Political Matters in St. John.

Local politics in St. John are in a rather disturbed state at the present time. It was thought that the Government had made up its mind to a change in the office of Police Magistrate of the city of St. John, and the removal therefrom of Mr. Peters, who has occupied the position for many years with honor to himself and credit to that city, and the appointment of one of their number to that important position. The only reason given for the dismissal of the gentleman who has filled the position with so much ability is that Mr. Ritchie, Solicitor General, wants his place and the Government it is said will accede to his wishes in the matter. There has been some talk of the resignation of members of St. John if this appointment is made, and there seems to be no doubt that this would accord with the public feeling against the Government. So far no official announcement has been made although the Government have had a matter under consideration and the general opinion is that the appointment will await the receipt of the Governor's sanction when the announcement will be made.

This appointment would cause a vacancy in the Government and Hon. Wm. Ferguson, of the House, has spoken of as his successor. A day or two will no doubt see the matter settled, and much interest is expressed in the result.

Yesterday's St. John papers state that the resignation of Mr. Ritchie as a member of the Government had been accepted and his appointment as chief magistrate of the city of St. John formally made. Mr. Ritchie has been appointed Solicitor General.

Ex-Inspector Vye.

Mr. Thos. Vye, according to the story in the last Advocate is a very ill used and much abused individual, and despite the fact that he got paid about ten months wages for two months work, yet he wishes to arouse the sympathy of the public, and in the language of Mr. D. G. Smith, over his (Vye's) signature, makes out a terribly pitiful story. What does he want, and what is he looking after. It has been whispered in our ears that the public don't believe in Mr. Smith's professed temperance, they knowing him so well, that he has induced the ex-inspector to come forward to help discredit the statements of the temperance party, and that if he will only back up his (Smith's) lies with the signatures of the temperance party, that he will be able to get them the post of Inspector of Licenses after the repeal of the Scotch Act.

Mr. Vye, however, with the temperance friends because he says they did not help him in his endeavor to enforce the law, and that the temperance friends are proved so. Yet there is no doubt that Mr. Vye thought the temperance friends not of much force, and why because they were so easily defeated to carry on the work for which he was to get paid. The manner suggested by him at a meeting of temperance friends, and to which he was invited. He had the impudence to say that some of those present go and purchase liquor and then lodge the information and he would make the complaint. His friends say—

"The Advocate says the temperance people were willing to help me and did so. I challenge Mr. Wm. Anslow, P. G. W. E. and editor of that paper, to publish the name of the 'temperance man' in the County who gave me one complaint. The only activity shown by Mr. Anslow was a prompt attempt to collect $20 for a notice that I placed in the Advocate, as I did in the Advocate, and for which the latter charged me nothing."

Whether the temperance people gave him a complaint the writer can not say but this we do know that we never met Mr. Vye on the street, and he did not want to know what he should do in this case and what he had better do in that and was replied to with pleasure and given all the information possible. In one case, that of the larger beer case, the letter was written by a temperance man to a friend in St. John, to whom the bottle of lager was sent with instructions to hand it over to Mr. Best for analysis, and it was from the representations of one of the present temperance committee, that the larger beer was bought for such analysis and a complaint made. The concluding sentence is hardly worthy of notice. We inserted an advertisement for Mr. Vye for which he was paid, and about a year after was paid, and he says for which the Advocate charged me nothing. Perhaps not. He also states that at the trial of cases not one of the temperance friends "dared show himself in court to give me his moral support." Most of the temperance men of New Brunswick were interested in the prosecution of the brewers were men who had to work for their living and are not gentlemen of ease like the inspector, who if he were not attending to that business for which he was paid would have had little else to do, in spite of his assertions about the wonderful amount of business he gave after to accept a $500 a year salary.

He says that "as soon as the injunction was served on me, however, Mr. Wm. Anslow was one of the first who asked me to keep on with my work, and the temperance folk would see me paid at the same rate that I was getting from the Council. He said that they had now $15 on hand, etc." This is not true.

Mr. Anslow would have no such authority to engage him and could not have asked him to keep on with his work, and could not have stated that there was no temperance committee formed and no money had been asked for, or collected for temperance purposes. The reference made to the W. C. T. U. is such which none but blackguards or scoundrels would either write or print, and is just what might be expected from persons bearing such characters as these two worthies. The ex-inspector says "I have been asked why I resigned." We can give a better reason for his resignation than any he gives. The vote of council which recommended he be paid nearly $800 stated that he was paid when he tendered his resignation and that is why he resigned. Mr. Vye's strictures on the editor of this paper at the present time are easily accounted for, it is his first opportunity to show his venom at the article written in reference to the dishonest transaction of exacting ten months pay for two months labor, and which a council otherwise composed would not have agreed to, and now the editor of the Advocate is helping him pay off scores. All right, gentlemen, but stick to the truth and then the editor of the Advocate cares not what you write and publish.

S. A. Dedication, Etc.

Thursday last was the day appointed for the Salvation Army Banquet, Dedication and Jubilee. The Banquet commenced at 6 o'clock in the evening and the good things provided were partaken of by many. It was a most interesting and physically he had always been strong. Even last summer we could see him every day working in his fields like a young man. His memory was excellent, his intelligence perspicacious, and by hearing his conversation, one would never believe that he was nearly ninety years of age. Nothing could be more edifying than to hear him the day before his death. He was a most devoted and pious man, and the prayers of the church which the Priest was reciting at his death-bed. He had a short illness, four days of an acute pneumonia carried him to his grave. He was buried in Grand Avenue Cemetery at the 3 o'clock service. A large number accompanied his remains to their resting place in testimony of the great esteem and veneration which they always had for him. Cornelius Coughlan was born in the County of Cork, Ireland, the 27th day of July, 1789. After having passed several years in the Parish schools, he entered Carlisle College, which course of instruction he followed for years. He became very familiar with Latin and Greek languages, and could use them freely in conversation. He was a Roman Catholic and a true Irishman.

At 39 years of age he passed to America and settled in Gloucester County, N. B., where a few years after he married Mary Cronin, and settled down to his life. They had nine children, many members of which are still living. He taught school in different parts of the County for thirty years. He lived a humble life and he died as calmly as he lived.—Restigouche in page.

Obituary.

On the 25th ultimo, at eleven o'clock at night, at his residence at Pockshaw, N. B., Cornelius Coughlan, the oldest inhabitant of the Parish of New Bedford was passing from this world to his long home. A few months ago and he would have attained the patriarchal age of one hundred years. Men of that age are very scarce, but what is scarcer yet, it is intellectual faculties which the duration of a century could not impair. If we sometimes see men reaching such an advanced age, they are generally for a certain number of years, lingering in a painful existence, and in a state of second infancy, which scarcely allows them to distinguish good from evil. It has not been so with this venerable patriarch who has just bid farewell to this world, he kept all his faculties unimpaired to the last moment of his long life, and physically he had always been strong. Even last summer we could see him every day working in his fields like a young man. His memory was excellent, his intelligence perspicacious, and by hearing his conversation, one would never believe that he was nearly ninety years of age. Nothing could be more edifying than to hear him the day before his death. He was a most devoted and pious man, and the prayers of the church which the Priest was reciting at his death-bed. He had a short illness, four days of an acute pneumonia carried him to his grave. He was buried in Grand Avenue Cemetery at the 3 o'clock service. A large number accompanied his remains to their resting place in testimony of the great esteem and veneration which they always had for him. Cornelius Coughlan was born in the County of Cork, Ireland, the 27th day of July, 1789. After having passed several years in the Parish schools, he entered Carlisle College, which course of instruction he followed for years. He became very familiar with Latin and Greek languages, and could use them freely in conversation. He was a Roman Catholic and a true Irishman.

Restigouche Notes.

A few salmon have been caught at Dalhousie cove for several days past, which is early for the season. When they make their appearance there it is the signal for the other fishermen to put their nets out. Both sides of the bay and river Restigouche are now, for 20 miles, a scene of great activity. Preparations on a very large scale have been made during the past few months to catch the unwary fish. When traveling along the bay and river during the fishing season, and witness the almost innumerable nets, and the number of boats, and the number of men, it is a sight to behold. The weather has been in general very favorable for the farmer preparing the precious seed. During the current week great quantities of grain will be sown, and potatoes planted.

The lumbermen who operated during the past season only a few miles up the river have succeeded in getting out many cords of lumber. The price for many miles up the river, unless heavy rain comes, will have great difficulty in bringing their logs to the shore. There was comparatively little snow during the winter, and as yet we have not had our usual rain falls. Some have taken the precaution of constructing dams on the small rivers to aid them in floating their logs, which will all be required.

NEW MILLS.—Several cargoes of potatoes have been lately exported to the States, from New Mills, and adjoining village. The price has not been very remunerative to the farmer. Only 50 cents was the price per barrel, which when the price of the market is considered is all the exporters could warrantably give.

Chatham Items.

A VIOLENT OX.—James Vassstone came nearly being killed to death by a vicious ox. Had it not been for his steadiness of foot he would have been killed. He was thrown up into the air on the animal's horns, and when he landed the animal went for him viciously. The ox was captured and was thrown over his horns, after which he would not move. A pair of horses was hooked to the rope without effect. He threw himself down on the road, and would not move, when it was decided to haul the brute on a sledge to the slaughter house, Kendal place, which was done.

IMPROVEMENT.—Mr. M. S. Benson, who recently purchased the Carter house has raised it, raised the roof, put in a bay window and planned a piazza. It will be a very pretty house when the improvements are completed. Mr. Mowat is in hand.

PROVINCIAL SALT.—The Killam house on Kelly row, Church street, have all been sold recently but one. The purchasers are J. Y. Meserice, Charles Johnson, Robert Murray and Capt. Peterson.—World.

Kent County Notes.

The "Auntie McNamee," formerly owned by Geo. McNamee, has been purchased from Lantam Bros. of St. John and will be converted into a garage. Mr. John Thompson has a number of men employed making the necessary alterations.

Mr. Warren McDermott, son of James McDermott, "Bureka House," Wolford station, sells per steamer Damara for Cork, Ireland. We wish him bon voyage.

J. M. Upham Bliss has been appointed by Sir John C. Allen and A. R. Wetmore a commissioner for taking affidavits in the room of the late T. W. Bliss.

We notice that our enterprising young townsman, Mr. David Hudson, is extensively engaged in the gasporeux business. Success to him.

Richibucto May 11.—Times.

Railway Notes.

The work of strengthening the south-west Miramichi bridge has been completed. The north-west is now undergoing the same work. Mr. Edwin Lockhart, of Moncton, is in charge of the work.

The turntable at Newcastle is being made two feet longer and strengthened. This necessitates the running of the engines and men through to Moncton. It is expected to be ready for turning in a few days.

Working trains have begun work on the Trunkmaster Railway and Patterson's divisions. The one on McNeill's division will go on immediately.

It is reported that the I. C. R. will be thoroughly ballasted over the entire line this season.

The special that brought K. F. Burns from Campbellton to Bathurst a week ago yesterday made the run (62 miles) in 1 hour and 23 minutes.

A new overhead bridge is being built half a mile west of Bathurst. It will be of iron.

The engines running on regular between Moncton and Newcastle have been cut down to three-quarters of the trip for the trip. This is generally connected by the railroad men, and have affected all old hands, and have received a day for the run (78 miles).

Driver Charles Atkinson is now running on the Indian trail branch.—Times.

The Intercolonial authorities are considering the question of running faster trains between Halifax and St. John, so as to compete more successfully with the steamboat service from Nova Scotia to Boston. It is reported that a flying express will be put on this summer covering the distance to St. John in eight hours and to make close connection at St. John with a special to Victoria at 3:30 in the afternoon, thus giving Chatham people a chance to go there, transact business and return home the same night. An accommodation train daily each way will be continued as at present.—Sun.

Presentation to Mr. Brander.

Presentation Address.

DEAR SIR:—The teachers in St. James' Church Sabbath-School embrace the occasion of your marriage to give expression to the very high esteem in which they have always held you. We have long known you and the more we know you, the more we respect you. You have for many years taken a deep interest in the work of the Sabbath-School. You have ever been in the forefront in advocating improved plans for Christian usefulness, and your hand has never been backward in helping to carry those plans into a successful issue. You have spared no pains in instilling into the minds and hearts of the young that "Word of Life" which can alone make wise unto salvation.

And now on the auspicious and happy occasion of your marriage, we beg you to accept the accompanying "Lamp" as a slight token of our high appreciation of your valuable services in the Sabbath-School. We tender you our hearty congratulations, and Mrs. Brander our warmest wishes for a life of unbroken happiness. Our prayer is that you may both be long spared in the enjoyment of a prosperous, useful, honored and happy life.

In name and on behalf of the Teachers of St. James' Church Sabbath-School, MAUD DAVIDSON.

morning. Of course all this was changed when he grew old. I saw him at Alexandria a year before he died. His hair was very gray and his form was slightly bent. His chest was very thin. He had false teeth which did not fit and pushed his under lip outward.

Thus does the merciless critic chronicle his impressions of the grandest figure in American history. And while there are found a few to carp and criticize in him what they probably cannot understand, there are millions on millions who bow with unpeakable love and veneration before the image of that grand old man, as he thus appeared at nificant of a growing public sentiment in favor of the restraint of the traffic. It certainly was not made a party question.

Rev. Mr. Evans, of the Church of England, of Buckingham, Que., was drowned Thursday, at High Falls. He was out for a sail in a bark canoe, and getting into the strong current lost control and was swept over the falls, which are 100 feet in height. Deceased was a native of England and had been in Canada only nine months.

At Kask, William Collier, near Middleport, Pa., Thursday evening, a cage containing 19 miners ascending the shaft had reached a height of about 16 ft. from the bottom when an empty car was pushed over the top of the shaft by two Hungarian laborers. The car struck the ascending cage with awful momentum, shattering it to splinters, and instantly killed every occupant. The shaft is 500 feet deep.

There is a grim humor about some of Judge Lynch's executions. A bank president in south-west Texas made away with all the funds under his charge and then posted on the door of his institution "Bank Suspended." That night he was interviewed by a number of depositors, who left him hanging to a tree with this notice pinned to his breast: "Bank President Suspended." Suspensions will not occur very frequently in that locality.

The most remarkable strike on record is reported from Sorel, Quebec. The municipal council having decided to impose a tax of $500 on liquor sellers in addition to the provincial license fee of $150, the liquor sellers met and decided to strike against the proposed imposition. Accordingly eleven bar rooms were closed up on the 30th of last month and have not been opened since. Only one out of thirteen declined to join the strike.

SHARK CAPTURED.—A monstrous shark was captured Saturday afternoon at the Old Fort, Carleton, by Mr. John Christopher. The fish got up the Butter-milk channel and owing to the swift current and high wind was unable to get out, and was drowned against Mr. Christopher's weir. The main-enter measured twelve feet in length and over two feet in diameter. It was of a dark brown color. It had a large mouth and several rows of teeth, all as sharp as needles. During the past few years several of these monstrous have been captured in the harbor. —Globe.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Wm. Frederick Harrison Carr, son of Hon. J. S. Carr, of Prince Edward Island, was arrested last night by the police while acting in a disorderly manner. He was evidently out of his mind. He had with him a ten year old stepson, Herman. The boy, told the police his stepfather had been rowing him about the bay in a boat all day yesterday and that he varied his occupation by praying in an earnest manner and crying out about Carr. Carr in court today was committed for examination as to his sanity and the boy was placed in the care of the Children's Society.

PITTSBURGH, May 11.—The heaviest rain storm since the memorable cloud burst of 1874, when nearly 200 people lost their lives in the butcher and saw mill run districts, passed over this city about 11 o'clock last night. The rain fell in torrents and in a few minutes the streets were converted into small rivers. Cellars were flooded in all parts of the city and the 5th avenue cable cars were stopped by the water getting into the Washington street power house. Land slides are reported on nearly all the roads leading into the city. The low lands along the Ohio river were flooded and numerous farms were washed out. The storm was accompanied by a remarkable electrical display. Several houses were lit up by lightning on Mount Washington. Fred. Hipple's glass bottle factory and a stable in which there were sixteen cows and two horses were destroyed. The storm lasted three hours and the rain fall was three inches. Despatches from the surrounding towns in western Pennsylvania eastern Ohio and Virginia report great damage from the storm.

BURIAL OF NAMELESS DEAD.

A MAMMOTH GRAVE MADE FOR 13 VICTIMS OF THE HAMILTON, ONT., RAILWAY DISASTER.

HAMILTON, Ont., May 7.—The funeral of the 11 unidentified bodies of victims of the recent railway disaster, near this city took place this afternoon. Flags floated at half mast all over the city and many places of business, all public schools and civic offices were closed. The adult victims encased in the best black caskets and two children were placed in white ones. Many beautiful floral tributes were contributed. Hearers were used and pall-bearers, of whom there were two sets, were composed of the heads of the Grand Trunk departments and members of the city council. Hundreds of people witnessed the funeral and thousands followed it. One large grave was made respectful of 11 caskets, but they were so arranged that six inches of earth was placed between each casket.

Mrs. W. H. Brookings, of Ancaster, viewed the remains of the victims this morning in search of her sister, Mrs. Mary Smith, of San Francisco, and her two children aged 14 and 6 years who are now believed to have been on the wrecked train.

THE OCEAN RECORD BROKEN.

RATE OF SPEED UNPRECEDENTED IN THE HISTORY OF DEEP SEA TRAVEL.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The Inman line steamer City of Paris, which arrived this morning from Liverpool, made the quickest passage on record, her mean time from Queenstown to Sandy Hook lightship being 5 days 23 hours and 7 minutes. Had not the vessel been delayed by fog on the last day, she would have reached her destination three hours earlier. The quickest trip heretofore upon record was that of the Etruria, of the Cunard line—six days one hour and 55 minutes. The difference in favor of the City of Paris is two hours and forty-eight minutes.

THE FISH MARKET GLUTTED

The Columbia reports the catch of fish on Saturday last as being far in excess of the demand, and the market was accordingly glutted. Every boat brought in from twenty to thirty salmon, many being very small, which the fishermen attribute to the work of the hatchery, as never before have small spring salmon been so plentiful in the Fraser. The catch of coichans was so large that a couple of hauls satisfied the fishermen. The catch of sturgeon was enormous some six tons being brought to market. These fish were of all sizes and weights, from 25 to 700 pounds each. The supply being in excess of the demand, the fish were offered at very low prices. A 700 pound fish was put up for sale at $1.50—one fifth of a cent per pound—with no takers. Some very large shipments were made to Montreal and other eastern points.

PALACE STORE.

What is a Bargain

It is, first of all, something you want, need or can use. A useless thing is 'near at any price. To be an article must be cheap; that is, it must sell for a lower price than rules for similar goods. To be an article must be of sound quality. It's no bargain to get an increased quantity of poor goods at a low figure. Best eggs are dear at a cent a hundred. To be an article must be all right in weight and quantity. Many bargains are made by stinting the quantity; taking out fifteen cents in quantity and selling ten cents cheaper.

A Bargain
