It's time for your New Felt Hat, $3.25 to $6.50.—Swift's.

Don't fail to hear Mr. Cecil J. Bell who recently toured Scotland in the interests of Prohibition. He will address a mass meeting in the Music Hall tomorrow (Friday) evening, April 8th. Everybody welcome.

The Easter dance given in the Armory by a group of Lambtons 149 chapter I.O.D.E. was well attended and altogether a most enjoyable affair. The local orchestra supplied the music which the dancers pronounced excellent.

Just another boost for the new skating rink. Attend the Lyceum tonight (Friday) and see "The Idol Dancer." Clad in youthful beauty, innocence, a wisp of tropical grass and the leaf of a fig—you'll lose your heart to this girl.

The Strathroy papers have been amalgamated, the Dispatch having ceased publication, thus following the plan adopted by many other towns where it was found impossible to make two papers pay. George Richardson will go to Sault Ste Marie to live and R. F. Richardson has joined the staff of the Age.

Mr. Wm. The regular meeting of Lambtons 149, I.O.D.E. will be held at the home of Mrs. Loftus Millar on Tuesday, April 12th, at 3 p.m.

Your Spring Suit, don't wait any longer.—Swift's Clothing Dept.

Catchy music and fetching scenery for "The Idol Dancer" at the Lyceum, (tonight) in aid of Watford's new skating rink. You'll not regret attending.

The reams of whiskey pamphlets that carpet post offices in the Dominion of Canada, these days give lie to the scarcity of paper talk. There must be big money in the liquor business to allow of circulating so much non-productive advertising of this kind.

Chief Elliot has been instructed by the town council to see that owners of chickens keep their hens from running on neighbor's property. This is the time of year that a great deal of destruction is caused by the hens scratching up bulbs and early garden seeds, to say nothing of how rapidly a half dozen hens can spread a load of fertilizer all over one's premises. People having complaint to make should notify Chief Elliot.

The drama "A Kentucky Belle" presented in the Lyceum on Thursday night by the North Warwick Dramatic Club drew a good house and the acting was artistically spoken of by those who attended.

The Watford orchestra supplied the music. The proceeds were devoted in aid of the Sick Children's Hospital. The performers are a talented lot of amateur dramatists and deserved the generous applause accorded them.

A lecture will be given in the High School at 8 p.m. on Friday evening, April 8, by Dr. Horning of Toronto University. The subject of the lecture is "The Face of Europe." He will return to Sarnia in a year.

Those who attended the anniversary services in Trinity church on Sunday last were highly edified and deeply moved by the powerful sermons preached by Rev. Canon Fotheringham, M. A., of Brantford.

At the morning service he preached on "The Church as a Home and the Home as a Church," from the text, Col. 4:15, and in the evening on "The Biography of Christ," taking for his evening text the last two verses of St. John's gospel. Both services were well attended and deep interest was manifested throughout.

The pupils of the Public School are asked to propose a slogan to head the prize list for the Watford School and Community Fair of 1921.

Three prizes are offered 50 c, 30c and 20c. In 1918 the first prize was won by Clifford Forster's slogan, "Hoe to beat the Kaiser." Second prize, "Wield the hoe and save the dough," Wilson Howden. Third prize—"If we want to win, we must dig in," was won by Franklin Taylor, a Primary pupil. Slogans must be in the teachers' hands by April 15th.

Judges are Miss McCaw, Miss B. Mitchell and Mr. Murray Cameron.

It's fine country, the South Sea Isles; when the girls want to change clothes they go out and pull up a handful of grass—and should it turn real warm, and they want a sundae—it's all off! Such is the setting for "The Idol Dancer." See her at the Lyceum tonight (Friday) and benefit the new rink.

While alighting from the noon westbound train on Saturday Miss Florence McRae, of Sarnia, met with a distressing accident, falling from the steps of the car and striking her head on a rail, receiving an ugly cut on the forehead and being considerably shaken up, requiring the attention of a physician to dress the wound. Blood flowed freely from the wound spoiling some of her clothing. It is alleged that the customary stool had not been placed on the track, neither was there a trainman at the car entrance to assist passengers.

NEW SKATING RINK BENEFIT CONCERT

The management of Western Ontario Amusement Enterprise has come forward with a splendid offer to the new skating rink committee, wherein they will present a large percentage of the proceeds this week and next week to Watford's New Skating Rink. This is an exceptionally fine offer and it will be of direct benefit to everyone. The program for the two weeks is made up of the best features obtainable. Tonight will be presented "The Idol Dancer," one of Griffith's latest productions. Next week the big feature will be "Go and Get It"—that spectacular, thrilling mystery woven into the life of two newspapers.

The splendid features that the management is bringing to Watford every week from Loeve's Theatre, London, deserves for them the most liberal patronage of our town and vicinity. Watford is indeed fortunate in having such good film service, and we are assured of these good offerings as long as the people wish to see them. Get into the habit of attending these weekly offerings on Friday evenings. You will be well repaid in wholesome entertainment.

Glencoe has some prospects of getting a new industry, in which the making of toys will be the principal business. A gentleman was there last week with a view to taking over the old power house, and was well pleased with the prospects generally.

The death of a former Theford resident took place in Sarnia, on Thursday, in the person of Eliza Jane Hall, wife of Charles W. Hall, aged 73 years and 9 months. PLYMPTON'S OLDEST PIONEER

The late John McConnell, who passed away Sunday evening, March 13, was probably the oldest pioneer of Plympton. He was born May 4th, 1832 in County Armagh, Ireland, and came with his parents in 1844 to Canada. After a tedious voyage of six weeks and three days, settled on the old homestead west half lot 7 the same year. The father, Jas. McConnell, unfortunately died three months after their arrival, thus leaving Mrs. McConnell (nee Abigail De Lap) a widow with a small family of six children in a tractless forest, her eldest son, John, being but twelve years of age. It is impossible for us to realize what all this meant. The half will never be told. However, notwithstanding those sad and discouraging circumstances, that courageous spirit so prominent in that illustrious race to which they belong, proved equal to the many burdens of pioneer life, they all lived to manhood and womanhood.

The passing of John McConnell was a natural consequence not unlooked for as he was almost 89 years of age, and to the very last was in complete possession of his mental faculties. He possessed an enormous amount of mother wit, was truly genial, and distinctly honest. In religion he was a life-long member of the Anglican church; he was more righteous than religious; a conservative in politics, with a keen sense of right. Mr McConnell was married in 1876 to Miss B. Maria Jackson, to whom six children were born. James Thomas and Charlotte M., at home; Mrs. Henry Berry, sixth line, Plympton; Mrs. Henry Whiffen, Detroit, and Margaret Jane Ethel May, and Mary Agnes deceased, two brothers survive him, Wm. DeLap McConnell, Sarnia, and Thomas Jas., of Cranbrook, B. C. His sisters were the late Mrs. Johanna Trusler, Forest; the late Mrs. Jane McPherson, and the late Mrs. Abigail Robinson, Cam-lachie, and the late Mrs. Elizabeth Patterson, of Sarnia. He was buried in Wyoming on the 16th day of March, surrounded by his family and friends, the cortege leaving that beautiful home which shall long remain a pleasant reminiscence of his memory, and while we proffer our sympathy to the bereaved ones it is pleasant to be able to say as their regent of Scotland said at the grave of John Knox. "Their lies the mortal remains of an honest man."

The pallbearers were all nephews John and Jasper Jackson, Thomas Young, John Jackson, Ernest and Thomas Jackson. Rev. Mr. Fry, Anglican clergyman, of Wyoming, conducted the service.

VEGETABLE VIRTUES

A doctor has compiled this list of vegetable virtues:

Rhubarb is a good laxative.
Asparagus stimulates the kidneys.
Onions are a tonic for the nerves.
Watercress is an excellent blood purifier.

Parsnips possess the same virtues as sarsaparilla.

Bananas are beneficial to sufferers from chest complaints.

Dates are exceedingly nourishing and also prevent constipation.

Apples, carrots and Brazil nuts are excellent for sufferers from constipation.

Tomatoes are good for a torpid liver, but should be avoided by gouty people.

Celery contains sulphur and helps to ward off rheumatism. It is also a nerve tonic.

Lettuce has a soothing effect on the nerves, and is excellent for sufferers from insomnia.

Spinach has great aperient qualities and is far better than medicine for sufferers from constipation.

ROUND ABOUT THE HOUSE

Thin slices of bread with lettuce leaves and sliced radishes make very palatable sandwiches.

Utilize cold spinach by heating, add a little butter, and serve on buttered toast. Garnish with hard boiled eggs.

Almost any green salad, particularly if it is to be served with a roast is improved by the addition of some finely chopped mint leaves.

Cauliflower, when served whole, makes a very pretty dish. Tie it in a square of cheesecloth before boiling. When done it can then be lifted from the vessel without breaking it. Place on a hot platter, remove the cloth, then pour over the cauliflower a drawn butter sauce.

In canning fruit, especially cherries, currants and berries, it sometimes happens that there is juice left over. Heat it and can it carefully, or put it hot into clean bottles, stop with new corks and seal with wax. It makes a welcome drink mixed with ice water.

Nests of crisp lettuce leaves or water cress, or cups made of tomatoes, cucumbers, or green peppers, when used for serving salads, add much to their appearance.

A delicious sweet to serve with a luncheon course is made by dipping oblong crackers in melted sweet chocolate. Place them on a buttered plate until firm and dry.

MANUFACTURE KID GLOVES FROM WHALE INTESTINES

Soft, pliable "kid" that is as strong and durable as its genuine prototype, from the intestines of the whale; thick sole leather of excellent quality from the lining of the whale's mouth; five or more huge split sides of tough leather from the skin of the beluga, the common dolphin of the North Pacific; these are only a few of the many revolutionary products obtained from aquatic leather, the manufacture of which has become one of the few important industries of the Pacific Northwest.

From an embryonic idea three years ago to a practical method of utilizing annually millions of dollars worth of otherwise wasted by-products, and supplying a new source of sorely needed material, the development of the industry has been phenomenal.

All types of sharks—mud, sand, hammerhead, white, basking or giant, shark—furnish valuable leather, and the grain of this tough product makes it prized for upholstery, bag and trunk covering, etc. The skin of the average deep-sea shark, which is 10 to 12 ft. in length, measures about 35 sq. ft. This is split as many as eight times.

FACE BETRAYS CALLING

It seems to be pretty well agreed among those in a position to speak authoritatively that associated with the various occupations in life there is undoubtedly a type of face which more or less betrays the calling of its owner. Medical men, especially in hospital practice, find acquaintance with these types valuable. They may not be able, with the shrewdness of Sherlock Holmes or of other acute persons, to read a man's past, present and future by a glance at him in the street but they are able to gauge with considerable accuracy how far the history of the case, as given by the patient, is a truthful one, and how far it fits with his probable occupation in life. Calling must certainly have some influence over the physiognomy of the cabman the butler, or the groom; each frequently possesses a type of face which wears characteristic an expression as to make it not difficult to identify the vocation accompanying it. We speak also of the legal face, the musical face, the dramatic face, and the military face. This is merely a broad classification, and the best authorities disbelieve in the claims of the keen observer that he can differentiate to a finer degree.

Bootleggers and Whiskey Smugglers are Disgracing Canada

On April 18 Abolish Importation by voting YES

Since January 1, 1920, thousands and thousands of gallons of Whiskey, Gin, Brandy and High Wines have been shipped into Ontario.

Express shipments alone for a long period averaged four to six cars per day, and have run as high as eight!

Four car loads a day means at least 19,200 quarts daily, or over 5,000,000 quarts per year. And yet the people of Ontario voted to make prohibition the permanent law!

This imported "Booze" is the stuff which enables the "Bootlegger" to carry on his illegal trade, and allows "Rum Runners" and "Whiskey Smugglers" to disgrace Canada.

Officers of the law are set at defiance.

Read what the Chairman of the Board of License Commissioners says himself.

Importation Makes Law Enforcement Difficult

"After an experience in the administration of the Ontario Temperance Act covering the period from its first coming into force in September, 1916, I am in a position to state that importation is seriously hampering its effectiveness. The War Measures Act was repealed in January 1920, and the Dominion Orders-in-Council under the Act were rescinded. Heavy shipments of liquor into the province began at once. The number of cases of breach of the Ontario Temperance Act have increased in even greater proportion."—From a Statement by the Chairman of Board of License Commissioners for Ontario.

Shall the importation and the bringing of intoxicating liquors into the Province be forbidden? NO

NOTHING TO EQUAL

BABY'S OWN TABLETS
Mrs. Georges Lefebvre, St. Zenon, Que., writes: "I do not think there is any other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones. I have used them for my baby and would use nothing else." What Mrs. Lefebvre says thousands of other mothers say. They have found by trial that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus banish indigestion, constipation, colds, colic, etc. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Co, Brockville, Ont.

Horray for the prospects of paving Main street.

Miss Geraldine Durstan was unable to be with us for a few days last week owing to having had her tonsils removed.

Our shipping force has just got away our eighth car of Horse Nose Guards to Western Canada from Strathroy since January 1st.

Now having four machinists in our machine shop, our equipment is far failing to prove adequate, so the management has purchased a new high-class Walcott Tool-makers Lathe with an eight foot bed and eighteen inch swing which will be a very valuable addition to this department.

What!!! What's all this we are hearing about one of our returned boys, who, when invalided in Blighty, and on being questioned by a sympathetic old lady as to "having had to come through some pretty tight squeezes", replied blushingly, "Well ma'am, the nurses have been pretty good to me."

Our gardener says "If we get things fixed around here like the Manager says, he would like them, we'll have a regular Garden of Eden." We think this is a fitting comparison for we have heard about the canaries in the factory and ask the office staff about those sparrows. And when we get the flowers it will be complete—but ah me! I forgot—where's Adam and Eve?

This Ford is my Auto, I shall not want another. It maketh me lie down underneath. It leadeth me in the paths of ridicule for its name's sake, Yea, though I ride through the valley,

I am towed up the hills, I fear much evil for my rod and I am about to discomform me, I anoint my tires with patches, my radiator rumeth over,

I have a blow-out within the presence of mine enemies, Surely if this thing follows me all the days of my life,

I shall dwell in the bughouse forever. MARY, daughter of a French father and a Javanese mother, has inherited the petite grace and beauty of her paternal ancestors, and combined with this is the mystical fascination of the Orient pervading all her charm. She is the idol of the natives on the South Sea Island where her foster father makes his home. Their veneration and love for her is shown by the tribal name they have bestowed upon her—"White Almond Blossom"—a flower as beautiful as it rare.

To the island comes two young men. Dan McGuire lands on the beach after being thrown from a trading schooner as a worthless worker. He is content for he has a bottle of gin. A sandy beach for a bed, and the abundant tropic fruits for sustenance is satisfaction for all his desires. Walter Kincaid comes to the island in search of health as a guest of his uncle, the missionary there, Walter's health and the fact that he is the only son of a widowed mother, has kept him secluded from life. Religion is his one engrossing characteristic.

Both Men Love Her

Both men succumb to the charms of Mary. She finds herself strangely affected by each of them. Both betray their love. Dan by attempting to carry her off to a distant island, Walter by nearly coming to blows with his uncle over a criticism of Mary by the missionary.

Mary dances the beautiful, passionate South Sea Island hula-hula when both the young men are at her cottage, and with the dance alone.

Trader Also Desires Her

But The Blackbirder, a trader, who has landed on the lower end of the island on a pearling expedition, has also seen Mary, and she is the cause of the strongest lustful desire he has ever felt. To gain possession of her, he uses the refuge given a fugitive slave by the missionary, as a reason to attack and destroy the village at a time when all the men folks, with the exception of the missionary and Walter, are away on a fishing expedition. The Blackbirder has it all his own way until Walter finds the strength in his overworked heart to sound the war tomtom of the village and beat off his assailants until its reverberations have reached the keen ears of the fishing party, who return to a rescue. Ambition has filled Dan, and he is scornful of his own laziness. He feels the need of new fields for his activities, but a confession of her love for him from Mary decides him to prove his worthiness of her on the same soil that had been the place of his regeneration.

A MILD SUGGESTION

A letter sent by Representative Clarence McGregor to Secretary of State Hughes has appeared in the Buffalo News. The bright suggestion which he puts forward in his letter is that Great Britain, in payment of part of her debt to the United States should cede to that country Canadian territory adjacent to Buffalo, that is to say, "that portion of Canada lying south of a line extending west from the western end of Lake Ontario to the junction of Lake Huron and the River St. Clair."

What Rob Roy has his eye on is the entire Niagara frontier. "It would," he explains to Secretary Hughes, "give to the United States control of the waters of the Niagara River and permit the unhampered development of the electric power." It would also give the United States the "ownership of the Welland Canal and thus be an aid to commerce on the Great Lakes," and it would give a direct rail route from New York to Chicago.

One is led to wonder which quality is uppermost with Clarence—ignorance or effrontery.

YOU COULDN'T TELL HIM
(Vancouver Province.)

Dr. Creelman, agent-general for Ontario, visited Convent Garden a few days ago, and inquired for some Ontario apples. The salesman replied that he had none. Seeing some apples displayed which he thought he recognized, Dr. Creelman asked what kind they were. "They're Californians," came the answer. "Would you let me see the box they came in?" the agent-general persisted. The man showed the box, and there printed on it was "Cobourg, Ontario." The doctor recognized the apples as Cobourg apples because that happens to be his native burg.

"Oh they are Ontario apples, after all," he remarked.

"I tell you they are not," the man said. "They are Californian apples."

"But look at the box," Dr. Creelman said.

"It's no use your trying to teach me," said the salesman, his temper rising. "I have been selling apples in this market for twenty-five years and I know all about them. I don't care where these apples grew, but I know where we get them from, that is Cobourg, Ontario, California. We get quite a lot from there, too.

Nothing that Dr. Creelman could say would persuade him that Cobourg, Ontario, was not in California.

THE MAPLE SUGAR INDUSTRY IS NOW BUT A MEMORY OF OTHER DAYS

The making of maple sugar and syrup has become but a memory in the recollection of residents in many of the older parts of Canada where even the woodlots have given up their places to cultivated fields. The industry is still, however, an important one over large areas in Quebec and to a less extent in Ontario and the Provinces down by the sea.

Sugar making from the maple, which is confined entirely to this continent, had a very early beginning. Before the advent of the white man the Indian had learned to extract and concentrate the sap of the maple tree. On the approach of spring the trees were gashed, with the tomahawk, in a slanting direction and beneath the opening made was inserted a wooden chip or spout to direct the fluid drop by drop into the receptacle resting on the ground. The sap was caught in a birch bark dish and boiled in earthen kettles. The small quantity of dark, thick syrup thus made was the only sugar available to the Indians and is stated by early writers to have been highly prized. The early settlers from the Old Land learned from the Indians the art of sugar making, and indeed followed for many years their crude methods of manufacture. Even yet primitive equipment and methods are stated to be used in back sections of the country that turn out their annual crop of dark, inferior syrup and sugar.

For perhaps a century the white man followed very closely the primitive methods of the Indian save the substitution of iron or copper kettles for vessels of clay or bark. In the early days before the timber acquired much value, the axe continued to be used for tapping the trees, the sap was caught in wooden troughs and conveyed in buckets on the shoulders with a sap yoke to a central point to be boiled. No sugar bush was fully equipped without snowshoes, which were frequently found necessary in gathering the sap. The boiling was done in large iron kettles suspended from a pole in the open woods in a sheltered location, with no protection from the sun, rain, or snow or the ashes, falling leaves, moss, and bits of bark that were driven about by the wind. The maple products made by this crude method were strong in flavor, dark in color, and variable in quantity.

HORSES, COWS AND EDITORS FROM AN EDITOR'S VIEWPOINT
(Woodstock Sentinel-Review.)

The Editor of the Sentinel-Review has received a polite invitation to furnish some points for use in a debate on the absorbing topic, "Resolved that the horse is more valuable than the cow."

It is scarcely a fair question to submit to an editor. He may know a horse by sight, and he may be familiar with pictures of cows, but the average editor has neither the time nor the opportunity for a close acquaintance with either animal. The editor knows that the horse has the reputation of being a very useful animal, especially when he runs away and furnishes an item for the newspaper. The cow, too, has its practical uses from the point of view of the editor. Without the cow there would probably be no discussions in the papers about sediment tests and bacteria counts and the relative values of the different cuts of beef. For the rest the average editor takes both the cow and the horse for granted. He is not inclined to become involved in a controversy between them. Why should he take sides? When has either a cow or a horse stopped its paper in a huff, or written a saucy letter to the editor telling him he has no brains. No; the editor will willingly give points on how the country ought to be run, on which party ought to be in power, on how the League of Nations ought to be organized, and how the covenant ought to be revised and other little matters of that kind; but as to the relative value of cow and horse—that is a problem beyond the scope of an editor's genius.

Why "Auto-Shoes"?

We figure that any automobile casing has a right to be called a "tire"—whether it's good, bad or indifferent. And we agree with the opinion that an exceptionally good casing deserves a distinctive name.

Ames Holden "Auto-Shoes" are miles better in performance than ordinary tires. That has been proved to our satisfaction. So we think it's a good idea to identify such unusual mileage givers by an easy-to-remember name—"Auto-Shoes."

The main purpose of the name is to help you to get cheaper mileage. The guarantee behind Ames Holden "Auto-Shoes" insures that you get it. If necessity for adjustment should ever arise you will find that you will get satisfaction without trouble or red tape.

They are the principal advantages that go with the name Ames Holden "Auto-Shoes." Drop in and let us show you the tires themselves.

WHEN ONE MAN WITH A FORDSON TRACTOR can do the work of three the old-fashioned way—is it any wonder the power farming idea is spreading like wild fire.

NOWADAYS, the money-making farmer is the man who is selling the products of increased acreages without extra help, who is early to market to snap up the highest prices, who is making himself as independent as possible of weather losses by always-prompt work with a tractor.

WITH THE FORDSON he does these vital money-making things better, faster and cheaper than he could with any other farm power.

WITH TWO PLOWS the Fordson will do 8 to 10 acres a day and it will positively not pack the soil. It will handle the headlands like horses—turning short and quick—leaving a neat job. And it will do it on inexpensive kerosene, used only when the machine is earning money for you.

TWENTY-TWO HORSEPOWER ON THE BELT—the Fordson is ready to go at 10 or 12 miles an hour to any part of the farm and do every imaginable kind of belt work or hauling. We have counted a hundred uses—more of them than any other tractor can be put to.

A Marvel of Engineering Skill

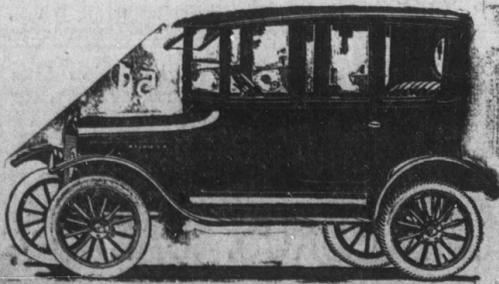

EVERYWHERE you go in this district you see Fords surmounting all sorts of road difficulties in every kind of weather. You see Fords that have stood the strains of daily use year after year and still are going strong as ever.

Some Fords have been on the road so long that little is left of the car but the chassis. But still the wonderful Ford engine is providing more than enough power for day in and day out service.

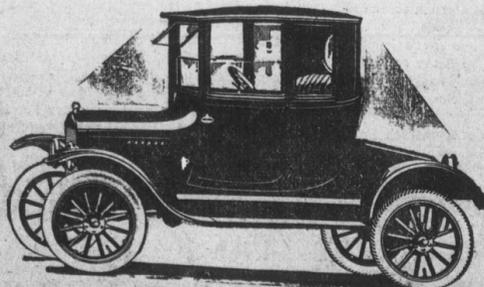

What a marvel of engineering skill that Ford engine is! It was right in the beginning. The most skilled engineers have not found a way to improve upon it.

Service is as important as your car. We render Ford service. You never have to wait for genuine Ford parts or for expert mechanics when your Ford needs attention. No matter where you go you get the same ready service as we give you here. Over 3,000 Ford dealers and service stations in Canada.

KERR—PRESSEY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pressey, of Arkona, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Wednesday, March 30, when their youngest daughter, Lydia, became the bride of Mr. Lloyd Samuel Kerr. Rev. C. L. L. Couzens performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives.

Promptly at one o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus played by her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. Pressey, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, took her place under an arch of evergreen. The bride wore a pretty dress of crepe-de-chene and carried a bouquet of cream roses and sweet peas. The couple were unattended.

After the ceremony and congratulations the party sat down to a sumptuous dinner, and later Mr. and Mrs. Kerr left, amid showers of confetti, for their home on the groom's farm in Sarnia Township, the bride travelling in a suit of seal brown broad cloth.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Kiever.

Vancouver, B.C.—"I am pleased to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me a lot of good. I can now walk about without the aid of a support and feel real strong again. A nurse advised me to take the Vegetable Compound and it is certainly helping me. It seems like Heaven to be relieved after months of pain."—Mrs. H. W. BAKER, 3874 10th Ave. West, Vancouver, B.C.

Albert Co., N.B.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and they have done me a lot of good. Since then I have been able to do my housework and I have a lot of work to do as we live on a farm. Seeing your advertisement in the papers was what made me think of writing to you. I hope this may help some one else."—Mrs. Wm. B. KEIVER, Upper New Horton, Albert Co., N.B.

The reason women write such letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. and tell their friends how they are helped is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women that they also may be relieved.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Sores Flee Before It.—There are many who have been afflicted with sores and have driven them away with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. All similarly troubled should lose no time in applying this splendid remedy, as there is nothing like it to be had. It is cheap, but its power is in no way expressed by its low price.

A SMILE OR TWO

She—Women are more reliable and conscientious than men.
He—How do you make that out?
She—At any rate, Diogenes didn't think it necessary to go hunting for an honest woman.

"So the young missis is to be married, eh?" said the gardener to the cook.

"Yis; and in illigant style, too. She's goin' to have dhress thray yarruds long, and four pallbearers ter kerry it."

After the barber had shaved him, the minister tendered the usual fifteen cents.

"Never mind," said Amos, "I'll come and hear you preach some time."

"But I have no 15-cent sermons," said the minister.

"Oh, well, I'll come three times," Amos added.

"Who is your family doctor?" "I can't tell you."

"Why not? Don't you know his name?"

"Yes, Dr. Johnson used to be our family doctor, but nowadays mother goes to an eye specialist; father to a stomach specialist; my sister goes to a throat specialist; my brother is in the care of a lung specialist; and I'm taking treatments from an osteopath."

An Irishman was engaged at stone breaking on the roadside, but not being used to the work did not make much progress. A friend, who chanced to pass by as Pat was vigorously belaboring a large stone, tried to show him the right way. Taking the hammer from him, he broke the stone with ease. "Sure now," said Pat, "and it be easy for ye to break the stone after I have been softening it for the last half-hour."

A group of soldiers were telling stories round the table of a Y. M. C. A. hut. The turn of the colonel came round. "I have at home," he said, "a pet rattlesnake. I saved its life once and it seems to realize it. One night I was awakened by my wife, who had heard a noise downstairs. I gripped my revolver and stole down. I heard a struggle going on in the dining room. Imagine my surprise when, in the dim light from the street, I saw my rattlesnake with his body tightly wound round a burglar and its tail sticking out of the window rattling for a policeman."

"American," said Food Controller Hoover the other day, "can send six extra million tons of food abroad next year, an' still have enough left for home consumption."

"But saving, even scrimping, will be necessary, I feel great sympathy for the young cook whose mistress said:

"Here, Ellen, is a basket of quinces. We'll make preserves of the best pieces, marmalade of the others, and jelly of the cores and peelings."

"Yes, ma'am," said Ellen anxiously. "But you forgot the basket, ma'am. What can we make out of that?"

The climate of India is vigorously, if not quite logically, defended in Bulls and Blunders by a certain Irish colonel.

"Bad climate be hanged!" roared the irate warrior. "There's no better climate in the world; but there are a lot of young fellows who come out to India, and they eat and drink and drink and eat, and they die; and then they write home and say that the climate has killed them. Of course, lots of people die in India. Tell me where they don't and I'll go and end my days there."

Chug-chug! Br-r br-r! Honk! Honk! Gilligillug-gilligillug.

The pedestrian paused at the intersection of two busy cross-streets.

He looked about. A motor car was rushing at him from one direction, a motorcycle from another, and a steam truck was coming from behind and a taxicab speedily approaching.

Zip-rip! Zing-glug!

He looked up, and saw directly above him an airship in rapid descent.

There was but one chance. He was standing upon a manhole cover. Quickly seizing it, he lifted the lid and jumped into the hole just in time to be run over by an underground train.

At a military church service some recruits were listening to the chaplain in church saying, "Let them slay the Germans as Joshua smote the Egyptians," when a recruit whispered to a companion.

"Say, Bill, the old bloke is a bit off; doesn't he know it was Kitchen-er who swiped the Egyptians?"

STORY OF MARY'S LAMB

Incidents Were Founded On Facts Many Years Ago

Mary had a little lamb,
Its fleece was white as snow,
And everywhere that Mary went
The lamb was sure to go.

Probably everyone of the present generation knows the above lines and the entire story of Mary's lamb, but do they recall the fact that the "Mary" of the verses was a real person, well known about Boston, and that the incident about her lamb actually occurred? says the Boston Globe.

The "Mary" of the poem was Miss Mary Sawyer, of Sterling, Miss., who afterward became Mrs. Mary Tyler, of Somerville. At 70 years of age she was a vigorous old lady, with her mind unimpaired. It was during her seventieth year that she one day during a visit to the Old South meeting house was prevailed upon to tell the story of the lamb. Her story was substantially as follows:—

One morning she went out to the barn and found there two little lambs which had been born during the night. One was so weak and puny that her father declared that it would be of no use to try to raise it. Mary's tender heart pitied the tiny creature and she begged her father to let her try to save it. He gave it into her care, promising that if it lived it should be her lamb.

Little Mary took the creature into the house, wrapped it up, laid it in a warm place and fed it carefully with warm milk. All day she watched over it, and by special permission she watched it through the night, too. In the morning her father said that the lamb would live.

It was then, no wonder that the pet lamb loved Mary and wanted to go everywhere with her. The day that it went to school and was turned out it happened that a young man was there who saw the whole thing and wrote out the story in the verses which we all know so well.

The lamb lived and thrived and had lambs of its own; it ran into the pasture with the cattle, till one day a cow with sharp horns, while playing, tossed it into the air, and it fell bleeding at the feet of Mary, who

The Needless Misery That Women Bear

WHEN the household cares and the worries of everyday life have dragged you down, made you unhappy, and there is nothing in life but headache, backache and worry, turn to the right prescription, one gotten up by Doctor Pierce over fifty years ago.

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all thru treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening pains, and for many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Sold by druggists in tablet and liquid form. Send Dr. Pierce 10c. for trial package.

chanced to be in the field. With deep grief she watched its little life go out.

From the lamb's fleece a quantity of yarn was spun and Mrs. Tyler brought some of it to Aunt Tabitha's "bee" and sold it at 25 cents for each piece. In this way she secured $60, which she gave to the Old South Church in Boston.

And that is the true story of Mary's Little Lamb, as given in an early issue of one of Boston's oldest newspapers.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. POTATO CERTIFICATION

(Experimental Farm Notes)

During the season of 1920, 7,613 acres of potatoes were inspected by inspectors of the Division of Botany, Experimental Farms Branch. Of this number 2,050 1/2 acres were, on account of the general freedom from disease and excellent condition of the growing crops, classified as Grade No. 1, and, subject to a further inspection of the tubers after harvest, these crops were considered to be worthy of certification for seed purposes. Again, of the total inspected, 1,105 acres were found to be so reasonably free from disease as to warrant their certification as Grade No. 2, subject to tuber inspection. The presence, however, of a considerable amount of rot in the tubers at harvest-time, owing chiefly to the general prevalence of Late Blight in 1920, appreciably reduced the amount of seed which would otherwise have attained the standard of certification. Notwithstanding this, it has been recently ascertained that in Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba there is a total of approximately 120,000 bags of seed of several varieties of potatoes, from fields which passed field inspection, available for sale as certified seed this spring, subject to final inspection at shipping points.

Further particulars with regard to the exact location of this seed and the available quantities and varieties in any given district may be obtained from the Markets Division, Seed Branch, Ottawa.

The system and methods adopted in the work of inspection and certification were given in detail in the press some months ago. Growers who are not already familiar with the system may obtain information by writing to the Division of Botany Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, for a circular on the subject.

The work will be continued this year along the same lines as in previous years, and all prospective growers of seed potatoes who may be interested and desirous of participating in the benefits of the inspection, which is carried out free of charge, are invited to make application to the Division of Botany as early in the season as possible.

A TREADMILL THREAD-MILL

More than a century ago a thrifty Scot, David Hutton by name, saw a pet mouse driving the wheel in its cage round and round. Of course, except for the fun the mouse got out of it, nothing resulted from its efforts. "And why should it?" most people would say. But not so did the canny David reason—something was being wasted, a half-ounce of power, and if you multiplied that by the number of mice in the United Kingdom the sum total of the energy that went to waste every day was truly appalling.

So Mr. Hutton decided to try to harness this wasted power and make it do something useful. But what? By experiments he found that a mouse would run about ten and a half miles a day; and a half-penny worth of oatmeal would feed the little animal for thirty-five days, during which he would 362 miles. He hit on the idea that, as the mouse turned the wheel, it should twist and reel sewing-cotton, and he set about constructing a tiny tread-mill. Sure enough, every day the mouse twisted and reeled from 100 to 120 threads each twenty-five inches long, all the time believing that he was simply keeping himself fit by taking a proper amount of exercise. He was not only earning his own living, however, but making nine pence for his master every six weeks, leaving a yearly profit of over six shillings for the ingenious Scotsman.

"My little three-year old girl suffered severely from scalp eczema," writes Mrs. A. Gaidike, of 485, Amburst St., Montreal. "It defied everything until we began to use Zam-Buk. This healer quickly reduced the inflammation and irritation and gave the child great ease. In less than a fortnight from first commencing with Zam-Buk, the disgusting disease was completely cleared away."

Cause of Asthma. No one can say with certainty exactly what causes the establishing of asthmatic conditions. Dust from the street, from flowers, from grain and various other irritants may set up a trouble impossible to be relieved except through a sure preparation such as Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Uncertainty may exist as to cause, but there can be no uncertainty regarding a remedy which has given relief to a generation of asthmatic victims of this scourge of the bronchial tubes. It is sold everywhere.

Where is it Going to End?

Prohibition is the entering wedge or fanatical meddling with the personal habits of others.

We Live by Precedent

Once established the precedent that any man, or men, can dictate to other men in regard to their personal affairs, and there will no longer be any such thing as freedom.

If organized minorities can, by agitation and propaganda, obtain the passage of laws enabling them to try the fanatical experiment of prohibition on the population of a country, it will not be long before we shall have no right to personal habits at all. The sanctity of our homes will be invaded by organizations and societies of would-be "uplifters" of all sorts, which can, by propaganda and solicitation, wheedle funds from the thoughtless or obtain them from wealthy fanatics.

The Thoughtless Voter is a Menace to His Community

Once establish the dangerous principal of prohibition and there will be forged thereafter, link by link, the fetters of prohibition of anything which some Party, Society or League of fanatics may disapprove.

Prohibition was carried in the United States by the well organized minority. Already, today, there is a movement on foot in many states, agitated by the same prohibition fanatics to PROHIBIT the use of tobacco. In fact the State Legislature of Kansas has already passed a bill prohibiting the use of tobacco in public places.

From newspaper publicity there is apparently grounds for the belief that these same forces are planning a movement to PROHIBIT the playing of golf, the use of motor cars and similar innocent recreations on the Lord's Day

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. A. McKay, of Wyoming, on Wednesday, March 18th, when his only daughter, Alma Florence, was married to James J. White, of Wyoming, Miss Rae White, of Sarnia, sister of the groom, announced the coming of the bridal party by playing Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus. The bride, escorted by her father, took her place under a bridal arch of evergreens banked with carnations, tulips and sweet peas. She looked sweet and girlish in her wedding gown of ivory satin and maline with maline veil, caught up with her mother's orange blossoms. Her beautiful shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, orchids and freesias was in splendid taste. The attendants were Miss Ida

McIntyre and Mr. Sam Robb, the former wearing a pretty gown of robin egg blue satin with large black hat and carrying a bouquet of American beauty roses. The Rev. J. P. McLeod, of Wyoming, read the marriage service. The groom's gift to the bride was an opal ring, to the pianist a wrist watch, and to the groomsmen gold cuff links. During the signing of

GOLDEN WEDDING

On Thursday, March 24th, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McRorie, Main Road, Watford, fittingly observed the 50th anniversary of their marriage by holding a re-union of their family and near relatives. The venerable couple were married in Beckwith township, Lanark Co., on March 24, 1871, by Rev. Donald McDiarmid, a brother of the bride, whose maiden name was Helen McDiarmid. Eight years later they came to Watford, being among the pioneer settlers on the Main road. During their 42 years residence here they have done their share in changing the forest wilds of 50 years ago into the prosperous country of today. At the happy celebration, held last week, there were present their eight daughters and one son, viz., Mrs. Peter Ferguson, Mrs. John Wilkinson, Mrs. Jos. Wynne, Mrs. Walter Mansfield, Mrs. Robt. Leach, Miss Allie McRorie and Wilbur McRorie, all of Watford; Mrs. R. W. Jewett, of Kincaird, Sask., and Mrs. Wm. Britton, of Clinton, together with 35 grandchildren and great-grandchildren. These with other guests, numbering in all about 70, sat down to a bountiful 5 o'clock wedding dinner, after which an enjoyable time was spent with music, singing, short speeches, &c. Rev. Roy Johnson, Methodist pastor at Watford, presided.

A substantial increase was shown in plate and quarterly offerings, and a great increase in duplex offerings. Outside objects for which church collections were taken, Vimy Memorial church $9; China Famine Fund to date $127.30.

Appointments were made as follows:—Wardens, T. W. Maylor and M. G. Cole; delegates to Synod, Tom Maylor and J. Thornicroft, substitutes Wm. Hill and R. E. THE LATE LAURA M. WILSON

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Laura M. Wilson, who passed peacefully away to the great beyond, on Sunday morning, March 20th, in her 33rd year. The immediate cause of her death was spinal meningitis, following scarlet fever. The deceased had been in poor health for some time but was only confined to her bed two weeks prior to her death. She was the eldest daughter of Mrs. Robert Wilson, and was born in Kerwood, on April 4th, 1888, and with her parents came to Enniskillen at the age of six years where her mother and family still reside. Her father, two brothers and a sister predeceased her. She leaves a sorrowing mother to mourn the loss of a loving daughter. Two brothers, John and Will, and two sisters, Retta at home, and Mrs. Gordon Randall, of the sixth line of Enniskillen, also survive. She was a young lady of retiring disposition and being blessed with an even temperament was loved by all. Her sudden demise has cast a gloom over the entire community and the grief stricken family have the heart felt sympathy of all their friends and neighbors and of a large circle of friends at a distance, who could not come to them in their hour of deepest sorrow. The funeral took place from her mother's residence, lot 23, Con. 11, Enniskillen, on Tuesday, March 22nd, the services at the house being conducted by the Rev. J. D. Richardson, pastor of the Methodist church, Petrolia, and by Rev. S. P. Irwin, of Watford, at the cemetery interment being made at St. James' cemetery, 6th line of Brooke.
