ARE YOU INTERESTED IN GREENWOOD?

A Meeting Called of all Those Interested in the New Greenwood Cemetery—Everyone Should Attend

Every person who has any interest whatsoever in Greenwood Cemetery is urged to attend a public meeting in the Neighborhood Theatre at 7.30 on Monday, August 28.

At this meeting the committee in charge of the improvements in the cemetery will give a report and it will be of interest to everyone who has a loved one buried on the hill, and to everyone who has a spark of pride in the town. A particular invitation is extended to those living outside the town, whether far or near, but who have a real interest in the cemetery, either by reason of having friends buried there or through a desire to stand loyal to their old home town.

The movement for improving the cemetery was started in May, receiving its greatest impulse through an article appearing in The Observer. The town council appointed a committee to look into the matter and soon afterward a number of interested citizens met and it was resolved to organize under the provincial law the Greenwood Cemetery Association, Limited. The permanent committee in charge consists of R. J. Fots, chairman, H. H. Hatfield, W. B. Nixon, G. B. Nixon, A. F. Campbell, J. E. MacCollom and Fred H. Stevens. The committee purchased a lot of land from Charles Bradley and another from W. P. MacMullin, at a cost of $1100, and men have been at work all summer under the competent direction of William Curtis, who gives his services entirely free, so that the old burying ground has been completely transformed. From its previous state of dereliction and decay, it now has the appearance that those who are buried there are not forgotten, and the general impression a visitor would receive is that the thought of a Resurrection is not an impossible or an unreasonable one. Most of the graves are well cared for and many new stones have been erected this year.

It is the intention of the association to have a permanent caretaker who will keep the premises in neat condition, caring for all graves alike whether they be of the rich or poor.

So far there has been no campaign for funds to carry the work on and as stated, land purchases have amounted to $1100, while George F. Burt has donated a block of land which he owned. Other expenses to date amount to about $400 more.

The object of the meeting on Monday is to call together those who are interested, and sufficiently interested to contribute to the general funds of the association. There will be a number who will gladly subscribe $100 or possibly $200, while there will be others who may not be able to give more than $1, but all should come and do their share. Those living out of town who cannot attend, but who wish to be in with the others may remit their contribution to Fred H. Stevens, secretary treasurer. Between now and Monday all who have an interest in the grave yard should make it a point to visit the place and see what development there has been.

Don't forget the meeting on Monday evening. Be there!

THE POTATO OUTLOOK

The digging of potatoes for market has not yet commenced and up to the present there is absolutely no market. In Aroostook county potatoes are being sold for 70 cents a barrel and since it is necessary to pay nearly a $1 a barrel duty there is no hope of New Brunswick potatoes getting into the States until the price reaches $2 or more a barrel. This is not likely to be the case.

The yield of potatoes in the upper St. John valley will hardly be an average crop. In many fields one disease or another has made its appearance which will cut the yield very considerably. It is not likely that digging for market will commence under two or three weeks and both farmers and shippers are living in hope of a favorable Cuban market.

VALUABLE CATTLE POISONED

Out of a herd of 20 Holstein cattle pastured four miles from town on the Houlton road, 11 were found dead on Friday morning from poisoning and four are missing, presumably having wandered into the woods and died there. The cattle belonged to Harry Rogers, who is about to open a meat market here. Sheriff Foster, Deputy Sheriff H. V. Moores and Chief Kelly are investigating the case and it is thought the evidence secured will warrant an immediate arrest.—Press.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS' CONFERENCE

A Christian Workers' Conference was held in the Methodist church at Woodstock, Tuesday to Friday, Aug. 15 to 18. Morning sessions 8.30-11.45; evening, 7.45-9.15. Afternoons for recreation at Island Park, where the popular game of "Volley Ball" was thoroughly enjoyed by all who participated. The ladies of the Presbyterian, United Baptist, Reformed Baptist and Methodist churches furnished splendid picnic suppers for all. It was voted unanimously to ask the M. R. E. C. to provide for Woodstock next year a "Summer School of Methods," the same as at Sackville and Wolfville, with a regular course of Teacher Training, with diplomas given for those completing the course.

BECAGUIMAC BRIDGE BEING REPLACED

The steel superstructure and concrete floor of the highway bridge across the Becaguimac which was carried from its foundation and badly bent and twisted in the fire of June 22, is being replaced by a crew of workmen employed by the Dominion Bridge Company of Montreal.

During the past week traffic over the main trunk road of the St. John valley has been entirely held up by the rebuilding of the bridge, and tourist travel and trade in general has been seriously inconvenienced. No notice was given that the bridge would be closed other than a few words marked in blue chalk on a small piece of board, and the result has been that every day cars have come down to the bridge only to find that it was necessary to go back three miles to Simonds, ferry or twelve miles to the Florenceville bridge.

On Saturday night the workmen quit without making any provision against the possibilities of cars or other vehicles coming to grief by driving directly into the stream, which would have been a straight drop of twenty feet or more. That evening no less than twenty cars were held up and after dark a stranger from Fredericton, drove merrily forward and just escaped going into the water, which probably have been a tragedy. The road was not barricaded and no lights were placed to prevent an accident. Soon as the town authorities heard of the condition they hastily prepared a barricade and hung lanterns thereon. Who ever is responsible for this neglect, which might have proved criminal, should be brought to task.

GREEN-HAMILTON

A very pretty but quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton, Greenfield, at four o'clock, August 9, when their only daughter, Vida Gertrude, was united in marriage to Sperry L. Green, Summerfield, by Rev. G. A. Giberson, uncle of the bride.

Miss Hamilton who was unattended was very attractively gowned in a dress of blue silk with the conventional veil and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Ella Giberson of Bath, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march.

Only the immediate family and close friends of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony and at the wedding supper, which was at once served and the happy couple left by auto on their honeymoon to Pittsfield and North New Portland, Maine.

The bride is one of Carleton county's most popular teachers and the very efficient organist of the Methodist church at Summerfield. The groom is junior partner of the enterprising firm of Gideon Green & Son, Summerfield, and also a member of the choir as cornetist.

On Friday evening, August 18, on the return of Mr. and Mrs. Sherry Green many friends assembled at their home and Rev. D. R. Chown of Florenceville on behalf of the Methodist Church and Sunday School, presented them with a silver tea service as a small token of their esteem.

CHAUTAUQUA BEING GREATLY ENJOYED

This is Chautauqua week in Hartland, Florenceville and Woodstock and in all places the entertainments are meeting with hearty approval and genuine appreciation. The big tent was erected at Hartland on Monday afternoon and the program that evening by the Dunbar Quartette and Bell Ringers was heard to the great pleasure of all. Tuesday afternoon and evening gave the lovers of classic music a real treat. Miss Hughes' marvelous soprano and the wonderful technique exhibited by Mr. Bawden captivated the hearts of those who love the best there is in music. In the evening the Great Lakes String Quartette rendered music that enthralled the large audience, and although it was expected that a program so purely classic would weary a large proportion of the audience, such apparently was not the case. Yesterday's program by four artists amply sustained the quality of the preceding events. On Monday evening Mr. Poole's lecture and that of Mr. Norwood last evening were inspirational, educative, and highly interesting withal. This afternoon and evening the White Hussars, a large musical troupe, will be the entertainers, and this event is being looked forward to as something that will readily strike the popular fancy.

Tomorrow night "Turn to the Right" will provide a full evening's entertainment, while perhaps the most popular of all will be "Buck-er's Jubilee Singers" on Saturday night.

On Sunday at 3 p.m. there will be a religious program in the big tent under the direction of the local pastors. Superintendent Reeves will be the speaker and the Dixie Jubilee Singers will give a musical program entirely suited to the occasion. No admission fee will be charged for this program and the general public is invited. An offering to defray expenses will be taken.

Hartland Chautauqua just failed to go over the top from a financial standpoint. The guarantors have been compelled to make good just a trifle more than the cost of a season ticket for each. It is earnestly hoped that the present enthusiasm will be deep enough to engage a return of Chautauqua next year.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT JACKSONVILLE

Shortly after midnight Friday night fire broke out in the barns of Wm. P. Kimball (the old Joseph Harvey homestead), on the Jacksonville road, burnt the barns, which were full of hay and grain, three horses, sheep and hogs and other cattle. The fire spread to the house and the barns of Tabor (the old Charles Emery homestead) and destroyed these with all their contents with the exception of the furniture, which was saved. The loss will be very heavy.

Mr. Kimball had light insurance, but The Observer is informed that Mr. Tabor carried $5000.

HOSPITAL AND FINANCES

In the last issue of Le Madawaska the unsigned writer continues his article on a supposititious fact that we do not need a hospital in Edmundston. He still continues to talk about St. Basile. He is, in fact, hiding behind the Hotel Dieu at St. Basile. He is trying to prove that which cannot be proved—which our old friend Euclid says is absurd. For you cannot prove, however good the Hospital is at St. Basile is, that we do not need one here. He speaks of Montreal, and says that there are people in that city living four miles away from a hospital. The writer does not doubt that there are people living four miles away from a hospital in Montreal, but the chief thing is that not all the people are living four miles away from a hospital there—only a small portion of them. THE HOSPITALS IN THE CITY OF MONTREAL ARE PLACED WHERE THE POPULATION IS THE GREATEST. But in Edmundston we all live from four to four hundred miles away from a hospital. The writer in our esteemed contemporary surely never studied logic.

Not only does the writer of the articles in Le Madawaska know that we do not need a hospital here, but he knows what the cost of a hospital would be, and rashly sets down figures. I must confess however that I would have more confidence in those figures if they came from an expert, which I do not think our nameless friend is. Continuing the article he says "If he (The Observer) is really anxious for the welfare of the people, why doesn't he start a campaign for the much needed amelioration of the St. Basile Hospital?"

Here again we find inconsistency in thought. Last week we were told that everything that could be desired was at St. Basile, and now the editor is invited to start a campaign for the better equipment of that place. And most heartily will the editor accede to that request, after we have a hospital of our own here. But another question comes to mind here. Why does not Le Madawaska start this campaign itself, instead of wasting time trying to prove that an industrial population of five thousand people can be served by a hospital several miles away? Finally Le Madawaska says "We do not accuse the Observer of wrong doing but we repeat it again, The Observer does not know the question enough to discuss it in a practical way. Let him think it over and he will see where he is wrong."

The Editor has been thinking it over and he does see where our esteemed contemporary Le Madawaska is wrong. As regards being able to discuss it in a practical way, we leave it to the reader to say whether the Observer of Le Madawaska has confined itself to facts, and discussed the matter from the practical standpoint, keeping the discussion fair, and withal being courteous.

And again the Observer repeats Edmundston needs a hospital, for her own inhabitants, in her own town limits, supported by her own people, and whether it costs sixteen thousand or sixty thousand, she still needs it. Edmundston is not complete, has not attained her place until she has an institution for the care of her sick and injured. WHY NOT A HOSPITAL FOR EDMUNDSTON?

JOHN HARDWICK.

THE SCHOOLS

Next week the Schools will open again for the fall and winter.

Summer is exceedingly short to the school-boy and winter comes too soon. School even with all the modern conception of what school should be, is considered by the growing boy as a compulsory thing and hateful because of that. And yet the school is the most important thing in the life of the child outside of the religious and moral training of the home and the church. The influence of the teachers upon their pupils is a life long influence. The impressions they make upon the life of the boy or girl is like an impression upon dampened clay. How many of us, who have grown to staid manhood or womanhood look back with affection upon some teachers and with feelings of anything but affection to others?

For nine months of the year, five days of the week, morning and afternoon, our children are intrusted to the care of care of men and women who are to impart to them the elementary lessons of learning. May the teachers in these plastic days of reconstruction see their opportunity and not only teach the reading, writing, and arithmetic of their schedules, but teach their pupils some of the basic principles of life and thus make their impression a living impression in the heart and life of the growing child.

RETURNED WITH A VISITOR

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas W. C. Stevens and children, of Edmundston, arrived in the city last evening by auto, on their return to their homes, after a two weeks' tour of Nova Scotia, Moncton and Elgin, Albert Co. They were accompanied by T. A. Goggin, of Elgin, who is taking a trip to Woodstock, in Carleton County, Presque Isle, Port Fairfield and Caribou, Maine, where Mr. Goggin is purposing to study the conditions of potato raising in the district for that industry in the sections mentioned. He will be away three weeks. While here Mr. Goggin and his friends are guests of his daughter, Mrs. William Sutherland, Brookville. They leave for Woodstock today. Mr. Goggin is a Councillor of Albert County and a leading farmer as well. Douglas Stevens is a prosperous druggist of the firm of Stevens Bros., having large stores in Woodstock, Edmundston and Centreville.—St. John Journal.

So genuinely good is its reputation in our Home Provinces here in the East, folks who like good Tea are wont to say: "We use RED ROSE TEA."

The fine quality of RED ROSE COFFEE will please particular people.

The Silk Worm and His Product

JAPAN has a monopoly of the silk industry of the Orient. The Japanese have achieved this triumph as the result of an early appreciation of the value of organization and standardizing, and by reason of their skill in perfecting a raw silk adapted to high power American machines. Silk is the chief Japanese export.

The silk worm therefore is the special pet and pride of the Japanese people, and all thought and care is devoted to making his surroundings such as will conduce to his comfort, health, and happiness. This is no slight task. At least 4,000 years of breeding for silk alone has told on his probably once robust constitution, and the silk worm is now a temperamental little fellow, subject to devastating epidemics and greatly influenced by atmospheric changes of an unfriendly nature. It is only fair to say, however, that while with us he devotes his little mind entirely to business and wastes not one of the comparatively few moments granted him in this life. He comes into the world as a tiny pink egg accompanied by five or six hundred brothers and sisters, and for a few days rests in the dark of small trays covered with paper in which tiny holes are made. On emerging from the egg his attention is attracted by the bright lights of these pin-holes. He climbs up to enquire what they mean, and working his way through them, finds himself betrayed into a world of toil and trouble, as many a human being has been and will continue to be as long as bright lights glow.

The only thing he brings with him is a first class appetite, and the mulberry he loves must be chosen with tender care in order to work up his strength to the task of producing a fine strand of silk. For about a month he devotes his entire attention to meals, which amount to a practical continuous performance, with the exception of three or four short periods during which he changes his skin to one that more comfortably conforms to his fast increasing bulk. At these times care is taken to keep him from disturbing noises, although modern writers on the subject do not state that he is inspired to greater effort by music served with his meals. If not, it is perhaps because Oriental music would more favor distraction than the contemplative calm most conducive to the silk worm's task of putting on weight.

Having become a full-grown silk worm, he sets about the serious business of life, the spinning of the cocoon and eight to twelve hundred continuous yards of silken thread. This takes three or four days, and in most cases, his life shortly afterwards ends in hot water, as might be expected of one so early showing a predilection for bright lights. The hot water enables the silk farmer to easily unwind the cocoon into a skein of glossy, golden colored, raw silk all ready for the mills.

A few of his relations are picked out to carry on the good work, but even for these life has few joys. It is a long sleep of several months, an emerging from the cocoon as a winged moth that cannot fly, and the immediate setting about the business of laying another five or six hundred tiny eggs. When that supreme task is completed the little life goes out, probably tired of a world in which most of the fun has to be got out of eating, and its first few weeks of life are swift. There are a dozen processes of winding, washing, weaving and coloring through which it must go, and the less time that these processes take, the better. A train load of silk represents a great amount of money. The interest on its value, and the premiums on its insurance total up tremendously. That is why every effort is made to get the finished product into the dealer's hands at the earliest possible moment.

A record in the transshipment of silk from Japan to New York was recently made by the C.P.R. On April 29, the Canadian Pacific steamer "Empress of Russia," left Yokohama carrying in her cargo 3,000 bales of silk for New York. Two minutes later the "Bay State," another Pacific liner, left a near-by dock with 1,600 bales of silk bound for the same destination. It was a race across the Pacific Ocean and the American continent, and silk and shipping men of two continents watched for the result. On arrival at Vancouver the "Empress of Russia" silk was placed on a special train, which was ordered to make all possible speed to New York. The silk was delivered there at 5:20 p.m. May 12, while the cargo of the "Bay State" was not delivered until 7:30 a.m. May 15, the Canadian Pacific through time from Yokohama to New York having been 62 hours and 1 minute faster than that of the rival line, and a record established. Despite the fact that it was a 17 car train, the time consumed between Vancouver and Prescott, Ontario, was only 3 days, 17 hours, and 57 minutes. Canada's fastest regular passenger train is the C.P.R. "Transcontinental Limited," which runs from Montreal to Vancouver in 82 hours, and from Toronto to Vancouver in 88 hours, leaving both cities daily. The shipping of this silk has definitely settled the supremacy of the Canadian route as the quickest to and from the Orient, and means much to the future trade of Canada.

HAMILTON-GREEN

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 9, when Miss Vida G. Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton was married to Sperry Green of Summerfield. Rev. G. A. Giberson, uncle of the bride, was the officiating clergyman.

The bridal march taken from "The Rose Maiden" was sweetly played by Miss Ella Giberson.

The bride is a very popular young lady of Summerfield. She was also organist in the Methodist church and for which the ladies of the Auxilliary presented her with a beautiful silver tea service. She also received a number of other presents besides a purse of money.

The bride was married in blue satin with a white veil and a gorgeous bouquet of carnations and sweet peas.

After a bounteous repast the bride and groom left by auto for a two weeks trip, visiting the important cities of Maine.

GRANT-BAGLEY

On August 9, a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Bagley at Grafton, when their daughter Grace M. was united in marriage to Ezra F. Grant of Lower Southampton.

The bride was given away by her father. Miss Vera MacFarlane acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Garfield Gibson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. V. Bragdon in the presence of invited guests. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of navy blue silk. Her going away dress was of navy with hat to match. The bride was recipient of many gifts.

After the ceremony a sumptuous lunch was served, tables groaning under their loads of delicacies. The hap-

Could Not Eat

Constipation is caused by a torpid condition of the liver. Dosing with salts, castor oil, etc., to move the bowels, cannot afford more than temporary relief.

If you are to rid yourself of this ailment and the scores of annoying symptoms and diseases which come in its wake, it is necessary to get the liver right by such treatment as is suggested in this letter:

Mrs. Alvin Richards, R. R. No. 1, Seely's Bay, Ont., writes: "For two years I was afflicted with indigestion, and in the morning when I got up my breath was bad. I had a poor appetite, and just felt like eating certain foods. I used many different medicines as a laxative without benefit, and the doctor's medicine did not help me at all. Finally I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and found them better than anything I had ever tried. I can highly recommend them to anyone troubled with constipation or kidney troubles."

VERY MUCH A MASON

The first Masonic funeral that ever occurred in California took place in 1849, and was performed over a brother who foundered in the Bay of San Francisco. An account of the ceremony states that on the deceased was found a silver mark of a Mason, upon which were engraved the initials of his name. A little further investigation revealed to the beholder the most singular exhibition of Masonic emblems that was ever drawn by the ingenuity of man upon the human skin. There is nothing in the history of tradition of Freemasonry equal to it. Beautifully dotted on his left arm, in red and blue ink, which time could not efface, appeared all the emblems of the entire apprenticeship. There was the Holy Bible, square and compass, the twenty-four inch gauge and common gavel. There were also the Masonic Pavement, representing the ground floor of King Solomon's Temple, the identical tessellated which surrounds it, and the blazing star in the centre. On his right arm, and artistically executed in the same liquid, were the emblems pertaining to the fellowcraft's degree, viz., The square, the level, and the plumb. There were also the five columns representing the five orders of architecture—the Tuscan, Doric, Ionic Corinthian and Composite.

In removing his garments from his body the trowel presented itself with all the other tools of operative Masonry. Over his head was the pot of incense. On the other parts of his body were the beehive, the book of constitutions, guarded by the Tyler's sword pointing to a naked heart; the All-Seeing eye the anchor and ark, the hour glass, the scythe, forty-seventh problem of Euclid, the sun, moon, stars, and comets; the three steps, which are emblematical of youth, manhood and age. Admirably executed was the weeping virgin reclining on a broken column, upon which lay the book of constitutions. In her rigid hand she held the pot of incense the Masonic emblem of a pure heart, and in her left hand a sprig of Acacia, the emblem of the immortality of the soul.

Immediately beneath her stood winged Time, with his scythe by his side, which cuts the brittle thread of life, and hour-glass at his feet, which is ever reminding us that our lives are withering away. The withered and attenuated figures of the Destroyed were placed amid the long and howling ringlets of the disconsolate mourner. Thus were striking emblems of mortality and immortality blended in one pictorial representation.

It was a spectacle such as Masons never saw before, and in all probability such as the fraternity will never witness again. The brother's name was never known.—Philadelphia Age.

Railway News

Port Coquitlam, B.C.—On July 29 the city treasurer received $16,000, the C. P. R. taxes, which were not really payable until August 31. There is jubilation in the City Hall for these taxes are the first paid since the expiry of the by-law fixing the flat rate.

St. John, N.B.—All the C. P. R. employees now living who served in the recent war will have a token to commemorate their sacrifices in the shape of a scroll which is a fine piece of work and is almost a copy of the large bronze tablet unveiled by the C. P. R. here on April 28, 1922. The scroll is signed by E. W. Beatty, President C. P. R., and E. Alexander, Secretary. The inscription on the scroll reads:

"In honor of duty nobly done. This scroll serves to commemorate that, while in the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway (the recipient's name appears here), relinquished his position in response to the call of King and country and served during the Great War 1914-1918."

The base of the scroll is set off by the names of the following battles: Ypres, Festubert, the Somme, Vimy, Hill 70, Passchendaele, Amiens, Cambrai, Drocourt-Quaint and Mons.

Regina—The Saskatchewan better farming train brought its highly successful tour to a conclusion recently, and Mr. Williams, agricultural agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, expressed his belief that this train, the biggest yet operated, with the biggest attendance, also got bigger and better result than any of its predecessors.

"Many silos," said Professor Williams, of the Animal Husbandry Department of the College of Agriculture, who was on the train through the whole trip, "will be built as a result of the visit of the better farming train."

Professor Potts, who was lecturing on dairying and who was in charge of the dairy exhibit car, stated that in the southern and eastern parts of the province there is a very noticeable increase in the interest taken in cow testing work, and one result of the tour of the train, he was convinced, will be that a very large number of dairymen will now adopt this method and many others, formerly doubters, are now convinced of the value of this system.

Lubrication, ignition and carburetor troubles were the chief matters upon which farmers sought the assistance of Mr. Josephson in the farm mechanics car, and he believed that an unprecedented number of power users benefited by bringing their problems for solution to the better farming train.

Both the household science and the forestry sections were very busy throughout the trip. In the field husbandry car Miss Brayford's bees attracted considerable attention. This lady has kept bees for many years near Wawota, and last year her output of honey reached well over 900 pounds.

J. K. Finlayson, who was in charge of the poultry car, states there seems to be a good deal of doubt regarding the cotton fronted poultry house, some complaining that the birds froze their combs. This, he said, was because the house was overcrowded, and the more hens there are the more moisture comes from the condensing breath. A hen's temperature is 106, and she can stand the cold perfectly well, as long as the air is dry. The cotton-fronted poultry house, with insulated walls and properly ventilated, has been found absolutely satisfactory at the College of Agriculture.

The total attendance for the four days was 32,881, and carried the farmer's best on record by 107. The difference between this year and last year would have been more had it not been for the fact that heavy rain spoiled the last day's attendance, when three meetings were scheduled.

The average daily attendance was 1,061, and the total attendance was comprised of 9,275 men; 6,232 women; 18,971 boys and girls; and 8,303 babies.

A SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISING TRIP

On Friday morning Miles Burpee, Earl McCosham, Lloyd Sinclair and Martin Theriault left in Dr. Hebert's car on an advertising expedition in connection with the official opening of the bridge on Sept. 4, throughout Northern Maine and New Brunswick.

These young men, who are all good looking and single, had a number of experiences before they returned. They expected to arrive home Saturday night but did not get there until Sunday night. Whether it was the good looking girls of Woodstock or Fredericton, or whether they were enamoured by the fair damsels of Mars Hill, Me., or whether it was the numerous "busts"—I mean the tires, not hough "busts," can be left to the imagination of the reader. At any rate they arrived home safely and made their mark for Edmundston every place they have been.

The first stop made was Presque Isle, which part of the journey was made in one hour and fifty-nine minutes. The reason for the speed was probably due to the fact that they had as their chaperone Martin Theriault, who loves speed as much as the Gold Dust Twins love dirt. Martin got fed up at Presque Isle and returned home. Presque Isle is having a Fair on the day of the bridge opening and our advertising party did not put up any banners, not because they did not want to, but because the Presque Islanders wouldn't let them. The Star-Herald in this place, however, commented in their paper on the fine specimens of young manhood Edmundston produces and made a passing comment on our celebration of Labor Day and Martin Theriault with his Lynn C. Doily tongue secured a few thousand feet of wire for electric decoration, free, gratis.

The party then proceeded, minus Martin Theriault, and when he left, the good luck of the party ceased. Martin has a charm that is all his own.

The road between Presque Isle and Mars Hill, Miles Burpee reports, as being very bad—and Miles is some expert on roads. Lloyd Sinclair says Miles wanted to return several times but the rest of the party insisted on "carrying on." Houlton was marked by two events—a flat tire and a good square dinner served by a charming American Beauty—Lloyd wanted to remain here, and let the rest of the party continue, but was eventually prevailed upon to continue. The trip from Houlton to Woodstock was also a trying experience, but the latter place was reached about two p.m.

A banner was placed across the bridge and some hand bills distributed. They then started for Fredericton which was reached after a change of tire and other slight mishaps. Miles Burpee, who is a student at the U. N. B. has reputation of knowing all the girls in the Capital city, and doubtless whilst he was away attending to his own, personal affairs of the heart, Lloyd got lost—completely lost.

After the other two had found that Lloyd was nowhere in evidence, a frantic search was made on the main streets and side allies, the city authorities were appealed to, and the fire department was called out. He was eventually discovered on the C. P. R. track and the explanation he gave was that he had been subject to a brain storm. After a good night's rest and on the following morning, the Daily Mail office was visited and our friends found themselves on the front page of the next issue. Next the city authorities were appealed to for permission to fly a banner, and after interviewing fifty-seven different varieties of the "civis homus", permission was given and the banner hangs high.

The thanks of the party is due A. J. Thompson, District Supt. of the N. B. Tel. Co., for the great assistance he freely granted in helping them to nail Edmundston's banner to the mast—in this case the stately elms of the city.

On the return trip after several blowouts—of the tires—and after the night had been spent in Woodstock, and after a banner had been stretched on the State Road near Houlton, and hand-bills had been scattered far and wide, Fort Fairfield was reached and another banner strung. Perth was reached next and here Earl McCosham attended Sunday School—the lesson for the day, being on the Keeping of the Sabbath—a sadly needed lesson as he did not know it was Sunday, even. His teacher instilled into his mind a lesson that will last as long as life, and his friends say that they can see considerable improvement already. The party never seems to tire of eating and more chickens were dispatched before the three arrived home, as usual too late for church.

WHERE DID THEY GET IT ?

LIN. C. DOYLE

It is indeed sad to observe how some people, who being reputed as more or less truthful under ordinary circumstances, will, when it comes to relating the results of a fishing trip, throw discretion to the winds and come forth with statements that put a decided crimp in anything that we may have heard to their credit up to that time.

A group of young men left for Basely Brook some time ago and returned with such a bunch of wild yarns about fish and what not, that it taxes the credulity of the most credulous, so to speak.

Abel Theriault of Green River along with Florent Martin, an old guide and trapper of the same place, were joined by Albert Theriault and Martin Theriault of Edmundston.

After an early supper at the home of Ubald Theriault of Green River, they bid fare farewell to the mad whirl of our modern city life and plunged into the forest primeval.

They proceeded by car for a short distance of seventeen miles where they were obliged to abandon that mode of locomotion and continue on foot.

This is the point where the raving reports start in. It appears that they went through country just overflowing with wild plant life of every kind. The party stuffed on blue berries for a while. As the scenery changed, the blue-berry diet was given up and the wild raspberries were all the go, and by that time all hands were so full of everything that there was not very much go left in any of them.

It was necessary to ford a creek or two along the way and as none of the Edmundston boys were accustomed to find footing in treacherous mountain streams, it was not at all surprising to find both of them in for a good ducking. Martin Theriault said that as far as he was concerned it was all right and that he understood perfectly how it all came about that he should be upset, but what he found strange was that Albert Theriault, a bank man could lose his "balance." Albert replied that he would at least have the satisfaction of wringing his clothes on the "bank."

It was quite dark when the party finally struggled into camp. The camp belongs to "Kick" Theriault and as he had not seen anyone for some time past, the members of the expedition were royally received.

The next morning found them out in the creek bright and early. The method of fishing consisted in getting right out and wading up the creek, casting to right and left in all likely places.

The fish were so thick and they all wanted to bite so badly that the fishermen had a hard time to make them adhere to good form and bite only when there was bait on the hook, in fact any old thing in sight. Florent Martin, the guide, pointed out on several occasions fresh deer tracks on the sandy points on the shore. Abel Theriault tried to explain that there was no particular hurry or anything like that, but the deer did not seem inclined to linger around any great length of time. The guide then pointed out some nice big bear tracks. He expanded upon the subject and gave an estimate as to how large the bear must be. He went into detail about the ferocity of bears at this particular season etc. It was at this juncture that Martin Theriault was heard to murmur more to himself than anybody else that he knew very well that in his life time he was not going to leave any foot prints on the sands of time, but he would certainly leave some on the sands of Basely Brook if that bear made an appearance. It was not long afterwards when the party decided that they had enough fish and returned to camp. After consuming untold quantities of nice, crisp trout, they proceeded back to where they had left the car. They finally reached their respective homes very much wearied and footsore but nevertheless immensely happy.

The total catch amounted to sixty dozen and eight. Anyone who can read this without laughing will be awarded a handsome inlaid Armenian prune bowl.

Several parties up to the present have been inquiring where they got it!

RECALL THE TRUSTEES

A citizen of the Town of Hartland contributes this:
"Inertia has been defined as the capacity of a body at rest to remain in that state until moved therefrom by some external force and the Trustees of the Hartland School District are a glowing example of the immovable. As far as can be judged from appearances they are making no move in the direction of a new school building and are treating the vote of the last school meeting to that effect as the merest scrap of paper.

This is neither fair nor democratic. It is quite proper for the Trustees to submit plans for buying ancient landmarks and renovated temples, or minimize the cost of their own schemes or to expand the estimated cost of a new building, but now that the people have spoken, the will of the taxpayers should be carried out cheerfully and in good faith.

"The newspaper reports of 'recall' proceedings being taken in St. John sets one wondering whether there is any section of the School Law permitting the ratepayers to 'recall' Trustees and separate them from the honor and emoluments of the office."

FINE OUTING AT ST. QUENTIN

(Written for Edmundston Observer)

Mr. and Mrs. Archie St. Onge went away for a few days last week on a visit to friends in St. Quentin. They reported on their return this week having had a most enjoyable time. On Friday last a party of men from St. Quentin went to Kedgewick and enjoyed the good sport of fishing on the Restigouche. This party included the following gentlemen: Robert Lynch of the firm of Lynch & Fournier of St. Quentin, Dr. Duhe, J. H. Michaud, John Beaulieu and "Sonny Charles" of St. Quentin, A. St. Onge, Edmundston and Leonard Martin of Kedgewick. The spot chosen to fish was at Mr. Brodericks', eight miles from Kedgewick, and a good lot of fish was procured. The party left on Saturday and returned on Tuesday, and 240 trout and four salmon were caught, the star fishermen being Mr. Beaulieu, and Mr. Martin.

"Sonny Charles" was the cook of the expedition, and made a name for himself by serving canned corn for breakfast. Several members of the party criticised his morning menu somewhat, but nevertheless they received corn. Rob Lynch especially seemed to think that corn was not the thing to insure a good days catch, not that he would have objected to corn flakes, or cracked corn, or corn mush, or even pop corn, but he seemed to think, and received some backing from the rest of the crowd, that canned corn was going the limit in breaking ones fast in the early hours of the morning. No report was made as to the size of the fish, and like every other fishing party the biggest fish were left in the water for other people to get. There was also another serious omission on the part of those who laid the plans. It was thought that it would be a wise thing to have a doctor in the party. Fishing is a hazardous task, members might fall in the water and need resuscitating, they might accidentally get a hook fastened into the wrong fish—and most likely of all is a rebellious stomach, especially on a diet of corn. In view of these things then the party took the precaution to ask Dr. Dube to come with them. They omitted, however, to see that he carried his medicine case with him. And one morning when several of the disciples of the famous Isaac Walton were feeling under the weather they called upon the good doctor to produce his remedies. But the doctor with malice aforethought had left all his pills and powders behind. He might have had a stock for his own private use, but he did not produce for the rest of the crowd. They called for pills. No pills. They asked for powders. No powders. They demanded paregoric. No paregoric at hand. They pleaded for castor oil even, but castor oil there was not, not even a little potent selditz powder could be had. What is the use of a doctor, without the doctor's drugs? Great was the bitterness of the would-be patients against the man of medicine for his neglect to provide himself with the means of alleviating the pains of an expedition in pursuit of fish. The members of that party will next time see to it that not only is there a doctor in the crowd but that he brings his medicines along with him—once bitten, twice shy, they say.

On Sunday the ladies of the party had a picnic of their own, which was as keenly enjoyed as the mens excursion. They did not need any Doctor, although a doctor was there, Dr. Marchand.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Onge came back to Edmundston the beginning of the week after having one of the most enjoyable trips they ever had.

Lakeville Leaflets

Death claimed another of our neighbors in the person of Mrs. Merrill Tracey, who died August 3 after a lingering illness from paralysis. Mrs. Tracey leaves a sorrowing husband and three daughters besides a host of friends. She was one of the few people who could always see the good and excuse the failings of all with whom she came in contact. The funeral was largely attended. Rev. R. A. Colpitts, who is spending his vacation in Bloomfield, conducted the service. The burial was in the family lot in the Baptist burying ground.

Mr. Barker is still in the hospital at Woodstock, not much improved in health.

Miss Pauline Gray has been engaged to teach the school here. Miss Gray was well liked by all when she taught here before.

A good many visitors are still in the village. Miss Ames of Fort Fairfield is at Harry Gillin's. Mrs. Foster of Toronto at Dr. Wright's, Mr. and Mrs. Helms of Houlton at J. F. Williams'. Miss Viola Anderson of Mars Hill at Marshal Tracey's, and Mrs. Bursan & Son at W. W. Wilson's.

Mrs. Tom Colridge and Mrs. Grace Page gave a tea party one evening this week. Miss Helen McWald who is home on her vacation was among the number.

A number from here were to Sticksney to the Campbell-Flowers wedding on Wednesday.

Miss Lula Carvell has resigned her position in W. F. Anderson's store, her place to be taken by Miss Eolene Tracey.

Mrs. R. B. King spent a few days in Houlton this week.

A good many of the farmers are busy harvesting all kinds of grain being a good crop, while potatoes seem to be dying fast, so the yield will be less than last year.

Wm. Armstrong shipped a carload of sheep from this station on Tuesday.

EDMUNDSTON

A meeting of the general executive of September 4 celebrations on the occasion of the Bridge opening was held at J. W. Hall's office on Friday evening. J. W. Hall in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted and a general discussion of plans followed. It was reported by the secretary that he had heard from Governor Baxter of Maine, and that the Governor would be here that day in person, but would not be able to get here until the afternoon. No word has yet been received from Governor Pageley. The arrangements of the day will be made to conform to the convenience of both of these distinguished gentlemen. Over three hundred invitations have been issued for the ceremony of opening and the banquet in the evening. Matters regarding publicity and decorations and train service was also gone into; also the matter of bands. Next week it is believed that a full schedule of the day will be able to be published. J. ### RUSSELL DeLONG

On August 3, Russell DeLong died of paralysis of the spine, age 22 years and eight months. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James DeLong and four brothers, Harry of Avondale, Walter of Wilmet, Addington of Waterville and Markie at home; and three sisters—Mrs. Handford R. Seely of Waterville; Mrs. Leigh H. Estey of Jacksonville and Edna at home. Funeral services were conducted by Leigh Good of Monticello.

A HISTORY OF HARTLAND

"A Short History of Hartland"—a little booklet written by Agnes Walters, a pupil in Hartland High School, is a very comprehensive story of Hartland from its earliest days to the immediate present. Cleverly written and full of interest the book should find a ready sale—everyone who is interested in Hartland in any way will desire to own a copy, which desire may be realized by sending 25 cents to The Observer Office and requesting a copy.

CAMPBELL-FLOWERS

A pretty wedding took place at the home of George E. Campbell at Sticksney on Aug. 16, when, in the presence of a large number of guests, their daughter Della G. was united in marriage with James Clarence Flowers of North Devon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. Trites. Mr. and Mrs. Flowers will reside in Toronto.

Railway News

Vancouver. — When here recently Mr. Grant Hall, Vice-President of the C.P.R., said his trip was simply in the nature of an ordinary inspection
tour and that the company had no undertakings in mind connected with it. The new pier work will proceed as soon as possible.

As far as he could judge from his trip through the prairies and from reports received, there would be a big crop this year, and the company was making its usual preparations to handle its share of the business expeditiously.

Asked if the big harvest and readjustment of freight rates would mean that this company would carry larger quantities of grain here this fall, Mr. Hall replied that it was a matter over which the Canadian Pacific had no control.

"If all rests with the owner of the grain," he said, "we are prepared to haul it either East or West, just as he directs."

Rumor periodically revives the story that the Canadian Pacific is about to electrify its mountain lines in British Columbia. In regard to this Mr. Hall stated, as he has on former visits here, that the company is still conducting experiments with a view at some later date of formulating a policy in regard to the proposed electrification. The impression he gave was that if the plan is pronounced feasible by its experts and the company is ready, it will proceed with the work. In any event this is liable to be a considerable time distant.

The vice-president was accompanied through the British Columbia division by Mr. F. W. Peters, general superintendent. He was met on arrival here by leading officials of the company and several personal friends.

Assiniboia, Alberta. — A further programme of improvement of lines
of the Canadian Pacific in the west was announced by D. C. Coleman, vice-president in charge of Western lines, who is on his way west.

The largest item on the list was the relaying with one hundred pounds
steel of the double track between Ignace and Kenora.

A considerable number of bridges
will be replaced with more permanent structures.

With respect to work on new branch lines it was announced that the existing gap on the Weyburn-Lethbridge will be closed; the line
from Russell north will be completed; the first fifty miles of the Langman northerly line will be fully equipped for traffic; and the grading
will be continued on the branch lines
from Consul east. In this connection, Mr. Coleman said: "We had hoped to announce a larger programme of branch line construction,
but until the effect of the freight rate reductions just ordered on the revenues of the railway companies can be accurately determined, it is obvious that an ambitious policy is out of the question."

Port Hope. — The C. P. R. Port Hope bridge is fifteen hundred feet long. It is an interesting question how long it will require to paint it and how much paint will be used on the work. There are at present eleven men swinging the brushes;
they will be busy for at least eight weeks and three hundred gallons of paint will spread over the long span.

The work of preparing the girders is a big job and a tedious one. Men go over the entire structure with small picks and hammers removing all the corroded parts after which it is brushed down with steel brushes. A graphite paint is used and it comes all ready prepared for the work. The wages of the men for this job will exceed two thousand five hundred dollars, which gives some idea what the painting account for the C. P. R. would amount to each year. There are two cars which provide eating and sleeping quarters for the men. It is just seven years ago that this big structure was given a liberal coat of paint.

Montreal. — Mr. Alfred Price, General Manager Eastern Lines, Canadian Pacific Railway, for over forty years, who has relinquished his duties with the railway for an indefinite period, left Montreal on the C. P. S. "Montrose" recently, bound for England.

Mr. Price, who is accompanied by his daughters Misses Laura and Grace Price, will spend some time at Torquay, Devonshire, England, where it is hoped Mr. Price's health will be restored.

Several of Mr. Price's friends went aboard the "Montrose" to see him off. Amongst the Canadian Pacific officials present were: A. D.
MacTavish, Vice-President; James Man-
son, Assistant Vice-President; John J. Scully, General Manager
Eastern Lines; W. G. Annable; W.
Ballantyne; Arthur Allan; George
H. Ham; John Leslie, C. P. R. Comptroller, who was accompanied by Mrs. Leslie and Miss Leslie. There were several other friends and well-wishers present. Souvenirs presented to Mr. Price included a pair of binocular glasses.

Mr. Price's cabin was lavishly decorated with flowers by his friends.

Winnipeg. — "We hope to have the missing link in the Eastern-Lethbridge line closed up in plenty of time to haul wheat out of that section this fall by the new route," said D. C. Coleman, vice-president of the C. P. R. western lines, recently.

Local passenger service, he added, would be installed there for the present. There are thirty-seven miles over which no service is being given in the broken link.

Eighteen miles of this distance have rails laid. Nineteen miles more are constructed to link up the long-projected new line through Southern Alberta to Lethbridge connecting with the Crow's Nest Pass line.

Mr. Coleman said conditions
through the West were looking better, according to his reports.

Hamilton. — Announcement was made recently by Jas. Lahey, manager of the local office of the C.P.R.
Telegraph Co., that in future, the head office here will remain open all night for the transmission and receiving of messages. Telegraph offices are considered the business and industrial barometers of any community, so that it is significant that an all-night service has been found necessary.

"It has been evident to us for some time that business conditions
were rapidly returning to normal,"
said Mr. Lahey. "There has been a noticeable increase in the volume of business in our office."

A "Careful Crossing" campaign is now going on in the United States. The public are advised to stop, look and listen at railroad crossings. An article by J. W.
Ludden in St. Paul Pioneer Press says:

"Virtually all accidents at grade crossings could be averted if the public using the highways would exercise reasonable care, the engineers contend."

"The railroads are doing all they can to prevent these accidents. They believe that co-operation of the public is necessary."

"Automobiles were involved in 76
per cent of the 1920 crossing accidents; 1,791 persons were killed, 5,077 were injured, of whom 116
died subsequently."

While deaths from railway crossing accidents in Canada are not so numerous as in the United States
there have been too many. Some auto drivers thinking they can beat a train to a crossing beat it to eternity.

Montreal. — Not only does the Canadian Pacific Railway recognize acts of bravery by its own employees, but it acknowledges them when performed by those outside its service. This was shown when the Canadian Pacific recently applied to the Canadian Royal Humane Society
for recognition for Samuel J. Dixon, of Pendleton, Ontario, for his gallantry in saving Miss Amelia Boud-reault, of St. Pauscal, Ontario, from serious injury or probable death.

At the suggestion of Mr. A. D.
MacTavish, vice-president, C.P.R., several affidavits from witnesses of the incident and others bearing on the courage and presence of mind displayed by Mr. Dixon were supplied to the Royal Humane Society, and as a result the society has decided to grant a medal for bravery to him.
The incident happened at 6:30 p.m.
on February 11th last, when Miss Boudreault, who was late for the train, ran after it as it was leaving Pendleton station, and in attempting to board it fell between the end of the platform and the train wheels.

Affidavits of several witnesses pay a tribute to the pluck displayed by Mr. Dixon. They show that as he was walking on the platform he remained standing firm, and when he noticed the young lady clinging to the bars of a coach, just as he reached her she released her hold and fell,
her head striking the oil waste box
of the car truck. This swung her around with her feet on the railroad track and her head striking the rail. At this instant Mr. Dixon grabbed and pulled her clear of the moving train wheels. While holding her until the train passed out, Mr.
Dixon himself was hit on the head
by a coach step. The injured woman was taken to the C.P.R. agent's residence and attended by the local doctor. She recovered soon afterwards, and admitted that there was no one to blame for the occurrence
but herself.

GIRL'S STATEMENT WILL HELP HARTLAND

Many women will profit by the following statement of one of their sex: "I was afraid to eat on account of stomach trouble. Even rice did not agree. After taking Adler-iki I can eat anything." Adler-iki acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing foul matter which poisoned stomach. EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach or sour stomach. Guards against appendicitis. It brings out poisonous matter you never thought was in your system. Hartland Drug Co., Ltd.

SO MANY PEOPLE ARE NERVOUS

"Fruit-a-tives" the Greatest of all Nerve Remedies

This Fruit Medicine Restores Health

The increase in the number of persons suffering from Nervousness is world-wide; due, in a measure, to the reaction following the war. Sleeplessness, Headaches, Mental Depression, Rheumatism, Nervous Dyspepsia, Bad Heart Action, are the results of a disturbed condition of the Nervous System.

The nerves and the blood are so intimately, so vitally, connected that the condition of one is bound to affect the condition of the other. If the blood is laden with impurities, it is impossible to have strong, steady nerves.

The first essential in treating nervous troubles is to purify and enrich the blood. This "FRUIT-A-TIVES" will do.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" stimulates the bowels, kidneys and skin and purifies the blood. "Fruit-a-tives" improves appetite and digestion and insures food being properly digested, thus enabling the blood to carry wholesome nourishment to build up the body, particularly the nerves.

Men and women who take "Fruit-a-tives" for some form of nervousness—because they cannot eat or sleep or work or enjoy life—say that this fruit medicine is simply marvellous in its action.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa Ont.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CONFERENCE

The Primitive Baptist Yearly Conference convened with the church at Bristol on July 1. At 10 a.m. there was preaching and social service, and at 2.30 p.m. the yearly conference with a large representation of the Primitive Baptist people. This service was a demonstration of the old-time spiritual element which proves so uplifting and soul-inspiring to God's dear people. At the close Communion was served and a very large number partook. At 7.30 there was a business meeting to receive reports of the churches.

Sunday morning at 8 a.m., prayer and social service; at 11 a.m., preaching services at both the Primitive Baptist and United Baptist churches, likewise the same at 2.30. At 7.30 there was preaching at the Primitive and Presbyterian churches. All report a good day.

At 9 a.m. on Monday there was a business meeting. After the usual routine of opening came the reading of the minutes for the year and the despatch of committee reports and all old business. This meeting adjourned to meet again at 2.30 on Tuesday. At 7.30 there was preaching and social service, this being the closing meeting of the session under ordinary conditions.

At Tuesday's meeting at 2.30, after appointment of officers and committee, Rev. J. T. Gordon tendered his resignation to the Primitive Baptist conference on the difference of opinion as to the mode of partaking of Communion—the use of one or individual glasses. On motion his resignation was accepted, which reads as follows:

"To the Primitive Baptist Denomination of New Brunswick—I hereby tender my resignation to this Denomination on consideration of the brethren of this conference upon the difference of opinion in Communion, providing that a public notice be given to this effect through the press of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, and with the full rights of a minister of the Gospel. (Signed) J. T. Gordon."

In the 47 years of our Denominational experience never has any man asked to separate from his brethren on so small a pretence.

Rev. J. M. Mallory, clerk P. B. Con.

YOUNG WOMEN WHO SUFFER

Letter Points Way Towards Relief—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ontario.—"I suffered from the time I was a school-girl until I had taken your medicine with pain in my left-side and with cramps, growing worse each year until I was all run down. I was so bad at times that I was unfit for work. I tried several doctors and patent medicines and was only relieved for a short time. Some of the doctors wanted to have an operation but my father, objected. Finally I learned through my mother of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how thankful I am that I tried it. I am relieved from pain and cramps and feel as if it has saved my life. You may use my letter to help other women as I am glad to recommend the medicine."

NO STATEHOOD FOR AROOSTOOK

The publication in the New York Times of a report, apparently emanating from Presque Isle, to the effect that Aroostook people want to make Aroostook a separate state and are "thoroughly in earnest in the matter," is of course a little too ridiculous even to laugh at. We have not yet seen or heard of even one person who wants to have Aroostook a state all by itself. It might be that, if Aroostook could get $10 or $13 a barrel for its potatoes every year, as it has done twice within the last six years but as it probably cannot do again for centuries, it might feel sufficiently puffed up to want to be a state or even two or three states; but, as things are, it will be glad to worry along as only a county.—Fort Fairfield Review.

The Presbyterian church picnic will be held on Saturday at the same place as last year—the Dunbar grounds. Those attending will go direct to the grounds at and after two o'clock. The Church of England people are cordially invited to attend. A good time is promised everybody.

Captain Amos came pretty near being without an automobile on Saturday night after visiting the fire on Rice street. After he got his car in the garage he found something was on fire. Trouble caused by the wiring; prompt measures saved the insurance company some money, and Mr. Amos his car.

St. Paul's Church is making a campaign for funds to build a new church edifice. Letters have been sent to all members of the congregation. Application will be made to the next Presbyterian meeting for a grant from the Forward Movement Funds of the Church to supplement that received from the congregation. As soon as funds warrant it, work will be started on the building.

"SILENT YEARS" HAS BIG DRAMATIC NOTE

Ganster Develops Plot of Comstock Novel in Admirable Fashion—Big Cast

"Silent Years" represents the art of L. J. Ganster at its absolute best for this unusual production, the scenes of which are laid in the picturesque St. Lawrence River country, is regarded as one of the greatest subjects ever produced by the noted French director. It is an R-C picture and is scheduled for screening at the Star Theatre on Saturday, Aug. 28th.

"Silent Years" is based upon the novel "Mam'selle Jo" by Harriet T. Comstock and vividly portrays a highly dramatic story in one of the most beautiful sections of North America.

The spirit of the story is that of self-sacrifice and the happiness that comes to those who give freely. It is a big theme and a timely theme and Mr. Ganster develops it into a great big human story. The central character of the story is Jo Morey otherwise known as Mam'selle Jo, from which Miss Comstock's story derived its name. Experience hard and bitter, had moulded the features of Jo and the man's work she had done had given her a face a masculine sternness. But her fine eyes, her lustrous hair and her warm, generous heart were totally feminine.

Winning her way by the work of her hands through a slough of debts to the Mam'selle Jo is enabled at last to carry out the long suppressed wish of her motherly heart and adopt a child. Especially dear to the starved maternal instinct is Donelle, fair, slight, ethereal because of the indefinite suggestion about her of her father, whom Mam'selle Jo had loved in her own youth.

Donelle, in keeping with the spirit of the story, herself sacrifices a great career for the sake of the only mother she has ever known—and finds love. Tom Gayot makes the supreme sacrifice for his country. All these are real, flesh and blood people—people American audiences could not help but love.

See for his country. All these are real, flesh and blood people—people American audiences could not help but love.

Seldom has such a remarkable cast as Mr. Ganster has assembled been seen in a photoplay. Rose Lions, as Mam'selle Jo, gives one of the most brilliant character studies ever seen on the screen. As an actress in France, Mlle. Dione attained wide prominence, but it is as a screen player that she promises to attain the heights of stardom.

As Donelle, a dramatic figure in "Silent Years," Pauline Starke, also with high laurels. Miss Starke's ready has given ample proof of her great ability on the screen. Suffice to say, she is at her best in Mr. Ganster's latest production. Others of note who play important parts are Tully Marshall, George McDaniel, Geo. Seigman, Will Jim Hutton, Jack Mowbray, James O. Barrows, Jack Livingston, Ruth King, Kate Tomeray, Lilian Rambeau, Jean O'Rourke and Ruth Ashby.

CIRCUS AND CARNIVAL COMING

The world's standard shows, under the auspices of the G. W. Y. A. will exhibit in Edmundston for one week starting next Monday, August 28. Many new and novel attractions never seen in these parts will grace the long midway of amusements.

Traveling on a special train of fifteen cars, the show will arrive here from Calais, where it is exhibiting this week.

The erecting of the tented city will start promptly at five o'clock in the evening everything will be in readiness for the visiting public to enjoy a week of entertainment never before equalled in the history of Calais.

After touring the east, including the Maritime Provinces where they appeared in all the largest cities, the Worlds Standard Shows come to Edmundston highly recommended and at ter special investigation it is pronounced to be the biggest, brightest and cleanest amusement enterprise of the kind ever seen in Eastern Canada and the State of Maine.

Among the many attractions will be found the kiddies' delight, the merry-go-round, a giant ferris wheel, and an aero swing, a dog, pony and monkey theatre; the northern lights, an electrical spectacle without an equal, a scientific marvel; the funny minstrel show; wonders of the sea; mechanical city; birdland; a collection of rare and precious birds; Olga, the unsolved mystery of the medical world; a real circus side show of strange and curious people gathered from all parts of the world, and many other new and novel amusement devices too numerous to mention will grace the midway at Edmundston all week.

Dublin Castle's Jester.

In Ireland, at a military dinner at the Viceroyal Lodge, Dean Leigh, who has just written his memoirs, met Bob Williams, "who was attached to the court, in what capacity I know not—unless it was court jester," says Mr. Dean.

He was the originator of a very old chestnut which appeared from time to time. The Secretary for Ireland was then Lord Naas, and as he was controller of the Zoo in Phoenix Park, he had gone up to the emu from the keeper of the Zoo: "The emu has laid an egg, and in the absence of your lordship we have placed it under the biggest goose we could secure."

A Quiet Hint.

The district visitor was paying her usual call, and poor harassed Mrs. Heath, who had been disturbed in the middle of a heavy day's washing, was thoroughly fed up. "Really, my good woman," droned her visitor, "what one reads in the papers is truly appalling. Indeed, one half of the world doesn't know how the other half lives." "Well, m'm," responded Mrs. Heath, simply, "that ain't your fault, is it?"

Spanish Evil Eye.

Belief in the evil eye is common among the peasantry of Spain. A stag's horn is considered a good safeguard, and small horns, tipped with silver, are frequently hung about the children's necks.

FORGOT HER AWFUL 'MAKEUP'

Indianapolis Girl Will Have to Do Much Explaining if Many Acquaintances Saw Her.

A senior of Technical high school who prides herself on her contempt for rouge and lip-sticks went to the photographer's. Several class mates helped themselves to a liberal supply of "paint" just before posing, thinking the pictures would be better. Finally, they persuaded the senior to try it just for the one time. No one would ever be the wiser. Hesitatingly, she applied the crimson puff and the oily crimson stick and dashed into the studio for the final pose.

Half an hour later she was on the car speeding homeward when she happened to glance at the woman across the aisle. That woman's complexion, she thought was past forgiveness. How could some people bear to use that stuff and continue to appear in public! Well, one thing was certain—nobody would ever see her rivaling an October sunset. Then horrors! She remembered she had forgot to wash off her own "makeup."—Indianapolis News.

Flowers.

To dream of picking flowers signifies future fortune. Of holding, seeing or smelling them in season means pleasure, but if out of season, obstacles and lack of success. If the flowers are white the obstacles will be less; if yellow, they will be painful; and if red, they foretell the dreamer's serious illness. If you dream of being bedecked with flowers it means a short happiness is coming to you. If you dream of buying them you will hear some good news.—Chicago American.

No Imitations for Her.

A young physician took his best girl to a local picture house. Advertisements were being thrown on the screen, among them this one: "Make them happy with a photograph of yourself at Christmas. Our shop, etc." The young man turned to his girl with the facetious remark, "Would a photo of me make you happy?" She shook her head. "I don't like imitations," she pouted. "I'm used to receiving real things."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Last Saturday evening despite the simultaneous amusement at East Florenceville, "The Man from Lost River"
drew a bumper audience at the Opera House. The picture, which was a six-reel film featuring House Peters, was a real thriller for the fans and Charlie Chaplin produced the comedy in a two-reeler "The Count." It really appears that at last, after sundry ups and downs by the various managers, the picture house here is developing a stability which it never possessed before. This for a two-fold reason—the fair treatment afforded the patrons by Burpee & Tedlie, and the excellent brand of pictures they procure. In the event of a partial second-rater coming along, we should all have charity enough to shift the blame from the management to the purveyors at the film exchange. Out of courtesy to the promoters and guarantors of the Chautauque at Hartland and East Florenceville, no pictures are being shown at either Hartland or Centreville this week. Coming films are advertised elsewhere in this issue.

Stewart Henderson, St. John, is spending his vacation at S. W. Burt's.
Mrs. Burton Clark and children arrived home from Deer Island on Wednesday.
L. H. Baldwin and sons, Scovil and Lester, spent the week-end at William Reid's.
Miss D'Arcy of Lynn, Mass., is visiting Col. and Mrs. Kennedy at the Kennedy House.
George Niles is spending his vacation with his uncle, J. W. Niles at Andover.
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. White, Mrs. Alice
White and Mrs. B. F. Smith are spending the week on an auto trip to Quebec.
Chautauque at East Florenceville is drawing a number of enthusiasts from here this week.

Some of our young motorists must not neglect the law of physics which says that "two bodies cannot occupy
the same space at the same time."
Failure to remember this fact and a strong desire to turn the corner on the same side resulted in one fine smash on Wednesday evening. It makes good fun for the observer and the garage man, but poor pleasure for the taxi owners. Two very necessary accident preventives are good brakes and a good horn. "Safety first" should also keep you from being afraid to foot it. Go slow and easy.

Rev. Lee Sloat of Niagara Falls, a former native of this locality and family, visited his cousin Frank J. Sloat over the week-end. On Sunday morning he occupied the Baptist pulpit here
and on Sunday evening he preached again at Tracey Mills.

On Sunday, Aug. 27, (11th after Trinity) Rev. C. R. Canham will preach at Florenceville at 3 p.m., at Greenfield, 11 a.m., at Centreville, 7.30 p.m. Subject—"A Lost Opportunity."
Everybody come.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bruce left for
P. E. I. on Saturday.

Mr. Lingley is supplying as manager at the local bank.

R. J. Clark returned from St. Catharines, Ontario, on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevens left on Wednesday for a visit with friends in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Cliff and children of Mata Hill spent Sunday at Mr.
and Mrs. C. R. Cliff's.

Mr. and Mrs. Phinney and family returned to Lynn, Mass., on Wednesday last.

Miss Mary Harold visited her aunt Mrs. Henry Bradley at Hartland last week.

Alex Baird has returned from a holiday of two weeks spent with his parents.

GRAND FALLS

at Long Lake last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hatch and friends are camping at Lake Long.

F. L. Wade and Wm. Wilson were in Edmundston Sunday.

Herbert Kelly of the Customs Dept.
here and Mrs. Stella McLaughlin were married in the R. C. church Tuesday morning. The best wishes of all go out to them for a long and happy life.

K. OF P. NOTICE

Victory Lodge No. 36, Bath, will hold their annual decoration service on Sunday, August 27. All brothers are requested to meet at Castle Hall at 1 p.m. and proceed from there to the graves of deceased brothers. Brothers will bring flowers.
Per order, M. McKenzie, C.O.

BUILDING UP CANADA'S EXPORT TRADE

IN Canada's gradual return to industrial activity and resurgent prosperity, the automobile factories of the country are taking a by no means unimportant part. Their shipments to foreign countries, and particularly to other parts of the British Empire are an increasing factor in trade development. The above photograph shows a train of 25 cars of Studebaker automobiles which recently left the Studebaker factory at Walkerville, Ont., where the automobiles were built, on a long journey over the C.P.R. to London, England. This was only part of the shipment, fifteen other cars having gone forward very shortly afterwards.
Cars shipped overseas require far different treatment than those shipped by rail. In the first place, an export car is enclosed in a huge wooden case, sturdily bound and bolted together so that it has ample strength to withstand the rough handling it must contend with in being hoisted into perhaps shipped overland if its destination happens to be the hold of a ship, then rehoisted out upon the wharf and an inland town.

In order to crate the car, the wheels are removed, top and windshield taken off, and every device employed toward making the packing as compact as possible. Compactness is desired for two reasons. First, to prevent play in the case;
and second, to minimize the ocean freight charges, for steamship companies differ from the railroads in that they fix their rates on the basis of cubic feet, instead of so much per pound of weight. Many precautions in export boxing are exercised in order to regulate the contact of salt air with the finish of the car. The surfaces of all metal parts are protected by a coating of grease. The lining of the case with tar paper lends further protection.
