RUGBY PROSPECTS ARE VERY BRIGHT

Trojans, High School and Intermediates Straining at the Leash.

Football should take a decided boost this year, if suitable grounds for play can be secured, for never in the last decade has there been such enthusiasm as displayed this fall. Yesterday, plans were laid for the formation of an intermediate league, with three teams entered—a most unusual occurrence and one that augurs well for the success of the game. Then, the Trojans have wonderful prospects this year in senior circles. Two years ago, Manager Walter Golding revived football around here, forming a team around "Red" Malcolm, "Les" Kerr and other Trojans stars, and though the local boys did not win a game that season they were by no means discouraged. Last year, the Trojans copped every game played at home, and this year believe they can do much better if given the Allison grounds for their games. They plan to go out hofoot for the Maritime title now held by the Halifax Wanderers, and it will be a pity if they are forced to drop the game through lack of grounds this year.

High School Prospects. Then, High School has great prospects this year. Of course, High School always has good prospects at the opening of the season, but somehow or other they seldom develop into cup winners. If Fredericton wins the cup this year, it will mean good-bye to competition for the U. N. B. trophy. There will be many local followers who will breathe a sigh of relief when Fredericton does win it, as there has been an annual powwow considerable trophy that has caused over this dissatisfaction down here. Nevertheless, St. John and Rothesay do not intend to let the capital boys take it without a struggle. Early season hope is that Rothesay will be woefully weak this year, having lost many of last year's mainstays. This puts the job right up to the local boys, who are ready and willing for the task.

But it is pretty disheartening to train and play on a soggy morass like the old Shamrock grounds and then be expected to tackle the well-trained and fighting outfit from up river in the quest for the titular honors. Something should be done by the authorities to give these boys a square deal on this point. Here we have a powerful senior team ready to dig in and work hard; we have good prospects in High School; better still, we have a considerable number of youth eager to start a local league. Yet, despite this, is St. John, the leading sport city in the Maritime Provinces, compelled to confess it does not intend to lift a finger to help matters along? This is putting it mildly, indeed. If these boys are forced to kick their heels in idleness a year through the apathy of the authorities, the momentum gained is going to slacken and the chance that presents itself this year may not come again in a hurry. The fans are looking to the authorities for some prompt action in this matter and will not be satisfied unless some working agreement is reached.

COMPLEXIONS BY TATTOO.

London, Sept. 17—In a little London shop is a man who in a couple of hours will transform the palest of faces into the peach and cream complexion of permanent beauty. He is a tattoo expert. His business cards reads: Complexions permanently tinted. Eyes shaded. Lips shaped and colored. Moles, tattoo marks, and other blemishes removed. Scars tinted. Noses whitened. A very fine needle attached to an electrical instrument is used, he says, worked under the skin. He says the new complexion, besides being life-lasting, defies detection.

TRIAL BY THE PRESS.

Trial by headlines, or, in other words, trial by the newspapers, is a subject that has been written and talked about a great deal quite recently in many parts of the old and new world. A world-circulated weekly paper had a notable article on "trial by headlines." It will take more than such a discussion, however, to prevent the American newspapers from trying a criminal before a jury has a chance to hear the evidence. In England a short time ago several newspapers who went over the deadline in their efforts to give the facts of a certain crime and give them to the public before the Department of Justice had an opportunity to pay a very large penalty quickly imposed by the judge. There is no law in the United States to prevent a newspaper from trying a case until the hearing in the court and until the Federal Government sees the necessity for it persons who are charged with crimes must endure all the publicity whether they are innocent or not. A few days ago Chief Justice Martin of the Province of Quebec, after the opening of the Civil Courts, took occasion to say that publicity before a trial should be restricted to official statements by the police and crown attorney. This would, he said, interfere in no way with the freedom of the press. "Publicity," added the judge, "should be delayed until the trial is over; that is, until the official instruments of justice may have a chance to operate. Public sympathy or hostility towards an accused prisoner might influence the jury in its determination of guilt. Such restriction," continued Chief Justice Martin, "if imposed, must, of course, be balanced by full publicity of the trial itself. That would ensure a judicial system adapted to the public and safe for the public good—limitations of publicity before the trial, accompanied by complete publicity at the trial itself." The chief justice had great praise for the administration of justice in England, and in conclusion praised the impartiality of his colleagues on the bench.

THE VALUE OF FOODS.

A British physician, in speaking of food vitamins, says that the most important part of the human engine, the vitamins may be compared to the spark which fires the explosive mixture in the cylinder of the engine. If they are absent the diet, however carefully chosen in other respects, cannot keep human beings in health. Many subjects of this importance than bodily health are dealt with on the editorial page of the world over and information with regard to what are and what are not vitamins foods cannot be diffused too widely. This British physician in a very interesting article in the London Mail gives lists of good foods for supplying each of the three vitamins. The housewife would do well to cut them out for future reference. "She should make sure that the daily menu comprises some food from each of the three lists—

A—Vitamin Foods—Good—Green vegetables, beef and mutton fat, margarine (made from animal fat), milk; Better—Egg yolk, butter, cream, liver, heart, kidney, sardines, sardines, salmon, mackerel; Best—Cod liver oil.

B—Vitamin Foods—Good—Green vegetables, potato, onion, celery, carrot, and lettuce; Better—Wholemeal flour of rye, wholemeal flour of wheat, wholemeal flour of barley, nuts, peas, beans and lentils (the dried seeds), egg yolk, liver, sweetbread, heart, kidney, brain, fish roe, yeast and yeast extract.

C—Vitamin Foods—Good—Green vegetables cooked 20 minutes with no soda, potatoes (boiled), Swede turnips (cooked), fruit (cooked) rhubarb (cooked), Much Better—Fresh uncooked fruits, particularly tomatoes, oranges, lemons, raspberries, and other juicy berries (except grapes); uncooked green salads of lettuce, watercress, mustard and cress; radish and horseradish. Note—White turnip, carrot, cauliflower, bananas, are poor in this vitamin.

Foods Containing Little or None of the Vitamins—Lard, olive oil, margarine (made from vegetable fats), tinned meat, meat extracts, salt meat (bacon, corned beef), cheese, white fish, bottled and tinned fruits and vegetables, chocolate, tea, coffee, custard powders and egg substitutes, white wheat flour, white rice, white cornflour, pearl barley, kiko, tapioca, sugar, syrup, jam.

A varied and palatable diet can be planned from foods containing little or none of the vitamins. There is nothing wrong with these foods in themselves. They contain no poison.

Cornd meal is one of the cheapest forms of body-building material (protein). Bacon, sugar, lard, white flour, and many of the other foods supply good fuel, but without the vitamins to galvanize them into life these foods are just so much dead material. There is no need to avoid their use, but some articles from each of the three lists of good vitamin foods should be included every day at least, every meal if possible.

One point needs emphasis. The chief natural source of B-vitamin is in seeds of plants, such as the wheat grain. If all our bread, cakes, pud-

AT KRIGSPIEL AGAIN.

(New York Post.)

For the first time since the year before the war Germany was the seat of a "krigspiel" or "war game." The action is, of course, much more limited than a real war, but apparently, every effort has been made to have the Reichwehr divisions carry out a program similar to that of the Kaiser used to delight in. There is a mimic fighting between red and blue armies. There is a miniature general staff directing operations. There is scheduled a parade symbolic, at least, of the magnificent military power that, in the good old days before Der Tag, the Kaiser was wont to hold at the conclusion of the autumn maneuvers. One great difference, however, is to be noted; not a line in the Berlin newspapers is devoted to the games, which were drawn forth columns and pages of panegyric. And it is only incidental that this military display is staged at the very time that the League of Nations Assembly is meeting at Geneva and considering particularly the question of Germany's admission to the Allied military inspection. Germany's armaments is on the eve of starting. The seeker of contrasts will find food for reflection.

A LITTLE GREEN LANE.

(Stan Terrell Read, in New York Times)

A little Green Lane goes through my mind.

A lane that my heart runs back to find.

A lane where the air is cool as dew, and the ferns are high and the rocks are few.

And every branch of the tallest tree would whisper a fairy tale to me, and every bird had a golden note in the song that came from his crumpled throat.

And life had a hundred gifts to give, and I had a hundred years to live.

A little Green Lane goes through my mind.

A lane that my heart goes back to find.

My heart—for never my feet will go to walk that lane that I used to know, for maybe my eyes would fail to see The Vision that Memory holds for me, and I'd miss the fairy tales I heard, and the song of the crimson-throated bird.

So I'll keep the dear unbroken spell Of the little Green Lane I love so well.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR AMATEUR SPORT.

Judge Jackson of Lethbridge, who has returned from France where he officiated as an officer of the Olympic games, makes an appeal for the support of amateur sport in Canada which will receive widespread commendation.

He says no reason why this country should not produce as fine a class of athletes as any in the world. We have the right type of young manhood, keenly interested in sports, and we have a climate that tends to promote bodily vigor.

Finland's achievements at the Paris games made that small country the most talked-of nation in the world in circles where clean athletics is admired. Why should not Canada do as well as Finland?

The value of clean sports for the youth of the day is not questioned. Indeed, there has never been a time when well-organized amateur sport is as needed as the present. The air full of discussion of the evil effects of the man "speedy" contributions of this age, the movies, the automobile, jazz, and so forth. The best antidote for the evils of these influences is healthy activity in good games.

In the province of Alberta amateur sport is on the best basis it has ever enjoyed. It has official recognition at Edmonton, and many others—giving much time and ability to the organizing of amateur sports. They have raised it to a higher plane than it has been in the past and they are interested in it because they know that it will be a good thing for the country as well as for the players if we can develop in Alberta that sound sporting instinct—the cricket instinct—that prevails in the British Isles.

Development of amateur sport has reached a point in the United States where it has official recognition in Washington. President Coolidge has declared that it is of national importance that these lines of sport in the nation have plenty of play in the open air and well-organized direction of their play. To confer national organization upon these lines of sport is called a national conference at Washington and this work was given federal financial assistance.

Our Canadian governments—Dominion and provincial—might well follow this American example. It takes a good deal of time to organize amateur sport, but the results that would eventually follow would prove the expenditure to be a sound national investment.

LIGHTS REVEIN.

C'est La Guerre

"What! Horse-radish thirteen cents?" exclaimed the customer. "It has always been ten."

"Sorry," replied the storekeeper, "but you see so many horses were killed during the war!"

THE HORSE.

The assertion that horse racing is connected with horse breeding in a beneficial way is one that is made by many men interested in the industry. The kind of horse bred from the racing type is useless for the most part of the common already. Formerly such an animal was useful in the country for fast driving, but today the motor car has rendered it serviceable. The former is not too light for farm routine, but for the carriage of small loads on rural roads. The only horse that has any real value or held its own in recent years is the big, heavy horse, a class suitable for farm work and draft purposes. It is the only type recommended for utility purposes by the Live Stock Branch at Ottawa. The offspring of the thoroughbred race horse is for the luxury market almost exclusively, but it is a luxury the farmer cannot afford. The late Hon. Sydney Fisher, Dominion Minister of Agriculture, a great stock breeder, spoke with authority in giving testimony to a special committee of the House of Commons.

"Although I am not what would be called a frequenter of race tracks, still I see the race horses of the country pretty frequently and in various ways, and my observations of the race horses, as trained and raised in Canada, lead me to the conclusion that the large majority of them do not fulfill this condition which I have stated, and that the improvement of stock in Canada; that the large majority of them are weedy in character and fitted only for speed, and that the use of such animals for the improvement of the breeding stock is not likely to be conducive to its improvement. There are thoroughbred horses in Canada which would improve that stock very much. Some of them may be race horses, but the use of them for the purpose of introducing into Canada breeding purposes is the stamp of horse to which the King's prize is given in England, a horse which very seldom goes on to the race track and is not considered by the racing men and the men who breed thoroughbreds for racing purposes."

Mr. Fisher properly distinguished between the useful and the luxury classes of horses. Whether betting is essential to the maintenance of the great race tracks or not, the champion of the system should drop the plea that their chief aim is the improvement of live stock.

NO TROUBLE NEXT TIME.

An irascible bridegroom of 73, marrying his third wife, went into the vestry to sign the register.

After several fruitless attempts to make a mark on the paper, he turned to the clerk and said:—"This is the second or third time you've played me this trick! Next time I shall bring my own pen."

A DIFFERENT MATTER!

Dorcas, aged nine, on her way home from school, was met by her mother, who asked disapprovingly, "Why were you walking with all those boys instead of those nice little girls just behind you?"

"I was not walking with those boys," Dorcas replied, after due deliberation. "They were walking with me!"

NEW THRILLS FOR MOTORCYCLISTS

Motorcycling always did have plenty of thrills. But with this new model, it ought to carry a lot more. The big rubber-tired wheel on the outside is propelled by revolutions of the wheel inside. This cycle was invented in Italy. Here a man and a girl are set for a race in Rome.

Y.W.C.A. LOOKS FOR BRIGHT SEASON

Directors Meet and Organize for Fall and Winter Activities.

The new season of Y. W. C. A. activities is opening this year with very bright prospects. At the meeting of the board of directors yesterday afternoon the new secretaries, Miss Dorothy Heathcote, who is taking charge of the physical work, and Miss Edna Hunt, who is in charge of the financial department, were warmly welcomed. Arrangements were made and greeting Mrs. Luxmoore, of England, a member of the World Council of the Y. W. C. A., former general secretary for India. Arrangements will be made in the city today and will speak at a meeting in the recreation centre this afternoon when she will receive a warm reception and be held in her honor. She will also give an address to the members of the Y. W. C. A. at the season's opening rally for those energetic young people on Thursday night.

The educational committee reported that they had been an encouraging enrollment for the kindergarten up to the present time and it was decided to open the kindergarten the first week in October with Miss Mabel Sandall in charge. The organization of the gymnasium classes was under consideration and it was decided to consider the advisability of having special classes to commence this week.

The report of the residence in King street east was very satisfactory, showing that the building had been filled throughout the month, many transients being accommodated. There were at the present time six girls in permanent residence.

Mrs. A. W. Estey told of the plans for the reopening of the industrial clubs and other girls' work.

Hearty thanks were extended to a local firm which is providing biscuits for the afternoon tea today.

TRAVELERS' AID.

No organization is more intimately informed of the rigors of the present immigration laws of the United States than is the Travelers' Aid. All of the immigration offices of the Travelers' Aid throughout Canada are finding their work tremendously increased because of the present immigration laws. The local branch was informed in a letter received from Miss Winnifred Hutchison, national secretary of the Travelers' Aid for Immigration and Travelers' Aid.

The St. John branch of the Travelers' Aid during the last month had no cases to assist when they were detained here or sent back to St. John by the United States authorities. The Travelers' Aid is assisting with seven children was aided and assisted in having photographs taken of each member of the family, an expense which is a considerable one which the travelers were quite unprepared. All of this immigration work is in addition to the usual work of the Travelers' Aid in assisting girls and women travelers who are in difficulty and befriending those who need protection.

In all 241 beds were occupied at the Transient Home of the Travelers' Aid during the last month, a new record, which involved a tremendous amount of work.

More Than 200 Cases.

Had there been no Travelers' Aid in the city it is difficult to imagine what would have become of all these 200 cases. The Travelers' Aid receives no city grant but has been given permission to hold tag day on Oct. 11, through a canvass of the city which was made with the generous support of the whole community solicited. Those who have been appointed to take charge of the tag day are as follows: General convener, Mrs. E. C. Weyman, president of the Y. W. C. A.; ward convener, Mrs. A. W. Estey; publicity, Mrs. Alfred Morley; tags, Mrs. James F. Robertson; banks, Mrs. Edna Hunt; refreshments, Mrs. W. C. Cross and Mrs. Gordon; finance, Mrs. W. W. Estey.

Report on Month.

The monthly report of the Travelers' Aid, submitted at yesterday's meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A., was in part as follows:

In the past month we have been very busy on account of the United States Immigration Law, and in several cases we have had to lend money

Mark Twain as Rescuer.

A Washingtonian who was a friend of the great humorist, says that Mark Twain once sat in the smoking-room of a steamer and listened for an hour to some remarkable stories.

"Boys," he drawled, "these feats of yours read an adventure of my own in Hannibal. There was a fire one night, and old man Hankinson got caught in the fourth story of the burning house. None of the ladders was long enough to reach him. The crowd stared at one another with awed eyes. Nobody could think of anything to do. Then all of a sudden, boys an idea occurred to me. 'Fetch a rope!' I yelled.

"Somebody fetched a rope, and with great presence of mind I flung the end of it up to the old man. 'He'll around your waist!' I yelled. Old man Hankinson did so, and I pulled him down."

TRADES WILFRID C. FOR DR. GANO

Silas E. Rice Gets Junior Free-for-All in Deal.

(Frederickton Gleaner.)

Dr. Gano, 206½, former performer on the mile tracks, which was brought to the Maine and New Brunswick Circuit last season and this year raced himself into the Junior Free for All in the stable of Dan Grove, of Milltown, Me., is now owned by S. E. Rice, owner-driver, of St. John, N. B., who formerly owned High Knob Beauty, 212¼, and has a number of others in his stable at present, including David Hal, 214½.

In the deal by which he secured Dr. Gano, Mr. Rice gave Wilfred C. 217½, which he obtained some time ago from Frank Adams, of Halifax, N. S., who brought him down east from Ontario. Recently Mr. Grove bought Calgary Earl, 202¼, former Grand Circuit star, and afterwards brought down east by a Houlton, Me. man for the down east free for all, and with two entries for the Junior free for all he got rid of one of them. On Thursday the pale will race here under different ownership in the Junior free for all.

HAVE ENJOYABLE TIME AT HAMPTON

Local Women's Institute
Members are Guests in Kings County.

The members of the St. John Women's Institute were guests of the members of the Hampton Women's Institute yesterday and spent a very delightful afternoon and evening at Hampton. The St. John delegation was met at the station at Hampton and taken for a two hour automobile drive through the surrounding district when they had the opportunity of viewing the beautiful scenery of the district. Following the drive a meeting was held in the drawing room at the home of Mrs. Flewelling, president of the Hampton Institute. A very interesting summary of the work of the Hampton Institute written by the secretary, Mrs. Hill, was read by Mrs. Forrestell, and Mrs. T. M. Vincent, president of the St. John Institute told of the work of the city organization. Mrs. Richard Hooper gave an address on the Queen's Dolls' house that was much enjoyed, and Miss Minnie Travis, returned missionary from China gave a talk on 'China and Japan, describing conditions in the two countries in a very graphic and interesting way. Miss Travis also showed her remarkable collection of very beautiful Oriental embroideries, which were much admired. Mrs. Segsworth, of Kingston, Ont., who is visiting Mrs. Richard Hooper, told of the wonderful collection of Chinese jade to be seen in Toronto. The collection, she said, was the finest on the continent.

A delicious supper was served at tables on the lawn which were very attractively arranged. Before train time the visitors were entertained around the open fire in the drawing room and music, instrumental and vocal, and social converse passed the time very pleasantly. The St. John members were motored to the station and returned to the city on the main train. They expressed their hearty appreciation of the hospitality of the Hampton members.

The bride was given away by her father and she was attended by her cousin, Miss Frances Gale. Archibald Gillies acted as best man. Ralph H. Gale and J. Kenneth McLaughlin were ushers. The bride was dressed in a beaded gown of powder blue georgette. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bridesmaid was attired in a peach canson crepe dress with black picture hat and she carried a bouquet of Columbia roses. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ganong left by train for Madawaska, where they will reside. The bride's traveling suit was navy blue pique with grey hat. Numerous gifts testified to the popularity of the young people.

Much sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. John Bent, 192 1/2 Union street, in the death of their second son, Gregory, which occurred yesterday at the General Public Hospital at the age of seven years. The lad had been ill for only a few days. He was a very bright boy and very popular amongst his companions and was entered in Grade I at Cliff street school. Besides his parents, three brothers and two sisters survive. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon from his parents' residence.

SANTA CLAUS HAS HARD JOB BREAKING IN HIS REINDEER. Anchorage, Alaska, Aug. 20.—(Associated Press, by Mail).—The average youngster who pictures Santa Claus as having a soft snip skipping his herd of reindeer from roof to roof, would revise his opinion if he saw a reindeer broken to harness, say those who have undertaken the job. Being a nound, the deer does not gradually domesticate. He must be taken when practically full grown. The battle to break him lasts for many weeks, with the animal alternating between trying to escape and fighting like a Tasmanian devil, declares Tom Pootook, an Eskimo herder.

First the reindeer is deprived of his very many beautiful and useful gifts, then to get the creature harnessed. Then the fun begins. At times the driver seeks refuge under the sled until the deer has cooled down and decided to cease hostilities for a while.

"Driving dogs all right," commented Pootook. "But reindeer—I rather walk. He worse horse, cow, pig, automobile, all together."

MOTORED TO HUB AND BACK. Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Patriquin and their son, Frank, Manawagonish Road, motored to Boston and after spending a delightful week there their friends have motored home. They enjoyed the trip very greatly and were delighted with the scenery on the way.

TO BE MARRIED IN LYNN. Miss Phyllis Gatonbe of Fredericton left on the Governor Dingley today for Boston, where in a few days she will be married to J. Earl McElroy, formerly of Russiaganosis, but now located in Lynn, Mass. Miss Gatonbe has been on the business staff of the Fredericton Gleaner. She received from the management a bar pin set with diamonds and pearls, and also a purse from the staff. She was accompanied away by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maxwell, Misses Hilda and Shirley Gatonbe, who will make their home in New York.

TO BE NURSE. A very delightful dance was held this week at Beauty Spot, Ormeston, the summer home of Mrs. Leonard Hubbard of Boston, in honor of her guest, Miss Coy of Boston and Miss McElroy of Ormeston, who will leave in the near future to study nursing. During the evening Miss McElroy was made recipient of a writing case. Her friends in St. John will wish her all success.

CLEAN BOULEVARDS. Paris, Sept. 17.—The boulevards of Paris have been cleaned of vendors of obnoxious post cards, pseudo guides, importunate beggars and panhandlers. Every evening for a week Chief of Police Naudin disguised himself and strolled along the main streets of Paris to spot the offenders and arrest them. The boulevards were rid of them for the benefit of tourists, he announced.

TARIFF ATTACKED BY CONSERVATIVES

Chatham, N. B., Sept. 16.—A largely attended meeting was held in the A. O. H. hall in St. Margarets this evening in the interests of the Conservative candidate in the coming federal election, C. P. Hickey, mayor of Chatham. The speakers, besides Mr. Hickey, were Alderman Walling of Chatham, A. J. Doucet, M. P. for Kent, and Roger Quinn, who was the chairman. Alderman Walling spoke on the tariff which, he said, caused immigration to the United States and unemployment in various centres in Canada. He declared the Royal Commission on the pulpwood embargo had accomplished nothing and he spoke of the adverse effects of freight rates upon the Maritime Provinces. He also criticized the Government's treatment of returned soldiers.

Helpful Advice to Overworked Women

DAY in and day out, week in and week out the tired, over-worked housewife and mother toils on, sweeping, dusting, cooking, cleaning and mending. Is it any wonder that after a time a weakness, such as Mrs. Chapman had, develops and the wife and mother pays a toll in physical weakness and pain for her efforts of love, the natural result of overwork?

Women who find themselves afflicted with weakness, pain, headaches, backache, nervousness, irritability and melancholia will be interested in Mrs. Chapman's letter, and should realize that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is especially adapted to overcome such conditions.

Don't Be Leg Lazy

"People depend too much on their autos. It would do them good if they had to get out and walk," the physical director told Mr. Mann. "Everywhere you go, you jump in your silver. And if the car's in the garage you take a street car."

There seems little doubt that the auto has made thousands of people "leg lazy." They become so used to dashing about in it that they seldom do any walking.

Rheumatism

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given By One Who Had It. In the year of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who are thus afflicted know, for over three years. I tried remedies after remedies, but such relief as I obtained was only temporary. Finally, I found a treatment that cured me completely, and such a pitiful condition has never returned. I have given it to a number of my friends who were terribly afflicted, and the results were the same as in my own case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatism (swelling at the joints) to know the value of my "Home Treatment" for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-sought-for means of getting rid of such forms of rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, if you understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. I sent that first why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today, Mark H. Jackson, No. 115K, Durston Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Jackson is responsible. Above statement true.

Geneva, Sept. 16—Representatives of 12 Governments gave preliminary approval today to the general articles concerning the draft protocol, which Dr. Edouard Benes, of Czechoslovakia submitted as a pact which advances the cause of arbitration, produces a sense of security among nations and prepares the way for disarmament.

NATIONS APPROVE SANCTION DRAFT

Among the articles dealing with sanctions, which were thoroughly discussed today, was article 7, of the protocol for general contributions from all states in order that the country which the arbitral tribunal have declared an aggressor may be outlawed. This article obliges the signatories to assist the attacked state and insure the safety of land and sea communication. The French consider that this clause enables the operation of the British fleet in time of League of Nations need to preserve peace, and say they are entirely satisfied with the British private assurance that the protocol requirements will be loyally carried out. He even said in French quarters that Great Britain will go to the extent of contributing aerial and expeditionary forces should the situation be so menacing that such assistance seemed desired.

TELLS HOW TO SAVE HAIR.

Give It Attention Before 40, Specialist Advises Business Men.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 17—The high tension of American business life is cutting a wide swath in its hair crop, Paul Rilling, Chicago specialist, told a group meeting of the National Hairdressers' Association here today. He called the typical business man the biggest enemy of American hair.

"All his nervous energy," said Mr. Rilling, "is concentrated on his affairs. He forgets to give his hair much attention until most of it is gone. And then comes the pathetic efforts to restore it to normalcy by intensive gardening methods. Each remaining lock is codded and fiddled in the effort to coax reinforcements from the long neglected scalp. And when this fails comes the fancy 'landscaping' that spreads the surviving wisps to the best advantage."

"If the average man would give his hair half the attention he showers on it after 40, during the 15 years previous, America would have the bumper crop of scalp foliage."

Speedy and effective police work was demonstrated last night by the local detective department. A long distance telephone call was received from Chief of Police Hill, of St. Stephen, at 9:45 o'clock to the effect that a young fellow named William Holland was wanted for stealing a sum of money from the home of his employer in the border town.

The description of the youth was none too good, but the matter was handed over to Detective Biddiscombe, who with Detective Saunders and Constable Quinn, jumped into the Detective's automobile and made a quick run to the Union depot. Just as they arrived the express train from McAdam Junction was just pulling into the station and officers were just in time. One of the first passengers to leave the train was Holland and he was taken into custody. It was only five minutes from the time the message was received from the St. Stephen police chief until the person he wanted was captured, and only ten minutes from the time the call was received until Holland was locked up in a cell at headquarters.

ONE-MAN FORT.

New London, Conn., Sept. 17—Sergeant Joseph Eros is in charge of the only one-man fort in the United States. He and his lone private, Harry Dell, constitute the whole garrison.

MORE BELGIAN AUTOS.

Washington, Sept. 17—The use of motor vehicles in Belgium is increasing monthly. Automobiles were a luxury before the war and were confined exclusively to the wealthy. There were fewer than a dozen privately owned cars in Antwerp in 1919, but by the end of 1923 there were at least 50,000 passenger cars and 20,000 trucks.

THE PLAYGROUNDS

Exception has been taken to a report in regard to a statement made at the St. John Playgrounds Association meeting, held last Friday, that the operation of the Alexandra and Allison playgrounds had not been a success this year. The meeting, for lack of time, left discussion of the matter for a future date. Miss Emma I. Heffer, general superintendent of the playgrounds said yesterday that she had said that the percentage of returns brought by the Allison and Alexandra playgrounds had been small in comparison with the money, time, energy and thought expended. She had been reflecting upon no one, but simply stated a fact, so that it might be brought before the notice of the members of the association for their consideration for another season. The reason for lessening of interest in certain playgrounds often was found in the fluctuating population, or the exodus of the children for the season to the country. The operation of the grounds was under the jurisdiction of the association and it was necessary that and the public should know when the results were not satisfactory.

INTERNATIONAL POSTAL UNION CELEBRATES ITS HALF CENTURY

For Fifty Years Organization Nearly "Universal" Has Carried On.

By HENRY WOOD

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berne, Sept. 17.—(United Press)—The International Postal Union, the venerable ancestor of the League of Nations, celebrated today its 50th anniversary.

It was on September 15, 1874, that the international convention for the universal postal union was signed at Bern, and the central offices of the organization have ever since been maintained here.

It was largely amongst the employees of an organization and the diplomatic corps that the 50th anniversary of the union was today celebrated.

As it exists today the International Postal Union is the most nearly "universal" organization in the world, as it embraces every original country except Afghanistan. Even the 5,000,000 inhabitants of this country, however, are not deprived of correspondence with the rest of the world, as all of the surrounding countries, which are members of the union receive and transmit mail from Afghanistan the same as though she were a member of the union.

Long Urged.
While the idea of an international postal union that would render possible the exchange of correspondence on the same terms between all of the countries in the world was first launched by Joseph Michaelson, a Dane, in 1854, and later urged by Postmaster General Blaine of the United States during a postal conference at Paris, in 1863, it was only in 1874 that the project was finally elaborated into an international convention.

Since then the union has held seven international conferences as follows: Paris, 1878; Lisbon, 1885; Vienna, 1891; Washington, 1897; Rome, 1906; Madrid, 1920; and Stockholm, 1924.

The necessity of having two conferences in as short a time as between that of Madrid in 1920 and that of Stockholm this year arose from the conditions resulting from the war, and especially for adapting both the domestic and international postal rates in conformity with the depreciated currency of various members of the union.

Under the regulations of the Postal Union the various members group themselves in categories and the expenses of the union are paid on this basis. As a consequence when the covenant of the League of Nations was hurriedly drawn up at Paris in 1919 and the question of dividing the expenses of the League amongst its members arose, the best solution seemed to be to adopt the basis as fixed by the International Postal Union.

Unfortunately it developed later that a lot of small countries, merely for the prestige it gave them, had registered themselves as first class nations in the Postal Union, where the expenses are very small, and that when it came to paying their quota to the League on the basis of a first class nation their treasuries couldn't stand the strain.

The League since then has been obliged to adopt a different system of apportioning its expenses amongst its members.

Russia Returns.
Russia, which refused to participate in the conference at Madrid in 1919, because of her opposition to the organization of the rest of the world, resumed her relations with the union at this year's conference, as that Afghanistan still remains the only outside member.

Although the Union has only to do with regulating postal rates, international money orders, registered mail, etc., etc., nevertheless international postulates creep out in all the conferences, principally in the manner in which the votes are distributed. England, for example, has six votes, France, Germany, at present, only one, and the United States, Italy, Holland, Spain, Portugal, three; while the Latin American delegations, with one vote each, are always able to vote en bloc in a vote to carry most of the questions voted.

There are now embraced under the terms of the Bern International postal convention nearly 125,000,000 square kilometers of territory, inhabited by 1,700,000,000 people. Thanks to the postal union they can receive and send mail to all parts of the world, at a uniform rate of postage and without complications relative to foreign postage stamps or other details.

GUEST AT SHOWER

Mrs. Edward Murray was hostess for the pleasure of Miss Margaret McDonough at the Edward Hotel in King Square on Monday night when a shower was tendered Miss McDonough and a number of her friends presented a large array of lovely gifts. The rooms were very prettily decorated with yellow and white ribbons and the gifts were presented in a pleasing way. They were all found beneath an umbrella which was the central ornament of the supper table and seemed a fitting accompaniment of a "shower." Music and dancing made the evening pass very pleasantly and refreshments were served.

AIR SERVICE FOR MEXICAN GULF

Planes May Carry Mails and Passengers Between U. S. and Cuba.

New Orleans Sept. 17.—Airplane passenger and mail service between New Orleans and Cuba and Mexican Gulf ports as a private enterprise is a subject of discussion here, with many predictions that it is likely to become an accomplished fact in the not distant future.

Suggested terminals would be Tampico, Mexico City via Vera Cruz, Merida, Yucatan via Progreso, and Havana. The type of seaplane believed suitable for the lines—air cruisers such as are used between Florida and Cuba and the Bahamas but equipped with at least two motors—could make the hop from New Orleans to Tampico, 710 miles, in about nine hours. The 900 mile jump to Mexico City via Vera Cruz would require about 14 hours. The Yucatan run of 840 miles would consume about eight hours, while the 550 miles to Havana could be covered in approximately the same length of time. One of the suggestions in connection with the Tampico and Vera Cruz service involves a relay at Brownsville, Texas, with planes operating between New Orleans and Brownsville and Brownsville and the South.

Postal officials are authority for the statement that approximately 1,600 pounds of first class mail dispatched from New Orleans to Mexican ports each week for which the government pays 82 cents a pound. Incoming mail from much of the territory is transported free of charge by the steamship companies, but it is believed the United States and Mexican Governments would agree to pay $1.50 a pound for all first class mail handled by the planes should such a service be established. The revenue derived therefrom, it is estimated, virtually would support a tri-weekly service.

Establishment of regular air service to Mexico recently was the subject of a conference between A. Y. Dye, American commercial attaché at Mexico City, and George E. McLeod, District manager of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. Subsequently Mr. McLeod conferred with A. E. Pradillo, Foreign Trade Secretary of the New Orleans Association of Commerce. While it is understood nothing tangible resulted, it is declared the subject is in abeyance for only a short time and that the plans will be discussed more fully in the near future.

DIRECTION FINDING STATIONS PRAISED

Wreck Commissioner Says They are Reducing Number of Accidents.

The wireless direction-finding stations placed near the main harbors of the country were doing a great deal to prevent the wrecking and grounding of vessels, Captain L. A. Demers, of Ottawa, Dominion wreck commissioner, said yesterday while in the city.

These stations now gave steamers entering or leaving harbor during fog or snowstorms their positions and directions, thus doing away with the old blind groping ahead by the aid of the compass alone. They were slowly but surely reducing the number of wrecks near port. There is a direction-finding station at Red Head.

This had been about an average year in so far as the number of steamship casualties was concerned, the captain said. One interesting feature was the small number of cases in which Montreal pilots had been involved. There was not one during the year, he said, in which he found it necessary to call one of the pilots up for a hearing. This was the first time that there had been no pilots before him during a summer season in Montreal for many years, he said.

Captain Demers and his secretary arrived here about noon and left on last night's train for Halifax where they will conduct an inquiry into the wrecking of a French steamer off Whitehead. Captain Demers has been in the city on several occasions on local business. The last time he conducted an inquiry here was when the steamer Eyre collided with a schooner off Partridge Island and five men of the Pyrene's crew were lost.

A new stain-resisting silver has been introduced in Great Britain.

TO REFOREST AREAS IN NORTHERN N. B.

John C. Venness, of the Dominion Forestry Department, who has been located at Salmon River during most of the summer overseeing a forestry party, arrived in the city yesterday with Mrs. Venness and his family, and is proceeding to York county, where Mrs. Venness will spend some time with her mother, Mrs. (Col.) Mercereau, at Doaktown.

Mr. Venness will take charge of a large party which for the next two months will do reforestation work on the Tabusintac and a brook in Restigouche county. Last year, Mr. Venness said, there was some experimental work done in this section upon the burned lands and the result was so satisfactory that this year they proposed to reforest about 1,000 acres, planting spruce and pine seedlings. The spruce trees will be planted in Restigouche and the pine trees at Tabusintac.

Mr. Venness said it would require about 80 men a couple of months to do the work which will be carried on by him under the Forestry Department of New Brunswick.

Engineers estimate that approximately 1,500,000 horsepower may be produced by geyzers in Geyser Canyon, California.

N. B. POTATO CROP SHOWS UP WELL

Will be Better Than Expected, Says Dominion Agriculture Official.

G. E. McIntosh, of Ottawa, fruit commissioner of the Federal Department of Agriculture, arrived in the city last night from Woodstock after a trip through the potato fields of that district. He is on a tour of the Maritime Provinces that will include visits to Prince Edward Island and a tour through the Annapolis Valley.

He said last night he expected to meet the district commissioner, G. R. Vroom, of Middleton, N. S., here tomorrow and to accompany him to the Island. On finishing his tour there he will go to Halifax and will meet H. V. Taylor, of London, Eng., assistant controller of horticulture with the Imperial Government.

Mr. Taylor coming to Canada to study the methods of fruit cultivation in use here. He and Mr. McIntosh will travel together through the Annapolis Valley and will inspect the apple crop. At the same time, Mr. McIntosh said, he would carry on a regular departmental tour of inspection.

He said that the New Brunswick potato crop, from what he had seen of it, would be a great deal better than the department had expected. Early reports had led them to believe that the crop would be much less than it now promised to be.

CITY WILL RESIST DAMAGE CLAIM

Special Meeting Will be Held to Hear Appeals From Taxes.

Routine matters only were dealt with by the City Council at the weekly meeting yesterday afternoon. After the meeting Mayor Potts announced that he would have a special meeting soon to deal with appeals from the valuations set by the Board of Assessors for the year 1924.

The Commissioner of Finance and Public Affairs reported payments for the month of August amounting to $162,480.54. The report was ordered filed.

The committee of the whole recommended that the claim of J. W. Slocum for damages amounting to $912.50 by reason of a collision between a truck owned by him and the city motor flusher be resisted and, if necessary, the city defend itself in the courts; that action on the request of the New Brunswick Power Company for permission to open Douglas Avenue to lay a gas main be deferred as the company had not filed a plan; and that a copy of the audit by Price Waterhouse and Co., of the Civic Power Commission be sent the commission. Adopted.

On motion of Commissioner Harding a bill from John Johnson and Sons for $205.09 for painting the police station was ordered paid.

Resignation Not Received.

R. A. McAvity, chairman of the Civic Power Commission, said yesterday that he intended to resign his position as the demands of his own business prevented his giving sufficient time to the affairs of the commission. His resignation was expected to reach

BRITISH MAILS.

A party including three Nova Scotia priests, Rev. M. K. Kinsella, of Truro; Rev. Charles E. McManus, of Halifax; and Rev. L. L. MANY AT OPENING FREDERICTON FAIR

Fredericton, Sept. 16.—Magnificent autumn weather with attendance much larger than on the opening day were features of the Fredericton exhibition today. The horse racing attracted many in the afternoon. Judging progressed steadily in the livestock classes during the day. Floricultural and horticultural departments also were judged.

The balloon ascension in the afternoon resulted in both balloon and aeronaut landing in the St. John River. A stiff westerly breeze carried the big cotton-bag over the river. The parachute jump was made without accident and the landing was near the holding pier of the Stanley Douglass Company in Devon.

Tomorrow is the big day on the race programme. The fastest pacers are all primed for the big free-for-all. Fredericton will be swamped with visitors to witness what promises to be one of the most exciting cards ever run in Fredericton. Details are now being completed to accommodate this large influx of visitors and special arrangements have been made to handle the heavy automobile traffic at the grounds.

POLICEMAN ACTS AS KLAN SENTINEL

Superiors Investigate Barring of Roads to Motorists Lacking Passwords.

Stamford, Conn., Sept. 17.—Following an assembly of the Ku Klux Klan here from 1 p. m. until midnight, concluding with the burning of a great cross on the Packer place, Webb's Hill, about five miles out, George Hall, a temporary policeman, who acted as sentinel and as such displayed his policeman's badge, was questioned at Police Headquarters by Detective Sergeant Thomas Foley...

Sergeant Foley and other motorists, who did not have the Klan password, were halted at a forked road, where Hall and Samuel W. Ferris were directing visiting Klansmen to the Packer place and informing others that they could not go along the road...

Several motorists, including Sergeant Foley, insisted on their right to travel over the public highway, and when the process of the Klan sentinels made no further attempt to stop them...

Others obeyed the orders of the sentinels to keep off the closed road. They protested to the police...

Hall in his statement at headquarters said that he was a sergeant-at-arms in the local branch of the Klan and that he thought there was something in displaying his policeman's badge while doing sentry duty...

The policeman declared that 13 States were represented in the assembly of the Klan and that several hundred men and women were present...

After Hall was questioned, the facts were made chief of Police Herbert J. Lewis and his assistant, chief of Police Alfred N. Phillips, Jr.

Hundred-Year-Old Letter of Noah Webster, Maker of Dictionary.

New York, Sept. 17.—A letter written in 1822 by Noah Webster, author of the dictionary which is said to have preserved the United States from becoming a nation speaking English, was found by a writer who refers to his plans to secure a reception for his work in England...

The communication, which is described as hitherto unpublished, was addressed to Charles R. Webster, a cousin of Noah's, and was found by Mr. Thomas among the papers of the cousin. It reads as follows:

SEEK TO LESSEN AUTO FATALITIES

Safety Congress in Louisville—Deaths in U. S. 15,000 in Year.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 17.—A measure to effect a national reduction in public accident fatalities by the cooperative effort of all national associations whose interests touch upon the street and highway traffic problem, will be held here Sept. 29-Oct. 3, the National Safety Council announces.

Among the associations to participate are the United States Chamber of Commerce, the American Automobile Association, the United States Automobile Club, the American Railway Association, the International Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, the American Electric Railway Association and the American Mutual Alliance.

"Fifteen thousand lives are lost in automobile accidents each year and increasing at the rate of 1,000 each year and, with the increasing registration of automobiles resulting in street and highway traffic problems which cannot be solved, it is probable that the annual death rate may be in the neighborhood of 30,000 in the near future, the report states.

The collection of public accident statistics and their analysis is probably the most important phase of accident prevention work at the present time, according to James S. Sisk, director of public safety of Grand Rapids, Michigan, will explain the system under the universal accident report forms adopted by the National Safety Council.

DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION IS ENDORSED

did not believe it was a question of "passing the buck." If definite support from the provincial government were received the federal aid would come. It was recognized that there was a feeling down here that we were not used right and it would doubtless be felt that to grant this aid would tend to allay the discontent or prevent its further growth.

Captain Masters inquired if the provincial governments had been approached lately and was answered in the affirmative. Captain Masters then reviewed the previous interviews with the premiers and said they had promised to look around and get a man to be put in the field, but nothing had come of it. The financial aid asked was $3,000 from Nova Scotia, $2,000 from New Brunswick and $1,000 from P. E. Island.

W. F. Burditt, of St. John, expressed the view that before approaching the government, the Board of the Association should raise a fund and engage a man. Those who help themselves are most likely to be helped. He thought that 1,000 men could be found in the three provinces to give $5, $10 or $15 each to get the work started before approaching the government. He was also in some doubt whether the Board and Association could both exist in practically the same field. If the Maritime Board of Trade had been unable to carry out the work how could the Development Association do it?

Col. Innes said it was not intended that the Association should replace the Board. The latter is an advisory body and they would so continue. They would co-operate. At present there is no organization, no funds and no staff to take up with Ottawa, for example, such a question as freight rates, but the Association would have its traffic and transportation department. Col. Innes agreed that it would be excellent if the Association raised a fund, but who would undertake the task. If the governments gave the assistance asked for it would not be annual. He doubted if a second grant would be asked for. It was proposed to raise $20,000 from business interests and the transportation companies who were quite ready to come in and co-operate. The $20,000 was to be apportioned at $15,000 from Nova Scotia, $10,000 from New Brunswick and $5,000 from P. E. Island.

C. C. Avar, of Sackville, strongly supported the resolution. It was time, he said, to stop talking and get some action. He did not believe the Mar-time board would be adversely affected by the new association.

Capt. Masters said the two would function together and the Maritime board should extend itself for greater usefulness.

President Montgomery, of the Halifax board, being called on, explained that his board was not affiliated with the Maritime board and the delegates were present by invitation and not to vote. The attitude of the Halifax board is much regretted by the other boards as it suggests lack of unity of sentiment in regard to the development association.

The Delegates.
The following delegates have registered: A. P. Stoneman, Yarmouth; S. W. Smith, A. Montgomery, F. G. J. Conness, Y. H. Zwicker, A. N. Jones, Halifax; Robert K. Smith, Amherst; D. J. Buckley, C. R. Walker, Sydney; Manning Ellis, Port Williams; J. E. Masters, R. A. Leper, F. E. Dennison, Moncton; J. A. MacDonald, J. H. Myers, W. L. Higgins, A. E. Pomeroy, Charlottetown; I. B. Oakes, Ernest Robinson, Edwin Graham, Wolfville; G. B. Crowe, Truro; C. C. Avar, Sackville; H. C. Burchill, Windsor; H. E. Harris, H. Innes, A. S. Burns, A. F. McMahon, D. G. Ross, A. E. H. Chesley, Kentville, and Messrs. Barbour, Burditt, Agar, Ledingham, Armstrong, Walsh and Beidling, of St. John.

Swarming Rodents Of Lapland Filmed

Gothenburg, Sweden, Sept. 17.—American scientists have just taken the first film ever obtained of the migration of lemmings, mole-like animals, one of the most unique phenomena in the animal world.
Dr. Clyde E. Fisher, a curator of the American Museum of Natural History, and Carvelth Wells, now here from a recent trip to Lapland, say that a curious and absolutely unique film is that of the lemmings. These rodents seem to multiply in tremendous numbers at irregular intervals, and are now more multitudinous than they have been for 18 years. A wanderer above the tree line in the Lapland mountains may suddenly see the ground covered by them for miles. They come by the millions, swimming rivers and climbing over mountain ridges. Then, either for lack of food or in conflict with natural enemies, they perish in masses. The Americans declared that they had missed nothing of natural interest in Lapland. They even took special films of the mosquitoes.

PORT ELGIN HAS SERIES OF THRILLS

Assault on Policeman Followed by Suspicious Fire—Reward Offered.

Port Elgin, Sept. 16.—A street fight on Thursday night in which Policeman John Allen was said to have been hit over the head with a bottle, followed on Saturday night by a fire believed to be of incendiary origin which would have destroyed the policeman's home had it not been discovered in time, has made things unusually lively in Port Elgin. The Town Council has offered a reward of $1,000 for the discovery of the person or persons who caused the fire of Saturday, but so far no arrest has been made in this connection.

In the street disturbance on Thursday the large car of Wilson Tremholm is said to have figured prominently. Tremholm is reported to have been driving the car in a very erratic manner. The car first encountered the automobile owned by George Fitzpatrick and in the collision the smaller automobile was so badly crumpled that it had very little resemblance to its former self. Continuing his wild career, the big car next plunged into the store of H. Milton, crashing through the plate glass window and working destruction to the crockery inside.

Policeman John Allen endeavored to put a stop to the rampages and it is said that Frank O'Connell, Tremholm's companion, tried to interfere. While things were still more than a little mixed up a passerby, Albert Fillerik, put his car in also and is charged with having struck Policeman John Allen over the head with a bottle. Fillerik and O'Connell were both placed under arrest. Tremholm is out on $3,000 bail. Tremholm is trying to settle up his damages bill. It is estimated that it will cost him about $500 to put his own car in commission again and Mr. Milton claims about $300 for damages to his window and stock in trade, while Mr. Fitzpatrick places damages to his car at about $800. The case will come up for trial before Magistrate Gass in Sackville on Friday.

UNUSUAL STORY OF SMUGGLING TOLD

servation of Pinkertons, who were employed to guard against the repetition of a robbery like that which occurred at the Cossett's, a few nights after the visit of the Prince. A man who is credited with knowing the faces of most of the "international crooks" was notified of the presence of this suspect. The detective was unable to identify the visitor as a crook. Mrs. Sanford could not place the man as one of her 400 guests.

The Prince had not yet arrived from the Burden residence, where he was giving a supper, and for a time speculation as to the identity of this counterfeit guest and his mission gave a good deal of interest to the affair.

The man began to act uncomfortably as he found himself the target for suspicious glances. He fidgeted and mopped his brow and sought shelter in spots where he thought he would appear inconspicuous.

Finally there was a tap on the shoulder of the four-hundred-and-first guest.

"Will you come with me?" asked the tapper. "I could like to have a little conversation with you."

No. 401 was led to a room where several men were waiting for him.

"Who are you?"
"Yes, who are you?"
"Why, I am—Wait, here's my card. No, I can't find it."
"Where you invited here?"
"Well, the fact is, you see, I am—"
"You were not invited here?"
"Not exactly."
"Come along with me."

He was led to his automobile. According to one account, he was booted into it, but the official information about the incident said that he was "seen off." The Prince arrived a few minutes later.

SIX APPEAL FROM DEATH SENTENCES

Hearing of Montreal Bank Bandits' Application Set for Thursday.

Montreal, Sept. 16.—The appeals filed in behalf of G. Scrafino, Morel, Valentin, Frank, Gambino and L. Davis all sentenced to death for the murder of Henri Cloux in the Hochelaga Bank collection car hold-up, were called in the Appeal Court yesterday morning, and hearing postponed until September 18. The reason of the postponement, was to see whether N. K. Lafamme, K. C., would by that time have recovered from his illness sufficiently to conduct the case for the appellants, as had been arranged.

Mr. Justice Lafontaine presided, assisted by Justices Glerin, Greenhields, Teller and Rivard.

Mr. Justice Glerin, explained that Mr. Lafamme had agreed to direct the case for his clients. Defence counsel had been trying to find out whether Mr. Lafamme would be able to appear before the court soon. If that were possible, the defence would rather ask to have the hearing postponed in order to let Mr. Lafamme handle the case. It appeared uncertain, he said, whether Mr. Lafamme would be able to go on with it, but he asked a postponement until the 18th in order to make sure.

EMPLOYERS FIND "NERVES" COSTLY

Many Firms are Now Engaging Specialists for Neurosis Cases.

Industry's latest problem is neurosis—"nerves," in the language of every day. In New York, in Boston, in San Francisco, in Chicago, in London, and in banking institutions have in the last few years added neurologists and psychiatrists to their efficiency and medical services to look after those of their employes who "go to pieces" on the job, writes Elias Torenkin in the New York Times.

Neurosis in industry is wide in its range of victims. It comes largely "from within." Chronic domestic troubles, money worries and secret griefs feed it, and these are not limited to class, caste or sex. Men victims are as numerous as women. The victim is the head of a family in lower Broadway, the head of a family in a well known office company and the Italian elevator starter for a public utility corporation have within ten days of one another consulted the same specialist. Each was forbidden to return to his job for a certain period. Each followed out a certain programme of treatment at the expense of his employers.

Motives of economy and efficiency, aside from welfare considerations, are responsible for the resort by employers to high-priced mental specialists to clear up the sources of irritation of their neurotic employes. The proportion of such employes has become strikingly noticeable since the war, and it would add considerable to the turnover problem, if not to the actual cost of production, to replace all such employes.

There are still other considerations. Almost every large corporation today maintains a system of sick benefits whereby in illness an employe is entitled to receive wages for a period varying from four months to a year. It is the neurotic employe who makes frequent and prolonged calls on the company's sick benefit fund. Likewise the neurotic is a most difficult compensation case when injured. He is likely to think himself into all sorts of complications, often to his lifelong detriment.

SPORT NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

MUCH INTEREST IN NATIONAL RACES

If Epinard Wins, Outlook Bright for Future International Races.

New York, Sept. 16.—(United Press)—International horse races, which will bring together the champion of Europe and the best thoroughbred in the United States probably will cause as permanent annual fixture as an outcome of the three big international races arranged this season.

Considering that international competition is established in athletics, tennis, golf, polo, yachting and other minor sports it is rather unusual that so much difficulty should have been encountered in fostering and promoting international relations in horse racing, one of the oldest and perhaps the most popular of world sports.

As a rule, most of the best thoroughbreds in Europe are bred, owned and raced in England, and in the majority of cases, the best horses belong to the stables of titled horsemen who respect tradition more than they care for establishing new customs.

In horse racing alone, England retains the old prestige of the empire, and it is being carefully guarded. The watchdogs of the national honor do not want their thoroughbred class to descend to the rating of their pugilists, their athletes and their tennis players and there is only one way to do it—keep them away from anything that can beat them.

After great difficulty, the first international race was arranged last year, and Papyrus, the winner of the Epsom Derby, made the trip across the Atlantic to get a terrific beating from Zev, the champion money winner of America, in the mud, at Belmont Park.

The race never could have been arranged if Papyrus had not been owned by Ben Irish, a commoner, with more sporting instinct than the owners of those on the other side opposed to international racing that a foreign horse has no chance to sail across the ocean, to change climate, food and water, and to race on hard tracks after having been accustomed to "cross-country" turf. They point out, with some justification, that weight and conditions should be even to make any horse race and that the American horse would have all the advantage.

When Papyrus was so badly beaten, this contention seemed to have been borne out, but it was the condition of the track more than anything else and the refusal of those in charge of the Epsom winner to put calls on him that were partially responsible for his disastrous defeat.

August Belmont, who has spent a small fortune in money and time to bring about last year's race and the series this year, had to start all over again when he made plans for the second international meeting.

He probably figured it would be impossible to interest British horsemen, especially after Lord Derby, one of the highest ranking British nobles, had won the Epsom classic named after his forefathers with Sansovino.

Negotiations were opened with Pierre Wertheimer, wealthy perfume manufacturer, who owns Epsom, regarded as the fastest thoroughbred in Europe. Although a native Frenchman, Wertheimer had spent several years studying business in the United States, and he responded immediately to the invitation to negotiate a series of races.

He finally agreed to send his prize colts to the United States for a series of races.

In arranging the series, Major Belmont made a smart move to counteract several complaints made in the past when he suggested that three races be scheduled over varying distances that no one could object that the distance was too short or too long and that it could not be said that any of the entries were not right on that particular day. The result was the decision to hold three races over distances of three-quarters of a mile, a mile and a mile and a quarter.

In the first race at Belmont Park on Labor Day, over a distance of three-quarters of a mile, Epinard was beaten by Wise Counsellor. The second race, over a mile, is scheduled for Aqueduct on Sept. 27, and the final race, a mile and a quarter, on the Latonia track, Oct. 11.

Although he was beaten by less than a length, Epinard refuted arguments that it was impossible to bring a horse over here from Europe and keep him in condition. Epinard was in good shape, but, according to his owner, he was short of racing and would have been much better if he had been allowed to run in a preliminary event under actual racing conditions. Papyrus perhaps was handicapped by an English trainer and an English jockey, whereas, Epinard had the advantage of being handled by an American trainer and being ridden by an American jockey.

There are reasons to believe that Epinard may win his next two races. If he does, his two victories will furnish a strong impetus to the promotion of future international races, because it will convince the British peerage that it is possible to keep a horse on form in this country, and it certainly will show that the sport is being promoted by international classes.

American owners could do much to foster the international spirit if they would send a few of their best thoroughbreds to England. Many American horses have been shipped to England and raced in the past, and it would be well to do it again.

The Perfect Player? Veteran Coast Outfielder Assays 100 Per Cent. In Four Important Phases of Game.

Baseball has never had a perfect ball player. Ruth, Cobb, Speaker and other headliners, great in many respects, all had a deficiency of some sort which denied them the glory of perfection. Star in 1922 was nearer to all-round greatness than any other notable, but George lacked Ruth's mighty driving power. Out on the Pacific Coast they have advanced Buzz Artlett, Oakland's star outfielder, as the 100 per cent ball player. Artlett is equally gifted in the four most important phases of the game—hitting, throwing, running and fielding. Moreover, he has the instinct of the natural born player. Artlett used to be a pitcher. And a good one, too. The Boston Braves bid $30,000 for him. When his arm went bad he turned to outfielding. Overnight he became a sensation. Artlett is not young. He has been in the game nearly ten years. For that reason the 100 per cent of the Coast League may never come to the big leagues.

PIRATES INFIELD BEST IN MAJORS

Traynor, Wright, Maranville and Grimm Make Fine Quartette

The outstanding major league club of the last 20 years have boasted great infielders.

Few pennants have been won by teams lacking an inner defense that could not only field but also hit.

From 1908 to 1911 the Chicago Cubs of the National League were the big noise in that organization. The Cubs had a great infield. Baseball fans will readily recall the Cub combination of Stenfeldt at third, Joe Tinker at short, Johnny Evers at second and Frank Chance at first. In winning pennants and world series games for Chicago, the Cub infield played a most important part. Great on defense, it was almost as dangerous on the offense.

That quartet could field, hit and think. Then came the Philadelphia Athletics, who for several years monopolized the baseball situation as the one best team of the universe. Connie Mack's so-called $100,000 infield, big figures in those days, was made up of Home-run Frank Baker at third, Jack Barry at short, the brilliant Eddie Collins at second and 'Stuffy' Melnis at first. Some infield. Other famous infields that have figured in winning many pennant races are the present infield combination of the New York Giants and the Yankees. Bancroft, star shortstop for many years, has been supplanted at New York by the youthful Travis Jackson.

One of the big thrills of the National League race was the late rush of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Only a poor start by Pittsburgh has made it possible for the Giants to be so comfortable most of the year. In the recent spurt made by Pittsburgh, the work of the Pirate infield featured the club's play.

A majority of the experts are of the opinion that the Pittsburgh club has the best infield in the majors. It is certainly one of the best. Pie Traynor is a great third baseman. Wright at shortstop, playing his first year in the majors, is a sensation. 'Babe' Maranville, shifted from short to second, is having one of the best years of his career. 'Lefty' Grimm at first is a marvel in the field.

Vieng with the Pittsburgh quartette for infield honors is the Washington combination of Peckinpaugh, Harris, Bludge and Judge. Washington, the sensation of the American League race, can thank its infield for the good part it has played in making the club a strong pennant contender. Failure to make double plays cost many a ball game. Neither Pittsburgh nor Washington suffer much in this respect. There is little to choose between the two combinations. Both infields compare favorably with the leading quartets of the past.

MARITIMES AGAIN GET GOLD SHOULDER

Glorious Case of Being Ignored in Postal Films is Cited.

"Until the people of Ontario and Quebec come to think in terms of the Dominion of Canada, it is a pretty hopeless case to expect any justice accorded the Maritime Provinces. This is the summing-up given today by a prominent local man to The Times-Star about existing conditions. Continuing, he said: "To cite the most recent instance of this deliberate ignoring of the Maritime Provinces, one has only to view the motion picture depicting the handling of Canadian mail that was shown last week in the Imperial Theatre to visit members of the Canadian Club. This picture was produced by the Dominion Government at a considerable cost—the people of the Maritime Provinces bearing their share—and naturally one would expect they would be entitled to as much consideration as the rest of the Dominion. What do we find? In this picture, the Maritimes are placed in a class with Japan with a scant title being the only reference to the eastern provinces." "The scenes were fine in the picture, he said. They open in Liverpool, England, and then shift to Quebec, where a small tug goes out and the mail is dropped over for the Maritimes. At this juncture, the same reference is made to the Maritime Provinces. Then, the spectator is treated to splendid views of Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, all of the western cities clear out to the coast. Then, there is a scene showing the mail leaving for Japan. "But not a solitary mention of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island. Just a passing reference that the mails go from Quebec to the Maritimes, it is any wonder there is talk of secession." "This reel was produced by the Dominion Government and loaned to the Imperial Theatre, the Canadian Club showing. Other exceptionally fine reels of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia were shown on the programme but the incident in the mail film has given rise to considerable adverse comment locally. As this is only one instance of the belief entertained by the majority of people in central Canada that the Dominion commences at Quebec, the citizen referred to believes that the case of the Maritimes growing case-hardened. Although he deplored it deeply, he believed it to be a fact that central Canada people today looked on the Maritime people as "poor cousins" whom they were obliged to carry on their backs. Yet, the true facts about Confederation were that if the Maritimes had not entered the pact, there would not be any Dominion of Canada today.

He had not realized that he was in the park until he arrived near the animal cages and then started to enquire how to get out. Regarding the second charge he produced documents showing that he was a provincial constable. A fine of $10 was struck and allowed to stand.

IS GIVEN SHOWER.

WEEK IN JAIL IN AUTOMOBILE CASE

Sitting Magistrate Henneberry Deals With Driver Who was Drinking.

In sentencing Joseph Wood to seven days in jail this morning for operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, Stipendiary Magistrate Henneberry said that it was a very serious charge. He explained that drastic measures must be taken to put a stop to men driving automobiles while under the influence of liquor, not only as a protection to pedestrians and other operating vehicles, but to the individuals themselves who place their own, as well as the lives of other citizens, in jeopardy.

The defendant was arrested about 1:30 this morning in St. Patrick street by Police Constables Thomas and Corvee. The former told of making the arrest. As the defendant had pleaded guilty to the charge of operating the automobile while under the influence of liquor the testimony dealt with an allegation that abusive and profane language was used when he was taken into custody. He was adjudged guilty of this charge and a fine of $8 was struck and allowed to stand.

CYCLIST CORPS OF CADETS PLANNED

Expect 100—Presentation of Trophy to be Feature Soon.

Cadet corps training for the 1924-25 season has now commenced and boys who wish to join the various corps throughout the city should see that their names are on the rolls as early as possible, so Capt. A cyclist corps of 100 cadets will be formed and the date for enrollment in this branch has been set for Saturday morning, September 20, at 10 o'clock in the Armory. A tag day will be held early in October to complete the outfitting of the cadets to help individual prizes for duty and senior marksmen will be given. There will be a prize offered for the best-kept cycle, also. Capt. Pallen announced there would be a ceremonial parade in the near future at which Donald Tapley, of the St. John Baptist Corps, will receive the Houlston Cup, which he won. There are a number of little uniforms that have not been turned in yet and these are of no value to boys who leave the cadets, they are asked to get in touch with the cadet officer and return them for further use.

FUND TODAY IS JUST UNDER $900

Only Two Dollars Needed to Send It on Towards $1,000 Goal.

The Times-Star fund to provide milk for the babies is within striking distance of the $900 mark today. It is felt that many more than have yet contributed could do so, even if only a small sum were given. The need is great and the opportunity to help in a worthy cause is especially appealing because it is the helpless little ones who will get the full benefit.

A contribution came from a visitor to the city, H. B. Price, of Red Bank, New Jersey, who, with Mrs. Price, has been at the Royal Hotel. Mr. Price sent $5 to this office to be added to the total of yesterday. There also was received the sum of $6.25, proceeds of a sale held by three little girls. These amounts make the total today $898. It ought to be sent well on the way to the $1,000 objective tomorrow. Who will give it the first boost?

MOTORED FROM WEST.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hartin, of Vancouver, and son Raymond, are in St. John on a visit after an absence of 15 years. They motored from Vancouver via New York.

As Hiram Sees It

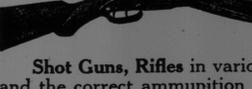

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam "where was a time when 12 miles an hour was described as an amazing speed for a settlement reporter sitting down before long to write?" Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hornbeam of the Settlement visited Mr. and Mrs. Wart of Saddleback Hill in their airplane on Sunday last.

"In the first place," said Hiram, "Hannan wouldn't get onto one of them machines if it was nailed down. In the second place, I wouldn't risk my old neck for the sake of speed. That's a young fellow's game. No, sir—me an' Hannan'll just jog along an' play safe."

The next generation'll be flyin' I s'pose—an' think nothin' of it—but it's hard to teach an old wog no tricks—yes, sir."
