The street railway has enough revenue to pay the increased wages if they want to, and I will continue to believe that until Mr. Bradshaw has had an opportunity of going into the books of the company, and showing otherwise. There is not much ability needed to conduct a street car, and if the railway employes get an increase it will place other employers in a peculiar position. I think the men have an idea that they have "something on us," and are acting accordingly. I do not think that other employers would take the men who are motormen and conductors into their factories at 55 cents per hour. THE DAY AT OTTAWA By TOM KING

TUESDAY MORNING JULY 1 1919

Ottawa, June 30.—There is much bustling about and hurrying to and fro with the design of winding up the session of parliament this week. For this purpose we are to ignore our only national holiday and sit on July 1. Yet the bustling and hurrying are more evident amongst the pages and ses-sional messengers than among the ministers and members of the house. The franchise bill to provide for the hy-elections has not yet been pre-sented, the purchasing commission bill, bound to be a contentious mea-sure, is still in the offing, and the highway bill more than ever appears to be lost in the jungle. Neither has the government yet presented the bill to regulate the Toronto and Niagara Power Company and to break the strangle hold of the Bell monopoly. SPIRIT OF DANTE WALKS TORONTO

Women's Art Association Show Tableaux Drawn From Medieval Poets.

Characters and scenes from the medieval ages were delightfully shown yesterday afternoon and evening in a series of living pictures, under the auspices of the Women's Art Association, illustrating the Italian Renaissance with Dante, Giotto, Michelangelo and others of the world's masters as subjects.

The grounds of the club house with their terraced lawns and vine-covered arbors lent themselves as a beautifu setting, and the atmosphere was given by Lawrence J. Lugsdin, garbed in a classical robe of green and gold, who read sonnets from the works of the poets represented. The fairy music of an orchestra of eighteen pieces, under the baton of Mr. Von Kunits, and the figure of Farnham Barton, representing Dante, in a gorgeous gown of scarlet and velvet cap, helped to give reality to the pictures.

Dante Mests Beatrice. Miss Edith McLaren and Miss Madeline, as crimson-clad heralds, drew aside the curtains, revealing the first tableau, the meeting of Dante and Beatrice near the bridge, the colors and setting being according to The fine posing drew ad-Hollidy. miration from the audience and prepared it for surprises that followed. The second picture, which was pro-duced by Mrs. Deeble, showed "Dante's Dream," by Rossetti, with Miss Phyllis Ross as an exquisite Beatrice. The "Salutation of Beatrice in Paradise" and the meeting of Dante and Bea-trice with Miss Marjory Fraser as the tall, spiritual lady of the poet, and Ethel Taylor as Dante were amongst the most impressive, of the pictures produced.

that all men who have been a year in the company's service get 55 cents. all men who are nine months in the service get 521/2 cents, and men starting work get 50 cents for the first three months. This is so nearly what the men ask, and gives such a large number of them the 55-cent rate asked for at once that we anticipate their acceptance of the award.

But this is a matter quite apart from the raising of the fares. To violate the agreement and accept the principle that the city is to share the liabilities of the company, whether for wages or anything else, for the next two years is a proposal that Judge Barron should not have permitted his conceptions of equity to make.

Dominion Day.

Canada takes higher rank as a nation on her fifty-second birthday than probably any other nation in recorded history. In the world assembly at Versailles on Saturday her representatives stepped forward with those of the other great nations of the earth and placed their signatures on the greatest and most important freaty ever formulated by the nations of the earth. All peoples, tribes, kindreds and tongues are involved in this marvelous pact, and Canada stood with them, as brave, as resourceful, and we trust as wise as any.

God helps those who help themtracked the wilds of our vast Dominion, who have sailed and fished its waters, roamed its forests, and now reap its harvests, and build its cities, are still only laying the foundation of a state as glorious as the earth has on March 31.

Mr. Fleming's Offer.

When Mr. R. J. Fleming, as manager of the street railway company, states that he is willing to sell out the railway to the city tomorrow by arbitration and for a reasonable consideration, he is not quite as clear and explicit as he usually is. If he deemed the arbitration award unreasonable would he refuse? Or does he mean that either on arbitration or for a reasonable offer he would sell out?

Or are we to understand that he now as of 1921? The city cannot see its way to vary the terms of the contract or to abrogate the contract in any respect, but we believe that if Mr. Fleming and his company would

THE PLAN IN A NUTSHELL

All that is necessary to do to become a member of the "Salesmanship Club" is to clip out the entry blank, fill it in with your name and address and mail or bring it to the "Salesmanship Club" department of The World. This starts you off with 5,000 credits.

As soon as your entry is received, you are immediately supplied with receipt books, free print-ed matter and all that is necessary for you to have in order to start work at once.

The office of the "Salesmanship Club" is open every week day, 8.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m., and members of the Club of anyone interested in knowing more about this big proposition are welcome to call at any time.

After you have enrolled your name as a member of the Club, you should let all of your friends know that you are in the campaign to win one of the big prizes, and that you expect their support in the way of giving you subscriptions to The World.

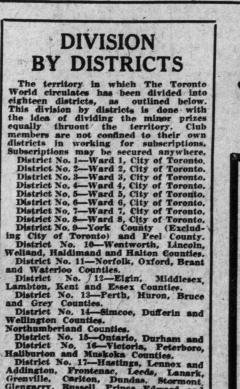

Credits are obtained by securing paid-in-advance subscriptions to The Toronto World (daily edition), from either old or new subscribers, for any length of time, from three months to two vears.

If the entry blank is accompanied by a subscription for any length of time, 15,000 extra credits are given, which, together with the entry blank, makes 20,000 credits besides the regular number allowed for subscriptions. A very nice start in the big prize race.

The advantage of an early start cannot be emphasized too much, for those who enter right now and lose no time in starting an active campaign will have by far the best of it.

Then there are the two, $500.00 extra cash prizes which are offered for the best work done up to July 30.
