In Season.

None are more faithful workers than the ladies of our Aid Society.

Dr. Chivers, General Secretary of the B. Y. P. U. A., has written a letter to the Pastor, congratulating the young people on their work in the Culture Course. This year we have made a "record-breaker," and we can do better next time.

The Temperance Address of Bro J. F. L. Parsons, on Friday evening, June 17, was interesting and helpful. A life time of loyal service in the temperance cause gives authority to his utterances. A decided note has been struck by the B. Y. P. U. of the North Church for the coming Plebescite campaign.

Cards are now placed in every pew for items of interest you desire the Pastor to know, especially in reference to strangers and the sick. Fill in the cards and place in the offering. You know not what service you may render.

The Pastor has only to suggest a need and the people will supply it at once. We need a small, neat, "Pastor's Letter Box" for the church entrance. Who will supply this?

The Secretary of the Convention Fund has written, asking the North Church to make every effort to secure its allotment before July 31. We are going to be loyal to the work of our denomination. Act promptly.

Children's Corner. Dear parent, will you see that our child commits and repeats these questions and answers. On the Sabbath the Pastor loves to see "the dear little heads in the pews." He wishes the smallest to feel an interest in every service. From this time on they will have their corner in THE CALENDAR. The children will be all right, parent, if you do your part. Will you interest your children in this part of THE CALENDAR.

Question 1.—Who made you?

Answer.—God made me.

Question 2. For what did God make you?

Answer.—God made me to know Him, to serve Him as long as I live on earth,—and to dwell with Him in Heaven.
