THE BIBLE CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Annual Services of the Society were held at Hampton, on Sunday and Monday, June 6th and 7th, 1869.

Three sermons were preached on the Sunday, by the Brethren, E. Price, J. J. Rice, and G. Webber.

The Public Meeting, held on Monday, was presided over by the President of the Conference; and the Annual Report presented by the Secretary.

Moved by Bro. Roberts, seconded by Bro. Wade.

I. That the Report, an abstract of which has been read, be adopted, and printed under the direction of the Bible Christian Missionary Society.

Moved by Bro. Hooper, seconded by Bro. Chapple.

II. Believing the success of our Mission cause depends on the abundant outpouring of the Spirit, realized in answer to prayer, we resolve to pray and labor for larger measures of the Spirit of God to rest upon our missionaries and Societies.

Moved by Bro. Barker, seconded by Bro. S. Jolliffe.

III. That the cordial thanks of the Society be given to the contributors and collectors of the Missionary Fund for this year, for their liberality and interest, as manifested in the contribution of $7553 77, towards the Society's funds. But we regret to add there is still a large debt on the Society, amounting to upwards of One Thousand dollars; and respectfully invite our friends and supporters to increased liberality in this important department, suggesting the need of the Society's income being raised to $10,000 per year, to meet all the demands of an aggressive Church.

MISSIONARY REPORT.

Notwithstanding the grand aim and determined resolve of every true christian is, to witness the spread of universal righteousness and peace; and that Christ's one all-sufficient sacrifice, has opened up the way to the extension of Christian missions, the wide-world through; and that the promises and predictions of the Bible are perfectly assuring on this point; yet fear and doubt is often entertained and expressed, on the final and universal triumphs of the Cross of Christ. Looking at its many hindrances, at the stern and inflexible hatred of its foes, at the wild and sterile soil over which it has to spread, and at the hearts of stone it has to win; the general diffusion of Christianity may not be argued with logical precision by the mathematician, who must have figures and data to command his conclusion, and encourage his prospects; but to a sincere believer in the ever blessed Gospel, the testimony of the Lord is sure. "He shall have the heathen for his inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for his possession," for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it; and the feeblest utterances of the Divine are more sublimely assuring than all the figures mathematical calculation could adduce. But the recent history of Christianity, while one of the best evidences of its Divinity, one of the noblest tributes to its power, is one of the surest guarantees of its ultimate conquest. Not merely the past decade, but the past year has stood forth, with distinctive prominence, as an epoch in the history and spread of Christian missions. Viewed in a local and restrictive sense, we may see little to encourage; but viewed in a general and world-wide sense, we see everything to encourage. Already the darkness and misery which have so long brooded over the earth, is beginning to disappear; and the clouds, so stormful and portentous, are moving surely away, fringed with amber and gold; and the long anticipated echo may be heard, "'The morning cometh,' the dry valley hath felt the passing of the healing winds; the dead bones the presence of the resuscitating life; the moral charnel house, the kiss of the immortality that walks freely among the tombs." It is but a few years since a large part of the inhabited globe was absolutely closed against the missionary of the cross. Missionaries could not so much as enter most of the countries of the old world, without incurring either certain death, or the most imminent risk of it; but now, it may be said without exaggeration, that the whole world is opened wide to the bearers of the gospel message. We know not that there is, at this hour, a single portion of the globe wholly inaccessible to the enlightened and prudent missionary, unless it is that centre of civil despotism, the City of Rome; where the so-called, infallible head of the real church, presents you with the only instance of absolute intolerance toward the christian faith, to be found on the face of the earth to-day. The terrible massacre carried forward by the infatuated Hauhaus, in New Zealand, and the ferocious persecutions in China, may be pointed to as expressive of the stern rejection of the Gospel in those countries; but it is more properly expressive of the infatuation and wickedness of certain lawless tribes, that are still under the power of a degraded and depraved priesthood. He who sits as governor among the nations, is silently, but surely, laying a train for mighty movements in time to come. He is fast inclining even his enemies, from the most opposite motives, to permit and invite the gospel into their territory. Never before was so large a population open to evangelical labors, or so many massive fabrics of superstition crumbling to their fall. The intercourse between distant portions of the globe is increasing every day with a rapidity beyond precedent; and the extension and perfecting of commercial relations, the wonderful improvement in the art of printing, the enlarged acquaintance with other living languages than our own, the predominance of certain languages, which the many tongues of earth are learning to speak, the world almost engirdled with an electric messenger,—point to facilities and successes, formerly thought incredible, and as yet only a grand but confident dream. The Bible translated into one hundred and seventy-two languages, and circulated with a rapidity that promises to redeem its bold and apparently hopeless pledge, of giving a copy to every family on the face of the globe; the increase and cheapening of religious literature, until none can find a just excuse for its deprivation; the increased liberality of the Christian public, in supporting the Missionary enterprise, are all precious omens of a glorious to come. The rapid and almost instant change which has come over the Austrian Empire, one of the most fierce enemies of Protestantism, and the uncompromising foe of freedom, rendering it civilly free and religiously tolerant of all sects, with a wide open Bible in its midst, shows us that the time has come when a nation may be born in a day. And Spain, so long a lifeless form in the grasp of a bloated and corrupt superstition, to-day emerging from the throes of a bloodless revolution, with a greet of welcome for all christian teachers, reminds us that it is not a thing impossible, that God should raise the dead. With such a precedent, in spite of ridicule or fear, we may confidently anticipate the time when the Gospel shall be everywhere preached, the truth everywhere believed, and Christ everywhere honored; for "all nations shall call him blessed, and unto him shall the gathering of the Gentiles be; for in the dispensation of the fulness of time, God will gather together in one, all things in Christ." And when that glorious consummation shall transpire, the most sanguine expectation will be more than realized; for the reality will far exceed the most brilliant imagery, and altogether beggar human speech to describe it. Then the Divine law will be the one perfect director of every footstep, and life's toil become a ceaseless, accepted sacrifice. The heart shall know no root of bitterness, nor despair ever crush the longings of hope; the soul, home, shall no longer be haunted with evil spirits, but be the ever-presence of God; moral defilement shall be lost in the pure and peaceful blessedness of a perfect way. The communion of God will know no cloud, the serene summer of the soul no storm; every form and guise of evil will be compelled to seek an asylum in darker regions and grosser soils. The vile will become virtuous; the angry, gentle; the selfish, benevolent and free ; every subject a prince ; the renovated earth a theatre of wonders ; the renewed heart, the shrine of a personal, ever-living God ; while the soul and the world, in the possession of its millennial peace, purity, light, joy, life and glory, shall exclaim, " now is come salvation !" To assist in the accomplishment of this much desired end, is the clearly defined aim of this Missionary Society. As the ocean is made up of drops, the mountain of atoms, the forest of trees, the Church of individuals, the whole of part^s -we claim to form a part of the whole Missionary Church ; laboring, praying, living for the christianizing of the world.

Your Committee cannot present so flattering a report of the past year's labors, as they could desire. In some parts of the field, God has graciously poured out of his Spirit, and many souls have been hopefully converted. In other parts of our Mission ground, the absence of prosperity is both apparent and painful. Peterborough societies are living in peace, and of many of the friends, it is said, their attachment is strong, and efforts praiseworthy ; but we regret to add their numbers are less than last year. Dummer, is too stationary ; its wants are,—less worldliness, and more spirituality ; less avarice, and more liberality ; less selfishness, and more of the mind of Jesus. A re-arrangement of the work in that mission field, as suggested by your Committee, it is hoped will be of permanent benefit. Perrytown, has passed through severe difficulties. In Hungerford, some souls have been hopefully converted. One place, Thomasburg, has been opened under favorable circumstances. A new church is in course of erection at Bethesda ; but the financial state of the Mission is far from satisfactory. Huntingdon, has sustained a loss of members through removals and unfaithfulness, and still continues a dependent Mission. Seymour, amidst some discouragements, has unquestionably improved. The Tabernacle has been enlarged and renovated, and a new church is in course of erection. Oshawa, has passed through severe and exceptional trial, arising from strife, ill-feeling, and disruption ; and by means of it, the efforts of one of the most gifted of the Society's agents, have been greatly hindered ; but through the mercy of the ever blessed God, the storm has become a calm, and greater oneness of spirit prevails. Prince Albert Station, has progressed numerically, financially, and spiritually. The new church, opened on Scugog Island, at a cost of $600, free of debt, is proving a success ; a site has also been purchased for a preacher's house, to be erected forthwith. The Pickering Mission, under the influence of a gracious revival, is in a prosperous state. The Scott Mission, is in great need of more of the life and power of godliness. The Fenelon Mission, has suffered through a change of preachers, during the year ; but the friends are hopeful that it will yet rise. At Usborne, a handsome brick church has been built, and opened in easy circumstances. A gracious revival has also been realized. We hope this Mission will soon become what it should be, a self-supporting circuit. Clinton, has not been left without manifestations of the Divine presence and power; the new churches built two years ago, are especially successful. The Mission is slowly progressing. At Colborne, a new church has been opened, free of debt, and another seated and finished; but in some respects the Mission has not much improved. Grey, has been revived, but is still unproductive. London, while having to mourn over the unfaithfulness and apathy of some, has rejoiced over the conversion of others. The excellent new church at Deleware, is quite a success, and the prospects of the Mission are good. Ingersoll and Dereham, amid anxiety, and labors more abundant, has improved. The elegant new church at Ingersoll, was opened under blessed influences. Since its opening, a good congregation has been gathered; and what is still better, a few souls converted to Christ. Cleveland, though not so prosperous as could be desired, is not without hope. At Orange and Chagrin Falls, a few have fallen in love with the sinner's friend; and other signs of progress appear. And we are happy to add, the stations in Ohio have this year been placed on the list of Circuits. Yorkville, while in much need of greater power from on high, rejoices in the possession of some, whose love for God is fervent and sincere; and under encouraging prospects, this Mission has also resolved to become self supporting. At Little Prairie, things are brightening, but we think it should be united to the Palmyra Circuit, to secure its permanent prosperity. Lisbon, has received the droppings of a shower. Rockland, has had to suffer from the sickness of its Pastor, the persecution of its opposers, and the removal of many influential friends. But hope brightens the cloud. A new Mission was opened on Lake Superior, at the commencement of the year, under favorable prospects; but a devastating fire has recently swept over the Town of Hancock, the chief town of the Mission, occasioning cloud and sorrow; but it is hoped the Station will rise above its difficulties, and become a very important and remunerative field. A new Mission has also been opened at Owen Sound, and its vicinity, where several of the children and families of our friends have removed. As yet, the people are poor, and can render but little pecuniary help; but we are hopeful of the future. The Missions on Prince Edward Island, are not looking so prosperous as in some previous years. Great depression has been felt in some parts of the Island; in one part so severe, as to necessitate the vote of relief from the Legislature to the people; for the purchase of grain. Amidst such circumstances, removals have been numerous, so that there has been numerical and financial loss ; but despite these difficulties, God hath poured out of his Spirit, and our Island friends are not without hope.

The Statistical Returns will show a large decrease in the number of members. But that, it must be remembered, is more apparent than real, as the Mitchell station, which was last year a Mission, is now on the list of self-supporting Circuits, with upwards of three hundred members. The actual decrease is about one hundred, but that decrease is a solemn ground for heart seaching, and humiliation before God ; and our sincere prayer is, "O Lord, avenge thine elect, that cry day and night unto Thee, and pour out Thy Spirit, and save us."
