Your correspondent paid a visit to Brockville last week and was informed that Sergeant Best of the police force of that town was quite indignant because chief Ross thought fit to take all the credit to himself for the recovery of the Chinaman. The sergeant claims that he is the man who did the work and that the chief misinformed the Recorder as to the finding of the money. As we were always with to give credit to whom credit is due and if Mr. Best was the means of recovering the stolen money we think the Chief should not deprive him of his laurels.

PLUM HOLLOW.—MONDAY, APR. 10.—The mighty hunters of Lake Umbagog, who have been trapping for the past two weeks, they were busy setting their traps yesterday (Sunday) as they were anxious to get their traps out ahead of the incoming plagues in the Whites of the interior from across the pond. They seem to regard neither the law nor the Sabbath. The game government is a sleep.

Three of our most noted farmers went to Westport to purchase a lot of dairy cows, and thinking that a man whose judgment on horse flesh was good must also be a good judge of cattle, they took out horse dealers along to pick out the choicest animals for them. But what they found that the wife a better judge of whifly than dairy cattle, as they came home with two or three cows, and the rest of the lot was left to the horse dealers to do with as they pleased.

One has to be a close reader to keep posted on the slang phrases of the day. An Athens boxer, who had been reading a Brockville paper last night, said the Brockville paper had a great manufacturing town. I see that a New Yorker is to open a bucket shop there.

Our class for this morning at Manchester, New Hampshire, on a visit to his sister Mrs. Burns.

An exchange tells of a school teacher who has introduced a novel system of spelling in her school.

When one of the girls missed a word, she would say, "I don't know it, but I'll try to spell it for you." The boys are improving, but it is feared the girls will soon forget how to spell their own names.

To farmers.—Don't sow too much wheat this spring. "Sow in" a lot or two; add a few more to the number of chickens and to "churned" butter. The freight is lighter on those products, and you don't have to mortgage the terms nor the farm to mortgage the terms nor the farm to mortgage the terms.

One has to be a close reader to keep posted on the slang phrases of the day. An Athens boxer, who had been reading a Brockville paper last night, said the Brockville paper had a great manufacturing town. I see that a New Yorker is to open a bucket shop there.

During the electric storm of Friday night last the lightning struck at least two buildings in Leeds county. A bolt entered the home of Mr. J. M. Snow near Leeds, but did only slight damage. Saturday morning it was discovered that the English church at Pine Hill had been struck. A part of the steeple of the tower was torn off and the spire and ceiling of the interior damaged.

Our new factory will soon be in full blast.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

The village schools re-opened yesterday.

Miss Maud and Mr. Ormond Arnold, of Brockville, were visiting at Mr. H. Arnold's last week.

Next Sabbath, in the absence of the pastor, a young man from Brockville will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in their rooms in the R. T. of L. hall Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Every member is kindly requested to be present.

We understand that it is the intention of His Lordship the Bishop of Ontario to hold a confirmation (D. V.) in Christ Church, Athens, on May 15th, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

A lodge of the Canadian Society of Chosen Friends will shortly be established in Athens with a large charter membership. This is an excellent fraternal and insurance organization, with headquarters at Hamilton, Ont.

The meetings of the local corps of the Salvation Army under command of Capt. Dempsey, have been very interesting lately. They are held at Kingston in assisting this week and several members of the Methodist church are attending and take part in the services.

Mrs. Shipman, wife of Charles Shipman, now in Brockville jail under a charge of murder, is left with seven helpless children and a heavy mortgage overhanging the island and the family.

BEAR OF YONGE & ESCOTT COUNCIL.—The council met at the town hall, Athens, on Monday, April 8th, at 10 o'clock.
