In a sermon of passionate eloquence the Rev. B. H. Robinson, paid a sterling tribute to the character and works of the late Sir Adam Beck, at he Metropolitan United church last night. The sermon was worthy of the man and the church was filled to hear it.

Mr. Robinson reviewed the life. and the achievements of the man. comparing him to the Church of Christ, as the great servant of all, and declaring his life was summed up in one Biblical phrase: "This one thing I do." That one thing in Beck's life was an overwhelming desire to be of service to his fellowmen. He described the religion of Beck as being practical kind, doctrine translated into action. At heart Sir Adam was a religious man.
"I had that view of Sir Adam,
which regarded him as hard, driving, self-willed, determined to put his own plans, impatient with all who could not see eye to eye with him. He may have had these char-acteristics, but he had more, and it was that 'more,' I take it, that him. He may have had these characteristics, but he had more, and it was that 'more,' I take it, that evoked from the citizens of London and Western Ontario such a wonderful demonstration of sorrow and fection on Tuesday last. May I honestly say it was this 'more' in the life of a great citizen that compels me to speak for him," said Mr. Robinson

The church should not lose sight of such spartan qualities in the life of a public servant. They in the life of a public servant. They deserve recognition and emulation on the part of all. DAMAGED CORN

Depredations of Borer Now Becom 1g Evident in Middlesex.

The work of the corn borer is now becoming evident, states R. A. Finn in speaking of the spread of this pest over the whole of Western Ontario. Up until the present the damaged stalks have not been noticeable, but now that the corn is growing taller and heavier, the damaged corn is starting to show up.

Finn states that the infestation would seem at present to be less severe than in former years, but that be impossible to estimate this until after the crop is cut. Speaking of preventive measures which should keep the borer in check, Mr. Finn says that the trouble is ag-gravated by farmers who will plow down the corn stubble in an effort to destroy the pest, and then unthinkingly cultivate it again in preparing the land, and thus bring the stubble to the surface, where the borer can use it as shelter. Deep careful plowing, with a long interval plowing and cultivation, should drive the borer to the surface, where unless housed by some corn stalks still un-Boot and shoe, men-W. Billeting Arrangements For Meeting Here in September Completed.

FROM 8 PRESBYTERIES

Billeting arrangements for the Lon ion United church conference, to be held in Metropolitan United church, Sept. 22 and 23, are nearing comple-

It is expected that between 600 and 700 delegates, ministerial and lay, will attend the conference, representing eight presbyteries. All ministers who were members of their former denominational conferences, synods or conventions are delegates to the first United church conference. One lay delegate will be appointed for every ministerial delegate, the laymen to be chosen by the different presby teries prior to the conference.

The task of entertaining the conference delegates will fall to the 20 branches of the United Church of Canada in the city. The delegates will be billeted upon the basis of the Harvard plan, bed and breakfast in homes, with other meals probably being served in the dining-room of the Metropolitan church.

The preliminary arrangements have been made by the central billeting committee, consisting of the following members: Israel Taylor, Metropolitan church, chairman; Rev. C. S. Miller, Beecher church: vice-chan man; R. D. MacDonald, First Presbyterian church, secretary: J. Lougheed. St. Andrew's church; Bert Wherry. Pilgrim church, and Miss J. "In the line of unpropitious undertakings, we must award the palm for unseasonableness to a movement for the conservation of murderers at a stage of American history when and where the blood of an unprecedented number of victims of murderers is crying to heaven for vengeance. Doubtless the good men and women engaged in this most untimely project are ready with the claim that, inasmuch as murderous hands have not been stayed by the fear of the rope or the electric chair, it is desirable, in the interest of public safety, to try the penalty of life imprisonment for a change. But we have confidence enough in the common sense of the majority of the American people to believe that they can never be hypnotized by the plea that if they only consent to substitute a prison sentence for the death penalty, the fiends who plan the killing of their fellow-creatures, from one diabolical motive or another, will at once turn over a

John Henry's Wife

A tale that's old, but powerful true, and one that smacks of summer stuff, a-showin' how some folks exist by hangin' up a fearful bluff.

John Henry's wife, she journeyed off to spend a month away from home, selectin' as the spot a place where waves and pine trees groan and moan-a spot where other folks attend, and where life runs a rakish pace, it was no quiet, secluded dell, but quite a giddy sort of place.

John Henry's wife was good to see, most easy on the eyes her type, her eyes were blue, her hair was blonde, her lips like cherries ripe as ripe.

So when John Henry's wife arrived she had no chance to rest at all, or gain the strength she needed much to stand the rigors of the fall. The married men, the bachelors, the sheiks and summer flock intact, they waited on John Henry's wife, for thrills and such she never lacked.

And every single day, or so she writ John Henry in this style, that life in this deserted spot could hardly be termed right worth while. She was a-countin' of the days until she'd be back to her home, and longed to hear John Henry say as how she was his very own.

John Henry was a gay young steed, and when his wife had gone away, he took the bit between his teeth and was a prancing, careless jay. Some nights the troops they came to him and held high court within his shack, and them what couldn't walk away was carted in the village hack.

On other nights he sallied forth clad in a giddy sort of garb, nor did John Henry stay to home and nurse the onions in his It was a fright, the neighbors said, the insane here, today characterized reports that Russell T. Scott, convict ed murderer, had been found sane, as "all wrong."

Associated Press Despatch. Chicago, Aug. 24.-An unnamed nember of the staff of State Attorney Crowe was quoted by the Herald and Examiner today as saying that Russell T. Scott, convicted murderer, would be returned from the Chester hospital for the insane within four weeks to face the Cook county gallows once more. The newspaper said that the tache of the state's attorney's office had revealed that an informal decision that Scott is not insane had been made by Dr. Frank A. Stubblefield, superintendent of the hospital, and that the latter was awaiting only the corroboration of his decision by two consultant experts before send-ng Scott back. Efforts to get in touch with Dr. Stubblefield early today were uns cessful, and other persons at Chester declined to talk.

The crisp, crunchy kernels of Grape-Nuts fill a real need in the diet-for children especially, who always will bolt soft foods. It teaches them to chew their food properly, helps to develop healthy teeth and gums, and aids digestion.

GRAPE-NUTS was originated by an expert in foodvalues purposely to supply to the body in easily assimilated form, the important foodelements often lacking in the average diet. Grape-Nuts has all the essential food-elementsdextrins, maltose and other carbohydrates for heat and energy; iron for the blood; phosphorus for the teeth and bones; proteins for muscle and body-building; and the important vitamin-B.

Yet millions of people eat Grape-

Nuts for its flavor! And you'll realize why they do when you try Grape-Nuts. The crisp, crunchy grains with their nutlike flavor are wonderfully appetizing.

Grape-Nuts is ideal for the summertime breakfast or lunch. And it costs very little to serve-just one cent for each helping, four teaspoonfuls to a serving. All grocers have Grape-Nuts-in wax-wrapped packages. Ready to eat from the package-with milk or cream.

Vever Rest Until You Have Fitted Yourselves to Make Your Own Living.

These few lines are addressed to the thousands of girls who finished school in June and who are now standing, as the poet puts it, "where the brook and river meet." and won dering "where do we go from here?"

I want to urge you, girls, with all the earnestness of which I am capable, to psychoanalyze yourselves and try to find out what talents and aptitudes nature bestowed upon you, and then this fall to go to some school where you can develop your gift and fit yourself to be self-supporting.

I give this advice to the rich girl no less than to the poor girl, for in these days of shifting fortunes we have the new poor as well as the new rich, and no woman knows how soon she may be called upon to earn her own bread and butter or starve. If she has been taught how to do this, losing her money is merely an inconvenience to her; but if she does not know how to earn a dollar, it is a tragedy.

Of course, I know when I urge you girls to learn some gainful occupation by which you can support yourselves, that you smile and say vourselves that you do not expect to earn your own living long. You are Woodstock, Aug. 23.—The annual going to marry and follow woman's mother

That is as may be. In the past the great majority of women have been able to count, with a fair degree of safety, on being able to marry, but it is by no means a foregone conclusion that the girl of to day will get a husband.

There has been a most decided decline and fall in matrimony and home life, and it is foolish for girls to think that they have the same chance of marrying as their mothers and grandmothers

Now, for the girl who is sitting round and waiting for some man to

has to take any sort of a poor stick of a man as a prop for her to lean

Far different it is with the girl who has fitted herself for some definite work and is com petently doing it. She has a profession in which she is vitally interested. She has an occupa tion which fills her time. She makes enough money to indulge herself in the luxuries that women love, and so marriage becomes to her merely an incident of life, not the whole thing.

If the right man comes along, well and good. If not, also well and good. She has her pleasant, independent, nteresting life as a girl bachelor. The world to her is full of such a number of things besides wedding

Furthermore, girls, even if you do marry, you may still need to keep on being the breadwinner instead of a breadmaker. The high cost of living has to be reckoned with, and not every man under present economic conditions is able to support a family alone and unaided.

In the past the good wife helped her husband by doing housework and turning, and mending, and pinching the pennies. In the future the good wife will doubtless help her husband by keeping on with her well-paid job and assisting in making the money to give her family the living conditions and her children

Another reason why I urge you, girls, to learn some gainful occupation and perfect yourself in it is because it will do more than any other one thing to make you happy. It will keep you from being bored, and boredom is at the root of all fretful discontent. People who are busy. who have a definite object in view and are striving to attain it, find the day all too short, are always content and cheerful. And talk about thrills! never really know one until you hold your first pay envelope in your hand and it surges over you that the money in it represents your own work that was good enough for somebody to pay

So I urge you, girls, never to rest come along and marry her, it is a until you have fitted yourselves to catastrophe to be passed by. She earn your own bread, and butter, becomes the sour and disguntled old and cake. And remember, the bet maid, eating the bitter bread of dependence, the fringe on some family It is efficiency that pulls down the that doesn't want her. Or else she big pay envelope. DOROTHY DIX.

Riversides Get But Five Blows, While Locals Pounce On Young For Whole Four Runs and Title in Third.

HITS BY REILLY, ARMSTRONG DO TRICK

By STAFF REPORTER.

Preston, Aug. 22.—Preston's ace in the hole, Bill Young, proved a fizzle, and the London Braves became the 1925 Inter-county champions by forcing the Riversides to take a 4 to 2 count in the second game of the finals before 5,000 fans here today.

That Young proved a wrong choice is established in the fact that after that Young proved all their runs, Hales stepped into the breach and the Londoners garnered all their runs, Hales stepped into the breach and their down to one hit in seven innings. Therefore, one innings, the held them down to one hit in seven innings. Therefore, one innings, the held the was all that the Forest City crew needed to grab the title and put the Riversides out of the race definitely.

On the other hand, Freddie Quick hurled superb ball for the visitors. He held the locals down to five hits that were pretty well scattered, except in the fourth frame, when two runs were counted on as many hits and a base on balls shoved in between.

Unassisted Double Play. In the first frame Frankie Ward, the doughty shortstop of the London outfit, put the fans in an amiable frame of mind with a snappy double play all by box and stole second. Then Mellanby got hold on one of Quick's slants and the ball went on a straight line for McWaine. Ward, who pulled it down and stabbed F McAvoy as the local shortstop was racng for third.

Nothing happened then until the last of the fourth when the locals' hopes were revived with two counters. Mc-Avoy singled through Armstrong, went to third when Talbot filed out to Filmore after Mellanby walked. After that Quick was invincible although he wobbled a bit in the eighth, when Hales doubled to center. No damage was done, however, as the remainder of the side was retired in order. London threatened to score again in their half of the eighth, when Armstrong singled to left, went to second on Reilly's sacrifice and to third while Doherty was being thrown out, Klaehn to Masters. A. intermediate series of the O. B. A. A. by a score of 5 to 4. Two runs in the ninth inning gave them the victory, when the score had been standing 4 to 3 in favor of the homesters. Wildness on the part of Wilson, the Sarnia moundsman, had a disastrous effect on the locals. He struck three of the local players, and in the seventh inning Hovey who had been hitting well and doing full justice to his duties at the first sack, was knocked out. He was strack near the temple and at first appeared to be seriously hurt. He started again in the eighth inning, but, owing to dizziness, was froced to retire, a fact which weakened the team. A third game between these two teams is necessary. Ingersoll having won at Sarnia on Wednesday and it will be played on Monday at Strathroy.

Saturday's game drew the largest attendance of the season, and on the whole good ball was played. Ingersoll had three errors and Sarnia sight. Defeat came just at a time when the locals appeared to have the game tucked away and the injury to Hovey was no small contributing factor. However, the visitors batted stronger towards the close of the game, and it's a toss-up on the series between the teams. Monday's game should be brimful of excitement. by a score of 5 to 4. Tecs' Manager Accepts 23 Chances Without An Error.

Special to The Advertiser.

Hamilton, Aug. 22.—Bill Coogan, star right-hander of the London Tecumseh's hurling corps, eclipsed his previous per-formances this season, when he lasted over three Hamilton hurlers to take the longest game of the season Saturday. The final count was 5 to 4, with the visitors getting their winning tally their half of the fifteenth inning, Rol their half of the fifteenth inning. Robertson's failure to hold Kernan's easy pop fly allowing Cross to score from third. Coogan wobbled slightly in the early innings, but after the locals had tied with four runs secured by the Baker crew in the first and eighth, he was invincible, and mowed the Clippers down with regularity before one of the largest crowds of the season.

In the second game, the time limit to allow the teams to catch trains was just enough for the visitors to take a 3 to 0 decision in five innings. In this enough for the visitors to take a sto of decision in five innings. In this game, Rynearson breezed through, allowing only three blows, and was not in danger in any one of the five frames. The londoners went through the 20 innings without an error.

The lengthy contest that made up the first half of the double bill was filled with brilliant features, the most noteworthy of which was the sensational shortstopping of Manager Baker, of the Tecumséhs, who handled no less than 19 chances without the semblance of a slip. Baker roamed from third to second, and even back of the bag to grab off many drives that looked like sure hits, and was prominent in almost every inning. Vermilyea and Coogan also helped out greatly in the infield.

Hamilton used three hurlers in an attempt to stop the rush of the Chirps to the second half pennant. Ryan started the tilt, but was derricked in favor of Work in the seventh. The latter was tempt to stop the rush of the Chilips the second half pennant. Ryan started the tilt, but was derricked in favor of Webb in the seventh. London staged a great start in the opening inning by scoring a pair off Ryan. Sandquist laced out a double to open the game, and after Baker and Stimpson had skied out, Cross bounced another two-bagger against the scoreboard in right to send Sandy in. Brower's hard roller to Roper enabled Cross to tally the second.

Hamilton pulled even in the fourth. McCrea was hit and Duckworth doubled. The former scoring on Robertson's infield out, and Duckworth crossed the plate when Bashang lined to right for a double. Neitzke's single in the sixth, scoring Ryan, put the Clippers one to the good, but the lead was short-lived, for hits by Klein, Coogan, Sandquist and Baker sent over two tallies for London in the seventh. Riley's single, a walk to Bashang and Roper's blow to center evened the count for the Wetzel crew in the eighth.

There is a "No Man's Land," in the annual athletic accounting of most American colleges, in which certain items are buried. The graduate managers and the coaches who do this manipulating are perfectly honest men, and generally results in athletic governing bodies incurring large indebtedness. This indebtedness can be removed only by subscriptions and increased gate receipts. Both subscriptions and sate receipts depend on

This straw man could have been knocked over long ago, if the men behind football had come out openly and accepted and defended the necessity of playing the game to win, and had done openly and courageously and done furtively.

Interesting tennis matches resulted when the C. P. R. entertained the men members of the St. James's Anglican tennis club on the former's courts. From the opening event, in which Queen's park scored a first, until the final event, the east end playground rolled up the largest combined score of both boys' and girls' points to carry off the championship.

The team standing was as follows: Queens 85 Lord Roberts 38, Tecumseh 36, Thames 27, Bottrills 22, Riverview 14, Birketts 11, Simcoe 10.

Jack Rankin of Lord Roberts captured the senior individual boys' championship with a totals of thirteen points, while Reynolds of Queens and Rossiter of Bottrills were tied for second with eleven points each. There was keen competition throughout the senior events between this trio, and the finish of the senior 220 dash was one of the most exciting features of the meet. Reynolds nosed out Rankin at the tape by a spectacular finish.

E. Gatecliffe carried off the senior girls honors with a total of thirteen points, and assisted greatly in bringing the honors to the east end playground. General Railway Signal Bid Up Twelve Points On Wall Street.

Associated Press Despatch.
Associated Press Despatch.
New York, Aug. 24—Wall Street, 1:30 p.m.—Buoyancy cropped out in a number of shares in the early afternoon, and the establishment of new high prices for the year by some of the appular issues caused the general list to spurt upward. General Railway Signal sold at 338%, a jump of 24 points.
Chrysler at 126%. General Electric at 337%, Havana Electric at 234 Southern Railway at 105, and Chesapeake and Ohio at 166%, were also elevated into new high territory for the year. Western Pacific, Loose-Wiles Biscuit, Kelsey Wheel and Pressed Steel Car also showed conspicuous strength.

Grain Markets Canadian Press Despatch.

Winnipeg, Aug. 22. — The wheat market was dull today, with trade light and narrow. Prices held from at ½c to le above yesterday's close. Opening ngures were unchanged to %c higher, but, in sympathy with decided strength in Chicago September, which was up 2c, Winnipeg October advanced, crossing %c higher at $1.46½. December, after opening ½c to %c higher, closed at $1.42%, an advance of le. May closed %c higher at $1.46½. There was no particular feature to the market, with outside news about unchanged.

The market was very quif in the market was very quif in the Canadian Press Despatch. outside news about unchanged.
The market was very duil in the coarse grains, but prices held steady, oats and barley being fractionally nigher, while rye was unchanged. The flax market was firm, with October about 1½ c higher.
There was, practically speaking, no cash wheat market on account of the lack of stocks, and while spreads lost about 2c, it was not because the demand had slackened, but simply because there was no wheat in which to trade.

GUARDS FELL ASLEEP. Associated Press Despatch. Swampscott, Mass., Aug. 24.—Two marines of the special detail assigned to guard the summer White house were found asleep at their posts on duty early this morning.

Charges of neglect, of duty have been preferred against them, and Captain Adolphus Andrews, the president's naval aide, has ordered an slaughter for participation in the "witchcraft" murder of Wastetita Moccasin, two winters ago, in the re-managing director of the recently incorporated corporation D'Achats, Ltee (Furchasers' Corporation, Limited), Montreal, with a capital of $100,000, which plans to include five hundred grocers, drawn from the provinces of Quebec and Ontario, for the purpose of group buying of merchandise direct from the manufacturer and producer wherever possible. The cost of this service will be the lowest possible consistent with the many advantages accruing to the members. Two important features of the organization are, individual members are in no way liable for any debts that may be incurred by the company, and that privileges of the association will be confined strictly to members.

Magistrate Commits Woman to Mother's Care Instead of Husband's.

Mothers are better guardians than husbands for the safekeeping of wayward wives, according to Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon, who will commit Annie Longer, 21 years old, to her mother's custory in preference to the Mrs. Longer, who was a bride at the age of 13 years, ran away from her husband in Toronto, but was ar-rested in London Saturday night as a vagrant. In court this morning she told the magistrate that she lived in Sarnia, and it was her wish to leave London for her home. "What of your husband?" the mag-istrate asked. "I have been married eight years,

Mrs. Longer, who has not yet reached womanhood, replied in quaint Russian accent. "I want what you call the separation. In that case you better be looked after by your mother," the court de-clared. Mr. Graydon gave assurance that the girl would be released from custody as soon as the mother was

CHAMBER TOURISTS

Trip Through the District. Interest in the London chamber of Herbert Craven of Delhi and E. A. Lalonde, Toronto, Summoned.

Special to The Advertiser by a Staff Correspondent.
Windsor, Aug. 23.—Charges

criminal negligence have been placed against Herbert Craven, 37 years old, of Delhi, and Edwin A. Lalonde, 40, of Toronto, drivers of the automobiles that collied on the Comber road, near Tilbury, Friday night, killing three persons. Craven's father and mother and his aunt met death, and four others were injured.

The charge against Craven is made by S. A. Hilliard, a provincial highvay officer, who said such action is necessary to ensure the presence of the two men at the inquest which has been called for August 28, at Stoney Point. Craven and Lalonde are both in Hotel Dieu here, recovering from their injuries. Physicians tonight express the Physicians tonight express the belief that Mrs. Albert McColl, 58, of No. 5 Rutherford avenue, Hamilton, Craven's aunt, who was believed dying when brought to the hospital, has a chance for life.

The bodies of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Crave and Mrs. Sheridan, were taken to Delhi today for burial. Mrs. Sheridan is a practice of that unlace.

A jury under Dr. Paul Poisson viewed the scene of the accident yesterday, and adjourned until August 28. No eye-witnesses of the accident have yet been located.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Aug. 23.-All was quiet at the London docks today. The unofficial strike of the shipping men has not only made no progress, but apparently is fizzling out. Several vessels, which were temporarily delayed, secured crews and sailed out of port. The seamen's strike seems, up to the present time, to have been less successful in the home ports than in Australia, where shipping trouble has been long simmering.

The seamen's strike is an unofficial movement, and is understood to be fomented by Tom Walsh, who was closely identified with the shipping strike in Australia. About 15,000 men are involved, the strikers repudiating the agreement between the two seamen's unions and the employers for a reduction of wages.

Stratford, Aug. 23 .- According to Mayor Tom Brown, who returned today after a motor trip, in company with Mrs. Brown, to the Maritime provinces, no fewer than 40 names have been mentioned in connection with the two senatorial vacancies in Ontario. This information was received during the course of an informal interview he had with Premier King, Dr. J. P. Rankin, M. P. for North Perth, and W. H. Gregory. Though somewhat non-committal in his remarks, Premier King did reiterate his oft-repeated assertion that providing his lieutenants were rd, he would go to the people this autumn. He made no secret of the fact that certain of the party leaders were anxious to defer the election until the spring.

New Style Notes For Men

These articles are gathered from most authentic sources, such as our New York service, The Breath of the Avenue and other leading styles. These reports do not contain the extreme or freakish modes which may flash into being from time to time. But they are the styles which will be worn this fall by businessmen, commercial men, professional men, college men and all well-dressed men.

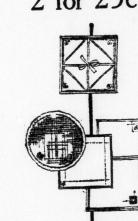

SUITS

There is a tendency this fall to depart from the extremely loose vogue which has held the stage for the past couple of seasons. An altogether trimmer effect comes into being, but the very loose clothes will still predominate among college men. The young businessman and his elders in the commercial and professional field like their style more compact, more confined in line, and thus our Wembley model becomes one of the most popular business suits this fall. Here you have the new lapel line, the broader shoulder, the trim hip at its very best.

In college styles, the Renfrew and Mayfair still retain their style leadership with the student body. College style avoids the slightest attempt at bizarre or freakish features. It must be plain, exceedingly loose and it depends entirely on the tailoring to give it distinction and
