stock and effects, special colonist cars will be attached to regular trains from Toronto, running through to Winnipeg without change. No charge is made for accommodation in colonist cars. Tourist sleeping cars are also operated on regular trains leaving Toronto 10:20 p.m. daily.

SCANDINAVIAN CONCERT.

Scandinavia, the club constituted by the Norwegians, Swedes and Danes in this city, will give their first concert and dance in the new Orange Hall, corner Euclid avenue and College street, April 1. The prominent Danish pianist at Toronto Conservatory of Music, Prof. Viggo Kibbi, is going to play. Miss Dagmar Printz, one of the leading pianists in this city, and Miss J. Olsen, who made such a success at the N. A. C. last Tuesday, have promised to sing a few songs. The rest of the program will be filled out by other members of the club.

ASK C.N.R. TO EXTEND LINE.

CHATHAM, March 26.—Following the action of the board, the railway council will ask the Canadian Northern Railway Company to extend the Chatham-Wallaceburg and Lake Erie Electric Railway from Erie Beach to Brieau. It is regarded that the construction of this line would facilitate the handling of freight and be of great convenience to scores of Chatham people who spend their summers at Brieau. The C.N.R. some time ago secured control of the electric line.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING BY HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURER

That "Woolly" Taste

THE price of spring lamb is at its zenith this time of year and "yearling" lamb, that butchers offer as "just as good," is decidedly strong in flavor. Yet just now is the time when we enjoy the many stews and combinations of vegetables that are only possible with lamb or tender mutton. It is in such cases as this that the good cook makes a lining; this time by removing the woolly, strong flavor of the mutton by adding a generous pinch of soda to the stew or by dipping small cutlets into a mixture of water and a very little soda.

It is very common to hear housewives demand "a cut of lean mutton." This request is doubtless made because the tallow and mutton drippings are considered pure waste and an extravagant purchase. This fat is excellent for many kinds of frying if mixed with lard or other drippings and its strong flavor can be eliminated by adding a little soda when rendering it. The best mutton is firm, finely grained and deep red in color. The fat should be well distributed, in layers over the legs and back and in mottles thru the small cuts. When mutton is lean you may be almost sure that it is from a badly nourished animal.

Many fruits are delicious with this meat; they may be dried and cooked or freshly cooked. Quince cubes, all rich jellies, and apricots, peaches and preserves blend their flavors nicely with lamb and mutton just as apples do with pork.

Corned mutton is much finer for cooking with vegetables than corned beef, but few persons know this, so there is little demand for it. The mutton absorbs more salt than beef, so only one and a half cups of salt is used to every ten pounds of meat; one tablespoon of salt, one cup of brown sugar and one teaspoon of baking soda with enough water to cover the meat completes the recipe.

If you are so fortunate as to be able to secure corned mutton, cook it with cabbage or with ruta-bagas, just as you would corned beef, and you will be pleased with its rich flavor. Leg of Mutton, Boiled, then Baked.—Boil the meat briskly in a deep kettle with enough water to half cover it and enough soda in the water to taste plainly. When almost tender place the leg in a roaster, and put the pot-liquor where it is in such cases as this that the good cook makes a lining; this time by removing the woolly, strong flavor of the mutton by adding a generous pinch of soda to the stew or by dipping small cutlets into a mixture of water and a very little soda.

Boiled turnips with the centre removed and the cavity filled with creamed peas make a fine accompaniment, as do potato croquettes or almost any well cooked vegetable. Rice and tomato sauce with mutton is as well liked as mint sauce; the former is the Italian and eastern way of serving mutton, and the latter is English style. In Mexico, mutton and lamb are most familiar meats and these peppers are always cooked with the meat. Two green, sweet peppers are cut in half, the seeds removed and the peppers cooked in clear water, then shredded and added to the meat or to the vegetables.

COUNCIL DISPOSES OF DRAIN QUESTIONS

PETROLEA, March 26.—A great deal of the trouble that has agitated this part of the county over drainage matters came to an end at a meeting of the Ennisville council. The council separated into two courts of revision and spent several hours on the drainage problem.

In the end no fewer than seven by-laws were adopted. The LeCoq and McMillan drains, which have been the cause of so much talk, will soon be under construction, the numerous appeals not being sufficient in the minds of the councillors to delay longer.

The Hunter-Casson drain and the Anderson drain, two of the large drain undertakings of the 1913 council, were reported completed by Messrs. Park and Jackson, respectively. The engineers' estimates were found to be considerably smaller than the actual cost. The Whiting, Copelston, Whittiger and Ormrod-McBride drains were considered and left over for the next meeting to await appeals and hear from surrounding townships.

POINTS TO LACK OF QUALIFICATION

Dr. Conboy Objects to Hiring Teachers to Teach Teachers.

EXTEND KINDERGARTEN

Motion to Use Elementary System in Primary Grade of Schools.

"Thousands of dollars are being spent every year for qualifying school teachers who should have the qualifications when they are appointed," asserted Dr. Conboy, at the management committee of the board of education yesterday afternoon. He objected to the board having to hire a supervisor to instruct the teachers how to conduct domestic science classes. This was on a motion that Miss Elizabeth Douglas, recently from England, be appointed to a temporary position on the staff, at a salary of $125 a month, to conduct a special course in housewifery to the teachers of domestic science.

After expressing his views, Dr. Conboy concurred in the appointment as a necessary under present conditions. Little mothers' league classes, where senior girls will be taught the scientific care of infants, were authorized in the following schools: Dufferin, Palmerston avenue, Givens, Adelaide, Perth avenue, Murray, Byne, Wellesley, Fern avenue, John Fisher, Park, Niagara, Ogden, Winchester, Ryerson and York street.

Inspector Cowley was authorized to decide upon the question of allowing absentee attendance marks for certification purposes, with respect to the stormy Monday last month, which blocked some of the suburban trains. Trustee Houston's motion that modified absentee methods be extended into the primary grade, will be reported upon by the chief inspector.

Some Plans For Special Window Boxes

And now having considered every thing we shall take a look at some plans for boxes having different exposures.

For a southern exposure. No. 1. Scarlet geranium, white snapdragon, scarlet geranium, heliotrope, hego-trope, heliotrope, heliotrope, white maunday, white maunday, white maunday. You will notice that in this box there are but eleven plants in all, and while it may seem that the box is not full enough at first, have patience.

The first row, nearest the street, are the two scarlet geraniums, with the white snapdragon between them. Next comes the row of fragrant royal heliotropes. No mixture either in form or color. And last are the three white maunday vines to creep up the short lattices you will prepare for them.

This is one of the nicest and most satisfactory boxes you could plant. Year after year you have planted the same with little variation and are always satisfied. Geraniums are always good plants for window boxes. No plants are harder. No plants bloom better or longer. No foliage is more satisfactory.

Whether it be those with darkish brown or silvery hoarshoes marking the crinkled velvet of the green, or whether it be those with silvery green leaves, a geranium is always more or less fragrant. Scented geraniums are always good in this box, sometimes placed in the first row, instead of the white snapdragon. The maunday vine is a vine without an equal as a drooping creeper. For vases, boxes, rockwork or trellises, it will form a pretty screen or a soft clinging drapery that is delightfully effective and very satisfactory.

The smooth, shining leaves are ivy-shaped; the flowers white or pink, not unlike the flower of the snapdragon, and an inch or so long, born in the axis of the leaves. It is an annual, and may be transplanted as soon as it has four to six leaves. Flowering constantly from early April it should be replaced about July by either a fresh vine or an entirely different plant.

Give this box plenty of moisture, every day.

An Attractive Quebec Resort Lake St. Joseph.

Comparatively little known yet, the chosen summer holiday ground of those who have once tasted its charms, Lake St. Joseph vies with anything that the Muskoka district can produce in its varied charms. A handsome little booklet, tastefully illustrated, giving a complete description of the lake and vicinity has just been issued by the Canadian Northern Railway in connection with its hotel of the same name. The question of finding a new and "different" resort is often perplexing, and the vacationist who is in this position will do well to apply for this booklet, together with full particulars as to rates, etc., to the manager, Hotel Lake St. Joseph, St. Catherine, P.O. Que. or to the general passenger department, 88 King street east, Toronto, Ontario.

LABORERS WANTED ROUND LEAMINGTON. LEAMINGTON, March 26.—Although many laborers have made their way into this district, still the labor question is causing some apprehension on the part of early vegetable growers. The nature of the farming is such that farmers must have steady employees in order to take every advantage of the rush that comes on when the early crops are to be attended to.

McALL ASSOCIATION HAD EXCELLENT YEAR. Reports Read at the Annual Meeting Were Most Gratifying in Every Respect. The annual meeting of the Canadian McAll Association was held yesterday in Sherbourne Street Methodist Church. The reports of the work being conducted in Franco were exceedingly gratifying, several letters being read from the workers in Southern France. The reports of Miss De Loris on the girls' work, and of Mr. Gibson on the Boy Scouts, were full of delightful incidents, as were the various reports from the Canadian auxiliaries. The president's address, by Mrs. C. T. Stark, was most enthusiastic. The Rev. John McNeill addressed the meeting at the afternoon session and Mrs. Ewart Wilson contributed two delightful solos. Miss Caven's report showed an increase in the financial support of the organization.

The Money Grubber a Misfit in Nature

By WINIFRED BLACK

Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service.

Winifred Black

A MAN in a Connecticut town died the other day and left $50,000 in the bank.

He was a watchman. He worked 16 hours a day, rain or shine, hot or cold, ill or well, and he got $2 a day for it. He lived in a little house all by himself and ate three times a day bread and onions. He never had visitors, and he never went visiting. He didn't subscribe for a daily paper; he belonged to no library and he had bought just one book in the last 40 years.

He did not care for the theatre. He never went to the races, and nobody ever saw him buy so much as an ice cream cone for even himself, or anybody else.

He lived like a dormouse in his little house, the world forgetting, by the world forgot. I wonder what he thought about on summer evenings when the moon threw a spangled net of silver over the river that ran close to the little hut where he lived.

And when the meadow larks began to call in the spring, I wonder if he ever got time to go out and look for shooting stars and Dutchman's breeches, or if he thought everything that wasn't good to eat was just a weed, and ought to be pulled up for taking the ground away from the potatoes.

What Good Is His Money Now?

When the June sun made the roses along the railroad track smell like Araby the Blest—though they were just wild and only pink and sweet and not worth a penny in the world—what did he think then of the wild extravagance of the hand that flung them there to seed and blossom, just because they were pretty and made the world bright?

When the winter stars sparkled frostily in the cold sky, did he ever look up at them, this man who worked so hard and lived so poor—to save a fortune—and wonder why they shone so brightly?

The butterflies, little yellow fellows with white spots of silver on their wings, they grow that way down in Connecticut where this poor rich man lived, and great brown moths with wings of ringed yellow—what did he think of them, I wonder, and of their part in the great plan of creation?

The wild cucumber vine crept up over his lonely habitation and spanned the humble roof with its veil of bubbling lace. I wonder why? There was no money in it.

Of evenings when the lonely old man sat for a while on the hard earth at his doorstep, did he note the grasshoppers fiddling so cheerily there in the dusk?

Queer old fellows, the grasshoppers. I always like to believe that they are the fiddlers for the fairies who live down there in the grass and the clover. They never tire, and when the dancing flares they leap into the air to show how proper dancing should be done. I shall always believe that the man who invented the tango thought of this on a June evening when the grasshoppers were out for a frolic. Did he ever watch them jumping in the clover, poor old man, who died the other day and left $50,000 in the bank—after a lifetime of grudging privation and niggardly economies?

I wonder what his heirs will do with it. I hope there's a pretty piece with cheeks like roses and Irish eyes like violets drenched in dew. I hope she'll buy a pretty hat with a pink rose on it and a soft frock of white, or some such color, to wear to Holy Communion some Easter Sunday.

No Savings Bank for Nature.

I hope there's a strapping nephew, too, with a pair of broad shoulders and two honest hands that can spend, as well as save.

Bless their hearts, sure it's a fine dinner they'll have the day, and new shoes, too, with plenty of "creak" in them.

The earth where they dug the grave was hard—as hard as the heart of what they call a miser. But the man lies snug and warm, snug and warm, and it costs him never a cent for food or shelter.

No more extravagance in the way of a fire, no more folly of bread at a nickel a loaf, snug and warm and sheltered, who so well content as he?

But when the wild railroad track along which the old watchman used to walk is aboy with wild roses and blue with morning-glories—will it not be well for a frugal soul to be out of the way of the sight of the reckless and wicked extravagance of nature?

Brown will run the water in the brooks and deep and deep will rush the swelling tide of the hurrying river to the brimming sea—all wasted, all thrown away, for what?

Not a savings bank in sight for Mother Nature! What a mistake it all must have seemed to the honest, hard-working old man—who saved—and died.

DINING WITH A PRIMA DONNA

Geraldine Farrar

Geraldine Farrar's Famous Italian Dishes

By Ann Marie Lloyd

TO those who know Geraldine Farrar only by voice it may seem difficult to imagine her as a domestic young woman with a dainty frilled apron tied about her waist and a measuring spoon in her hand. As a matter of fact, fascinating and charming and wonderful as she is in opera, she is all these things enhanced in the home, and she is a few congenial souls to make a first can picture.

When she wishes to give a particularly beautiful party to her dearest friends she sends out dainty messengers to ask a few congenial souls to gather in her home overlooking the east, picturesque of Central Park and eat an Italian dinner which she will prepare herself.

There is no record of a regret having been sent to such an invitation. But there are several instances where the advice of doctors has not only been disregarded, but defied, and hidden guests have left a cough of pain and a bed of sickness to gather around "Gerry" Farrar's hospitable table.

And such viands as are served? Miss Farrar has lived abroad so much and knows Italy so well that she succeeds in transplanting the atmosphere of Naples to America. As a famous composer remarked, "If there is anything better to eat in the whole civilized world than Geraldine Farrar's ravioli (the Geraldine Farrar's Boston baked beans)." Here is a sample menu of one of those Italian dinners, cooked by the hostess according to the rules which she gives. There is always a relish, such as tummy fish, with some of the delicious Italian salad vegetables and a dressing of oil, which requires more knack than rule to make.

Minestrina di Straciatella is a favorite soup. For the base of this use brodo di carne, which is beef stock made with one pound of round beef, half a pound of beef bones, half a carrot, one small onion, two tomatoes, one large potato, a bunch of parsley, all cooked in two quarts of water for two hours with salt and pepper to taste. At the end of two hours add two tablespoons of Parmesan cheese and an even tablespoon of sherry and strain through cheesecloth.

For the soup add one egg well beaten, a small tablespoonful of Parmesan cheese and an even tablespoonful of bread crumbs to the boiling stock, stirring with a silver fork so the egg won't make.

Here is the ravioli. The paste, or the pasta fatta in casa, which is really ribbons of macaroni, will take two and one-half cups of flour, two eggs, three tablespoonfuls of cold water and salt to taste. Make a heap of the flour and in the centre break the eggs, pour the water slowly, add the salt and stir with a fork till you have a paste you can roll with the rolling pin. Roll it thin.

Take some meat, chicken, veal or turkey, which has already been cooked, and put it through the finest knives of the meat grinder. Mix it with an egg and some Parmesan cheese and a tablespoonful of butter, and dash it with nutmeg. Squeeze a little lemon juice in the mixture.

Have the paste rolled out into a strip nearly an inch wide. Put a teaspoonful of the mixture on the ribbon and repeat at intervals of two inches all along the ribbon. Cut between each spoonful and fold the paste over, making little squares with the paste so firmly pressed into place that the meat is secure. Put the little squares in boiling salted water and boil 10 minutes. These are served with tomato sauce, or with melted butter, and always with Parmesan cheese.

Rocconcini is a favored dish. For this, slices of lamb, veal or mutton are cut about two inches wide and sprinkled with salt and pepper. An equal number of bread slices are cut a little larger than the meat and half an inch thick. Then twice as many slices of ham the same size as the meat. Arrange on skewers, a piece of bread, then a piece of ham, a leaf of sage, then the meat, another leaf of sage, repeat the ham and the bread. Always the meat must be between two leaves of sage. Two slices of ham and two slices of bread. Dip them in olive oil and broil 20 minutes in front of a hot fire, turning them till they are golden brown. Or they may be cooked on a pan in the oven. They are served with lettuce salad.

If one wishes hot wine with this dinner, this is the recipe: To each pint of red wine add two heaping tablespoonfuls of sugar, the rind of lemon and orange and a small stick of cinnamon. Heat in a saucepan till the sugar is dissolved. Strain through cheesecloth.

Peter's Adventures in Matrimony

By Leona Dalrymple

Author of the new novel, "Diane of the Green Van," awarded a prize of $10,000 by Ida M. Tarbell and S. S. McClure as judges.

The truth about "the girl in the case" distinguishes this new series by Miss Dalrymple. Her character studies will not appear unfamiliar to the majority of readers, who will follow the fortunes of "Peter" with growing interest.

XLIX.
Facing Household Problems

I DON'T believe I shall ever forget my sensations when I struck home late that afternoon and heard the steam valve popping like a series of thunder-claps in the cellar.

Mary was apparently nowhere in sight or hearing.

"I hurried downstairs and lit the gas. The cellar was a mass of dim white fog, through which the furnace was utterly indistinguishable.

"Well, Peter," I said, "you're in for it. Get a stick and hunt up your furnace."

The steam-valve went on popping and thumping thunderously, more warm, damp steam poured alarmingly forth into the cellar. The gas flared. Although it was June, the weather was still very chill, and reluctantly enough we had kept our furnace going, waiting for the belated summer to put in an appearance.

I wondered where Mary could be. There was a long pole just beside me.

Armed with this and a grim smile, I started forth valiantly to search for my lost furnace. It struck me as most absurd, this futile poking about try to find a furnace enveloped in fog, but I persisted and eventually discovered it. It needed attention and I fell to in appalled amazement.

Busy when there came a careful call from the head of the stairs.

"Certainly," I assured her grimly. "Mary, tell me, why did you let this thing get the better of you again? How many times have I explained just what you should do to avoid such a mess as this and what you should do when it did happen."

"Oh, Peter!" wailed Mary hysterically. "Where are you? In that horrid steam? What shall I do?"

"I'm certainly in the steam," said I unhumorously, "and so is this accursed furnace. Moreover, I've been poking about in search of it with a clothes-pole and I've bumped my head on beams and things that seem to have sprung up in the most unexpected places. I might just as well say, Mary, that it would please me considerably if you'd try to keep your head about you when you have a card party on board and fix up the furnace before you depart. Where have you been?"

I might as well say here that, while I was ashamed of my ill-temper, paradoxically enough, I revelled in it, too.

"And heard it pounding and I was so frightened, Peter. I— I telephoned for a plumber. Please do come out of that horrid steam so I can see you."

"You'll see me all right in a minute or two," I assured her. "How was the plumber to get in if you were locked in the bathroom?"

I wondered where Mary could be. There was a long pole just beside me.

Mary did not reply, but she came timidly down into the steam with a pathetic air of apology.

"Mary," I said more kindly—she seemed so helpless—"tonight after dinner I want you to sit down and listen very carefully to a few essential facts about a furnace. You can understand them if you try to. The appalling ignorance of women about the machinery of things in the home makes me terribly tired. I told you about the furnace before, didn't I?"

"Yes," admitted Mary, "you did—but I don't remember."

How many women know the absolutely scientific facts about their fires as they should? Why doesn't some enterprising person write a simple furnace book for the edification of housewives? A sea captain knows all about the coaling of his vessel. He knows how to get the best result with the least fuel.

What woman does? Compare the different opinions of the coal it takes to run a house and you'll find what a wilful waste of fuel there is in many homes just through ignorance.

I maintain that it doesn't hurt any woman to have a smattering knowledge of furnaces and simple plumbing. I also maintain that women should understand more of these things if they would concentrate when some one tries to explain such mysteries and not let their things go wool-gathering, mere because the subject is dry and wrongly regarded as outside their province.

My mother can think out a simple problem in plumbing and apply a temporary remedy. She once fixed a flooding bathroom tap by the application of a washer cut from the inner rim of a shoe.

If Mary gets in a mess, she locks herself in the bathroom and telephones for the police.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Sagging of One Eyelid Warns of Coming Ills

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins).
Copyright, 1914, by L. K. Hirschberg.

YOU have two pairs of twin screens over your most precious possession. The upper and lower eyelids protect your eyeballs mechanically, tenderly, chemically and physically.

When the Sand Man comes around, the eyelids begin to droop. Do you know why? Sleep sits heavily upon the lids. It weighs them down. Then you have an exposition of sleep come upon you.

The eyelids begin to droop when the magic wand of sleep waves before your eyes, because the rhythm of least attention, which induces sleep, paralyzes the lid muscles. Paralysis is not precisely what happens. The timely dew of sleep creeps into the "oculomotor," or nerves of the eyelid muscles. This squeezes the strength right out of the muscle, nerve and eyelid.

Then it droops and "feels heavy." A sensation of sleepiness is the upshot of this pseudo-paralysis. First the lids, then the rest of the body, then the eyes themselves and the "dreamy brain" last are lulled into slumber.

As this as it may, whenever you see a fact that either the individual is tired, sleepy or weak, or he is truly sick and ill, besides being an experimental genius and a philosopher, when he fell into a slumber was roused out of it by his physician, and asked: "What ails you?"

"Nothing, sir," said he, "only one brother anticipates another; sleep before death."

Sagging Early Sign.

As a matter of fact, whenever an eyelid sags or seems to be lower than usual something is wrong if sleep, habit and persistence are excluded.

"Ptosis" is the terrifying, technical name given to the upper eyelid which almost meets its under one. 'Tis said that even Homer nods, but when "ptosis," or a single, droopy lid remains permanently down over the wakeful eyeball, deep-seated physical trouble must be sought.

The imitation paralysis found in eyelids that are droopy becomes a honest-to-goodness, really and rightly paralysis of the eyelid under certain but various circumstances.

An early sign of eye muscle trouble, swollen eyeballs, locomotor ataxia, paralysis and true paralysis is a sagging of one eyelid, as excluded.

When "goitres"—those saucy swellings near the Adam's apple—take on certain kinds of malicious activities, the eyeballs protrude and the eyelids are inclined almost to close.

When you go into a rage you are, as the novelists say, apt to "shoot a steady glitter of your eyes twist well nigh closed eyelids."

Like Window Shades.

When you wish to improve your gaze, sight a distant object or clear a haze from the landscape, you are prone to squint your eyelids together. This is an intuitive method to cut off all unnecessary parts of the landscape from your retina.

The eyelids are, after all, only double collapsing window shades. They fold up like an accordion. They are made of

Answers to Health Questions

C. J. H.—What will increase the thickness of eyeballs?

If you will gently rub sulphur ointment in one night and ammoniated mercury ointment the next night—be careful that they do not go on the skin outside the eyebrows—they will grow darker and thicker.

M. O., Indianapolis.—What is the cause of strings and spots before the eyes?

At times near-sighted eyes, eyes that are "astigmatic," and defects of the eye muscles cause this. You should wear glasses constantly. At times the spots are in the juices of the eye. A tonic also helps.

G. E. B., Toronto.—I have heart palpitation, irregular pulse and dizziness. Are heart pills any good?

Do not take medicine for heart defects until your physician gives you a thorough, honest examination. A diagnosis is necessary before heart trouble can be ascertained.

Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He will not undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest letters will be answered personally if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care of this office.

Witticisms of Children

"Spell ferment and give its definition," requested the teacher.

"F-e-r-m-e-n-t, to work," responded a diminutive scholar, who, for a moment, forgot which you call it."

"Now place it in a sentence so that I may be sure you understand its meaning," said the teacher.

"In the summer I would rather play out of doors than ferment in the school," returned a small scholar with such doleful frankness and unconscious humor that the teacher found it hard to suppress a smile.

A class in grammar was reciting, and one of the younger boys was asked to compare "aunt."

He began thoughtfully: "Sick"—paused while his brain struggled with the problem—then finished triumphantly, "Sick, worse, dead."

"My paw's going into the chicken-raising business," said Freddy. "He's going' downtown tomorrow to buy an incubator or an indicator, I forget which you call it."

A lady taking tea at a small company, being very fond of hot rolls, was asked to have another.

"Really, I cannot," she modestly replied. "I don't know how many I've eaten already."

"I do," unexpectedly exclaimed a juvenile seat at the table. "You've eaten eight. I've been counting."

HOW did you know I was coming?" asked Mister Plymouth Rock in surprise as he heard Dobbin, the horse, who was feeding in the field.

"I did not hear you coming," said Dobbin. "I saw your shadow."

"You are very observing," replied Mister Plymouth Rock.

"I have to be," answered Dobbin. "The bigger an animal is, the more he has to be on the lookout. Besides, a horse has to take people on his back or draw them in a carriage and he must be careful on their account."

"You make me feel as if I were no use at all," said the Rooster.

"You are useful," said Dobbin. "Everything, everybody, is useful in some way or another. You mustn't stand still and try to be useful. Do something."

"What shall I do to be useful?" asked Mister Plymouth Rock squinting up at Dobbin.

"Well," said Dobbin, "don't go a mile away, look around you. There is Mrs. Rhode Island Red trying to get something to eat for her brood of chicks. Go and scratch a few worms for the little things."

"What good would that do?" asked the Rooster.

"It would keep you busy and that would be a good idea. Idleness never helps any one."

Off went Mister Plymouth Rock to where Mrs. Rhode Island Red was busy clucking to her chicks. He began to scratch like mad.

"Hold on!" exclaimed Mrs. Rhode Island Red. "Are you trying to dig a hole to China?"

"No," answered Mister Plymouth Rock. "I was trying to dig some worms for those babies of yours."

"How kind of you. May I ask what happened to you that you stopped being so lazy? You never helped me before," said the hen.

"I find I am happiest when busiest," said the Rooster as he began again to tear up the earth.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 27

THE PEOPLE WILL DECIDE.

Statements are being circulated that the street railway purchase agreement will be ready in a few days. Either the city legal department has already received the draft or it is about to do so.

WHERE IT LANDS.

The amiable, gentle, courteous Telegram saluted us last night with this pleasant greeting: The World miserably failed to acknowledge the utter falsity of its statement regarding Rev. Dr. Kane.

We had no idea, we were so much in harmony with the habits of The Telegram, which is evidently "the organ" mentioned. But let us see.

The Telegram persists in robbing Rev. Dr. Kane of the glory of having put into neat rhetoric the principle which has inspired The Telegram in all its works and ways, and which is the animating spirit of the present situation in Ulster.

In the first place, The Telegram alleges that seven years' residence in Ireland does not qualify The World to know what it is talking about. If this means that The World does not know what The Telegram is talking about, we agree.

Belief, March 23.—Allegation that Dr. Kane threatened to kick Queen Victoria's crown into the Boyne absolute falsehood. Its origin was the occasion when Rev. Dr. Kane said, forty years ago, that Irish Protestants had kicked James' crown into the Boyne.

The Telegram seems to have had doubts about its special correspondent, for last night it published another version of the affair, contradicting the first. This is evidently where The Telegram's comment about intellectual as well as residential qualifications applies.

foolish words, tho they had been repudiated at the time they were uttered by all sensible Protestants, were recalled by home rulers, and attributed to the Unionists generally, who had always laughed at their absurdity.

We recognize Mr. McKnight's version of the story in question, and have pleasant recollections of Mr. McKnight, whom we first met in 1873. The Telegram correspondent's version is that the Protestants kicked King James' crown into the Boyne.

We would like to know which version The Telegram declares to be accurate, truthful and correct, and not liable to be withdrawn. If the correspondent is wrong, can we then depend on any special despatches from Belfast? If the local authorities are wrong what are people, without either residential or intellectual qualifications, to do for authoritative information?

Mr. McKnight does not deny that Dr. Kane, away back in the turmoil of disestablishment, uttered the famous sentence. He says Mr. Flanagan said so, and probably a score of others could be cited who also said so. But when Dr. Kane was in high office in 1892, it was not expedient that anyone but Rev. Mr. Flanagan should have the honor of authorship.

We grudge to think that The Telegram would wilfully misrepresent a fellow-journalist, but when it throws down its own special correspondent at Belfast, why should it spare The World? We cannot understand why The Telegram should try to make it appear that The World is unsound on the Ulster question.

The Telegram has imputed to us the suggestion that the Ulster threats of armed resistance were not genuine. On the contrary, we have always asserted the earnestness and the grim determination of the Ulstermen, and in order to emphasize that determination, when we cite the characteristic assertion that they will kick the crown into the Boyne rather than leave the empire, The Telegram declares we are slandering the dead.

ASSESSMENT REFORM.

A somewhat unfair advantage is being taken of the Ontario Government at the present time in connection with the much-desired revision of the assessment law. Criticism has especially been directed against Hon. Mr. Hanna for giving the stereotyped reply that has served the government on a number of occasions.

This is technically true in the political sense, as it has not been made a direct issue to the exclusion of other questions, nor have members fought for and won or lost seats on this particular plank. Sir James Whitney has always adopted this plea to put aside a reform from which he is constitutionally averse, and it is inconceivable that while he is premier and in his enforced absence his colleagues could make any other position than that of marking time.

MEXICAN UNREST.

Considerable doubt exists about the result of the recent fighting in Mexico. General "Pancho" Villa advanced southward with his objective at Torreon, and seems to have met with an initial measure of success. But later he is reported to have met with his first repulse and to have been correspondingly disheartened thereby.

Belief, March 23.—Allegation that Dr. Kane threatened to kick Queen Victoria's crown into the Boyne absolute falsehood. Its origin was the occasion when Rev. Dr. Kane said, forty years ago, that Irish Protestants had kicked James' crown into the Boyne.

What Mexico most needs at all appearances is a benevolent and patriotic despot who will in the first place restore order and in the next place educate the people and prepare them for a real constitutional government. Porfirio Diaz had that opportunity, but while he maintained order he failed to lay the foundation on which alone a genuine republic can be based.

cial cause of Mexican unrest. A contented peasantry is everywhere the obstacle to the political adventurer.

The annual meeting of the Frances Willard Hall board was held yesterday morning, when the various business and social reports were read and discussed. ARRESTED ON FRAUD CHARGE.

BELLEVILLE, March 26.—Mike Brell, a foreigner, was last evening arrested here on receipt of a telegram from Campbellford, the charge preferred against him being that he had been arrested on a charge of fraud. It is alleged that Brell, who was boarding with a man named Gummow, at Campbellford, had a signed cheque of $10 for his board bill, and there was no money in the bank to meet the cheque. Constable Linn came here today and escorted Brell back to Campbellford for trial.

ELECTRICAL SWITCH MAKES FOR SAFETY

System Installed at Canadian Pacific Montreal Yards is Interlocking.

Control-Trains Entering Yards—Illuminated Diagram Shows Their Position.

The Canadian Pacific has just installed at the Windsor yards, an elaborate electrical interlocking switch system, which not only does away with uncertain hand labor, but provides the maximum of safety, while at the same time guarantees rapid movement, each of which is absolutely inter-related and inter-dependent, so that no separating action could possibly be taken. All the signals and levers and the machinery are as the name of the installation denotes, inter-locking. The housing of the machinery is at the end of Mountain street, just outside the enclosed yards.

The man at the levers, of which there are 88, looks before him at an illuminated diagram on which he sees the whole track layout leading into the station, and which are on each side of the main double track. The moment a train approaches, it is put out by the lever, which does this as an inter-locking device. That is to say, it effects certain positions with respect to other movements in the yard. There is no isolated action. Every portion of the machine is related to every other portion. Action is quick and concentrated, but each lever, which is operated by a corresponding relation to the track and switches over the vast system of cross-crossing which has made the C. P. R. yards a wonder for the stationer and vastness which mark them.

Each of the 88 levers has its mission. Each has related to it the position of each passenger train; each guarantees that no switch can be turned under any train coming in or going out; each has its own signal, which is illuminated by a corresponding relation to the track and switches over the vast system of cross-crossing which has made the C. P. R. yards a wonder for the stationer and vastness which mark them.

The illuminated diagram fascinates, as it shows, without looking near the yards at all, the whole of the trackage. Levers, switches and signals are indicated by the several trains on each. When the tracks are all clear, then the diagram shows a clear light across the whole trackage. Suddenly a black body obstructs the light; moves into it; wipes it out; makes a dark and sinister shadow across the particular track. The man at the lever has seen it; he heard the signal before he used his eyes—and provides for the final destination of the train which, coming in on the main line, has so close its way most carefully through the maze of tracks on each side of it as it appears the other yards.

NAVIGATION NEXT WEEK.

The management of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Co. stated to The World yesterday that they were looking forward to opening the season of navigation next Wednesday. Providing the ice in Hamilton and Toronto bays is sufficiently broken up to allow it to be done, it is the intention of the company to run the steamer Macassa from Hamilton to Toronto on Wednesday, to be followed by a daily service between the two cities.

OIL SPRINGS ACTIVE.

OIL SPRINGS, March 26.—As an evidence of the fact that the "boom is on" here since the strike of a 20-million-foot flow of gas in a single well, residents point to the issue by a single oil and gas company of 1900 acres in the oil-producing district. This deal has just been put thru by Mr. McQuillan, a representative of the Shipps & Adams Company. Drilling rigs are being ordered for work on the tract and the lessees are optimistic.

HUSTLERS HAVE GOLD PITCHERS

Ganzel Pleased With His Hurting Corps—New Park for Ottawa Senators.

A Rochester paper has the following: Ganzel may need a first baseman for the Hustlers, likewise a catcher, but of late little has been heard of him needing another pitcher or two, though there was a cry to that effect before the athletes went south to get in shape for the coming race. After looking over his twirlers Ganzel announced that he was ready right now to open the season, so far as his pitching staff is concerned. Ganzel found that his twirlers in general shape, and they have showed him enough "stuf" to convince him that he doesn't need to worry about his regular season. So far as come, Hoff, it is reported, is going right in where he left off last fall. Noyes has showed plenty of speed thus far, but has not attempted to put anything on the berth. He seems to be due for a regular berth, but he knows that he needs to be ready by many pounds to get a job, and realizing that he must show considerable stuff to get into the regulars, he is putting over some curves, trying to be a little ahead of the other pitchers. Keefe, Martin, Upham and Hughes are taking their time about shaping themselves up for the regular season. Ganzel is not worrying. He will use the younger members of the staff in the exhibition games on the way north, calling on the older members only when they feel that it is time for the into have good work-out. At the same time, should George Stallings call on him, he will use a first-class hurler. Ganzel would not turn away bashfully, and refuse. No, indeed.

Ottawas Will Play Sunday Ball in Hull

OTTAWA, March 26.—The Ottawa club's arrangements in connection with Sunday ball may prove the solution of the difficulty which the Canadian League has experienced in securing Class B status. The Ottawa will play their Sunday games on the Hull side of the Ottawa River in the Province of Quebec. The population of Ottawa was given to President Fitzgerald as one hundred thousand. Now, with Hull added to the territory, which the local club controls under the jurisdiction of the national commission, the population has been supplied as 100,000. This will give the Canadian League over 400,000 people, exclusive of Toronto, which belongs to the International, and may result in the National League's request for promotion. The Ottawa club has promised to repair the field there, so the Ottawa will return to the Maple City to train. Manager Shaughnessy has decided to retain Pitchers Kane, Kubat and Donovan until such time as he succeeds in buying others. New grand stands will be erected on the Hull Park grounds, and there will be fifteen Sunday games.

NEWS FROM THE CITY HALL

HARRIS TO CLASH WITH ENGINEERS

Commissioner and Expert Quartet Will Meet at Works Committee Meeting.

What the four engineers who furnished a plan for an extension of Toronto's waterworks plant think of the alternative plan submitted by Commissioner Harris is expected to provide some entertainment at the meeting of the works committee this afternoon. Commissioner Harris was asked at the last meeting to criticize the report of the four engineers, but he persuaded the committee to think of the alternative plan submitted by the four engineers. He will, therefore, today not only defend his alternative plan, but will also tell what he thinks of the plan submitted by the four engineers. The members of the committee will afterwards decide which is the better, and recommend its adoption. The plan of the four engineers is for a plant at Scarborough Heights. Commissioner Harris recommends the plant being established at Victoria Park.

In the regular report from Commissioner Harris to the committee, he states that the change in the service on Danforth avenue car line during rush hours is satisfactory. Every other car going east from Broadview avenue runs to Coxwell avenue and return, as the greatest number of passengers live within that area. At the instigation of Dr. Hastings, M.O.H., the severing of a number of unsanitary lanes is recommended. Previously the council had refused to have those lanes sewered. Dr. Hastings states that those lanes are so filthy they are a breeding place for flies. Extension of Norwood road to Benlambton avenue is recommended, the cost to be $3500. The property assessed 50 per cent. of the cost and the city 10 per cent.

WILL SIGN PETITION FAVORING ANNEXATION

At a meeting of the trustees of the Mount Pleasant Cemetery, held yesterday afternoon, the proposal of the city to take over the portion of the cemetery property now in the county was agreed and the following letter sent to Assessment Commissioner J. C. Porman: "Your letter of the 17th inst. was submitted to the board at its meeting today, and I am instructed to say in reply, that Mount Pleasant Cemetery being a public cemetery, chiefly for the use of the citizens of Toronto, there is no objection by the trustees to its being brought within the city limits if the city council desires that course taken. If a petition by us is necessary under the law, and the city council requests us to sign such petition, we will do so. It is, of course, assumed that the whole cemetery will be included, as it might be inconvenient to have the property partly in one municipality and partly in another. Yours very truly, R. S. V. McMaster, 'Secy-Treas.'"

SALARY ADVANCES WILL CAUSE COUNCIL BATTLE

Raises to Department Heads Will Be Opposed—How Aldermen Stand. If the legislature authorizes the city council to pay each of the 20 aldermen $1200 a year, will a majority of the members vote for the new salary to start on Jan. 1, 1914, or will the matter be submitted to the ratepayers for their decision on Jan. 1, 1915? Some of the aldermen are declaring that they will never stand for the increase in salary unless the vote of the ratepayers authorizes it. Others are declaring that the work thrust upon them should be paid for, that they have to put in a lot of their time at council and committee meetings and that they are also expected to do innumerable favors at the city hall for the people in their ward. But the threatened storm over the increase in salaries to aldermen will be nothing to the anticipated tempest over the recommended increases in salaries to some of the heads of departments and other employees. Some of the aldermen are gathering a flood of data to overwhelm every contention for such increases in salaries as will be objected to. Hot pickle speeches are likely to be numerous at the meeting of the council next Thursday.

WANT STANDARD MILK.

BELMONT, March 26.—The Canadian Milk Products, Ltd., have issued a statement that they will give $1.40 per cwt. for standard milk during April. The milk must be 3.5, or 3c per cwt. will be allowed for every point above that standard, or the same will be deducted from each point below. Some of the patrons are not in favor of the test system.

WILL BE READY BY NEXT MONDAY

Couzens and Harris Are on Last Lap of Purchase Agreement Scrutiny.

Mayor Hocken had the assurance yesterday from Commissioner Harris and General Manager Couzens of the civic hydro system that they will be thru by next Monday with their share in the completion of the purchase agreement for the clean-up of the franchisees. Corporation Counsel Geary and D. E. Thomson, K.C., will then have but a couple of days' work on the agreement, and it will be in shape for submission to the ratepayers. Working in close touch with Sir William Mackenzie's counsel and the officials of the properties to be municipalized, Commissioner Harris and General Manager Couzens will dispose of the two remaining issues. Commissioner Harris is arranging for the transportation of freight within the city limits by the radial cars. Presumably the city will undertake the movement of freight within the city limits by the radials. The radial cars are not to be operated within the city limits by the radial companies until an agreement as to running rights is made after the city is in full control of all the streets. General Manager Couzens is determining the amount of current that may be sold within the city limits by the Electrical Development Company, and where it may be sold.

GAS WAS IGNITED CAUSING EXPLOSION

Serious Disaster Threatened in Chatham Flour Mill—Fireman Injured.

Special to The Toronto World. CHATHAM, March 26.—A serious gas explosion occurred this afternoon at the Taylor Flour Mills. The natural gas which is pumped into the distributing office for half an hour while workmen were repairing a broken boiler in the factory, had escaped, and the fireman at the Taylor mill turned the valve partly off, with the result that the escaping gas filled the smoke-stack when the workers were turned again. When the fireman attempted to light the fire he ignited the gas that had escaped, and the explosion occurred. The whole building was in danger from fire for some time, until the foreman turned and put out the blaze. The fireman, W. G. Griffith, was very severely burned about the face and face. The damage will be slight. Are You Going West This Spring? If so, exceptional opportunities are now being offered by the Grand Trunk Railway System in connection with Home-seekers', Settlers' and Colonist excursions. Home-seekers' round trip tickets are issued from stations in Canada to points in Manitoba, Alberta, Saskatchewan and at very low fares, and are in effect each Tuesday and Friday inclusive, via Chicago, St. Paul or Duluth. WOULD POOL REVENUE FROM ALL UTILITIES

PORT ARTHUR, March 26.—A resolution that City Solicitor Lawworthy go to Toronto and take up the accounting system of Port Arthur's utilities in an endeavor to arrange, so that the surplus of one utility may be set off against the deficit of another and that he engage whatever assistance he may deem fit, and that if necessary he take the matter to the attorney-general of the province, was passed at a meeting of the Port Arthur city council. This means that the city has embarked on a fight with the hydro for the privilege of distributing the surpluses of its own utilities as it sees fit. At the same time it was decided that the city will not object to the appointment of a legalized committee to manage its electrical utility.

APPOINTMENTS LIE WITH LEGISLATURE

Minister of Education Decides Number of Inspectors, Says Cowley.

TWO MORE NECESSARY

Some Trustees Say So, and Next-in-Lines Are Hoping.

Chief Inspector Cowley has advised the board of education that the initiative in the matter of appointing additional district inspectors rests with the minister of education. According to some of the trustees and the principals' association, the city is short two trustees to comply with the standard set by the department of education. As the appointments are much sought after, and would mean a general promotion of principals and male assistants, the inspectorship issue is a live one among the male teachers. LECTURE COURSE DISCONTINUED. The course of Wednesday night lectures at the Royal Order of Moose clubhouse, 559 Sherbourne street, will be discontinued until the fall.

MORSE ST. SCHOOL IS OVERCROWDED

Property Committee Today Will Hear Report From Trustee and Inspectors.

Trustee Dr. Steele of the board of education yesterday reported to Chief Inspector Cowley the serious overcrowding of Morse Street School. Altho it has only 15 rooms $49 children attend. In the kindergarten they are packed in to the starting total of 101. The smallest class has 46 and the two next 49, while all the others have over 50. Inspector Cowley and Superintendent Bishop have been endeavoring to cure additional rooms without success. An application has been made for a permit for a portable school in the playground, but this has been refused by the city owing to the danger of fire. The case will be dealt with by the property committee this afternoon. Women will find more news of interest to them in The World's magazine page every morning than in any other paper.

PAVLOWA ACADEMY A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT

A Thousand Dancers and On-lookers Were Present on First Night.
WORE BUSINESS SUITS
Only a Few in Evening Dress at Opening of New Dance Hall.

Marked success inaugurated the opening of the Pavlova Dancing Academy last night, when hundreds of couples in two-step or waltz glided over the seven thousand square feet of floor space, and other hundreds watched them from the balconies above or from the spectators' chairs surrounding the dancing enclosure. It is estimated that a thousand in all were present during the evening. The smooth hardwood floor was very bright, and the strings of green and ruby lights that festooned the great roof of ceiling, together with the large white arcs of light were very effective. Windows curtained in long old rose hangings and large bay trees stationed at intervals about the big hall added to the decorations. The dancing area is enclosed by an open white railing and seats are placed about the walls on the ground floor and in the galleries for the onlookers. The orchestra was stationed in the gallery, cloak rooms on the ground floor, and cashiers at the door and at the entrance of the dance arena.

Some Dress Confusion.
The majority of the men, very sensibly, were in business suits, only a few in evening dress. The "first night" there seemed some doubt in the minds of the ladies as to what was the correct thing in this respect. The majority wore their hats and some simple pretty, gowns suitable for afternoon or evening wear. The Pavlova is the old roller rink in Cowan Avenue, known to Toronto for the past eight years. The proprietor, Mr. Fred Ryan, conceived the idea of introducing a great public academy, where dancing might be enjoyed as it is on the other side of the line. Detroit and Cleveland have these great centres for public recreation, and Buffalo is building the largest in the world, with four acres of floor space. Always Loved It. Under the management of Mr. London, whose careful supervision in such matters is well-known, the Toronto public are expected to avail themselves to a considerable extent of the big opportunity afforded. Dancing is an art that mankind has always loved, and in these days when exercise in the shape of calisthenics and gymnastics of every kind is advocated on every hand, dancing under sanitary, safe and inviting conditions cannot but have its thousands of votaries. The Pavlova is open from 8 until 12 o'clock every evening.

POLITY CLUB ELECTS THE YEAR'S OFFICERS

Norman Angell and Alfred Noyes Yet to Address the Meetings.
New officers were elected last night by the International Polity Club. They were as follows: President, T. W. Cornett, Victoria, '14; vice-presidents, Prof. H. T. K. Duckworth, Trinity, and Paul Goforth, University College, '14; secretary-treasurer, Dorothy Ferrer, U.C., '14; assistant secretary, J. Dible, S.P.S., '15; national representatives on central committee of the International federation of students, Prof. A. T. DeLury and Main Johnson; committee of four, Julia LaMont, U.C., '14; Ethel Robertson, Victoria, '15; A. J. Dunne, U.C., '14; H. A. Hall, Victoria, '15. The activities of the club do not close with the annual meeting. Alfred Noyes will speak April 3, and Norman Angell on April 9.

DEATH BY SUICIDE

A verdict of death by suicide was returned last night by Coroner Gilmore's jury, which inquired into the death of E. Gillespie, who was picked up on the street at Major and Harbour streets on March 24 and removed to the Western Hospital, where he died a few minutes later.

FINAL CONCERT BY THE SYMPHONY

Toronto Orchestra Closed Its Season With Most Pleasant Program.
CARL FLESCHE ASSISTED

His Finished and Artistic Playing Was Most Satisfactory.
Altho the attendance was the sparsest of the season, last night's concert in Massey Hall, of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, was almost the pleasantest of the series. The orchestra was in excellent form and played exquisitely in Berlioz's overture, "A Roman Carnival," while the dainty "Spring Song" by Clarence Lucas, and Leo Smith's arrangement of Edward McDowell's "Romance" and "Sea Song" repeated from Feb. 12, were highly appreciated. The final number was Tchaikovsky's "Theme and Variations," suite 3, opp. 55. Very charming work was done throughout by the orchestra, and the conductor, Carl Flesche, and his finished and artistic playing was most satisfying. There were some more loudly heralded performers. His style is one of great purity, and it would not be true to say that he is a mere strength of notes. He has a fine, thin, mosquito tone, and clean technical facility, but he occasionally develops his tone into a fullness of expression, white at all times it is of exquisite beauty, and true distinction and refinement. Nothing more lovely has been heard here than the close of the long obligato in the allegro movement of Beethoven's violin concerto, which melts into the orchestral conclusion. Great applause greeted this and was renewed at the end of the gay and jubilant rondo which he played with charming brightness. He also played, accompanied on the piano by Homer Samuels, and responded with three encores to the pianist's applause. A souvenir program marked the final concert. It included portraits of Mr. Welsman, Mr. Flesche, and other leading performers, and a summary of the 16 concerts in which the orchestra has taken part this season, and interesting notes are appended. TURNING HALIFAX INTO ONE OF CANADIAN GREAT OCEAN PORTALS

(Special to The Toronto World.)
HALIFAX, N.S., March 26.—We are not only making a front entrance to Halifax, but one of the great portals of Canada, said Mr. F. P. Guetliou, secretary of the Canadian Government Halifax ocean terminals, "and we want you to design the vestibule and front hall. Your only limitations are the boundaries of the area itself, which are wide enough."
The grand scale of work now being undertaken at Halifax is only part of the work that has followed the awakening of the Dominion to the fact that a complete internal transportation system must have a suitable point of contact with overseas transportation, and so the Canadian Government is busy constructing great harbor works, not only at Halifax, but in all Canadian ports, both on the Atlantic and Pacific, the eastern and western fax being but an example of the new policy of providing facilities to meet the great tidal wave of commerce that is sweeping to the ocean ports of the land of the maple.
In its largeness of conception the work at Halifax is greater than any undertaking that has heretofore entered anyone's mind with respect to the use of Halifax harbor. The hope of the Halifax merchant is that this work is only a beginning, that it has as its end a new harbor, one that will eventually be confirmed in a thoroughly comprehensive plan of every mile of waterfront on both sides of the harbor, and that before long the foreshores and all their adjoining territory will be laid out and developed with a view to the maximum efficiency of the port as a handler of freight of ocean-borne commerce, and under a harbor commission which will have full powers with respect to the planning of the waterfront and its approaches, looking to the same harmonious development that is now aimed at in the planning of European ports.
The first of the six piers is now under construction, while the cutting is being excavated for the approaching right-of-way. The landing quay is to be a bulkhead of reinforced concrete construction and granite face. It will be 2000 feet long with 45 feet of water at low water, and will be divided into three of the largest vessels can dock in safety without the assistance of a tug. The whole length of this quay there will be a building, the first of which will be for freight and the second for passengers, customs and immigration quarters. Passenger and freight tracks will run along side the whips, an dthe whole scheme will be laid out so as to give the most expeditious, convenient and economical arrangement for the transfer of passengers, baggage, mails and freight from ship to rail and vice versa.
The construction plans include six piers of the same permanent construction, of which two adjoining the landing quay are to be included, each 1250 feet long and 60 feet wide, and will be equipped with wharfs, freight sheds and railway tracks. Altogether there will be berths for 32 steamers and there will be the necessary accompaniment of shunting and storage yards, round house, elevator, and an imposing union station. Altogether from end to end of the site of the new terminals a mile and a half of waterfront will be covered.

RUSSELL RECORDS

No. 1---POWER

An outstanding feature of the RUSSELL-KNIGHT Test was the tremendous reserve power displayed.

Though rated at but 28 horse-power, the RUSSELL-KNIGHT motor developed over 63 horse power—233% of its normal rating.

And even then, the maximum had not been reached.

At 2000 revolutions per minute, the motor proved itself easily capable of 500 revolutions per minute greater speed—with a corresponding increase in the output of power.

You never can tell when you may need the last ounce of power in your car. And in such emergencies, it's good to KNOW that the RUSSELL-KNIGHT will answer your utmost demand.

It will conquer any road on which the wheels can gain traction—because it has the POWER to meet CANADIAN conditions.

Professor Price's Report is the most valuable motor car pamphlet of the year. A copy will be sent you on request. Write or phone.

Dome Lake was much stronger, going to 47. There seems to be quite a demand for the stock from outside points. Kerr Lake was under selling pressure and declined to 40. The lowest point of the month. Nothing new has been given recently regarding the company's prospects, except the deal with Hollinger.

Gold Reef Mining Company will hold a meeting today, where it is said a proposal for the selling out of the company interests will be considered. The price is said to be between $10 and $15 per share. The stock has been selling on the market, but very little business seems to be available at the present low prices.

The demand for Cochrane recently is due to the knowledge that the company will shortly be making a shipment. The market is pretty bare of stock and was bid for it after the close of the exchange, without effecting a deal.
