Some ten years ago Miss Mulock wrote a story for an English magazine, which was so good that it was copied in Harper's Monthly. It was forgotten in English sooner than it deserved, but a Frenchman kept his eye on it. Two or three years ago he translated it, changed the names, and appended his own signature to it. A reader of the Revue translated it from the French for Every Saturday, in which it was published with something of a flourish before the real origin of the story was discovered. It is a curious circumstance that another reader of the Revue in a New England city also translated it, with a change of names, and sent it to a Boston editor as an original story.

Yesterday a deputation reprerenting fifty-two Chambers of Commerce waited on Lords Derby and Carnarvon to present objections to the proposed Canadian Reciprocity Treaty with the United States.

A report will be made that no evidence of corrupt practices was given.

Sampson Lloyd said that under the proposed Treaty the manufacturers of England were placed at a great disadvantage compared with those of the United States. The Treaty is unfair in principle, and exceedingly injurious in its practical effects. He wished to submit a general principle that in any case where a British colony independently negotiated a treaty with a foreign country, England should not be placed in a worse position than such a foreign country.

Derty replied that the Government had agreed to this principle.

Mr. Baron, representing Leeds, said he did not desire to have a protective clause. He only wished Canada not to grant the United States anything more than England.

Derby then replied at length. He sail:

If for any supposed interest of our own, we objected to the Treaty establishing such freedom, it is perfectly clear that discontent among loyal Canadians would result. Those attached to the Imperial Government who, I believe, universally preponderate would lend strength to the party which look forward to annexation to the United States. I apprehend that the view of those who suppose that this Treaty establishes differential duties in favor of America, is that the duties on American goods were to be diminished at once, whereas duties on the same class of in all the fashionable colors. nov3 48 PRINCE WM. You say there is no grant and the commercial relations of England and Canada cannot be dealt with an a Treaty with a foreign power. They are relations of a purely domestic character. If any Canadian Parliament were hereafter to seek to impose differential duties, the Governor General would be competent to reserve such an act to the consideration of the Home Government. I make the statement clearly and distinctly that there is nothing in this Treaty which, considering the relations of the Mother Country with the Colonies, would make it possible for Canada to impose differential duties on England in favor of the United States."

Wanted And Sold Cake Baker, at 120 Prince citle if the POETRY AND SONG:

Edited by

DR. J. G. (HOLLAND,
Author of "Kathrina," 'Bitter Sweet," etc.

PAVORITE SONG is a royal octave in the best style of the art, on the finest tinted paper, and illustrated with 125 thoroughly dainty and delicate engravings, FROM ORIGINAL DISSIGNS, by the similes of the original autograph copies of (20) famous poems.

The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought. What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the enchanting spot where—

"Maud Muller, on a summer's day."
One of those lovely New England land-scapes, which the engraver has represented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns.

Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, is the illustration accompanying the "Song of the Brook," where the streamlet, dashing beneath the rustic bridge, goes chattering goes chattering goes chattering goes chattering for the prima ng river."

Altogether, this is one of the most charming and elegant books ever issued by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament for the parlor table; a valuable addition to any family library.
