VERY VIOLENT ARTILLERY BATTLES IN THE WEST

French War Office Reports Great Guns Roaring—Outlook For Germans in Russia Poor

Paris, Nov. 13.—The following official statement was issued tonight by the French war office:— "Artillery battles of unusual violence were reported during the day in Belgium, in the region of Bus in the Artois district, in the sector of the Poisse Canal, to the north of the Somme, near Dompierre between the Meuse and the Moselle, and in the redoubt of Apremont. There were no infantry actions. QUIET REPORTS BELGIUM Paris, Nov. 13.—The statement of the Belgian war office says: "Calm prevails along the front."

LOOKS BAD FOR GERMANS New York, Nov. 13.—A cable to the Herald from London says: A despatch from Petrograd to the Times says German prisoners captured by Russians on the northern front report a meeting between the Kaiser and Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, at which the former insisted the field marshal must take Riga and Drinsk at all costs. Field Marshal von Hindenburg despatched more reinforcements, offering to resign unless he was fully supplied. As every available man was being hurried to Siberia and the western front, the Kaiser was unable to accede and left Petrograd agree the German army on the eastern front constantly drawn upon to fill the gaps caused by the Franco-British attacks in the west, is in a perilous position and that the Russian offensive, which is growing daily, forebodes disaster to the Austro-Germans before the winter is ended.

ITALIANS FIGHT AHEAD Rome, Nov. 13.—Further progress at several points by the Italian troops is reported in an official statement issued yesterday.

EIGHTY MORE DEATHS THAN IN YEAR BEFORE

St. John Board of Health Total is 857

MUST BE DUE TO OLD AGE

Fewer From Pulmonary Tuberculosis and There is Reduction in Number of Deaths of Infants

The report of the Board of Health for the year ended October 31 shows 857 deaths in St. John during the year. This is an increase of eighty over the previous year.

It is a tribute to the health of the community and its residents that the greatest number of deaths from a single cause were due to senile debility. It is interesting to note also that the deaths from pulmonary tuberculosis this year totalled only sixty as compared with seventy-one last year. Another encouraging sign is the decrease in the number of deaths of infants, for which the greater precautions regarding milk supply, etc., may be given some of the credit. There is also a substantial decrease in the number of infectious diseases reported during the year.

The diseases responsible for the most deaths, with a comparison with last year's figures, are as follows: Senile debility . . . . . 174 1918 Various heart diseases . . . . . 77 77 Pneumonia . . . . . 69 78 Apoplexy, etc. . . . . 31 42 Infant diarrhoea . . . . . 32 44

Men of Fighting Age Must Now Have Passports or They Cannot Leave Britain London, Nov. 13.—The steamer Lapland, sailing for New York yesterday, carried no passengers of British nationality who would be eligible for military service. Several bookings were cancelled because of the new regulations which provide that men of military age shall not leave the country, unless they are provided with passports. A few Irishmen who sought to board the steamer were not allowed to embark. A large number of bookings on the St. Paul, which will sail today, have been cancelled, presumably because the persons who intended to sail were unable to obtain passports.

Joffre In Supreme Command Of Armies Of All The Allies?

New York, Nov. 13.—The Herald says: That General Joffre has been placed in supreme control of the fighting forces of the allied armies, is indicated by confidential sources said to have been received at the Imperial Russian consulate in this city yesterday. Strength was added to the assertion by General Joffre's trip to England, followed soon after by Lord Kitchener's hurried trip to the east. It is said General Joffre made a special trip to London to discuss the general situation with the British government. It is reported that a preliminary agreement has been reached between the French and British forces during the last advance, when British units in the van found themselves unsupported in the vicinity of Loos, and what might have been a great victory left short of its goal, because "someone had blundered." It has been reported frequently that there has been friction between Sir John Bull and the Grand Duke Nicholas there was some disagreement. In diplomatic circles it is expected the official announcement of General Joffre's appointment as commander-in-chief of the armies of Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy soon will be published.

Allen, has granted a summons returnable on the 19th inst. to show cause why judgment should not be entered against the defendant. Uneasy Over The Attitude of Greece; The War In Brief

London, Nov. 13.—Uneasiness is being shown by the Entente Powers over the attitude of Greece and this feeling is not likely to be allayed by the latest news that a German military mission has arrived at Athens by way of Bulgaria and Saloniki. Official circles in Paris profess to believe there is no possibility of Greece changing her present attitude for one distinctly favorable to the Central Powers, but rumors of some such step became so persistent that the Greek ministry to France called at the foreign office with assurances of Greece's continued adherence to her traditional friendship for France.

Warns Britain To 'Ware Constantine'

Dr. Dillon Fears Underhand Work by Greek King—Austrian Diplomats Arrive at Athens

New York, Nov. 13.—A London cable this morning in the New York Herald says: Dr. Dillon, in a special despatch from Rome to the Daily Telegraph, warns the British government to keep a close watch on King Constantine, as it is generally believed in Italian ministerial circles that Bulgaria and Greece have reached an agreement and that, taking advantage of the dissolution of the chamber, the king as head of the army may suddenly invade Albania and occupy Monastir. Dr. Dillon advises the government not to be the victim of treachery and false promises, as in the case of the negotiations with King Ferdinand of Bulgaria.

Ensemble at Work. Geneva, Nov. 13.—The Athens correspondent of the Tribune De Geneve reports the arrival of an Austro-Hungarian diplomatic mission at Athens to regulate the political and military situation between the Central Powers and Greece.

More Intrigue. Rome, Nov. 13.—Four German officers arrived at Saloniki from Sofia on October 26, and spent three days motoring in that district, especially where the allied troops were concentrated, says a Saloniki story printed by the Mattino. The correspondent asserts he has been assured that the Germans constituted a special mission to establish relations between the governments at Athens and Constantinople, and Sofia. He says that King Constantine was assured by the Germans that Rumania would remain neutral and that Bulgaria's pledge to Greece would be guaranteed by Germany.

French Report. Paris, Nov. 13.—The French War Office reports "Army of the east—From Nov. 6 to 10 there were many reconnoissances, without any serious engagements. During the day of November 10, the Bulgarians subjected the railroad station at Kriovak to a violent bombardment. Upon the left bank of the Greva, we have captured the village of Krusevac and Sirovko. In the region of Valandovo and Babovo, no event of importance occurred during the day of November 11."

Rome, Nov. 13.—The Albanian question is becoming more acute hourly, the belief being expressed in diplomatic quarters that a secret agreement exists between Bulgaria and Greece concerning Serbia, Macedonia and Albania. According to this reported agreement the southern part of Albania would go to Greece and the northern part to Bulgaria.

FRENCH WAR BILLS BREAKING INTO FIFTH BILLION

Paris, Nov. 13.—In a report on additional credits to be asked of the chamber of deputies for 1916, the budget committee estimates that the military expenses for the first seventeen months of the war, from August, 1914 to December 31, 1915 will be $4,397,712,200. The bill providing for a new French loan was passed by the chamber of deputies last night, after an explanation by Finance Minister Ribot. He said the object was to avoid increasing indefinitely the short-term debt. The rate of interest is fixed at five per cent, and the government renounces the right of payment until after January 1, 1920. M. Ribot declared the loan marked the determination of France to continue the war with arms and money. He concluded with an appeal to business houses, banks, the press, rich and poor alike for all the aid they can give. The bill was unanimously adopted.

A military guard of honor of 100 men under arms will form the immediate escort of the body, while the entire Quebec corps of police will accompany the Metagama's docks to the Levi ferry boat, which will be lined with troops under arms. This bodyguard will be made up from among the troops in training here for overseas service. Federal ministers are expected to attend. Corporal Joseph Dryden, a North End boy lately returned from France, where he was wounded in action, was a visitor to St. Peter's Boys' School yesterday, and gave the pupils a short talk on the war, relating some of the scenes and describing conditions on the battle-line. He spoke of many pleasant days he had spent in St. Peter's and told of having seen many of his chums of those years performing stirring and heroic deeds in France and Belgium. He said he was gratified to know that so many of the old boys of the school had gone to serve their country for the cause of freedom.

LAUDER SHOW GREAT FOR KIDDIES

The large advertisement in this issue, telling of Harry Lauder's big entertainment in Imperial Theatre on the 30th, will indicate how especially attractive the programme will be for children. It is, in reality, the only big indoor traveling show that has ever visited St. John offering so much that children will understand and enjoy—acrobats, comedians, humorous shadowgraphy, trained birds and humorous singing in comical getups. In fact, comedy will be the dominant note. Therefore, the matinee will doubtless be largely patronized.

MADE CANADA PAY $332,000 MORE

Montreal, Nov. 12.—Purchase by Canada in the early days of the war of two submarines from the Seattle Construction & Drydock Company for $1,150,000 was further investigated by the Davidson War Contracts Commission in Montreal today. H. A. G. Taylor, New York auditor of the Electric Boat Company, was a witness. The Electric Boat Company of the United States was originally commissioned by the Chilean government to build the boats, and sublet the contract to the Seattle concern, the latter, through its manager, J. Patterson, handing over the sub-contract when the Chilean government, it is alleged, fell behind in payments it contracted to make. The Chilean government contracted to pay $818,000 for the ships. Mr. Taylor swore that the Electric Boat Company's western agent, T. S. Bayley, notified its vice-president, E. B. Frost, that Canada was willing to buy the subs, and advised that $500,000 each could be charged. This figure was ultimately secured from the Seattle Company, whose manager, Mr. Patterson, had sold them to Canada for $1,150,000. The Electric Boat Company received in cash from the Seattle concern $978,717.26. The remainder of the money represented a debt of $181,282.74 owed by the Electric Boat Company to the Seattle concern and $40,000 commission retained by Mr. Patterson.

Examined by John Thompson, K.C., commission counsel, Mr. Taylor said that Patterson's commission amounted to about three and a half per cent. This was not excessive, the usual price being four per cent. He knew of no commission being paid to anybody in Canada in relation to the sale. The debt owed by the Electric Boat Company to the Seattle Company was due for labor and

LETTER FROM SERGEANT GRAHAM OF THE 26TH

The Terrible 13th of October—More About the Cruelty of Germans

Sergt. W. B. Graham of St. Stephen writing to his wife, said in regard to the fight the 26th Battalion took part in: "For my part, I was never in such a terrible position in my life, as I was last Wednesday afternoon, October 13. I had an order from Col. McAvity to take heavy machine guns and everything a human being could invent. I was never so relieved in my life as when we landed our load at the proper place, and I thank God that I am able to write these few lines to you. "I saw a great many brave acts done by our men in the 26th Battalion and I think New Brunswick should be proud of the battalion. No one can call us 'mud picture soldiers' any longer. For all the St. John people gave us a bad name last winter, (all had to suffer for it) we are thought very highly of over here, and are called the best fighting battalion in the 2nd C. E. F. "Those men in St. Stephen, who won't enlist, we would not let them scrape the mud off our uniforms when we come out of the trenches, and I am very sure we would not let them clean our rifles. "Chester McCracken's relatives should be proud of him. He is a bomb thrower, and was in the very thickest of the fight, and never got a scratch, also a Maxwell from North street, Canada, out of thirty-three bombers only thirteen answered roll call. Chester McCracken is one of the smallest men in the battalion. The first thing he did after the fight was to hunt me up, to see if I was all right. "There is nothing too hard to say about the German soldiers. Some people will ask the question, 'Have we seen any German soldiers?' Well, yes we have. Some were dressed in blue, some in black and others had civilian clothes on. We could see them when they ran from the first line trenches to the second. There are hundreds of them who will fight no more. "I would give most anything to step to my own home, but on the other hand I am willing to give my life to conquer the most cursed race of people. There are not words in the English language strong enough for me to express myself. Here is an example of their cruelty. Last week, when the English troops drove the Germans out of their trenches, they found French women in the trenches. The Germans made the women their cooking. When the Germans found that they were beaten, they cut these women's throats and left them in the trenches. (Dead people tell no tales). If that is what you call German culture, I think the Germans have got any. Cold steel is too good for the Germans. "Tell Tom Doyle that I will be very much pleased to get his tobacco. I will try to write him a letter, but as we are only allowed to write two letters a week it is hard to do any extra writing. "I am sending you Col. McAvity's order for you to keep for me, so that when come back I will have a memento of the first real excitement of my life. SERGT. W. B. GRAHAM, 26th Battalion.

THE WAR NEWS.

The last week has not brought about any material change in the general war situation, although the outlook from the standpoint of the Allies appears to have somewhat improved.

THE ANCONA MURDER.

Each day's news confirms the truth of the story that the destruction of the steamship Ancona was accompanied by wanton murder of women and children.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Willie—"Pa, why is an after-dinner speech called a toast?"

Pa—"Because it is usually so dry, my son."

Willie—"There are so very few really good men in the world."

Hubby—"Yes, you were mighty lucky to get Deputy Minister of Mines, in the annual report of the Bureau of Mines for 1915."

Mr. Gibson says that such a coin would be easily distinguishable from all other coins. It would be attractive in color, pure Cobalt being similar in appearance to pure nickel, but somewhat more silvery, tarnishing slowly, if at all.

Being very hard, it would be difficult to counterfeit.

GREAT EFFORT TO COME

Every Branch of French Munitions Service Has Been Extended

Paris, Nov. 13—Every branch of the munitions service has been extended to a formidable extent, said Minister of Munitions Thomas, in an interview granted a Paris newspaper.

On the Italian front the armies of Italy are still on the offensive, though progress through a very difficult country is extremely slow.

The important facts to have always in mind are the constant wearing down of the German and Austrian armies and the growing pinch of want among the people of those countries.

When the Allies are in a position to put enough men and munitions in the field the victory will be theirs.

How seriously the crisis is regarded in England may be gathered from the fact that men of military age are not permitted to leave the country without passports.

MAKING HISTORY.

Events and incidents of historic interest are so frequent in these days of strenuous endeavor that we are apt to lose something of their significance as they pass.

Canada has paid $322,000 more for two submarines than Chile had agreed to pay for them.

The Board of Trade has been advised that the foundations for the Valley Railway bridges across the St. John and Kennebecasis Rivers had not disappeared at last accounts.

CANADIAN COINS FROM COBALT METAL

Toronto, Nov. 13—To make five-cent coins of Cobalt metal intermediate in size between the ten and twenty-five cent pieces, is a suggestion made by T. W. Gibson, Deputy Minister of Mines, in the annual report of the Bureau of Mines for 1915.

MAJOR LEAGUE STARS ON SHOOTING TOUR

Philadelphia, Nov. 9—Christy Mathewson, the master of the famous fade-away curve; "Doc" Crandall, of the St. Louis Reds; "Chief" Bender, one-time Philadelphia Athletics, have started on their trap-shooting tour.

The quartet, three of them pitchers, compose the first baseball players' trap-shooting team that has ever attempted a zig-zag tour about the country in a clay bird battle with shooting clubs.

Davis Island, home of the Herron Hill Gun Club, will entertain the baseball trap-shooters' quartet Wednesday in a match with the Herron Hill gunners.

The world-famed ball players will buck some of the best trap-shooters in this section, and the chances are, although every one of the four famous ball players is a crack shot at the traps, they will find the going with the local gunners pretty rough.

The Herron Hill Gun Club has made every arrangement as complete as possible for the match and plans are now being laid for the care of one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a trap-shooting contest in this city.

Ex-baseball players will be included in the team that will face the diamond heroes here Wednesday, but the team will really not be picked until Wednesday on the grounds.

The tour of the ball players started yesterday at Richmond and winds up in Boston November 27, at the Paleface Gun Club. Eighteen cities will be visited on the trip, and the team composed of "Matty," Crandall, Bender and Davis will face the local trap-shooters in every city.

The manager of the commercial house was interviewing the applicants for the vacant position. A youth was required to solicit orders.

"Them!" he coughed pompously as the first youth was shown in. "Your name is Brown, is it?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, I have looked over your testimonials, and they are very good; your appearance, too, is smart. But there is one question I should like to ask you. I presume you have never got into trouble of any kind?"

"Once, sir," replied the youth. "I did a month in jail."

The manager started to his feet.

"I'm afraid," he began—"but wait," he added, "you have been straightforward in telling me. What was your offence?"

"I assailed a man who wouldn't give me an order, sir," was the laconic response.

"Tom," said the manager to the door boy, "tell those others outside I'm suited."

Marble Cake.
One cup butter, 3/4 cups sugar, 3 eggs, 1 cup milk, 3/4 cups flour in which has been sifted 2 teaspoonfuls baking powder, spice or flavoring to taste. Four into your greased and paper-lined pan to the depth of one inch. Put in a layer of dark fruit cake, sliced a little thin. Then pour in another inch of the cake batter and bake. Frost if liked.

Bread's Cake.
Two full cups sugar, half cup butter, a little salt, one cup cold water in which one teaspoon soda is dissolved, three cups flour into which two teaspoon cream tartar have been well sifted (1 sift four three or four times with cream tartar), whites of five eggs. Flavor with vanilla. Cream butter and sugar, add the water and soda dissolved, then the flour with cream tartar, lastly the beaten egg whites and flavoring. Beat two minutes, briskly. Bake in a quick oven. Frost with yellow icing made as follows—

Yolk of one egg, add one teaspoon water, stir in gradually enough confectionery sugar to make frosting that will not run. Flavor if desired. Spread on hot cake as heat of eggs serves to cook the egg slightly. This makes two loaves.

THE VICTIM OF THE LATEST SEA ASSASSINATION

S.S. Ancona, torpedoed and sunk with a loss of over 300 lives.

Morning War Reports Are Favorable To Allies

London, Nov. 12.—The continued landing of British and French troops at Saloniki is causing some uneasiness to Bulgaria and Turkey and the ministers of those two powers today again protested to the Greek government, which took formal notice of their protest.

The determination of the Entente Allies in their Balkan campaign is shown by the large force they are sending to the Balkans, and news was received from Rome today that Italy also had decided to intervene in this region. "It is a matter worthy of her greatness," and to give sufficient support to the British and French to assure a complete triumph. This is said to have had some influence on Greece and Rumania. Rumania, however, is waiting for the developments of the Russian plans.

Meanwhile the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians are advancing slowly in their efforts to cut off or annihilate the Serbian army. These efforts, however, are growing more difficult as the Serbians now have occupied, according to their official report, defensive positions to the south and east of Kraljevo and east of Ivangitza, and on the eastern front on the left bank of the southern Morava, where heavy fighting is in progress. Big battles also are proceeding in the south between the Bulgarians and the Anglo-French, but the reports are so conflicting that it cannot be said which side has gained an advantage.

Outside the Balkans the most important theatre of operations is now along the eastern front. In the north the Germans, apparently have abandoned any hope of reaching Riga and Drinsk, at least until the ground freezes, and are falling back, or are being driven back from the Dnieper, which was their objective. The Russians in the Riga region are attempting an outflanking movement, and their recent successes have brought them within striking distance of the Tukum-Mitau railway, which connects the German fighting front with the fortress of Windau. The Germans are also falling back before the south Russian offensive near Lake Swetloye, while in the north the Italian keep up their offensive on both the Trentino and Isonzo fronts, and are making another effort to take Gorizia, which has withstood them so long.

On the western front heavy artillery bombardments are again taking place in Artois, but with the present rain soaked condition of the ground this can hardly forestall another offensive.

Paris, Nov. 12.—The Serbian legation in Paris today made public the following official communication from the Serbian government, dated Nov. 10:

"The Serbian troops have occupied, in good order, defenses to the south and east of Kraljevo and east of Ivangitza, and also east of the left bank of the Morava river, and southwest, where there was desperate fighting throughout the day of the 10th. Engagements continue east of Grapale, upon the river near Leskovitsa, upon the Bistritza and at Katschank."

The Serbian official communication as above, the first received since last Monday, shows that the Serbians, on the 10th, had not been cut off between Kraljevo and Nitsa, as an Italian newspaper despatch said there were grounds for fear was the case.

RUSSIAN GAINS GENERAL ALONG ENTIRE LINE

Petrograd, via London, Nov. 12.—The following official communication was issued today:

"In the region of Shlok, our troops have advanced to the west of Bagatzi, fighting all the time. After eleven days of almost uninterrupted fighting in the marsh region our troops captured Kamern and Asting. The Germans, who suffered heavy losses, were thrown back to the west. We captured some prisoners and machine guns.

"Fierce fighting near the Borseneunde Farm, in the district of Bagatzi, continues. We repulsed in the course of the day, ten fierce German attacks, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy. Heaps of German bodies are lying in front of our trenches.

"In the fighting today on the Riga front young Lithuanian troops fought side by side with our troops, under extremely difficult conditions. They acquitted themselves splendidly.

"In the region of Dvinsk, near the villages of Pristane and Iluks, we made a little progress.

"Near the village of Kostoukhovka, west of Radolovka, fierce fighting continues. We took about 270 prisoners."

"On the Caucasus front, in the region of Tortum, there were encounters between advance guards. West and south of the shores of Lake Urumiah, near the villages of Kanavava, Bengher, Schabonova and Schachtep, our troops had encountered with hands of Kurds, who everywhere were driven off to the south."

No Water at Lemos.

London, Nov. 12.—When the first British naval forces landed at Lemos, near the entrance of the Dardanelles, they were surprised to find that the island, which has an area of nearly 300 square miles and a population of 30,000, was practically destitute of drinking water, except for uncertain supplies from a few small springs. The Allied troops were supplied with mineral water sent in shipments through the generosity of a French woman in Marseilles.

The British authorities promptly sent to Canada for engineers, who are now engaged in sinking artesian wells, which will guarantee the people of Lemos a reliable and abundant water supply.

Not Going to India.

London, Nov. 12.—The report published in the United States and in some papers in Canada that Lord Kitchener is going to India to suppress a threatened uprising is officially denied. It is stated that Lord Kitchener is not going to India.

The new British cabinet war committee will consist, it is now certain, of Premier Asquith, the First Lord of the Admiralty (the Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour), the Colonial Secretary (the Rt. Hon. A. Bonar Law), and the Chancellor of the exchequer (the Rt. Hon. R. McKenna), and the Minister of Munitions (Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George).

Bars and Shops OUT OF BOUNDS

Soldiers in Parts of Ontario May Drink Three Hours Daily in Hotels Only

Toronto, Nov. 12.—Col. Logie, divisional commander, announces that Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia, has authorized the new regulations by which all liquor stores are placed "out of bounds" to soldiers, at all times, and hotels at all hours except between five p. m. and eight p. m.

In accordance with this the following official order was issued at Exhibition Camp:—

"Regulations of hours for the sale of intoxicating liquors to soldiers, 2nd divisional area.

"It is notified that the information of all concerned that the board of license commissioners for Ontario have enacted that all liquor stores are placed 'out of bounds' to soldiers in uniform, from November 5, 1915, and that all hotels are 'out of bounds' to soldiers in uniform except between the hours of five p. m. and eight p. m."

The new order applies to Toronto, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Ottawa, Brantford, Orangeville, Owen Sound, Sudbury, Meaford, North Bay and all the other towns in this military district, which is several hundred square miles in extent.

Fifty grand prizes in the patriotic drawing.

Winston Churchill Going To Front

London, Nov. 12.—It is officially announced that Winston Spencer Churchill, chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, has resigned from the cabinet and will join the army in France.

Mr. Churchill, in his letter of resignation, explains that he agrees in the formation of a small war council, and appreciates the intention which Premier Asquith expressed to include him among its members. He foresaw the difficulties that the premier would have to face in its composition, he states, and he makes no complaint because the scheme was changed, but with that change his work in the government naturally closed.

He says he could not accept a position of general responsibility for a war policy without any effective share in its guidance and control, and did not feel able, in times like these, to remain in well-paid inactivity.

Rumors had been current for some time that Mr. Churchill would resign his seat in the cabinet and go out on active service at the front. He is a Major in the Oxford Yeomanry.

Mr. Churchill was serving as first lord of the admiralty when the war began and filled that office until the formation of the coalition cabinet last May. He took the position of chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster in the cabinet, Arthur J. Balfour being made first lord of the admiralty.

GIRL ADMITS THEFT FROM HOME OF NEIGHBOR, BUT MOTHER SECURES RELEASE

A girl fourteen years of age, who resides in Sheriff street, was before Police Magistrate Ritchie yesterday afternoon, charged with stealing $30 and three phonograph records from people who live downstairs in the same house.

After a few witnesses had been examined the girl admitted what she had done, but she was allowed out on suspended sentence with the understanding that her mother should make good the amount to her neighbor.

Hearing in the case against Messrs. Grey and Cotter, reported for doing an automobile business in the city without a license, was continued for a short while. Judgment will be given next week.

One prisoner in for drunkenness was allowed to go on a promise that he would keep sober in future.

The immense water power of Lough Erne and that of the Shannon, Ireland, is to be utilized to produce electric power to run factories for producing munitions of war. The project is to take the surplus water of the Erne and Shannon by way of a canal to be cut for the purpose, and with a great fall to work powerful dynamos so as to generate sufficient power to work two factories.

A Coasting Week-end Bill—Maurice Costello, Leah Baird and Others For Monday in Double Feature Policy
The week-end show at the Gem Theatre today is attractive and pleasing. It contains many features of particular interest, especially to those patrons who have been following the new serial, 'Neal of the Navy,' for today's chapter in two parts, 'A Story of the Past.' The other series, 'The Mystery of the Grand Hotel,' is continued with the presentation of 'Under Oath.' Both of these features were shown yesterday, and a breezy comedy and good music by the orchestra. On next Friday and Saturday two further instalments will be given in each serial.

RECENT DEATHS
Stockton Coates.
Havelock, Nov. 11.—The death occurred in a Regina hospital on Tuesday, November 11, of Stockton Coates, eldest son of Beverly W. Coates, of Havelock. He was one of the most popular of the young men of Havelock, and the news of his death came as a great blow to everyone. He went west in August and was soon to return, when he was taken ill with appendicitis and rushed to the hospital, where he was operated on. Death followed in a few hours. The body was brought home, reaching Havelock on Sunday, and the funeral, which was attended by almost the entire community, was held in the Methodist church here on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. Mr. Chapman, of Petticoat conducted the service. The late Mr. Coates would have been twenty-five years old if he had lived until Friday, the 8th of this month. He is survived by his father, mother, and a large family of brothers and sisters, for whom every sympathy is expressed.

CAST IRON SEWER TO REPLACE ONE ABOUT WHICH WAS COMPLAINT

Will Lead From Exhibition Building to Water—Other Work of Department
The presence of the soldiers in the exhibition building, in addition to the number of men employed in other work, has made it necessary to provide more adequate sanitary arrangements and the city is now laying a twelve inch cast iron sewer from the building, running under the I. C. R. tracks towards the shore. This replaces an old wooden sewer which had fallen in, and about which there has been complaint. At the end of the cast iron pipe a dozen wooden sewers will be carried to the water line. The water and sewerage department has almost completed the installation of the fifteen inch water main in Portland Place and is now completing the sewer in the same district. A new water service pipe is being installed in River street, near Spar Cove road, for a distance of 300 feet. The concrete main from Lake Latimer is being overhauled in preparation for winter weather. A recent inspection showed that it was in fair condition, but needed some little repairs. Where a leak shows, a cement sleeve is being placed around the pipe and this coated with bitulithic. All the hydrants and stop cocks about the city are receiving their fall tests and the catch basins are being cleaned out so that every thing may be ready for the winter.

AMATEURS TO PRESENT 'THE HOUSE NEXT DOOR'

Opera House Early in December—Benefit Red Cross—Tickets on Sale Next Week
The production of 'The House Next Door' in the Opera House early in December promises to be exceptionally interesting and attractive. It is now progressing well in rehearsal by the amateurs under the direction of Mrs. A. C. Wilson, who has already to her credit the honor of having directed several amateur successes. The play has a lengthy run in Broadway a couple of seasons ago, and has only lately been released for stock. Aside from motion pictures, this will be its first presentation in St. John, and playgoers will find it very attractive. Special attention is being given to the scenic features while care is being taken also in the selection of the specialties which will rank among the finest ever given at an amateur play in St. John. The proceeds are to go to the Red Cross Society for the benefit of their noble work among the Canadian troops at the front. Tickets will be placed on sale in various stores centrally located in a few days—get them early for they will be in brisk demand.

Tonight will be the last opportunity to purchase tickets at any of the stores having them for sale about the city, but the few remaining unsold will be offered on Monday evening at the patriotic meeting in the rink. A lively programme will be given at this meeting, a special attraction being the 52nd regimental band, which has already won an enviable reputation in its playing here. Lieut. Col. Hay, O. The Man In The Street

Is this the beginning of next summer or the tail-end of last summer? It's welcome, whatever it is.

Another instance of Canadian generosity—Canada gave the owners that $822,000 more for those submarines than the contract price to Chile.

And Canadian citizens gave $2,000,000 for machine guns and Premier Borden now begins to ask them what they meant by it.

If their action aroused the government to the need of providing an adequate supply of these guns on their own behalf the gifts were not in vain.

The condition of most of the roads in the city at present compares well with country centres, and being particularly plentiful in Main street.

Looks as if Greece will be ready to declare war about the time the other nations are declaring peace.

Perhaps she is saving herself for the post-season series.

When the United States government has secured Austria's promise that no more passenger ships will be sunk without warning the central powers still will be able to blame these little escapades on the Bulgarian navy, with Turkey in reserve.

But possibly Turkey has more regard for her own reputation than her allies have for theirs.

Service and Service

The car service during the days of concrete-covered rails was bad enough, but at its worst it was never so un satisfactory as it is at present.

When the passenger after tedious waits reaches Paradise row, he finds it hard because of the changed order of things, to know whether he is going or coming.

But it's no use to blame the conductor—it's not his fault.

And then again, the work at the crossing has to be done, though perhaps there could be considerable improvement in the service while it's being done.

Not Wallingford, Any Way

Correspondents of a local paper have been hinting at graft in connection with civic improvements and the commissioners are not sure which feature of the insinuations is the more offensive—the intimation that they are dishonest enough to try to graft or the suggestion that they are cheap enough to try the game on a $1,000 or $2,000 contract.

Is it pure patriotism or something else which causes a few citizens to try to discredit the city, its commissioners and its form of government? It's not just the kind of publicity a good press agent would insist on securing for the city.

Sunday Blue Laws

"St. John is a nice town any day but Sunday," remarked a member of the 22nd battalion this week in response to a query as to how he liked the place. "We were given a hearty reception when we came here last Sunday morning, and we knew we were going to like the city and the people. But dear, oh dear, why don't they take the street lamps in off the sidewalks on Sunday nights and put the climax to the blue laws! Wandering about the streets not knowing a soul, strangers in a strange city with our quarters not any too comfortable at the time at the armory, and the day stormy and dreary, some of our fellows were not even able to have a smoke, having run out of tobacco on the train. Into a drug store they went to refill their pouch or buy with the answer 'nothing doing.' A package of soda water, a package of candy—anything to cheer them a little on their first day in the city, for even soldiers like a few of the things enjoyed by civilians, though some people don't seem to think so, but everywhere we went the result was the same—we couldn't even buy a postage stamp to write a card home telling we had arrived. St. John is a nice city on Monday, but I guess we'll go to bed on Sundays."

HIS FATHER WAS A DRUMMER IN FAMOUS 104TH

Walter P. Munford Had Often Heard, at First Hand, Tales of the Historic March

The late William Munford, father of Walter Munford of 292 Brussels street, was a member of the famous 104th Battalion, whose march from Fredericton to Quebec in mid-winter went down in history as one of the great feats of British Regiments.

In conversation with a representative of the Times Mr. Munford said he often sat listening to his father narrate incidents of that famous march and recalls him telling how the regiment, more than 1,000 strong, set out on snow-shoes for Quebec a distance of 245 miles and later about the part they took in the war raging at that time.

When volunteers were called in St. John in December 1811, his father joined the 104th Battalion as a drummer and later went to Fredericton where they started for the scene of hostilities. He said he can remember his father telling how they were compelled to wrap their feet in cloth to protect them from the cold, after their moccasins had given out. After arriving at their destination they rested a few days and then proceeded to the fighting line to assist their comrades. During one of the battles a bullet struck him in the side of the face, but after recovering he again rejoined his regiment. The scar left from the bullet wound was quite large and his father in later years wore a beard to hide it.

On April 28, 1820 Mr. Munford was married to Barbara Heffer and they had nine children. On April 27, 1878, he died at the age of 58 years. William Munford was the youngest child and is the only one living.

REV. J. J. RYAN TO WOODSTOCK PARISH

Friends in St. John will be interested in an appointment which it is understood was made yesterday by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, though full confirmation is not received, the selection of Rev. J. J. Ryan of St. Mary's, N. B., as pastor of the Catholic church at Woodstock, succeeding Rev. F. J. McMurphy, appointed to St. John the Baptist Church here. The selection of this popular clergyman will find hearty favor among the people of Woodstock and among friends here who will be glad of the promotion, but his congregation in St. Mary's will regret his departure.

Rev. Father Ryan is an able priest, a capable speaker, and an energetic worker in the interests of the church. He was ordained in St. John by the late Bishop Sweeney some twenty years ago after having won honors in his studies at St. Joseph's and Laval. With the exception of a short stay at Silver Falls and Milltown, he has been located at St. Mary's since his ordination. There he went as a young priest to comparatively small fields, but he has built the parish into an important centre and has well fulfilled the duties of his pastorate. He has erected a handsome new church and presbytery now there, renovated the church at Stanley and Manguerville, built a new church, at Tay Creek, and done other works which have won him prominent recognition. He is a native of Ireland, but came to this country with his parents when a mere boy.

ANOTHER YARDMAN

From the list of I. C. R. employes from the local yard, published a few days ago in the Times as having joined the colors, one name was unintentionally omitted, George O'Brien, a member of the 20th battalion now in France.

RUSSIANS JOIN

At the recruiting offices in Mill street today four Russians signed for service with the 104th battalion.

SIXTH MEMBER OF STAFF IS AWAY TO THE WAR

J. B. Patchell of Waterbury & Rising Ltd. Receives Check and Wrist Watch

That the staff of Waterbury & Rising are imbued with the right spirit is evidenced by the fact that already six of them have enlisted in defense of their country—Capt. Percy M. Basing, Charles E. Labba, Ernest Coates, Percy Howard, Ray Brewster, and on Monday, Joseph B. Patchell, the popular manager of the Main street branch will leave for Sussex to don the khaki. This morning Joe was asked to return and R. J. Walsh, in behalf of the staff, presented to him a beautiful wrist watch suitably inscribed. Previously Edward L. Rising had given him a check for a generous amount. Mr. Rising spoke feelingly of the loss the firm was sustaining in so many of the employes going, but the necessity existed and was the duty of everyone of military age to go forth and fight the battles of our country. He was proud that so many of the firm's employes were possessed of that noble spirit and only regretted that he himself and the other members of the board of directors were debarred from doing their bit.

On Monday next Richard Ingletton of the office staff, who is well known from his connection with the Boy Scout movement, will leave for Halifax to qualify for a captaincy.

DRUMHEAD SERVICE

The 22nd Battalion will probably conduct a drumhead service tomorrow morning in the armory, with their chaplain, Rev. Capt. Ellison officiating. Up to noon no regimental orders had been given for any other church parade. The battalion had a muster roll this morning.

Why Buy Advertised Goods

—Because they represent certain fixed standard qualities.

—Because through efficiency of distribution they sell at lower prices.

—Because they will be the same tomorrow as they were today.

—Because they are invariably backed with a guarantee that protects the purchaser.

—Because they represent the definite as against the indefinite factor in advertising.

BRITISH COMMAND OF SEA, FROM BEGINNING OF WAR, DOOMS GERMANY TO DEFEAT

(By Archibald Hurd, Naval Expert of The London Telegraph.)

There is no better way of concealing the truth than to use trite phrases which have passed into our every day speech. They are so familiar that they make little impression on the mind; no one pauses to think what they mean. We can trace their atrophying process in religion, natural science and politics. Just now in all the Allied countries there is talk of "the command of the sea." Who stops to consider what the words mean? Who ever calculates what the cost in human life and treasure would have been had the Allies not had "command of the sea"? Who, again, ever examines the facts to ascertain exactly why the Allies possess this advantage?

What course, for instance, would the war have taken if the British fleet had stood by, had not intervened in the struggle? The naval situation at the moment when Germany determined to trample on Europe's freedom was not a little remarkable. By means of successive naval acts Germany had first overtaken Russia, then Italy, and finally France, and she could count on the support of the Austro-Hungarian navy, which under her guidance had greatly expanded until it rivaled that of Italy. The Germans had so completely outdistanced all the other Continental Powers of Europe in ships of war that on the outbreak of hostilities they with the co-operation of Austria-Hungary were absolutely assured of the command of the sea if the British fleet did not move. The two enemies had an enormous preponderance in effective ships of all classes over France and Russia, and those ships, every seaman admitted, would be handled with enterprise and skill. The relation of the four navies is not generally appreciated. The following statement showing the ships of the four countries on the outbreak of war reveals the preponderance possessed by the Central Powers:

Deadweight	Germany	Austria	France	Russia	Total
Battle ships	16	3	19	4	42
Battle cruisers	5	5	...	...	...
Pre-dreadnoughts	20	12	32	19	83
Armored cruisers	9	3	12	19	43
Cruisers	48	10	58	13	129
Destroyers	130	15	148	84	377
Torpedo boats	80	58	138	150	426
Submarines	30	6	36	53	125

Barred German Landing on French Coast.

Sea command is still exercised by armored ships and cruisers. In the first line of battle, the dreadnought class, the odds were twenty-four to four at the outbreak of war. In the second, thirty-two to twenty-seven, but of the Russian ships several were shut up in the Baltic. In armored cruisers the Central Powers had no mean advantage. Even if Italy had joined the Powers in the dual alliance, Germany and Austria-Hungary, with strategic advantages of no mean value, would have possessed a sufficient margin against their opponents.

There would have been no blockade of the North Sea. What of that? It may be said, "Well, it would have meant that the Germans could, with slight risk, have transported troops to any point on the French coast, taking the French army in the rear or flank. The advantage of the Germans would have lain in the ignorance—unavoidable—ignorance—of the French authorities of the spot chosen for disembarkation. The French fleet would have been tied in the Mediterranean by the menace of Austria-Hungary and the German navy would have had no difficulty, owing not to superior seamanship but to superior numbers, in seizing the command of the North Sea and English Channel. The sea in itself is no defence to a country like France, but menace in the absence of naval protection, for armies can be moved in these circumstances more easily by water than by land.

Would it have been a matter of no consequence if the Germans had had this sort of strategic surprise in their hands? There is good reason to believe that they had laid their plans for the invasion of France from the sea. It is reported that they had transports ready, as well as the troops to put in them, in the assumption that the British people, secure in their island, would conclude that the war was none of their business. But that is not all. The Germans would not only have obtained this overwhelming military advantage, but they would have been able to shut off all French overseas commerce. Think what that would have meant! No merchant ships throughout the duration of the war would have been able to enter or leave French ports without running the gauntlet of the enemy's patrols—cruisers, destroyers and submarines.

Not again is that all. France and Russia had no men-of-war of great fighting weight in the outer seas; the Germans were represented by some of their most powerful and swift cruisers. What would have been the fate of the mercantile marine of France? These merchant vessels represented in value many king's ransoms. About sixteen thousand sailing ships and two thousand steamships would have been in danger, together with their cargoes. What the fate of many of them would have been may be judged from the exploits of the Zenden, Konigsburg and other enemy cruisers before they were destroyed. Russia's merchant ships would have shared the same misfortune.

Strength of British Fleet Cause of German Hate.

For the period of the war—how long would it have lasted? Russia and France would have been to all intents and purposes, besieged. Neither country would have been able to use the sea for any purpose. That condition would have reacted on their military and economic power. They would have been in a position to bring in no food, raw materials nor munitions. The Germans, and not the countries of the Dual Alliance, would have had the run of the neutral markets of the world for munitions, men and money. On the American continent alone there were—and are—about 20,000,000 Germans and Austrians, who could have supplied not only men to reinforce the armies of the Central Powers in Europe, but men to make munitions and other men of great financial and industrial experience—some of them millionaires—to assist Germany in getting gold, raw materials for all purposes, and even luxuries. Life behind the lines of the German armies would have continued much as under peace conditions. The population of the German empire were eager for war because they believed that even if Italy joined Russia and France they could count on

Tobacco Heart

CURED BY Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Tobacco does not seem to affect all alike. Many men enjoy their smoke, live to a good old age, and apparently suffer no ill effects from the use of the weed.

There are others, though, on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results.

It causes palpitation, pain in the heart and irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, and the breath becomes short.

To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy that equals Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by tobacco.

Mr. Nelson Young, Brampton, Ont., writes: "I had had, up to about a month ago, a very weak heart, which I suppose came from smoking cigarettes. When I heard of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as a cure, I immediately began to take them, and in a few days I feel like a new man."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of cash to T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

STORY OF ESCAPE FROM GERMANY

Major Anderson Eluded Guard and Transformed Uniform Into Shabby Suit—Saxons Kindly to Canadians

(Correspondence Toronto Telegram.)

London, Oct. 26.—After six months of captivity and a journey full of hair-breadth escapes, Major Peter Anderson of the Third Battalion, a Toronto regiment, prior to the war a wealthy brick manufacturer of Edmonton, is back again under the Union Jack, breathing the air of freedom.

Surrounded by overwhelming masses of Germans after the battle of Ypres, the major, one of the few survivors of the companies in the neighborhood, had perforce to surrender. In due course, he, together with a number of Toronto men, was taken to a camp at Keigleshamelagen, Blieshoyfens, Saxony. And here he remained in captivity until a couple of weeks ago.

Just how he managed to escape, the Major will not say. In fact his lips are sealed as far as the press is concerned. He will vouchsafe no information whatever. Anyway he managed to elude the guard and to make his way through the barbed wire fences which surround the camp. Once out he discovered a place of hiding where he performed a lightning change operation in the way of apparel.

A Transformation.

It was obviously impossible to travel through Germany in the uniform of a Canadian officer. And that was the only garb he had—the sea-blue clothes which he had worn when captured on that memorable day of last April. With the aid of a sharp knife he effected a partial transformation, cutting all the buttons from his serge, removing the belt pockets and ripping away every trace of braid or decoration. It was a nondescript old suit which emerged from the ordeal, and sufficiently un-British not to attract the attention of any means he resorted to in winning the

Coughed Almost All Night WITH THAT DRY, TICKLING SENSATION IN HER THROAT.

How many people have lost a good night's sleep by that nasty tickling sensation in the throat?

The dry, hard cough keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had had no rest at all.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is as specific for just this kind of cough, as it is composed of the most soothing and healing expectorant herbs, roots and barks known to medical science.

Mrs. Joseph Hiley, Orangeville, Ont., writes: "Just a few lines to let you know what Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup did for me. I took a severe cold, and coughed almost all night with that dry, tickling sensation in my throat. The first bottle did me so much good I thought I would try the second one, and I am pleased to say 'Dr. Wood's' resulted in a complete cure."

There is nothing that can take the place of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. There is nothing "just as good."

"Dr. Wood's" has been on the market for the past twenty-five years. It is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price, 25c and 50c.

Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

the captured Toronto officers are among those at his old camp and he states that they are well fed, comfortably clothed and housed, and treated with consideration. The Saxons have shown themselves to be the most kindly-disposed of all the Germans.

It is understood that parcels sent by friends through the Red Cross here are being safely delivered.

Since his return to England, Major Anderson has been a visitor at the War Office, where it is said he was interrogated thoroughly concerning the condition of the prisoners' camps in Germany. He is one of the very few who have managed to escape.

The major, who has been in excellent health despite his long sojourn in Germany, is naturally delighted to be free once more and will probably get leave to go back to Canada for a month or more.

Since his arrival in England, four days ago, he had been staying in London, but last night went down to Shorncliffe Camp to see Major-General Steell and a few old comrades. He will probably report there for duty, prior to getting leave to go to Canada.

A levy of British newspapermen besieged the major's hotel in Russell Square when they learned of his arrival, but the soldier had nothing to say to them. There are official reasons for his reticence.

"That rich uncle of mine offered me my choice between a new house or a new motor car," said Tompkins, proudly.

"And which did you take?" asked his friend.

"The car of course."

"But I thought you were always hankering about a newer and bigger house?"

"SI I was, but I thought that if I had a motor car I wouldn't be in the house much anyway."

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

Relieve Constipation while Healing the Kidneys

Gin Pills have an almost world-wide reputation as a kidney medicine—their healing, cleansing, soothing effect has been testified to by thousands.

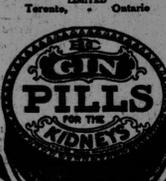

But their virtues do not end with the relief of kidney and bladder troubles. Gin Pills are excellent for the relief of constipation. We have hundreds of testimonials from people telling us they have found that in taking Gin Pills for kidney and bladder troubles, the Gin Pills also acted as a gentle cathartic and bowel stimulant.

This is only logical, as in building up a medicine to restore the kidneys to perfect health, the bowels must receive attention as the other organs of excretion.

If you are constipated, you will find the real relief you desire in the use of Gin Pills, which will also regularize your kidneys even though you have so far failed to notice alarming symptoms of trouble in these organs.

Your dealers sell Gin Pills at 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50.

Great Play At Opera House

A scene from "The Rosary," to be presented by Partello Stock Company at the Opera House, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the coming week.

In the good old days gone by where a gardener was kept it used to be the custom to keep a cask of lemonade from which the outdoor servants could help themselves. The gardener was noticed to go very frequently to the cask, and his mistress took occasion to speak to him on the subject. "John," she said, "I think you get thirsty very often."

"No, mum, I don't," replied John. "Well, John, I see you very frequently at the lemonade barrel."

"Yes, mum, that's what keeps me from getting thirsty."

MET ANOTHER STORM ON WAY FROM SYDNEY

After having been delayed three days and sixteen hours off North Sydney by northeasterly gales, the collier D. A. Gordon arrived yesterday afternoon with a cargo of coal for the Dominion Coal Company. The vessel encountered strong northeasterly gales during the voyage to St. John and her progress was considerably impeded by heavy head seas. Officers of the D. A. Gordon said yesterday that they had supposed that advice had been sent to St. John in regard to the fact that their vessel had anchored after leaving Sydney for this port.

They said that the collier left Sydney a week ago yesterday at 9 o'clock in the night, and that, on account of rough weather, it had been deemed advisable to anchor off North Sydney until the storm abated. After more than three days, the vessel was finally got under way and headed for St. John, at 1 p. m. Tuesday last. Northwest gales pre-

Forty-one Hours Of Bombing Without Rest Wins the V. C.

(Manchester Guardian, Oct. 14). Lieutenant Forshaw, V. C., who arrived at Barrow from Egypt on Tuesday evening, found his first day at home almost as trying as the extraordinary achievement which has brought him fame. All his friends were eager to shower congratulations upon him, and before the end of the day he contemplated a great heap of letters and telegrams with growing doubts about his ability to reply to all of them individually.

Lieutenant Forshaw and about twenty men were instructed to hold a barricade at the head of the saps. Facing them were three converging saps held by the Turks, who were making desperate efforts to break this hurriedly constructed line. The Turks attacked at frequent intervals along the three saps from Saturday afternoon until Monday morning, and they advanced into the open with the object of storming the parapet. They were met by a combination of bombing and rifle fire, but the bomb was the principal weapon used both by the Turks and the defenders. Lieutenant Forshaw led the bomb throwing with regard to his own safety, and frequently exposed himself to danger in order to direct the aim of his men.

and night, and at the end of the struggle Lieutenant Forshaw rejoined his battalion in a condition of almost complete exhaustion. He was afterwards told that the number of bombs thrown by his men and two other detachments in the trench during the week-end was no fewer than 600.

General Douglas was received by Lieutenant Forshaw's father, T. Forshaw, a day or two ago: "Dear Sir, I was unable to get your address until today, or I should have written sooner. I hope that I may be allowed to congratulate you on your son's distinction. The Victoria Cross is the coveted prize of every soldier, and it does not fall to the lot of many to win it. I gave me great pleasure in recommending him for it. He showed the most superb gallantry. The fumes of the bombs, after fighting with them for 41 hours, affected his throat, and this, as well as the strain on his nerves, necessitated his being sent to hospital. I hope we may soon see him back here again."

Prospective Public Honors. Lieutenant Forshaw is naturally gratified by the numerous letters of congratulation which he has received, but rather shrinks from the public honors which are being arranged in Barrow, Lancaster, Manchester, and Ashton. Yesterday morning he paid an unexpected visit to the Barrow secondary school, where he was formerly a pupil, and in the afternoon he was received by the mayor. The boys of his old school intend to present him with a gold watch, and the corporation of Barrow will probably ask him to receive a sword of honor. Towards the end of the month he hopes to attend receptions at the North Manchester Grammar school, where he was an assistant master, and also at the Grammar school, Manchester, which propose to confer the freedom of the borough upon him, and his old college club at Westminster has invited him to a dinner. Before these events, however, he hopes to visit both Manchester and Ashton in order to meet personal friends.
