James McNamara Guilty of Wrecking Times Building Brother Also Confesses

Tremendous Sensation Sprung in the Court-Room at Los Angeles by Admissions of the Two Men—Expectation is That James McNamara Will Be Sentenced to Life Imprisonment and John McNamara to a Lighter Term—State's Case Overwhelming

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—(Canadian Press)—James B. McNamara pleaded guilty this evening of murder in the first degree in connection with the death of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of The Los Angeles Times explosion and fire.

His brother, John J. McNamara, jointly indicted with him, pleaded guilty to dynamiting the Llewellyn Ironworks.

They will be sentenced next Tuesday, Dec. 5.

James B. McNamara probably will get life imprisonment. John J. McNamara, it was rumored, will get 14 years. Each pleaded guilty of the charge on which he was extradited from Indianapolis.

Within 15 minutes after court opened this afternoon one of the greatest criminal trials of modern times had ended so abruptly that many of those supposedly in the heart of the matter did not know it was going to happen.

The prisoners were taken back to jail, Judge Walter Bordwell retired to his chambers and opposing counsel went to their rooms.

"The McNamaras have pleaded guilty because they are guilty," was District Attorney John D. Fredericks' crisp comment.

No Other Way.

"If I had seen any way out of it, we would not have done it," said Attorney Clarence S. Darrow after court. "We have had it under consideration since a week ago Monday."

So far as has been learned less than a dozen men knew when court opened what was going to happen.

Judge Bordwell did not betray his information, but chatted with the reporters about the possibility of night sessions. Malcolm McLaren, representative of the detective agency which brought about the arrests, was denying a report that McNamara had refused to confess.

Fredericks brought his wife to court, and G. Ray Horton, W. Joseph Ford and S. L. Vermilya, his deputies, knew what was coming, as did counsel for the defence and for the prisoners, Samuel L. Brown, chief of the investigation for the state, and Larry M. Sullivan, an investigator for the defence. The jury was discharged at 3:10 p.m.

The eight sworn jurors and two talemans passed for cause were brought to the courtroom at 3:05 to be discharged.

"The case," said Judge Bordwell, addressing them, "which you will not try, has come to an end. The defendant has pleaded guilty, so your valuable services will not be required."

The judge smiled, and some members of the jury applauded.

"I want to tell you that I am absolutely confident that you men would have given this man a fair and impartial trial."

John J. McNamara entered court unhandcuffed and took a seat a few feet away from his brother. Attorney Jas. Scott sat with his arms around the prisoner. John J. was smiling and chewing gum.

Withdraw Not Guilty Plea.

Attorney Davis of the defence began: "After long consideration, your honor, we have concluded to withdraw the plea of guilty against James B. and would like to have John J. tried."

District Attorney Fredericks rose and the prisoner did likewise.

"You have been arraigned, Mr. Jas. B. McNamara," said Fredericks, "and have heretofore entered a plea of not guilty."

"Did you answer guilty?"

"Yes," answered James B. McNamara.

"Do you wish now to plead against this indictment charging you with murder?"

"Yes."

"Guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty."

"I'm Astounded" Says Gompers

Leader Believed Firmly in Innocence of McNamaras—Labor Cause Not Weakened.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(Can. Press)—"I am astounded! I am astounded! My credulity has been imposed upon. It is a bolt out of a clear sky."

The exclamations were those of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, when advised to-night of the pleas of guilty in the McNamara cases.

The veteran labor leader was visibly affected as he read of the tense scenes in the courtroom at Los Angeles. Tears came into his eyes and his hand shook. He said nothing, however, until he had finished the story and then he broke forth with these exclamations of astonishment and indignation.

Believed Men Innocent.

"If this is all true, my credulity has been imposed upon," he declared. "I am astounded at this news. We have had the gravest assurance given to us by everyone connected with the trial, either directly or indirectly, that these men were innocent."

Mr. Gompers asserted, with the greatest emphasis that not the slightest intimation of any change in the plans of the defence of the McNamara case, as developed, to-day, had been communicated to him.

"What effect do you imagine this will have on the labor unions?" was asked.

To this Mr. Gompers snapped his fingers and ejaculated: "None."

When the fund, which had been raised by the American Federation of Labor for the defence of the man charged with the Los Angeles crime was mentioned, Mr. Gompers said that to state the fund amounted to about $100,000, which had been turned over to the chief attorney for the defence.

STATE COMPETITION BIG STICK TO APPLY TO CORPORATIONS

South York Member Calls Attention to Exactions of Railways, Express Companies and Telegraph and Cable Monopolies, and Urges Action by Government—Canada Should Own Cable.

OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—(Special)—"It is the grievances of the people and the rectification of those grievances within the limitations of the powers of this parliament to which we should be directing our attention."

In these words W. F. Maclean (South York) expressed what has been the feeling of many who have listened to the weary thrashing out of dead campaign issues during the debate on the address.

The great grievances of east as well as west, he said, were the excessive express rates, freight and passenger rates to which the people of Canada were subjected, as well as the urgent need of lower cable and telegraph rates and the control of the capitalization of companies.

Club for Express Companies.

The remedy for excessive express charges was the establishment of a parcel post system by the postmaster-general following the lead set by the most progressive European countries.

State competition, he declared, was the only way to give relief where great private corporations exercised public functions.

Canada, he argued, should establish a state-owned cable to England. It was sound imperial policy and would bring the cable monopoly to its knees and cut rates in two. Control of land telegraph lines by the postoffice department would follow as a necessary completion of the system.

Quite a brisk discussion took place on the announcement of the intention of the government to transfer the annuities service to the postoffice department and disperse with lecturers.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster argued that it would mean a more widespread and efficient service at a minimum of cost.

The house passed the remaining estimates for 1911-12, and a supply bill was put thru, all three readings, and passed.

Announcement was made that the house would adjourn on Dec. 7 (Thursday), and meet again on Jan. 9, but Mr. Borden agreed to consider the request of several members to postpone the latter date to Jan. 10.

Dead Issues Now.

IS C. P. R. BLOCKING LINE INTO ORILLIA?

Townpeople Think That Canadian Pacific Are Purposely Holding Up C. N. R.

ORILLIA, Dec. 1.—(From a Staff Reporter).—People in Orillia are perplexed as to why the Canadian Northern are not giving them a service.

A spur line has been built from the Farry Sound line, branching off at Udney and running to Atherley Jet, where the C. N. O. have running rights over the C. P. R. tracks into Orillia.

Nationalizing Public Services

OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—(Special).—Joseph Armstrong of East Lambton has given notice of a resolution calling for the appointment of a commission "to investigate the systems of national telegraphs and telephones, wireless telegraphs and cables, also postal conditions, laws and regulations, parcel post, means of collecting and distributing mails, with a view to submitting such data and information to the post office department as would help to improve existing conditions in all the above, and to further enquire into postal facilities in rural districts in other countries in order that a better system of free rural mail delivery may be inaugurated."

SIR JAMES TRULY IN FIGHTING TRIM

Addressing Big Lindsay Gathering, Premier Let Loose Many Barbed Arrows of Sarcasm at Opponent's Expense—Public Man Who Hesitates Branded as Fool.

LINDSAY, Dec. 1.—(Special).—Sir James Whitney struck out right and left at his political opponents to-night with sarcasm and incidentally reviewed the government's record, and its attitude on the present political issues with telling force. Generous applause punctuated the premier's remarks.

Particularly effective was his reference to the undecided and indefinite stand taken by the opposition leader on the temperance and bilingual questions.

"I have come to the conclusion definitely," said Sir James, "that a public man who hesitates to give his opinion on public questions is a public fool. A man who attempts to hoodwink the people of Ontario to-day will not succeed, and he ought not to succeed. (Applause.)"

A Fine Rally.

Never in the history of Lindsay has there been a bigger and better political meeting than to-night. Townspeople and farmers from the surrounding country flocked into the Academy of Music till the big building was jammed to the doors. The latecomers had to climb up on the backs of seats to get a glimpse of the platform and the speakers, while hundreds of people were turned away from the doors. A special train was run to Lindsay from Orillia, a distance of 20 miles away.

Sir James was made the recipient of a beautiful bouquet, presented by Miss Miss Gertrude Pepper of Lindsay.

The chair was occupied by Wm. Shannon, president of the West Victoria Liberal-Conservative Association, Dr. A. E. Vrooman, the candidate from West Victoria for the legislature, was one of the speakers.

Sir James, in his opening remarks, referred to the loss the whole province has sustained in the death of the late member for West Victoria, S. J. Fox.

Sir James Sympathetic.

With regard to the attitude of his opponents the premier said: "I'll say something about the opposition and will say it sympathetically. (Laughter.) Referring to the support Mr. Rowell gave to the inquiries of the Ross government, in contrast to his present attitude as a great moral reformer, Sir James said:

"Why did he do it? The good outstanding citizen that he is. If he does not answer that, I guarantee I'll ask it of him anyhow. Even now I am prepared to answer it for him, but I say 'sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.'"

A Clean Slate.

As to Mr. Rowell's suggestion that the Dominion and provincial governments should not be of the same political party, he said: "The present government has had a wonderful record, and the government at Ottawa has not had time yet to have any record, so there's no harm done." (Laughter.)

"The leader of the opposition is a good citizen, there is no doubt of that, but he has a lot to learn. (Applause.)"

"If a doctor came to see a patient and pronounced the malady 'emphoric' and then remarked that in about three years he would be able to suggest a remedy, that doctor would not be called in a second time." (Laughter.)

Dr. Vrooman said he was proud to be a supporter of the present government. The reason Sir James Whitney had such a big majority was because his government was a good government.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

HAMILTON GAVE DUKE MOST LOYAL WELCOME

Scene in Armories Was Striking One—Banquet and Reception in Evening.

HAMILTON, Dec. 1.—(Special.)—The visit of their royal highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York was brought to a brilliant close this evening by the public reception at the court house.

About 1500 invitations had been issued for the function, and the large court room was completely filled by Hamilton citizens. Only about 500 people chose to be presented to the royal couple, however, and these made their bows and curtsies in 57 varieties in less than half an hour.

Her royal highness was evidently fatigued by the day's activities, but the duke bowed and smiled, while the presentations were being made as if he enjoyed the proceedings.

A splendid assembly. The military formed a large portion of the assemblage, and the reception was largely a dress affair. All classes were present, however, and it may be said those who were presented to the royal couple were representative people.

The civic banquet at the Royal Hotel early in the evening was attended by 200 guests, and was a brilliant success. The various functions in connection with the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall were carried off smoothly, and no trouble of any kind was experienced. The police under the direction of Chief Smith and Deputy Chief Whitley handled the crowd in a most satisfactory manner.

No Hitches. The military and the reception committee carried out the program, which had been arranged for the entertainment of the royal visitors, without a hitch, and deserve a great deal of credit for the thorough manner in which the details of the entertainment were looked after. The royal party left the city at 11:30 to-night on their return trip to Ottawa.

Stagnation may Save Paper. Allan Studholme, M.L.A., has instructed his solicitors, Lee and O'Donoghue of Toronto to proceed with action against The Spectator, for statements, which the paper has published about him, in connection with his candidacy for the provincial parliament.

The labor men of the city are behind Mr. Studholme in the course he has adopted and are prepared to furnish all the funds required to carry the action thru, if The Spectator does not make the retraction demanded by him.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, late minister of labor in the Dominion Government, will address the electors of Hamilton, Saturday night in Association Hall, in the interests of the Liberal party in Ontario.

Cheer of Welcome. The royal party, including their royal highnesses, Miss Kelly, Col. Lowther, the duke's private secretary, and Captain Butler, side by side, arrived in the city punctually at 11:57 o'clock this morning on their special train, over the C.P.R. As the train rolled into the station, the mass of humanity assembled there sent up a mighty cheer of welcome, and in a few moments the royal couple descended to the station platform, where Col. Logie, commander of this military district, was first presented to their royal highnesses by Col. Lowther, then in turn, the mayor and Mrs. Lees, Col. Hon. J. S. Hendrie, Col. Mewburn, and Capt. Donville, were introduced, after which the guard of honor from the Toronto which was drawn up on the platform was inspected by the duke, accompanied by Capt. Donville.

The members of the board of control, aldermen, and chairman of the board of education, were next presented to the royal couple, and immediately thereafter the duke and duchess entered the carriage and proceeded to the armories, where the civic welcome was to be extended. The route along which the party passed was gaily decorated and thousands of people lined the way, eager to express their fealty. The frequent cheers were acknowledged by the duke raising his hat, and by gracious smiles from the duchess. Upon arrival at the armories, the duke inspected the guard of honor from the 81st Highlanders, in front of the building. He then joined the duchess at the entrance to the armories and the royal couple proceeded to the elevated platform, which had been erected for the ceremonies to follow.

The interior of the armories presented a most brilliant appearance. The body of the hall was solidly occupied by the thousands who had secured seats in advance, and the galleries were packed to the top and the building on a tier of seats prepared specially for them, sat the thousand school children, who under the direction of Prof. James Johnson, gave a hearty voice to patriotic songs. The singing of the children was so much appreciated by their royal highnesses that the duke sent for Mr. Johnson and complimented him for his efforts. Each child in the gathering was provided with a flag, and in the middle of the group several hundred children were so arranged as to form a living representation of the imperial flag.

Mayor Lees presented the civic address to the Duke, in which his royal highnesses were welcomed personally as governor-general, as son of the late queen, as brother of the late king, and as the official representative of the present sovereign. The Duchess was welcomed individually, and presented with a handsome bound volume of views of the city. The Duke then thanked the mayor for the address.

Address by Mayor Lees. Following in order came the Bishop of Niagara, with an address from the standing committee of the Diocese of Niagara; Mrs. P. D. Crear with an address from the Daughters of the Empire, and a basket of crimson roses and lilies of the valley, tied with white and blue ribbons, and the colors of the order; John Gardner with an address from the Army and Navy Veterans; James Gadeby, representing the St. George's Society; Lieut.-Col. E. E. W. Moore, Irish Protestant Benevolent Society; Wm. Scott, St. Andrew's Benevolent Society; Mrs. John Calder, Women's Wentworth Historical Society; John A. Barr, Wentworth Historical Society.

At the conclusion, the Duke thanked the societies collectively. Flowers were presented to the Duchess by Mrs. Lees, Mrs. J. S. Hendrie, for the Women's Wentworth Historical Society; Mrs. Denholm Burns, for the Daughters of the Empire, and Little Miss Katherine Champ for St. George's Society.

Cordial Handshake. The Duke shook hands with each gentleman as the addresses were presented, while both their highnesses extended a friendly clasp to each of the ladies who presented addresses. After the royal couple took lunch at the Royal Hotel, and in the afternoon with the royal couple took an automobile trip around the city, they had afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hendrie, and in the evening were the guests of the city at a banquet at the Royal Hotel.

JAMES McNAMARA GUILTY OF WRECKING 6 TIMES B.C.C.

"Does the court now take up the other case against John J.?"

"Yes," replied the court. Admitted Causing Explosion.

The date for John J. McNamara's trial was placed at Dec. 5, and District Attorney Fredericks asked John J. to plead.

He did not plead with reference to the indictment against him in connection with The Los Angeles Times explosion, but pleaded guilty to the indictment charging him with the explosion of the Llewellyn Iron Works.

Attorney Darrow stood around the room after court adjourned and newspapermen crowded around him.

"I am glad it's over with," said Darrow with a sigh. "We have been working on this for two weeks, and it has been the greatest strain of my life."

Evidence Overwhelming. The Times building was blown up by James B. McNamara with nitroglycerine to be sure, but the bomb touched off the gas, and gas really did it," said Mr. Darrow.

"Did you have to wrestle hard with the McNamara brothers to get that admission?" he was asked.

"Somewhat, but the facts have been overwhelming. Every loophole was gathered in by the state. As far as I am concerned, I felt that sooner or later it had to come. Things were happening in which big people were interested. The movement was impelling. They wanted the matter cleared up and feared further bloodshed unless we obliterated the incident from Los Angeles at once.

"Of course, I feel I have helped the McNamaras by getting them to plead in so far as they probably will not be sentenced to death. Life imprisonment will be meted out to James B., and John J. will get off with a light sentence."

District Attorney Fredericks intimated that he would recommend life imprisonment for James, and that John J. would probably have to serve a short term. The matter was practically arranged early to-day by agreement between counsel.

"Do you think union labor will suffer?" asked a reporter.

"Oh, no, it's just an incident in the evolution of things. Because one does wrong does not mean that all others are wrong. As a matter of fact, Jim McNamara did not mean to kill anybody. They have told me the whole story, and it is substantially as it has been told in the press, except I reiterate that there was really no criminal intent. It was meant as a scare to the Times, and I doubt whether there was enough explosive to really do the damage that was done, but, of course, it helped. But the crime is the same."

"Why didn't you wait until Tuesday's elections?" Darrow was asked.

"Don't you know this will hurt Job Harrington's chances to be elected mayor?"

"I know, but we could not take any chances. Maybe the state would have backed out of its agreement. Lives were at stake and I think we saved them."

It was evidence brought about by the State of California, gathered by this plea, Darrow said, which asked what means he believed to have been most effective.

"That was evidence," he added, emphasizing the "was."

Feared for Brother. Attorney Joseph Scott of the defence tabled a long argumentative session with James B. McNamara, in which counsel urged him to plead guilty.

"I plead guilty all right," he finally agreed, "if you will leave Joe (J. J. McNamara) out of it."

"We can't do that," he was told. "It's both or neither. Maybe you will be hanged."

"Maybe I will," said James B., chewing gum.

"It won't look nice and it won't help," said an attorney sitting by the principal involved, "said the man seated at the counsel table, who was seen convincing him that the best thing to do was to plead guilty because they were guilty—because the evidence was gathered and shown them guilty beyond any doubt. But as a man I want to say that if I can recommend a less severe punishment than death or be merciful in any way and at the same time rid union labor of its desire to use violence to obtain its ends, I want to do that thing."

Darrow Was Shaken. Around Attorney Clarence S. Darrow gathered a crowd too. From him the questioners wanted to know how it all had happened and why. Darrow's face was pale. The long wrinkles in his cheeks looked even deeper than usual and he talked in a low, husky voice that indicated great fatigue.

"It was a hard struggle to bring this about, but it was the best thing that could be had," he said. "I did the best I could."

The Situation. A summary of the day's happenings included the following incidents: James B. McNamara pleaded guilty to having placed a dynamite bomb under The Los Angeles Times building in October, 1910, and caused the death of twenty-one persons.

Vindicated, Says Burns

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—(Canadian Press)—"I consider the outcome a great personal vindication for me," said Wm. J. Burns here to-day when told by The Associated Press of the sensational developments in the McNamara case at Los Angeles.

"Especially," he added, "after men occupying such exalted positions as Samuel Gompers and others have repeatedly charged me with 'planting the dynamite at Los Angeles. Following them every socialist paper in the country and every labor paper has often printed stories of 'frame-ups' in which some good people were beginning to think that the prosecution was not 'on the square.'"

The interior of the armories presented a most brilliant appearance. The body of the hall was solidly occupied by the thousands who had secured seats in advance, and the galleries were packed to the top and the building on a tier of seats prepared specially for them, sat the thousand school children, who under the direction of Prof. James Johnson, gave a hearty voice to patriotic songs.

Wonderful Exhibit of Northern Products

Vegetables of Immense Size and Grains of Astonishing Growth in T. & N. O. Car.

The New Ontario farms exhibit car is down at the Union Station. Cramped full of wonderful products of northern soil it kills without semblance of doubt the fallacy that the north country is too cold to grow grain and other farm products.

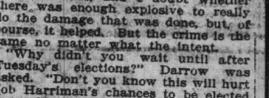

The exhibit, which is in charge of C. E. Palmer, clearly demonstrated the great possibilities of the new country. Wheat of excellent quality and as good as No. 1 northern ranging in production from 35 to 50 bushels to the acre, and testing far over the standard weight, and oats that average 40 to 45 bushels to the acre, and running as high as 60 lbs. to the bushel, are on show.

Mr. Palmer states that in regard to grapes and hay they have the finest hay land country in Canada. His show-timothy seed taken off the farm of a New Liskeard farmer which was second to none. Alfalfa, too, by his samples, can be raised in great quantities, and even two and three crops can be raised.

The car is making a tour of all South Ontario, and it has been such a success that the T. N. & O. Commission have decided to extend its trip all this winter.

SIXTH RACE—One mile: 1. Lewis and Gibbons rematched. Sporting Editor World: Some of the reports sent out last night of the Willie Lewis-Gibbons contest were grossly exaggerated. While I admit that Gibbons won, he did not do so as easily as was claimed.

In the first round and the first half of the second round Lewis was leading; then Gibbons dropped over that "big button." The button, and Willie stretched out for the count of nine, and it was truly a remarkable exhibition of gameness for Lewis to reach his feet and fight as furiously as he did for the balance of the round. From then until the finish Lewis fought in a blaze. His fighting instinct was all that kept him there, for he did not know whether he was boxing Gibbons or promoting the Bois de Boulogne in Paris. It was a great fight, and the men have the same conditions, at 165 pounds at three o'clock, only a thousand dollars difference now hinges on the result, and I am supremely confident that Lewis will turn the tables next month. Willie held his jaw out for Gibbons to contend, and tried to get him to mix with him, but Gibbons was satisfied to jab with the left hand. He did not have the fighting spirit of Lewis; he was merely the clever boxer, content to win on points.

I expect Lewis to show his stock-in-trade in your city in the immediate future, and I am satisfied that what the scientific boxers, the best general, in the ring, and a genuine fighter, if he meets the man who will stand up and fight with him. Dan McKittrick. New York, Nov. 23.

ROLLER RACES EXCELSIOR RINK

Two races are billed for the Excelsior Rink to-night, an open race for one mile, post entries for which will be accepted, and the postponed race of Thursday night, Nelson, Toronto champion, vs. Wigg of Oshawa, for two miles. Wigg is a very speedy skater, and Nelson will have to extend himself to win.

This race was started Thursday, but one of Wigg's skates broke clean in half, something that has never occurred before in the knowledge of the imported racing skates. The event will be a big drawing card. The Excelsior closes to-night.

Basketball. Two first-class exhibitions are billed on All Saints' floor, corner Wilton avenue and Sherbourne street, to-night. The first, at eight o'clock, brings together Ossington v. Beverley, and judging from the showing made in previous games, this should be anybody's game till the final whistle blows, as the teams are very evenly matched.

The nine o'clock contest brings together Parliament street (last year's champions) and Davenport (runners-up). Last time these teams met it took ten minutes of overtime to declare the winner, and as the latter team are considerably stronger now, they should turn the tables on the champions. Line-up: Davenport—L. Watson, S. Watson, J. W. Murray, centre; Pratt, Chadwick, defence. Parliament—Schmidt, Macklem, forward; P. Richards, centre; W. Richards, A. Mayo, H. Carlton, defence; Mr. Malcolm, referee. Everybody welcome.

Thistle team: Dunbar, Campbell, Newman, Jones, Wright, Marshall, Carter, Rutherford, Allan, Sinclair, McLaren, Cattermole, Nicol, Appleton, Referee, J. Dobbs.

Note and Comment

They talk of a commission to revise the Canadian Rugby rules with no apparent reason, except that someone is trying to get busy. Surely the present style is as nearly perfect as possible, especially from the spectators' viewpoint, and there were few accidents the season just closed. The crowd are delighted with the play, and the players enjoy the game without fear of injury.

If Cornell or Pennsylvania desire an international game with Toronto they must come down to the C.R.F.U. rules; otherwise we might also drop down to eleven and meet them in a game of soccer.

At Stanley's roan stallion with a record of 2:08 1/4, made this year, was so eagerly sought after by the crowd of turfmen at the Old Glory sale in New York on Thursday, that the bidding soared to $5000. He was bought at that figure by D. J. Tranter of New York City, who is acting in behalf of Austrian breeders and owners of harness horses in Vienna. The horse will be shipped to Austria in a few days. This roan stallion will be a big asset to harness racing in Austria. In addition to making his record this year, he hung up as a two-year-old a mark of 2:15 1/2, and as a three-year-old trotted a mile in 2:11 1/4. It will be seen by this that he has steadily improved his speed.

The calling off of the proposed race meeting in Havana, Cuba, is said to have been due to the fact that Curley Brown's prospective backers backed up at the last moment. Eddie Burke, the well-known bookmaker, is said to have subscribed $50,000 to purchase half the property in Havana, but he is reported to have had a clash with George Burbridge, who secured the other half. Brown declined to finance the meeting with his own money, so the scheme fell thru.

A minimum population of 200,000 entitles a baseball circuit to class C rating, and which the National League is going to the National Commission with an extra show of strength. They figure up to 261,192, getting over half the number from Toronto, the eight clubs being as follows:

Hamilton	81,879
London	48,177
Toronto	376,240
Ottawa	36,840
St. Thomas	74,050
Guelph	18,148
Brantford	23,048
Peterboro	28,213
Total	661,192

The American League will hold the annual meeting next week in New York, convening on Dec. 12. The National Commission meeting on Dec. 11 will be held at the National League's headquarters in the Metropolitan Life Building.

Sixteen innings proved the limit on overtime battles in the National League this year. The Philadelphia and Cincinnati played a sixteen-inning game on May 13. These contests lasted at least fifteen innings, and Cincinnati took part in two of them. There were thirty-three extra-inning games this season against fifty-four in 1910. In shutouts ninety-two were recorded, the Cubs being the highest brand in the league with one of them. Adams of Pittsburgh and Alexander of Philadelphia each pitched seven blanks against opposing teams. The National League's whitewash record is 163 games in 1908, the American League record being 145. Mathewson, Marquard, Ritchie, Moore and Buckley each received credit for five shutouts.

Prospects look very bright for Howard to play point and manage the Toronto club.

With Hess of Cornwall slated for the goal position, and now Howard at point, the Toronto are certainly strengthening their team in the right positions, and along with last year's material will be the team to beat for the championship.

Belated Lacrosse.
SALEM, N.H., Dec. 1.—Many sporting events were held to-day within the old Rockingham Park race track. There were four Marathon races, the principal one of which was ten miles in distance inside the grounds, begun by Wm. Brown of Worcester, in one hour 3 minutes 15 seconds.

Football teams from the battalions Rhode Island and Tennessee engaged in a one-sided contest, Rhode Island winning 6 to 0.

In a game of lacrosse between two Canadian teams, the Montreal Nationals defeated the Montreal A.A.A. team by a score of 4 to 1.

Lacrosse Players to Go South.
The Toronto lacrosse players figured out that to have a winner in the Big Four Lacrosse League the team would have to be in perfect condition from the start, and it would not be surprising if the team were taken south for a couple of weeks before the season opened.

Mississauga Golf Club Dinner.
There were fifty-three jolly good fellows at the dinner of the Mississauga Golf Club at McDonkey's last night. A good musical program added to the success and enjoyment of the evening. Harvey Lloyd and Jack Shack tickled the boys with their vocal efforts, while Charles Muestray knows how to preside at the piano.

Wm. Foran Thinks That the N.L.U. Will Win Out

Wm. Foran, the Ottawa lacrosse enthusiast, is a visitor to Toronto at present time, but his mission on this occasion was not altogether on the national game. He is in connection with the plans of the proposed new golf club house for the Capital City.

When seen last evening he was not adverse to conversing on the lacrosse situation, but he thought that he was only interested in the game as an admirer. He felt that the formation of the Big Four was a colossal mistake as it would result in a decided detriment to the game.

The N.L.U. in his opinion would weather this storm the same as it had many others and would be found doing business long after the new body were out of business. He thought that a four-club league composed of Montreal, Shamrock, Capitals and Cornwall would be able to make things go all right and he quoted as his reason that lacrosse was a success in the east long before Toronto teams were introduced into the game.

When asked whether he thought another Toronto team would be taken in he said that could not be until the annual meeting on the second Saturday in April. He thought probably there would be a meeting on the 16th inst. and that of the N.L.U. He did not think that the Big Four Clubs would be able to secure the players from the other club to stick by their old clubs.

In all he takes a most hopeful view of the situation from an N.L.U. point of view and from his conversation it would appear that he is the cause of the disturbance. He seems to forget the fact that he is a man or at least the majority of players, join the professional ranks they are going to play for the club that they can secure the most money. It was for money they left the amateur ranks and it is for the most money they can secure is the place they are going to play.

While nobody admits this spirit in sport, it is nevertheless a fact as any person who has had dealings with professional players of any kind know. The backing that the Montreal has, also that of the Shamrock, will no doubt allow them to compete for players, but the question is how are Ottawa and Cornwall going to hold their players when inducements are offered.

Mr. Foran stated most emphatically that he would not be in a position to play his Irish-Canadian team on the Shamrock grounds and that he (Kennedy) would be found on the National grounds.

Gold watches seem the most probable gift, and as $1000 has been set aside for souvenirs the boys will be well looked after.

While exact figures were not procurable it is figured that the ornament this season will show a balance on the good side of over $200. They are well deserving of the amount as no club could have stuck better when things were not breaking very well.

Bruce Stuart Ottawa Star For Tecumseh

The Tecumseh hockey team are out with the information that they have secured Bruce Stuart of Ottawa to play cover-point on the Indian team this winter. Lindsay, the goaltender, comes with the franchise, while Mag McIngrah, who was one of the lacrosse stars last year, and who last winter played in the Ontario Pro League, will play point and captain the team.

The Tecumseh are experiencing no difficulty in the securing of hockey players, and are figuring on having an excellent team.

Both the Toronto and Tecumseh pro hockey teams will practise at the Excelsior Rink this winter, and arrangements are now under way for the two teams to meet in an exhibition game on Christmas night, if ice permits.

The pro hockey season opens for the local clubs on 7th 7th, when Toronto will play at Ottawa and Tecumseh's journey to Montreal and meet the Canadians.

Stoke Doran, who figured on the Moncton team last year in the Maritime Pro League, is trying to catch a place with the Wanderers' team, this year.

Masser-Harris Hockey Club held their organization meeting, when the following officers were elected for the coming season: Hon. president, Thos. Pringle; hon. vice-president, Lee Smythe; president, F. W. Hunt; vice-president, Geo. White; secretary, Baumber M. Hannigan; treasurer, Edward Martin; press representative, Clifford Miller; manager, P. H. McLean; executive committee, J. T. Orr, B. Graham, J. N. Fawcett, W. J. McLean.

Among the many interesting features discussed was a scheme which was launched forming an inter-office league, as well as the regular team, a very popular trophy being donated for competition. In the inter-office league, Great Central marked the meeting, and everything points to a very successful season. "Little Vic" Bink, Charles Street, has been secured by the club for Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.

HITCH IN OTTAWA HOCKEY
May Cause Abandonment of Ottawa Section of Interprovincial.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 1.—A hitch that may result in the abandonment of all the plans formed to date has occurred in connection with the organization of the Ottawa Interprovincial Amateur Hockey Union.

There was meeting this afternoon for the purpose of combining Ottawa College, Renfrew, Stewarton, National and New Edinburgh as the Ottawa section, but at the eleventh hour the Ottawa University Club refused to play in the event of a meeting being adjourned. The action was taken with the college proposition, and New Edinburgh and Stewarton refused to proceed with the work of organization unless Renfrew was admitted. The outlook was unattractive, and after arguing for some time the officers were persuaded, to meet again on Monday next. ANOTHER FOR LONGBOAT
Defeats Meadows in Ten-Mile Race in Guelph.

GUELPH, Dec. 1.—Tom Longboat defeated Fred Meadows here to-night at ten miles in the fast time of 61.60, in the Victoria Skating Rink. The track was 12 laps to the mile, and the rink was filled with at least a thousand people. It was the Indian's first appearance in Guelph, and he was given a great reception as he came upon the track.

Mayor Thorp started the runners on their long journey, and Longboat took the lead right at the crack of the pistol. The Meadows ran a game race and was within 3 yards of the redskin at six miles. The Indian came strong in the last two miles and finished a lap and a half in the lead.

TORONTO UNIVERSITY LOSES DEBATE ON WAR

And Now McGill and Queens Will Argue at the Canadian Final.

In a brilliant inter-university debate held at Wycliffe college last night, McGill university won the decision over Toronto, putting the latter out of the running for the final championship to take place at some later date.

McGill, in upholding the negative, "It is a reversal of progress. Time was when it was considered good principle for man to die for his state. A man was honored for this principle 1900 years ago, but was this civilization, 2,000 working men in Berlin in public assembly recently declared that all the possessions of the Morocco were not worth the life of one German soldier. No nation degenerates in the piping times of peace."

The affirmative on the contrary contended that peace leads to luxury and debilitation, as pointed out that Rome degenerated on the spoils of conquest.

OLIVER CROMWELL

Oliver Cromwell, who ruled England with an iron hand and a brooch-leading shotgun for several years, is one of the most striking figures in English history. As a boy, Oliver's principal amusements were attending church and studying the catechism, which gave his ordinary conversation a very light and rippling quality.

From the hired man to an appetite for loud clothes. Altho very fond of fine apparel, he set a good example to his followers by appearing at their head in a coonskin cap and linen duster, and history relates that he was never seen in a boiled shirt but once, that being on the occasion of his funeral.

The Wrestlers in Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—In the fastest and most exciting bout seen in Ottawa this year, Jess Pedersen, the big Dane, defeated Paul Schmidt, the German, in a match in which both showed great speed and went at it hard and fast.

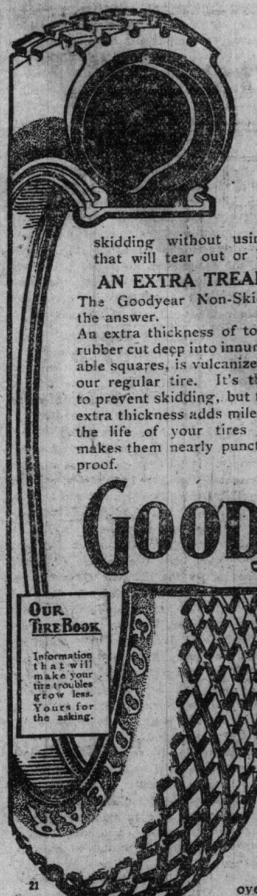

WHO PAYS THE DUTY?

You or our foreign competitor? You pay. About that there is no room for doubt. And it's more than likely you believe in the necessity of the tariff.

The foreigner laughs at duties imposed by our government as long as you are willing to cash up. Take beer, for instance.

Is it rational to pay that duty—when you can get a better beer at the normal price? "Salvador" beer is rich in flavor, sparkling and charged with invigorating properties.

This Tire Grips the Winter Roads

A Double Thick Non-Skid Tread

THE question before every motorist at this time of the year is, how to make his car safe in skidding without using damaging chains or metal treads which will tear out or heat and destroy the rubber.

AN EXTRA TREAD

The Goodyear Non-Skid is the answer. An extra thickness of tough rubber cut deep into innumerable squares, is vulcanized to our regular tire. It's there to prevent skidding, but that extra thickness adds miles to the life of your tires and makes them nearly puncture proof.

THE BLOCKS CLING

The blocks form countless clinging edges and angles which grip the road in every direction. Wide at the base, they spread under the load, and distribute the weight over the whole tire surface. The deep grooves "air cool" the tire. When the blocks finally wear down a regular smooth tread is left.

GOOD YEAR NON-SKID TREADS

On No-Rim-Cut Tires 10% Oversize

The combination of Goodyear Non-Skid Tread and No-Rim-Cut Tires is ideal. Thousands of Canadians will tell you No-Rim-Cut tires have cut their tire bills in two.

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 2, 1911

THE MONEY BYLAWS.

It has not been usual to restrict referendums to the vote of the ratepayers, but the city council, according to the city solicitor, has power to state how any referendum shall be taken.

"The interests" have also found the technicalities of the city bylaws play into their hands, in regard to the submission of the tube-by-law. We are not inclined to look upon this as a calamity, however. It seems that the people are not allowed to vote for more than $3,000,000 for any one thing at a time.

Control of the question, which, if favorable, would afford the basis for an application to the legislature for power to issue debentures for the cost of the project as a revenue-producing investment.

This is a first-class point to get before the people in itself. Some of the papers habitually try to make it appear that Toronto is rushing deeper and deeper into debt. As a matter of fact the more money the city invests in electric light plant, in civic railways, in waterworks, in tubes or similar improvements, the richer the city becomes as an actual owner of profitable property.

Once the point is clear that these larger money bylaws are not for debts but for investment, the people will more readily appreciate the small amount of actual debt which it is proposed to the ratepayers to incur in the other bylaws.

MEN'S FORWARD MOVEMENT.

This apparently will be pre-eminently the laymen's century in religious endeavor. Not for many years has there been so much interest taken and is so much work being done apart from clerical direction and initiative.

One of the most remarkable of the recent forward movements is one originating in New York about a year ago. Its object is primarily to evangelize the masses of the people, but equally to influence for good the moral, social, economic and political life of the country.

Take the frequent complaint about "running-in" cars. The defence was made by the company that on Dundas-street only three cars can operate on the track from Humberstone to Keele-street, and that it was expedient for passengers to change cars. Let this be granted. But is the company and their men had the idea of obliging the public they would never turn a full car load or even five passengers out into the heavy rain, until at least another car came along to take them into shelter.

SYDNEY MINES, N.S., Jan. 25th, 1910. "For many years, I suffered tortures from Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Two years ago, I was so bad that I vomited my food constantly. I also suffered with Constipation. I consulted physicians, as I was afraid the disease was cancer, but medicine gave only temporary relief.

"I read in the 'Maritime Baptist' about 'Fruit-a-tives' and the cures this medicine was making and I decided to try it. After taking three boxes, I found a great change for the better and now I can say 'Fruit-a-tives' has entirely cured me when every other treatment failed, and I reverently say 'Thank God for 'Fruit-a-tives.'"

UTTER LACK OF PROPER SYSTEM

School Construction Department Sadly Disorganized—Special Committee Reports.

The school construction department is surely disorganized, it is years behind in building, plumbing and ventilation practice, and should be brought up to date.

This is the sum and substance of the report of what the special sub-committee on property has found as the result of an exhaustive investigation.

The report in part is as follows: "The supervisor of caretakers, as suggested by the committee, must be a man with a good knowledge of plumbing, heating and ventilation, and if possible, a general knowledge of planning and caretaking of the grounds."

In regard to plumbing and ventilation the sub-committee gave a strong report as to the carelessness of the inspection of the department of buildings.

The plumbing in the new buildings was found to have a strong tendency towards cheapness, perhaps caused by the superintendent trying to economize.

The air in many schools was found to be vitiated, caused by bad systems of ventilation which were antiquated and old-fashioned.

The sub-committee strongly impressed it on the committee that since Toronto had grown to such an extent, the board of education must use more modern methods in our buildings or become a back number.

Dr. Noble pointed out that there was too much work placed on Mr. Bishop's shoulders, and that the recommendation of the report would in part ease him of his manifold duties.

Trustee McTaggart pointed out that he thought the building department incapable of carrying out the recommendation of the report in that it recommended a capable architect and sanitary engineer on the department staff.

It was decided that the report be laid before the next meeting of the board of education, and that Mr. Bishop make a written answer to the report, explaining the charges to the inefficiency of the building department.

OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—(Special).—A petition has been filed to-day with the Dominion Government asking for the dissolution of the act of the Alberta Legislature respecting the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway, on the allegation that it has confiscated seven million dollars raised by W. R. Clarke of Kansas City, and other promoters of the railway.

The claimants being unsuccessful in the courts now ask for the federal prerogative of disallowance, since the capital was raised almost entirely by United States financiers.

Expanding business has compelled the Cranston Novelty Advertising Company to acquire more commodious offices in the Star Building, where are offered for public inspection complete lines of standard and new specialties in art calendars.

The Encyclopaedia Britannica (11th Edition) Is Now Completely Published

Complete sets of 29 Volumes are now being promptly shipped to fill new orders. The Cambridge University Press.

Founded nearly 400 years ago for the diffusion of learning, in assuming the copyright and control of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, regarded the placing of the New Edition within the reach of the greatest number of people as an inherent characteristic of the undertaking.

in which they have literally opened the volumes of the new edition at hundreds of places, and at each opening demonstrated from the book itself some typical feature of its contents by the reproduction of characteristic articles or portions of articles, of plates, maps, and cuts exactly as they occur in the original text.

The Encyclopaedia Britannica is the only work in any language in which an attempt has been made to epitomize and elucidate in an adequate manner the thought, achievements and life of our common humanity.

Drawing its contributors from every civilized country, the 11th edition is based on the essentially cosmopolitan character and origin of the main factors which make for human progress, and in freely applying the historical method in every department of knowledge, there has been constant endeavour to express the present in terms of the past in which that present finds its roots.

The Encyclopaedia Britannica is so obviously a gift, the usefulness of which will be shared by its possessor with others, young and old, that it is impossible to think of it in the light of a Christmas present without a thought of its general utility in the household.

A Complete Library in Itself. Its 40,000 articles not only complete the whole circle of human knowledge, but the arrangement of the text, and its analysis in an edition (volume 29, containing 500,000 references), have been so carried out that from the 28,180 pages of the work the enquirer can at once select the one which deals with the subject which interests him.

Whether his need of the moment relates to the rules of a game, the repair of a house, the laying out of a garden, the breeding of a dog, the treatment of a cold, the latest theory of radio-activity, or the influence of Wagner, the answer to the reader's question comes as directly and as quickly as if sought by a specialist who wrote the article was at hand to furnish in person the practical guidance demanded.

For the Mere Pleasure of Reading. But perhaps the chief merit of the book as a household treasure is that from merely referring to it, its possessor is led to read its articles for the pleasure they afford.

AN INVITATION Residents in Toronto and visitors to the city are cordially invited to visit the office of the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS at 10-12 King Street East (Royal Bank Building), where full information on the New Edition of the Encyclopaedia may be obtained and the work inspected.

The Cambridge University Press does not employ agents or canvassers. If, however, any resident in Toronto or suburbs wishes to see the work and cannot make it convenient to come to the office, a member of the staff will call at his address by appointment.

FIRST PAYMENT ONLY $5.00 The entire set of 29 volumes will be dispatched promptly on receipt.

The 11th edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica offers a complete exposition of knowledge, a fresh survey of what is known, a full and accurate inventory of essential things—of everything that can reasonably be expected to interest a member of a civilized community.

It contains 40,000 articles (by 1,500 contributors), 28,150 pages, 44,000,000 words, and the value of the text is increased by 7,000 line drawings and 150 full-page plates, as well as 169 plate maps and 400 text maps, specially prepared from the most modern sources to accompany the articles which they illustrate.

1. Its simultaneous production as a whole at a greatly increased outlay ($1,150,000), instead of volume by volume over a period of years as heretofore. All 28 volumes of text are thus of practically even date.

2. Its wholly novel format—India paper, flexibly bound—whereby a reduction in weight of eight pounds to three pounds, and in thickness of 2 1/2 inches to 1 inch, was effected without sacrifice of legibility or strength.

3. Its endorsement by the University of Cambridge, by whom the copyright of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, after passing from one publisher to another during 140 years, is now controlled, and the imprimatur of whose press the work now bears.

4. The price at which it may be acquired ($4.50 a volume, 1,000 pages in the cheapest style) is $3.00 a volume less than the corresponding price ($7.50 a volume) at which the 9th edition was sold in this country and in England. To the latter figure, however, of $7.50 (which may be regarded as the normal, the standard, charge) the price of the new edition will eventually be raised.

The present low price may be more easily afforded owing to the institution of serial payments. $5.00 is all the immediate outlay that is required, and, after the 29 volumes have been received, purchase may be completed in monthly payments of the same amount. The work is, therefore, placed within the reach of all. Should the subscriber, however, find that it better suits his

ROWELL AT STRATFORD Liberal Leader Reviews His Policies Before Seven Hundred Electors. STRATFORD, Dec. 1.—(Special.) The new Liberal leader, N. W. Rowell, addressed 700 electors here to-night. While outlining his whole platform, he dealt more particularly with the Liberal proposals for government control of trunk telephones, local option in taxation and compensation for injuries without proving negligence, the restoration of the model schools with increased grants from the government, and it needs be, the importation of teachers from the old land.

Mr. Rowell repudiated his challenge to Premier Whitney to state his attitude on the bilingual school question.

Mr. Rowell received a good hearing. The local Liberal candidate, Mr. John Brown, also spoke briefly.

The Red Crescent. Among the nations of Europe, Turkey is the only one which flies the Red Crescent in time of war. The party to the Geneva Convention, Turkey has steadily refused to use the emblem of the cross, the Greek cross, to protect its sick and wounded in time of war. In place of the cross the Turkish army medical corps makes use of a red crescent on a white ground, but this departure from the recognized international emblem has never received the sanction of the nations sitting at the Geneva Convention. There is little doubt that Italy will look on the crescent as equivalent to the red cross. Westminster Gazette.

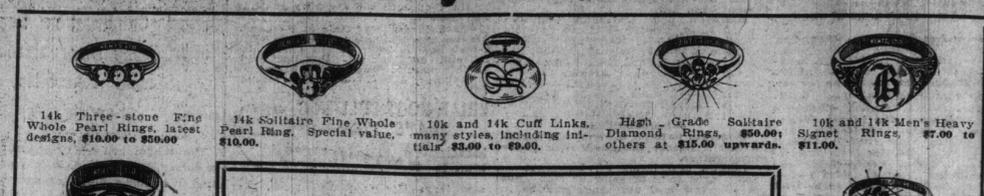

To Properly Treat Obsolete Wrinkles. Particularly where wrinkles and furrows are long and deep, the massage devotee is apt to rub too hard and too frequently, says Dr. Limoges. Such treatment actually irritates the skin, causes muscles to sag and aggravates the wrinkled condition—just the opposite result from what she seeks.

Better than massage is anything else, for the most obstinate wrinkles and crows' feet, as well as the finest lines, is a formula well known in France, but which ladies may readily avail themselves of, as you will have no difficulty in procuring the constituents from your druggists. It is this: One ounce powdered sazonilla in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathe the face, neck and hands in this daily.

The effect is really marvelous, not only as to wrinkles, but also in case of double chin and saggy cheeks. The application is cooling, soothing, tending to relieve fatigue and insomnia.

WOULD SCREAM FOR HOURS WITH ECZEMA

Baby Dreadful Sufferer. Could Not Keep Him from Scratching. Every Joint Affected. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and He Is Well.

"Enclosed find my son's photo and I feel by writing these few lines to you I am only doing my duty, as my son was a dreadful sufferer from eczema. At the age of two weeks he began to get covered with red spots on his legs and groin, which his mother thought was red gum or thrush; but day by day it grew worse until every joint and crevice were affected and baby started screaming for hours day and night, such a thing as sleep was out of the question. I took him to two of Sydney's leading doctors; one said it was one of the worst cases he had seen, the other did not think it so serious, one ordered treatment for rubbing in, the other a dusting powder. I followed their prescriptions for over four months and still baby kept getting worse. I could not keep him from scratching so great was his agony.

"When he was five months old I tried the Cuticura Remedies and I am very thankful to say my baby is to-day free from all his troubles. His groin was bleeding when I started and other parts affected were the lower part of his body, under the knees, arms, in arm joints, eyebrows and neck; but after twice using Cuticura Soap and Ointment I began to see a difference and by the time I had used one tin, along with the bathing with Cuticura Soap, baby was nearly cured. I still kept on using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and now, thank goodness, he is quite well and, although he is now ten months old, has not had any further return of the trouble."

(Signed) Mrs. M. J. Martin, 2 Knight St., Epsomville, Sydney, N.S.W., Mar. 31, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, but a liberal sample each with a 32-page book on the care and treatment of the skin will be sent free on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., 60 Columbus Ave., Boston, U.S.A.

AT MASSEY HALL.

Photo Plays.
That the undertaking of giving photo plays and motion picture entertainments in Massey Hall would be a success, has been proved by the very large audiences attending. A most noticeable feature is the better class of patronage they are receiving, everyone being delighted. Parties of pupils from the schools and colleges were in evidence, and they are making these entertainments their week end amusement. The choice of the subjects chosen to make the program a worthy one, consisting of a higher class of educational, comedy, dramatic and scenic pictures, being the judgment of an experienced management, appealing to admirers of real art. For this Saturday a selection of exceptional merit has been arranged. The management believes that the two previous entertainments will be surpassed, this is not then likely. So far their representations have been fully lived up to.

Public Amusements Theatres This Week

AT THE PRINCESS.

"A Single Man."
Of the many events of the winter, Mr. John Drew's first appearance here in his new comedy, "A Single Man," will doubtless prove an event as special as dramatic in its interest. The reopening of the Empire in New York by Mr. John Drew, has become an annual event. It is interesting to note that Toronto is to be the first city visited on his annual tour.

Mr. Drew will have the role of Robert Worthington, the "single man." By occupation Worthington is a writer, by inclination a prospective benedict. A visit to the home of his married brother, where he sees great happiness, convinces Worthington that he too should marry. In this view his sister-in-law agrees and thru her efforts he meets a young woman friend whom he thinks quite measures up to all the requirements of a wife. Meanwhile, however, "the single man" has become engaged to marry Maggie Cottrell, a young woman of athletic proclivities, who swings her fiance thru a circle of physical activity which quite convinces him of the error of his choice. Then he turns to the other woman, now his private secretary (Miss Mary Boland) and so the plot thickens and deepens to the delight of all.

AT THE ROYAL ALEXANDRA.

"Madams X."
The intense gripping strength of "Madams X," the sensational Parisian drama, which met with such favor on its former visit to Toronto, and which will again be presented by Henry W. Savage, next week, at the Royal Alexandra, is testified to by all who have witnessed it. Not in twenty years, it is said, has there been produced a play with such tremendous appeal. Not alone does it move the casual theatregoer, but the blasé man of the world, and those who pride themselves upon being callous to emotion, yield to the overwhelming logic of "the supreme drama of thrill." Perhaps the secret of its hold upon the emotions is its faithful portraiture of life. As to the performance, it is many years since any woman has given an exhibition of such forceful acting as that which

ADELINE DUNLAP
In title role of Henry Savage's "Madame X," Royal Alexandra, week beginning Dec. 4.

Adeline Dunlap offers in the title role, that of a poor, friendless woman, a "dip" fiend and a drunkard, who, while irresponsible, has killed her lover and is at the bar of justice to answer to the crime of murder. It is doubtful if Sarah Bernhardt herself, in her prime, could have given a more convincing performance than when she strikes the chord of mother-love upon which the story is built. Miss Dunlap is assisted by a uniformly brilliant company, among whom are: Byron Douglas, Harry Mainhall, Helen Luttrell, Robert Paton Gibbs, Edwin Forsberg, Caroline Leonard, Harry C.

"We consider our greatest advertising asset to be a home in which a Gurlay Piano is played."

AT THE GRAND.

Thomas E. Shea in Three Great Plays.
Thomas E. Shea will open a week's engagement at the Grand Monday, offering three plays, two from his well-known repertoire and a new play entitled "A Man and His Wife." The new piece is a dramatization of Samuel Shipman's popular novel, "The Spell." It furnished Mr. Shea a modern vehicle, which is likely to establish him even more firmly with the theatrical public.

In addition to "A Man and His Wife," Mr. Shea will offer two pieces entitled "A Man and His Wife," "The Bell," "A Man and His Wife" will be offered on Monday and Tuesday evenings and Wednesday and Saturday matinees. Mr. Abeles is well known to local theatregoers as the popular star of "Brown's Millers," and was an immense favorite wherever he appeared. Mr. Abeles is presenting the international comedy success, "He Tried to be Nice," and is ably assisted by Miss Charlotte Lander. The special features for the week are "The Leading Lady," which possesses all the requirements of a musical comedy, and a comedy drama. Magnificent scenic and brilliant electrical effects are features, but coupled to these is a cast of forty popular comedians and beautiful show girls. The many catchy musical numbers were written especially for this company and the costumes were designed with a view to real novelties in this line.

An especially strong cast has been engaged, and a chorus of thirty girls, especially selected, not alone for their beauty of face and form, but also for their ability to sing and dance and deport themselves. The scenery is the most elaborate ever carried by a burlesque organization and comes from the studios of one of the best known scenic artists in New York city.

Toronto Festival Chorus.
During the past few days a number of former members of the Toronto Festival Chorus have registered to take part in the coming performance of Handel's "Messiah" and Mendelssohn's "Elijah," which will be given by the Toronto Festival Chorus and Orchestra under the direction of Dr. F. H. Torrington, at Massey Hall, on March 12 and 13. This will be Dr. Torrington's farewell performance of oratorio and it is his desire to have the chorus for this occasion all who have ever sung in oratorio under his baton in past years, and there are probably many who have a desire to sing in the chorus on this occasion. The membership lists will be kept open longer than usual, but they are asked to apply at once. Rehearsals are held every Tuesday evening at the Toronto College of Music, 12-14 Pembroke-street.

Mills, K.C., will speak. The church stands upon a piece of land acquired by the colored people of Toronto in 1845 from Chief Justice Robinson. The deed of the land is a huge affair, big enough to provide parchment for a couple of drum-heads. Lawyers say it is the largest piece of conveyancing in the city. At a social gathering on Tuesday next, when the mortgage is to be burned, the deed will be on exhibition.

F. Maclean (S. York) seized the opportunity to declare that the time of the house had been wasted by the discussion of reciprocity and Nationalism, questions that had been settled by the election, and settled in the right way. It was rather futile discussing better trade relations with the United States, which depended solely on the action of the American Congress.

There were grievances in connection with trade in Canada, and these could be rectified. The great grievance of the people of the west, who were said to be the moving spirits in the attempt to form closer trade relations with the United States, was in connection with the railways, a grievance which they shared equally with the people of the east.

Regulating Express Companies. In the first place they suffered from excessive express charges. The remedy for this was at hand, and no legislation was required to put it into effect. The postmaster-general could establish a parcel post system and bring the express companies to time. It was true, the railway commission had taken up the question, but without satisfactory results.

The only way to give relief where great private corporations exercise public functions such as these, declared Mr. Maclean, was by state competition. The Province of Ontario had by its hydro-electric policy cut the rates for electrical energy in two.

The same thing will happen in connection with the express companies," he said, "as soon as the government inaugurates a parcel post system."

Examples to Follow. Germany controlled the parcel post system and the railways and the people were given reasonable service. Only the other day the United States had announced that an arrangement had been concluded with Great Britain for an extension of the parcel post system between the two countries. Why should Canada stand still and do nothing? Then there was a grievance in connection with telegraph and cable services. Control of the great cable monopoly had passed to the telegraph companies of the United States, that so far had overridden the will of the people of that country.

"Why does not some one do it?" he asked. Sir Wilfrid Laurier: "Hear, hear." Mr. Maclean: "Why didn't the right gentleman do it?" (Conservative applause.) "I feel," said Mr. Maclean, "that if the day has not come for this country to have full public ownership of its railways, at least it is time that we had public competition."

Would Fall In a Faint

When She Attempted to Work, so Exhausted Was the Nervous System.

The Feeble, Wasted Nerves Were Restored and Revitalized by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Nervous prostration is a terrible disease to all who understand its symptoms. At times the sufferer feels comparatively well, but with slight exertion the dreadful helplessness returns and all strength and vitality seems to leave the system. This letter from Mrs. Martin very well describes the terrible condition in which many a sufferer finds herself. She only tells how she regained health and strength by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after all other treatments had failed.

There was also a great grievance in regard to passenger rates. Their reduction would not only give the people an increased service, but would profit the companies. This had been the experience in connection with the reduction of postal rates.

The C. P. R. was bound by its charter and the requirements of fair dealing to give a two-cent rate from coast to coast. An opposition member: "What about the tariff?" "I believe," said Mr. Maclean in reply, "that the Democratic party will soon be in power in the United States, and I believe that they will give us an entry into their markets." (Applause.)

Mr. Maclean, continuing, said that the very peculiar doctrine had been set up that if the C.P.R. were compelled to reduce its rates it might hurt other systems.

"Why we don't guarantee anybody against competition," declared Mr. Maclean. "Let us get down to business. Let us get lower express rates. Let us get lower freight rates and let us get a better railway service. The railway commission have been doing their duty, but they have not been doing it as they should."

Can't Enforce Federal Law. Mr. Maclean called the premier's attention to the fact that there was no provision for the enforcement of federal law. In the United States this was the duty of the attorney-general. It should be the same in Canada, and much money should be provided to enable the attorney-general to enforce federal law.

"This thing must be done," declared Mr. Maclean. "The people of this country are in favor of progressive government, and progressive government is in the direction of exercising public franchises in the regulation of public franchises in this country. There is one way to do it, and that is making laws, and when you have made them, enforce them. If you are not able to bring them to time in that way you have the right to compete with them, and state competition is the new doctrine that I preach here to-day and have preached here before."

Too Much Quibbling. "We are talking too much of the time of this house with the discussion of constitutional questions—lawyers' suits—when it is the grievances of the people and the rectification of those grievances in every direction within the limitations of the powers of this parliament to which we should be directing our attention." The immediate duty of parliament was to give relief in regard to express charges, telegraph and cable tolls and railway freight and passenger rates. Why should a farmer have to go before the railway commission to get his rights? The state ought to see to that. Keep on Capitalization. Another plank in the progressive platform of the people of Canada," said Mr. Maclean, was the regulation of the capitalization of companies. He had no doubt that the report of the commission appointed to deal with the same problem in the United States would be that the control of capitalization was absolutely necessary in the interests of the public.

"We must come to that in this country. I ask the members here from the west, irrespective of party, whether they do not think it was a wrong, a crime against the people of this country, that the great Canadian Pacific Railway should increase its capitalization as it did by distributing free stock among its shareholders. A great wrong was committed by the Bell Telephone Co., which did the same thing."

Must Declare Policy. "How much longer are these abuses to continue? The country and parliament are entitled to an early declaration of policy on the part of the government in regard to these questions. They have in United States politics what they call insurgency. There will be a great many insurgents in this country from either of the parties if nothing is done with these questions. The sentiment in favor of public ownership is growing rapidly all the world over. There is no recession in any portion of the world where it has been tried. It is advancing every day and until we get public ownership, I want to see public competition as against the great corporations."

Hydro's Effectiveness. Mr. Maclean expressed the hope that at a very early date there would be a declaration along the line of progress indicated. He recalled the phenomenal progress of Ontario with its hydro-electric system and the fact that the day the city of Winnipeg began to supply electrical energy the old companies began to cut rates.

If the announcement were made in parliament to-day that Canada proposed to lead in binding the empire with trade in Canada, and these could be rectified. The great grievance of the people of the west, who were said to be the moving spirits in the attempt to form closer trade relations with the United States, was in connection with the railways, a grievance which they shared equally with the people of the east.

Cut Cable Tolls in Two. "We should assert that we are impatient by proving it and not by talking it and for imperial reasons and for business reasons we should at once declare that we will have cable tolls cut in two, even if we have to build a cable of our own. Why it only requires a few million dollars to build a cable, and the Canadian business alone at half the rates now charged would support that cable."

"The money spent by the late government to encourage the Marconi system," said Mr. Maclean, "was money well spent, but it would have been ten times better to have built an Ontario cable."

"If we have our own cable we must have our own land lines, and the post office can take them over and do what they did in England, namely, double the number of words for the existing price. If the government wants to show it is progressive it will make an early pronouncement in favor of all those things."

Another C.P.R. Mistake? Mr. Maclean warned the government that in a few days the C. P. R. might endeavor to make a further issue of free stock to its shareholders. This was an abandonment and should not be allowed. He regretted that Sir James Whitney had not seen fit to include in his progressive platform an announcement looking to the control of corporations. Ontario needed such a law and Canada needed such a law.

Emmerson's Criticism. Hon. H. R. Emmerson wanted to know when Mr. Maclean's "agonies" in regard to economic questions had overtaken him. A few weeks ago he was entirely governed by sentiment. He should stick to facts and not tell the people of the west that there was no relief for them in the parliament of Canada, but turn their eyes to the Congress of the United States. He was surprised at him. During the recent campaign he did not talk economics. A Conservative member: "He did, he did."

Mr. Maclean: "I'll give you an instance. I never made a speech that was not based on facts. Then would come along another gentleman who did the other thing, and he failed to convince the people."

In regard to railway and telegraph regulations, Mr. Emmerson charged Mr. Maclean with beating the air and being unpractical.

Premier Gives Support. Mr. R. L. Borden said he desired to defend Mr. Maclean on the charge of not talking economics in the late campaign. He had spoken with him and his speech was largely of economic grounds. Moreover, the Toronto World contained from day to day statements, the result of careful investigation, that were entirely on economic grounds.

With regard to the questions Mr. Maclean had raised about railway and express rates, cable and telegraph tolls, the government in the stress of the last two months had had no time to consider them, but he promised to give them his careful attention, to be held out little hope of these matters being dealt with this session.

Up to Commission. With reference to the regulation of railway rates, if Mr. Maclean or any other member would indicate in what regard the railway commission were not doing their duty, he would communicate with the commission and get an explanation at the earliest possible moment.

As to the regulation of capitalization, as soon as the report of the United States tribunal was available, it would receive the careful consideration of the government. There was good reason for parliament taking up this matter and settling it in some reasonable and practical way.

J. G. Turfitt, Assiniboia, asked why people in the prairie provinces should pay $1.60, and people in British Columbia $2 express rates, where people in the east paid only $1. The cost of running a railway was only half as much in the west as in the east. W. F. Maclean: "And the government subsidy is ten times as much."

Hon. Frank Cochrane announced that a petition regarding excessive freight rates had been received from the Winnipeg board of trade. It had been forwarded to the railway commission. G. W. Fowler (Kings and Albert) declared that Mr. Maclean was dealing with "real facts." In his reference to excessive express charges and passenger rates, Sir Wilfrid Laurier expressed himself of the opinion that Mr. Maclean

Cure Your CATARRH Now!

Take it in hand at once. If you don't get rid of Catarrh now, in the Fall, there's certain peril ahead, for you'll meet the extreme cold weather coming with your system terribly weakened and undermined by this treacherous, poisonous trouble. Remember—if you keep on neglecting Catarrh, later on "We are in great danger—disease—perhaps Death itself!"

It's a horribly loathsome disease—Catarrh. It makes you an object of disgust to your friends—though they're usually too kind to tell you so. As a matter of fact your hawking and spitting and constant nose-blowing fairly make them sick. They turn away nauseated by your foul, fetid breath. Such things hurt you tremendously, not only at home, but also with outsiders—with the people you meet in daily life.

But Catarrh is more than a loathsome trouble—it's a fearfully dangerous one. People make a terrible mistake in saying "Only Catarrh." It isn't "Only Catarrh"—it's CONSUMPTION as you don't stop it in time. Once the minute, abnormally active and poisonous Catarrh germs get a foothold in the lungs, there's no hope whatever for you. You're doomed to a Consumptive's grave—there's no escaping it.

Cure your Catarrh now, before it becomes Consumption. Don't be discouraged if other doctors or the widely advertised so-called "Catarrh remedies" have failed to help you. TEHRAN, Persia, Dec. 1.—The National Council has rejected the Russian ultimatum by a big majority. The foreign minister has resigned. A telegram from British Foreign Minister, Sir Edward Grey, was presented to the assembly, urgently advising compliance with the Russian demands, but some of the members pointed out that England's advice had hitherto only led to Persian humiliation.

CONTRACTORS DEMANDED INSPECTOR'S DISMISSAL

City Filtration Official Was Too Strict—Sand Taken From Near Intake Pipe.

"I thought Inspector Jones was too strict and I asked for his dismissal," testified Albert Richey, superintendent, for the contractors in the construction of the filtration plant at the enquiry before Judge Winchester yesterday afternoon.

"He wanted us to use more cement than the specifications demanded," added Mr. Richey.

He told Counsel DuVernet further that he had had trouble with all the inspectors, but that Thomas Jones was the only one with whom he had serious differences.

"If Mr. David Hunter says I recalled him I certainly have no recollection of it," inverted the witness, "I would, sir, replied Richey, "Will you pledge your oath against him that you did not assault Inspector Hunter," asked Counsel DuVernet.

The first witness questioned in the enquiry was F. F. Langley, resident engineer at the filtration plant. His evidence was that the contractors had dredged some of the sand from the vicinity of the intake pipe. "The sand was not dug," he said, "it dug deep enough to cause any damage to the pipe."

Judge Winchester was then informed by A. D. McCarthy that the dredging operations had resulted in two big holes into which sand had drifted down under the intake pipe.

Should the ratepayers succeed in having the plans changed for Ashdale-avenue, they would do their own localities a deal of good in that several large firms are, at the present time, negotiating for sites in that locality which they would obtain by reason of the Coxwell-avenue subway.

Wall Street in Depressed Mood at First Session of New Month— Toronto Market Quiet But Firm.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Politics and money rates were the foremost considerations to-day in Wall Street. Politics was brought to the fore principally because congress is to assemble next week. Call money was still held at figures much above the levels which have prevailed for several months until the last few days. Loans were placed as high as 4 per cent., the maximum reached on Monday. Both these influences were bearish and speculative sentiment corresponded. The pressure which has been directed against the stock market most of the week was continued and prices sagged, although losses were not heavy.

Outside Banks Lenders.
For the first time in almost a year, out of town banks were extensive lenders of money in this market. The high rates for call money attracted much of this outside capital, especially from New England and the middle west. Interior banks are stronger than local institutions, whose resources are threatened with further depletion this week by reason of the continued outflow to Canada and the Pacific Coast. The movement continued to-day with the shipment of $500,000 to San Francisco, bringing up the total loss during the week to $1,270,000. Known movements of money for the week indicate a cash loss by the banks of between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000.

Rates May Keep Up.
In view of the continued loss by the banks, less confidence was shown to-day of a speedy return to low rates than was expressed when rates first began to stiffen. Much reliance is placed upon American credits abroad as a secondary reserve and the willingness of out-of-town banks to loan further to preserve a balance. Nevertheless, it is regarded as not unlikely that during the remainder of the year money may be quoted at somewhat higher rates than have prevailed since January.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET.

World Office.
Friday Evening, Dec. 1.—The incoming of the new month did not bring in any perceptible improvement in the Toronto stock exchange, the market to-day being a decidedly apathetic affair, with only restricted transactions in evidence.

The leading feature of the general list was the medium of-firmness which characterized prices. In some special issues actual advances were realized, but these were generally of small volume, and consequently did not attract any material attention.

Traction Issues the Leaders.
There was a somewhat better feeling apparent in the South American traction issues, both Rio and Sao Paulo scoring advances, but the speculation was too general to permit of any movement of consequence.

Rio sold as high as 112 3/4, an advance of a quarter of a point from yesterday, and closed strong with that price bid, and offerings bid at 113.

Sao Paulo was up nearly 1 1/2 points to 132 3/4 at one period, but the advance was on offer at 132, with 131 5/8 the best bid.

Two small lots of St. Lawrence and Chicago Navigation changed hands at 95 and 96, the latter representing an advance of 6 points over the last previous sale.

Sound Investment Situation.
The investment buying in evidence yesterday was again in force, and some further advances were recorded in the purely investment issues. London and Canada, Canada Land and Canada Permanent were all above the previous levels, and Electric Development bonds were also a fraction higher at 90 3/4.

The market thrust was in an apathetic mood, but displayed an indicative of the soundness of the underlying situation.

Increased Dividend Notice.
LONDON, Dec. 1.—It is reported here that the Bank of Montreal will increase its dividend 2 per cent. to 12 per cent. per annum.

Lintotype Dividends.
NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The Merchants Lintotype Co. declared regular quarterly dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. and an extra dividend of 3 1/2 per cent.

Copper Statistics.
LONDON, Dec. 1.—Visible copper: The fortnightly statistics show that the European stocks of copper on Nov. 30 decreased 1836 tons.

Shades of Tom Lawson.
BOSTON, Dec. 1.—Yukon Gold, the company in connection with which Tom Lawson did so much spectacular advertising, declared a quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 cents a share to-day, a reduction of 2 1/2 cents for the quarter.

New Exchange Member.
Mr. T. W. Horwood has been elected a member of the Toronto Stock Exchange. Mr. Horwood has bought from Sir Henry Pellatt one of the stock exchange seats taken by him in part payment for the Bay-street purchase some time ago from him for a stock exchange building.

Canadian Marconi Debts Discharged.
LONDON, Dec. 1.—It is intimated here that the whole indebtedness of the Canadian Marconi Company to the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company will shortly be discharged, freeing the Canadian company free from debt.

The Marconi Company holds over 600,000 shares of $5 each in the stock of the Canadian company.

Another Default on Interest.
LONDON, Dec. 1.—The asbestos financing by another, and some concern is expressed here of the effect upon Canadian industrial credit among British investors by the announcement that the Swanston Bay Forests, Wood Pulp and Lumber Mills, Limited, proposed to default the 6 per cent. first mortgage bonds issued in July last year.

The company's offices are in Montreal, and the directors' names excited confidence here. The bondholders are to meet on Dec. 23.

AMERICANS WEAK IN LONDON.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Money was in better supply and discount rates were quiet to-day.

The stock market opened dull, but strengthened later, under the lead of home and Argentine rails and Copper Peruvian stocks, which were well supported. Coppers, however, eased off in the afternoon.

Consols, in which the settlement was concluded, declined three-sixteenths.

American securities opened quiet, and during the forenoon trading was quiet and featureless. Wall street offered a decline of three-sixteenths, and the market declined and closed weak.

C. P. R. EARNINGS SOAR

Gross for This Year May Show Ten Millions Increase.

In the four and a half months of the current fiscal year to the middle of November gross earnings of the Canadian Pacific showed an increase of $4,000,000. Current business is showing larger increases than were recorded in the early part of the year, the outlook for the next few months is particularly bright, and it would seem that predictions made a few months back that gross earnings for the entire fiscal year will show an increase of $10,000,000 over 1911, are likely to be fulfilled.

Assuming that the above estimate of the expansion in business is approximately correct, net earnings of the Canadian Pacific in the current year should show a gain of over $4,000,000. The property is in excellent physical condition and is in a position to operate more economically than in the last fiscal year. Operating expenses thus far have consumed 61 per cent. of gross.

UNITED STATES BANKERS.

E. A. DE LIMA

as compared with 64.7 per cent. for the entire 1911 fiscal period, but it is likely that the proportion of expenses to gross will show an increasing tendency during the next few months, owing to the more difficult operating conditions prevailing in the winter season. A liberal allowance for expenses for the entire fiscal year, however, would place the ratio at 65 per cent. of gross earnings, and on this basis the above estimate of the increase in net returns is made.

WALL-STREET CONFUSED

New Standard Oil Certificates Keep Even Curb Brokers Guessing.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Nothing like the new Standard Oil stock certificates distributed to-day had even been seen before in Wall Street. Even their appearance was confusing, for the 33 certificates were printed in thirty-three different colors. But the chief point of confusion was that no one had any idea what they were worth. Standard Oil never has made public its financial affairs, nor has it published annual reports, as most large corporations do. The value of the stock has been fixed by the size of its dividends, which, of course, represent the combined earnings of the merged companies. Now that the companies have been separated, no one outside of the company itself has any idea as to the earning capacity of the various corporations.

In the "curb market," where brokers are accustomed to deal in all manner of securities and to take precarious chances as to their value, not even the most daring trader ventured to make a bid for one of the new stock issues.

The problem was complicated by the fact that it was virtually impossible to find a whole share of stock in one of the companies.

ON WALL-STREET.

Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following: It was very evident at midday that the stock market was sold out. Notwithstanding the hammering by traders, they failed to dislodge anything worth speaking of. When the price of securities and to take precarious chances as to their value, not even the most daring trader ventured to make a bid for one of the new stock issues.

The problem was complicated by the fact that it was virtually impossible to find a whole share of stock in one of the companies.

Strikebreakers Policed?
NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(Canadian Press)—Rumors that striking garbage men from the New York street cleaning department are attempting to poison the food served to strikebreakers by the city, started a panic among the men employed in one of the uptown stations to-day. The rumors found some foundation in the sudden death at Bellevue hospital, of one of the strikebreakers.

Several other strikebreakers are said to be suffering from stomach trouble of unusual character.

Tried to Emulate Wallingford.
LINDSAY, Dec. 1.—Henry Malcolm Graham, the promoter of a fake electric trolley line from Port Hope to Orillia who secured the earnings of several of the young men under his employ and married a young lady here was this morning sentenced to Kings-ton penitentiary by Magistrate Jackson for a term of three years.

CANADA TO 'STAGGER' GERMANY.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(C. A. P.)—The Express, alluding to the rumor that Winston Churchill, as Lord of the Admiralty, is to raise a new huge navy loan, says: "Undoubtedly the loan means to contribute in kind or in cash. The result may mean co-operation such as will stagger Germany."

STARTED OFF POORLY.

The New York market opened the new month with a rather heavy undertone in evidence. Professionals sold stocks heavily, and in the early dealings a big round of declines in values were shown, these running into nearly two points in some instances. As during the last few sessions the slump was followed by a recovery, in which the major part of the losses were made up. Weakness in the Hill railroad securities was the feature, rumors of an impending cut in the Northern Pacific dividend being used to depress the market. The trend is still irregular and no change in this regard is likely until some new development is evolved.

BIG SLUMP IN COTTON

Prices Down to New Low Levels—Stock Piling Up.

Erickson Perkins & Co. (J. G. Beatty) wired:

Numerous advices were received to-day to the effect that low grades were piling up and that the south was weakening in many places. General selling ensued and prices declined to new low levels. Trade buying, which was the chief support early in the week, seems to be filled for the time being. Fear of large gains, returns and a collapse in southern markets has discouraged all speculation on the constructive side. Speculators prefer to work along the line of least resistance. Continued irregularity is in order up to the ginner. Unless the southern position is strengthened by small returns, values will be reduced. Would purchase on sharp breaks.

MONEY MARKETS.

Bank of England discount rate, 4 per cent. Open market discount rate in London for short bills, 2 1/2 per cent. New York call money, highest 6 per cent., lowest 4 per cent., ruling rate 5 per cent. Call money at Toronto, 5 1/2 per cent.

PRINCESS PAT SAILS.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(C. A. P.)—An interested crowd, mostly of ladies, witnessed the departure of Princess Patricia of Connaught at Euston Station to-day. Prince Arthur and Princess Marie Louise, Earl Grey and the Hon. Dudley Ward, representing the Colonial Office, Lord Strathcona, Countess Wemyss and Lady Muriel Page were there.

The princess is taking many Christmas presents and a bob sleigh for her own use.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 1.—Countess Derby, and the Lady Mayores met the Princess Patricia here and conducted her to the boat.

REMARKABLE ACTIVITY AT BOW ISLAND

Fifteen Additional Gas Wells Are to Be Drilled—100 Carloads of Material Will Be Shipped to Bow Island to Carry Out This Gigantic Project.

Announcement has just been made that an additional 15 wells are to be drilled at Bow Island, Alberta, and that the work of drilling these wells will be prosecuted vigorously right through the winter months. Bow Island now has 5 wells, the present daily production of which is 61,865,000 cubic feet of natural gas every 24 hours. This enormous production gives to Bow Island the distinction of being the greatest natural gas field in the world.

The Bow Island Board of Trade reports that hardly a day passes but that one or more inquiries or visits are received from manufacturers seeking locations to establish industries. Cheap fuel in the form of natural gas will draw manufacturing plants to Bow Island.

MAINE EXPLOSION EXTERNAL

HAVANA, Dec. 1.—(Canadian Press)—The board of survey which has been engaged with the raising of the battleships Maine has finished its inspection of the ill-fated vessel.

There is a scant doubt that the results of the investigation will prove fully corroborative of the findings of the Sampson board of inquiry that the destruction of the Maine was due primarily to an extraneous explosion, succeeded by partial explosions of the forward magazine.

Lieut. Montagu "Cashiered"

LONDON, Dec. 1.—The commission of Herbert Montagu as a second lieutenant of the Fifth Battalion of the Royal Fusiliers, was cancelled in tonight's issue of the London Gazette, his action in joining the Turkish forces in Tripoli being adjudged a breach of neutrality.

Lieut. Montagu sent a report to the English newspapers that the Italian soldiers had been guilty of horrible atrocities toward native women and children, of whom he declared many hundreds had been mutilated beyond recognition.
