CLOVER

GILLESPIE & SADLER,

The London Railway Times takes a rather gloomy view of the financial condition of the Canada Pacific. Speaking of the three per cent dividend guaranteed by the government, it says :-"It is really an annuity running for a further period of four years from now, Coggon, Geo. Traer.

Advertising:—J. D. Creaghan, Ben and to replace the capital sunk in its purchase in 1884. An annual sinking fund would be indispensible before any addition to the rate of distribution could be entertained. Before the later Larkin Buckley, James Evans, Joseph date can be reached many things might happen in the philosophy of the Canadian Pacific, which might have the prosaic effect of tempering so much rash enterprise on its part with an unacustomed admixture of caution."
