A Superb Selection of Plain, Striped and Tapestry Wall Papers

"Give us plain wall-papers," cry the decorators who scheme out backgrounds for charming rooms. And lo, in this big springtime showing of papers a perfect avalanche of fascinating plaster effects, plain painted papers, grass cloth and imitations thereof, also interesting fabric-like productions! Grey, buff, biscuit, amber, willow blue and wood browns are the colors in chief vogue, both in the papers described, and also in the jaspe and little self-tone stripes which are such near relatives to the fashionable plain wall effects. And when papers are not plain they are generally tapestries and verdures-often so, in fact, when large, light dining-rooms and halls call for treatment. Washable papers in block and tile effects offer themselves in immense variety for bathrooms, kitchens and pantries,

Much That is New and Lovely in Fabrics for Curtains and Coverings

The aesthetic soul will find a happy hunting ground in the drapery department. Despite the difficulties that attach to the making and procuring of chintzes and similar fabrics at the present time, our buyers have gathered together a splendid showing of new designs for simple and elaborate plans of furnishing—smart little formal patterns for small rooms; big picturesque effects for studios, tea rooms and the like, and beauteous old-time, bird-and-flower decked linens for lordly living rooms and dainty drawing rooms. Velours, too, will occupy a prominent place in the display, being so much in demand these days for the covering of arm chairs and Chesterfields. The ever popular casements cloths in their usual rainbow of cheerful pinks, greens, and blues, and filet and lock-stitch nets are other attractions on the Swiss Net and Nottingham Lace Curtains, Greatly Reduced, Some Almost Half-Price.

Here is a golden opportunity, for the curtains are extremely effective and include many pretty new designs, and all are, even at their original markings, splendid value—less even than present mill price. Canadian and Imported Furniture for Every Room in House, Club or Hotel

"Verandah Comfort" is one of the slogans of the splendid display in the Furniture Building-everything to make the outdoor living-room comfy, convenient and charming. Hand-woven willow - brown, grey, ivory, blue or natural-composes some of the most inviting chairs and quaintest tables and stands. Sometimes they're cushioned in chintz of a gay, summery nature, and generally they include settees, low arm chairs, tea tables, stands for magazines, tabourettes, yea, even floor and table lamps. Featured, too, will be furniture from our own factories-Queen Anne and William and Mary designs in walnut and mahogany, Louis XVI. designs in enamel, and Tudor and Jacobean designs in mellow brown oak. In material and workmanship it holds its own with the best importations from other lands—a fine tribute to Canadian cabinet makers. Needless to add that prices are considerably less. A new sofa for your living-room, a new dresser for your bedroom, a new table for your sunroom-whatever your need you'll find it easy to fill in this great exhibit of fine Canadian furniture.

Oak Extension Tables, Reduced to $14.50 and Mattresses to $8.90

Consider the cost of workmanship and material and you'll realize what splendid value is offered in these tables and what a grand opportunity is afforded of adding to your furniture at little cost. There are two designs (one is illustrated) in quarter-cut oak in golden and fumed finish, having 46-inch top with automatic lock and square pedestal base; extending to 6 feet. But 50 tables altogether, and since the saving is considerable, remember it would be well to come early. Reduced price, today...... 14.50

The mattresses, too, are extraordinarily good value and well worth an early visit to the Store. Wilton, Axminster and Brussels Rugs in a Fine Array of Designs

Every years sees a lovelier patterning and mellower coloring on Wilton and Axminster Rugs. And this year do they prove most convincingly their right to a place in the most artistically furnished room. For truly a delight to the eye are the band-border Axminsters in plain old blue, soft, woodsy greens and browns, and deep coppery yellow-ideal foundation for the room with chintz curtains and covers. Very pleasing, too, are the Wilton reproductions of the fine old Persian designs, and the simplified adaptations thereof. As for the twelve-foot wide Axminster Carpet in sand or the fashionable taupe-'tis one of the most interesting items in this superb display of modern floor coverings. The clever decorator is employing some of his very pet schemes this season. For bedrooms, sitting-rooms, and halls, of simple furnishings, will be found Brussels Rugs in most attractive conventional designs in two-tone effects of the blues, tans, browns, and green of popular demand.

Clearance of Large Brussels Rugs, Reduced to $21.50

SPECTACULAR FIRE BURNS OIL PLANT

Two Hundred Thousand Gallons Destroyed in

DAMAGE IS HEAVY

Second $300,000 Fire in Toronto Within Week

Jets of liquid fire, pouring 75 feet in the air, and explosions of barrels of oil, that sounded like the cannonading on the western front, made one of the most spectacular daylight fires in many years, when the Galena-Signal Oil 'ompany's plant at 130 Royce avenue, Toronto Junction, was destroyed by tire Saturday. Two hundred thousand gallons of oil, much of it the finest lubricating oil on the market, went up in smoke. The entire main building of the plant was destroyed, but the office and seven large oil tanks near the building were saved thru the efforts of the firemen.

Many Narrow Escapes.

The firemen had many narrow escapes.

When the Ossington avenue section arrived they took up the task of preventing the blaze from crossing the C.P.R. tracks to the plant of the Bateman-Wilkinson Company Limited. No sooner had they laid their hose than a series of terrific explosions occurred. Barrels and barrel-tops flew in every direction, one of them strikng District Chief Charles Dunn on the nead. He escaped miraculously without injury. A. few minutes later the on both sides of the firemen. Deputy Chief William Russell also had a narrow escape when the east wall collapsed burying him beneath a shower of bricks. He came thru

Caught From Tank Car. The fire is believed to have caught from a hot journal-box one one of six tank cars on the Grand Trunk siding. Employes of the company noticed the fire in the box, and fearing lest the building should catch fire they tried to find an engine to move the row of cars. The only engine in sight was a "dummy" engine, belonging to the Canadian Allis-Chalmers Company. It was on the C.P.R. tracks which cross the G.T.R. tracks at this point, A man who was in the vicinity at the time said that the employes of the two railways had an argument, the result of which was that the the result of which was that the G.T.R. refused to allow the "dummy ngine on its tracks. The fire quickly spread to the main building. Later the six tank cars were removed to safety, and the fire in the journal-box

Main Building Total Loss. The main building was soon a total loss, and the firemen directed their efforts to prevent the fire spreading to the seven large tanks about 150 feet away. Eighteen of the twenty-five uilding had flooded outside and the men were standing in oil to their hips. They had to watch carefully to see that the fire did not ignite the oil in which they were standing.

There were five pumping engines on the spot and a high pressure was maintained all thru. A nearby resilence at 172 Royce avenue caught fire from a spark from one of the engines. out the blaze before it had done any

Benzine Tank Under Furnace. An 8,000 gallon tank of benzine was stored underneath the main building, but it was prevented from exploding by firemen who kept three lines of hose playing on the ground immediately above it. The fire was not able to spread to the neighboring tanks because the stop-cocks had been turned

The first alarm was rung in at 12.10. No one was in the building at the time, altho rumors spread thru the crowd of 30,000 people that gathered to watch the spectacle that it had been set by three foreigners who had been taken on for work in the morning. When District Chief Dunn arrived he sent in the second alarm, and shortly afterwards the third and last necessary to send in a general alarm. The fire was still burning in the late afternoon, and Deputy Chief Russell

MEMORIAL SERVICE Earlscourt's Dead are Honored by Large Gathering.

A capacity audience filled the Royal George Theatre, Earlscourt, last night, when a memorial service of thanksgiving, under the auspices of the British Imperial Association, for the 173 men of Earlscourt and district, including members of the B.I.A., killed in action, John R. MacNicol occupied the chair, and short addresses were delivered by Mayor Church, John R. Robinson, Pte. Rev. Sidney Lambert, Henry Parfrey and others. The band of the Royal Grenadiers, under Lieut. John Waldron, rendered appropriate music, and solos by Miss Hope Morgan, Adanac Quartet and J. Holman were contributed. Rev. C. A. Mustard offered prayer, and a Scripture reading, followed by the Dead March in Saul, and the Reveille, and the reading of the names of the heroes by Pte. H. Parfrey, concluded the solemn proceedings.

WOUNDED IN ACTION. Lt. Frank Underhill is Former Pupil of Markham High School.

A cablegram received by Richard Underhill, 479 Palmerston boulevard, a day or two ago, stated that his only son, Lt. Frank Underhill, with the 1st Herts Regiment, had been wounded in the right leg while in action at the front. Lieut. Underhill was at one time a student at Markham High School and one of the cleverest pupils that ever attended that institution. After leaving Markham he attended Toronto University, graduating from there with the degree of B.A., and later passing thru Oxford University, where he won the Prince of Wales scholarship with exceptionally high honors. At the time of his enlistment he was a professor in the Saskatchewan University, enlisting as a private and winning his preferment in action. Lieut. Underhill is in Hyde Park Hospital, Plymouth, and while severe his wound is not thought to be dangerous.

FORMER REEVE OF MARKHAM. William Eakin Dies at Saltcoats, Sask., at Advanced Age.

The death of William Eakin, in Saltcoats, Sask., a former well-known resident of Unionville, and at one time Reeve of Markham Township, took place a day or two ago, at the age of 90 years. Mr. Eakin was born at Cashel, on the 6th concession of Markham, and lived in the township until 1908, when he removed to Saskatchewan, where he was elected to the legislature, and later became Speaker of the Northwest Assembly. While in Unionville he established the Union Mills, still in active operation, and was prominently identified with every forward movement. In political life he was a Liberal and a member of the Presbyterian Church. He is survived by his widow, a daughter of the late Alex, Hunter of Hunter's Corners.

INHUMAN METHODS.

Col. C. G. Williams rPeaches at Wood-green Tabernacle,

"How can you figure the kaiser and the German war lords who caused the war." asked Col. Cecil G. Williams last war?" asked Col. Cecil G. Williams last night at Woodgreen Methodist Tabernacle. The church was filled by a congregation manifesting deep interest in the preacher's presentation of momentous religious and national problems.

"Why does God permit this awful war?" was the greatest and most perplexing problem which confronted the human mind. At times it seemed almost ginful to consider such a question. It might not be possible to give a logical answer to it. The possibility arose that nations and individuals were, thru the untold sacrifices involved, making atonement for national shortcoming.

In the case of the kaiser and the other war lords who brought on the war the war lords who brought on the war the time would surely come when some of them would realize the enormity of their offences. In their remorse they would welcome mere annihilation as a release. The reason England and her allies would find it so difficult to forgive Germany was not so much because she had brought on the war as because of the inhuman methods she had introduced into

Windsor, April 7. Acting upon a suggostion received from farmers of both authorities of their intention of reducing the number of depot overseas infantry battalions. There will be either three or two, instead of four. The change is due to the increased demand for men overseas.

Another change announced is the forming of a garrison regiment made up of men in B and C medical categories for guard duty at the Welland Canal, Kapuskasing and Sault Ste. Marie.

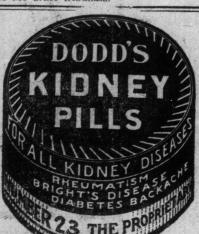

The transport enquiry board, approinted to hear evidence regarding gestion received from farmers of both North and South Essex, the Border Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting held Saturday afternoon decided to send a report to Ottawa to place before the government the requirements of farmers of this digtrict with respect to seed corn. At least 10,000 bushels is required and this, it has been ascertained, can be purchased from the United States at a cost of approximately $40,000.

More than 50,000 acres of land in North and South Essex is seeded to corn annually, but this year with no seed to be had the ground may remain uncultivated unless agaistance comes speedily from the government.

Windsor, April 7.—Dominion police officers took into custody yesterday Joseph L. Manseau, 28 years old, an engineering student at the University of Detroit, as a draft evader, and sent him to London. Manseau was apprehended at Walkerville after he had been sent back to this side by the United States authorities.

The young man came here from Quebec, but has been living in Detroit. When he found that he was liable for military service on both sides of the line he agreed to return to Canada. Manseau says he will take an appeal before one of the draft tribunals.

Enemy Loses Ground in Sharp Engagement Near Aveluy Wood.

With the British Army in France, April 7 .- The enemy infantry continued its mass attacks just east of Corbie on the Somme during the early hours yesterday, and there was every indication that a heavy assault would be made. At noon, however, it was stated that the storm had not yet broken.

In the meantime the British artillery was maintaining a terrible bombardment of the enemy's assembling places, and it is possible that this may have delayed the onslaught.

North of the Somme the most important event thus far reported was British counter-attack southwest of Aveluy Wood, in which some ground was regained after a sharp engagement.

The enemy Saturday continued to make raids along the northern section of the battle front for the purpose of learning what British troops were opposing them. President McCaffery Returns From Successful Baseball Mission in East.

President James J. McCaffery return ed home yesterday from his successfu home yesterday from his successful baseball mission in the east. He is pleased with the new International League baseball circuit, that is bound to be a success. Binghamton is backed by the millionaire shoe factory owner, Mir. Johnston, while Syracuse, the other new club, has behind it Mr. Kuntz, who owned the old Stars in Buckenberger's time. Toronto is the only city in the league without Sunday ball. The Newark Club is backed by the McCabe syndicate. Toronto has twelve players on the list, including five from last year's champion team.

The courts of the Toronto Lawn Ten-All of the sixteen courts will be ready by the middle of this week.

The club will hold a lawn tennis tournament during the summer in aid of the Caradian Red Cross, when leading players from all over Canada and the United States will compete.

It is intended to make this the greatest event in tennis ever held in Canada

Officers Elected and Four Teams Admitted, While Veterans May Join Later.

A new senior league has been formed in the city, to be known as the Toronto Military League. Five clubs-Headquar ters, Royal Flying Corps, Base Hospital. E. R. P. and Veterans—were represented at the organization meeting.

The first four mentioned clubs were given franchises. The franchise of the Veterans has been withheld pending getting a more definite ruling from the T. A. B. A. regarding players discharged from active service. It was decided to form a purely military league and affiliate with the T.A.B.A. and play under their jurisdiction. The president, secretary and the manager of each club were appointed as a committee to draw up a constitution and bylaws. The league has several places in view for grounds. The location will be decided at the next meeting. The following officers were elected for the year:

Hon. president, Col. Bickford, G.O.C.; hon, vice-presidents, Col. Hardy, D.S.O., and Col. Allen; president, Capt. The Provincial League clubs will be turning out next Saturday in practice matches to get in trim for the official opening of the league, which will be on or about the first Saturday in May. It is to be a gala day and arrangements are to be made to play a double-header to mark the opening of their new ground on Appleton avenue. The league meets tonight in the Oddfellows' Temple, College street, to make final arrangements for the season.

The latest application for membership is one from the Great War Veterans, who have decided to run a strong team, and they have already signed up some very good players. This will be a good fillip for the Provincial League, as the Veterans have a very strong following and will be a very decided acquisition. The league as at present constituted consists of seven clubs, and one more club would bring the league up to a very high standard, which is the ambition of the directors.

The Province of Quebec Football Association has written asking the Provincial League to play them on May 25. This is the day following their game with the pick of the T. & D. F. A. for the Carls-Rite trophy. If this game can be arranged Toronto will have a very good holiday program, one that will raise excitement to its highest pitch.

Corn was influenced thruout the session by a prevalent belief that as a result of balleting which took place today the directors would immediately authorize pit dealings in the July delivery and that the option would command about $1.40 a bushel.

On this basis it was figured that May would rise to $1.28, the highest figures which the rules permat. Buying, in which the rules permat. Buying in likelihood that the movement from farms would not be enlarged until field work needed less urgent attention. Subsequently notice that dealings in new-style contracts would not begin until at least after Monday eased the market somewhat.

Now Showing the Kind of Clothing That Makes Keen Men Feel Like 'Getting Busy'

Men who have been in the habit in past seasons of leaving their clothing problems until later in the season are putting them through this spring with a rush. They undoubtedly know the situation of the wool market and are not taking chances. It will prove sound policy for every man to do his buying early, as past experience has demonstrated the fact even in normal times that early selection is always the most satisfactory.

By careful investigation and after much planning the men's store is now completely stocked with the best in men's clothing of quality. The division of new models is typical of each of the various styles favored.

Men who are keen for correct styles, backed up by sound, dependable wool fabrics and faultless workmanship, will find this store amply supplied to meet their demands, and at prices that prove the values.
