TEACHERS MAY RESIGN IF THEY DON'T LIKE IT

The trouble at the King Edward School reported between the teachers and Principal White was all settled this week at a meeting of the school management committee of the Public School Board.

Mr. George H. Ryerson, chairman of the board, stated this morning that King Edward School teachers had a proper place to lay any complaints against Principal White, and that airing their grievances through a third party and then through the public press was detrimental to school interests generally.

It is understood that, with a view of straightening matters out, Principal White will go to Dufferin School as assistant to Mr. Rowe.

Ryerson, to say that the majority of the teachers of the school have not expressed disapproval of Mr. White's conduct as Principal; and, further, that the circumstances in connection with the police-court action referred to have been greatly magnified and misrepresented.

DROWNING WAS MOST DISTRESSING

Terrible Fatality at Edmonton in Sight of Hundreds of Spectators.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
EDMONTON, Alta., June 27.—Before hundreds of spectators who were enjoying themselves on the river banks last evening, six well known Edmonton young people were drowned close to the low level bridge by the overturning of a gasoline launch.

On the trip down the river the party was gay with laughter there was a sudden jar to the boat due to it striking a snag. The engine stopped and from the jar the boat overturned, precipitating its occupants into the water. Mr. Case, who is an expert swimmer, after a vain effort to rescue his wife, saw it was impossible, and he swam for the shore, which he barely reached. A crowd just leaving the ball grounds saw the boat overturn and rushed for boats but already the victims of the treacherous river had sunk from sight.

Mrs. Case, one of the drowned, had only returned with her husband from their honeymoon on June 16. They were married May 27th in Spokane. Meredith and his wife were also a newly married couple.

Case, the only one saved, is prostrated as a result, and is now under a physician's care.

The authorities are dragging for the bodies.
ST. CATHARINES, Ont., June 27. Mrs. Everett Case, who was drowned with five others in a motor boat accident at Edmonton last night, was the daughter-in-law of C. A. Case, a prominent merchant here. His son is manager of the Imperial Bank of Edmonton. The young couple were here on their honeymoon three weeks ago. The bride was formerly Miss Josephine Askin of Windsor.

Explore Blank Space

entists to Victoria Island, where they will undertake the complete scientific examination of the land.
"Without a doubt the Karliuk is the best equipped exploration ship ever sent to the north," said Dr. Steffanson. "But what the results of our expedition will be we cannot forecast. We are going to explore a large area north of the mouth of the Mackenzie river. We shall go farther north than a ship ever has sailed in that quarter. We cannot tell what we shall find. We do not know whether we shall find land and if we do, we do not know that it will be inhabited. If it is inhabited, it is certain the people will be a tribe of Eskimos, but there is little probability of there being any people that far north even if there is land. We are not going to look for people, but to explore that vast region that now is a blank on the map."

M. Steffanson expects to leave Nome on the Karliuk about July 20 and reach Point Barrow, the northernmost point of Alaska by the end of the month. Front Point Barrow the Karliuk and the Alaska will sail eastward to the far into the Mackenzie. From the Mackenzie the Karliuk with Steffanson and five other scientists will sail northward, while the Alasa will proceed east six hundred miles to Victoria Land.

"If the winds are from the east we should have open water and the Karliuk should sail far into the north. If we should find land we will unload our provisions and send the Karliuk back from where land is encountered and if we are not caught in the ice we shall go east to Prince Patrick Island, north of Banks Land. Even if we are caught in the ice we shall not suffer. The Karliuk being provisioned for three or four years. Although the Karliuk is smaller than Perry's ship, the Roosevelt, she carries more than twice the provisions taken by the Roosevelt. Our provisions all are concentrated. We have fish, such as salt beef and canned goods, preferring dried fruits and grains which require much less space."

Mr. Steffanson said that if the expedition met with no mishap and everything went according to schedule, they would return to civilization in October, 1916.

An Arrest at Collingwood

cial detective, whose time apparently has not been wasted. Since the case developed important features of those who were occupants of the house on the night of the shooting have been kept under quiet police surveillance to ensure their presence if required. Public opinion in the town seems to strongly favor the theory that the child was not responsible for the shooting.

The Calbecks were married about six years ago, and in addition to the boy James, had a daughter of two years and a half, while the woman at the time of her death was in a delicate condition. Calbeck has worked for the corporation and at other odd jobs, and his wife was a hard working woman, who looked older than her years. John Birnie, K.C., is looking after the interests of the Calbeck's in the case. The evidence of Dr. Arthur, who conducted the post mortem, will be heard this afternoon, and it is expected that at least one of the Calbecks will be recalled to the stand.

He Makes Good.
WASHINGTON, June 27.—Jack Johnson has made good his escape from the United States for the time being; at least, and can neither be extradited nor deported from Canada, according to the latest official view here.

Johnson, it has been learned, is travelling on a tourist ticket, and Canada cannot return him, because the immigration law does not exclude a transient alien in such circumstances. Johnson's offence is not extraditable in Canada. Officials here were making an effort to-day to have the negro returned to the United States under Canada immigration laws, but it has failed.

If the United States Circuit Court of Appeals sustains Johnson's conviction his one-year sentence for violating the white slave law will be enforceable any time he returns to the United States.

The Uses of 'Liza Jane'
Evidently "Liza Jane was a very useful person. She and the old lady came into a London shop, and the old lady began examining some pieces of cheap calico. She pulled at one piece first this way, then that, wetting it and rubbing it with her fingers to try if the colors were fast. But she seemed not entirely satisfied. At last she cut off a piece with a pair of scissors and handed it to "Liza Jane. "Here, 'Liza Jane," she said, "you clean that, and see if it runs." And "Liza Jane raised it to her mouth, and solemnly went to work.

UNITED STATES AND JAPAN

There can be no doubt about the fact that there is at present a great deal of tension between Japan and the United States, and the action of some California villagers in running some Koreans out of the place will not tend to help matters. Korea is under the protection of the Mikado, so that the act constitutes a direct affront to the Japanese.

The latter would dearly love to get hold of the Philippine Islands. The islands of Japan, all told, only constitute an area of 148,000 square miles, or about 27,000 more square miles than Great Britain, and her teeming millions are badly in need of some outlet. The Philippines have an area of 150,000 square miles, and they are comparatively near to the land of the geisha girl.

Should a reaction unfortunately occur, either now or later, our neighbors would have a very hard job to hold those islands, as the Japanese are so much closer to the base of supplies. However, Great Britain and Japan have for so long a period acted together that the influence of John Bull may be counted upon in a palliative way.

As the London Times recently pointed out, the moment has come when Japan is disposed to challenge the very essence of the attitude of the Western nations towards Asiatics. She asks admission to the comity of nations upon equal terms, and bases her claim not so much upon the success of her arms as upon the advances she has made in the arts of peace. The situation is, therefore, one of special difficulty, and it involves an issue which will become more and more insistent in the near future. Japan's large claims and the far-reaching issues involved in them will have to be handled with infinite calmness and prudence, both by the United States and Great Britain. Japan is rapidly advancing towards standards of democratic government, and if her claim to full equality of treatment by Western nations is denied we shall be face to face with a passionate outburst of popular feeling in Japan. Australia feels the pressure of the problem as much as anyone else, and no one can question that she would far sooner sever the ties with the British Empire than relax her legislation against Asiatic races. The problem calls for the most thoughtful consideration and the wisest possible statesmanship.

THE GRAND OLD MAN OF CRICKET.

It will interest many people in this city and vicinity to know that Dr. W. G. Grace is still a notable exponent of Britain's national game.

In a recent match he played for Eltham against Old Charlton, and played in grand form, making a score of 60 not out.

The Doctor is an old man now, but evidently still possesses much of the ability which for many years made him the acknowledged champion of the sport. His style of batting is not attractive—certainly not in the same class with that of "Ranji," the Indian Prince—but he secured results, and his wicket has always been very difficult to get.

For 66 years of age he is certainly a marvel.

It may be of interest to note that the highest individual score ever made was that of Mr. A. E. Stoddart in 1886, when he made 485 runs. The largest gross score of one eleven was that of Orleans Club vs. Rickling Green in 1882, when the former compiled 920; in first class cricket Yorkshire, in 1896, put up 887 against Warwickshire. Also in first class cricket Mr. A. C. McLaren holds the record with 424, when in 1895 he was playing for Lancashire against Somerset. Lowest score in an innings, 12 made by Oxford University in 1877 against M. C. C. Most runs made in one year by a single player, T. Hayward, 3,518 in 1906. He played 61 innings (eight times not out) and his average was 66.37. Abel, the great little Surrey player, holds second place with 3,309, made in 1907, or an average of 55.15. Abel became prominent when he was so young and boyish looking, that in his first match, "gentlemen vs. players," teams composed of the pick of amateurs and professionals, he was, prior to the commencement of the game, conducted off the playing field by a policeman who thought he was some over-zealous kid who had wandered too near the crease. Explanations were of course, speedily in order by his captain, Hayward and C. B. Fry each hold a record of thirteen centuries in one season.

GOING FOR ASQUITH.

Liberal papers in Canada have sought to make the pretence that Premier Asquith was quite unaware of the Marconi speculations of his colleagues, and that to him the whole matter came as a complete surprise. In a slashing and signed article in the National Review, headed "The end of the Asquith legend" Mr. L. J. Maxse, the editor and one of the foremost writers of the day completely disposes of any such buncombe.

He shows that Mr. Asquith was told in 1912 that the Attorney-General and the Chancellor of the Exchequer had purchased Marconi shares, and that to the extent of personal knowledge he was in the thing right up to the hilt. He further demonstrates that the American Marconi Company was interested in a contract between the Cabinet and the British Marconi Company.

All the whitewashing in the world cannot obliterate these facts.

MR. BURRELL'S GOOD WORK.

Hon. Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture in the Borden Government, has shown himself to be keenly alert to the importance of that department. He has caused a great extension of the Experimental Farms throughout Canada with a view to increasing their efficiency and of making them of more practical value to the farmers. Until recently certain provinces were served only by farms in adjoining provinces while conditions of soil and climate in certain districts differed so widely as to require special facilities for the study of agricultural problems. By farms or stations every province has now been reached and in addition subst-tions have been established to serve outlying districts, and sections within provinces possessing unusual conditions.

Recently no less than eleven new farms or stations have been added to the five original farms. These are situated in Charlottetown in Prince Edward Island; Kentville, in Nova Scotia; Fredricton in New Brunswick; Cap Rouge and Ste Anne de la Pocatiere in Quebec; Rosthern and Scott in Saskatchewan; Lethbridge and LaCombe in Alberta and Invermere and Sydney in British Columbia. To these must be added sub-stations situated at Kamloops in British Columbia, Fort Vermillion on the Peace River and Forts Smith, Resolution and Providence and Athabaska Landing beyond the 60th parallel of latitude where some experimental work is being carried on.

A further recent development of the system has been to greatly strengthen the staff of officers. The number of scientifically trained assistants in all the Divisions at the Central Farm has been materially increased in order to cope successfully with the ever increasing work. Another advance has been made in the creation of a Division of Agrostology under M. O. Malte, Ph. D. who is a famous specialist and will devote his attention to the improvement of the quality and yield of the grasses, clovers, alfalfas, roots and other forage crops given in Canada. In order to give the science of bee-keeping the attention it deserves a trained apiarist in the person of F. W. L. Sladen of Dover, England, has been appointed and attached to the division of entomology where he will devote his whole time to investigation and educational work bearing on bee-growing.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

June is certainly playing the juke with most of us.

Lost, stolen or strayed, one cool breeze. Large reward offered by a bunch of perspiring humans.

Speaking of a Brantford rink winning a bowling trophy brings to mind the fact that this is a very ancient game, for in the Bible it is recorded that Balaam addressed himself to a jack.

The Atchison Globe rises to remark that a "Young Thing" is fairly certain to think she knows more than her mother about everything but the kitchen work.

If matters should come to blows, Uncle Sam, who emerged so triumphantly out of the Yanko-Spanko war, would not be apt to find the next affair quite such a Japanese job.

The new Premier of Australia is a newspaper man. Recently in the Canadian Senate, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, also of the same craft, made a vigorous speech of 80 minutes' duration, although over 90 years of age, and Mr. G. S. Porter, who founded the Newmarket Era in 1852, has just celebrated his one hundredth birthday. Members of the "fourth estate" are certainly some jinks.

Faultless in Preparation—Unlike any other stomach regulator, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are the result of long study of vegetable compounds calculated to stimulate the stomachic functions and maintain them at the normal condition. Years of use have proved their faultless character and established their excellent reputation. And this reputation they have maintained for years and will continue to maintain, for these pills must always stand at the head of the list of standard preparations.

"I never hear you bragging about your ancestors."

"No, I'm too busy trying to do things so that my descendants will be able to brag a little about me."

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

That Rhino.

Toronto Star: The dead rhino presented by Barnum & Bailey's to the University is now being divested of the ton or so superfluous flesh surrounding the skeleton, which is to be mounted. The work is in the hands of Mr. Fridey, Assistant Curator, who is conducting operations under a tent on the lawn near the Biological Building. As the animal has been dead over a week, the job does not appear to be too pleasant, and the rhino might in death, makes one painfully aware of his presence despite the plentiful use of disinfectants.

"Step a little closer and examine his head," suggested Mr. Fridey.

"No thank you," The Star replied, retiring precipitately.

The Billing System

Kingston Standard: If a society or a branch of it is anxious to be represented at an annual or other meeting, we think its anxiety should be shown by its paying all the expenses of its delegates. This would not only be fair, but it would save an indefinite amount of trouble. Only those who have had to find accommodation for these visitors know what a difficult and wearying task it is, and how much the feeling against the system is growing among those who are so often called upon to act under it. Further, it is generally understood that in many cases many delegates are sent, not because they are the most desirable in the society's interest, but simply because they are best able to bear the expense.

No National Disaster

Hamilton Herald: The bitterest criticism of the Canadian banks has come from the west. And probably the chief reason for this criticism is the cautious and conservative attitude of the banks towards the booming of western real estate. The most earnest warnings against the dangers of over-speculation in real estate in the prairie provinces have come from prominent bankers, and the policy of the banks has been to discourage rather than aid the speculative movement. The country has good reason now to be thankful that the banks have been for the most part dissociated from the western land boom. It has collapsed. If the banks had been involved in it the results would have been disastrous for the whole country. Twenty years ago Australia experienced a similar artificial inflation of land values, and some of the Australian banks assistant of the speculative movement. When the crash came these banks were involved in the ruin, and Australia has hardly yet fully recovered from the effects of that disaster. That Canada, as a whole, is not seriously affected by the bursting of the speculative bubble in the west is due in no small degree to the conservatism and prudence of the Canadian bank managers.

A Sea Dog's Dry Death

From the London Daily Mail: "If the Government should send troops to Ireland I am prepared to go over and be among the first shot down," volunteered Admiral Lord Charles Beresford. "The noble lord is going to die on dry land," mocked Mr. Joseph Devlin, and even Lord Charles had to join in the laughter.

Ready for the Emergency

It was a snowy, windy night, and Private Rafferty, on guard, quickly got chilled. The snow drifted into his sentry box until in sheer desperation he moved that rude shelter to a sloping position in the lee of the buttress of the wall.

From a locker at the foot of the flagstaff he abstracted a large union jack, and, wrapping this around him, he crept into the box and tried to make himself comfortable. The time seemed dreadfully long, and presently Rafferty dozed off to sleep, to be awakened later by the flash of a lantern in his eyes, and, looking up he found an officer and the sergeant eyeing him with astonishment.

"What's the meaning of this?" demanded the officer sternly.

But Rafferty did not disturb himself.

"Shure," he replied, "I thought ye'd left me to freeze to death, so fer convenience I jest laid myself out in this auld coffin. An' ye can place yerself about callin' out the firin' weather clear, track fast."

CITY NEWS ITEMS

THE PROBS

TORONTO, June 27.—The rainfall of the past week in the western provinces has been general and copious and the western provinces cool and showery. Thunderstorms occurred last night in nearly all parts of Ontario and Quebec. The temperature was very high yesterday in Ontario but moderate in all the other provinces.

Lakes and Georgian Bay—Moderate winds, fair, Saturday—Easterly winds, cooler and showery.

Temperature
 Temperature for the last 24 hours. Highest 90, lowest 68. For the same date last year, highest 77, lowest 45.

St. John's Church Picnic
 The teachers and scholars of St. John's Anglican church will hold their annual picnic at Braeside next Tuesday.

St. Andrew's Football Club
 The following are the players chosen to play on Saturday at the Y. M. C. A. Short goal, Scott and Howling, Bill Johnson, Wallace, and Short, Hutchings, Spence, Midgley, Parker and Morrison (captain). H. Underwood. Reserve, Mr. Johnston, linesman.

Tutela Team
 The following will represent the Tutela team against Cockshutt's tomorrow afternoon at Tutela Park—Goal, Stanley; backs, N. McLeod, W. Bowden; half backs, F. Wright, F. McLeod; forwards, Usher, Hingley, Gore, Bailey, Baker. Reserves, T. Wright, T. Mitchell.

Strawberry Crop
 The strawberry crop is not quite up to the standard this year. Pickers are as busy as bees this week. The raspberry crop promises to be abundant. Some report the spy apples damaged by frost, but as a whole the apple crop looks well. The pear and cherry trees are loaded.

Receive a Boost
 Division Court Clerks are to receive more pay in any place where fees and emoluments are under $500, the municipalities must pay $2.00 for every sitting of the Division Court to both clerk and bailiff, and in addition to this the county must not only pay for their books as heretofore, but also for the necessary forms required.

Water-tower Boon
 Observations were taken from the high tower a short time ago. With a strong glass people could be seen walking on the streets in Brantford and the flowers on the graves in Greenwood cemetery could be distinguished. It was possible to exchange light signals in the evening with the tower at Woodstock—Waterford Star.

Tender Accepted
 There was a special meeting of the Collegiate Institute Board last evening when tenders were received for grading and sodding the land in the rear of the school. Those present were: Dr. Hart, chairman; and Messrs. Ryerson Pickles, Lahey, Palmer and Sweet. The tender of Tallock and Strobridge was accepted, and the work will be proceeded with immediately.

Family Re-union
 A re-union of a large number of the members and descendants of the Broughton family took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hayward, 94 Queen street yesterday. Over 60 were present, who sat down to a tasty luncheon prepared by the host and hostess. Relatives were present from Milwaukee, Lockport, Tonawanda, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Hamilton. Dr. J. W. Cutter of Chicago, one of the guests, at one time occupied the pulpit of the Congregational church here.

The Misers' Millions
 One of the most interesting of the special series of feature photo plays being shown at the Apollo is the Misers' Millions, for the last half of this week, and those who witnessed it yesterday, were held in wonder at the thrilling scenes enacted. The train wreck is the most realistic scene possible, showing two fast trains coming together head-on, leaving nothing but a pile of debris. The secret doors, traps, cupboards, etc., which were used by the old miser to safely hide his wealth are a source of continual amazement. The picture is one of the greatest lessons of what can be accomplished in photography that has ever been seen in Brantford.

WOMEN'S SKIRTS ARE DISCUSSED

New York Wanted Them Tight But Chicago Wanted More Lee-way.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

NEW YORK, June 27.—The much mooted question of the proper fit for women's skirts was the feature of discussion at the National Ladies' Tailors and Dressmakers' Convention which began here to-day with delegates present from all parts of the country.

It appeared a general opinion that narrow lines would continue to hold popular, with the trouser effect still a favorite among the ultra-fashionable. The New York delegates were firm for skirts a yard around, while Chicago representatives insisted on a little more lee-way, a yard and a quarter with two slashes, one at the front and one at the back. Louisiana delegates were the most conservative sticking for a two yard skirt, no slashes, and shirt waists instead of a three piece suit.

The pistol pocket was an innovation credited to the Chicago tailors, and seemed to be generally accepted as a good idea. One or two patch pockets were suggested, and if women did not care for the pistol they might carry their powder puff in one and purse in the other.

LOCAL STRIKE IS ENDED

QUEEN OF THE BIG CARNIVAL

Popular Voting Contest Will be Conducted by Ball Club.

Mr. A. L. Rankin, the promoter of the Queen of the Carnival Contest to be held here in connection with the Col. Francis Rea's Shows, United and conducted under the auspices of the Brantford Baseball Club, wishes to state and positively assure that there will be no publicity whatever in this contest beyond having their names in the papers. That seems to be the objection some of the young ladies have for not entering the contest. Twenty young ladies have already agreed to enter for the three handsome prizes that are to be awarded to the winning candidate. The first prize will be a diamond ring, the second a gold watch, and the third a three piece toilet set. The prizes will be on display in one of the most prominent windows on Colborne Street, Monday, June 30th. Nominations may be made with the officials of the Baseball Club.

MURDERER PAID PENALTY TO-DAY

A Hanging in Connecticut—Shot Woman Down in a Store.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

WETHERSFIELD, Conn., June 27.—Louis Saxon of New Britain was hanged in the state prison here early this morning for the murder of Anna Spelansky, in that city last November. He entered the death house at 12.05 o'clock; at 12.06 the trap was sprung and 12 minutes later he was officially declared dead.

Saxon was calm to the end. He made no statement. Saxon and Anna Spelansky lived together for many years as man and wife. Several children were born to them who survive. For some months previous to the murder the couple lived apart. Jealous because of the attentions paid to the woman by others, Saxon entered the store where she was employed and shot her several times with a revolver. Death was instantaneous.

Trouble Now Is All Over

The troubled waters of St. Luke's and Echo Place mission have rolled away. As anticipated, action has been taken by the diocesan authorities, and Rev Mr. Lester, rector at Tara, will be here shortly to assume charge of the work. Regular services it is understood, will be conducted at both places. The appointment of Rev Mr. Lester will probably mean the withdrawal of Mr. Alfred Hunt from the work of the parish.

Cadets Were Inspected

Public School Lads and Mohawk Cadets Made Fine Showing.

Yesterday afternoon, Capt. W. R. Marshall of Hamilton, Inspector of Cadets, inspected the public school cadets at 2 o'clock and the Mohawk Institute Cadets at the Institute at 4 o'clock.

Public School Inspection. Capt. Marshall visited the Central, King Edward and Ryerson schools, and inspected the cadets of the schools mentioned and cadets from other schools who assembled with them. After inspecting the companies at their respective schools, Capt. Marshall expressed himself as being pleased with the work. The captain explained the nature of the cadet camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake, July 7 to 12, which many of the cadets will attend.

Mohawk Inspected. The Mohawk Cadets turned out 47 strong under command of Major A. N. Ashton, Sergeants A. Moses and B. Finch, and Corporals Dordator, Green, Jamieson and Stonefish. Capt. Marshall put the cadets through manual and firing exercises, company drill, section drill, company in extended order and physical drill. The cadets were in fine form and reflected much credit on their instructor. At the conclusion of the inspection, Capt. Marshall complimented the cadets on their work and said they drilled like young regulars. The inspecting officer has promised to send an instructor from Toronto next Fall to instruct the boys and girls in the new Strathcona drill. Yesterday he gave a cut to be presented to the best drilled and neatest cadet on parade.

Will Go to Camp. A company of about 40 cadets from the different public schools will go to the cadet camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake in charge of Cadet Instructor Bingle of the Central School, teaching staff, who has been instructing "C" and "D" companies. Parents need have no fear that the boys will not be properly looked after. In addition to those already in charge, two officers from the Dufferin Rifles will probably go along. The new uniforms, fifty in number, arrived yesterday and will be fitted Monday next at the Central School. Those going to camp are requested to be on hand with their uniforms with service copy and legging have been secured. The boys are expected to present an excellent appearance.

Gazetted. The following have been gazetted: "A" Co. Central School Co. leader, W. Howard Hall Co. Leaders, Ormond Harris and Reginald Henwood; "D" Co. King Edward School Co. Leader, James Duncan, half-Co. Leaders, Harry Brown and Willie Gordianer.

A Sad Ending. ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., June 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cook were drowned and two members of a pleasure party were seriously injured when the steamship Pompano ran down and sank a motor boat a short distance off shore last night. The Pompano rescued all members of the party except Mr. and Mrs. Cook. The responsibility for the accident was not been fixed.

EMPEROR BILL IS COMPETITOR

He Started in His Racing Schooner Meteor at Kiel Regatta To-day.

KIEL, Germany, June 27.—Emperor William was a competitor to-day in the Kiel Regatta. He started on board his racing schooner Meteor at twenty minutes past ten in the opening race for Class A-boats, the other contestants being the former schooner Westward, which was re-named the Hamburg II.; the new English schooner Mangharite, of extreme design by Charles E. Nicholson and owned by G. Crell Whitaker, and the German Krupp, Dr. Krupp Von Bohlen und Halbach.

The Italian royal yacht Trimarica arrived here to-day and anchored alongside Emperor William's Hohenzollern, where she will await the King and Queen of Italy, who are expected to reach here on July 3 on their way to Copenhagen.

Johnson Detained

(Continued from Page 1) succeeded to his love of publicity. Though the local papers were told the prize fighter was here he could not be found and the story of his arrival in Montreal was practically at a discount when Johnson himself walked into The Gazette office to tell how he fooled the Chicago police by pretending to go to a ball game and the United States immigration authorities by wearing a moustache.

Though Johnson says he does not intend to sail for Canada until the boats and trains are being watched. OTTAWA, Ont., June 27.—If Jack Johnson does not at once prove to the immigration officials at Montreal that he holds a through ticket to France or St. Petersburg, as he claims he has, he will be arrested and deported back to Chicago as quickly as the machinery of the law will permit. Further, if Johnson holds such a ticket and does not use it without delay he will be sent back to the United States.

This morning the Immigration Department was informed by the United States Vice Consul at Montreal over the long distance telephone that he had received information that Johnson was in Montreal and he asked, on behalf of the United States Government to have steps taken by the Dominion government immigration officials to have the pugilist deported.

Johnson came to Canada through Windsor on Wednesday and as he had a through ticket to Europe he was regarded as a tourist. No official word had been received that he had been convicted of an offence against the criminal code of the United States and he was not suffering from any physical disease of a contagious nature, he could not be refused permission to pass through Canada. This is the explanation given by the immigration officials here. They say that officers of the department had been instructed to arrest Johnson should he attempt to stay in this country after the date the vessel he intends to sail on expires.

MONTREAL, June 27.—This afternoon Johnson came out of hiding and visited the Herald office, seeking information as to the attitude of the United States authorities towards his departure. He said that while he did not make a formal announcement to the police of Chicago, that he was leaving for Russia, he was informed by Special Agent DeMoody there no body could stop him as he was out on bail.

Johnson now says he is not going to run away and is ready to give himself up to the local police. He also intimated this afternoon that he will sail for Europe on Sunday, if nothing arises to stop him.

Johnson was notified by the police here, whom he reported himself this afternoon that provided he kept his word and left Canada within a day, or so he would not be arrested.

PARIS, June 27.—The tax rate in Paris this year will be 25 mills, the same as last year, but will raise an additional revenue owing to the $200,000 increase in the assessment. The county levy is increased some $700,000 and the schools take about 2,750,000 and other fixed expenses amount to over 11 million, and the current will have only 31-2 mills as a working fund, which will mean close pairing all around.

Ryerson School Picnic. Yesterday afternoon, the senior fourth and junior fourth classes at the Ryerson school closed the school term with a picnic at Agricultural Park, at which the boys and girls thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Baseball, football and races were indulged in. Owing to the storm, it was necessary to adjourn to the grand stand for lunch. This, however did not in the least spoil the appetites of the picnickers. The event was in charge of Mr. J. S. Rowe, principal at the school.

ASSAULT WAS MURDEROUS ONE

HAMILTON, Ont., June 27.—Railway detectives left for Jarvis to-day to investigate a mysterious murderous assault of two Grand Trunk trainmen at that place last night. The victims are James Carmichael, a conductor, and J. Farschewsky, a brakeman, both of this city. They were part of the crew on the 6.30 train, which was brought to a sudden stop at a crossing in Jarvis by the engineer just in time to avoid striking a woman. The conductor and brakeman jumped off and ran towards the engine to see what was the matter. They were about half the length of the train when the thugs jumped out from between two freight cars and attacked them. It is believed that the assailants used sopping pins. Carmichael was kicked in the facus he lay helpless on the ground and after breaking the brakeman's legs the thugs kicked him until other trainmen, hearing the scuffle, approached. Both the victims were brought here and will be paid up for several days. They could give no explanation of why the men attacked them.

COLBORNE STREET CHURCH PICNIC

Local News

Yesterday afternoon the Colborne street Methodist church choir held their annual picnic at Dundurn Park, Hamilton about 85 making the trip. The outing was pronounced to be one of the most successful for some time. The picnickers all report having had a very pleasant afternoon in the open. The pleasure seekers left by special radial car at 1.45 and returned to the city at 10.20. Several of the picnickers went by automobile to the Ambitious City. At the Park the usual list of sports were run off under the direction of Mr. J. L. Barnes. Many of the events were of an amusing nature and added much to the pleasure of the picnickers. A baseball match between the sopranos and tenors, and the altos and basses, was the star event. Several of the prizes caused considerable fun. Coming home on the car a lady member of the choir poured almost an entire tin of talcum powder, which she had won, over the head of a well known artist.

A tempting lunch was served by an excellent corps of ladies in the pavilion owing to the rain. This courteous act on the part of those in charge at the grounds was much appreciated.

FIGHT IS STILL ON. LONDON, June 27.—The "fight for the millions" was continued in the law courts to-day in the suit brought by member of the family of the late Sir John Murray Scott to declare invalid the will by which he left Lady Sackville, a relative of a former British Minister at Washington, nearly $5,000,000 and other property.

Walter Scott, a brother of the dead millionaire who secured his title by inducing Sir Richard Wallace to give his priceless art collection to the British nation, was called to the witness stand to-day and cross-examined by Sir Edward Carson. He testified that the Scott family did not suggest there had been any undue relations between Sir John and Lady Sackville. Their attitude, he said, was one of suspicion as to Lady Sackville's actions and as to her relations.

A MONG cotton and silk dress materials those with the little sprigged allover designs are most noticeable, because they are new and different and have not been in fashion for many years. Besides the quaint posy patterns of Louis XVI, there are also the new Bulgarian motifs designed in Munich secession styles of drawing and coloring. The latter gives the new summer fabrics—cotton and silk voiles and crepes, chiffon taffetas and soft summer wiles—a decidedly ultra modern air, just as the dainty French flouettes in delicate colorings are pleasing as reminders of bygone days.

Printed borders often edge these sprigged materials and they improve immensely the finished robe, for, thanks to modern machine hemstitching, the borders can be inserted in the material where they look best, the hemstitching outlining both edges and giving a certain elegance to the costume.

Summer models made from these picturesque materials are in keeping with these quaint printed designs. They are the type, in their picturesque simplicity, of the frock that is at its best when worn in the shaded village streets and lanes, the country lanes, or broad terraces overlooking the sea. Drapery has no place in these simple out of town frocks. In one frock there is a vague return to the lines of the Directory. Another is frankly Empire. Then there is still another frock that is the result of strictly modern effort, showing fanciful futurist details.

The frock itself, a soft white summer silk, is almost covered by a modern design of little red and black berries. Its fashion is simple enough, an elbow kimono sleeved.

All kinds of soft silk fabrics are to be had with these printed patterns, and crepe de Chine, mousseline de soie and chiffon taffetas are made up in the same simple styles as cottons. It is, however, in the simple little daytime dress that the all-over design looks at its best, though for young girls it also makes delightful dancing frocks for summer afternoon and evening social affairs.

Pictured on this page are a number of the latest Paris models showing these figured frocks, or Dolly Varden dresses, as they are sometimes called. With the detail of coloring changed to suit the age, the ultra modern design would be pretty for mother, daughter or grandmother. This particular model portrayed in figures No. 1 and No. 2 has futurist touches in shape and decoration of the belt and coat. Both show the influence of the Munich designers. The coat (No. 1) is sleeveless and is made of red shantung. Square mosaics applied onto the revers are outlined with red, yellow and black soutache braid. The belt of red shantung worn with the dress has a like embroidery.

Below this the pleats fall free, forming a ruffle with their fulcrum. The same flower wreath encircles the sleeves and makes the pendant ornament of the cravat. Both the narrow waist line ruffle and the bertha are embroidered with a design of berries and leaves. A bit of lace veils the depth of the décolleté.

An Empire gown, very pure in line, is pictured here. It is of white summer silk with a little sprigged pattern of tiny pink flowers. The skirt is fluted slightly at the sides and back. A tiny corsage in bengaline ribbon encircling the crown ends. An aigrette-like ornament made of roses, tulips, lilacs and field grasses is posed at one side toward the back. Such shapes are charming on women of all ages; they are conventional and at the same time extremely chic.

Directoire lines, but little modified, are to be seen in a frock on this page. The waist and the side skirt panels are finished by narrower links and comes. Worn in a new French play, the gown on the seated figure is of dotted red and white crepon. A pretty girlish affair, its skirt mounts up into a tub on the shoulders and the side skirt panels are draped into a point and finished by the cloth and held by a chain stitch and which, though unstitched, does not fall free, for the robe is caught in at the hem with a garland wreath of white berries and green leaves fashioned from silk.

Some new midsummer Paris hats, pictured on this page, are in keeping with the sprigged and dotted frocks. One is of cerise straw, the crown matching in color, but made of silk. King's blue velvet ribbon and a garland of flowers weigh the brim into a graceful shape that curves prettily about the face.

The small hat, narrower in front and wider at the back, is the mode of the moment in Paris. The hat shown here is of black pique straw, a dash of old blue bengaline ribbon encircling the crown ends. An aigrette-like ornament made of roses, tulips, lilacs and field grasses is posed at one side toward the back. Such shapes are charming on women of all ages; they are conventional and at the same time extremely chic.

Daisies have returned to fashion for hat decoration—not the tiny little field marguerites, but a large cultivated flower. They are massed over the hat, as in the

THE ENGLISHWOMAN ADORES HER SOFT HOUSE GOWNS.
As readily would the Englishwoman do without her trim tailored street costume as her soft, loose house gown, which she calls a teagown, but which is donned for an afternoon indoors whenever she is informally at home. This typical English teagown is made of light blue crepe de chine, with collar and cuffs of very fine St. Gall embroidery in creamy tone. The broad sash, which is draped high over the bodice at the front and reaches almost to the foot at the back, is of rose and silver tissue.

HAMILTON—GRANTMYRE.
Says the Sydney Daily Post, June 18th.
"A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning in St. Andrew's church by the Rev. Dr. Pringle, when Miss Blanche Eleanor, eldest daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Grantmyre, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Hayward, Hamilton of Brantford, Ont.
The bride who was unattended, was very becomingly dressed in a navy blue, serge travelling suit with small blue chip hat, and carried a bouquet of exquisite bridal roses. She also wore the gift of the groom, a beautiful sunburst of pearls. The bride was given away by her mother who wore a costume of black satin charmeuse.
The church, which was beautifully decorated with apple blossoms and other flowers, was filled with friends of the bride. Mr. A. P. McKinnon officiated at the organ and the choir sang the wedding hymn.
Mrs. Hamilton was the recipient of many gifts, among them being a handsome cabinet of silver and silver sandwich plate from the members of the Double M. Club; a cut glass water service from the choir; the Sunday school teachers, gold; from the class of boys, which she taught, a large picture; Dr. Pringle, silver casserole; Besides these were many beautiful pieces of needle work and linen; $10 in gold; bits of china and silverware and many other gifts, which attested to the popularity of the bride.
Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left immediately after the ceremony for a short tour of the provinces. They will reside in Brantford where Mrs. Hamilton will be "at home" after the first of July.

RECITAL HELD LAST EVENING

The recital given at the Conservatory Hall last evening by the pupils of Miss Squire's senior B class, was of a very high order indeed, and was a rare treat for those fortunate enough to be present.
In "Miss Mchitable," adapted from "The Spinner in the Sun," by Myrtle Reed, Miss Minnie Wyatt excelled herself, and the audience was more than enthusiastic. This charming reader also gave "The Death Disk," by Mark Twain, in a sympathetic manner, and she is to be congratulated on the remarkable improvement shown in her work since last season's recital.
Mrs. Walter Mason is another popular reader. In "The Little Scottish Martyr," she showed much dramatic ability, her characterizations being exceptionally good.
Mrs. Mason also gave three well-known Nursery Rhymes in pantomime, the audience being requested to name them, which it was able to do correctly in each instance. Mrs. Mason showed great ease in the Irish dialect.
Miss Mona Caley of Waterford read "The Two Gunners," and "The Rose" by Lowell, very pleasingly, and a monologue, "Buying a Hat," which provoked much laughter.
Miss Edna Stover read "Aunt Nancy's Family Reunion," and "To be Monument." Her work shows much promise.

Providence was kind to our ball club yesterday.

Many other bowlers were busy last night when the victorious Husband rink arrived home, but the reception accorded the Heathers was none the less enthusiastic.

The ball club will be away for an extended trip during Brantford carnival week, July 7-12. The carnival is going ahead in fine style, and a big week in town is anticipated.

Matthewson saved one and won another of a double-header. Thus say the despatches, and Big Six has still the wonderful arm and cunning that have put New York on the map.

Just when the Red Sox get out of town for a couple of days along comes a big league scout to look them over. The club might win a game from the Saints, but if there are big league scouts around the chances are decreased. The youngsters, after the experience of the past week or so fighting for their jobs might become nervous. The glittering prospect of a big league berth might be entirely too much to a club trained to such high tension as the Red Sox have been. It is a tough thing to save your job by an eyelash in Class C league, only to have a scout come along and say he wants you for the big show. Scouts shouldn't be allowed around at all. All jokes aside, however, this Cleveland scout at St. Thomas won't bother any one but Bill Baker. When he sees that whip of Purious Bill, it will be better than the draft price for the Saints; but Baker will go through many vicissitudes, in both minors and majors, before he wins an established place in the big noise circuit. Incidentally, Baker will probably pitch to-morrow's game behind the dyke for the Saints.

Report of First Match of Canadian Bowlers Told in Sporting Life

Sporting Life, from London, June 26, sent by Mr. J. A. Ogilvie, tells of an interesting match by the Canadian bowlers. It was the first encounter after the trip across, and it is interesting to note that Mr. Armitage of Paris and Mr. Ogilvie of Brantford were on a winning rink. The report:

"The arrival of the Canadian lawn bowlers, as they are officially styled, on Friday, midnight, did not give the players much chance of recuperation after a nine days' voyage, and it was therefore not surprising to find them lose at Reading on Saturday against Berkshire, although by only 18 shots in six rinks, viz., 125 to 107.

Up to the present Canada has not been in the front rank for bowls, but from the glimpse of form shown on Saturday it is evident that this team is away ahead of any previous team from across the Atlantic. When the sea voyage has lost its effects the associations who are later on the list of engagements will have to go all the way to beat the visitors.

On Saturday they beat two experienced skips in E. L. Coates and H. Lindars, they drew with Jack Grierson and lost to H. Mealy. Harry Childs and T. Ward. The game was watched by over 500 people, including Lord George Pratt, Alderman Field, J.P., Mayor of Reading, the Mayor of Maidenhead, Mr. J. W. Martin, J.P., and Mr. John Porter, who is keenly interested in bowls, and is president of the Newbury Bowling Club.

The match was preceded by a lunch at Caversham-Bridge Hotel, the players afterwards being taken to the grounds in a tramcar, lavishly decorated for the occasion. From the first end the score was in favor of Berkshire, whose 24 led to the fifth end by 28, which was diminished by 5 at the tenth, and by 3 at the fifteenth, and by 1 at the 21st. This proves how the Canadians were working themselves into form after the first few ends. Capt. T. Rennie proved himself a resourceful skip against Capt. Harry Childs, his deficit being much less than it would have been had he not constantly saved by drawing or downing the shot. C. O. Knowles, too, against Jack Grierson, was a match for the Thicket crack, thanks to Robertson, Canada, whose lightning drives struck terror into the hearts of his opponents. The players left Reading early, and yesterday, at the invitation of Sir Thomas Lipton, they spent an enjoyable afternoon at Osidge.

To-day the Lord Mayor of London officially welcomes the team to the city of London, and lunch will be taken with the Mayor of Kingston-on-Thames. The afternoon will be occupied with the match against Surrey on the Canbury Gardens green at Kingston. Details:—

Rink 1: Berkshire—J. Burling, T. Waldron, F. Butler, H. Childs (skip and capt.)—20; Canada—W. Barker, C. S. Robertson, John Rennie (skip and capt.)—12.

Rink 2: Berkshire—P. M. Lever, D. Ingamells, P. Moroney, J. Grierson (skip)—18; Canada—R. Kirkpatrick, John S. Wood, R. W. Brown, C. O. Knowles (skip)—18.

Canadian League

Peterboro Won.

PEERBORO, June 27—After earning a run in the first yesterday, the Petes took seven in the second on six hits, a passed ball and Dunn's wild throw to first, the catcher's wideness being responsible for three of them. The score was nine to seven. "Doc" Burton, the Barrie recruit held the locals to a single for five innings, and one run in the eighth. Jack Fryer's double hit in two runs in the fourth, and Behan drove in another. In the fifth Burton's two bigger scored Fryer and Utse, who had singled, and Wright's triple, with Belding pitching, made two more. Dunn was chased by Umper Daily in the seventh.

Looking Over the Players.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., June 27—Yesterday's game was postponed on account of rain. Brantford had finished their first innings and the Saints were at bat when the downpour came.

The first big league scout to invade the Canadian league this season was present, Bill Reidy, who scouts for the Cleveland Americans, occupied a seat in the grand stand. He stated that he was sent to St. Thomas to look over several of the boys, but did not mention any names. He will remain here for the game to-day and will probably visit some other Canadian League towns.

The Woman and the Dog

An elderly woman with a small dog upon her lap, while riding in a trolley car asked the conductor if he would kindly tell her when they got to Hazel street.

After she had got up two or three times, the conductor told her to keep her seat and he would let her know when they reached Hazel street.

Finally he called out, "Hazel St." The woman held the dog up to the window and said, "Fido, look! There is where you was born!" Then, turning to the conductor, she remarked, "I'm going to the end of the line." Judge.

Canadian Bowlers Had a Fine Trip Across the Ocean

Pleasant Weather All the Way—R. B. Rice of Toronto Appointed Vice-Captain of Team.

The Toronto Star's special correspondent with the Canadian bowlers writes as follows under date line of June 13, when the Teutonic was off the coast of Ireland.

"We are getting near the 'old town' now, as we are opposite the coast of Ireland, and expect to dock this afternoon, leaving by special train for London. To-morrow we commence proceedings with a six-rink game at Reading.

"From the time we left Toronto by special train we have enjoyed ourselves very much. The Grand Trunk special made a splendid run, and all the passengers' wants were well looked after by Mr. Charles Jenney, the Toronto City Agent. When we reached Montreal, we were met by the Ottawa bowlers and Mr. Wm. Brown of Westmount and a number of his friends.

The Westmount bowlers took the party for an auto trip and then to the Allan line dock. We were sorry we could not have a game with them, but we hope to have the pleasure on our return.

"The trip down the river was fine. The weather was nice and warm. On arrival at Quebec we were informed we would be there several hours, so all hands went ashore and visited the ancient city. The city was nicely decorated as the Prince was visiting there that day, leaving in the evening for Toronto and Niagara Falls.

"After leaving Quebec we had a fine trip down the river, although we ran into a dense fog, and were delayed somewhat. The captain and the other officials on the boat could not do enough for the team and their friends.

"The bowlers spent most of their spare time playing shuffleboard and curling. The third day out we had a curling tournament with 36 entries. The games were keenly contested. G. S. Robertson of Toronto and W. A. Warne were the visitors and they were presented with prizes by the ladies.

"Mr. R. B. Rice of Toronto was elected vice-captain of the team, and J. A. Ogilvie of Brantford and H. E. Wettlaufer of Berlin, appointed a sports committee.

"The ocean trip was very pleasant, and we are all looking forward with confidence to our first game at Reading. We think we can win a majority of our games."

NATIONAL LEAGUE RESULTS

NEW YORK, June 27—New York took two games from Boston yesterday by scores of 5 to 4, and 11 to 3. Brooklyn on Two. PHILADELPHIA, June 27—Philadelphia's winning streak was broken yesterday. Brooklyn taking both games of a double header the first by 5 to 2, in 14 innings, and the second by 4 to 2. Rucker who pitched in grand style in the first game was forced to leave the field owing to the heat after making a single in the thirteenth innings. Curtis finished out the contest and also pitched his team to victory in a duel with Alexander in the second. Brooklyn won the opener on singles by Tyler and Burns' double, and errors by Luers and Killifer in the fourteenth inning. Barring this session, both games were filled with brilliant fielding. The second game was won by the visitors in the ninth on doubles by Smith, Hummel and Fisher. Manager Dooin had his right hand badly hurt by a foul tip in the second event and was forced to leave the field.

Cheney Was Fought. CINCINNATI, June 27—Cincinnati pounded Cheney for 13 hits in this afternoon's contest with the Cubs and won the second game of the series 5 to 1. Brown, pitching in old-time form, was a puzzle to his former team mates and the best they could do was eight hits and three runs.

KING GEORGE MADE DECREE

Personally Asks That Side Saddle be Used in Royal Parade.

LONDON, June 26—King George has taken on his own shoulders any onus that may be associated with the decree that women must not ride astride in the Royal equestrian parade or at the Horse Show, Lord Lonsdale, who is the head of the International Show at Olympia, when asked yesterday who was responsible for the decree that women must not ride with the King. He added: "His Majesty, when giving directions for his visit to the Olympia with Queen Mary and President Poincare of France, said that if the ladies were to ride in the equestrian parade they must all use side saddles, as he did not wish any ladies to appear before him riding in any but the proper way."

NEW ONTARIO. The Province of Ontario has an area of 260,862 miles, greater than France or Germany. It has a population of 2,500,000. When you consider that France has nearly forty millions, and Germany nearly sixty-five millions, you get a faint idea of the possibilities of Ontario. But there is another remarkable fact. The bulk of the population of Ontario is found within a very small part of its area—the southern part, most of it lying within a couple of hundred miles of Toronto. After deducting this you still have an area about as great as France or Germany still waiting to yield its wealth to settlers and other enterprising people. Though very sparsely settled it is not by any means inaccessible. It is traversed from east to west by the Canadian Pacific Railway, and here long there will be three railways instead of one. Northward, the Temiskaming and Northern Railway, owned by the people of Ontario, has reached a point five hundred miles north of Toronto, and now the survey has been made to James Bay, in Canada's great northern inland sea. Branch railways and roads are being constructed in every direction.

The history of New Ontario is a history of surprising discoveries. First, we, in Old Ontario, heard of Muskoka, a great playground, a place for camping, boating, fishing, and hunting. The railway made its way farther north, in the hope of finding good agricultural land. Suddenly came the announcement of the discovery of silver mines of amazing richness, and a great mining population swarmed into Cobalt and the surrounding country. The discovery of gold caused another sensational influx of population.

Still further north was found a fertile tract of land, the clay belt, rivaling the Western prairies in wheat producing qualities, and well timbered and watered. This will be reached by the Ontario Government railway, the Grand Trunk Pacific, and the Canadian Northern Railway. The process of discovery is not yet complete. We have already found silver, gold, nickel, water-powers, timber, land capable of producing the finest grains and vegetables, spacious playgrounds for health and pleasure. There may be more surprises. There is surely reason to hope that in this vast region there are homes for millions of people, and opportunities for men and women who have the qualities of the pioneer, qualities which have marked all the races that have played their part in building up the Canadian nation.

CRDIFF, June 27—Mrs. Mackworth wife of Captain Humphrey Mackworth of the Royal Monmouths, and only daughter of David Alfred Thomas, "the British Coal King," who is now in Canada, was arrested last night at her residence and conveyed in her own motor car to the police station at Newport, charged with setting fire to a pillar box. Mrs. Mackworth, after spending four hours in a cell, was allowed out on bail, furnished by her husband. She will be arraigned for examination to-day.

"The Mystery of Agatha Webb"

By KATHARINE GREEN

Copyright, 1900, by Katharine Green

"You in that house?" "Yes, as far as the ground floor; no farther." Here the little finger stopped pointing. "I am ready to tell you about it, sir, and only regret I have delayed doing so so long, but I wished to be sure it was necessary. Your presence here and your first question show that it is." "There was suavity in her tone now, not unmingled with candor. Sweetwater did not seem to relish this, for he moved uneasily on his feet and lost a shade of his self-assured attitude. He had still to be made acquainted with all the ins and outs of the woman's remarkable nature.

"We are waiting," suggested Dr. Talbot. "She turned to face this new speaker, and Frederick was relieved from the sight of her tantalizing smile. "I will tell my story simply," said she, "with the simple suggestion that you believe me; otherwise you will make a mistake. While I was resting from a dance the other night I heard two of the young people talking about the Zabels. One of them was laughing at the old man, and the other was trying to relate some old story of a love which had been the cause, she thought, of their strange and melancholy lives. I was listening to them, and I did not take in much of what they were saying till I heard behind me an irascible voice exclaiming: 'You laugh do you? I wonder if you would laugh so easily if you knew that these two poor old men haven't had a decent meal in a fortnight? I didn't know the speaker, but I was thrilled by his words. Not had a good meal, these men, for a fortnight! I felt as if personally guilty of their sufferings, and, happening to raise my eyes at this minute and seeing through an open door the bountiful refreshments prepared for us all in the supper room, I felt guiltier than ever. Suddenly I took a resolution. It was a queer one and may serve to show you some of the oddities of my nature. Though I was engaged for the next dance, and though I was dressed in the finestest garments suitable to the occasion, I decided to leave the hall and carry some sandwiches down to these old men in their cottage. Procuring a bit of paper, I made up a bundle and stole out of the house without having said a word to anybody of my intention. Not wishing to be seen, I went out by the garden door, which is at the end of a dark hall."

"Just as the band was playing the 'Harebell Mazourka,'" interpolated Sweetwater, "you slipped out of the house for the first time from her careless composure by an interruption of which it was impossible for her at that minute to measure either the motive or the meaning, she ceased to play with her fingers on the baluster rail and let her eyes rest for a moment on the man who had thus spoken, as if she hesitated between her desire to annihilate him for his impertinence and a fear of the cold hate she saw actuating his every word and look. Then she went on, as if no one had spoken: "I ran down the hill recklessly. I was bent on my errand and not at all afraid of the dark. When I reached that part of the road where the streets branch off, I heard footsteps in front of me. I had overtaken some one. Slackening my pace so that I should not pass this person, whom I instinctively knew to be a man, I followed him till I came to a high board fence. It was that surrounding Agatha Webb's house, and when I saw it I could not help connecting the rather stealthy gait of the man in front of me with a story I had lately heard of the large sum of money she was known to have in her house. Whether this was before or after this period I cannot say, but I became certain that he was bent upon entering this house than my impulse to follow him became greater than my precaution, and, turning aside

"A flower worn by you at the dance was found near Babs's shirt."

"It was a late hour for visiting; but, as the house had lights in both its lower and upper stories, I should by good rights have taken it for granted that he was an expected guest and gone my own way to the Zabels." But I did not. The softness with which this person stepped and the skulking way in which he hesitated at the front gate aroused all my worst fears, and after he had opened that gate and slid in I was so pursued by the idea that he was there for no good that I stepped inside the gate myself and took my stand in the deep shadow cast by the old pear tree on the right hand side of the walk. Did any one speak? There was a unanimous denial from the five gentlemen before her, yet she did not look satisfied.

SLASHING ATTACK ON MR. JOHN BURNS

"Too Autocratic" at the Head of Local Government Board.

Mr. John Burn's administration of the Local Government Board was indicted in the House of Commons on Thursday during the discussion on the annual vote for his department.

Mr. Walter Long, who occupied that position in the last Unionist Ministry, moved a resolution of the vote by £100. He did so, he said, not because of any hostility to Mr. Burns, a fine specimen of the rugged, strong, determined Englishman, but because he feared there had been in the administration of the Board a great deal too much of the President and too little of the Department of which he was the head.

Mr. Burns had always said, "Leave it to me; I will make it all right." (Laughter) Was it all right? In connection with the question of the Housing of the Working Classes Mr. Burns, in his opinion, had been guilty of a very grave failure in the discharge of his duty. It had, in fact, been left to a most democratic Minister to make the Local Government Board the most autocratic of Government Departments.

He thought it Mr. Burns's duty to make a grant in aid under the Act of 1909, as he had full power to do. Cottages were badly wanted in various districts, and in many cases it was impossible to build them. Instead the President issued orders which local authorities could not carry out, as they imposed extra burdens on the rates.

Sir A. Griffith Boscawen (C.) said they urgently required 100,000 cottages in rural districts immediately, and at the present rate of building under the Local Government Board acts, it would take 700 years and seven months to erect these.

The Sir Ryland Adkins (L.) declared that Mr. Burns's Poor Law policy would not hasten the time when there would be no work houses, but tended to make workhouse methods permanent. He hoped Mr. Burns would dispel the prevailing notion that he was against giving any assistance from the central fund for problems of rural housing.

Mr. Waldorf Astor (C.) complained that under the Insurance Act insured persons were not getting the sanatorium benefit for which they had paid. Mr. Burns was to a very large extent responsible for this, having been woefully slow in stimulating local insurance committees to provide sanatorium benefit.

"An Anachronism." In London especially the sanatorium benefit was chaotic. Mr. Burns had deliberately slighted the London County Council and had been guilty of gross negligence. He had acted rather as an inspector than as President of the Local Government Board. Mr. Burns might have been a good administrator fifty or sixty years ago but at present he was an anachronism.

Mr. Glyn Jones (L.) expressed the view that Mr. Astor had not been fair to Mr. Burns. The London County Council must share with the Local Government Board the blame for any delay which had taken place in providing sanatorium treatment for insured parsons.

Sir Mark Sykes spoke of the necessity of pressure being brought to bear upon local authorities by the Local Government Board to improve the water supply. If this were done the number of deaths from typhoid fever in rural districts would be sensibly diminished.

Mr. Gurns admitted the importance of a proper water supply in rural districts, and promised to use every endeavor to pass the Bill this year, which dealt with the subject. He pointed out that during the last three or four years a considerable number of Poor Law children had been removed from workhouses. At present there were not more than 8,000 children in workhouses throughout the country, and nearly half of these were in separate buildings. In London there were now only 165 children in workhouses, of whom seventy-four were in separate buildings. (Cheers)

At 8:15 the debate was interrupted for the consideration of private business. With regard to the sanatorium benefit to insured persons, he referred to the speech of Mr. Astor, and said the hon. member made up in rudeness what he lacked in argument.

"Opposition cries of 'Bosh!' and 'Mistaken cheers,'—and he—Mr. Burns—would be giving undue prominence to an unqualified performance if he were to take any note of the personalities indulged in. He would remind the hon. a quotation from Francis Verulam Lord Bacon: 'That public men ought always to bear in mind the more noble a soul is the greater his composition hath.'"

GREAT SEIZURE OF ARMS IN LONDON

6,000 Rifles With Bayonets Found at Hammersmith—Investigating Matter

A stable in Long street, Hammersmith, which had for some days been under police surveillance, was raided on Tuesday, when 6,000 rifles, with bayonets and ammunition, were seized. The guns were packed in boxes, each box containing about fifteen and are believed to have been intended for transport to Ulster. They are of the Italian 1886 pattern.

The seizure was made about seven o'clock by a number of officers. To secure an entrance they had to break open the stable door. The task of removal took about two hours to accomplish, and the operations of the police were watched with interest by a large crowd.

News was on the premises at the time the police effected their coup, and no arrests have been made. The 6,000 rifles which were detained by Custom officials at Dublin came from the same stable, which a few weeks ago was hired by a man in the name of John Ferguson & Co.

The same person hired the slip van from Messrs. Morgan & Co. in which 500 rifles were conveyed to Dublin. Detectives had been keeping observation on the premises and warned the Irish authorities as each consignment left London, thus leading to the seizure by the Custom officials at Belfast and Dublin.

Twelve hundred of the rifles were on Thursday removed on two drays to the Proof House, Commercial road E., for testing purposes. Over 200 cases remain to be opened, and the work of unpacking is not improved by the fact that water has invaded the stable and is lying an inch deep.

Scotland Yard is now keeping a keen watch for a number of ships which are due to arrive within the next few days, and on board of which there are supposed to be consignments of similar weapons.

The furniture van, containing arms which was seized in Dublin, has been claimed by the owner, a London man to whom it will be returned after certain formalities.

A consignment of 2,500 rifles on Tuesday night left London addressed "To the order of Messrs Carson & Co., Midland ondtar thes cabrt Co., Midland station, Bedford, to be called for."

The mystery of the consignment is investigated by the British and Foreign Shipping Company, plying between Antwerp and London, shortly before that vessel left the Belgian port on May 31.

The ship arriving in the Thames on June 1, and on the following day proceeded to discharge its cargo at the British and Foreign Wharf, Wapping. It was then discovered that one of the ten cases, each marked "W. B." and entered on the manifest as containing "small arms," had broken in half, exposing a number of closely packed rifles of an old type which had been converted into carbines.

For a week the cases lay on the wharf, but on Tuesday they were handed over to the Midland Railway Company for delivery at Bedford.

THE DANGER OF ANAEMIA Consumption May Follow Unless Its Ravages Are Checked. There is danger to every girl and every woman who falls a victim to anaemia—that is bloodlessness. They become listless, feel too weak, too wretched and too hopeless to take prompt steps to stop the trouble.

Too often, through neglect, they drift into a worse condition, forgetting that anaemia frequently leads on to consumption. If you are anaemic in the least degree you should lose no time in beginning treatment to increase and enrich the blood supply. To do this there is no other medicine so good as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose helps make rich, red blood, which drives out disease and brings again the bloom of health to pale and sallow cheeks.

There are thousands of women and growing girls in Canada who owe their present good health to the timely use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Among those who have been restored by this great medicine is Miss Rose Neville, Mount Forest, Ont., who says: Dr. Williams' Pink Pills performed almost a miracle in my case. I was a victim of anaemia, in what my friends considered a dangerous form. I was very pale, always felt tired out, suffered from severe headaches, and had no appetite. I was taking doctor's medicine for a long time—in fact I tried two doctors—but instead of improving I seemed to be growing worse. My parents were at a loss to know what to do for me and thought I would not recover. Then a friend advised Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I had only taken them a few weeks when I began to feel better. This greatly encouraged me and I continued taking the Pills for some time longer, and found my health again as good as ever it had been. In fact I am stronger than ever I was before. I have advised the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to other girls who have found the results equally beneficial.

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

REGARDED AS SERIOUS

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The Japanese Embassy had not last evening received any report of the expulsion of a number of Japanese subjects from Hemet, California. While full details of the incident are not known it is felt that such an occurrence is just what both governments had hoped would not come up during the discussions of the California Land Law controversy. It has been felt from the first by those in positions of authority in the Administration that one of the gravest dangers of the situation was the possibility of clashes between whites and Japanese either in California or Japan. It is realized that if the incident in Hemet was really the outbreak of racial antipathy that the Japanese government will be in a position to make the situation embarrassing for the United States. That the persons expelled claimed to be Koreans is not regarded as altering the case materially, as all Koreans are now citizens of the Japanese government.

A Clear Brain and healthy body are essential for success. Business men, teachers, students, housewives, and other workers, say Hood's Sarsaparilla gives them appetite and strength, and makes their work seem easy. It overcomes that tired feeling.

The "Paving Determinator's" Verdict.

THE "Paving Determinator" is an ingenious machine that was built by the department of Public Works of Detroit—to subject sample stretches of various street pavements to severe, actual service tests. It imitates heavy trucks and steel-shod draught horses, reproducing, in faithful detail, every effect of this kind of traffic. This remarkable machine was recently used to test five varieties of street pavement—covering practically the entire range of present-day road coverings. A report of the test says:

"When the test had been made under the direction of Mr. McCabe and officials of the department, on eight sections of pavement laid in a circular track, the concrete section, laid under the specifications of the Board of County Road Commissioners of Wayne County, Michigan, showed by far the best resistance to the severe test to which the pavements were put."

Are you going to overlook these facts in deciding about your paving?

JACK JOHNSON IS NOW IN CANADA He Got Across the Border is Now in Montreal Awaiting Ship.

MONTREAL, June 27.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, accompanied by his white wife, arrived in Montreal early this morning, having come through direct from Chicago. During the day he moved six times through the city, being escorted to houses where he had engaged in an effort to evade newspapermen and the possibility of a clash with the immigration officials. Last night, however, he called at the Montreal Gazette office and made the following statement:

"I will remain in Montreal next Tuesday, when I am booked to sail for Europe. I intend going to St. Petersburg where I have a contract to fight Sam Langford, 'Gunboat' Smith. These fights will be pulled off some time in September."

Johnson stated that the immigration authorities made no effort to stop him at the Canadian line, claims there is $23,000 due him in Toronto, and he came this way to collect it before sailing for Europe. He also says he does not forfeit his ball bond, as it only requires presence in court in Chicago in November. He declares he has no intention of forfeiting this ball bond but will return to the Windy City the date set for the hearing of appeal from the conviction in the white slave case.

Tom Flanagan, manager of the Montreal Star, could not be located last night. It was thought that he could see the champion's statement relating the above mentioned $23,000. As can be learned he did not see Tom.

A Way to Get Johnson Back CHICAGO, June 27.—As soon as agents of the Department of Justice received a report that Jack Johnson had been seen in Montreal, they began a search. At Johnson's side here it was stated that the pugilist had gone on a fishing trip to O. Lake. Chas. F. Dewdney, Department of Justice special agent, at Cedar Lake, and told that Johnson was not there. "From the circumstances I think it not improbable that Johnson has gone to Canada," said Mr. Dewdney. "However, he may be brought back from there, although the crime is extraditable, as it is the custom of the Canadian police to expel those who are under conviction of crime."

It is said that as Johnson is coming to Canada to live, but in his possession the contracts bouts in Russia, together with tickets through to Paris, he is liable to arrest.

PEER AS BAR TENDER

Novelty at Fair in Aid of London Hospital.

That highly deserving institution, the London Hospital, should benefit largely as a result of the Noah's Ark Fair opened at the Albert Hall on Wednesday.

The most distinguished visitors were Queen Alexandra and the Dowager-Empress of Russia. They arrived shortly before four o'clock, and remained for an hour, making a tour of the stalls, acknowledging the graceful courtesies of peacesses at each one, and making extensive purchases. In addition to the "village fair" attractions, brisk business was done in autographed books of modern writers, medici prints, hats and millinery. Mme. Melba was one of the busiest stall keepers.

"Have you heard Melba sing?" she would ask an immaculately-dressed and monocled visitor, who never suspected her identity. "These are gramophone records of my songs," she would add, naively, as she parted with them in succession.

Seated in the middle of the arena was Mr. Louis Wain. Very few visitors saw him, for he was surrounded by crowds of ladies and children, who bought up his sketches of cats and dogs as soon as that inspired left hand of his could dash them off.

"Better than hot cakes," remarked a well known peer, who waited patiently and placidly for his own turn.

"Will you have your cat laughing or expressing surprise?" the artist would ask, and his left hand would proceed to execute the order. Mr. Wain made over fifty pencil sketches.

One of the hits of the day was Lord Lansdale in his new role as "bar tender" and expert adviser in the delicate matter of American cocktails, high balls, mint juleps, and other connections of Transatlantic origin.

MOUNT VERNON.

(From our own correspondent.)

Friends from Brantford spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Neil Young and family.

A number from here took in the excursion to Guelph last Wednesday. We are glad to see that Mrs. Elmer Mott is out and around again after her recent illness.

Miss Fay Lambert of Milverton is visiting her cousin, Miss Pearl Cleaver.

Miss Evelyn Muill of Burford spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Mae Sturgis.

Miss Marie Wilson has returned home from Galt, where she was assisting her sister, Mrs. A. Goldie, at the "At Home" on Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Miles spent Sunday at Scotland.

On Sunday afternoon Rev. Todd preached a very helpful sermon to a large congregation, taking his text from Titus 1: 15, "Unto the pure, all things are pure, but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure, but even their mind and conscience is defiled." The choir music was a solo by Miss Evelyn Muill entitled "A Song of Home."

Bible study services are held in church every Wednesday evening from 7.30 to 8.30 o'clock. It is a study of the Sunday School lesson for the coming Sunday, which is helpful to those interested in Sunday School work.

MISSILE HURLED AT PREMIER

Young Man's Disgraceful Act in the House of Commons

Mr Asquith was made the object of a disgraceful attack in the House of Commons on Wednesday, but luckily the design failed. A man in the Strangers' Gallery flung a bag of flour the full length of the House, but it missed the Prime Minister and burst near the Speaker's chair. The stranger, a sympathizer with the suffragettes, was ejected.

Mr Asquith was speaking in opposition to the "free breakfast table" amendment of the Labor party to the Finance Bill when the missile hurled through the air a few inches above his head and struck the floor in the narrow space between the Speaker's Chair and the rearmost Bench.

It broke when it struck the ground, and a little crowd of white dust arose, but no one was hit, and the only slight damage, if any, was done to the trousers of the Lord Advocate who was sitting close to where it fell.

It was a packet of flour done up in an ordinary baker's bag, which had been wrapped in a piece of grey paper. Its weight must have been about a pound, and if it had struck the Prime Minister it might have inflicted a nasty blow, and would, at the least have caused him great discomfort and annoyance.

Mr Asquith broke off his speech for the fraction of a second, but was quite unperturbed, although the missile might have been of a deadly character. Then, with a disdainful glance at the white mess on the floor he resumed his speech, as though nothing had happened. The whole House gave him a hearty cheer, quite irrespective of party, and everyone obviously resented that such a gross indignity had been attempted upon the Leader of the House.

"A Very Good Shot,"

"A very good shot," was the dry comment of the Prime Minister to a colleague at the close of his speech.

It was a remarkably well executed throw, as the Speaker's chair and the Strangers' Gallery are at opposite ends of the House. The stranger had taken his seat in a second row near the middle gangway, nearly on a line with anyone standing to address the House from the Treasury Bench. If the packet had gone a little to the right it must have hit the Speaker; if to the left it would have smitten Mr. Ure.

After flinging the package the man cast down a handful of pictorial leaflets entitled "Grace before Meat," with a revolting cartoon of the Home Secretary forcibly feeding a woman prisoner.

The offender was immediately seized by a detective, a powerful man who deftly and summarily half carried and half dragged his captive from the gallery, treating him much as he would an unruly schoolboy.

Having been flung unceremoniously out of the gallery he was taken to the police quarters of the House, where it was found he had a second bag of flour.

He proved to be a young man about twenty-five years of age, and gave the name of Lawrence Marvin, of Gray's Inn road. He had obtained the order of admission from the office near St Stephen's Hall. He claimed to be a member of the Men's Political Union. At the rising of the House the man was liberated, owing to the fact that he could not be proceeded against except on a resolution of the Commons.

In 1000 three separate disturbances took place in the House. An excited woman reached the door from the Lobby and rushed up the floor of the House. Another woman created a disturbance in the Ladies' Gallery. A man disturbed the proceedings by shouting from the Strangers' Gallery. For a considerable period the public galleries were closed by order of the Speaker.

The hitting of Baker and Morgan were the features.

IS INUNDATED WITH SYMPATHY

French Advocate Forbidden by Archbishop to Speak Stirs Up Row.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
MONTREAL, June 27.—Gonzalve Desaulniers, K.C., has been literally inundated with letters and messages of sympathy and felicitation on the occasion of the act of the ecclesiastical authorities in excluding him from the St. Jean Baptiste literary gathering of Tuesday evening because he has defended the church. Sympathy because, in some cases, Mr. Desaulniers' interlocutors regretted that what they termed an insult had been directed against him in his capacity as a leading French-Canadian literary man and member of the bar, felicitations because many admired the stand which Mr. Desaulniers had taken in declining to take advantage of an eleventh hour compromise whereby, as they termed it, he would be allowed to make a back-door entry to the literary feast. In the meantime, however, Mr. Desaulniers had addressed a letter to his grace the Archbishop, asking that the letter express in writing his reasons for taking the action his grace is alleged to have taken in the matter. Mr. Desaulniers will await his grace's reply, when he will in return make a reply in writing. He has communicated with the provincial government on the subject and has made a protest against the action of the ecclesiastical authorities in excluding him—a citizen and taxpayer—from an institution which is subsidized by the funds of the public. The St. Jean Baptiste Society will also take up the question of repudiating the action of its members in bowing to the order of the church.

MIKE AMAZED.

Jerry was treating Mike to a trolley ride. The conductor, a goodly-looking young Irishman, came through collecting the fares. Mike watched his progress with great interest. Presently he turned to Jerry with tears in his eyes.
"Jerry," he said, huskily, "I've a lump in me throat."
"What for?" demanded Jerry.
"Tis the gladness of me that's too big to swally!" said Mike. "Every American has the big, generous heart? D'ye mind the poor young felly wid the blue cap? Tis beggin' his livin' he is. I saw him hold out his hand to twenty-seven people, and ivery blessed wan of them gave him a nickel!"—Judge.

FIFTEEN YEARS FOR MAN-KILLING

Heavy Sentence Handed Out at Sault Ste. Marie This Morning.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., June 27.—Sentence of 15 years in Kingston was this morning pronounced by Judge Britton on Fred McGregor, found guilty of manslaughter for killing Fred Moran in a Blind River bar-room in March last. The judge said the jury had taken an extremely merciful view of the case and expressed astonishment that the capital charge could have been reduced on such evidence as had been given. There were five witnesses for the prosecution and the prisoner was the only witness for the defence. The prisoner is a man of mystery. He resolutely refuses to say where his parents or his wife are beyond that they are in Alberta, and the only information regarding himself since his incarceration is that he is a graduate of Edinburgh University. While awaiting trial he made a desperate attempt to escape with the aid of a dummy revolver made from soap and bread crumbs. The turnkeys thought it a real gun but threw themselves on him and he was backed into his cell. The gun was a marvel of ingenuity even showing tops of bullets in the chambers.

Doctor Said He Had Diabetes

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cleared Out Every Trace of It.

That's Why Mr. David Heon, of Nicolet Co., Quebec, is Recommending the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy To His Neighbors.

ST. WENCTSLAS, Nicolet Co., Que., June 23.—(Special)—"I started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills because the doctor told me I was threatened with diabetes. After taking ten boxes I was again examined by the doctor, and he told me that all trace of diabetes had disappeared."

This is the statement of Mr. David Heon, well-known and highly respected here, and he is only one of many in this neighborhood who have found a new lease of life in the great Canadian Kidney remedy.

It is curious such as this that have given Dodd's Kidney Pills their reputation. They are now known from the Atlantic to the Pacific as the remedy that never fails to cure kidney disease, no matter where or in what form it is found.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are no cure-all. They simply cure diseased kidneys. The reason they cure backache, dropsy, rheumatism, neuralgia, diabetes, urinary troubles and Bright's diseases is that all of these are either diseases of the kidneys or are caused by disordered kidneys failing to do their work.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

LONDON, Ont., June 28.—River Thames claimed its first victims of the Summer season this afternoon, when Alfred and Wilfrid Nichols, of 423 Ridout street, were drowned in a double tragedy while swimming under Dundas St. bridge.

The boys, who were ten and twelve years old, respectively, had been repeatedly warned by their parents to beware of the water, but yesterday the first of the summer holidays set to the river, only a block away, waded in. The point at which the tragedy occurred is in close proximity to the business section, but in excitement a third lad failed promptly raise an alarm.

It is said that Alfred the younger of the two brothers, waded into the water, which is but four feet deep at the point, and, stumbling, fell.

UNIONISTS TIDE STILL RISING

Liberal Majority in Radio Stronghold is Greatly Reduced.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

LONDON, June 28.—The flow of the election tide in the direction of the Unionists which was exhibited at Altringham, May 29, when the Unionist candidate defeated his Liberal opponent in a bye-election by a largely increased majority, was again shown to-day in a bye-election at Leicester, made necessary by the retirement of the holder of the seat in the House of Commons, Elliot Crawshaw-Williams having become involved in a co-responsibility in a

The Liberals retained the seat by being:

Howart—Liberal, 10,802.
Wiltshire—Unionist, 9,270.
Hartley—Socialist, 2,580.

In the general election in December, 1910, Crawshaw-Williams majority was 5,891, over the Unionists candidate.

In accordance with the agreement between the Liberals and Independent Labor party to divide Leicester two seats, a Liberal candidate was first nominated. The local Laborites refused to abide by the agreement and put forward their own candidate. They were induced to withdraw him under the threat that Ramsay MacDonald, Leicester's other member would resign. Afterwards the Independent Socialist candidate was nominated.

First Case

Under New Marriage Act is in Progress at Sarnia

SARNIA, Ont., June 28.—One of the first cases of importance to come under legislation passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature to prevent clandestine marriages is now engaging the attention of the authorities here. The parties concerned are Carl Brand, a Chicago brewer, and Miss Ida M. Spitzer of Berlin, Germany, and they are in jail on the charge of immorality, while at the same time they are refused a marriage license under instructions from Hon. W. J. Hanna.

The couple met on an ocean liner and subsequently went to Montreal. When they tried to cross into the States at Port Huron, they were stopped by the United States immigration officers. Later a Dominion officer gathered the couple in under the White Slave act, while the legislation requiring three months' notice of marriage was being passed.
