The partners were able, attive mej. wholly uninvolved is corn transactions, and their failure is attributed to the insufficiency of the late remittances from India, in the trade of which country they had recently embarked. Their liabilities are variously stated but we should think they must be very coneiderable, and must involve other houses, especially at St. Petersburgh. John Shewell and Son (be ter known under the old firm of Shewell and Hickens), who were almost members of the Stock Exchange, stopped payment. The depreciation of mining shares has been the direct cause of this failure, the effect of which will be to cut off the resources of a larger class of operators. The present month spened with the stoppage of Messrs. Lyall, Brothers, and Co., East India merchants, of London, their acceptances amounting to £400,000. It is anticipated that the ultimate loss will not be serious to their creditors. Messrs. Samuel. Phillips, and Co., East India merchants, have also to be added to the list, their engagements being estimated at £150,000 which is expected to fall upon India houses. Vesterday, in London, the old and tespectable house of Rougemont Brothers, so long connected with the continental and Switzerland trade, were compelled, merely from prudential motives, to stop payment. They were the last house in London inclined to any sort of speculation, and their failure is one of the greatest proofs yet exhibited of the pressure of the distress. Their estate must be satisfactory.

"Sir, - The Lord has permitted to be wrought a wonderful cure of Camers or Abscesses, of twelve years' standing, in my wife's breast. In the later part of the time, eleven wounds were open at one. The Faculty declared the case as past-cure, several pieces of bone, had come away, and I expected that my poor wife would stoom have been taker from me. It washen that a friend recommended the use of your Pills and Ointment, which, to out utter artonishment, in the space of about three months, healest up the breast as soundly as ever it was in her life.
