Is it Anarchists and Socialtrample them under foot in defiance--Then who are the most conspicuous Anarch- glorious fame, so that they will no longer trample the laws ists and Socialists?

The readers of the Telegram are convinced of one deplorable fact, which is: that Morison told the Governor an abominable lie-told it in cold blood to cover up his rascality, whilst Minister of Justice, in respect of timber lands which it was his duty to safeguard.

The odium of that offence-committed by a Minister of Justice for the purpose of shielding himself from adverse judgment, for having advised another to steal timber for his own profit—is, unfortunately, not altogether confined within the cunning mind that invented the lie. That is, perhaps, why he so smugly composes himself. Odium such as that is meat and drink to him; his fibre does

But when he attempts to perform his duty as Public Prosecutor against other offenders in our Courts of Justice, that Minister of Justice is obliged to wear the flinty face of the Pharisee, as he preaches the morality of the law. That is, of itself, sufficient to make men despise him. He has enjoyed the privilege of coveting the scorn of the people since June 1912. Did the matter rest there we should be constrained to let the people of Bonavista Bay teach him that a knave cannot continue to be Minister of Justice. But unfortunately it has involved the perversion of a still higher public official.

The odium of this—the meanest offence under heaven is shared by one who, with consummate brass, called himself the "statesman with ideals"—the Premier of this country. With incredible boldness, and despicable audacity. Sir Edward Morris flaunts in our faces that it is an ideal virtue in his Minister of Justice to wilfully and designedly deceive a Governor by an abominable untruth.

Sir Edward Morris reached the sublime pinnacle of his "ideal statesmanship" when he advocated the doctrine whether it be called Anarchy or Socialism or some Other-ism-that the law shall not be applied to his Minister of Justice, if he can escape by a lying deception, nor shall honesty be required of that official in his high office. If that doctrine is Anarchy of Socialism, then Sir Edward Morris cannot escape the odium of being an Anarchist or a Socialist. Such a doctrine cannot be found in Churches, nor can it be found in the Law. It may therefore be concluded that Premier Morris was inspired by P. T. Mc-

The Electors of the Country have now to ask themselves: Is Sir Edward Morris an Anarchist or SOCIAL-IST or is he not? He has shamelessfully approved his Minister of Justice in the act of wilfully and designedly deceiving the Governor with a lie. He knew that Morison did not speak the truth. If Morison had spoken the truth about his knowledge of the law, and if Sir Edward Morris himself had not put the stamp of approval on Morison's decest, then Morison's first offence was a warrant for his dismissal from office.

Therefore, Sir Edward Morris permitted Morison to tell a lie to the Governor and spurn the law, with his approval, and in so doing, Sir Edward Morris trampled the laws of the country under foot. Is that ANARCHY or is t SOCIALISM?

It was P. T. McGrath who said:-"Anarchist Tam-"many Boss Morris is orating again in the West End, sow-'ing the seed of discord amongst all classes."

At another time he said:- "We have characterized 'Morris's doctrine as Nihilistic, it teaches the reduction 'of everything around us to nothing."

Now then Electors, if Anarchists and Socialists are men who trample the laws of the Country under foot, in defiance of the teachings of Churches and the Law, as P. McGrath reminds us: Who is the great conspicuous Anarchist and SOCIALIST in this community?

How can you resist the conclusion that it is Sir Edward Morris, the Premier of Newfoundland? Therefore, Electors of Newfoundland-Will you cast a Vote for him? Or will you hurl him from office along with Morison, of in-

Indelible Shame and Disgrace!

By the communications of a Free Press all the errors of mankind from age to age have been dissipated. Newspapers in every country are the unofficial reports issued to the People to show what their representatives are doing in Parliament and what manner of men they be.

If the newspapers are not free to do this then is our Liberty gone. Free Speech and a Free Press are the safeguards of the Rights of the People! It is this right that The Evening Telegram has been exercising in drawing atimmediate cause of the extraordinary agitation which alarms Newfoundland at this moment is to be found in the misconduct of His Excellency's present advisers. It is with shame and with sorrow that we find the pages of the Do You Forget. You're Bilious And tions committed by those holding the highest offices under the Crown; actions that have brought a taint on our boasted British Justice and stained our public life with indelible

We cannot but imagine that the virtuous heroes, legislators, and patriots are bending from their elevated seats to witness this contest as if they were incapable of preventing its being brought to a favourable issue which will enable them to enjoy a well earned repose in obscurity.

Are we going to disappoint them? Or are we going Reid everything the country owned the first step to untold misery-indito obey the influence that (if it is possible) they would exert to make us stand for Truth, Honesty, Morality, and Purity in our public life?

Once more read the indictment—

Morison, Minister of JUSTICE, who forgot that it is wrong to steal logs from Crown Lands, and who was the Solicitor and evident Shareholder in the fraudulent Bay de Verde Mining Prospectus.

Piccott, Minister of Marine & Fisheries, who denied though he represented the Colony on on oath that Mark Gibbons had any claim on land sold and afterwards paid him his claim in full.

whose names also appear on the fraudulent Bay de Verde Mining Prospectus.

These charges have been made but no answer or denial has been given. They are serious enough; they are too serious for us to ignore and these men stand condemned by their silence. Their silence gives consent. And if so much has been disclosed, how much more may there not lie hidden? We know that Perfection is far from us, but we have some idea of what it should be and we have a conscience that, unwarped, is a never-failing guide in determining what is Right and what is Wrong.

That these men are in the WRONG, you will not deny, and you will acknowledge that it is a wicked and shortsighted policy to aim at making any country great by violating the laws of Justice. We shall agree, also, in placing Morality as the paramount qualification of a man seeking an office of public trust.

Can you then vote for the party of Sir Edward Morris, who permits his chief Ministers and Executive to lie under these charges and stand condemned as they do? As Head of the Government and Trustee of the People, Sir Edward Morris is responsible to you, and by allowing these Country, to his Conscience, and to his God!

These revelations have pained you and also many who are not Liberals, and it is likely that some may refrain from voting at all, but you must consider-we must not only hold aloof from evil, but we must crush it! We may differ as to Policy, but when it comes to a question of Morals, we shall, we must act as one. If we elect men who Store.
