JACK (TWIN) SULLIVAN DEFEATS MIKE SCHRECK

Terry McGovern and Battling Nelson Are Signed to Box Six Rounds Early in January.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 29.—Jack (Twin) Sullivan was given the decision over Mike Schreck, of Chicago, at the end of the twentieth round last night.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—According to the World, Terry McGovern and Battling Nelson will box six rounds early in January in the second regiment armory in Philadelphia. The match was arranged yesterday by Red Deady, a Philadelphia promoter. He demonstrated to Joe Humphreys, manager for McGovern, that the bout would draw at least $25,000. The boxer was to receive 75 per cent of the gross receipts to be divided equally between them.

Before Humphreys signed the articles of agreement, Deady assured him that Bill Nolan, manager of the fighting Nelson had agreed to the terms. The articles call for principals to weigh in at 120 pounds at 8 o'clock of the night of the fight. This will make the bout practically lightweight limit as the men will enter the ring at about 10.30 p. m. Sam Harris in behalf of McGovern, posted $1,000 with Deady to guarantee Terry's appearance. Billy Rocap of Philadelphia was named to referee the bout.

Nelson and his manager are now in Cleveland, where the Battling is giving exhibitions of the manly art. The articles signed by Humphreys were mailed to them last night.

McGovern will begin training for the bout next week.

LONGSHOREMEN RETURNED TO WORK THIS AFTERNOON.

The Agreement With Steamship Men Signed on the Same Basis as Last Year—What the Strike Cost Both Sides.

The strike came to an end last night and the men went to work today as exclusively predicted in the Star of last evening. Two gangs of men went to work this morning on the Allan line boat and this afternoon all boats will be working at full capacity.

The men have given in at the request of many of the citizens who admitted their contention was right but that under the present circumstances it would be well for them to surrender. These people, including clergymen and others, complimented the men on the excellent way in which they had conducted the strike and assured them of their sympathy and admitted the justice of their cause. The combination of such an amount of capital, however, was considered overpowering and if the strike continued it would mean suffering for women and children to say nothing of the inconvenience and privation that would be placed on the men.

The men accepted the dictation of the Allan, Donaldson and C. F. R. people and this morning at eleven o'clock met in the office of S. Schofield & Co. and this morning at eleven o'clock met in the office of S. Schofield & Co. and this morning at eleven o'clock met in the office of S. Schofield & Co. and this morning at eleven o'clock met in the office of S. Schofield & Co.

POWERS OCCUPATION OF TURKEY PEACEFUL.

MYTLENE, East End of Mytylene, Nov. 29.—All is quiet here today. The landing of the international contingent Sunday afternoon with the subsequent occupation of the customs and postal buildings, was carried out without arousing any demonstration on the part of the Turks. So peaceful is the population that 500 of the 600 men landed from the allied fleet were subsequently withdrawn, their continued presence ashore being deemed by the commanders to be quite unnecessary, and only a hundred soldiers of different nationalities remain in occupation of Mytylene.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 29, via Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 29.—The occupation of Mytylene by the allied forces has had no effect on the population of Constantinople which is celebrating the Bairam festival, but advice from Adirnapole and Salonica report apprehensions of trouble in the event of the prolongation of the present situation. There has been an alarming increase in the number of murders which are being committed in the vilayet of Salonica during the past few days.

The ambassadors are doubtful whether they will receive any further communication from the porte on the subject of the demonstrations of the American interests. Japanese representatives are guarding the imperial palace and the residence of the cabinet ministers to prevent any attempt upon them by objectors to the new Japanese Korean agreement. The Japanese have been urged to repudiate the agreement and cause the assassination of the ministers who signed it.

EMPEROR OF KOREA PLACATED

SEOUL, Nov. 29.—Marquis Ito was received in farewell audience yesterday by the emperor. He will leave today on a special train for Pusan, his difficult task of placating the emperor of Korea having been accomplished. The Japanese Minister Jordan and former Chief of Customs J. M. McLeavy Brown, has also had a farewell audience with the emperor today. American Minister Morgan communicated with the foreign office today, announcing his withdrawal from Korea and stating that Consul General Faddock would have charge of American interests. Japanese gendarmes or police are guarding the imperial palace and the residence of the cabinet ministers to prevent any attempt upon them by objectors to the new Japanese Korean agreement. The Japanese have been urged to repudiate the agreement and cause the assassination of the ministers who signed it.

TWO C/IDA STUDENTS EXPELLED, 20 SUSPENDED.

WOLFFVILLE, N. S., Nov. 29.—A students' riot in the college residence, Chateau Hall, has resulted in the expulsion of two students and the suspension of twenty others, some for the remainder of the term ending February 12 and some for the whole of the college year.

A few fights ago a number of the boys with pipes well filled visited some of the ministerial students' rooms and started to smoke the occupants out. Their efforts were so strenuous that in many cases the smokers suffered more than the smokers. The result in some instances was disastrous. The faculty got wind of the affair and took action, with the result mentioned.

BRILLIANT WEDDING AT FREDERICTON.

Miss Sadie Thompson Wedded to Montreal Man—A Beautiful Ceremony—Rich Gifts From Many Friends.

(Special to the Star)

FREDERICTON, Nov. 29.—One of the most brilliant weddings seen here for a score of years will take place at 2.45 this afternoon, when Miss Sadie Thompson, daughter of Hon. F. P. Thompson, will be united in marriage to H. L. Shaw, of Montreal.

The bride's father will be given away by her father, who has as bridesmaids Miss Murray, what was formerly Miss Nan Thompson. The groom will be supported by Thomas B. Blair, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Fredericton.

The presents which the bride has received have been of exceptional value and beauty. From her parents she received a chest of silver, while the father of the groom gave his check for $1,000.

Among the guests is the Marchioness of Donaghy.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the guests included friends from all sections of Canada.

As the bride entered the building on the arm of her father the choir rendered "The Voice That Breathed O' Eden. Miss Thompson was beautifully dressed wearing a beautiful hand made gown of old lace with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley. She wore the present of the groom, a bar bracelet with a large turquoise surrounded with diamonds and pearls.

The bridesmaids were dressed in lovely gowns of cream broadcloth with high lace trimmings, crimson hats and large crimson muffs trimmed with natural flowers. They also wore gold bangles, the gift of the groom.

TRIED TO KILL PRINCESS.

NAPLES, Nov. 29.—Great excitement was caused here today by an alleged attempt against the life of the Duchess of Salaparuta (formerly Princess Helene of Sardinia) and wife of the eldest cousin of the King Emmanuel who is very popular. When the Duchess was returning the royal palace at Capodimonte in an automobile, a man about forty years of age picked up the car, intending apparently to throw it at the duchess, but was prevented from so doing by a policeman who arrested him. The man asserts that he picked up the stone to clear away for the passage of the automobile.

FOOTBALL MUST BE REFORMED.

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 29.—When informed last night of action of Columbia University, in reference to football, Prof. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of the University of California, says: "The game of football as it is played in the United States must be made over or it will have to be given up entirely. A slight changing of the rules for the purpose of eliminating of slugging will not suffice. An entirely new game must be devised."

A presentation was appropriately made by the Rev. D. Hutchinson of a five-ounce silver urn brass with silver lining and spirit lamp attached.

SHOCKING DETAILS

IN SUIT CASE MYSTERY.

Evidence Shows Dr. Percy McLeod Frequently Performed Criminal Operations—He Wore a Mask.

BOSTON, Nov. 28.—Shocking in its details, the story of the dismemberment and disposal of the body of Susanna Geary, the Cambridge chorus girl, was rehearsed in the superior criminal court today, the second day of the trial of Dr. Percy D. McLeod, who is charged with being an accessory to a criminal operation. The principal witnesses were Crawford and Howard, who were arrested in New York; Emma Coulter and Sarah Griffith, nurse at the house on Winthrop street, Roxbury, where the Geary girl is said to have died, and Dr. John H. Pettie, of Roxbury, who testified that he had been called by Dr. McLeod to attend a patient at the Winthrop street house. During the examination of Hunt and Miss Griffith it was brought out that Dr. McLeod wore a mask to conceal his features when he attended patients at the house on Winthrop street. Miss Griffith further testified that Dr. Pettie also wore a mask. Both Dr. McLeod and Dr. Pettie, Miss Griffith said, were masked while the Geary girl was conscious, but as soon as she became unconscious they uncovered their faces and made no attempt to conceal their identity.

It was brought out by the many witnesses that Dr. McLeod was a frequent caller at the Mrs. Bishop office on Tremont street, where the illegal operation on Susan Geary is alleged to have been performed. According to the testimony, he called regularly Saturday at the Bishop office to collect the money due him for his services. The testimony brought out that Dr. McLeod "did the outside work," that is he had no part in the illegal operation, but did attend to patients upon whom such operations had been performed.

THREE IMPORTANT REASONS

Why intending purchasers of a Piano should buy from The Nordheimer Piano Co., LIMITED, 28 CHARLOTTE STREET.

1.—Because if you want quality you have the best in the city or province. 2.—Because you buy direct from the manufacturer and save dealers' profits. 3.—Because when you purchase a STEINWAY & SONS PIANO or a NORDHEIMER PIANO you get a piano worth its price. And you are sure that the same style piano only has ONE price and is not sold at three or four different prices in your vicinity or elsewhere.

BLACKWOOD INDICTED; HOWARTH DISAPPEARS.

Sensational Developments in Moncton Shooting Case—Dead Boy's Father Has Skipped—Grace Beecham Indicted.

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 28.—There were sensational developments today in connection with the Blackwood manslaughter case, in which Blackwood was charged with maliciously shooting the nine year old son of Matthew Howarth, an Englishman, employed in the Moncton cotton mill. In the county court at Dorchester a true bill was found against Blackwood, but Howarth did not show up. On enquiry it is learned that after borrowing various sums of money by giving a bill of sale of furniture, etc., Howarth had hired a horse from a livery stable and left this morning for Paris unknown. The horse was recovered at Boundary Creek, and it was learned tonight that Howarth had taken the noon train at Boundary Creek for St. John, and is probably now across the border.

The strange conduct of Howarth, who was the principal witness in the case, cannot be explained, except on the supposition that he is demented. The grand jury also found a true bill against Grace Beecham, the woman who set fire to Priest Wilbur's barn at Lutes Mountain a month or two ago. The Westmorland barristers who met at Dorchester today, passed a resolution asking for the passage of the Justice Act for the province. A resolution was also passed favoring the enlargement of the duties of the county court judges to embrace all debts within the jurisdiction of justices and local court.

Mrs. W. H. Williams of this city left for St. John today to be present at the marriage of Miss Dunfield, daughter of the late George Dunfield, and Lewis G. Sangster of Moncton, which takes place tomorrow evening.

THE END OF THE STRIKE.

The strike is over, and though it would have been better for all concerned if the end had been reached by another way, the city, whose chief interest is in the uninterrupted continuance of the winter port trade, is glad of the settlement.

Convinced that the ultimate success of their fight against the strength of the shipping combine and its allies was slim and only possible at all after a long fight which would mean considerable hardship to them and great loss to their city, the 'longshoremen' have surrendered. Credit is due them for the manner of their surrender as well as for the way they conducted their campaign. That they were confident of the justice of their demands they proved from the first by their frank and fair offer to submit them to any impartial body of men. That they also recognized there were two sides to the dispute they showed by a repeatedly declared willingness to agree to any reasonable compromise. In spite of the arrogant refusal of the steamship men to consider either offer and their evident determination to rely on the power of their wealthy organization without regard to fair play, the 'longshoremen' kept their tempers and resorted to no methods but those strictly within their rights. While they endeavored, and with success, to induce the imported laborers to join their ranks, they made no effort to intimidate. Their conduct throughout was orderly and praiseworthy and their admission of defeat, now that they feel the cost of continuing the strike to be greater than they can afford, is manly and sensible.

The present settlement settles nothing save that the shipping combine, at the present time, has the greater strength. It decides nothing as to the justice of either side's case. Had the shipping men agreed to a compromise, or had a board of arbitration decided the trouble the men would have returned to work satisfied that they had been fairly treated and ready to give cheerfully a fair day's work for a fair day's pay. As it is they feel they have been beaten by brute force. They still believe that they were in the right and are naturally bitter because might again triumphed. They have the desire to "get even" when their turn comes, and, meanwhile, the determination to give their employers not a bit more for their money than is absolutely necessary. The Star is confident that the interests of the port and of the shipping men themselves would have been better served had a fair and less inflexible attitude been adopted by the combine and believe that there will yet be regret that the suggestions made by this paper and endorsed by the common council were not considered more favorably.

JEWELRY IN AMERICA.

Tomorrow the Jews of the United States will celebrate the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of their settlement in America, when for the first time in their history since they had ceased to be a concrete nation the right was accorded them to make their home in a foreign country. Exercises will be held in New York, at Carnegie Hall, where Jacob H. Schiff will preside, and where addresses will be made by ex-President Cleveland, Governor Higgins, Mayor McClellan, Bishop Greer, Judge Mayer Sulzberger, and the Rev. D. H. Prender. Monday at Boston a similar meeting will be held at Faneuil Hall, where one of the prominent addresses of the day will be made by Oscar S. Straus, and in other cities of the United States there will be important gatherings—all with the aim in view of making this epoch in the life story of the Jew stand out in bold relief in the history of both Jew and Gentile.

A woman lost two little charms, the joint gift of God and a good man. She hunted long for them. She searched in ballroom and in theatre. She crowded men from the great, gaunt buildings where they earned their bread, and hunted there for her lost jewels. She did things that made the world take a quick little breath, and then call her a "good fellow." But she found them not. Weary and worn she went back to the beginning, and there, in kitchen and uryery, she found two "white stones," and written on one was "happiness" and on the other "love."

I do not believe in spasmodic advertising. My advertisements are before the public every day in the year. My idea is, the daily papers, and constantly—C. A. Scott, Scott & Carter, San Diego, Cal.

At the beginning of the 18th century the number increased and the revolution which brought them all the rights of citizenship proved a further strong incentive to immigration. In 1818 there were 8,000 Jews in the United States. Eight years later their population here had doubled. In 1840 there were 15,000, in 1848, 50,000, in 1880, 250,000, in 1888, 400,000. At present the Jewish population numbers 1,250,000, greater than that of any other country save Russia and Austria. Today New York is the great Jewish center of the world, containing more Jews than any other city and more than there are in the whole British Empire.

As everywhere the Jewish talent for trade has brought them to the forefront in the commercial world. Forbidden at first to engage in retail trade they were forced to open commercial relations with other countries and, as a consequence, to them is due the credit for laying the foundations of American foreign trade. The first wheat exported from America was sent by Jews from New York in 1710. Today, in America as in Europe, many of the greatest financiers are either Jews or of Jewish blood. But, though it is not generally known, Jewish interest in American affairs goes back hundreds of years farther than the day whose anniversary will be celebrated tomorrow. A writer in the Brooklyn Eagle relates that at least five of those who accompanied Columbus on his first voyage to America were Jews. One of these was Luis de Torres, who came here as an interpreter, and who is said to have been the first European to have set foot on the New World. He it was who also discovered the use of tobacco. Not only was Columbus greatly assisted in his voyage of discovery by the astronomical works of Jews, but two Jews—Isabella de Breda and Gabriel Sanchez—urged upon Queen Isabella the acceptance of the plans of Columbus, and were largely instrumental in providing the means for his undertaking. So there is good reason for the celebration which will mark the Jewish participation in the American Thanksgiving Day. And there is good reason no effort to intimidate. Their conduct throughout was orderly and praiseworthy and their admission of defeat, now that they feel the cost of continuing the strike to be greater than they can afford, is manly and sensible.

The shipping-Telegraph-Times combine has won out, and the Telegraph crews victoriously today over the 'longshoremen' and all who spoke a word in their behalf.

"St. John wins," says the Telegraph. We rather expected some of the credit would be given to David.

AN ODE FOR THE CANADIAN CONFEDERACY.

(By Charles G. D. Roberts.) Awake, my country, the hour is great 'neath this gloom which yet obscures the land. From the heights of stern Laurentian range To where giant peaks our western borders bound, a deep voice stirs, vibrating in men's ears. As if their own hearts throbb'd that thunder forth, A sound wherein who hears mightily hears.

The voice of the desire of this strong North— This North whose heart of fire Yet knows not its desire Clearly, but dreams, and murmurs In the dream. The hour of dreams is done, Lo, on the hills the gleam!

Awake, my country, the hour of dreams is done! Doubt not, nor dread the greatness of thy fate. Tho' faint souls fear the keen confronting sun, And faint would bid the morrow of splendor wait; Tho' dreamers, rapt in starry visions, keep their vain hands to stars, thy fame is nigh. Here in Canadian hearth, and home, and name— Till name which yet shall glow Till all the nations know Us for a people, proud, heart and hand Loyal to our native earth, our own Canadian land of glory.

O strong hearts, guarding the birth-right of our glory, Worth your best blood this heritage that ye guard. These mighty streams resplendent with our story, These iron coasts by range of seas unshared— What fields of peace these bulwarks will secure! What values of plenty these calm floods supply!

Shall not our love this rough, sweet land make sure, Her bounds preserve, inviolate, though we die? O strong hearts of the North, Let flame your loyalty forth, And put the craven and base to an open shame. Till earth shall know the Child of Nations by her name!

THE ST. JOHN STAR

Is used by the majority of advertisers who invest in but one evening paper in St. John.

The Star has nearly three times as many exclusive announcements of local advertisers as any other St. John evening paper.

St. John's favorite newspaper being read by nearly all the people, it naturally follows that it is the most popular advertising medium with St. John merchants.

They make their announcements through the Star because experience has demonstrated that it brings them most substantial results.

Advertising in Star pays, and pays handsomely.

The paper that merchants advertise in, is the paper that the people read.

JAPANESE HORSES.

The Japanese horse is an undervalued animal, not weighing over 800 or 1,000 pounds, stands under fourteen hands high, and is entirely inadequate to the demands made upon him. It is no uncommon sight to see a small horse hitched to the ordinary Japanese four-wheeled dray, pulling with evident effort a load consisting of four or five bales of cotton, each weighing 500 pounds or over. This heavy strain is evident in the sprung hock joints and generally stiffened condition of comparatively young horses.

Stallions and mares are commonly used for draft purposes, while geldings are seldom ever seen. The Japanese dray weighs about 900 to 1,200 pounds, and has small front wheels measuring about 13 inches in diameter with rear wheels nearly 40 inches in height. The pull of the load comes from a height of seven or eight inches from the ground, is indirect, and necessitates greater effort than would be the case if it were made more direct.

The government has been engaged for some years past in the improvement of the quality of the Japanese horse and has recently imported from England thirty-three horses, including sixteen thoroughbreds, ten trotters, six hackneys, and one saddle horse. These stud farms, situated in different parts of the empire. Many of the best horses purchased for the army have been distributed to the government farms for stud purposes.

There is a scarcity of horses in Japan, as all serviceable animals were commandeered by the authorities, and farmers and others have been put to much inconvenience. A good opportunity for the introduction of horses suitable for draft and farm purposes is now presented, and American breeders are being invited to send their representatives to acquaint the authorities with their stock.

The director of these stud farms of the department of agriculture and commerce is now on a tour of inspection in England and Austria, and will return to Japan in December next.—United States Consular Report, Nov. 10, 1905.

M. Ellehammer, a Danish manufacturer, has introduced into the field of aeronautics yet another aeroplane. It is a machine constructed of steel tubes, and weighs altogether about 270 pounds. There is on each side a propeller, and driving power is obtained by a 9-horse-power motor weighing about 55 pounds. The Danish government has placed the islands of Lindoe at the inventor's disposal for experiments.

LOCAL NEWS

J. Allan Belyea advertises a sale of samples of ladies' and children's ready-to-wear hats for tomorrow morning. Sale begins at half-past eight.

Last Sunday afternoon the North End gospel temperance meetings were begun in Union Hall. There was a fair audience who listened with interest to the remarks given by the Rev. David Long. The choir of St. Matthew's Presbyterian church, under the excellent leadership of H. R. Blomfield, furnished some excellent selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lanyon, of Carleton, celebrated their tenth anniversary at their wedding last evening. Members of the Carleton Cornet band and other friends were present and Wm. Lanyon presented a handsome wicker chair. Mr. and Mrs. Lanyon briefly expressed their thanks. A very pleasant evening was spent.

BOARD OF WORKS HAD BUSY SESSION.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Works yesterday afternoon the matter of the West Side building, underwritten by the late Rev. David Long, was the order of business.

Tenders were received for the supplies for the safety department. The tender for hay was awarded to C. H. Peters and the tender for straw, to the tender of C. H. Peters & Sons was accepted for oats, the tender was awarded to the tender of C. H. Peters & Sons.

The tender for the timber required to plank North Rodney wharf was awarded to the tender of C. H. Peters & Sons. The tender for the lumber required to be planked North Rodney wharf was awarded to the tender of C. H. Peters & Sons.

John S. Coughlan reduced his offer to $1,020, which is $175 less than his previous tender. James H. Doody tendered for $1,080, but as he stated that this was for the heating of sheds 1, 2 and 3 only, it was not considered by the board. R. E. Fitzgerald reduced his tender $30, making it $1,080.

The board awarded the contract to John S. Coughlan.

Ald. Pickett complained about the street car service. Only a seven minute service was given on Paradise Row.

Ald. McGoldrick moved that the matter confer with Mr. Earle again. This was carried.

Ald. Bullock, Macrae and Vanwart, director and engineer were appointed a committee as to the agreement about the rails on the West Side.

On motion of Ald. Macrae it was decided to pay the rates for removing snow which were paid last year, $12.50 per day, and to give preference to union men.

Ald. Frank and Director Cushing reported concerning their inspection of streets in other cities. The report spoke highly of the pavement, a sample of which was presented to the board.

Some discussion took place over the question of purchasing a strip of land for $200 between Burpee avenue and Spring street, for the convenience of pedestrians.

The board recommended that they get permission to make the purchase for $200.

The director reported in regard to the dredging, and a bill for about $20 will be handed to the chairman for collection. This is for the removal of the mud dropped from one of the scoops in the slip.

BOARDING HOUSE RULES.

Be deaf, dumb and blind to everything that goes on around you. Never comment upon people or surroundings to anybody connected with a boarding house, or say anything that you would not proclaim from the housetop.

Never become intimate with other boarders; avoid cliques in the boarding house as you would avoid an epidemic.

Make your complaints to the landlady and not to your fellow sufferers. Don't make sarcastic remarks about the butter, the bed linen, or the pet dog in the second story front. Others have the same privilege, and may take cracks at your choice neckties or the cut of your clothes, says the Philadelphia North American.

Let your cordiality extend only to the point of free and unfeigned courtesy, otherwise some admirer will promptly harvest money from you. Never know anything. The professional mischief-maker soon learns to let such a person alone.

Don't carry on flirtations or love affairs in the boarding house. This is an especially difficult rule to follow, but it is well worth observing.

One might sum up all rules of boarding house etiquette in the rather abrupt old phrase: "Mind your own business." By doing this strictly the boarder finds little time to attend to the business of others.

Above all, let your relations with the landlady, be upon a purely business basis. Never ask a favor if it can be avoided.

HOW IT FEELS TO WATCH A BURGLAR AT WORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—A full treatise on How to Behave When a Burglar is in the House You Have no Gun with notes and diagrams, could be written by James W. Halstead, of the Produce Exchange, after his experience at or about 3.30 a. m. Sunday, Mr. Halstead, who occupies the handsome four-story and basement home at 3 West 75th street, was obliged for his own and his wife's safety to run away from the roof and drive him to escape by raising an alarm. He told the story himself to a reporter Sunday afternoon.

"To begin with," said Mr. Halstead, "the burglar got in by the drawing room bay window. He tried up the section of the window nearest the stove and stepped right in from the balcony. The house is wired for a burglar alarm, and there is a gun on the second floor that would have rung and kept ringing as soon as the window was opened. However, I neglected to call in the electrician to have that put in complete order when we returned to town this fall.

"The first I knew about it was when I awoke in the second story back bedroom. My face was toward the door through which the thief had come. I heard some one moving and realized at once that it was a burglar. He was in the back of the room, that is, behind me. I coughed slightly and at the same time turned over in bed, trying to make it appear that I was asleep. Then I saw the form of a man in the passage leading from my room into the bathroom in the extension. There was an electric light burning in this extension passage.

"The burglar drew back as I coughed. Then I lay still, thinking what to do next. As often as the burglar started to come into the room I'd cough, and he would dodge back. I suppose he was taking no chances. From where he was he could have got the drop on me, even if I had had a revolver under the pillow. My revolver was in my chiffonier, which stands next to the door that opens into the hall.

"Finally I rolled over, so that I could just get my lips close to Mr. Halstead's ear. I nudged her and whispered as she awakened: 'Where are your jewels?'

"She thought at first that I had a nightmare and didn't answer. I repeated it, speaking so low the burglar could not hear. She replied that they were locked up in the safe. Then I said: 'Don't move or make a noise. I have a man in the room.' She never cried out. Then I told her what to do when the time came.

"We lay still for a minute or so—it seemed like half an hour—and then we jumped out of bed.

"Mrs. Halstead ran out of the room and up stairs to where my daughter and a girl upstairs were asleep. They ran to the front window and began to scream, 'Burglars! Help! Police!'

"They woke up the whole block. Our door neighbor at once called police headquarters on the telephone, and gave the alarm there.

"As I followed Mrs. Halstead out of the room, I touched a button which lighted the electric light in the bedroom. Outside the door I touched another button which lighted the lower hall. Then I went part way up the stairs, where by looking through the balusters I could see into the bedroom and watch the burglar, while he could not see me, for I was in a dark place, and he was in a flood of light.

"Subsequently he came out of his hiding place, crossed the bedroom leisurely and stopped at my chiffonier to see if he had overlooked anything. Then he came out into the hall and walked leisurely downstairs into the drawing room, where he was waiting for me.

"I had such a good look at him that I would know him anywhere again. He was a negro, five feet 11 inches, I should say, and of athletic figure. He must weigh 180 pounds. He was more than a match for me if I had tackled him and so I didn't try. I'm sure he was no one known to any of my servants, who are colored.

"Mrs. Halstead took the whole thing as coolly as any one could expect. After it was all over she was somewhat excited and she has gone to bed now to rest. Both of us are hoarse from yelling out of the window."

Michael Tobin, night watchman at the Hotel San Remo, on the opposite side of the street, saw the burglar come out of the Halstead house. Tobin gave chase, but he is elderly and short winded. The burglar ran to Columbus avenue and turned north. By the time Tobin got to the corner he saw the fugitive turning east into 75th street. Tobin then gave up the pursuit. The burglar ran to the park, climbed over the wall and was lost in the thickly wooded region there.

The residents of the San Remo and of all the houses near watched the affair from their windows, and many saw the burglar's escape.

He had gathered some silverware in Mr. Halstead's dining room before his operations upstairs. In the bedroom he had taken from a coat a wallet containing $95 and Mr. Halstead's Produce Exchange membership card; two boxes sent for the Savoy theatre, and three parlor tickets for Boston for next Thursday. He also took Mr. Halstead's keys, and this caused him as much concern as all the other losses combined.

From the chiffonier a diamond collar button and two diamond shirt studs worth $200 and some small stickpins of Mrs. Halstead's were taken. On his way out the burglar did not stop to pick up the silverware.

ROBBERS BARONS.

Captain Kidd folded his paper and calling his boys forward made the following brief address:

"My men, I have called you out to tell you that I am weary of chasing men for plunder and am going ashore and open an office where the plundering can be done in all kinds of weather without rough exposure."

INSURANCE AGENTS WHO GAVE REBATE ARRESTED.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—Charged with unlawful discrimination in favor of Benjamin C. Warnick, of this city, in connection with insurance of a life insurance policy for $100,000, Harold Pearce, the general agent in Philadelphia for the New York Life, is charged with a hearing before Magistrate Tormod today and held in $500 bail for his appearance in court.

Peirce, it is charged, is charged with causing to be issued a policy on the life of Warnick for which the latter did not have to pay the first year's premium, which amounted to $2,500.

The principal witness in the case is Warnick. He said he reported to him that by obtaining this policy he would be able to get special bonus from the company. To this Warnick assented, making the proviso that it must be within the law. The receipted policy was delivered to him without his paying any premium thereon, but he subsequently thought that the transaction had to pay the first year's premium to take back the policy. He informed his attorney about the matter, and advised him to bring nothing of this prosecution until he was summoned to appear in the case.

It developed at the hearing that Joseph W. Lynch swore out warrant.

The prosecution was brought under state law to prevent discrimination and the awarding of rebates in insurance premiums. The law provides a penalty of $500 for the offense on all policies up to $20,000, with an added penalty of $500 for each additional $20,000. Half of the penalty goes to the informer.

GRAND JURY FREES FRED NORTHROP.

The grand jury in the Northrup case examined six witnesses before lunch and several afterwards. No bill was found but the following recommendation was made:

"The grand jury of the city and county of St. John are of the opinion that the mayor of the city of St. John should not issue any more licenses for boxing exhibitions."

His honor said that he thought the finding of the jury a right and proper one. Dr. W. Macrae, counsel for Northrup then moved that his client be discharged which was done. "You are honorably discharged," Mr. Northrup said the welcome words which set the young man free.

A. W. Macrae Says Sunday Law is Ineffective.

A Test Case May Be Made to Prove It—Charge Against John G. Sperdakes Was Dismissed.

The case against John and George Sperdakes, who were reported for working in their candy factory on the corner of Dock and Union streets last Sunday afternoon, was taken up in the police court this morning. A. W. Macrae appeared for the defence, John Sperdakes pleaded not guilty. Policeman Ward testified that on Sunday afternoon he saw men in their shirt sleeves in Sperdakes' factory and saw men at work over a pot of candy. He asked for admittance to the factory and was refused. He then saw the men with boards covered with candy.

In answer to Mr. Macrae's policeman said that he had visited the place on a couple of previous occasions, but only remained for a few minutes at a time. He knew the street railway officers were on the opposite side of the street and did not report the clerks because he did not see them at work. He did not see any grocery stores open on his last Sunday.

Here Mr. Macrae said that he saw a number of stores open on Sunday, and saw three on Policeman Ward's beat, and he had no objection to it.

Wm. Ward who has a store under the factory, and George Cooper, his friend, said they heard people walking about the factory, but could not say they were working there.

Mr. Macrae moved for a dismissal, as there was no evidence of open desecration of the Sabbath. The police don't seem to think it proper, he said, to bring R. B. Emmerson and Col. McLean or other directors of the street railway company before the court for having street cars running on Sunday. The question of clerks taking stock on Sunday was also spoken of by Mr. Macrae, and the magistrate said he did not think it right. Mr. Macrae said he was satisfied that under the present law any person could keep his store open on Sunday. He intimated that test cases would soon be made.

John Sperdakes went on the stand and said there was no work being done in his factory last Sunday.

The case was then dismissed.

Mr. Robinson says that the young man had received about $5.45 which he did not turn in. These losses were discussed with Mr. Robinson went to collect the money due him and was informed by the customers that they had paid Wright.

Wright pleaded not guilty and said that all the money he had received had paid to his employer. The case was adjourned until this afternoon at two o'clock when it was taken up again.

ESCAPED JAIL PRISONER WAS RECAPTURED.

There were six prisoners on the police court bench this morning. Four drunks were fined, one eight dollars, and the others $4 each.

Michael Hilland, an old offender, was arrested last evening by Sergt. Ross on Union street. Hilland was charged with drunkenness, using profane language and resisting the police. Sergt. Ross also brought to the notice of the court that Hilland had been a member of the chain gang and had made his escape. Hilland was fined $5 or 30 days jail on the charge of drunkenness and was remanded on the charges of profanity and resisting. The magistrate said the charge of being an escaped convict might be brought up and the prisoner sent to the penitentiary.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS.

The letters to Santa Claus started in scores the day after he published his notice in the Star. Now they are coming in hundreds daily. All are being forwarded as rapidly as possible, and they are keeping Santa awfully busy. He complains that a lot of the little ones, especially the girls, are forgetting to say how old they are, which of course spoils their chances of winning.

LANDSLIDE DAMAGE IS INCREASING.

City Building at Rodney Slip in Imminent Danger—It May Be Destroyed by Fire.

The landslide which occurred yesterday morning at the head of Rodney slip has taken even worse proportions and the city has quite a heavy proposition before it.

This morning in the heavy rain, the aldermen and the city officials were seen around in pairs gazing on the whole street caving in as it is built on piles but each flood-tide seems to make the destruction greater.

The house is in a very precarious condition and is now vacated. The wall on the rear has now altogether fallen in.

The sidewalk stretching toward the immigration building at Grand Point has a great slant toward the harbor and has been boarded off to keep away pedestrians who might tempt fate to cross and as a result, slide off into the harbor.

Engineer J. H. Barbour, of the C. F. R., was on the spot this morning, having also gone over the ground with Superintendent Downie last night. He said that it was not yet decided what would be done as it is quite probable that the whole track will be moved nearer the other side of the street.

The dredge Beaver, the cable of all the trouble, was this morning laid off on account of the rough weather and the opportunity was taken to make some repairs.

Engineer Peters and Director Cushing were both on the spot this morning and had not decided what would be done with the ruins. With the weather and the direction of the wind it was hinted that fire would be the best mode. One of the officials said that any person who desired could tear down the building but that the city preferred not to undertake the job in view of the danger of the work and the suits which would be entered against the city if any accident should happen.

Engineer Peters said the foundations at this point were of a very peculiar and unreliable nature and the city has found out a number of times before.
