CONSERVATIVES WIN SWEEPING VICTORY IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Government Entrenched for Twenty-Five Years Overturned by Great Wave of Public Sentiment Opposition Make Clean Sweep in St. John.

RESULT A PERSONAL DEFEAT FOR PUGSLEY

PREMIER EXPLAINS.

In reply to a request from The World for a statement, Premier Robinson wired: "Moncton, N.B., Mar. 3. "The result of the New Brunswick election is explained by the fact that a succession of events contributed to influence the public. "The recent change of premiers, the unpopularity of the Road Act, the opposition of a section of the Liberals, headed by Morrissey, Hazen's promise of cheaper school books, and the desire of many to give the opposition a chance after 25 years, all affected the result. In this county we ran a pure election on both sides, and the government won in other counties. Probably the campaign was not left to be decided by prayers alone. (Signed) "C. W. Robinson.

ST. JOHN, N.B., March 3.—(Special.)—The Robinson government was snowed under to-day, the Liberal majority of 28 seats in the legislature being turned into a majority for the Conservatives of 19, with three independents who will undoubtedly support the new administration. "The result is a great blow to the minister of public works, who has been camping in the province for the last week, speaking several times. Hundreds of old-time Liberals voted with the opposition, claiming that they are still Liberals so far as federal issues are concerned, but that they are disgusted with the local government's policy in regard to the maintenance of highways and school books. The rapid increase in the provincial debt also worked against the government.

Notwithstanding Premier Robinson's declaration that he would repeat the Highway Act, so unpopular amongst farmers of the country, and would have school books supplied free to the lower grades, the result of the election was so strong that all efforts to overcome it and induce the "separatist" vote proved fruitless. The secret ballot had much to do with Mr. Hazen's victory, and from the first gave the government leaders considerable worry. "Altho Mr. Hazen stated last night that he would carry the province by a majority of twenty-five, it is doubtful if his more sanguine supporters expected any such landslide as occurred to-day.

Four Ministers Defeated. Premier Robinson and his ticket were elected in Westmoreland County, and Attorney-General McKeown succeeded in being returned in St. John County, but four members of the cabinet went down to defeat.

In Pugsley's Constituency. In King's County, Dr. Pugsley's old constituency, the government made every effort to win. It is said that thousands of dollars were spent there but with one exception their ticket was a weak one. "The successful candidates with constituencies are: St. John County—Maxwell Wilson, McInerney (Conservative ticket), by 600 majority; St. John County—McKeown, Lowell (Gov.), by 200 majority; Queen's County—Woods and Sillp (Cons.), by 75; York—McLeod, Young, Robinson (Cons.), by 90; Carleton—Smith, Fleming, Munro (Cons.), by 200; Charlotte—Clarke, Taylor, Grimmer, Hart (Cons.), by 200; Victoria—Tweeddale and Burgess, by 200; Madawaska—Cyr and Baker (Ind.), by 500; Restigouche—Labbilais and Currie (Lib.), by 250.

PRINCE OF WALES WILL COME TO CANADA

Premier Reads Letter in House of Commons Announcing Visit of England's Future King.

WILL BE IN CANADA FOR ONE WEEK ONLY

OTTAWA, March 3.—(Special.)—His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will come to Canada to attend the tercentenary celebration of the founding of Quebec. He has however stipulated that the event take place during the last week of July. "Sir Wilfrid Laurier made the announcement in the house to-night, in moving the second reading of the bill to appropriate $200,000 for the Quebec battlefields scheme.

Speaking in his resolution, the prime minister said the idea of preserving the battlefields of Quebec had impressed itself upon the minds of the people and has been received with universal approval. "In connection with the tercentenary of Quebec, he paid a tribute to the memory of Champlain and said the occasion seemed appropriate to recall the last stages of the long struggle which has been maintained between France and England on this continent, and to dedicate and consecrate the blood of so many noble men, who gave their lives for the respective causes in which they were engaged.

OTTAWA, March 3.—(Special.)—There is lots of talk going around Parliament Hill in regard to the reorganization of the railway commission, for that is practically what must take place in the reorganization of the government. "For the vacant chairmanship of the railway commission the name of Geo. Shepley, K. C., is prominently mentioned, inasmuch as he has done a lot of work for the commission, and is well-known as a very able man in the legal profession, and possessed would prefer the chairmanship to what the other municipalities, namely, London, Brantford, Stratford, St. Thomas, Water and Hespeler, Ingersoll has not yet voted on Niagara power direct.

EXTENSION OF RANGES... WANTED BY RIFLEMEN

Government Will Be Approached—Changes in D. R. A. Regulations Also to Be Sought.

At annual meeting yesterday in arrears of the Ontario Rifle Association it was decided to ask the Dominion Government to assist in securing an extension of the rifle ranges at Long Branch. Members declared that the present accommodation was quite inadequate.

On the motion of Sergt. J. Phillips and Sergt. Sprinks, a committee was appointed to co-operate with the executive in securing uniformity in the regulations of the Ontario Rifle Association and the Dominion Rifle Association.

It was reported that, in spite of the defection of the former secretary-treasurer, amounting to $670, the financial standing was good.

The available assets of the Association as shown in the balance sheet, exclusive of the royal review fund, and the stores on hand, amount to $132.07, as compared with $175.41, shown in the statement for 1906. There are, however, unpaid accounts amounting to $296.26, which were not shown in the statement of liabilities for 1906, which would have reduced the balance for that year to $76.15.

What glasses are to weak eyes, Cascarets are to weak bowels.

Old people constantly need them, and the need is a natural one. You old people—Cascarets are particularly for you. You who don't exercise as much as you used to. You who like the easy chair.

Don't regard Cascarets as physic. They stimulate the bowels just as some foods would do; just as exercise would do, if you took enough of it. They are not harsh, like salts and cathartics. The help which they give to weak bowels is just as natural and gentle as the spur of youth.

When eyes grow dim, you help them. Do the same with the bowels when age makes them less active. There is nothing more important. Costive bowels mean that decaying food is clogged there. And the ducts of the bowels suck its poison into the blood. You can't feel until this is corrected. But do it gently, not with a bowel irritant. And do it regularly—Cascarets a day. Coax the weak bowels—don't drive them.

DUPLICITY IS THE GREAT PUBLIC ENEMY THESE DAYS.

The public power proposition needs a lot of clearing up at the present time.

An exact statement of the situation would be appreciated all round.

Will Adam Beck supply that statement?

Or better still will Premier Whitney do it? He was not sufficiently specific on Monday night. The people look to him because they begin to see that there never was a public proposition so antagonized by "interests" as this one is.

They think, for some reason or other, that there are men in the Whitney government, like Messrs. Hendrie and Hanna, who are not friendly to the proposition. Mr. Hendrie is also on the hydro-electric commission. There are other ministers who are sitting on an even keel in regard to it. Does anyone know where Mr. Foy is?

The enemies of the scheme have their agents everywhere—even behind sealed doors and sacred oaths.

There are men on the Niagara Falls Park Commission like Senator Robert Jaffray who are not friendly to the power proposition.

There are men in the Conservative ranks in the legislature like Herb. Lennox of North York who antagonize the policy at every secret turn.

There are a lot of Conservative M. P.'s in Toronto who antagonize it.

The Liberal party in so far as it is organized and has a leader in the Ontario legislature has been chloroformed on the question. The organ of that opposition, The Globe, antagonizes the policy by duplicity of conduct. What has Mr. MacKay to say about the events of the last few days?

There seems to be duplicity at every turn of this question, and it is the double-faced man that is trying to circumvent the policy of Whitney and Beck. He seems to be everywhere.

Surely Mr. Whitney must see this duplicity. The World sees it, and the World is not a rumor-monger. But the World would like to see light ahead. So would the people and the municipalities.

PERHAPS THE WHOLE BATTLE FOR PUBLIC OWNERSHIP OF NIAGARA POWER WILL HAVE TO BE FOUGHT OVER AGAIN IN THE COMING ELECTIONS. THE WORLD IS READY FOR THAT FIGHT, AND SO ARE THE PEOPLE. ALL WE WANT IS A LITTLE NOTICE.

The Province of Ontario can beat any combination in the world against it, but it must have open fighting to do it. And the next thing we want to impress on Mr. Whitney is that the sooner he gets busy on the job of building public transmission lines and supplying the municipalities with power at cost the sooner will he be doing what the people expect of him.

The greatest public enemy to-day is duplicity. That is what we want to press on Mr. Whitney.

NEW BRUNSWICK ELECTIONS.

New Brunswick has followed the lead given by Ontario three years ago and after a lengthy period of Liberal rule, or rather misrule, has transferred the conduct of its affairs to the hands of the opposition. The parallel holds good in other ways, since the long tenure of office enjoyed by the dominant party there, as here, ended, as is common, in the continued retention of office by methods politically corrupt and seriously detrimental to the public welfare.

The collapse of the New Brunswick Government is another proof of the truth that, tho the punishment of political wrong-doing may be long delayed, it will come at last sharply and decisively.

Prolonged tenure of office in Canada has been productive of grave evils both in Federal and provincial politics. In order to maintain themselves in power governments have resorted, not only to directly improper electoral methods, but to that more insidious and equally demoralizing practice of using administrative patronage for the reward of support and the punishment of opposition. The fall of the Robinson cabinet is therefore of much more than local importance if it marks the revolt of the electorate themselves against the methods of the late and present manipulators of power for party purposes. And the lesson will not be lost if in future more frequent changes are made in the personnel of administrations, both federal and provincial. Restriction of office to a couple of terms at the most would greatly purify Canadian politics.

The New Brunswick elections will be accepted everywhere as an evidence of the waning fortunes of the Laurier government. It, too, will fall more from its own misdeeds and internal weakness than thru assault from without. Not this last reversal alone, but other significant occurrences in unexpected places indicate that electors of independent mind are recognizing more clearly the folly of placing their faith in political labels. No one can look at the record of the so-called Liberal Government of the Dominion without seeing that it is filled with the wreckage of all that the older and truer reform party of Canada held dear. Retribution lies at the door of those who to the cant add the recant of political principle.

BRITISH TRADE UNIONISM.

From the report on British trade unions for 1907 just issued by the chief registrar of Friendly Societies it is evident that this form of labor organization is steadily increasing in membership and strength. Returns were received from 645 unions with a membership of 1,719,031, an increase of 151,512 or 9.7 per cent. over that of the previous year. Their income for 1907 was roundly $13,500,000, an increase of $700,000, as against an expenditure of $11,400,000, or $1,100,000 less than that of 1906. The funds of these unions now reach the large total of $29,000,000, the leading societies being the Amalgamated Society of Engineers, whose funds are stated at $2,600,000; the Amalgamated Cotton Spinners with $2,400,000 and the Durham Miners with $1,850,000. Taking the returns for the decennial periods since 1888 makes the growth of British trade unionism even more remarkable—the membership having risen from 340,892 in that year to 1,106,507 in 1896, and to 1,719,031 in 1906, the corresponding income being $3,260,000, $8,940,000 and $13,500,000, and the funds $2,800,000, $11,200,000 and $29,000,000. The latest are record figures.

THE TUBERCULOSIS CONFERENCE.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Royal Alexandra Theatre, the general assembly will inaugurate the conference on tuberculosis convened on the initiative of the National Sanitarium Association. It should be unnecessary at this time of day and in northern latitudes to invite public attention to the ravages of the white plague. Indeed it touches the family and the individual very closely, and but for the fact that it has been so long associated with a resignation of hopelessness, the people would no doubt have proved more responsive in the past. But modern discovery and modern methods have brought with them words of cheer for the afflicted and for their friends. Those who have been in the shadow of death know that it can be lifted and it is the privilege as well as the duty of governments and of all who have the means to be philanthropic to bring relief to the sufferers who cannot without assistance renew their lease of life.

Ontario in many ways the most progressive of Canada's provinces has unfortunately lagged behind in this important matter of providing assistance for consumptive patients unable, or only partially able, to take advantage of the sanatoria which are found to be the most potent agencies in the cure of tuberculosis. These institutions are exceptionally costly because a generous diet is an essential part of the treatment, but the provincial government continues to class them with general hospitals, and only allows $1.40 per patient per week. In the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives the cost of maintenance for the year to Sept. 30, 1907, was $9.86, and the multiplication of sanatoria in the province is rendering it increasingly difficult to secure by voluntary subscription the amount required to cover absolutely necessary expenditure.

In these circumstances an additional grant from the provincial exchequer is urgently needed to make the government allowance at least $5, as Premier Whitney and his cabinet are known to be in entire sympathy with the movement a little judicious pressure on the part of the legislature will no doubt secure the desired result. Other provinces and several states of the neighboring republic have made liberal grants, both for buildings and current expenses, and Ontario should at least emulate their example. This conference has been called together with the full knowledge and approval of the provincial government, and ought to leave valuable practical benefits in the shape of new and progressive legislation. Altho its deliberations are confined to delegates all ladies and gentlemen interested in them will be cordially welcomed as visitors, and it may be hoped the invitation will meet with a favorable response.

Fire at Reston, Man.

RESTON, Man., March 3.—(Special.)—Fire destroyed the Massey Harris warehouse and contents this morning about 2 o'clock. Nothing was saved. Snow was falling and a volunteer bucket brigade saved Ireland's ivery and probably half the village. The loss is about six thousand, mostly insured.

Honest, But Mistaken.

S. J. Sutton & Co., real estate agents, brought suit against Mrs. J. J. Ford to recover commission and advertising expenses for the transfer of the lease at 82 West King street, to the Judge Moreton thought that Sutton had acted honestly and sincerely, but had assumed that a third party had authority to carry on the negotiations. He gave judgment for the defendants.

no persons holding shares in their own names or relatives or friends of such persons. . . . And while the newspapers have from time to time contained references to the suspension of the plaintiff bank, and to the causes thereof, and to the fact that this present action is pending against the defendants, no editorial or other expressions of opinion by newspapers relating to the civil responsibility of the defendants in this action has come to my attention, and I am convinced that there is no excited state of public feeling or prejudice or animus prevailing against the defendants to interfere with a fair and intelligent consideration of this action by a jury selected at a trial in this city.

"I am advised and verily believe that the liability of the defendants in this action chiefly depends upon the question whether the defendants used ordinary or reasonable care or the exercise of the judgment of reasonable men in the discharge of their duties as directors of the plaintiff bank, and that what is ordinary or reasonable care or the exercise of the judgment of reasonable men is a question of fact fit to be decided by a jury considering the surrounding circumstances and the customs and practices of business men in the control of banking institutions, companies, limited or otherwise, and large commercial transactions.

The Sin of Omission.

"I am advised by counsel for the plaintiff and verily believe that whether defendants did or did not perform their duty to the bank in managing its affairs is a question upon which it will not be necessary to make any detailed or prolonged examination of the books of the bank or the proceedings of the directors' meetings. . . . but will in the main depend upon the omissions of the directors to provide certain safeguards and do certain things; and with reference to the fact of such omissions, there will not and cannot be much, if any, dispute, but it will be a question fit to be tried by a jury, whether such omissions were in respect of matters for which directors are bound to exercise reasonable care or the exercise of the judgment of reasonable men ought to have provided, or whether they do certain things; and with reference to the fact of such omissions, there will not and cannot be much, if any, dispute, but it will be a question fit to be tried by a jury, whether such omissions were in respect of matters for which directors are bound to exercise reasonable care or the exercise of the judgment of reasonable men ought to have provided, or whether they do certain things; This is "Settling Day" And Wholesalers Take An Optimistic View

Of Merchants Who Have Already Been Heard From, Few Have Been Asking For Any Concession and Speak Hopefully.

To-day is settling day and a day of no little anxiety in commercial circles. It is to-day that the indebtedness of retail merchants to the wholesalers covered by commercial paper discounted at the banks comes due.

A canvass made by The World yesterday showed that the outlook was regarded optimistically by those most directly interested.

Spring Millinery Openings

How Dame Fashion Will Tempt the Fancies of the Gentler Sex This Season - Beautiful Displays of Latest "Creations."

The old Paris hat has hatched her brood and they are now seen fluttering in every great city of the world, and no more complete in variety anywhere than in the millinery establishments of the Queen City of Canada. Indeed, it is a question whether there is any city of twice its population on the continent where can be found such large and extensive millinery investments to meet the demands and cater to the tastes of the fair sex of Toronto. Everywhere are to be found large stocks, but as Paris is the great centre of fashion, a similarity of style is to be found in each and every one of these emporiums.

Are the styles of the present season more beautiful in form and color than those of the last, queen's hat? No, but one thing is certain, the brood of the old Paris hat is widely dissimilar from that of last season, and novelty is always attracting.

W. A. MURRAY & CO.

When visiting W. A. Murray & Co.'s establishment it was learned that the fashions of the present year are to be distinguished from those of last year chiefly by the stronger shades and colors of such great variety. It may, however, be said that blue predominates, mingled with rose and geranium shades. It is said that the large hats are much smaller and the small hats much larger than they were last year, and that is to say, that the very small and the very large hats are no longer in vogue. This firm gives very special attention to its millinery department and is particularly proud of its tailor-made and street hats as distinguished from what are known as dress hats. The mounts consist largely of flowers and fancy feathers. Opreys are largely used and the ostrich, but not to so great an extent. This firm shows in connection with its dress hats a very large assortment of feathers, and boas.

T. EATON COMPANY.

At Eaton's The World's Attention was called to the Merry Widow and the Merry Widow sailor hats. This Merry Widow has been heard of elsewhere, and the assumption is that she came from Paris. The Merry Widow sailors' hat is some twenty-two inches across, and the crown is trimmed to give a high effect. Here Copenhagen blue is found in the hat's color. This is the talking shade for both hats and suits, combined with greens and browns.

ROBERT SIMPSON CO.

In Simpson's the same indications of blue crowns are to be found, with Alice blues in color, mixed with gold, and browns and greens. The tendency is to afford flowing feather effects, with wings largely used as well as quills, but standing for the most part perpendicular instead of the flocks as last year. Corset is a shade of the old time which has come to the front again this season. Here is found a large display of turbans and small hats.

D. McCALL & CO.

At the rooms of the D. McCall Co., Limited, were found the same dominating features, the crowns being somewhat higher with large color effects in pink and Copenhagen blue. A very distinctive characteristic of the spring fashions in hats is the great variety in colors. Many of the hats turn up at the side, displacing last year's mushroom styles, of which this year there are few or none to be seen. They are built up largely with ribbon, but chiefly with confetti net. In a word to generalize, the tendency of trimming is largely in the direction of producing what may be expressed as a military effect.

S. F. MCKINNON & CO.

At S. F. McKinnon & Co.'s was again seen the difference between the styles of last season and this in the pasting of the mushroom form of hat, and the resurrection of a hat that more nearly approximates the Gainsborough. This hat turns up to meet a large high crown, and in trimming is set up with flowers, three-fourths feathers, large agettes, fancy ostrich goods with oprey largely used, as well as Mechlin and other fancy net. In making up, a prominent feature is the bandeau effect in plain black and colors, mixed with gold. Gold braids are used as well as plain and fancy ribbons.

MCKENDRY'S.

McKendry's say that the shapes are neither very large nor very small with Spanish turbans for a medium. We hear for the first time of the "Susie." It is a very becoming shape somewhat like the order of the Gainsborough, but it drops on one side and turns up on the other. Another is give the most sober looking hat a successful air.

FLOWERS.

Flowers were never seen in greater profusion than at present. Not only roses, which always occupy the first rank, they are seen in all conceivable shades and in sizes from one-half to two inches in diameter—but flowers that were heretofore never seen on hats are seen in the brilliant display of artificial flowers to be used this season. Beautiful magnolias in white, showing faint touches of green and pale pink are among these novelties; furthermore, pond lilies and iris in delicate tones of purple and golden yellow, yes, even in old-rose and almond green and with foliage in natural tones or those of the flower, are frequently used for millinery purposes, also tulips. These long stemmed flowers are always fastened to the hat in erect position, thereby adding much to the height of the crown. All flowers seen during the past season are in style again, particularly the masses of buttercups, and besides these masses of cherries, hawthorn and other berries and grasses in every conceivable shade.

ITALIANS CONDEMN CARRYING OF WEAPONS

Umberto Primo Society Recommend Appointment of Instructor and Detectives.

The members of the Umberto Primo Italian Benevolent Society have passed a resolution designed to place on record once more their strong denunciation of the actions of some of their countrymen in the free use of weapons of a dangerous and unlawful character in their quarrels, casting as they do a stigma on the Italian residents of this country. The people guilty of these crimes are not representative of the great mass of the Italian people living in Canada.

They suggest to the government that as these men are as a rule ignorant to a large extent of the English language and almost entirely of the laws of this country, it might be desirable to have appointed an officer conversant with the Italian language, whose duty would be to meet incoming immigrants from Italy and instruct them in the laws of the country upon such matters. Italian detectives also in large centres of population could do much to lessen the evil. The Italian residents as a rule are located in these larger centres of population and it would not be difficult for such officers to get in touch with most of them.

The society would further point out that Italy is now a law giving country, the police the power to search any man whom they suspect of carrying any unlawful weapon, and when such are found they are severely punished, and they believe it might assist in overcoming this unfortunate state of affairs if such a law were placed upon the witness books by the government.

A resolution was also passed to urge upon the government of Canada the desirability of negotiating a commercial treaty with the Italian government, similar to the French treaty, believing that such a treaty would not only tend to increase trade, but would also be beneficial in cementing further the traditional friendship existing between the British empire and the Italian people.

1908 RUSH TO CANADA.

Indications That It Will Exceed All Other Years.

MONTREAL, March 3.—The C.P.R. is expecting an enormous immigration traffic this season, and it is stated that passages are already being booked months ahead, and that the prospects are that the coming season will witness perhaps the largest immigration in the history of the country.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Altho' Dr. Otto Echnitz testified at the inquest today that his autopsy proved conclusively that Gerolamo Cella was murdered, the coroner's jury returned a verdict that he died by his death by his own hand. YOU CAN DO IT BY USING

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

The Most Perfect Throat and Lung Healer in the World.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup gives prompt relief from that choked up, stuffed up feeling which is so distressing, it loosens the phlegm, checks the rasping and useless cough, and soothes the irritated breathing organs. It is a pleasant preparation to take and is therefore specially adapted to the coughs and colds of children and those who dislike nauseous mixtures.

This is no vain boast, but a fact that can be backed by unimpeachable testimony. One 25 cent bottle, indeed, a trial dose, will prove its merit.

Mr. Frank K. Purdie, Brandon, Man., writes: "I have used your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for some years and have always found it a sure remedy for all colds, coughs, sore throats, hoarseness, etc. I cannot too highly recommend it to anyone suffering from any effect of cold."

FEATHERS.

Of feathers, we have to quote the ostrich first, whether it be in the shape of a pompon, tip or amazon. The long feathers are exceptionally beautiful, and as a novelty show a very flexible stem. Heron and paradise algeats, in all white shades, are equally desirable for trimming. The ostrich feathers, formed by a quantity of sprays mounted on wire. These come in all fashionable shades, and

POSTMASTERS' REQUEST.

Those Who Control Sub-Offices Want Better Remuneration.

The Postmasters' Association of Ontario have made a request on the government for more generous treatment for members who conduct the sub-offices. Sub-offices are those in the cities and larger towns that serve a constituency much larger than any of the country offices, but at the same time the remuneration for services rendered is not at all in proportion to the business done. Business transacted at the four sub-offices in Toronto ranges from $150,000 to $200,000 per year. The highest remuneration received by any employe of the post office is $17 per week. When you take into consideration the expenses in rent of taxes, light, heat and the necessary hired assistance it is claimed that the revenue does not adequately pay for the service rendered.

They ask that the grant be increased about $50 per year and graded in accordance with the revenue from the various offices. They also ask for an allowance of $100 per year to cover the cost of postage stamps. They also ask that the rate of postage stamps be increased to 3 per cent, and that they be furnished with necessary supplies for the use of the post year and graded in accordance with the revenue from the various offices. TO EXEMPT SHIPOWNERS FROM LOSS ON CARGOES

FROM LOSS ON CARGOES

New Provision for Bill of Lading Adopted by the Dominion Marine Association.

The ship owner should not be responsible for losses to cargoes caused by errors in navigation is the view taken by the Dominion Marine Association. This provision was incorporated in a uniform bill of lading to be used in the carrying of grain cargoes adopted by the association at a meeting in the King Edward Hotel yesterday, and follows the law in Australia and United States.

The new bill of lading is in the terms of a recent draft bill circulated amongst all parties. It includes for the present the clause assuming liability for shortages in cargoes and embodies the provisions of the Harter Act of United States.

The association declined to refuse to pay the cost of the inspection and rating in the Great Lakes register, the resolution passed yesterday declaring that the expense should be borne by shippers and underwriters.

It was also resolved to make a further effort to have existing discrimination against Ontario removed from the Pilotage Act, so that vessels sailing down the St. Lawrence from Ontario ports would enjoy the same exemptions as vessels from Quebec. Quebec vessels are exempt from the pilotage charges from Montreal to New York, while Ontario vessels have to pay these charges.

The greater part of the day was taken up in considering recommendations of new acts to navigation, which will be forwarded to the proper departments at Ottawa.

A. A. Wright of Toronto, the president of the association, presided, and Francis King of Kingston acted as secretary.

DAY IN THE LEGISLATURE TUBERCULOSIS DEBATE

Dr. Godfrey Commences Discussion Which Will Be Resumed on Friday.

Premier Whitney stated in the legislature yesterday afternoon that it seemed desirable to take up the motion of the member for West York (Dr. Godfrey) and that along with it would be considered the bill introduced by Mr. Downey respecting county boards of health and to prevent the spread of pulmonary tuberculosis. The debate would be adjourned till Friday and he hoped that members interested would be present at it.

Dr. Godfrey began by stating that about 3000 deaths a year occurred in Ontario from consumption, or 30,000 in the last ten years. Comparing the financial statistics of the state of Wisconsin, whose population was similar to that of Ontario, he argued that Ontario should make similar efforts to stay the plague. Other states had done much more than Ontario, and large sums were voted annually as well as in Ontario. Intelligent, well-trained physicians will find a lovely effect, which is delecting this season.

MAYOR OLIVER AND TWO CONTROLLERS AT TRAIN... Claude Macdonell Makes Plea for Protection Against Level Crossing Infriction.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Mayor Oliver, Controllers Harrison and Ward, and Corporation Counsel Fullerton appeared for the City of Toronto when the Niagara, St. Catharines Toronto Railway bill, came up in committee this morning.

Mr. Smith (Sault) moved for a return of correspondence relating to the case covered by a quarter of a century. There had been a dispute between the farmers in the neighborhood. The dam was built by the government to facilitate the floating of logs before any settlers had arrived. Later it had been decided to leave the dam a little longer until all the timber had been cut.

Mr. McColin's bill to amend the Municipal Act was referred to the municipal committee, and the same date he called Mr. Boyer's bill to amend the same act. Mr. Kohler's bill to amend the act respecting municipal works of refuge was also referred to this committee.

TORONTO BOILERMAKERS WANT CITY CONTRACT

Say It Isn't Fair to Spend $30,000 Needlessly on a Glasgow Firm.

A vigorous effort is being made to have the city council reject the city engineer's recommendation that a firm in Scotland be given the contract for supplying boilers in connection with the new 15,000-gallon pumping engines at the main pumping station and the 5,000,000-gallon engine at the high level pumping station.

The John Inglis Co., which successfully tendered, offered to install the engines and Babcock and Wilcox boilers at the main station for $147,340, or to supply the West End boilers, which are manufactured at the Poison Iron Works, for $145,630, and at the high level station for $27,700 and $25,500, respectively. Despite the lesser cost of the home product, and the work which would be afforded local men, Mr. Rust declined in favour of the Scottish boiler, and so recommended to the board of control.

J. J. Main, vice-president and general manager of the Poison Co., will appear before the controllers and will urge that the boiler manufactured by the firm has been proven by trial full of defects to the other, and will point out that at a time when so many workmen are out of employment, it would be a good policy to lend proper encouragement to the home industries.

In a letter, copies of which are being sent to every member of the council, the firm offers to guarantee their boilers for five years against repairs to the water tubes, if installed with chain traveling grates, as specified, such grates being included in the contract. It is stated that Mr. Rust had been proven by trial full of defects to the other, and will point out that at a time when so many workmen are out of employment, it would be a good policy to lend proper encouragement to the home industries.

PROHIBITION SCARES ANXIOUS POLITICIANS

Can't Go Around With Keg on One Shoulder and Bucket of Water on the Other.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Did you ever see anything get to the front so fast as prohibition has within the last year or so, and without the help of some of the statesmen on the hill who hardly know which way to turn? For a time they thought the agitation was going to be confined to the south, and the northern gentlemen who have profited more or less through the help of the breweries and distilleries in their districts looked on complacently.

It is different now. The trouble has broken out in many states of the north, and no one knows in whose district it may make its next appearance. If there is anything that scares the ordinary congressman it is for a question to arise that involves more or less morality. A congressman is always strong in public for morality.

To hear most of them speak you would think they were preachers. They cry out against intemperance and other evils in stentorian tones, but they have heretofore been in the habit of getting after the voters, no matter where they were to be found.

Now a man has to know just where he is at before he can get in his seat in the capital and show for prohibition or shout against it. He wants the church vote and he wants the saloon vote. It is mighty hard to carry a keg of beer on one shoulder and a bucket of water on the other.

Watching the Signs. There are signs that the question will become national, too. So far it has been limited to cities and states, but the effort to throw the preceding holds of prohibition over the district bids fair to land the whole problem into the national convention, and that would be very unwise. Wouldn't it be funny if both parties adopted a prohibition plank? Stranger things have happened. That, however, is going to be avoided if there is any way of doing so. There are some men of much influence in both houses who are putting forth every effort simply to choke off the matter without any publicity. Such a thing can be done. If they can just smother it in committee then they hope to smother it successfully in the conventions.

Congressmen are practically a unit for temperance and some of them are boldly for prohibition. Few congressmen drink and those who ever drink to excess can be numbered on the only partially digested. There was a time in Washington when you could pick out the stegmen by their convivial, not to say bibulous, character. It aroused no compulsion to see a line of representatives and senators before a bar. Both houses had their special bar in the capitol. Bottles and glasses were part of the equipment of committee rooms. Old time policemen will tell of helping many members to their homes, some of them famous in the history of our country. But it is bad form to drink now and far from being reputable to drink excess.

ALLOW CANDIDATES TO PAY HIRE OF RIGS

Members of Legislature Feel That the Law Should Be Changed.

When the legislature resumed its work in the evening it turned its attention to the act respecting the registration of candidates for election to the assembly and the greater number of the sections were passed through the committee without discussion. Col. Clarke (Centre Bruce) objected to the clause by which clergymen and school teachers are not disqualified from voting by removal from a constituency. It was making an undue exception, he said. A. G. MacKay thought that bank clerks should be included. Mr. Whitney pointed out that clergymen and school teachers were compelled to change their residences, while with others it was more a matter of choice.

Mr. MacKay objected to a ballot being numbered in cases of impersonation where the right voter claims his ballot. Under the act this extra ballot is to be numbered and the number of the envelope in a livery. Mr. Foy's reply was that he might have been carried away by the Dominion Act, and the clause was allowed to stand for consideration.

When the question of election expenses was under consideration, the hon. member for the district of the call talked on the payment of livery bills. The law prohibits such payments. Col. Hugh Clark remarked that every member paid such bills, and that some arrangement should be permitted for their payment. Mr. MacKay also thought that the candidate might be allowed to contract at a statutory rate for half of the conveyances in a livery. Mr. Foy was rather sympathetic. Mr. Hyslop thought the rural drivers should also be entitled to remuneration. The clause was allowed to stand for consideration.

Snuggles. From "Success Magazine." "It takes a certain amount of push to master even a wheelbarrow." "They are never alone who are accompanied with noble thoughts." "God educates men by assisting them on their own resources."—Newell Dwight Hillis.

"As soon as a man begins to love his work, then will he also begin to make progress."—William James.

What we would do, let us begin to-day. Every good we would have must be paid for in strokes of daily effort.—William James.

A name that stands for character, that is synonymous with integrity, is the best advertisement in the world. Great minds have purposes; others have wishes.

"They fall and they alone who have not striven." "That man lives twice who lives his first life well." Be like the sun which never sees the dark side of anything. "It's not the position but the disposition that makes men happy."

If You Sleep Poorly, Read This?

Nothing drains and strains the constitution so much as insomnia. It allows too little time for the body to recuperate. The cause nine times in ten is from the stomach. It may be gas, from fermentation—perhaps food only partially digested. When you awaken, get up and take twenty drops of Nerviline in sweetened water. This corrects the stomach trouble at once, quiets the heart if palpitating, gives you an immediate sense of comfort and relief. Nerviline has assisted many through back to health and as a sleep inducer can't be equalled. Get some Nerviline from your druggist to-day and your next sleepless night will be a short one. This advice has been followed so often with good results that it is almost certain to be successful in your case, too.

Richmond Hill Will Favor the Idea—General Items of Interest From Over the County.

TORONTO JUNCTION, March 3.—The surprising number of horse and cutter accidents that have taken place in town lately has occasioned the belief in some quarters that the Junction is a "hoodoo" spot for those who indulge to any extent in the driving "pastime." The corner of Keele and Dundas-streets was the scene of another of these mishaps, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Two men were running the street corner and the horse was only going at a fair speed. Suddenly the cutter tipped over and the men were sent sprawling over the road. Happily, no serious results ensued and matters were soon righted.

One of the men, a Mr. Klenn of 23 Victoria-street, attributed the accident to the runner getting caught in the "Y" of the street car tracks.

NORTH TORONTO. Mayor Fisher Urges Soon Need for Economy.

NORTH TORONTO, March 3.—The town council met to-night, all the members present. When the report of the board of works committee was considered, Councilman Parke wanted to know who Mr. Murphy was who had been appointed to the council last December. Councilman Murphy explained that F. A. Murphy is his son, and did not consider it to be wrong, as this class of work was gone on with in the council right along. Councilman Parke considered it wrong, all the same, and Mr. Murphy promised that he would discontinue the practice, and no more plow points will be supplied to the town by him, or his son, supposing the town would lose $15 in time.

When the board of works estimate was considered, Councilman Horne strongly favored the adding of $500 making it $1200, but he stood alone, and the estimates passed. Last night's estimate of the water, fire and light committee was adopted.

A petition was received from the property-owners on Balliol-street for the continuation of the water main, and the petitioners were present, stating that the land owners would not sign the petition, unless the council would make provision upon the initiative. The petition was referred to the water, fire and light committee.

The special committee appointed last night to take measurements re Metropolitan Railway, consisting of Metropolitan Railway and Mr. Murphy, Commissioner Walmsley and Chief Constable Collins, took some measurements to-day and reported to the council to-night, the report with showments, showing that the Metropolitan Railway has a grievance as to the company's show-clearing of the tracks.

The Council at last decided to join the Ontario Municipal Association, the membership fee being $5.

Mayor Fisher cautioned the finance committee to be economical this year, as well as school board, and that the water, fire and light committee. If these three organizations save the ratepayers two or three dollars, the rate will be reduced, and if the finance committee saves another half a mill, the tax will be $11.75 this year, as against 18¢ last year.
