Boyle, of the Canadian army, in charge of Rumanian relief, who has been working in Rumania and Russia since the spring of 1917, has just arrived in London from Eucharest. To him has been intrusted the task of dealing with inter-alied commissions and governments on questions of revictualing Rumania. He declares the most urgent matter is the supply of food, as the population is starving, or otherwise in very great distress. Col. Boyle conferred with Mr. Hoover in Paris, and the latter at once agreed to diver three cargoes of flour now on the Mediterranean to Rumania. ## FUNERAL OF ROOSEVELT TO BE CHARACTERIZED BY SIMPLICITY

Remains of Great American Will Be Laid to Rest Among the Fir Trees On Knoll Overlooking Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay, Jan. 7.—With the flags of Oyster Bay drooped at half-mast and death yesterday of Col. Theodore Roose velt, arrangements for the unostenta veil, arrangements for the unoscentatious funeral services here tomorrow were being perfected by members of the family today. High in the air over Sagamore Hill, army airplanes from Hazelhurst field maintained a ceaseless vigil, occasionally swooping toward the earth to drop a wreath of laurel among the elms of the mansion. It was the wish of the former president, as expressed to Mrs. Roosevelt, the obsequies would be of almost Spartan simplicity. First there will be a prayer tomorrow at the house, attended by only relatives. At 12:45 o'clock the Protestant Episcopal service for the dead will be read in Christ Church by the rector, the Rev. George E. Talmage. There will be no music, no eulogy, no honorary pallbearers. Mrs. Roosevelt has requested that no flowers be sent. Beautiful Burial Spot.

Beautiful Burlal Spot.

Burial will be in Young's Memorial Cemetery. Col. Roosevelt will lie among the fir trees on the crest of a knoll overlooking Oyster Bay cove—a beautiful spot selected soon after he left the White House.

The quaint church where the services will be held has seating accommodations for only 350 persons. Admission will be by ticket. The church recently celebrated its 200th auniversary. A bronze tablet bearing the names of the vestryanen, includes that of "Theodore restrynnen, includes that of "Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United states." Two pages of foolscap, hung n cases on the walls, carry the names of young men of the church who enered the service for the war. The proper of Cal Property is sone head the names of Col. #### LIEBKNECHT'S FOLLOWERS PARADE THE PRINCIPAL STREETS OF BERLIN

Berlin, Monday, Jan. 6, 1 p.m.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Spartacus group is engaged today in a big demonstration against the Government. Tens of thousands of followers of Karl Liebknecht have been parading Unter den Inden and the Brandenberger strasse, and, as this dispatch is filed, are returnng along Unter den Linden. Up to this time no shots have been fired.

The Wilhelmstrasse from Unter den Linden to below the Leipzigstrasse is packed full of Government sympathizers who have been standing there for two nours. It appears to be the Government's strategy to prevent the Spartacans demonstrating before the Government office. Hundreds of youths and other civillans in the Spartacan ranks are carrying Four smart styles to choose from, this season's most popular models. These sample skirts are made up in the material we consider most suited for each style; one of silk, one of fancy plaid and a plainer model suitable for the middle-aged or elderly women, but however, you may choose your material and have it made in any of the four styles shown-black or colored dress goods or silk, all one price for the making. These skirts are made to your measure and fitted, and guaranteed satisfactory in every way, but you ask, How can it be done at that price-one dollar and eighty-nine cents for making, besides supplying the thread for stitching and all the findings and trimmings?

It Gives Employment

Here is the explanation: While we make these skirts at less than cost of manufacture, we hold our staff of operators and give them employment throughout the winter season; it also reduces our stock of dress goods and silks for stocktaking, which will be on in a few weeks.

Orders Will Be Limited

Owing to the revival of social functions, the dressmaking departments are busier this season than they have been since the war began—we will therefore have to put a limit on the number of orders taken-only sufficient will be booked to fill in over and above our regular orders. SUNDAY SCHOOL FORCES OF KING STREET CHURCH HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meetics of the Sunday school forces of King Street Presbyterian Church took place on Monday evening, when about fifty were in attendance, representing nine departments.

Supper and a social hour were enjoyed from 7 to 8 o'clock, after which the formal meeting for the transaction of business was constituted. While each department has its own superintendent, Reb. W. R. McIntosh, minister of the church as general superintendent, resided. The treasurer, Ald. John Colbert, announced that $800 had been raised by the school in the past year. Three Victory Bonds as war memorials to men of the church who have given their lives in the war have been purchased, one by the cradle roll and primary departments, one by the junior and intermediate departments, and one by the senior and young people's departments. Beautiful memorial cards, bearing the names of the soldiers who have died habe been printed.

Enthusiastic, Optimistic.

The reports were all characterized by ments, cradle, beginners, primary, junior, intermediate, senior, young people, home department, and teacher training. Ten organized classes also reported.

The uniform graded lessons are being adopted by the King Street School for the first time this year. Up to the present, the graded lessons have been used, but a new experiment is being tried in the "uniform" graded lessons tried in the "uniform" graded lessons have been used.

"They lie in hospitals, convalescent homes, on transports, in hospital trains, in ambulances, on hospital ships, in surgical wards, in operating rooms. Some sit in wheeled chairs, some hobble along on crutches, some sit up in bed night and day because they would die were they to lie down.

"Some-poor fellows-grope their way about with unseeing eyes, forever barred from seeing the light of day, the faces of friends, the streets and scenes that must henceforth be but a memory.

"Some must have great gaping wounds treated daily and several times a day. Some must undergo the frightful torture of having a raw stump dressed frequently. Some lie quivering, with faces almost black, fighting for the breath of life-gassed and blasted beyond recovery. Some have had the lower jaw shot away, some bear bayonet wounds beyond description, some are living on by a thread, with three parts of one side of the trunk gone. Disfigurement, agony and gameness are on every hand.

"Some lie for days and nights and days and nights without a moment's sleep, every second of every minute in fearful pain, except for the transient relief of anaesthetics. Some are nerveless, vacant, gibbering beings that have to be led and aided at every turn, without mind enough even to feed themselves."

All of them suffered and are suffering this for you and me.

Who will help them? Who CAN help them but the RED CROSS?

Forty thousand of them still overseas.

You DO SEE-don't you-the great need? You WILL GIVE-won't you-to help these poor shattered men?

THE NOBLEST ROMAN.

THE MOST dynamic personality in America, if not in the world, has ascended the golden shaft. Soldier, explorer, statesman, author, rancher, hunter, naturalist and the active exponent of his own doctrine of the strenuous life, Theodore Roosevelt passed out from the land and those vocations and avocations he filled so manfully and so competently could make him. To all British people he looms as the great voice that of one hundred millions of people, in varying stages of eagerness or reluctance to espouse the good fight. Fear knew him not, and with Belgium shattered and betrayed, he took up once again the Big Stick and labored lustily upon the pro-Germans and pacifists until he surrounded! who believed in the couse of the Allies and were ready to fight for it.

Too big and too able to be regarded as the egoist, he let his whole abundantly rich personality flow upon the world. He stood not on the order of his going, but went, whether to the western ranch to save the frail body nature had given him, to lead the Rough Riders into the deadly hail at San Juan, to seize the reins of police power in a melting pot metropolis boiling up with the scum of crime, to become governor of New York in the scowling face of Tammany, to rout the exploiters of America's natural wealth and to ascend to the presidency, there to engage himself in the most thrilling battle against misused privilege the world has known, to plunge into the heart of Africa and to win the title of the Great Hunter | game. or to brave death in Amazonian swamps, all of these were mere incidents in his life, though they would mean a tremendous career to most men. #### LABOR IN CITY COUNCILS.

THE CITIES of Hamilton and Peterboro have elected eight and three labor men respectively to their public boards. Other cities have also returned workingmen's candidates to deliberate in the affairs of the community.

As the Toronto Star remarks, this is the best kind of sign. Let labor get into the active conduct of affairs along with the businessmen and professional men and many misunderstandings will dissolve like mist before the sun.

Most Canadian cities are populated with workingmen who either own their homes or are making an effort to own them. There can be no better preventive of or antidote for the bilious Bolsheviks than for every citizen to have a stake in the community. DECADENT DEADBEATS.
[Harriston Review.]

"It's in the blood. Some families are born deadbeats. A newspaper man knows this perhaps better than anybody. Parents, daughters, sons, uncles and aunts, wherever located, deadbeat the newspaper as long as they can and then repudiate the debt or alter their address. Other families are honest to a cent. No matter where located the check or postoffice order comes right along for subscription to their paper, year after year. The families who sponge their papers cheat their grocer, owe their shoemaker, don't pay for the meat they eat and steal their fuel. Poor neighbors and bum citizens—anyway you take them.

TITLES.

[Quebec Telegraph.]

The extreme moderation with which the King's New Year's honors have this year been bestowed upon Canadians, in the form of diverse titles, would indicate that the debate in the House of Commons last session on this subject sunk into the souls of the Government. The premier seems to have become convinced, at last, that titles have become extremely unpopular in Canada, and that the generous scattering of knighthoods and baroneteies, and peerages, indudged in formerly to pamper the vanity of political supporters, would arouse, under present conditions, a storm of indignation in Canada which might well prove overwhelming.

BUT IT IS NOT OVER YET.
[Montreal Herald.]

Although the influenza epidemic appeared to be pretty severe in Canada, as a matter of fact we got off rather lightly as compared with some other countries. For instance, in South Africa the ravages of the epidemic were much more severe. At a meeting of the managers and representatives of the life insurance companies held in Cape Town recently, the estimate was made that in the Union of South Africa, which has a total white population of, say, 1.500,000, the deah claims from Influenza would be little if any short of £1,000,000, or, say, $5,000,000. To be in the same proportion, life assurance claims in Canada would have to amount to about $25,000,000. It is estimated that the Canadian claims will actually amount to about $7,000,000.

AN AMERICAN TRIBUTE.

[Atlanta (Ga.) Journal.]

The war holds no record of patriotism more heart-stirring than Canada's. The Dominion has over-subscribed by one hundred and seventy-six million dollars its latest Victory Loan of half abilion. This compares most favorably when we reflect that Canada's population is about one-fiftieth as great as this country's. Her per capita loan subscription was eighty-four dollars and a half, as compared with sixty-five dollars and eighty cents for the United States, and she has been subscribing from the war's outset, and she trundled the wheelbarrow outscribing from the war's outset, and she trundled the wheelbarrow outscribing from the war's outset, and she trundled the wheelbarrow outscribing from the war's outset, and she trundled the wheelbarrow outscribing from the war's outset, and she trundled the wheelbarrow outscribing from the war's outset, and she trundled the wheelbarrow outscribing from the war's outset, and she trundled the wheelbarrow outscribing from the war's outset, and she trundled the wheelbarrow outset. we reflect that Canada's popu United States, and she has been subscribing from the war's outset, and she accepted her responsibilities in the fight for freedom with that sturdy enthusiasm and loyalty to the best in British traditions that have always characterized her. By the early autumn of 1916 she had approximately three hundred and thirty-five thousand men under arms as volunteers, of whom more than two hundred and ten thousand already nad been sent to Europe. What heroes they were—they and their comrades who followed—the war's grimmest battles and most glorious victories bear witness. It is a thousand fold happy privilege to have as neighbor and friend a country of Canada's honor and Canada's heart.

INDOORS AND OUT HEEP PEPS HANDY

The best protection for the throat, chest and lungs is contained in a handy box of Peps.

As Peps tablets are dissolved in the mouth, powerful medicinal fumes are carried with the breath straight through the air passages into the lungs, where liquid medicine cannot reach.

The throat and lungs are always more sensitive in cold weather. Peps will strengthen them. Therefore, keep Peps always handy wherever you are, and occasionally dissolve a tablet in the mouth. You never know what infection of coids, "la grippe" and even lung trouble may be carried about by people with whom you come in contact.

Because of their direct action, Peps give immediate relief to the chronic bronchitis sufferer, and provide young and old with a safe defence against Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Laryngitis and Pneumonia.

The Army authorities warn soldiers not to neglect coughs and colds. Make the warning effective by sending your soldier friends supplies of Peps. All dealers, 50c. box.

GALT. Jan. 6.—The Galt Old Boys' plon, here, along with Messrs. Seaboneplel, which opened here this morning, is easily the classiest curling event held in Eastern Canada in many years, and a glance at the fine array of skips and their associates proves the assertion. The gathering of the clans, comprising 42 rinks, started shortly after the arraying time and the stores. prising 42 rinks, started shortly after the appointed time, and the stones were soon seen plying over the perfect nine sheets of ice at the Galt Curling Club and Granite Club rinks.

In the first morning games the 18 rinks in competition played numerous remarkably close rames. Skip George Tate's Paris rink won by one shot from W. K. Cameron's St. Thomas Granites.

Tate scored a three-end before the last to tie the score, and then won out. Alex. Goldie's Galtonians won by one shot from "Mooney" Gibson's London Thisties, after the visitors had secured two to tie the tally on the second last end.

The Natural Gas Situation

WEATHER. Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay — Southerly winds. Snowflurries, but partly fair and milder.

You have the right to know the exact situation regarding the natural gas supply. It is of as great a concern to you

The truth therefore is, that the supply is very far from being as good as it used to be. There may be days this winter when the supply will be inadequate. This will depend largely upon the severity of the weather. We shall try to tell you in advance what you may expect, not let you find it out by experience. If a cold wave is coming, and it is believed that there may be a gas shortage, we shall warn you. The Southern Ontario Gas Company. Limited, which pipes gas to the distributing company that supplies you, wants to have no secrets from you. Consequently by telling you the situation from day to day, it believes that it will best serve its own interests-and you.

Although natural gas is cheap, do not waste it, the supply is not everlasting.

To the first, she replied, "The main difficulty which you will meet, is the idea that the signing of the armistice has ended all war needs. This is emphatically not the case with the Red Cross, for the reason that our duty is to those who have suffered and are suffering by the war. No armistice or peace has ever been signed which has cured a wounded man. The men in the hospital the day before the armistice was signed were no better the day after than if no armistice had been signed.

The Local Market properties working are going over the top tomorrow at the zero hour, $:30 o'clock. The big guns have done their preparation work, as announced by Mr. Smart, and registered to some effect.

Remember, this campaign is for the sake of fellows who went over the top and didn't hait until they were sorely stricken. Some have been lying for nearly three years in old ovoid ade, longing to get home, feeling if they could only get back, their recovery would be rapid. It was impossible to bring them until the submarine menace ceased. Now, it is hoped to get the wounded home before demonitization starts in France. This campaign is for the men who have lost limbs and eyesight, who are to be brought back with open wounds that the dear the back with open wounds that the back with open wounds that the heast to care for.

"We need to get together and concentrate our energies on the job of winning and exceeding our objective to demonstrate to the men who have an an object lesson to the rest of ontaine to the last to care for.

Attacked Single-Handed.

Sergt. William Merrifield of Ottawa, 4th Battalion, Central Ontario Regiment, most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty during the attack near Abancourt on October 1, 1918, when his men were held up by intense fire from two machine gun emplacements. He attacked them both single-handed. Dashing out of a shell hole, he killed the occupants of the first post, and, although weunded, continued the attack on the second post, and with a bomb killed the occupants. He refused to be evacuated, and led his platoon until again severely wounded. Merrifield served with exceptional distinction on many former occasions, and throughout the action of October 1 showed the highest qualities of valor and leadership.

AT LARGE; WOMAN PLEADS NOT GUILTY

The young woman, deserted by her alleged "gentieman" friend, who made for the "tell timbers" Sunday night when the car belonging to Dr. Angus Graham that they had stolen, broke down on the Asylum side road, refused to do anything but weep in police court when arraigned yesterday afternoon. In between "weeps" she pleaded not guilty to the charge of having stolen the car, a Ford couplet. Crown Attorney J. P. McKillop asked that the woman, who is married and has a child, be remanded for a week, as it was anticipated that the driver of the "Henry" would be arrested in the very near future. The girl's mother asked that she bailed, but this Mr. McKillop refused to sanction. "Think of her poor child," said the mother.

"Why didn't she think of the child Sunday night and the three nights previous to that?" asked the crown attorney.

"Your daughter will be brought up again when we get the man that drove the car." Accordingly she was remanded to jail by Deputy Police Magistrate P. H. Bartlett.

COMPLAINTS TONING DOWN

Soldiers Claim Reporters Misrepresented Them in Some Cases.

OTTAWA, Jan. 6 .- That the steamhip Northland was inspected and pronounced satisfactory by the ministry of the Canadian overseas forces, as well as the admiralty, before she left England on her last trip, was the feature of today's session of the inquiry being conducted by Mr. Justice Hod-being conducted by Mr. Justice Hodgins.

When General Ashton, adjutantgeneral of the Canadian forces in Canada, was on the stand on the first day of the inquiry, he agreed to cable
the overseas ministry to see if such an inspection had been made. This afternoon he placed the reply from Sir
Edward Kemp in the hands of Justice
Hodgins, and it was to the effect that such inspections had been duly made

But Complaints Persist. One after another returned soldier One after another returned soldiers proceeded to the stand today and swore that the food was short in quantity, but there was little or no complaint as to quality, although one witness did tell of a companion picking a maggot out of his plate of soup. All agreed that the berthing accommodation for the men was very bad, one sergeant stating that he could not go into the men's quarters on his in go into the men's quarters on his in spection rounds without the stend turning his stomach.

Although the conditions were regarded as bad, apparently none of the sergeants or other non-commissioned sergeants or other non-commissioned officers thought to take complaints to the proper source, where a remedy might be found. The inquiry is likely to be prolonged for some days yet. Justice Hodgins is disposed to call all soldiers who wish to testify, while the officers of the ship and a number of newspaper reporters who obtained statements from the men are also to be called.

Food Quality All Right.

Pte. Lewis J. Kelley of Montreal, was berthed with the other Montreal men on the Northland. The food was short, but the quality all right. The men's quarters were poorly ventilated but he made no complaint. He bought food at the canteen practically every day. He had to buy it to to eat.

Pte. Charles Botham, of Smith's Falls, crossed to England on the Northland in October, 1916. There were 2,000 men on the ship then Coming home on the Northland he found the food short and the ventilation poor. The men were served in a line or queue. Going to England on the Northland the food was better than on coming back, and there was no shortage. The ventilation was about the same on both occasions.

The Taste of Our Bread Is As Good As the Smell of Mother's Bread, Fresh From the Oven!

Can you sense in imagination the hunger-stimulating fragance of fresh-made bread, blown in on a breeze of memory from child-

You sniffed it all the way home from school on those frosty winter afternoons. And you got home SO HUNGRY! "Oh, mother, CAN I have a crust?" you sang out as you open Mother, with a smile, turned to the fragrant mound on the table, lifted the clean linen cloth, and there in all their glory, set on end to cool, were six big loaves straight from the oven, with crus a quarter of an inch thick, brown as an autumn leaf on top, shading down the sides to russet and gold. Crust that concealed a crumb, pure, light and tender, a crumb that melted in your mouth.

The makers of Zam-Buk believe you should buy your medicine as critically and carefully as you buy food and clothing. When you buy Zam-Buk you get a remedy that is 100% medicine—not a small proportion medicine and the balance animal fat! See the advantage? Again, animal fats won't keep for very long; yet how often do you need to use a whole box of ointment right away? Zam-Buk's absolute freedom from animal fat prevents its turning rancid. It will keep for months and yet retain all its medicinal powers. These are but two of the many reasons why Zam-Buk is the most widely used balm. It has been proved best for all sores, eczema, bad legs, ulcers, abscesses, scalp sores, boils, pimples, ringworm, bloodpoisoning, piles, burns, scalds, cuts, stiff neck and rheumatism. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.
