Oh, you old jimmy pipe!

"Lead me to it" say millions of men since they've found out that Prince Albert tobacco can't bite the tongue and can't parch the throat.

"Lead me to it" you'll say just as quick as you invest in a tidy red tin and find out first-hand just why P. A. has become the largest selling pipe and cigarette tobacco in the United States.

PRINCE ALBERT

the inter-national joy smoke

brought thousands and thousands of old jimmy pipes out of the garrets. It has revolutionized pipe smoking! Today three men smoke a pipe where one smoked before.

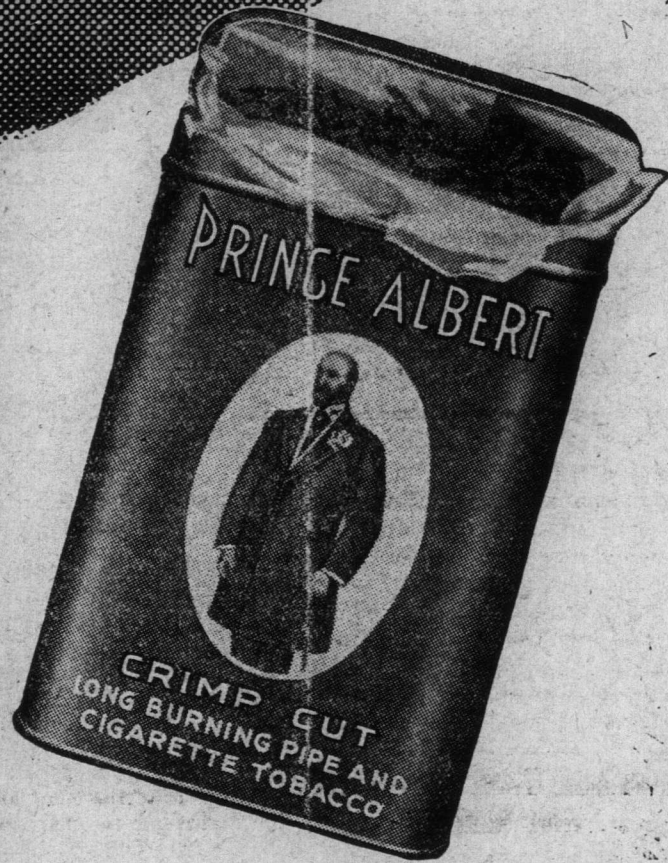

That's because Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out the "grouch" and just lets in the sunshine! Never in your life have you hit such flavor and fragrance and freshness!

Play P. A. in a jimmy pipe or roll up the corkingest makin' cigarette you ever put fire to. It's all one and the same thing—just good for what ails your smokappetite! And it rolls up so dead easy. Being mighty fresh, it just stays put and doesn't blow away or run away like the dust-brands.

And, you know, today's the day!

Prince Albert is the largest seller in the United States. It is now being imported into Newfoundland and is sold by all of the leading dealers in one-eighth-pound tidy red tins.

The Earl's Son;

TWO HEARTS UNITED

CHAPTER XIV.

She thought he was going to consult her about something connected with the estate, and she gave a slight nod and glanced at him for a moment.

"Do you remember what I said last night?" he went on in the same low voice. "Do you remember that I told you how ambitious I could be if I had someone to work to, strive for?"

"Yes, I remember," she said, with faint surprise, but no suspicion of what was coming.

"I spoke involuntarily," he continued; "something impelled me to do so—no doubt it was the interest you were so kind as to show in my career; but though I spoke on the spur of the moment, on impulse, I told you the truth. Veronica, I feel my solitude, my loneliness, very acutely; and I have felt it very much more than I have hitherto done since my last visit. Do you remember me telling you how much you had improved? The word is, I know, not devoid of offence; but I can find no other

I had not seen you for some time and—Veronica, do you know that you have grown into a very beautiful woman?"

Veronica's face flushed and she looked at him quickly, with amazement and consternation. What was he going to say?

"No man could see you without being moved by your beauty, by your grace, by the charm of your manner. That it should affect me is not to be wondered at; it was only natural that I should realize, quite suddenly, if you will, that I had long admired you, long learned to love you without suspecting it."

Veronica's hands tightened on the reins and she looked straight in front of her. It was her first proposal—for yes, he was proposing—and, though it did not send the delicious thrill of love through her which is felt by the woman who listens to words of love from the man to whom she has given her love, her heart beat thickly and she felt confused and bewildered.

"I love you, Veronica," he went on, his keen, hard eyes noting the sudden blush, the tremor of the exquisite lips. "I have loved you for months without knowing it; but now my heart has declared itself, has made itself heard with an imperative force, and—I must speak."

He paused, not ill satisfied with himself; and, indeed, he did not make love badly. He was fluent of speech—far too fluent for your real lover, whose heart is on the quake, whose whole soul is in terror lest he should fail—and his voice was low and earnest, if a trifle cold, though he simulated well the warmth of passion. His dark eyes dwelt on her face for a moment with keen scrutiny, then drooped, as if with self-deprecation and doubt.

"I fear you will not think me very abrupt and—sudden, Veronica; that I have taken an unfair advantage of you; but my love must plead for me. One cannot always choose the time and place; one is driven by the impulse of one's heart."

She did not speak, did not turn to him with the blush and smile which he felt he had a right to expect; but he knew that she was proud, that she would not yield too readily, and he told himself that he must be patient with her.

"I can scarcely hope that you return my affection, Veronica," he said, with appropriate humility. "That would be too much! But I hope to win your love in time, and I am willing to wait. But, dear Veronica, perhaps you will let me plead my cause, perhaps I may win your consent now, I am not a stranger; you know me, we are kith and kin—that is not to my advantage, perhaps; but I have some claim on your interest. Veronica, you know my ambitions, that I have a career before me that may be no mean one. With you to help and encourage me, better still, with you to work for, I feel that I could attain to the highest position in this kingdom. Yes, Veronica, the hope has been a secret confined to my own bosom, but I venture to tell you—that, given luck and opportunity, I might become the leader of our party. It is an exalted position, one which is the legitimate ambition of the best and highest in the land. Will you help me to achieve it? Will you share it with me? Think, Veronica! To be the wife of the foremost man in England—yes, in the world! And you would reign so worthily, would fill the position so admirably, so nobly

! Ah, Veronica, don't think I rest my claims to your love on this; you will not think I am trying to bribe you! No, I merely lay the chance, the prospect, before you, as a monarch might lay his crown, a conqueror his laurel wreath. It is because I love you that I ask you to be my wife."

His voice dropped to an earnest, eager murmur, and he leant forward and looked at her. The blush had faded from her face, which wore its usual hue of ivory, her lips were set and her brows drawn straight with a troubled, doubtful expression.

She was trying to picture the future he had drawn so cleverly, but though her pride was stirred and flattered her heart was not touched, and it beat slowly and doubtfully.

"In any case, whether I reach the premiership or miss it, you would be the Countess of Lynborough," he went on in smooth, persuasive accents. "And, Veronica, I do not think a lesser title, position, would satisfy you. I know your heart, I know how proud you are. You would not be happy in a lower sphere, one less worthy of you. You were born to reign, to move amongst the high and noble, you would not be satisfied, content, in a sphere beneath that in which you were born. Am I not right, Veronica?"

She turned her head away from his dark eyes as she tried to tell herself that he spoke truly.

"Together, hand in hand, we can move the world—our world," he murmured, temptingly. "Oh, I think I see you the mistress, the leader of our party, with all the world at your feet, its acknowledged queen! But, Veronica, we won't speak more of this. After all, I rest my claim on my love for you. The rest may come afterwards, my love shall be first and foremost."

She tried to think, to weigh his words, to tell herself that he was in earnest and that she had no right to refuse what he offered her. She called her pride to her aid, tried to see herself the leader of fashion, the wife of the first man in Europe—but her heart would not respond, and still beat heavily. She grew impatient with herself and her lack of enthusiasm, called herself dull and irresponsible, and with a gesture of impatience turned the ponies down a lane which led to the road beside the river.

"Well, Veronica," he murmured, will you give me some hope, at least? It is not only I who will be made happy if you will say 'Yes,' Veronica. I think—I am sure—the earl wishes to see us united."

She started slightly as she remembered the condition on which she was to inherit Mayneford and the earl's private fortune. Had he contemplated the marriage with Talbot? Yes; it would be only natural that he should do so. The estates and title and the money would go together; the scheme would be complete and rounded off. Her lips parted and she sighed. He saw the effect his artful suggestion had made and bent a little closer to her.

"You will say 'Yes,' Veronica?" he whispered. "You will make us both happy—and, dare I venture to add, yourself, also?"

The words jarred upon her, and increased her doubts, but she fought against them and called her pride to her aid again. And pride might have won, for she was slowly turning her troubled face towards him, when the ponies swung into the river road, a sound of men shouting, of the blows of hammers broke the stillness, and, looking round swiftly, she saw a gang of men at work on the weir opposite which had just arrived. On the weir itself stood a tall form, a crowbar in one hand, the other raised in an attitude of command.

It was Ralph. He had taken off his coat and waistcoat, the collar of his shirt was unfastened, and the sleeves turned up over the muscular, sun-burnt arms. He did not see, or hear, in the noise of the work, the pony-carriage, but Veronica could see his handsome face all aglow, yet set, with earnestness; and in an instant her heart spoke out and clamoured its protest against the thing she was about to do. A kind of deadly sickness assailed her, the sort of vertigo she feels when one is drawing back from the edge of a precipice. It was not only a protest which clamoured for recognition, but a deeper, a more intense feeling; as if the temptation to which she had been on the point of yielding were loathsome and despicable.

A Father's Fertile Scheme.

By RUTH CAMERON.

On a certain street in a town where I used to live one place, though no larger or more imposing stands out from all the rest. Strangers passing often stop to look at it. The townspeople are proud of it and point it out to their visitors. And yet the house itself is no more attractive than several others on that street. It is simply the tasteful arrangement of handsome trees and shrubs which gives the place its air of distinction. And thereby hangs a tale.

There are six children in that house. Twenty-two years ago when the first child was born there was nothing distinctive about the place, but on that day the proud father, wishing the commemorate the event in some extra-special way, went out into the woods, brought home two beautiful fir trees and planted them at the entrance to the little driveway. To-day they stand, two stately sentinels guarding the gate.

That was the beginning of a custom. On the day of each child's birth, and on the anniversary of each birthday, the father has planted at least one tree, shrub or plant as his birthday present to the child. The children have other gifts of course, but none in which they take more interest and pleasure than their father's.

Of course each tree or plant is known by the name of its owner. The sentinel firs are "Robert's firs." Mary, the next oldest, has a pair of apple trees, planted on the day of her birth, in which she can now climb. For the last four years they have borne splendid crops of apples which are looked on as Mary's particular property, although she shares them with the rest of the family.

The crimson rambler was planted on the baby's second birthday. The group of silver birches belongs to the little twelve-year-old daughter who, in her slim, girlish grace, rather reminds one of that exquisite tree. A cluster of purple and white lilacs, a wonderful Japanese maple and a beautiful wistaria are among the ornamental plantings which give the place its air of distinction. There is also a rose garden, a small but excellent fruit orchard, and a fine grape arbor which have come into being each in this way. A fertile patch of asparagus (presented by special request) belongs to the most practical of the brood and helps to supply him with pocket money.

Each child is supposed to take care of his own plants, and a yearly reward to the one who fulfills this duty the best helps stimulate their interest. The outdoor work is healthy for them, they have learned a good deal about gardening, the family has been drawn more closely together by this common interest, the appearance of the place has been greatly improved and its value correspondingly enhanced.

All this has been done on three-quarters of an acre of land, and with scarcely larger expenditure than any father in private circumstances makes on his children's gifts.

Don't you think that is a scheme good enough to be imitated?

Ruth Cameron

Another Big Feature at the Nickel.

Selig Company's Sensation: "The Water Rat" in Two Reels.

Large audiences witnessed the fine show at the Nickel Theatre last evening and were greatly pleased with it; all who attended came away delighted with the performance. For the week-end show the manager has another treat in store for patrons. As will be noticed by advertisement elsewhere in this issue the Selig Company's great work entitled "The Water Rat" is to be presented. This is one of the finest and most sensational pictures ever given. It is in two reels and is of the most absorbing interest. The press abroad has spoken very favourably of it. It deals with a gentleman burglar, showing his house of mystery and how the detectives capture him. The scenery is magnificent throughout. Then there is a Pathé weekly showing the latest news items. Two bright comedies have been arranged. One is "Fishing Auntie Up" and the other "Clarence at the Theatre," and there is also a strong Italian dramatic film: "The Italian Bride."

Miss Gardner will repeat her popular song and the balance of the musical part of the entertainment will be of a high class. At the children's matinee to-morrow there will be extra pictures.

Monday, there will be a great Pathé play in two reels: "The Miner's Destiny." The Nickel is the popular resort these days, everyone likes to go there and enjoy themselves.

Her Busy Day.

The British matron used to sit in gracious dignity, and knit, and patch her husband's duds; with earnest zeal she used to make the bread, the doughnuts and the cake, and boil the luscious spuds. But times have changed; now, fiery-eyed, she lets her household duties slide, and treads her martial path; and in that land of good roast beef, the men are full of fear and grief, and shaken by her wrath. She says that she will have a vote, if she must set the steeple to drift to Kingdom Come; she burns cathedral, hall and school, and in her dainty reticule, she packs a deadly bomb. She pokes her once price parasol through costly paintings on the wall of this or that museum; she chooses statesmen here and there, until they plunge, in their despair into the sobbing sea. The king's afraid to take a walk, lest some bold matron's club may knock his crown across the street; he shivers on his royal throne, and in her bower, depressed, alone, Queen Mary has cold feet. The judges send the girls to jail, and take, in fines, their modest kate, but little does it help; from Lunnon Town to John o' Groat's, the women, for their precious votes, kyoodle, shriek and yell. So let us glad and thankful be that in this country of the free, the women are more wise; in gentlemanly style they fight, that they may gain their sacred right, the ballot, bless their eyes!

It has Ended 60,000,000 Corns

This little Blue-jay is removing a million corns a month.

It is doing that for hundreds of thousands who used to doctor corns in old ways. And every one of those legions of people would gladly tell you this:

That Blue-jay stops pain instantly. That the corn comes out in 48 hours without any pain or soreness. That Blue-jay is applied in a jiffy. And from that instant one forgets the corn.

That the corns never come back. New ones may come, but the old don't reappear.

Think of that, you who pare corns, you who use old-time methods. A famous chemist, in the one right way, has solved the whole corn problem. And that way—Blue-jay—is at every drug store waiting for your use.

Don't you think it time you tried it—now that sixty million ended corns owe their fate to Blue-jay?

Obituary.

On the 28th ultimo there passed peacefully away at Grand Falls, a bright and cheerful girl in the person of Miss Katie Bruce. She was a domestic with Mr. Richard Maloney for the last three years and her death came unexpectedly. Her illness was of short duration being alling only three short weeks. She was attended by Drs. Chamberlain and Scott of that place who did everything possible for her but without effect and two days previous to her death no hopes were entertained for her recovery.

Father Finn, parish priest of that place attended her in her last moments and gave her the rites of her Holy Church. Her funeral took place from Mr. Maloney's residence on the 31st and was largely attended. Her body was taken to the railway station thence to her late home Iona, P. B. Numerous wreaths adorned her coffin placed there by loving hands of her many friends. She will be largely missed by her many loving associates, for those who knew her loved her many friends. She will be greatly missed to her parents and friends sincerest sympathy.

Dark be the clay above her,
Fried in many ways;
None knew her but to love her,
None knew her but to praise.

The Norwegian Government.

A Triumph of Modern Democracy—Substitute Legislators—Upper and Lower Houses that Arrange Their Own Divisions—Local Government.

(From the London Times.)
The Norwegian people boast that they have one of the most democratic forms of government in the world. The Storting is in close touch with everyday affairs, and there can be no strong expression of public sentiment that is not at once reflected there. All men and women over twenty-five years of age who have been at least five years in the country, provided they are not paupers, bankrupts, or ex-convicts, are allowed to vote; and women as well as men are eligible for the Storting.

When an election takes place the Norwegian electors must choose, in addition to the direct member, a vice-deputy member to take his place should the representative be at any time unavoidably absent from the Storting. For each seat contested each party may put forward one candidate and one vice-deputy candidate. The voting, both for member and deputy member, takes place on the same day, and, although it seldom happens, it is possible for a Conservative deputy to be returned with a Liberal member and vice versa.

Members of the Storting are paid at the rate of 300 kroner ($300) per year for ordinary sittings, but if called upon to attend for any extra period an additional payment is made of 12 kroner a day. In addition to the cash payment there are also special privileges, such as free doctor and nurse in case of illness and free traveling on the State Railways. The demands made upon a Stortingsmand are heavy. Each member must attend sittings regularly and vote upon every question. He is not allowed to absent himself unless he can give an adequate reason, or unless he has first obtained the permission of the Storting. If he is unavoidably absent, then his deputy must be present. The deputy has no direct payment for his services, but receives a share of the member's salary at the end of the year, the amount depending upon the number of sittings he has attended.

At the opening of Parliament after an election has taken place the House resolves itself into two parties, the Lagting and the Odelsting, corresponding to the upper and lower chamber. (There is no actual upper house.) The Lagting consists of one-fourth of the members so nominated and elected in full Storting. There is no rule governing the number each party may elect, but generally there is an equal percentage elected from all parties. When the Lagting has been elected, the remaining three-fourths form the Odelsting.

All bills are first presented to the Odelsting for discussion. A bare majority only is needed to pass ordinary measures, but measures seeking to deal with the Constitution must have a two-thirds majority, and no measure can pass the Odelsting unless a two-thirds of the members are present and vote upon it. After being passed by the Odelsting measures are sent up to the Lagting, and, if passed there, they then become law after having been sanctioned by the king. If rejected by the Lagting they are returned to the Odelsting, again discussed, and either shelved or returned—amended or in their original form. If the Lagting rejects a measure a second time, it comes before the full Storting, and is then accepted as law if passed by a two-thirds majority. The king has the power to veto any measure, but if three successive Stortings are against him his veto is automatically removed.

Local Government in Norway is largely administered by Town Councils and rural District Councils, but, in addition, a rural district usually consists of several parishes, each of which has its own Parish Council, and the districts in each County form a unit of their own, the County Corporation. The municipalities have not quite local autonomy, but they have very large powers, and only in certain cases have they to apply to the prefect or to the Government concerning measures which in order to become valid require the approval of either of these authorities. The outstanding feature of Norwegian Local Government is the fact that it is simplified as much as possible, and that each department has its own clearly defined and separate duties. There is very little overlapping; the

The Joy-ped Club

THIS is the official start of the Joy-ped Club of Toronto, of which you are invited to become a member.

The purchase of a pair of Tally-Ho $5 Shoes qualifies you for a Life Membership to the Club.

For after once wearing Tally-Ho's—you will always wear Tally-Ho's—and be a Joy-ped for life.

Call Early The sooner you know the Tally-Ho Shoe by sight---the sooner you'll be Foot-happy.

The Shoe

Tally-ho Stands for elegance, comfort and pleasure among joy-wagons. Tally-Ho is all these and the most joyous of Shoes.

Five dollars never bought you so much foot-joy in your short, sad life—as you corner with any set of Tally-Ho's that hits your fancy.

They are the only, dandy, snappy gloves for feet.

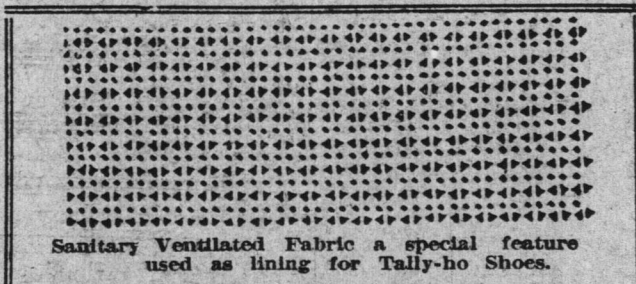

And—talk about style. Tally-Ho is forever the limit of fashion. If you wonder what the smart chaps of the world are wearing—keep your eye on the Tally-Ho window. If you're from Missouri—ask the Tally-Ho man to show you. Or—buy any pair of Tally-Ho's—and pat yourself on the back for your feet will be up-to-date. You can just bank on this.

Tally-Ho Shoes are built with joy. The pick of leathers and top-notch fittings—put together with cheer by the Tally-Ho cobblers make Tally-Ho shoes the best foot-clothes known.

Five dollars—coin of the realm—buys all this style—fit—quality and joy—and your feet get the hunch as soon as you slide them into your Tally-Ho's.

The Price

$5 IS RIGHT. You can't get a good Shoe for less—and you should not pay more. Your little old Five spot—half a saw-buck—handed to the Tally-Ho chap—will get you the best clothes for feet ever built.

Sanitary Ventilated Fabric a special feature used as lining for Tally-ho Shoes.

The Service

If you can't get suited in Tally-Ho's—your feet are not mates.

Tally-Ho's are built of every variety and finish of high grade leather tanned. Select, tested and tried materials throughout—put together by skilled craftsmen—guarantee the limit of wear. Tally-Ho's are scientifically made on foot form lasts. They are made to fit feet. They are built on the Goodyear Welt—the best known system of shoe making.

Tally-Ho's have light, medium, heavy or double soles—Santex or leather lining. Felt soles and lining. Rubber soles and heels. Sanitary construction and special ventilated lining.

Tally-Ho's are of all shapes and styles on the latest American models. Conservative—dressy—snappy and up-to-date—and made with British thoroughness.

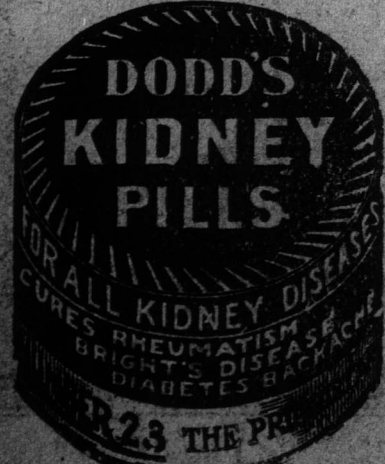

Tally-Ho's sell at the same price in Canada as in New York or London—$5 or 21 shillings—no more—no less.

The Proof

COME in—and we'll let you prove for yourself that the Tally-Ho is the Shoe you want.

F. SMALLWOOD, St. John's, Nfld., Agent.

educational, the poor law, the health and the other local administrative bodies do not come in conflict with each other as they do in some countries. We cannot say that Local Government is perfect, but it is fairly efficient. This is doubtless due to the fact that the different departments have not to deal with vast numbers of people. The poor law officers generally know personally almost every individual who applies for relief, and they have generally a personal knowledge of the history of each case with which they are called upon to deal. Each commune has a sub-committee appointed from its governing council called the "Vaergeraad" (literally, Shielding Council), which performs the function of preventing cruelty to children, as well as seeing to the care and welfare of all young people. In the case of destitutes they are handed over to the poor law authorities, but where it is purely a question of neglect, the Vaergeraad places them in schools or homes and the parents are forced to pay for their maintenance. At the present moment the prevailing sentiment in both national and local affairs is in favor of wide measures of social reform.

Many Jacks.

Jack is not only a boy's name. It is applied to a flower—"Jack in the pulpit," "Jack Frost" means the cold biting winds, and a "jack" is a machine to lift heavy weights. Then there are, a "boat jack" for removing boots from the feet; a "smoke jack" to turn a spit; a "jackknives," applied to a saucy person; "Jack Tar," a common sailor, and a "jacket," a small coat. Jackstay is a rail used on a boat to which to fasten sails, jackstone is a pebble piece used in the game of that name, jackstraw is a scarecrow, and jackwood is wood of the jack used in cabinet work.—Philadelphia Ledger.

When hanging pictures, be sure to keep them on an agreeable level with the eye. Pictures were meant to be looked at.

Household Notes

An excellent cleaner for a tailored suit is dry bran.

Self-heating irons—gas or electric—are a great economy.

Instead of throwing newspapers away, collect and sell them to a paper factory, if there is one within reach.

When making desserts, allow one heaping tablespoonful of granulated sugar to each egg and half a pint of milk.

To remove the unpleasant odor from the hands after peeling onions, rub them with salt and wash in cold water.

New French Loan.

IS OVERSUBSCRIBED.

Paris, June 27.—The new $100,000,000 loan already has been over-subscribed fifteen times, although the issue price of 91 was only announced two days ago. The favorable reception of the loan both by the public and the banks far exceeded the expectation of the government. As the date of issue is still more than a week off, it is believed that the offers for the loan will beat all previous records.

 The Rev. Frank Smart's Resolution with reference to the Pension of the Widow of the late Rev. John Godden, was adopted.
 The Rev. J. T. Richards moved that a vote of thanks be tendered to the Lay Readers of the Diocese. This was seconded and carried by acclamation.
 The following Reports were adopted: Auditors' Report and Queen's College Report, moved by Rev. Canon Bolt; Sunday Schools Report, moved by Rev. F. Smart; Ordination Candidates' Council Report, moved by Rev. C. H. Barton; Literature Committee's Report, moved by Mr. J. W. Withers; Report of the C.E.M.S.R., moved by Mr. H. W. LeMessurier; Report of the Directors of Bishop Feild College, moved by Rev. G. R. Godden; Report of Spencer College, moved by Canon Bolt; Report of Spencer Lodge, moved by Mr. W. W. Blackall.
 Rev. C. H. Barton's Resolution, with reference to the training of Sunday School Teachers, was adopted.
 The Rev. G. R. Godden's Resolution advocating the placing of Bishop Feild College and Bishop Spencer College under one Board of Directors, was adopted.
 The Rt. Rev. The President, assented to the Bill to amend Cap. XVIII of the Constitution and Rules.
 On motion of Sir W. Howwood a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to His Lordship the Bishop for the dignity, courtesy and discretion with which he had presided over the deliberations of the Synod.
 On motion of Mr. W. B. Grieve, the thanks of the Synod were given to the Secretaries for their efficient services.
 Rev. A. E. Tulk moved a hearty vote of thanks to those citizens of St. John's, who so hospitably entertained the clergy during Synod.
 Rev. T. G. Notten moved a vote of thanks to Mr. N. A. Outerbridge and Mr. H. W. LeMessurier for their kindness in making arrangements for entertaining the clergy.
 On motion of Mr. H. W. LeMessurier, a vote of thanks was given to the Synod reporters and the Press.
 The minutes were then read and confirmed.
 The Doxology was sung and the Lord Bishop pronounced the Benediction, thus bringing to a close the Twenty-first Biennial Session of the Diocesan Synod of Newfoundland.
 Greens of all kinds will be popular in the fall.

Programme of the Mott Meetings.

Dr. John R. Mott, the celebrated Missionary leader, is expected to arrive in the city to-day and to remain until Monday next. The following meetings have been arranged in connection with his visit, at each of which he will deliver an address upon some phase of the missionary problem which confronts the Christian Churches in the present day.
 This evening at 8 o'clock he will meet the Ministers of the City and the Clerical members of the Church of England-Synod and Methodist Conference at the Seamen's Institute.
 To-morrow at 1 p.m. he will be entertained at luncheon in the Presbyterian Hall by a number of the leading laymen of the city.
 At 4 p.m. to-morrow he will address the Women's meeting at the Methodist College Hall.
 On Sunday at 3.45 p.m. there will be a meeting for Young People and Christian Workers in the Methodist College Hall, and at 8.15 p.m. a mass meeting for men only in the same place.
 His Excellency the Governor is to preside at the luncheon on Saturday, and has also kindly consented to occupy the chair at the mass meeting on Sunday evening. All other meetings His Lordship the Bishop of Newfoundland will preside. Admission to the meetings at 3.45 p.m. on Sunday will be by tickets which have been placed in the hands of the Pastors of the various city churches for distribution. For the meetings at 4 p.m. on Saturday and 8.15 p.m. on Sunday, no tickets are required.

Mr. Gosling Elected Chairman.

Ex-Mayor Ellis Resigns.
 The newly appointed Commissioners met at the City Hall last night to elect a Chairman, the following members being present:—
 W. G. Gosling, ex-Mayor Ellis, Hon. John Harris, ex-councillor Mullaly, L. G. Morris, G. P. Arns, A. W. Withers, F. Bradshaw, Hon. John Anderson, E. M. Jackman, J. McGrath.
 Mr. W. G. Gosling, Chairman, of the Citizens' Committee, was chosen for the position.
 At 9 p.m. the Commission assembled in the Mayor's office where the appointments were read by Mr. A. News, Deputy Colonial Secretary, and the powers of the Commission under the new Act explained.
 Mr. News having retired, Mr. J. W. Withers was moved to the chair to conduct the meeting, whilst Mr. J. L. Slatery acted as Secretary.
 Commissioner Gosling moved that a chairman be balloted for, he with the majority of votes being elected, the acting chairman voting in the meantime. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Anderson, and carried.
 Upon the votes being taken, Commissioner Gosling obtained six, Commissioner Ellis, four, and Commissioner Harris, one.
 Mr. W. G. Gosling was then declared elected, and upon taking his seat, thanked the Commissioners for the compliment paid him, and acknowledged the responsibility of the position. He went on to say that with a united assistance he hoped to carry out the aims of the Citizens' Committee. He realized that the work would entail much time and consideration, and felt pleased that Mr. Ellis had consented to give the assistance of his long experience in civic affairs to the Board.
 At this juncture Mr. Ellis asked Mr. Gosling to desist from further reference to him, as he wished to make a few remarks when Mr. Gosling finished.
 Continuing, the Chairman said he hoped for harmony in everything pertaining to the betterment of the city and asked the Commissioners in the work now entrusted to their care.
 When the Chairman finished Mr. Ellis took the floor, and explained the position in which he was placed. He stated that a few days ago he was invited by the Premier to accept nomination to the Board, which he did on condition that he would be Chairman of the Commission. He felt that after twelve years of service, during which he gave the best that was in him to the city, he was entitled to the position. In consideration of the services performed which were as satisfactory, if not better than that of previous Commissions, he was of the opinion that to accept a subordinate position would be to say the least humiliating. In other words he regarded the matter as an insult to his competence, but felt that the only course open for him was to resign from the board, which he would do officially, whereupon he retired from the room.
 Chairman Gosling expressed his regret at Mr. Ellis' action, though he realized the difficulty of the position, but at the same time failed to see where the action of the Board reflected on him personally, or on the Commission, which he had been Mayor.
 Commissioner Arns also regretted Mr. Ellis' action. He had shown great interest in the affairs of the city and had endeavored to be successful, no fault could be attributed to him.
 Commissioner Mullaly expressed his disappointment over the selection made and endorsed the course taken by Mr. Ellis, with all due deference to Mr. Gosling, he did not consider that he should be appointed over one with such practical experience in civic matters. In conclusion he said that there was inconsistency shown, and intimated that he would consider his resignation also.
 Commissioners Withers and Morris expressed their wishes for harmony, if any good were to accrue from the Commission, and stated their willingness to assist in anything that suggested improvements.
 Commissioner Harris asked the following questions, answers to which will be prepared by the Secretary:—
 (1) The present condition of finances; and if the accounts were balanced up to June 30th last;
 (2) How many feet of water pipe is on hand;
 (3) Work in respect to laying of water pipe this year, if any;
 (4) Collections to date;
 (5) What arrangements at present exist as to watering of streets;
 (6) Number of watering carts owned by the city, and the instructions given to employees.
 The Chairman asked that the Secretary prepare a statement as to the closing of streets and what arrangements exist at present.
 Commissioner Bradshaw asked if there were any mechanical sweepers.
 The meeting adjourned at 9 p.m. to meet again at 3.30 this afternoon.

That Terrible Fatigue Can Be Overcome

A Simple Home Remedy Now Cures Lack of Energy, Loss of Ambition and a Feeling of "Don't-Care."
Successful in Nearly Every Case.
 That miserable nervousness and half-sick tired-all-the-time condition is due nine cases in ten to a clogged up system. You grow irritable and dependent, you lack ambition, energy seems all gone. Surest road to health is by the frequent use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they will make you feel like new all over in a short time.
 Writing from his home in Barcelona, Mr. Frederick G. Mayer states: "I think no one ever suffered as severely as I did for nearly six months. So many serious symptoms were developing as a consequence of this evil condition of my system that I realized I must find a remedy. The strong pills of various kinds I tried seemed to make me far worse and I did not know which way to turn for relief. I saw Dr. Hamilton's Pills advertised and the first box used satisfied me. I found a true remedy. Instead of griping with undue activity, Dr. Hamilton's Pills acted as naturally as if I had increased the dose and, indeed, within a month I reduced it, and when the system finally acted of its own accord as a result of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, I took a dose twice a week only, just in case the old conditions would not come back."
 No other remedy cures constipation and biliousness so easily or safely as Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they are an ideal family remedy for all diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels. Sold in 25c. boxes, five for $1.00, all druggists and storekeepers or The Catarhozone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

Wonderful Pictures

ON THE SILVER SCREEN.
 Last night Rossley had a crowded house, and the quality of the pictures were superior to any of our own. There is a complete change to-night again. The great feature being one that will please most audiences, "Little Mother wants a Nanna," a dramatic and appealing drama; "The Baby and the Cop," a comedy packed with fun and laughter; Pathé's very latest Animated-Gazette of the world's happenings; "Sammy's Day Off," another side-splitting comedy; and one of the most Western dramas, "Broncho Billy and the Indian Maid," featuring the world's motion picture cow boy G. M. Anderson. On Monday there will be one of the best programmes ever seen at the money, and Saturday matinee there will be a children's bargain show, when Mr. Rossley, to give the children a treat, will show eight pictures; and the admission Two Cents. The pictures shown on the silver screen are simply delightful and so far ahead of the old-fashioned cotton sheet that patrons fairly gasp with astonishment. The difference is noticeable.
Leaves next Friday.
 This day week the S. S. Bellaventura, Capt. Benda, will leave for her mission to Hudson Bay. From here she will proceed to Halifax where she will get supplies and take on board railroad supplies for Port Nelson.

A BAD START.

The resignation of the most experienced civic member of the City Commission and the threatened resignation of the only other member of the late City Council gives a bad start to the new city government. It is a pity that such a conflict should have arisen at the first meeting of the new body. There can be no doubt that harmony was most desirable for this interregnum government, if it is to do the work which it has been commissioned to do. Nor can there be any doubt that the experience of members of the late Council was not only desirable but essential. While the members of the Commission have a legal right to elect any member as Chairman whom the majority wish, the passing of a man like Mr. Ellis with twelve years experience, and four of these as Mayor, was not an action calculated to promote harmony or to obtain that experience, or to inspire public confidence. It would have shown much more of tact and wisdom to have chosen ex-Mayor Ellis as Chairman of this City Commission whose life is but temporary and of twelve months duration. It cannot be alleged that there was sound reason to pass him by. In making these remarks we do not in any way wish to discount the excellent work done by Mr. Gosling as Chairman of the Citizens' Committee, nor do we desire to throw cold water on the enthusiasm he has shown in the cause of Civic Reform, but under the circumstances we think the majority have not displayed much wisdom in passing by the ex-Mayor. If after twelve months experience on the commission, the city voters thought fit to elect Mr. Gosling as Mayor, we should gladly welcome the popular decision, but we cannot but regard the action of the majority of the Commission as an initial mistake under the circumstances which exist at present. The hope however is left to us that the Commission will profit by the mistake, which we hope is not irremediable. We have always regarded the form of English municipality, under which only a part of the Council goes any one year to election as a valuable one, as there is always left on the Council a majority of members councillors and aldermen with experience in the work of the Municipality.

The Rev. Dr. Leonard W. Snyder.

of Philadelphia, Pa., known as the boys minister throughout the United States and Canada, and Master Jesse Heinlein, of Mount Sterling, Kentucky, arrived on the S. S. Florizel on Thursday, and are now at The Cochrane. The work and object of Dr. Snyder is to convince boys and girls of God's most precious gifts within them—the gift of each one—individuality—and teach them to find their aptitudes in early age and to exercise self-confidence, so that they may become successful men and women. His entire time is devoted to this work and the financial interests are cared for by men interested in the work. He travels all over the United States and talks every year to thousands of boys and girls in schools and colleges, and he has a large correspondence with boys who have been greatly benefited by his advice and are on the way of success and happiness. Dr. Snyder is not connected with any organization, but is the founder of his own work, which is strictly a personal work. He is a communicant of the American Church. "I am delighted to make a visit to St. John's said Dr. Snyder and expect to remain here for about a week. This is my first visit to Newfoundland and I shall carry away many pleasant thoughts from your prosperous and industrious community." "Thoughtful," D—"Be Honest," E—"All young secretary, will tour this summer the Maritime Provinces, and in addition visit points along the St. Lawrence River and Great Lakes and speak in the interest of his work." Mottoes of the Boys' Minister:—"A—Be Clean," B—"Be Kind," C—"Be Thoughtful," D—"Be Honest," E—"Always do a little more than is expected." F—"If there is a way, find it, and if there is none, make it."

Are You Slipping?

One must go forward or backward—Nature never stands still. If you are feeling a little "out of sorts"—poor digestion, no energy, etc., you may depend upon it something is wrong and it's time to make a change.

Suppose you stop eating rich, indigestible foods that push one back, and try

Grape-Nuts

You will find it a wonderful builder, one that will carry you far on the Road to Wellville.

The finest wheat and barley, a little yeast, salt and pure artesian water—that's all that goes into Grape-Nuts. It contains all the nutriment of the grain, in a partially pre-digested form.

The flavour is delicately sweet and nut-like—one that you will like.

Dense fog was experienced ever since the ship left Halifax, and Capt. Martin informed the Telegram yesterday that he had to remain on the bridge for nearly the whole passage. The Florizel sails again to-morrow afternoon.

McMurdo's Store News.

FRIDAY, July 3, 1914. One great point about Sanident Tooth Paste, and one that distinguishes it favorably from many tooth pastes is this—that its consistence is pretty constant—it is little softer in the hottest weather than in the coldest. This forms an advantage, particularly in summer and winter. And when it is remembered that in all other respects Sanident ranks high, in cleaning properties, in pleasantness of taste, in freedom from grit or any injurious ingredient, and in economy, it will be seen that all that will be profit by the use of Sanident. And by all means use it with the Sanident Brush, the hairs of which will not come out. Sanident Tooth Brushes, 35c. each.

Concert at Canon Wood Hall.

The entertainment held at Canon Wood Hall last night was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed, the programme being as follows:—Piano-forte Solo, Miss Windler; Song, Miss Rennie; Song, Mr. Ruggles; Whistling Solo, Mrs. Stranger; Song, Mr. Cecil Cliff; Violin Solo, Miss Jill Johnson; Song, Mr. Bert Goodridge; Song, Miss Job; Song, Miss Gooding. The afterpiece consisted of an amusing farce entitled "The Peacemakers", in which the following took part: Elizabeth Leveson, Mrs. H. Outerbridge, Joyce Harford, Mrs. Chater, Parsons, Miss M. Leveson; Dr. Burton, Mr. Bert Goodridge; Richard Harford, B. Jackson. At the close of the entertainment His Lordship the Bishop thanked all present for their patronage, and spoke briefly of the object for which the concert was held. The receipts which were quite satisfactory, will go towards the funds of Queen's College.

Reids' Boats.

The Argyle sails from Port aux Basques at 8.25 a.m. to-day. The Bruce arrived at Port aux Basques at 6.25 a.m. to-day. The Clyde left Botwood at 4.30 p.m. yesterday outward. The Dundee left Port Blandford at 8.20 a.m. to-day. The Glenora left Fortunate at 2.50 p.m. yesterday, going west. The Home leaves Lewisporte to-day. The Invincible sails on Labrador service at 1 p.m. to-morrow. The Kyle has not been reported since leaving Griffin's Harbor on Wednesday last. The Linrose leaves North Sydney to-night. The Meigs left Bonne Bay at 8.10 a.m. yesterday, going North.

Outport Notes.

Yesterday's express conveyed from the Sydney the remains of a young man, who met with a fatal accident during his employment on the electric cars. The body was accompanied by the young widow of the deceased, who followed the corpse for burial by the shore line.

Miss Pittman, from Clode Sound, arrived by last evening's express to enter the hospital where she will undergo treatment for a bad twist she gave her foot in an accident.

Some of the fishermen belonging to the South Side of Trinity Bay, met with large catches of the cod during the week; many of the same averaging ten dollars a man for their catch.

The South Shore yesterday, was a hive of industry; men, women and children were busily engaged with caplin, placing the little fish on their crops to start their produce to come on.—Com.

Personal.

Rev. F. Snowden, N. W. Palmer and A. Thorpe who received Ordination at George St. Methodist Church have been transferred to Nova Scotia Conference and will take up their Ministerial duties in that Province. Miss May Stiek leaves by the Allan boat next week for the Old Country to purchase her stock of fall goods.

POLICE COURT.—One drunk was discharged, and an affliction case, which was heard in camera, was settled.

Death of Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain.

Last night, the Statesman who has loomed largest in the annals of Colonial History for the past generation, passed away. It is only a few weeks ago, since he bade farewell to his constituency of West Birmingham, which for quite a number of years kept him as member, although he could not attend to his duties since he was stricken with paralysis. Chamberlain first made his mark in revolutionizing the manufacture and commerce of screws in Birmingham, where he took up his residence after his college days in London, where he was born. He then turned his attention to civic matters in Birmingham and put them on a good footing. He was elected Mayor three times. He turned his attention to politics and with Mr. Schindhorst re-organized the Liberal Party. For quite a time Mr. Gladstone looked askance at him and did not like the idea of taking him in the Cabinet. As President of the Board of Trade, he did much to improve the Bankruptcy and the shipping laws. He afterwards found his field in the Colonial Office, which during his tenure loomed larger before the public than it ever did before or has since. His break with Gladstone occurred in connection with the 86 Home Rule Bill. Eventually, he left the Unionist Party to further a campaign of Tax Reform, which however never caught on in the North of England and Scotland.

Where to Go This Afternoon.

Persons desirous of spending an enjoyable afternoon, will do well to attend the annual sports of St. Bonaventure's which will take place on the College Campus this afternoon. The programme will not begin until 4 o'clock, so that those working in the stores will have an opportunity of seeing many of the interesting events and partake of the dainty teas and refreshments that will be served by the Ladies' Association. The afternoon is an ideal one for the sports and as far as we can learn the attendance will be large. The C.C.C. band will be heard to advantage in some of their choicest selections.

Here and There.

FURNESS BOATS.

The S. S. Durango sailed from Liverpool for this port at 3 p.m. yesterday.

The S. S. Digby is expected to get away from London to-morrow for this port.

UNSANITARY FISH MARKETS.—The attention of the Civic Commission and police is called to the existing conditions in the fish markets of the city. At night the fish markets are the sleeping places of many, whose reputation for cleanliness is questionable. In the interests of citizens generally who receive their supply of fresh fish at these places, the authorities should enquire into the matter and take prompt action to safeguard the public health.

Everybody will want to read Evelyn Thaw's "Story of My Life," just published. Our price 30c. Outport friends will remit 32c. in stamps. GARLAND'S Bookstores.—jly3,7,9

Love of Man

To-Day's Feature. A Strong Two Reel Drama.

The programme at the Crescent Palace to-day and to-morrow is a very attractive one. The special feature "Love of Men," a thrilling two reel Indian drama from the Bison Company this very interesting story commands the attention of patrons all through, and lovers of motion pictures who are keen on good dramas should make an effort to see it. The comedies: "The Village Feast," a Frontier and "Some Nightmare," featuring Max Aster, are abundant with fun. St. Claude and surroundings, Java, France, is a beautiful illustration of the scenes in this remarkable country. Miss Arkandy is singing a splendid novelty song illustrated: "Stick to Your Mother, Mary." The usual big Saturday matinee to-morrow afternoon; extra picture. On Monday Robinson Crusoe in three-reels; particulars to-morrow.

The Royal Visit.

FIRST DAY'S PROGRAMME.

The arrangements for the reception and entertainment of His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught on Wednesday, July 15th, are nearly completed. The day has been declared a bank and General Holiday, and facilities have been offered by the Reid Nfld. Co. in the way of special trains at reduced fares so that many visitors may be expected from the districts outside of St. John's. The Governor will proceed on board H.M.S. Essex in uniform to receive His Royal Highness at the capital city of Newfoundland. His Royal Highness will land at the King's Wharf at 10 a.m., (not 9 o'clock as previously announced), and will be received by a guard of honor of 46 men of the Newfoundland Constabulary under the command of Inspector General Sullivan. The Band of the Methodist Guards will be in attendance and will play the first six bars of the National Anthem as His Royal Highness lands in St. John's. The Mayor, who will be accompanied by the other Municipal Commissioners, will then present an Address bidding His Royal Highness welcome to the city of St. John's. The Duke will reply and will play the first six bars of the National Anthem as His Royal Highness lands in St. John's.

The following presentations will then be made to His Royal Highness: (1) The Premier and the Members of the Executive Council, (2) The heads of the religious denominations, (3) The Consular Body as representative of Foreign Nations. The presentations being concluded, the Duke will leave by carriage, escorted by two mounted officers, for a tour of the city. The first halt will be made at the King George V. Seaman's Institute, where His Royal Highness will be received by the Directors and the Secretary of the Newfoundland Grenfell Association and by the Manager of the Institute. A guard of honor will be furnished consisting of one officer and 16 men furnished by the Catholic Cadet Corps.

After inspecting the Institute, the cortege will proceed by Water Street and up McBride's Hill and by Queen's Road as far as Rawlin's Cross, and thence to St. George's Field, where the party will arrive at 11.30 a.m. (not at 11 as previously announced). At St. George's Field the cadet corps, consisting of the Church Lads Brigade, the Catholic Cadet Corps, the Newfoundland Highlanders and Co. "A" from Harbor Grace, and Co. "A" from Carbonear of the King Edward Cadets, will be drawn up in quarter column. The Duke will be received with a Royal salute, and the massed bands will play the first six bars of the National Anthem. His Royal Highness will then walk down the ground to inspect the Battalions while the massed bands play marches or selected tunes. The inspection over, His Royal Highness will take his place at the Saluting Base and the Battalions will form fours and march past, each battalion corps being played past to its own march by its own band. When the several corps have marched to their halting ground, the officers on parade will return to the saluting ground to be presented to His Royal Highness. Field Marshal The Duke of Connaught. The officers and the band of the Methodist Guards will be drawn up on the ground and the officers will be presented with these of the other Corps. The battalion, however, cannot appear on parade, owing to the loss of its equipment when the Armoury was burnt in 1912.

The Duke on leaving the Parade Ground will drive by Military Road and Kings' Bridge Road and enter Government House grounds by the East gate.

In the afternoon the Duke will drive along the Waterford Bridge Road, arriving at Bowring Park at 4 o'clock, where His Royal Highness will be received by a guard of honor and 16 men furnished by the Methodist Guards. Sir Edward Morris will formally present the Hon. Edgar Bowring as the public benefactor, through whose generosity the Park has been formed, and Mr. Bowring will then pray His Royal Highness to declare the Park open for the pleasure and recreation of the public. The Governor will tender the thanks of the community. His Royal Highness will be asked to commemorate the occasion by planting a tree and to accept a memento of shade as a souvenir of the event. Tea will be served, and His Royal Highness will leave shortly after for the site of the Hospital for the treatment of Tuberculosis. (5.30 p.m.)

On arrival at the site, which for the beauty of the view is doubtless even Bowring Park, the Duke will be received by a guard of honor of an officer and 16 men of the Newfoundland Highlanders. Mr. W. D. Reid, the munificent donor of the Hospital, by whose aid tuberculosis, the most deceitful disease in the Colony, may be specially treated, will then be presented to His Royal Highness by the Governor. Whereupon Mr. Reid will pray His Royal Highness to lay the foundation stone of the Hospital. The ceremony being concluded by the presentation of a miniature silver trowel, Mr. Furlong will tender thanks to His Royal Highness on behalf of the donor and of the Directors of the Reid Nfld. Co. The Duke will return to Government House where a dinner will be served, to which a number of those who hold or have held high official positions will be invited.

His Royal Highness as Grand Master of the United Lodges of Freemasons in the British Dominions, has been pleased to accept an invitation of the District Grand Master and Freeman of St. John's, and has arranged to visit the Masonic Building at 10 p.m. At the entrance a guard of honor will be furnished, composed of an officer and 16 men of the Church Lads Brigade, of which corps the Duke is Honorary Colonel-in-Chief. The Masonic Lodge will be brilliantly illuminated.

On the return journey the Duke will have an opportunity of seeing the many buildings which will be lit up on this evening and the next, out of compliment to His Royal Highness, and as a manifestation of the deep loyalty which Newfoundlanders have always displayed towards the Royal House.

The programme for Thursday, July 16th, will be announced shortly.

$30 In Cash.

1. $10 will be forwarded to the person sending us the largest number of words obtained from the words "Stafford's Liniment."

2. $10 for the largest number obtained from the words "Stafford's Prescription A."

3. $10 for the largest number obtained from the words "Stafford's Phoratoxone Cough Cure."

You will have a chance to win the $30 if you follow out the conditions below:

Conditions—All answers must be accompanied by either of the following:

1. The outside green wrapper obtained from a bottle of Stafford's Liniment.

2. The words "Trial size" cut from the yellow cardboard box of Stafford's Prescription "A."

3. The word Phoratoxone from the white cardboard box of Stafford's Phoratoxone Cough Cure.

Either of these three things will do, so as to make your guess a home-fire one.

If you are not able to obtain either of these three preparations in your district, you can forward us (together with your answer) one of the following amounts:

20 cents for Stafford's Liniment.

30 cents for Stafford's Prescription "A."

50 cents for Stafford's Phoratoxone Cough Cure.

If you want to try to win the $3 prizes, you must purchase the 3 preparations.

On receipt of same we will forward the preparations you require by parcel post and your answer will be kept until the 30th day of July (1914) when we will publish the names of the winners.

In the event of two or more persons sending in the same number of words (and those being the highest ones), the one that we receive the first will win the prize.

The names of the Judges of this competition will be published at the same time as we publish the names of the winners.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—We are constantly receiving a numerous quantity of our Liniment circulars for the above competition, these do not count. It is the outside green wrapper that you must send us and not the inside circular.

Address all communications to DE. P. STAFFORD & SON, St. John's, Nfld.

The Reporter.

By GEORGE FITCH.

Author of "At Good Old Slivash."

A reporter is a young man who blocks out the first draft of history each day on a rheumatic typewriter.

It is his business to accompany the earth in its revolutions and to transcribe notes of the trip into readable matter. There are about 50,000,000 square miles of land on this planet and if anything is to happen on any of this land without attracting the attention of some reporter with an industrious lead pencil it must take place in a furtive and secretive manner.

At one time, it was necessary to sit on the fence and interview passersby most of the time in order to find out what was happening. The reporter has relieved mankind of this burden.

While we sleep at night, the reporter attends fires, prize fights, murders, earthquakes, cyclones, tango parties, directors' meetings and secret gatherings of frenzied financiers and starts the proceedings thereof into the early morning newspaper. Thanks to the reporter, we can now learn at the breakfast table what is going to happen to-morrow and can make a fair guess at what happened yesterday.

At one time, it was necessary to attend political meetings during a campaign in order to hear the speeches. Now the reporters attend the meetings and the voter reads the speeches on his way down town in the street car. For this reason alone, the reporter is an inestimable boon to humanity.

To be a good reporter one must have an investigate disposition, an indomitable pair of legs, a set of feelings protected by Harveyized armor and a great aversion to sleep. He should also be well versed in politics, baseball, sleuthing in its various branches, the habits and hiding places of financiers, the movements of ocean steamships, the cost of bituminous pavement, the names of banquet dishes, the amount of butter fat in good milk, the legal rate of interest in Oklahoma, the legislation pending in 49 states, the batting averages of Capt. Anson.

In 1886, the names of Pierpont Morgan's children, the date of the Titanic disaster, the time of last cars on all lines, the changes in schedule K and several million miscellaneous subjects of equal importance.

At one time, a knowledge of English was also necessary, but the perfection of modern newspaper enterprise has fortunately relieved the reporter of this burden.

Reporters once followed events and gathered up news. Now they arrange events when news is scarce, accompany history hand in hand and meet invading armies with cameras and notebooks.

For all his work, the reporter gets as much money as a poor plumber. But he is permitted to hang around back of the scenes and watch humanity putting on its show—which is so interesting that reporting is as hard to give up as other stimulants.

Reporters do not become rich, but they could if they told all they knew. Because they do not do this, we should be grateful to them and not tell them all the things we don't know—which is at present the great American diversion.

Spurious Coin.

"Pushing the queer" is again going on in the city and the practice is being indulged in, it is alleged, by members of the ne'er-do-well gentry. A few days ago an unknown fellow visited a small shop, which is conducted by an aged and semi-blinded woman in the vicinity of Monkstown. The visitor "blew" himself on milk and cakes to the tune of 20 cents. For the amount of stuff consumed he deposited a counterfeit shilling which was worthless as the fellow himself, needless to say the old lady received the coin thankfully. The visitor left and shortly after the old lady had occasion to count her cash. She suspected that the 20 cents piece given her by the last customer was not genuine because it had not the usual sound as when she dropped it on the counter. It gave a thud which with the old lady consulted a next door neighbour who examined the coin and tore it asunder. It did not contain the smallest fraction of silver. The customer had then made himself scarce, so it was no use getting after him. To take such a mean contemptible advantage is nothing short of an outrage and merits severe punishment.

Where Responsibility Lies.

No matter how large, or how small, a business may be, nobody can deny that its Office is the nerve centre of the firm. Every transaction, important or trivial, must be recorded at the Office. An order is received at the Office, its history is recorded at the Office, and finally payment is received at the Office. If the Office makes an error the firm stands the loss. That's why you must be sure that your office is modern and dependably equipped for the care of all important papers. To do this effectively you need the up-to-date equipment of the "GLOBE-WERNICKE CO." When sixty offices in St. John's have found this necessity this equipment can surely be of use to you. Mr. Percie Johnson represents this world known firm in Newfoundland. ap17.12

Baseball Meeting.

A meeting of the Baseball League was held last night, at which Mr. J. A. Havermale presided. Arrangements were made for Monday's game, and the usual routine business was disposed of. It was decided that the postponed game between the Cubs and Red Lions will be played at 10 a.m. on Monday next and the game between the B.I.S. and Wanderers at 3 p.m. Arrangements were also made for the series of preliminary games in connection with the Mt. Cashel Garden Party which takes place on July 20th. The first of the series will be played on St. Bon's grounds, and on Thursday next at 6.30 p.m., the contesting teams being the B.I.S. and Wanderers. An admission fee will be charged and the proceeds will go towards the Garden Party funds.

The Local Fishery.

Last evening fish were found in abundance on the local grounds. This morning the waters were again teeming with cod and at an early hour several boats, deeply laden, could be seen entering the narrows. Thus far the fishermen of the Battery and St. John's generally have landed more fish than for the same period last season, though it may be said that a certain fisherman of the South Side, on the local grounds and who was higher last year, has not a cod's tail under salt now. You can get a Pretty Engagement Ring ranging in price from $2.50 to $10.00 at TRAPNELL'S.

Personal.

Mr. D. P. Toomey of New York City, editor of the Columbian, the official organ of the Knights of Columbus, is making the round trip on the Florizel. Messrs. F. J. Ryan and J. D. Savin, who have been studying for the priesthood at St. Mary's Seminary, Halifax arrived by the Florizel yesterday to spend their vacation with their friends. Lady Outerbridge who had been visiting friends in England returned to the city by the Florizel yesterday. Hon. J. R. and Mrs. Bennett arrived in the city by the Florizel yesterday and were accompanied by their two sons Raymond and Sydney who will spend their vacation here. W. G. Smith who returned from Canada last week is forming up a company to incorporate Callahan, Glass & Co. into a Limited Liability Company. John Callahan transferring his interest to the new company and continuing as the practical member of the firm. A. W. O'Reilly retiring from the business altogether whose place will be filled by W. G. Smith, as business manager. Under the new management we predict a great success for this old reliable and well established firm.

Try Again.

You have, it may be, used ointments, pastes, lotions for Eczema till you begin to get tired of trying things. Well, but you should remember that science is advancing all the time, and that what was not possible yesterday can be accomplished to-day. If you neglect to try Zylex—the newest and best thing that science has yet to offer for the relief and cure of Eczema and other annoying and disfiguring skin diseases—you are missing a great opportunity. It may be that it will cure you. It has cured some very bad cases. Price 60c. a box. Zylex Soap. 25c. a cake.

Having Enjoyable Trip.

Fifty two round trippers arrived by the Florizel yesterday. Speaking to a Telegram representative they say that the run down here was most enjoyable, though dense fog was experienced since the ship left Halifax. Owing to atmospheric conditions very little time could be spent on deck and so an interesting series of concerts and entertainments was held, all of which were thoroughly enjoyed. Amongst the party are some excellent musicians, to say nothing of the many other entertainers on board. Last evening the whole party were entertained at Smithville by Mr. W. G. H. Mason of Brooklyn, who is a round tripper on the ship. An excellent lobster supper was held, and was followed by an interesting concert interspersed with songs and recitations, after which dancing was indulged in until after midnight. To-day they visited Bowling Park and other points of interest in the suburbs.

Famous Surgeon in St. John's.

Dr. John D. Adams, of Boston, Mass., the famous surgeon, who will attend to the Greenell Hospital at St. Anthony during the summer months, arrived in the city by the Florizel yesterday. While in the city he will attend to those suffering from deformities, and for this purpose a register has been opened at the Institute where persons wishing to consult him may apply. Dr. Adams will leave for the northward by the next Prospero.

St. John's Gas Light Company.

Dear Sir,—I have analyzed a sample of Sulphate of Ammonia made at your Works and I found 20.5 per cent of NITROGEN, Sulphates of Ammonia and Nitrate of Soda are the two principal Nitrogen manure.

Sulphate of Ammonia is less soluble than Nitrate of Soda, consequently it is a safer manure to use during a wet season.

This Date in History.

JULY 3. Full Moon.—7th. Days Past—183 To Come—181 GETTYSBURG, 1863. In the great struggle of the American Civil War at first success seemed to favour the South, but this battle was the turning point of the war, when the Southerners were defeated. This battle decided the British Government against recognizing the Southern Confederacy. MAURITIUS captured 1810. Where the will is ready the feet are light.

More Fires.

Fires provoke immediate sympathy for the sufferer and also thankfulness for personal escape. Another thought should be whether one is personally and sufficiently protected? An insurance policy with Percie Johnson would provide for you this desired security and at small expense. Have you enough insurance?

Jack Graney.

Red McGhee says: John Gladstone Graney!—So in name mates. The prex of our United States could well be proud of such. But Jack ain't strong on politics. The diamond's where he pulls his tricks with Spalding's one-stick cricket. The printers score his high-brow name in settin' box scores of the game an' cut the front away. But that ain't Jack's creed. An' he ain't no slow-goin' skate at nailin' runners at the plate—for all-round stuff he's brainy. A brilliant comert?—Star?—Well, no. The game would be the leaser, though, without J. Gladstone Graney.

Use Short Words.

A man who acts as tutor and companion to a young boy wrote this indorsement on one of the boy's compositions: "Use shorter words—follow the example of Horatio Seymour: This is part of an address delivered by him to students in 1878: 'Short words, like love, hate, or zeal, have a clear ring which stirs our minds or touches our hearts. They but tell of joy or grief, of rage or peace, of life or death. They are felt by all, for their terms mean the same thing to all men. We learn them in youth; they are on our lips through all days, and we utter them down to the close of life. They are the apt terms with which we speak of things which are big, or great, or noble. They are the grand words of our tongue they teach us how the world was made. "God said, "Let there be light and there was light." Mark the words of more than one syllable.—New York Tribune.

Divorced Life by Helen Hessong Fuesrie

Stokes Makes a Confession

Marian was startled at the amazing information Miss La Vere had volunteered about Stokes, the man who had brought her to the Bohemian eating place. Her natural impulse had always been to trust the people she met. But gradually and reluctantly ever since the beginning of her troubles with her husband, she had been learning that folk are not always what they seem to be.

Stokes and "Van" returned shortly to the table of the two young women. For Marian, the evening was completely spoiled. What was she to do? In a sore dilemma, she strove to formulate plans. Glancing across the table at Stokes and reflecting bitterly upon Miss La Vere's assertion that he had been a "faithful" Marian nevertheless had to admit to herself that there was a genial, friendly, affable something about the man that she could not help liking.

"Well, if we must, we must," he added. "What you say goes." The two bade "Van" and his companion good-night and made their way to the street. Hardly were they alone together on the sidewalk than Stokes started Marian with:

"I'll wager I know what's happened to spoil your evening, Miss Winthrop. That girl's been talking about me hasn't she?" Marian undertook to deny the correctness of the guess, but Stokes cut her off. He continued sadly, wistfully: "Did she tell you that I've served time, been mixed up in shady transactions, and all that? Well, I guess there's no use denying it. You were bound to hear such talk sooner or later. I think too much of you to try to deceive you by selling any longer under false colors. I've gone wrong and taken my punishment, and now I'm trying to stick to the straight Province Profits From Oil Co. Fees.

The sum of $50,000 has been paid into the Province of Alberta since the first day of April, in registration fees for oil companies, exclusive of incorporations for the Calgary and Edmonton exchanges, for selling agencies, and for concerns organized for the supply of materials used in connection with the development of oil fields. Since April 1st, certificates of incorporation have been granted to oil companies through the office of George E. Trowbridge, Deputy Provincial Secretary, the total capitalization of which amounts to $115,000,000.

Johnson's Easy Victory.

Bout Went the Light, but Champion Never in Danger—Society Prominent at the Paris Fight.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Age, Weight. Rows for Johnson and Moran with various physical statistics.

Paris, June 26.—The 26-round bout between Jack Johnson and Frank Moran, of Pittsburg, at Velodrome d'Hiver here on Saturday night, went the limit. But Johnson was never in danger; he was as pleased, and the bout at times was amateurish. Geo. Carpenter, the French champion, who was referee, gave decision to Johnson on points. Moran was game and stubborn, and did most of the leading.

Towards the middle of the contest it appeared as if Moran would get the 26 rounds, but he showed courage and kept driving. Although he landed a number of times on the de-gro, his blows lacked force and were comparatively ineffective. Now and then he tried to land hard on his adversary, and in so doing swung wildly through space, Johnson being several feet away.

The great amphitheatre presented a wonderful sight. The singular spectacle was presented of several hundred women in handsome gowns applauding the two pugilists.

Johnson's white wife occupied a prominent position, wearing as many diamonds as most of the great ladies. She cried out shrilly from time to time: "Hit him Daddy"; "Come along Pop"; "Now then Jack, let him have another."

It was announced that the gate receipts exceeded $40,000. Moran gets $5,000 and Johnson $30,000. Moran rested Sunday at his camp at Meriel, on the Oise. Johnson also remained at his training quarters, nursing a badly swollen hand and receiving a number of visitors. Johnson attributed his injured fist to the fact that he wore for the first time four-ounce gloves, instead of gloves weighing five ounces.

Sixteen Days Without Food.

That Mr. Savage Landor, the eminent explorer, is well qualified to criticize, as he has been going, the report of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt's travels and discoveries in Brazil cannot be denied; for it is doubtful if any man has a wider knowledge of that part of the world. And terrible indeed were his experiences; when he made his last journey through the unexplored parts of South America. For eighteen months Mr. Landor buried himself in Brazil, journeying 11,000 miles, many on foot, through the wildest regions, and such hardships did he endure that it took him several months after his return in 1912 to recover from the effects of his trip.
Criminal Servants.
 The object of his expedition was scientific, and he described enormous zigzags across South America in order to visit regions which, to quote his own words, "interested me by reason that they were absolutely unknown. With the exception of thirty hours in the train, all the travelling was done on mule, canoe, or on foot."
 Mr. Landor has also related how his difficulties were increased by the inaccurate maps in existence, and the fact that he could get no help from anyone. Furthermore, the only servants he could induce to accompany him were six men, four of whom were of the criminal type, and who openly professed their intention of killing him in the belief that he had money. And it was with these men that Mr. Landor attacked the problems of unknown Brazil.

Driven Mad by Hunger.
 A striking illustration of Mr. Landor's courage is afforded by the fact that although he armed his confessedly treacherous followers with rifles, revolvers, and knives, he himself carried no weapon except when after game, and he went the entire distance from the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific without having even a penknife on his person.

Some idea of the difficulties of his journey may be gathered from the fact that for sixty days he and his servants spent the time in the water, either pulling, pushing, or leading the canoe. The worst experience, however, occurred towards the end of the expedition, while travelling through a certain unexplored portion of Brazil. They were obliged to remain sixteen days without a morsel of anything to eat.

Prevented Suicide.
 "Happily," said Mr. Landor, when describing his fearful experiences, "there was plenty of water, but there was no game, no fruit, no fish, and no inhabitants. Our experiences were terrible, and mainly brought about by the malcontent four, who objected to the loads. They threw away most of the foodstuffs, and made themselves so ill by eating sugar that they were unable to continue, so I pushed on ahead with my two faithful followers, a negro and a mulatto, but it was with the greatest difficulty I prevented them committing suicide. For myself, I nearly died. Starvation brought on anaemia, which was succeeded by beri beri in the right leg, causing the atrophy of two toes. Eventually, when our sufferings were almost insupportable, we met a rubber collector. But we were in a terrible plight, and by this time I had lost fifty lbs. in weight."

Fads and Fashions.

Earrings are still worn.
 Bodices will be much busied.
 All tones of grey are popular.
 Circle brooches are well liked.
 Women now favor the heavy ring.
 The pendant is still a great favorite.
 All bodices for day have long sleeves.
 "Aphrodite" is a lovely azaleared tone.
 Fabric hats are much worn by little folks.
 Skirts of street suits are extremely short.
 Wide-striped linens are used for morning frocks.
 The white hat is much favored by Parisiennes.
 Coats promise deep cape collars and full skirts.
 The smartest street hats are trimmed with quilts.
 The nose veil is here with all its bewitching effect.
 Larger hats are gradually making their appearance.
 The girle of Roman-striped ribbon is still worn.
 The diamond cut in oval shape is beautiful and new.
 Black and white combinations are in great favor.
 Many of the newest dance frocks are made of chiffon.
 Evening gowns either have long sleeves or are sleeveless.
 Long suede gloves are worn with the little short-sleeved coats.

New Model Collapsible Lounges.

With the approach of really warm, summer days all one's plans for the summer cottage come into action, and the first thought of the housekeeper is generally that of comfortable sleeping accommodation, combined with economy of space.

Here is where our New Model Collapsible Lounges come to the front; of light, strong manufacture, full sized spring mattress when extended, and easily manipulated by means of an adjustable foot brake, these Lounges are particularly suitable for summer residences. They can be folded during the day, and by means of rugs and cushions made into luxuriously comfortable seats, while a couple of minutes transforms them into perfect beds for perfect rest at night. These Lounges are very reasonable in price. Come and see one demonstrated in our store, you'll be charmed with the result.

TRAPNELL
The Eyesight Specialist

Examines the eyes without DRUGS, DROPS or DANGEL. He not only finds the trouble, but with his perfect optical machinery he can grind the correct lenses to suit the most complicated cases, and do it quickly.

There was a time when all compound lenses had to be sent out of the country for, involving a delay of three or four weeks, but that day has passed; an hour or two is sufficient to produce any lens that may be called for.

Prescriptions filled or broken lenses replaced if you have the pieces.

SETTLEMENT PROMPT and PROFITABLE.

Sault Ste. Marie,
13th Dec., 1911.

Canada Life Assurance Co.,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs:—

In acknowledging receipt of cheque in payment of my endowment policy now maturing, I wish to thank you for the prompt way in which you have put my claim through. I did not have to wait a single day for my money as the papers were all in order beforehand.

I am pleased, too, with the way my investment has turned out. Besides having my insurance protection for $1,000, I have got all my money back and $400 besides. The Canada Life has my best good wishes for its continued success.

Yours truly,
R. H. KNIGHT.
