Lord Bryce Approves Decision of Allies on Peace Terms.
CENTURY OVERDUE
Emancipation of Oppressed Peoples Demands Banishment of Present Gang.

London, Jan. 26.—The demand for the expulsion of the Turk from Europe, included among the allied conditions in reply to President Wilson, is noted in Lord Bryce's views on that phase of the entente reply which were given to The Associated Press today.

Concerning Turkey, Lord Bryce's views were formulated before the peace notes were exchanged, and they will appear in about a month for authorized publication in London and New York under government auspices. Owing to their direct bearing upon the terms regarding Turkey laid down by the allies he has now made them available to The Associated Press.

Mr. Anson McKim, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Montreal, was struck and instantly killed by a train at Coteau Junction, Thursday morning. TURRIF MAKES BITTER CHARGES OF RACIAL PLOT
Nationalists Kept in Cabinet to Check Quebec's Recruiting, He Says.

PREMIER IS ATTACKED
Turriff Asks Investigation, But Keeps Informant's Name Hidden.

By Staff Reporter. Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 26.—Sensational charges were made in the House of Commons tonight by Mr. Turriff, the member for Assiniboia, who spoke in the debate upon the address in reply to the speech from the throne. He charged that the Conservatives and Nationalists were still in close alliance, and that three Nationalist ministers were kept in the cabinet for the express purpose of discouraging recruiting in Quebec. The government, he said, wanted Quebec to make a poor showing so they could carry the next election by violent appeals to racial prejudice in the English-speaking provinces.

He said that Postmaster-General Blondin had advised French-Canadians to skip across the border into the United States in case the government adopted conscription. He further charged the prime minister with saying last summer to the Toronto recruiting league that he had his way and conscription would cease and we would devote ourselves to development of the resources of the Dominion.

Mr. Turriff refused to give his authority for this extraordinary charge against the prime minister unless and until an investigating committee was appointed.

He left very heavy casualties on the front, particularly in Avocourt Wood. The Germans claimed that they took 500 prisoners in the capturing of about a mile of trenches.

Paris reports that the French troops thru a violent counter-attack in the region of Hill 304 recaptured from the elements into which the enemy had penetrated. Later news shows that the attack carried out on this front between Avocourt Wood and Le Mort Homme was especially violent. Several German regiments were engaged. The fighting at some points became hand-to-hand.

The action yesterday was begun by a violent artillery bombardment. The Germans then directed their attacks against four points of the front between Avocourt Wood and east of Le Mort Homme. At three points the enemy was severely repulsed and his men had to be driven back to their original positions. At one point, the sector of Hill 304, hand fighting of the fiercest kind followed. The enemy penetrated some advanced trenches and trench elements. It was from these that he was later expelled.

BRITISH IN TWO RAIDS DESTROY FOE DUGOUTS
Take Prisoners in Enterprises About Loos and Vermelles—Royal Flying Corps Beat Germans in Air Combats.

London, Jan. 26.—British troops have carried out successful raids east of Loos and northeast of Vermelles on the French front, says the official statement issued from the British headquarters tonight. In aerial fights five German aeroplanes were destroyed and five others were damaged. The statement follows: "Enemy positions east of Loos were raided by us at daybreak this morning. The enemy suffered many casualties and a number of his dugouts were bombed and destroyed. We captured 18 prisoners. We also entered the enemy's trenches northeast of Vermelles early this morning and again took several prisoners. "We bombarded the enemy's positions north of the Somme during the day with good results. Elsewhere the artillery activity was normal. "Yesterday our aeroplanes successfully bombed a number of places behind the enemy's lines. There were many air fights, in the course of which five German machines were destroyed and five others were driven down damaged. One of our aeroplanes is missing."

Great Campaign for Patriotic and Red Cross Purposes Ends in Outpouring of Money Never Before Seen or Heard of in Canada—Enthusiasm at Final Meeting in The World Building Knew No Bounds, Especially When Final Result Was Announced—Eaton Employees Give $101,000—School Children and Teachers Contribute Over $30,000—Women's Committees Turn in $214,250.

 This is the grand total for the four days' campaign to raise $2,500,000 for the patriotic fund and the Canadian Red Cross as announced last night at the wind-up meeting in The World Building.

Over three millions and a quarter. Two millions and a half was aimed at. The mark was overshot by three-quarters of a million and more. This in just four days.

Toronto has never before seen such a meeting as last night's. For patriotic, selfless, spontaneous, exuberant enthusiasm, there never has been such another meeting in Toronto, in Canada. There has been no other such campaign in the empire. It is a result that will ring in the trenches and over the water into Germany, and there, ring like a death knell to the hopes of Pan-Germanic empire founded on force. It is an epitomized object lesson that compulsory, spontaneous sacrifice of a free people menaced by force. "Would that the Kaiser could see into this room this night," said the premier. "There would be no doubt as to the terms of peace to be announced tomorrow."

FRENCH REGAIN TRENCH LOST IN VERDUN FIGHT
Counter-Attack Recovers Positions Taken by Germans on Western Bank of Meuse—Foe Claims Opening Offensive.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, Jan. 26.—The French recaptured today most of the sections of trenches taken by the Germans at Hill 304 on the western bank of the Meuse, Verdun region.

Paris reports that the French troops thru a violent counter-attack in the region of Hill 304 recaptured from the elements into which the enemy had penetrated. Later news shows that the attack carried out on this front between Avocourt Wood and Le Mort Homme was especially violent. Several German regiments were engaged. The fighting at some points became hand-to-hand.

The action yesterday was begun by a violent artillery bombardment. The Germans then directed their attacks against four points of the front between Avocourt Wood and east of Le Mort Homme. At three points the enemy was severely repulsed and his men had to be driven back to their original positions. At one point, the sector of Hill 304, hand fighting of the fiercest kind followed. The enemy penetrated some advanced trenches and trench elements. It was from these that he was later expelled.

Other people's toes to applaud the speakers. They shouted across the hall at one another; men and women vied with one another in demonstration of good feeling. It was a medley, orderly in the main, of mutual congratulation, mutual admiration and patriotic confidence and enthusiasm. Everybody wanted to hear from everybody that everybody might have the opportunity of patting everybody else on the back. It was a festival of cooperative success. It was a naturalistic observance of the heroes of the hour were Sir William Mulesok, chairman of the fund and Major W. S. Dinnick, campaign organizer. Every leader of every department of the huge organization that has canvassed every nook and corner of Toronto was a lesser hero or heroine, and came in for due and generous share in the appreciation.

The critical moments of the campaign were over. Toronto had justified herself in her own eyes, and given herself a name for generosity that must challenge the eyes of the whole world. So confident did the organizers represent there last night, feel of her own wealth and willingness that several of the workers expressed the sentiment that if another $2,000,000 were needed they were willing to get out after it, and confident that they would be successful when that time came.

 The announcement of this grand total which called forth the most ringing and prolonged applause of an evening filled with every conceivable expression of appreciation, came as the climax to a long list of announcements, every one of them an achievement worthy in itself of special record. Sir William Mulesok, who occupied the chair, announced as soon as the supper was over that H. H. Williams would officiate while the team captains announced their totals for the day, and for the whole of the campaign.

The Nurses Arrive. Just before this the temper of the meeting was demonstrated on the appearance of the nurses of the Order of St. John, who had worked with the Rotary Club in canvassing the factories for subscriptions to the $2,000,000 fund. As each detachment filed into their places at the end of the hall, the men along their lines of march rose and burst into singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." Each of the three detachments that arrived was given a separate and triumphant parade.

The captains as Mr. Williams called upon them, shouted their totals. There were cheers. Mr. Williams announced these totals. More cheers. N. P. Davidson, K.C., conscious of the possession of a megaphone voice, and aware of the fact that in so great a crowd and with so much for everyone to say, there was little chance of one man's making himself heard, mounted a chair and re-announced the totals in stentorian tones. Then there were more cheers.

One of the points of greatest excitement reached in the whole evening was that attained when Harry McGee of the T. Eaton Co. arose to make the announcement that his company's employees had contributed the magnificent total of $101,133. The people felt that they could not do justice to this stirring deed. They rose and went on cheering, waving their handkerchiefs and shouting to one another in a vain endeavor to make themselves articulate about the din of cheering. Then they broke into the strains of "Rule Britannia."

"In connection with the amount announced from the employees of the T. Eaton Company, Ltd." Mr. McGee said, "few people are aware of what Sir John Eaton and the company are doing for the same cause's various men from business have enlisted, many are at the front and others in training camps. The company, which has over $11,000,000 per week and no penny over the time war was declared, or to their families, which is at the rate of $370,000 a year. The company has $238,553. This is a great relief to the patriotic fund, as no penny is paid to the families of the men paid by us."

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

ANOTHER tactical success gained in Mesopotamia early yesterday morning strengthens the grip of the British on the fortress of Kut-el-Amara. This success consists of the capturing of 1100 yards of first line and portions of second line trenches from the Turks at a strategic point on the right bank of the Tigris, southwest of, or up a stream from Kut-el-Amara. The British advanced under cover of a heavy bombardment, their losses were slight and the fighting was brief. The Turks, posted on the left bank of the Hal River, by this time were thoroughly stirred up, and they attacked the British four times. Beyond gaining a little ground in the second and the fourth of these assaults, the Turks completely failed, and British counter-attacks dislodged them from their temporary gains. The object of the British is evidently to surround a large force of Turks in Kut-el-Amara and to starve it into surrendering.

The reason of the Germans for attacking the French positions on the west bank of the Meuse River remains obscure, for the French night communication simply records that the French recaptured most of the advanced positions about Hill 304, seized by the enemy in his violent onslaughts, and it notes that the fighting was conducted by several German regiments. A German regiment consists of three to four thousand men, so a division or more went forward against the French. The fighting was violent. In some places the opposing troops fought hand to hand with knife, bayonet, grenade and bomb. The front chosen by the foe for assault lies between Avocourt Wood and Le Mort Homme, and the French defeated the attempt by their curtain of fire from their artillery and a dense fire from their infantry and machine guns. When the Germans, who attacked at four points, ran into fire which they could not face, at three of the points they turned about and fled. The Germans claim that they took nearly a mile of trenches and 500 prisoners at Hill 304.

The eastern bank of the Meuse saw violent artillery fighting yesterday. The actions reached their greatest intensity in the region of Bezonvaux-Louvemont, in the Woivre, in the sector of Regnierville, and in the sector of Veho, to the east of it. Louvillers. The French pressure against the enemy on this side of the river has become so severe that the Germans had to throw men away in a violent attempt on the other side of the Meuse in order to divert French attention to the western bank. The French guns posted on the heights west of the Meuse have been

BRITAIN'S FINANCES UPON SOUND BASIS

U. S. Federal Reserve Board's Action Inexplicable, Says Great Financier.

SOLID GOLD RESERVES

Comparison With Germany Shows Britain's Position is Much Stronger.

London, Jan. 26.—Speaking at the annual meeting of the London City and Midland Bank today Sir Edward Holden, managing director of the bank, said that of £22,000,000 of gold which has flowed into America up to the end of 1916 about £22,000,000 represented the amount contributed by the entente allies to form the basis of loans.

Of the total of foreign loans to America since the beginning of the war, approximately £423,000,000 was borrowed by England and her allies. The amount of gold required for reserve on this basis, however, would be only £29,000,000, and therefore £144,000,000 of the allies' gold had been used for some other purpose and it would appear that £200,000,000 has been used under the federal reserve system of the United States. Continuing, he said:

Difficulties in Way. "Contributed to the gold reserves of the U. S., thus facilitating the export of the extent of £1,913,000,000, between July the means of clearing up any difficulty to understand why the federal reserve board should have endeavored to place difficulties in the way of American bankers creating further loans, and particularly why they had collateral security for new loans."

Sir Edward expressed the hope that the new agency arrangements of the federal reserve board with the Bank of England and with France might be the means of clearing up any difficulties which might be caused by the small unidentified German vessel which he said had been captured after the great exertions they had put forth to increase the reserves of gold in America, which would enable the United States to increase loan superstructure. He also gave utterance to the hope that it also would be mutually beneficial to the entente allies to support British exchange in America.

Economic Phenomena. The speech of Sir Edward was a review of the entire financial position of Great Britain and her allies before and since the war, and comparisons of the effect of the war financially in Great Britain and Germany. He pointed out the great economic phenomena to be observed in both Great Britain and Germany, of countries overflowing with money and credit, and of the increased prices of commodities, and of the working classes earning larger wages than ever before, and others saving.

Germany's Position. Regarding the financial position of Germany, Sir Edward pointed out how Germany had adopted every means to maintain the gold reserve of the Reichsbank, the national bank, and to the necessity one-third of the note issue. Germany, he said, had issued notes to the extent of $800,000,000, and Great Britain to the extent of $284,000,000. The gold in the Reichsbank now was $126,000,000, which gave Germany a percentage of 15.7, while Great Britain had $1,000,000,000, that is, a percentage of 22. It looked, said Sir Edward, as though Great Britain were keeping up her end pretty well. Without expressing any opinion as to the priority of German and Austrian banks having branches in England after the war, Sir Edward said he thought it would not be wise to exclude foreign banks.

On the western front the British and the French are engaging the Germans in a lively struggle for aerial supremacy. The British machines are asserting their mastery over the enemy pilots. The British machines are forcing the combat by flying over the German lines and bombarding many places behind these lines. The German aviators are then goaded into offering fight and they are fortunate if they escape death. In the course of many air fights, the British official bulletin reported last night, the British aviators destroyed five German machines and damaged five others, compelling them to descend. Only one British machine is missing. On their front the French have also fought many lively combats, and they report the destroying of many German machines. French bombing squadrons, also in nocturnal operations, dropped bombs on stations in German hands in the region east of Verdun. Before the enemy can have any hope from an offensive in the west he must do the improbable thing of gaining supremacy in the air.

British troops carried out two trench raids on the western front yesterday. In the regions of Loos and Verdun. In the one case they took 18 prisoners; in the other several more. As usual the raiders carried armfuls of bombs across no man's land and destroyed German dugouts. This mode of asserting supremacy and of rubbing it in, as the saying goes, increases the morale of the British as it diminishes the morale of the Germans. The British batteries also heavily bombarded the positions of the foe north of the Somme yesterday.

The fighting which is proceeding south of Riga between the Russians and the Germans is one of those tactical battles of which it is difficult to see the actual immediate purpose. The Russians are going up to the German trenches in force to attack, and in cases where they are weak they fall back before the German onslaught to stronger positions. The reason for this is probably that in the recent fighting the artillery bombardment wiped out the German trenches and dugouts captured by the Russians, and the frozen ground has prevented the construction of new ones and the consolidation of the ground, so when attacked the Russians fall back to their old positions in order to fight behind solid parapets.

The German naval raid on Lowestoft, superficially considered, seems farcical, for one German destroyer crept up in the pitch darkness and fired some shells wildly towards the other, after sending aloft a few star shells. Then, putting about, this destroyer put out hurriedly to sea. The raid suggests that the Germans suffered heavier than they admitted in the clash between destroyers the other night and that in pique they ordered this raid to be attempted. In their official communication on this matter the Germans betray their fear of the British by twice saying that their raider saw no British warships, going or coming. What was uppermost in their mind was evidently the fear of interception. They may try to delude the ignorant by claiming that the British warships were afraid to fight them.

BRITISH MAKE ADVANCE ABOVE KUT-EL-AMARA

Capture Eleven Hundred Yards of Turkish Trenches in Sharp Attack—Repulse Moslem Assaults on Hai River.

London, Jan. 26.—Eleven hundred yards of Turkish first line trenches, southwest of Kut-el-Amara, and portions of the Turkish second line trenches in Mesopotamia have been captured by the British forces in heavy fighting, in which the Turks suffered heavy losses, according to a British official communication issued tonight. The communication says:

"By a determined assault Friday morning, under the cover of an intense bombardment, we seized and consolidated 1100 yards of the enemy's first line trenches on the right bank of the Tigris, sustaining Kut-el-Amara, and a considerable length of the second line, sustaining only slight losses.

"The Turkish forces west of the Hai River thereupon delivered four furious counter-attacks, the first and third being broken up by our anti-aircraft machine gun fire. The second and fourth attacks gained momentary success, but our troops, returning to the offensive, dislodged much of the ground from which they had been temporarily dislodged. Throughout the day the Turkish losses were extremely heavy. Seventy prisoners were taken.

LIGHT SEA FORCES RAID LOWESTOFT

Berlin Seeks to Magnify Small Exploit Under Cover of Darkness.

DAMAGE IS TRIFLING

Enemy Craft Scurry Away After a Three-Minute Bombardment.

London, Jan. 26.—German light sea forces took part in a raid on Lowestoft during the night, according to a statement given out by Berlin tonight. An earlier statement given out by the British Admiralty said that a small unidentified German vessel bombarded the Suffolk coast. A number of the shells failed to reach the coast, but no casualties and the damage was declared to be insignificant.

Berlin's statement says: "During the night of Jan. 25-26 German light sea forces advanced into English waters south of Lowestoft in order to attack hostile patrol boats and outposts which had been formerly reported there.

"During the whole raid not one hostile vessel was sighted. The fortified locality a short distance southward was illuminated by rockets and shell-fire by our torpedo boats. His vessels did not meet any adversary and returned safely."

A Lowestoft report says: The hostile vessel which shelled a part of the Suffolk coast last night arrived off the coast at about eleven o'clock. The night was very dark and the warship's searchlight was directed at the sea. Before beginning the bombardment she fired two star shells, probably for the purpose of identifying possible objects. The warship then fired a number of shells, several of which exploded, but the total damage was less than £100. Most of the shells exploded on open ground. The bombardment lasted only three minutes. There was no panic.

It will be seen from the foregoing and from a perusal of the report and financial statement itself, that the Canada Permanent is in a very strong financial position, and is an institution in which depositors and investors may have the utmost confidence. The Canada Permanent transacts an extensive deposit business, allowing depositors the very profitable rate of three and one-half per cent. interest.

The directors of the corporation are noted in every important feature of the business, bearing interest at five per cent. per annum, are a very popular and convenient form of investment. They are a security in which the prudent investor should place his money. Recently the "Money Times" reviewed some of the debentures of various corporations and strongly recommended them to investors, pointing out that "it is remarkable that in the history of Canadian mortgage corporations not one has ever been lost in these debentures." The Canada Permanent is the oldest, largest and strongest of these corporations and was the pioneer in issuing this class of security.

CHOIR MAKES HIT IN GOOD CONCERT

Elgar Organization, With Paul Althouse, Scores Big Success at Hamilton.

CARRY CONDUCTED

Annual Concert of First Methodist Church Surpasses All Others.

Hamilton, Ont., Saturday, Jan. 27.—Rich in their contributions and wide in their selections, the members of the Elgar Choir, at their twelfth annual concert in the First Methodist Church, tonight, gave a most successful evening of a like nature ever offered to music-lovers in this city. A feature of the program was the singing of Paul Althouse, tenor, Metropolitan Opera House, who was accompanied by the choir.

The program, which was chosen for its demand on the chorus, from the standpoint of complexity and technical difficulty, was of such a quality as to forbid it from being undertaken by any other choir in the city. The program was a masterpiece of musical artistry, and the choir's performance was a triumph.

The choir, which was organized by Paul Althouse, has since its formation in 1905, been a constant source of pleasure to the community. Its repertoire is one of the finest in the city, and its performances are always of the highest quality.

The choir's success tonight was due to the excellent conducting of Mr. Althouse, and to the fine playing of the orchestra. The concert was a most successful one, and the choir's performance was a triumph.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

EARLS COURT PROTESTS AGAINST THE PAYMENT OF RESIDENTS PASS RESOLUTION AGAINST THE CITY COUNCIL'S ACTION IN PASSING J. E. WALSH'S BILL.

A well-attended meeting of the Citizens' Express and Freight Campaign Committee was held at the headquarters, Royal George Chambers, corner of St. Clair and Dundas streets, last evening. Chairman J. MacNicol presided.

The principal topic of discussion was the action of the board of control in passing for payment the account of J. E. Walsh, secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, for $500, in opposition to the strong resolution of protest passed by the committee.

The chairman pointed out the strenuous work performed by the members of the committee for the past several months for the benefit of the 75,000 residents of the "outside" express delivering mail, and particularly emphasized the fact that the person who received the account had treated the members of the campaign with insolence.

Other speakers who were strongly opposed to the action of the board of control were Geo. R. Ellis, Alex. Craig, Chas. W. Smith, B. H. Baker and H. Newell. It was unanimously resolved that the Citizens' Express and Freight Campaign take this opportunity to make known to the public generally that practically all the evidence presented to the railway commission was obtained by the committee.

It was also resolved, "that this committee desires to inform the public that J. E. Walsh, who rendered the account to the City of Toronto, is not the secretary of the Citizens' Express and Freight Campaign, but is a private contractor with the organization in any way."

It was decided to hold a public meeting on the subject of February in Wood Collegiate Institute.

The Ohio Suction Sweeper is Operated by Electricity

And is One of the Best Household Cleaners on the Market—Powerful, Safe, Effective, and Without Light in Weight.

MANY ELECTRIC CLEANING MACHINES make a bid for your notice, but the Ohio stands out distinct among them all and claims your attention because of several unique features.

Foremost among these is the particular efficiency of its revolving brush, which requires none of the usual drawing back and forth, but in one passage over the floor removes lint, thread, etc., the strong suction, meanwhile, drawing all the fine, heavy dust and grime out of the carpet.

Another feature provides for the possible variety in the depths of pile of floor coverings in a house, a special contrivance allowing for the adjustment of the cleaning nozzle so that it meets the needs alike of the flat Brussels carpet and the thick hand-tufted rug.

Should you be considering the purchase of an electric cleaner, notify the Drapery Department, and a demonstrator will be sent to your house to show you the various merits of the Ohio.

The price of it is $40.00, with $10.00 extra for the special attachments.

New Papers for the Walls, and Paint for the Woodwork

Good Reasons a Plenty For Having Such Decorating Done Before the Spring Rush Begins

BEGIN YOUR SPRING DECORATING early—'tis a wise warning. For how many are the benefits you derive from taking time by the forelock in arranging for the papering and painting of your house!

At the height of the Spring season, painters and paperhangers must rush from one bit of work to another. The only date at which their services are at your disposal may not be the date most convenient to you.

Special values, too, will prevail throughout the February Sale in wall coverings suitable for all types of rooms.

If you decide to take advantage of these several inducements, a man will be sent to your house at any time you may request—to measure the rooms and give you an idea of what their papering and painting will cost.

—Fourth Floor, Queen St.

You were Inquiring?

"Molly."—Without hesitation one would suggest a sort of biscuit tan wall paper for the little boudoir you describe the same tint that appears in the rug. In fact, it seems about your only choice, in view of the red roses in the said rug and the green covers on the walnut chairs, the only color, one imagines, that would prove mutually harmonious with the red and green. In regard to the moulding, one would advise you to have it painted a melow ivory or very pale tan, having the ceiling and the "cove" below papered or tinted in the same shade. Samples of tan papers will be sent to you, "Molly," so that you can judge the effect for yourself.

"Nineteen."—Blouses in the fashionable tete de negre brown are one of the season's specialties, mamselle. You may have a model to match your suit in either crepe de Chine or Georgette crepe—in the former at $3.95 and $5.00, and in the latter at $2.95, $5.00 and $7.50. They have wide-backed collars, long sleeves, and hemstitching and embroidery by way of ornamentation.

Then, about the sweater coats: A nice belted model in Copenhagen blue or in brushed wool with white facings and roll collar has a caped $7.50. Another red model in plain knit wool with white striped sailor collar—has like-wise a cap to match. It is $15.00.

And finally, as to the combinations of new shipment is expected within a few days. They will be of that silk, wool and cotton weave with low neck and short sleeves—price, $2.00.

"Mrs. H. C. B."—"Needlecraft Books" treating of knitted laces are 4 cents a copy. A new lot of them will be available very soon.

"The Working Girl."—Since your boots are brown, you will have to get your dress to match them, won't you?—But, alas, the material must be other than silk at the price you mention. You may have a smart model in brown serge at $10.00 in fashionable chemise style, box pleated from yoke to hem, with collar of white tulle. Another in the same material shows a panel front and back with pleats at either side, the cuffs, girdle and white corded orange color silk. This is $11.75. And, after all, do you not think the cloth frock would prove more generally useful than one of silk? Besides, serge is very much a la mode, you know.

A New Book for Business Men

"The Magic Story," by Frederic van Benschelaer Dey. Reviewed by Miss Marjory Mackmurchy.

A VERY LITTLE book, which contains a highly invigorating story of how to be successful in life. The story is well told and absorbing, with something of the quality to be found in a tale by Edgar Allan Poe. A man does well in the world, then becomes a derelict. How he pulls himself together again, and tells his story for other men who are not making the best of themselves, is the theme of "The Magic Story." In other words—the words of the book—it is "the secret of being what you have it within you to be." Recommended by the publishers for business men, but applicable to the world in general.

MAY AGREE UPON BILINGUAL ISSUE

Regulation Seventeen May Be Replaced by Another, Ottawa Hears.

FERGUSON IN CAPITAL

Hon. Frank Cochrane Said to Be Working Towards Settlement.

By a Staff Reporter. Ottawa, Jan. 25.—Considerable interest attaches to the conference now going on at Ottawa between the Roman Catholic bishops and archbishops of Ontario. While nothing has been given out to the press, it is well understood that the prelates are endeavoring to reconcile the differences among the separate school supporters of the province on the bilingual question. This is admittedly difficult, in view of the different interpretations which can be given to the famous regulation 17, and an effort will be made to have that regulation so drafted as to meet the demands of French-speaking Catholics without sacrificing the underlying principle that every child in the province must be given a sound English education.

PUBLIC IS BUYING WAR CERTIFICATES

Postmaster Reports Fairly Good Demand From Those Who Would Save.

TO HELP THE WAR

Will Assist in Defeating Germany and Return Dividends to Holder.

The newly issued war certificates are now being sold at all post-offices, sub-offices and postal stations throughout the Dominion. The certificates sold in denominations of $25, $50 and $100 mature in three years, carrying an interest of about 5 1/2 per cent on the investment. Sale of these certificates, which was started in Toronto Tuesday, was characterized by Postmaster W. B. Rogers as "a fairly good start," and brought the prediction from him that Torontonians will buy a sufficient lot to place this city among those holding the lead. There has been considerable inquiry among the people here concerning the certificates. This quest for information has warranted the postmaster in sending a request to Ottawa for more circulars which will be distributed here to advertise the movement. It is probable that individuals here will buy the certificates in large blocks, but provision has been made to prevent a monopoly and give the small investor every opportunity to increase his savings. This provision is the order prohibiting any one person from investing more than $1,500 in the certificates.

WONDERFUL GROWTH FROM SMALL START

History of a Successful Public Service That Now Involves Millions.

NEW MAUSOLEUM

Most Modern Type of Building to Be Erected in Mount Pleasant.

Ninety years ago, while what is now Toronto was still "Muddy Little York," Thomas Carraire, the younger, and other inhabitants obtained a charter for the first non-sectarian cemetery.

Their entire resources consisted of seventy-five pounds currency—three hundred dollars—raised by public subscription, no individual subscription exceeding one dollar.

During the next fifteen years the needs of the city grew more rapidly. The ground at the Necropolis was found inadequate and in 1876 Mount Pleasant, two hundred acres in extent, was acquired at a cost of $20,000.

The small beginning of 1828 is now represented into the order of the ten primary properties with their valuable improvements, including extensive landscape and tree planting work, elaborate drainage and sewerage systems, etc.

about by the development of our natural resources, and of these, agriculture is the most important.

The policy of your Company has been always to favor loans on farm properties, and a large percentage of the mortgages held by us are of this class of security.

Our Government and those Companies who are largely interested in immigration are giving special attention to this work, so that when the war is ended the business of attracting settlers will receive prompt attention, and I think the prospects are favorable to Canada, proving attractive to that class who wish to engage in farming.

You will notice by the statement that the mortgages held by your Company have decreased by the amount of about $500,000. The President has referred to the fact that we have more profitable to repay considerable portion of the Debentures which matured, than to repay them at the increased rates which would have been required.

I can quite concur in your statement, Mr. President, as to the activity and efficiency of the staff generally. I think we can be very well pleased and very proud that the policy of the Company has been of such a character that at the end of two and a half years of the war we can present such a statement as this to you.

The motion for the adoption of the Report, having been put to the meeting, was unanimously carried.

Improperly Addressed Cables Cause Delay Messages for Men in France Must Be Sent Directly to That Country.

The department of militia and defence reports that considerable delay and confusion frequently results from improperly addressing in care of the war office, London, telegrams intended for officers and men serving with the Canadian Expeditionary Force in France.

It is therefore necessary in all such cases to send them by post. All cables intended for members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force in France (like telegrams for others) be sent from Canada addressed to the headquarters of the addresses of such messages, in addition to stating regimental number, name, unit, etc., to bear the words "Canadian Expeditionary Force."

The foregoing does not apply to messages which may be sent at the special non-minimum week-end letter rate to soldiers, sailors and nurses serving with the Canadian Expeditionary Force in France.

Such messages, which should be fully addressed in all cases, are forwarded by post from England by the telegraph company, and should not, therefore, be directed in care of the war office, London.

Cheap Tea Not Economical!

Many people complain about the poor flavor of the cheap tea they are using, but are trying to put up with it because they think they are saving money.

In reality, cheap tea is rarely more economical, often less economical, than Red Rose Tea.

While Red Rose Tea may cost a few cents more, or even 10 cents more per pound, than common tea three teaspoonsful of Red Rose Tea are equal to five teaspoonsful of common tea.

Less Red Rose Tea is required in the tea pot, because this master blend of Indian-Ceylon teas consists largely of the famous hill grown teas of Assam, India.

These Assam teas excel in vigor, richness and strength. Their leaves yield more liquor and a fuller flavored liquor. Blended with Ceylons they make the ideal tea for flavor and economy.

Try a sealed package of Red Rose Tea and keep count of the extra number of cups it yields in comparison with cheap tea. You will find that Red Rose is worth every cent asked for it—and that it costs no more to use this delightful tea.

DESIRE AID FOR FEEBLE-MINDED

NEEDS INFORMATION

Further Consideration Necessary Before Definite Answer is Given.

After hearing a large deputation from the Toronto branch of the Provincial Association for the care of the feeble-minded yesterday Premier Hearst said that there were a couple of questions in regard to the establishment of colony farms for the care of the high-grade feeble-minded children that he desired further information upon before he could give the deputation a decisive answer regarding the proposition, which has already been accepted by the board of education and the city council.

The project is to establish two colony farms, one for girls and the other for boys, on land provided by the city adjoining the two industrial farms. The plan is to erect cottages on this land, each large enough for 50 children, the total accommodation being for 500. The financial arrangement would be to have the city and the board of education share $100 per annum for each public school child who is taken to the colony. The deputation asked the government to provide as its share $50 per annum for the maintenance and education of each inmate.

Dr. Conboy explained the proposition, and stated that there might at first be some objection to the site being near the industrial farms, but that the children to the colony would not show any silly sentiment in the matter. He urged the immediate need of something being done in the matter before it became impossible. Only the higher grade of mental defectives would be taken, and looked after until they were 21 years of age and then would be turned over to the provincial institutions.

Wanted Reasons.

The premier asked why only the high grade feeble-minded would be taken to the colony and why they would only be supported there until the age of 21. Dr. Conboy said that the feeble-minded are the greatest menace to society and under the supervision of experts a few might be so helped that they would be able to look after them for life.

Dr. Hearst said he recognized the importance of the question and the province was prepared to do what was right and having regard to the financial situation. There were, however, some points on which he would have to confer and obtain advice. He did not know whether it was best to start with handling the high grade mental defectives only. Then turning them over to the provincial institutions after the age of 21, as it had been admitted that many of these people would be as good as dead when they were 21. He advised that the province should be satisfied with the present arrangement and that the province should be satisfied with the present arrangement.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE TO CURTAIL EXPENDITURES

Dinners and Receptions Will Be Dispensed With—Follow Governor-General's Example.

According to an authoritative statement made yesterday the usual program of dinners and receptions held at Government House during the sitting of the legislature will be curtailed this year. This course is in accordance with that adopted by their excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire at Ottawa in deciding to omit this year the usual state dinner and reception following the opening of parliament, which are two of the most important social events of the year at Rideau Hall.

Sir John and Lady Hendrie have of late given most of their time to the furtherance of patriotic work and the receptions which have taken place at Government House recently have largely been in aid of such worthy purposes. The curtailment of the usual social functions will enable them to devote even more time to these endeavours, which their interest has been keen.

Logie, the officers of the headquarters staff and the commanding officers of all the units now in camp, and form part of the comprehensive program of the military "Y" in looking after the physical and mental well-being of the city's troops.

Dr. Martin, who is a recognized specialist in the treatment of social diseases, impressed upon the men present their responsibility to Canada in safeguarding their own health. Not only would their value as fighters be appreciably decreased by morbidly, he said, but their carelessness would mean a degenerate Canadian race in the future.

"You men," Dr. Martin told them, "have volunteered to help our country in this war. See to it that you do not yourselves, by breaking the laws of health, become a direct menace to your country both before and after you return and thru the generations yet to come."

FAMOUS WAR DOG GETS HIS MEDAL

Presentation is a Feature of Humane Society's Annual Meeting.

A SUCCESSFUL YEAR Reports Show Good Work Has Been Done Thru the Year.

"Bobby Burns," the big Scotch collie owned by Pte. Jack Munro, returned member of the original Princess Patricia's Light Infantry, was presented with a medal for his services in the field by the Humane Society last evening. The medal was pinned on the dog's collar by Mrs. Genist, president of the society's oldest members. The collar which the collie wears was given by Her Royal Highness Princess Patricia.

It was the 29th annual meeting of the Humane Society and a large turnout of all interested in the welfare of animals was present. Bishop Sweney presided, and seated on the platform with him were Hon. W. D. McPherson and Lieut.-Col. H. J. Grassie.

Pte. Munro told of the assistance he had received from members of his platoon in smuggling the dog onto the boat when his unit left Canada for England. "We placed the collie in a sack and I put him on my back," he said. "Going onto the boat the officer asked me what I had in the sack, but I replied 'just an extra kit bag.'"

When we arrived at Brameshot Camp I was informed that the dog would have to be quarantined. When I told the rest of the boys they went to a nearby village and got another dog off a farmer and asked the farmer to keep the collie for a couple of days. They placed the collie's collar on the other dog and tied him to the tent. When the officer called to take the dog away, I asked him if I could have the collar and he said yes and led the dog away with a rope around his neck.

Went to the Hospital. "A short time later we left for duty in Seletum, taking Bobby Burns with us. When I was wounded the dog went with me to the hospital and when I was discharged spent many happy days in London with me."

W. D. McPherson paid a high tribute to Pte. Munro, whom he had known for many years. The provincial secretary also brought home to those present the problem that was before the people in making arrangements for the return of civil life to those who come back from the war zone.

According to the secretary's yearly report, there has been a general improvement in the conditions under which horses live and work in this city. The association are of the opinion that the time is coming when, if only for the sake of agriculture in Ontario, the government will recognize the value of the Humane Societies by making such a grant as will enable the Toronto society to send its representatives to form societies outside of this city.

By co-operating with the home-owned the police and the medical health department much good work had been accomplished by the society's officers during the past year.

WHITE BEAT BLACK IN NOTABLE FIGHT Welling and Johnson Indulge in First Mixed Battle Since the Ban.

New York, Jan. 26.—In the first fight between a black man and a white man since the state boxing commission put a ban on mixed fights, Joe Welling, a Chicago lightweight, had little trouble in outpointing Lou Johnson, the second Joe Gans.

Welling took his time and hooked left to the body. Johnson, who has never been in the ring before, was a little out of his one-time champion.

The weights were announced as: Welling, 135; Johnson, 134. The referee was Bill Moore.

First round—They shook hands and clinched. Johnson tried to get away from Welling, but Joe hooked the colored fighter into a corner where he patted him with hard rights. Johnson next clipped Welling on the jaw with his right.

Second round—Johnson was afraid to fight to the limit. He danced around a right to face. Welling's round was a matter of jumping for the face, but Welling blocked these and sent in several punches to the head.

Third round—The smoke opened the round, stepping around the Chicagoan and putting a knee into Welling's side. Welling blocked these and sent in several punches to the head.

Fourth round—After sparring a moment, Welling forced Johnson to retreat, who he swung some hard blows to the body. Johnson tried to get away from Welling, but Joe hooked the colored fighter into a corner where he patted him with hard rights.

Fifth round—The negro bored in with hard rights to the body. Welling stopped the rally with a few hard punches to the head. Johnson then started another rally with lefts and rights to the head.

Sixth round—Johnson, after feinting a moment, punched Joe on the jaw with his left and right. Johnson then started another rally with lefts and rights to the head.

Seventh round—They went into a clinch. Both sent lefts and rights to the face. The negro took a good many lefts on the face in this round, when he attempted to stand up.

Eighth round—Johnson put a left to the body and back with two rights and lefts to the face. After a clinch, Johnson danced around and landed in, only to receive a right on the ribs.

Ninth round—Johnson danced around Welling. Joe waited for him, then shot a wicked right to the jaw. Johnson put a hard left swing to the jaw.

Tenth round—Johnson was a tired boxer in this session. He held Welling's arm and tried to get away from him.

Recommendation.

New York, Jan. 26.—The fact that the State Racing Commission, in the fulfillment of its duties, has seen fit to make a plea for the pari-mutuel system of betting in relation to the sport of horse racing, is almost conclusive proof that the individual support of many members of the Jockey Club and others who are interested in the development of the breeding industry. While the Jockey Club is in a position similar to that of the individual support of many members of the Jockey Club and others who are interested in the development of the breeding industry, it is generally considered that, if the legislation which may do much to further the interests of nearly all concerned with the sport at the present time and as a means to an end of guaranteeing that racing will not be interfered with by opponents of the sport.

POUGHKEEPSIE REGATTA DATES.

New York, Jan. 26.—The Inter-College Rowing Association makes the announcement that the Poughkeepsie Regatta will be held on Thursday, June 21, and next year on Tuesday, June 25. As the distance has never been shorter than four miles, excepting in 1898 at Saratoga Lake, there is likelihood of shorter courses being adopted before long. The idea is not an unattractive one. It should be a three-mile race, decided by the time the regatta is held. It was arranged to start the races this week as follows: Junior variety at 4.15, the freshmen at 4 o'clock, and the variety at 6.15. The members of the board present at the meeting were Charles Halstead, president, Columbia, chairman; Charles E. Truman, Cornell, and E. Howard Eisenberg, Frank.

ALAS! BILL BINGHAM HAS RETIRED.

Boston, Jan. 26.—Bill Bingham, the great runner of the Boston A.A., has retired. He graduated from Harvard last spring, where he was the star of the track team for three years, and for four years previous to his graduation he was the best runner behind Ted Meredith when the latter won that great half mile race at the 'tricollegiate' last spring, and at the 'meet' of that race announced the retirement, but Coach Brown of the Boston A.A. managed to get him to promise to help him out for a while. Brown says today that he thought nothing could make Bingham don track shoes again.

City Physicians Explain Why They Prescribe Nuxated Iron

To Make Beautiful, Healthy Women and Strong, Vigorous Men NOW BEING USED BY OVER THREE MILLION PEOPLE ANNUALLY

Quickly transforms the flabby flesh, toneless tissues and pallid cheeks of weak, anemic men and women into a perfect glow of health and beauty—Often increases the strength of delicate, nervous, run-down folks 200 per cent. in two weeks' time.

New York, N.Y.—It is conservatively estimated that over three million people annually in this country alone are taking Nuxated Iron.

Such astonishing results have been reported from its use both by doctors and laymen, that a number of physicians in various parts of the country have been asked to explain why they prescribe it so extensively, and why it apparently produces so much better results than were obtained from the old forms of iron.

Dr. King, a New York physician and authority on the subject, says: "There can be no vigorous iron tonic unless it contains Nuxated Iron."

"A female means iron deficiency. The skin of anemic men and women is sallow and the hair falls out. The muscles lack tone, the brain fags and the memory fails, and they often become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks."

"In the most common foods of America—the starches, sugars, table syrups, candies, polished rice, white bread, soda crackers, biscuits, macaroni, spaghetti, tapioca, sago, farina, degenerated corn-meal no longer is iron to be found. Repeating processes have removed the iron from Mother Earth from these impoverished foods, and silly methods of home cooking, by throwing down the waste-pipe the water in which our vegetables are cooked, is responsible for another grave iron loss. Therefore, if you wish to preserve your youthful vim and vigor to a ripe old age, have a must—prescribe Nuxated Iron. It is the iron tonic of the future."

Dr. V. Von Unruh, M.D., Director-in-Chief of the New York State Hospital, says: "I have prescribed Nuxated Iron for a number of years and have been more than pleased with its results and will continue its use."

Dr. Bauer, a Boston physician, who has studied both in this country and in Great Britain, says: "I have used Nuxated Iron a hundred times over, and

BLONDIN EXPLAINS

He Did Not Defend Allison, But Stated Britain Bore Money Loss.

CONSCRIPTION BOGEY

Blondin Says He Tried to Show Measure Would Be Unworkable.

Special to The Toronto World.

St. Rose, Que., Jan. 26.—Hon. P. E. Blondin today made, thru his lieutenant here, Felix Duberger, a statement in reply to the Liberal charges that the minister had uttered disloyal sentiments at a meeting Wednesday night at St. Rose.

Mr. Blondin said: "The statement which has been sworn to by certain Liberals with regard to my utterances is a distortion of my words. I never by any means intended to convey the meaning which they have attached to my speech."

"Mr. Cannon has been stating in his speeches that the Conservative party has been grafting from the Canadian treasury in connection with munitions contracts. In my speech at St. Rose on Wednesday night I explained that it was not true that the Allison scandal had to do with Canadian money pointing out that the money paying for the shells was money from the British Government. I did not imply in any way that Allison had done anything wrong, but merely that he was not stating the fact when he said that Allison had robbed the Canadian people."

"As regards the conscription matter, the explanation is similar. I told the people of St. Rose that I did not believe conscription would be necessary because so many Canadians were eager to go and fight for the cause of liberty and humanity. I added that if any of them were afraid of conscription, if conscription should be passed and they did not want to go to the war, they had a remedy left. They could go across the United States, which is not far away, and escape military service. For that reason, I told them they had no reason to be afraid of conscription."

Mr. Blondin spoke last night at St. Prosper, and tonight, on the eve of polling day, he will hold three meetings in the committee room at St. Rose.

TURRIF MAKES BITTER CHARGES

He charged that $30,000 of the Canadian troops in England were medically unfit to go to the front, and that thousands of Canadian soldiers had been killed in action with useless rifles in their hands long after the government had learned that the Ross rifle was inefficient. He promised on a future occasion to deal with the nickel question.

Mr. Turriff also Mr. Copp, the Liberal member for Westmoreland, who preceded him, demanded a parliamentary committee to investigate the charges brought against the government by Sir Sam Hughes in his celebrated correspondence with Sir Robert Borden. Mr. Kye, the Liberal member for Richmond, N.S., who became famous at the last session in connection with the Ross rifle was named in the adjournment of the debate.

On the other side of the day, Hon. T. W. Crothers, minister of labor, replying to a question from Mr. Allison (Pictou), asked that negotiations were in progress which would probably result in a satisfactory settlement of the impending coal strike in the Pictou district within the next few days.

An investigation by an officer of his department had disclosed that the price of living had advanced in the district 8-15 per cent. since Aug. 15, 1916. Mr. Crothers said that the price of living had advanced in the district 8-15 per cent. since Aug. 15, 1916.

Mr. Copp (Westmoreland), resuming the adjourned debate on the address, said he was much struck with the proposed for a national government advanced by the member for South York (W. F. Maclean), but he could not support the same without further examination. It would be further examination to show that he had 15 men of national size in the cabinet, but it would necessitate the retirement of 14 out of the 15 gentlemen who were now seated on the treasury benches.

After discussing at some length the famous Borden-Hughes correspondence, Mr. Copp introduced a resolution that the government should be asked to go and fight for the cause of liberty and humanity. I added that if any of them were afraid of conscription, if conscription should be passed and they did not want to go to the war, they had a remedy left. They could go across the United States, which is not far away, and escape military service. For that reason, I told them they had no reason to be afraid of conscription."

Mr. Blondin spoke last night at St. Prosper, and tonight, on the eve of polling day, he will hold three meetings in the committee room at St. Rose.

THE DOMINION BANK

The Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders will be held at the Head Office of the Bank in Toronto on Wednesday, 31st January, 1917, at 12 o'clock noon.

By order of the Board. C. A. BOGERT, General Manager. Toronto, 5th January, 1917.

Record of Yesterday's Markets

Table with columns: TORONTO STOCKS, STANDARD STOCK EXCHANGE, and various stock listings with prices and changes.

PRICE OF SILVER

London, Jan. 26.—Bar silver, 37-1/2. New York, Jan. 26.—Bar silver, 77c.

SELL SECURITIES TO BUY NEW WAR BONDS

Dealings on London Exchange Not Large—Consols at Lowest Point.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, Jan. 26.—A great rush to subscribe to the new war loan before the end of the month, in order to obtain the extra interest privilege, resulted in small selling of securities on the stock exchange.

Consols were weak at the lowest point on record. As a whole the gilt-edged section was mixed, with operations limited.

Americans were checked and inactive, Canadians were featureless. Dividends sustained home rails.

Generally the foreign department was firm on the announcement that the treasury had been empowered to requisition any foreign securities required for exchange purposes.

Lists of stocks wanted for sale or deposit with the treasury will be published periodically.

Allied bonds were cheerful. Mines were slow. Rubbers were dull.

De Beers closed at 14 and Rand Mines at 3 3/4.

J. P. BICKELL BECOMES MONTYRE PRESIDENT

Local Broker to Succeed the Late Col. A. M. Hay.

The directors of the McIntyre Porcupine Mines Co. met yesterday and chose Mr. J. P. Bickell, the well-known local broker, to succeed the late Col. A. M. Hay as president of the company.

Mr. Bickell has been connected with the company practically since its infancy, and has been a member of the board of directors since 1913, being retained on the new directorate in May, 1915, when the late Col. Hay became president.

Mr. Bickell's knowledge and experience with the company, gained during its growth from a struggling, little known property of a struggling position as one of the big mines in the north country, makes him especially fitted for the office to which he has been elected.

Mr. Bickell was the owner of the 34 acres underlying the waters of Pearl Lake which he sold to the McIntyre company several years ago.

Mr. E. F. Johnston was chosen as director to fill Mr. Bickell's place, and other bonds were steady.

FIRMER UNDERTONE TO TORONTO STOCKS

Mackay and Dominion Steel Stronger and Hollinger Higher in Unlisted Stocks.

The undertone to the Toronto stock market was stronger yesterday in a few issues, but the buying power was light and the extent of transactions was small.

Mackay and Dominion Steel were strong stocks both apparently feeling the influence of something more than pure speculative purchases.

Porto Rico was introduced to the market for the first time for a long while and made its entrance with some activity and the advance of a point.

The unlisted department gave some further attention to the mining stocks, Hollinger being in demand with sales as high as 700.

The action of the market offered no special inducement yesterday to traders and any outside buying came from those desiring to hold stocks for dividend purposes or in anticipation of dividend announcements.

THE SILVER MARKET. Rixley and Abell of London, in their weekly letter have the following on silver:

Apart from a few purchases for the Indian bazars, the coinage demand has again been the mainstay of this market, and large amounts have been secured for the mints, some portion of these offerings being for forward delivery in anticipation of production.

Doubtless the present high level has been taken advantage of by some of the producers. Re-sales have also been largely in evidence.

It is to be hoped that the present policy of large purchases for Indian coinage will be continued and that its effect will be marked in the Indian treasury returns, thus increasing facilities for the remittance of money to India.

MARKET TREND UPWARDS. Heron & Co. report: Montreal, Jan. 26.—The market showed some signs of improvement today. Quebec rallied two and a half points and the stock issues and car stocks were decidedly strong.

The tendency of market is toward higher prices, but it will take some time to get out of the rut into which it has fallen.

PARIS BOURSE. Paris, Jan. 26.—Trading was light on the bourse today. Three per cent. rentes, 82 francs 20 centimes for cash. Exchange on London, 27 francs, 3 1/4 centimes.

DULUTH-SUPERIOR EARNINGS. The Duluth-Superior Traction Co. comparative weekly statement of gross passenger earnings for month of January, 1917: Month to date, $96,469.72; 1916, $115,115. Increase, $18,645.77; per cent., 16.15.

HAMILTON BANK CLEARINGS. Bank clearings in Hamilton for the comparative week ending January 26th, were $4,372,118, as against $3,139,088 in 1916 and $2,861,837 in 1915.

The Home-Lovers' Club Enables You to Buy at Cash Prices and Have the Payments Spread Out Over a Convenient Period

Sometimes the big saving opportunities on home furnishings come at the wrong season for many people—that is, they may not be prepared with enough cash to make the large outlay that buying rugs and furniture usually entails. For these people we have organized the Home-Lovers' Club. Any member of the Home-Lovers' Club may purchase home furnishings at sale prices, have the purchases delivered immediately, and have the payments spread out over a convenient period.

This is not the ordinary "credit buying plan," for there is no interest to pay and there is but one price—that is the cash price, for all our customers.

There is no expense and no inconvenience in being a member of the Home-Lovers' Club. All old members of the club may have additional purchases charged to their accounts, and those who are not members are invited to join. See Club Secretary, Fourth Floor, for further information.

Get our prices on Paper-hanging and Painting. Estimators will call upon request. We have our own staff of expert workmen.
