Can now be prechased right at home, it is hatmost successful preparation ever introduced to our people. It works like a charm in all cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhages. Asthma, severe Coughs, Croup and all other Throat and Lung Diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering, skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious cough, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die, it is your own fault, as you can go to your Druggist, E. Lee Street, and get a Sai ple Bottle for 10 cents and try it; three doses will relieve any case.

Regular size only 76 cts. Boschee's German Syrup.

In this present age, when the life battle is so fiercely fought, and when upon even the strongest the tug and stress of ittell so heavily, how necessary it becomes for us to provide for the keeping up of our reserve stock of mental and physical stamina by the use of such a nervous tonic and vitalizing agent as "Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oif with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime."

Its gently stimulating and nutritive-tonic properties supply the materials, and assist nature in her efforts to keep up with the exhaustive demands upon her reserves.

Death of General Colin Mackenzie.

The death of General Colin Mackenzie, at the age of 75, withdraws from the scene a veteran who in his early career played a romantic part in more than one of the most stirring events of Indian history. He was stationed at Cabul in 1841, when our puppet Shah Sooish was the nominal ruler of Afghanistan: and he was in actual attendance upon Sir William Macnaughten, the British Envoy, at the moment when, by orders and in the presence to the friendly interference of an Afspared he was for some time apprehen- shoulders. sive that he might be sold as a slave to the Turcomans. Maggie Mann's Fan.

BY REV. C. M. LIVINGSTON. "Now dear, go and lay them carefully away," said Mrs. Mann to Maggie as she came in from a walk and was putting off her things, some here and others there, just where it was most convenient; "put each article in by the plaintiff's wife and daughter, as blind. Your grandpa used to say to picture of the virtues of the deceased, us, "Children, remember, have a place and of the love of the children for their four everything and everything in its four-footed friend, when I was interruptplace; that rule will save you ever so ed by a slight disturbance in the crowd much trouble."

the moment one lays off a glove or round, I saw my client's youngest son, pin or the smallest little article to a tow-headed urchin of twelve, coming 8 8 have to travel perhaps all the way up forward with a dog whose skin was the stairs, and through the long hall and exact counterpart of the one put in evito the other end of one's room and dence. The dog wagged his tail with pull out the under drawer and open a good-natured composure, and the boy bothersome box and put the thing in cried, in his childish treble, "Paw Bose its own corner. Too much red tape has come home." I gathered up my lawand too many steps about such a rule books and retreated, and I never had to suit me."

"But your rule usually requires ten times as many steps.'

"My rule! Well, I didn't know I had any rule. I just drop things down where I happen to be, and put hem away at leisure."
