ANNOUNCEMENT
The practice of calling upon the telephone operators for information as to the time of day has grown to the point of interfering with the efficiency of telephone service.
For such information 1,000 calls are made daily in St. John alone, and the total number throughout New Brunswick is much larger. The bulk of these calls come naturally at times when it is most difficult to handle them.
Also the practice of asking the night operators to call subscribers in the morning has grown. These calls average over 100 per morning.
Service efficiency now demands that the work of the operating force should be relieved of unnecessary burdens, and that all energies be directed toward the furnishing of effective telephone service, and to that alone.
Prompted by these considerations, the practice of giving the time of day and calling subscribers in the morning will be discontinued beginning August 1, 1918.

Orange Delegate
Gave Address

Meeting Held in Cateary School Room - Visitors Are Entertained
"Don't think that that rumpus at Guelph is all over; we are going to arouse Canada from end to end over this matter," said William Banks, a prominent Orangeman from Toronto (Ont.), who last night addressed a large assemblage of members of the order in the Cateary school assembly hall.
"We are going to take a committee to Ottawa at the next session of the House, a bigger committee than the farmers took last session, and we want every representative in parliament who is not afraid of Rome to take his stand in this matter."
Francis Kerr acted as chairman. The address delivered by Mr. Banks was bubbling over with Scotch humor, and he kept his audience in fine fettle throughout. Following up his brief statement relative to the Guelph affair, he told some interesting things about the farmers' convention at Ottawa, of those who had no sons at all to go to the front, and of Arthur Hawkes, L. A. LaPointe and other politicians who knew nothing of farming but who took a lively interest in the proceedings.
He expressed great disappointment at the manner in which Quebec province has responded to the call, and added that had it not been for the laxity in that province on the part of the eligible young men coming forward there would not have been the need of taking so many farmers' sons for active service overseas.
Of the response by the Orangemen throughout Canada to the call to arms he spoke with much pride. He said that they had proven true to the principles of their organization and to their vows and were among the first to throw aside business interests and don the King's uniform. While others had not perhaps been so ready in their response to the call he pointed out that there were fields of endeavor in which the Orangemen had been remiss and had not given the attention deserving.

He referred to the splendid orphanages that had been erected by the Catholic church throughout Canada and similar institutions where the wayward and distressed were cared for. This the Orangemen of Canada had not done to the same extent, and he felt that the organization ought well to take a leaf out of the Catholic book in this connection.
Hon. H. F. Morphy, M. P., and George Boyce, M. P., prominent Orangemen of Toronto, who were to have been present to address the meeting, were unavoidably absent.
A short address was delivered by R. W. Wigmore, M. P., who dwelt upon the splendid work that had been done in this war by the Orangemen and the sacrifices they had made upon the altar of empire. He agreed with Mr. Banks that the Orangemen of Canada had not done enough in the matter of orphanages and homes of refuge, and in this there was a great work to be done. The double standard of morals, he said, was a curse to the Dominion of Canada, by which the unfortunate girl who filled the ranks to make necessary such homes of refuge was ostracized from society and the miserable wretch who had been the cause of her downfall admitted into the lodge rooms throughout the country.
Rev. W. R. Robinson gave a short address dealing with the Orange lodge throughout Canada and the work that had been accomplished.
The big assembly hall was crowded to capacity and many of the prominent Orangemen of the city were present.
Women members of the Orange order of this city entertained visiting delegates at lunch in the Royal Hotel last evening. Delegates from parts of western Canada were present. Among the guests were Mayor Hayes and S. E. Elkin, M. P. Toasts were proposed by Mayor Hayes, Messrs. S. E. Elkin and F. L. Potts, Dan Alton, Rev. H. A. Cody, Mrs. G. O. Akersley, Francis Kerr and Wil-

Unofficial advice as to the effect that discord has arisen between Germany and Turkey and that relations between the two countries have been severed. While there is no confirmation of the report, rumors have been current for some time that bad feeling existed between Turkey on the one side and Bulgaria and Germany on the other owing to the cessation of the Dobruja region of Roumania to Bulgaria.

"SKINNER'S DRESS SUIT" ENTERTAINING COMEDY
Imperial Theatre Has Attractive Programme—War, Travel and Other Good Features
Refinement was the keynote of the Imperial's programme last evening and crowded houses was the reward. The leading picture "Skinner's Dress Suit" proved a comedy of the mild and domestic type but nevertheless unmistakably entertaining and quite a novelty. It was a picture version of the well-known clothing satire of the same name and its close following of the printed fiction was unusual for the movies. The adventures of the much-married clerk in his high-priced dress suit; how it got him into society and finally into a better job, was good wholesome entertainment and one of the herules or slaps-of many film productions entered into the five reels. Bryant Washburn, masculine idol, was the central character of Skinner and his acting was faultless. The remainder of the bill consisted of History of the War (No. 12) showing French war vessels, aircraft and armies entering the strife in the early stages; British war vessels on the job, and Believing the strife in the early stages; plan refugees. The scenic offering was Biarritz. The Fashionable, France's de-lightfully balmy resort on the Bay of

THE WAR OUTLOOK.

If we are a bit disappointed that the Allies failed to destroy or capture the German army in the Marne salient we have only to ask ourselves how we would like the general result of the fighting since July 15 if we were Germans instead of Canadians. If the Allies did not accomplish all we had hoped for, they defeated the enemy's purpose, inflicted upon him very heavy losses, and forced him to retreat. The story of the Marne will never be pleasant reading for a German.

When we look back to the closing days of March and remember the dismay with which we read the news of that formidable drive which for some days carried all before it, the news of those later days, and the knowledge we have of the renewed strength given to the Allied arm by the hard-fighting Americans, give us no cause for dissatisfaction, but the very best reason for the opposite feeling.

Of course the Germans and the German guns so skillfully withdrawn from the Marne salient must be met on a new front and overcome; but there is little fear of another German drive for some time, and the soldiers from the United States are still pouring into France, while more and more of those already there are completing their training and moving into the front lines.

We need not expect immediate results from the fit of cadnor that has come upon some German writers and politicians, prompting them to tell the people more of the truth of the situation than has hitherto been permitted, but that cadnor will gradually spread, and the people, having knowledge of this defeat of their armies at the Marne, will begin to ask awkward questions. The Austrian people, who have been fed on assurances of an early and complete victory for the Central Powers, will not rely another year of war. The Allies have more to hope than fear from Russia. The Kaiser has been talking of a decisive stroke, but that stroke will not be delivered by Germany, upon whose crimes judgment has been pronounced by the civilized world. There is no prospect that the war will end this year, but the enemy will be gradually pushed back toward Germany. Any disputes that arise between Turkey and Bulgaria or between either of them and Germany, will be of advantage to the Allies.

WAR COMMENT.

There are rumors of a break between Turkey and Germany. That would be a serious blow to the eastern ambitions of Germany. Any disputes that arise between Turkey and Bulgaria or between either of them and Germany, will be of advantage to the Allies.

The declaration by the British government of its aims regarding Russia should have a good effect in that country. The aim of His Majesty's government is to secure the political and economic restoration of Russia without internal interference of any kind and to bring about the expulsion of enemy forces from Russian soil, and his Majesty's government categorically declares that it has no intention of infringing to the slightest degree the territorial integrity of Russia. With this assurance, contrasting so strongly with the practical aims of Germany, the Russian people should look with greater favor upon Allied intervention.

German submarines are operating two hundred miles off the American coast. Three liners reported yesterday that each of them had been attacked. All of them escaped, and a fourth vessel reports that it discovered in time that a vessel asking assistance was really a submarine with telescopic masts, and rigged up as a decoy. On the whole the submarine campaign on this side of the Atlantic has been barren of results.

The announcement that the United States has 230 warships in European waters, and that the number will rapidly increase, is another evidence of the whole-hearted way the Americans are throwing themselves into the war.

Today's cables express the view that the German retreat in the Marne salient has not reached its limit, and that the enemy, with the aid of his reserves, will endeavor to make a stand. He has succeeded in withdrawing his army and his guns without sacrificing any considerable number of men since the retreat began, and it may be that he feels he can now meet the Allied forces on more even terms. There is much speculation as to whether Ludendorff will now accept the defensive along the whole line or endeavor to strike another blow on some other part of the extended front. Mr. Frank H. Simonds declares that to accept the defensive would be to confess failure for the year and for the war. If that should be the German view also, we may expect more terrific fighting. Meanwhile Foch still has the initiative and each day records some further success gained by the Allies.

SOME SHARP CRITICISM.

The strike of the postmen has called forth some very sharp criticism of the government, both in Ottawa and Toronto.

For example, the Ottawa Journal-Press says: "Probably the present dispute would not have arisen had the postmen received with reasonable promptness the salary bonuses voted them months ago. As the Journal has already pointed out, the delay in payment must have meant serious inconvenience to many of the men. The cost of living presses heavily upon the married man with a small income these days and the postmen undoubtedly needed the money to which they were entitled. They had already spent months in an effort to have their claims to it considered. The undue delay in the payment of the voted bonuses having occurred, the men have now brought the whole question of their wages to an issue and are asking that their minimum wage be $1,000 and their maximum $1,400. Few classes of workers are receiving less. As has been pointed out frequently, corporation laborers are earning higher wages than the postmen are at present receiving. The public generally is in sympathy with the complaint of the postmen. This sympathy was indicated in a measure by the support they received at yesterday's conference from the Dominion Retail Merchants' Association and the Toronto Board of Trade. It has been indicated all along by the press of the country. The government will have the approval of the public in dealing fairly with the men, but the immediate requirement is prompt action on the part of the government. The men should not have to wait as they have been waiting for whatever increases they are entitled to."

The Toronto Globe gets down to cases and fixes the responsibility in the following vigorous article: "It is impossible to avoid accepting the verdict of the man on the street that responsibility for this dislocation of business rests primarily with the government at Ottawa. The bonus passed to the letter carriers by parliament has never been paid. The government either neglected the repeated petitions of the men or refused to take them seriously. The premier, the postmaster-general, and several members of the cabinet were overseas. Those remaining at Ottawa followed a policy of 'waiting off.' The result is the strike, the tying up of much important business, and general public inconvenience and loss. The plain truth of the matter is that the post-office department has been practically neglected for months, while the labor department, which should properly have also interested itself in the situation as it concerned the carriers, is headed with such hopeless inefficiency that nothing effective or businesslike can be hoped for from it under existing conditions. The sooner that Premier Borden comes home and proceeds to carry out his much-talked-of cabinet reconstruction and reorganization the better for the country and the public."

The Germans burn villages as they retire. The bill for damages Germany will have to pay will be no trifling one. Her armies are constantly guilty of senseless and unwarranted acts of spoliation and destruction, as well as of wanton cruelty. In the early days of the war stories of German atrocities were in large measure dismissed as unbelievable exaggerations, but so many have been authenticated that no new story of Hun savagery causes either surprise or incredulity.

Ottawa, July 29.—The order-in-council covering the details of the increases in freight rates granted to the Canadian railways in order that they may be in a position to meet the larger disbursements arising out of the application of the McAdoo wages schedule was made public this afternoon. It provides that the new rates, which are approximately twenty per cent. higher than the rates now in force, will remain in force at least for the duration of the war.

A Serious Matter. There is a delicacy about mentioning piles. And yet so many suffer needlessly who could be readily relieved and cured if they only knew about Dr. Chase's Ointment. Men tell one another about this remarkably successful treatment. But many women pine away their health and vitality, dreading a surgical operation and not knowing how easily they can be cured at home by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

What Is Nuxated Iron? Physician Explains—Says Public Ought To Know What They Are Taking. Your Strength, Power and Endurance and Increase the Red Blood Corpuscles. The fact that Nuxated Iron is today being used by over three million people annually and that so many physicians are prescribing it as a tonic, strength and builder in weak, nervous, run-down conditions, has led to an investigation of its merits by designated physicians and others whose reports should be of great importance to the public generally. Among these is the statement made by Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and Westchester County Hospital, who says: "When one patient after another began asking my opinion of Nuxated Iron, I resolved to go thoroughly into the subject and find out for myself whether or not it possessed the real value claimed by its manufacturers and attested to by so many prominent people. This is exactly what I believe every honest, conscientious physician should do before prescribing or endorsing to any patient a medicine of this kind. If an article is worthless we practitioners ought to be the first to know of it and if it is efficacious we are in duty bound to recommend it for the welfare of our patients. A study of the composition of the Nuxated Iron formula so impressed me with the therapeutic efficacy of the product that I immediately tested it in a number of obstinate cases. So quickly did it increase the strength, energy and endurance of the patients to whom it was administered that I became firmly convinced of its remarkable value as a tonic and blood builder. I have since taken it myself with excellent results. There are thousands of delicate, nervous, run-down folks who need just such a preparation as this but do not know what to take. Therefore I have urgently suggested the widespread publication of the sworn statement of the composition of the formula so that the public may know what they are taking. This complete analysis, which is the property of the manufacturer, is the most complete and most trustworthy of any of its kind in the world. It is composed principally of organic iron in the form of iron pyrophosphate of a special specific standard and glycerophosphates which is one of the most costly tonic ingredients known to the medical profession. The credit of the manufacturer it may be said that they use the most expensive form of iron pyrophosphate, whereas by employing other qualities they could have put the same quantity of actual iron in the tablets at less than one-fourth the cost and by using metallic iron they could have reduced the cost to less than one-twelfth, but by thus cheapening the product they would undoubtedly have impaired its therapeutic efficacy. In my opinion a careful examination of the formula by any physician or pharmacist should convince him that Nuxated Iron is to be placed among the very highest class and most strictly ethical preparations known to medical science. It exceeds anything I have ever used for building up the system and increasing the red blood corpuscles thereby enriching and fortifying the blood against the ravages of disease."

VERDICT GIVEN FOR W. E. SCULLY

Judgment in Martello Hotel Case— Judge Finds Nothing to Support Claim That Money Was Paid for Political Purposes

In the circuit court this morning His Honor Judge Chandler entered a verdict for the defendant in the case of Brannan vs. Scully.

In this case George F. Brannan brought suit against the defendant for the sum of $500, the payment arising out of the sale of the Martello Hotel on west side to the dominion government, and the plaintiff alleged that the $500 had to do with a political campaign fund. The defendant denied that at the time of the sale of Martello Hotel any mention was ever made of a political contribution and further denied that any mention was made of the name of the minister of public works or that any contribution was made to him.

When the court met this morning His Honor Judge Chandler ordered that a verdict be entered for the defendant, and said that if the parties desired it, he would deliver a written judgment later.

Francis Kerr and Dr. J. B. Baxter, K. C. appeared for the plaintiff and J. A. Barry for the defendant.

LIEUT.-COL. CORBET AGAIN IS IN FRANCE

Left Comfortable Post in London to Organize New Field Ambulance Which He Now Commands

Lieut.-Colonel G. G. Corbet of this city is now in France again in command of a field ambulance unit. After a period of arduous service at the front, Dr. Corbet returned to St. John and recruited a field ambulance corps which he took overseas. When the fifth division was broken up his unit shared the fate of others and the men went to reserve depots or to the front in drafts.

Afterwards Lieut.-Colonel Corbet was given an important post in London. He regarded this as too easy a post for an able-bodied man and, when the opportunity offered, a fortnight later, he accepted a chance to get to the front again.

The task which was presented to him was the organization of another field ambulance corps. He rounded up the men, completed organization and training and had them in France in a month.

With the new unit which Lieut.-Colonel Corbet commands, the 14th Field Ambulance, are several St. John officers and quite a large number of St. John men.
