RECRUITING MEETING LARGELY ATTENDED

Eloquent Addresses Delivered by Dr. Thornton, Lt. Col. Guthrie
and Others

The recruiting meeting for the 236th N. B. Klitties Battalion held in the Opera House, Campbellton, was the most successful meeting of its kind yet held in the province of New Brunswick in the campaign for recruits for this popular battalion. Seventeen men went forward at the meeting, and a number of others have since enrolled. Long before the hour set for the meeting, the Empress theatre was crowded to the doors, and a large number stood throughout the whole meeting.

Mayor Andrew acted as chairman and spoke briefly, introducing the speakers.

Dr. A. W. Thornton of Montreal, Dean of the Dental Faculty of McGill University, showed the pictures of the 1st Canadian Contingent which have been creating so much interest at the meetings of Col. Guthrie's tour. Then followed a recitation, "Light, light the fires on Craig-gowan heights," by Miss Jean Jardine.

Piper Corporal Stewart then rendered some pipe music which was greatly appreciated.

The formal speech making was opened by His Honor Judge McLatchey, followed by Major Lawrie, who received over forty wounds from shrapnel, while lying wounded on the field of battle. Lieut. A. Gillis, formerly of the 8th Battery and Lt. G. A. Mowat of the Fighting 26th, also returned wounded heroes.

Dr. Thornton then made a very stirring address, and his remarks were frequently applauded.

Col. Guthrie spoke at some length and with intense feeling of work of the 1st Canadian division and the heroism displayed in several engagements. He showed how impossible it had been to follow up advantages gained owing to the lack of reserves to bring up and push forward when the enemy's lines were broken. It was not fair to our comrades who had borne the brunt of the fighting during the past two years, that so many were unwilling to go to their aid. The spirit of those that had fallen and the voices of those who were still in the trenches, were calling to the manhood of New Brunswick to enroll in the N. B. Klitties.

In conclusion Dr. Thornton made an eloquent and touching appeal for men for the Klittie regiment, and his address was listened to with marked attention by the large audience.

When volunteers were asked for a number were forward, promptly followed by others at intervals, until seventeen names were on the roll as follows:

Walter Doucette.
Fred Doucette.

THOS. LEVEQUE INSTANTLY KILLED

While Crossing Railway Track at Depot on Friday Morning
Last

A most distressing railway accident occurred at the depot here Friday morning in which Mr. Thos. Leveque of the Tobique, an elderly gentleman of about 74 years of age, was instantly killed. Mr. Leveque who was in town that morning on business had occasion to call at the freight shed, crossed the railway tracks opposite the depot to do so. The wharf shunter at the time was pushing up empty flat cars and the first of these struck Mr. Leveque on the side of the head, knocking him to the concrete platform, death being almost instantaneous, he living just about two minutes after the accident. C. G. R. Detective Culligan notified Coroner Martin of the accident and the remains were later removed to Undertaker Graham's rooms where an inquest was held, the jury bringing in a verdict of accidental death, and exonerating the railway from all blame.

"WHEN DREAMS COME TRUE"

One of the brightest and snappiest musical comedies that will be seen here this year will be presented at the Opera House next Wednesday, Oct. 11th, when Courts and Tennis present their universal success, "When Dreams Come True."

This fascinating musical comedy of romance and youth is staged in three acts with twenty-five tuneful song hits from the pen of Silvio Hein, who is responsible for many of Marie Cahill's greatest successes.

The play tells of the adventures of a wealthy young New Yorker's spry young offspring, who becomes involved with one of the dancers at a popular music hall in Paris. His allowance being cut off by his angry parents on account of this escapade, he is compelled to return home in the steerage. In the first cabin there is a young woman whom he falls in love with at first sight, but, of course, finds it impossible to meet her until both arrive in New York. At this point a smuggling plot makes its appearance, in which both the young man and his fair charmer become immediately involved, and from which many amusing complications ensue.

The chorus, composed principally of pretty girls who can sing, dance and wear gowns fetchingly, is one of the features of the performance.

ROUSING RECEPTION TO 132ND BATTALION

North Shore Battalion Passed
Through Enroute to Winter Quarters

Saturday last word was received here that the 132nd North Shore Battalion would leave Valcartier Sunday, and would reach Campbellton at an early hour Monday morning.

All day Sunday friends from outlying districts drove into town and by six o'clock Monday morning an immense concourse of people thronged the depot here, as well as the grounds.

The first train arrived before 7 o'clock. This contained C. and D. companies from Gloucester and Northumberland and did not leave the train.

About an hour later A. and B. companies arrived and were given a great reception.

Mayor Andrew on behalf of the citizens of this town extended to them a hearty welcome and the best wishes of those whom he represents and expressed the wish that all would have a safe return.

Mayor Montgomery of Dalhousie also addressed a few words to the heroic boys who before long will be in the trenches doing their "bit" for the Empire.

Majors Sterling and McKay on behalf of themselves and members of the 132nd thanked the speakers for the kind words expressed and for the hearty welcome extended the Battalion in this town.

The companies then formed in marching order, with their bugle band and accompanied by their mascot, the goat, paraded the streets of the town, and everywhere received a grand reception. Friends of the boys marched along with them and the sight was an inspiring one.

The citizens band discoursed music at the depot while the train was here. On the departure of the train three rousing cheers brought to a close a right royal welcome which could leave no doubt whatever in the hearts of our heroes that the hearts of all our people are with them in the work upon which they are about to engage.

LARGE PAYMENTS FROM PATRIOTIC FUND

Thirty Thousand Dollars Required for Present Year.—Only
$16,500 in Sight

At a meeting of the Patriotic Fund Committee recently held, arrangements were made for a canvass of the County for Funds. It was pointed out that while the expenditure of the Committee was running at about a uniform rate of $2500.00 per month which would mean a total requirement for the year of $30,000.00, the receipts so far have been only $16501.55, $10,000.00 being the County Grant and the balance being subscriptions from Campbellton. Thus this County is to be self-sustaining we will have to raise $13500.00 before the end of the year. This seems like a large amount, but it can be raised if everybody will do their share.

Following is a statement showing the number of families with the amounts paid them each month since the beginning of the year:

No.	Relief Expense	Total
January 132	$2391.25	$31.75 $2423.00
Feb. 139	2471.00	42.80 2513.80
March 123	2147.50	22.25 2169.75
April 137	2406.15	38.00 2444.15
May 145	2489.00	91.35 2580.35
June 149	2413.75	33.15 2446.90
July 152	2629.50	20.00 2649.50
August 145	2470.50	39.00 2509.50
Sept. 132	2371.75	38.00 2409.75
Totals	21790.40	356.30 22146.70

The collectors appointed, who will make their canvass next week, are as follows:

Lower Durham and Lower Colborne: H. F. McLatchey and J. R. McKenzie.
Upper Durham and Upper Colborne: A. G. Adams and F. E. Sheppard.
Dalhousie Town: J. Harquail and H. R. Smith.
Dalhousie Parish: M. A. Kelly, J. T. Reid and H. B. Anslow.
Addington: C. A. Alexander and Geo. St. Onge.

It was on Sept. 1 that His Majesty the King was reviewing the Fifth Brigade in England. Finally the 26th Battalion came swinging down past the saluting base, arms shining, faces bright, chests out, ready for France. The king was specially attracted by the New Brunswick battalion and turning to the late Earl Kitchener, who Quebec, Sept. 28.—Captain Frank Maguire, 2nd Battalion, C.E.F., was killed in action on Sept. 22nd. The A.

Captain Maguire was a son of the late G. F. Maguire of New Carlisle, and prior to his enlistment with the 12th Battalion in Quebec, he was practicing law in the former place. He studied at Laval University here in Quebec and for a time was on the editorial staff of the "Chronicle." He is brother of Mr. Duncan Maguire, past master of the St. Lawrence Bridge Co. and a partner of Ward, Father A. Maguire, pastor of St. Sillery Parish.

Deep sympathy will be extended to the Maguire family who, however, will find a measure of consolation in the fact that he died heroically for the sake of his country.

It was eleven months later, then, they were covered with mud, their arms longer shone, but their chests were still out and they marched as bravely as ever. They were followed by the 6th, 10th, 12th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th, 101st, 102nd, 103rd, 104th, 105th, 106th, 107th, 108th, 109th, 110th, 111th, 112th, 113th, 114th, 115th, 116th, 117th, 118th, 119th, 120th, 121st, 122nd, 123rd, 124th, 125th, 126th, 127th, 128th, 129th, 130th, 131st, 132nd, 133rd, 134th, 135th, 136th, 137th, 138th, 139th, 140th, 141st, 142nd, 143rd, 144th, 145th, 146th, 147th, 148th, 149th, 150th, 151st, 152nd, 153rd, 154th, 155th, 156th, 157th, 158th, 159th, 160th, 161st, 162nd, 163rd, 164th, 165th, 166th, 167th, 168th, 169th, 170th, 171st, 172nd, 173rd, 174th, 175th, 176th, 177th, 178th, 179th, 180th, 181st, 182nd, 183rd, 184th, 185th, 186th, 187th, 188th, 189th, 190th, 191st, 192nd, 193rd, 194th, 195th, 196th, 197th, 198th, 199th, 200th, 201st, 202nd, 203rd, 204th, 205th, 206th, 207th, 208th, 209th, 210th, 211st, 212th, 213th, 214th, 215th, 216th, 217th, 218th, 219th, 220th, 221st, 222nd, 223rd, 224th, 225th, 226th, 227th, 228th, 229th, 230th, 231st, 232nd, 233rd, 234th, 235th, 236th, 237th, 238th, 239th, 240th, 241st, 242nd, 243rd, 244th, 245th, 246th, 247th, 248th, 249th, 250th, 251st, 252nd, 253rd, 254th, 255th, 256th, 257th, 258th, 259th, 260th, 261st, 262nd, 263rd, 264th, 265th, 266th, 267th, 268th, 269th, 270th, 271st, 272nd, 273rd, 274th, 275th, 276th, 277th, 278th, 279th, 280th, 281st, 282nd, 283rd, 284th, 285th, 286th, 287th, 288th, 289th, 290th, 291st, 292nd, 293rd, 294th, 295th, 296th, 297th, 298th, 299th, 300th, 301st, 302nd, 303rd, 304th, 305th, 306th, 307th, 308th, 309th, 310th, 311st, 312th, 313th, 314th, 315th, 316th, 317th, 318th, 319th, 320th, 321st, 322nd, 323rd, 324th, 325th, 326th, 327th, 328th, 329th, 330th, 331st, 332nd, 333rd, 334th, 335th, 336th, 337th, 338th, 339th, 340th, 341st, 342nd, 343rd, 344th, 345th, 346th, 347th, 348th, 349th, 350th, 351st, 352nd, 353rd, 354th, 355th, 356th, 357th, 358th, 359th, 360th, 361st, 362nd, 363rd, 364th, 365th, 366th, 367th, 368th, 369th, 370th, 371st, 372nd, 373rd, 374th, 375th, 376th, 377th, 378th, 379th, 380th, 381st, 382nd, 383rd, 384th, 385th, 386th, 387th, 388th, 389th, 390th, 391st, 392nd, 393rd, 394th, 395th, 396th, 397th, 398th, 399th, 400th, 401st, 402nd, 403rd, 404th, 405th, 406th, 407th, 408th, 409th, 410th, 411st, 412th, 413th, 414th, 415th, 416th, 417th, 418th, 419th, 420th, 421st, 422nd, 423rd, 424th, 425th, 426th, 427th, 428th, 429th, 430th, 431st, 432nd, 433rd, 434th, 435th, 436th, 437th, 438th, 439th, 440th, 441st, 442nd, 443rd, 444th, 445th, 446th, 447th, 448th, 449th, 450th, 451st, 452nd, 453rd, 454th, 455th, 456th, 457th, 458th, 459th, 460th, 461st, 462nd, 463rd, 464th, 465th, 466th, 467th, 468th, 469th, 470th, 471st, 472nd, 473rd, 474th, 475th, 476th, 477th, 478th, 479th, 480th, 481st, 482nd, 483rd, 484th, 485th, 486th, 487th, 488th, 489th, 490th, 491st, 492nd, 493rd, 494th, 495th, 496th, 497th, 498th, 499th, 500th, 501st, 502nd, 503rd, 504th, 505th, 506th, 507th, 508th, 509th, 510th, 511st, 512th, 513th, 514th, 515th, 516th, 517th, 518th, 519th, 520th, 521st, 522nd, 523rd, 524th, 525th, 526th, 527th, 528th, 529th, 530th, 531st, 532nd, 533rd, 534th, 535th, 536th, 537th, 538th, 539th, 540th, 541st, 542nd, 543rd, 544th, 545th, 546th, 547th, 548th, 549th, 550th, 551st, 552nd, 553rd, 554th, 555th, 556th, 557th, 558th, 559th, 560th, 561st, 562nd, 563rd, 564th, 565th, 566th, 567th, 568th, 569th, 570th, 571st, 572nd, 573rd, 574th, 575th, 576th, 577th, 578th, 579th, 580th, 581st, 582nd, 583rd, 584th, 585th, 586th, 587th, 588th, 589th, 590th, 591st, 592nd, 593rd, 594th, 595th, 596th, 597th, 598th, 599th, 600th, 601st, 602nd, 603rd, 604th, 605th, 606th, 607th, 608th, 609th, 610th, 611st, 612th, 613th, 614th, 615th, 616th, 617th, 618th, 619th, 620th, 621st, 622nd, 623rd, 624th, 625th, 626th, 627th, 628th, 629th, 630th, 631st, 632nd, 633rd, 634th, 635th, 636th, 637th, 638th, 639th, 640th, 641st, 642nd, 643rd, 644th, 645th, 646th, 647th, 648th, 649th, 650th, 651st, 652nd, 653rd, 654th, 655th, 656th, 657th, 658th, 659th, 660th, 661st, 662nd, 663rd, 664th, 665th, 666th, 667th, 668th, 669th, 670th, 671st, 672nd, 673rd, 674th, 675th, 676th, 677th, 678th, 679th, 680th, 681st, 682nd, 683rd, 684th, 685th, 686th, 687th, 688th, 689th, 690th, 691st, 692nd, 693rd, 694th, 695th, 696th, 697th, 698th, 699th, 700th, 701

DEATH OF A SENATOR
The death of Senator John Costigan occurred at Ottawa on Friday. He was in his eighty second year. In years of service he was the oldest legislator in Canada. Lieut. John L. Lawlor, Newcastle, is meeting with success in raising the 12th Battery artillery draft of fifty men for overseas. The first man was signed on Sept. 21 and the total of men actually sworn in at the end of last week was twenty-five. Lieut. Lawlor worked here for some time and made many friends in Campbellton who will be glad to learn of his good work.

"WHEN DREAMS COME TRUE"
One of the greatest theatrical successes of the past year was scored by Philip Bartholomae's musical play, "When Dreams Come True." The engagements of this fascinating story of youth have been confined to Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and New York, during that period, and it is now being presented in the small towns for the first time. This will appear at the Opera House, Wednesday, Oct. 11th.

The baby moose which was one of the mascots of the 236th Highlanders, is dead. Constriction of the lungs, it is thought, caused its death. Dr. G. C. CLAIM THEY WERE STONED
The most recent statement and a rather serious state of affairs, if true, was made recently by soldiers of a C. E. F. unit which passed through Campbellton, to the effect that at different points in the province of Quebec the train was stoned, and they exhibited several bruises and bandages in support of their assertion. They did not, however, state at what points in that province they met with such severe treatment. Many soldiers returning from Valcartier speak of the shameful treatment given them by French residents of Quebec and are loud in their condemnation of such citizens.

OBITUARY
Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hamilton and family, Black Lands, in their recent bereavement. Their little boy Samuel McLeod, a bright and lovable child of six summers, died early Sunday morning. Like George Joseph Windsor, his classmate, who died on the 20th of Sept., he was beloved by all and gave promise of unusual mental ability. They have gone to that city bright, where its gates are closed to sin, and where naught that defileth can ever enter in.

Mr. Harquail has proved himself to be a very capable trustee and it is the wish of many that he may be reappointed when the new school contract is completed.

THE PRICE OF FLOUR
Everywhere flour has advanced in price. Even in the States it is said to be higher than at any time since the civil war. We do not know whether this is true or not, but there is no doubt whatever that the price is higher in New Brunswick than it has been for many years. It is very doubtful, too, if there is any real justification for these prices. The Canadian wheat crop, while not as large as that of last year, was millions of bushels greater than the crop of a few years ago. The United States crop was by no means a failure, and neither was the crop in South America. The war of course makes some difference, but the speculators probably are more to blame for the high price of wheat and many other articles of daily consumption, than even the war.

A few weeks ago despatches announced that the Allies would probably make an effort to open the Dardanelles this autumn. Immediately the price of flour dropped off several points. This little newspaper rumor caused a drop in the price of wheat all over the world! Today if there were any prospect of opening the Dardanelles and thus allowing Russia's great wheat crop to be placed on the market, the price of flour here in Canada would probably be little if any higher than before the war. Flour is clearly as expensive here in Canada as in Germany according to reports from that country, which has been cut off from the outside world for nearly two years. It is actually higher here, where we raise hundreds of millions of bushels of wheat, than in England which must of necessity import the greater part of its supply from this country, from the United States and from South America. There is something decidedly wrong when 1/2 people of Canada are compelled to pay $10.25 for a barrel of flour, and we believe the government at Ottawa should hold an investigation. To permit speculators to become rich by storing money from the poor in war time should not be permitted for one moment, and flour is not worth $10.25 a barrel, and if it were not for the action of speculators and stock manipulators, the price we believe would not be nearly as high. The very fact that Canadian flour is selling at a lower price in England two thousand miles away, and freight rates the highest ever known proves conclusively that there is something decidedly wrong, and that an investigation should be held. Give the big millers a chance to prove their case at any rate.

CULLIGAN VS. THE GRAPHIC LTD.
In our local contemporary there appears an item concerning the case of Arthur Culligan against the Graphic Limited, and in reading it one must come to the conclusion that the Editor of that paper is a mind reader. The Tribune states "that the grounds of appeal are purely technical." On consultation with our solicitor we find that in the notice of appeal the grounds of appeal are not stated, and as our solicitor has not yet filed nor served his Factum, nor stated to the editor of the Tribune what the grounds of appeal are, we are at a loss to understand how the editor of the Tribune can state boldly that the grounds of appeal are all technical. In order to quiet his nerves in that direction, we might state to the editor of the Tribune that the grounds of appeal are not all technical; and when the time comes, the Tribune will be in a position to see that the $500.00 verdict is objectionable on more than technical grounds.

"A word carelessly spoken may do great harm." That's right. You ought to see what one careless word from the unspire did to our ball team this afternoon."

EDITOR'S MAIL BAG
The opinions of correspondents are not necessarily those of the Graphic. Letters to the editor will be published when signed not necessarily for publication but as an evidence of good faith. The publishers reserve the right to refuse publication of letters.

Chandler, Oct. 2nd, 1916.
Editor of the Graphic,

Dear Sir:
We see that Mr. Culligan is getting famous for what he does not know. It will be remembered that in giving his evidence in the Durham protest case, after some grunting, he admitted that he gave a certain man $2.00 on election day. He was asked if he owed him anything. He said he didn't know. He said he didn't know. On being pushed he said it might have been for some other election, he didn't know.

He does not appear to know much that is going on on this earth. Possibly he might be able to tell us something of what is going on in the moon. He had better put his head in a sack over night and get Dr. McAllister to examine it, possibly there might be something in it, but he does not know it.

CHANDLER.

QUEBEC HAS FAILED
The feeling is undoubtedly gaining ground very rapidly throughout the other provinces of Canada that Quebec has failed lamentably in the matter of recruiting. The province has a population of over two millions, and yet up to date the total enlistments scarcely amount to more than 40,000 while Ontario has enlisted almost 100,000 men in excess of this. The western provinces have done immeasurably better than Quebec, while the maritime provinces, where recruiting has not been active as it might have been, have enlisted several thousand more men than the whole province of Quebec, whose population is more than double that of the three maritime provinces taken together. The fact is Quebec province should have sent at least 100,000 more men than she has sent.

The Toronto Globe, the leading Liberal organ of Ontario commenting upon the Quebec situation says:
The matter of supreme importance is that even at this hour French Canada shall be aroused to a sense of her duty. Forgetting that which is behind, representatives of the government, of businessmen, of labor organizations, of the Church, of Liberals and Conservatives, even of that saving remnant of the Nationalists who prefer the leadership of Asselin to that of Bourassa, and are prepared to fight for freedom before seeking to redress what they regard as their own particular grievances, might well come together and try to secure a large enrollment during the coming winter of the men of Quebec, so that in the great advance of next spring the French Canadians may be represented adequately. It is not too late for a "big push" in recruiting. The people of French Canada are the same proud and martial race as the heroes of Joffre's glorious armies. They will still answer the call of the blood if that call is heard more insistently and clearly than the voices of discontent which the Parisian declares have not ceased to deter Quebec from doing her patriotic duty.—Exchange.

YOUR STORE NEWS
A store's advertising is a store's newspaper. Printed in a newspaper—the natural channel of information for the people—a store's advertising wins a following. If the store is a good one, and the advertising of it is interesting and helpful to shoppers, this "following" of this circle of readers, grows larger all the time. The advertising carries to these people, and to the new recruits to the circle, news, touching their purses. They come to look upon this store advertising as a source of business news serviceable to them in their buying tasks. Your store's newspaper—which is its advertisement—should not always be a complete store newspaper, but it should appear with an unfailing regularity as does the newspaper in which it is printed. This newspaper could not hold its friends if on "dull days" it failed to issue; or, on other days, issued in such an abridged form and size as to "lose its identity." And this applies with equal force to a store's advertising.

THE PUBLISHER'S DILEMMA.
Our readers are perhaps already acquainted with the troubles that newspaper publishers are experiencing with regard to their paper supply. Not only is the price rising to a figure the publisher cannot afford to pay, but often the question of delivery assumes even greater importance than that of price. The times are very trying indeed in the newspaper publishing business. It is pointed out that the situation might be helped out by publishers limiting the paper to the smallest proportions consistent with reasonable efficiency, and by increasing the subscription price. Indeed many publishers have already done these things and many others are seriously considering the question of following their lead. Meanwhile, when these expedients are not adopted, publishers are curtailing the return privilege, increasing advertising rates and practicing office economies of various kinds. All this, however, is merely postponing the day of decision, for eventually the price of the publication to the subscriber must be increased. Publishers hesitate because

LIEUT. O. J. LARZEN

IS WOUNDED

Saturday's Casualty List Contains Name of Popular 55th Battalion Officer

Wounded—Lieut. Oswald Jos. Larzen, Campbellton.
This was the official report of the wounding of Lieut. Larzen, of the 55th, but later transferred to 14th Battalion, R. M. R.

In writing to the Graphic under date of July 17th, Lieut. Larzen says:—

Dear Sir:—
I suppose you will be surprised to hear from me. Although I do not write I am often thinking of you, especially when I pick up the Graphic to get the news of the town I call my home. Although I am not a native of Campbellton, I feel it is my home, as the people there have always treated me so kindly. And as for Canada, it's the only country worth living in.

Now I will tell you what I think of this war as far as I have seen it. In the first place we are superior to the Germans in every way. The infantry can stand more hardship, both in trench and open warfare. In the open the Germans do not like our charges at all and they even yell "Comrades" and hold up their hands before we get close to them, and if it was not for their artillery we could drive them out of France without any difficulty. Although they have dugouts thirty to fifty feet deep, we are able to drive them out, which is no easy job as they have so many machine guns.

Many of the German prisoners say that the British and Canadian soldiers fight like devils. Believe me, the Kaiser has found out what the "contemptible little British army" can do.

It would do you good to see the Canadian boys going into the trenches. Always smiling and joking with one another, at the same time knowing what is ahead of them. You can tell the people of Campbellton that there is one sure thing, the Germans are beaten and they know it too. It will not be long before the Canadians will be marching home.

The artillery and flying service of the Germans are not in it with ours. Now the Hun's planes do not dare come over our lines. I have seen one British plane drive away four German planes.

At present we are advancing, and before this letter reaches you, you will hear of a great victory for us. There is one sure thing, the Germans are beaten and they know it too. It will not be long before the Canadians will be marching home.

I have received a parcel from the Tipperary Club, which I enjoyed very much, and I wish to thank the young ladies for their thoughtfulness. Such thoughtfulness goes a long way with the boys who are so far from their homes.

I am with the 14th Battalion R. M. R., which is one of the best out here. They have done splendid work. I am in splendid health, and quite happy, as we all are.

If the ladies of the Red Cross could send some socks for my platoon they would be appreciated. Although I have no boys from Campbellton, there are others who need them.

Give my best regards to all my friends. Yours truly,

O. J. LARZEN, Lieut.

CARR—MOWAT

A marriage of much interest to many friends was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mowat on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, when their daughter Muriel Herdman, became the bride of Hugh Allan Carr. Rev. Hugh Miller, pastor of the Presbyterian church performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white duchess satin with cascade train and trimmed with lace. The bridal veil was caught and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern.

The drawing room was tastefully decorated for the occasion, the principal colors being green and white. The bride and groom stood under an arch decorated with simlax and sweet peas. The house throughout was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

The grooms gift to the bride was a handsome piano. From her parents a beautiful seal coat, and from the groom's mother and brother a solid silver tea service. Many other valuable and beautiful gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Carr left by auto for Matapedia, where they boarded the train for Boston and New York to spend their honeymoon.

The brides going away gown was a tailored navy blue suit with grey lining, blue velvet hat and grey trimming.

SERGEANT—DAVIDSON

Thursday afternoon a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Davidson, when their daughter Helen Mowat, became the bride of Edmund James Sargent, Rev. Geo. M. Young officiating.

The bride was becomingly attired in a tailored suit of grey with hat to match. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and flowers, the color scheme being pink, white and green. Miss Jean Henderson presided at the piano.

After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, after which the happy pair left by Limited for Montreal, Toronto and other Canadian cities.

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

Allison, St. Patrick St. The bride, who was charmingly attired in a gown of Belgian blue Georgette crepe over rose colored silk, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Allison, prettily gown in yellow silk and lace. Miss Florence Alcorn attended the door and Miss Marion Miller ushered to the dining room, where Mrs. Mowatt Campbell and Mrs. P. J. Leger presided at the handsomely appointed tea-table, the color scheme being carried out in pink and white. Miss Alice Gamon and Miss Doris Bishop assisted in serving.

for the health of the family? The mother, of course! She is naturally particular to give her children only the purest of internal medicines, but she may not always know that a remedy applied to the skin enters the child's system, by absorption, just as surely as a medicine that is swallowed. This is a fact, and the mother should, therefore, use only the purest ointment obtainable.

Scientific analysis has proved Zam-Buk to be absolutely pure. The great English Chemist, Mr. W. L. Scott, says: "I have made an exhaustive analysis of Zam-Buk and have no hesitation in certifying its purity and its inestimable value for skin ailments and injuries."

Although the healing powers of Zam-Buk are beyond those of other ointments, it is at the same time so refined that it agrees with the most sensitive skin—even the skin of a baby. Mothers who have once used it say they cannot do without Zam-Buk.

It is best for eczema and all skin diseases, ringworm, blood-poison, scalp sores, ulcers, boils, pimples, piles, burns, scalds, cuts, etc. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.35.

No. 3 Stationary hospital, Boulogne, Sept. 19th, 1916, gunshot wound in hand. Will send further particulars when received.

Office in Charge Records.

This is the second time Pte. Boudreau has been wounded. He was previously wounded slightly, but did not go to hospital.

A GOOD SALESMAN.

"What!" cried the careful housewife. "You charged me fifteen pence for these potatoes?"
"Yes, madam," answered the polite green-grocer. "That is the very lowest we can sell them for."
"How is it that I can get them from Brown's for tenpence then?"
"I cannot say, madam. Perhaps Mr. Brown has taken a fancy to you. He is a widower and you are beautiful. Unfortunately I—yes, I, fifteen pence!"

A Clean Page.—Portly Woman (pushing her way into a police-station).—"I see you have arrested a man whose rank is a blank."

Office—"We have, madam."

Portly Woman—"Then please bring him out so I may have a look at him. My Henry didn't come home last night, and that's a fairly good description of him."

WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

IN BED MOST OF TIME

Her Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Indianapolis, Indiana.—"My health was so poor and my constitution so run down that I could not work. I was thin, pale and weak, weighed but 109 pounds and was in bed most of the time. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and five months later I weighed 133 pounds. I do all the housework and washing for eleven and I can truthfully say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a godsend to me for I would have been in my grave today but for it. I would tell all women suffering as I was to try your valuable remedy."

Mrs. Wm. GREEN, 332 S. Addison Street, Indianapolis, Indiana. There is hardly a neighborhood in this country, wherein some woman has not found health by using this good old-fashioned root and herb remedy.

If there is anything about which you would like special advice, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

JUDGE STILES

BURIED THURSDAY

Respected Resident of Matapedia West Passed Peacefully Away.—Was Seventy-Three Years Old

The funeral of R. O. Stiles took place from his late residence at Matapedia West, on Thursday, September 28th at 2 o'clock. Service was conducted by Rev. J. R. Miller. The pallbearers were Messrs. Alexander Pratt, John A. Robertson, Donald F. Adams, Wm. Moores, David Fraser and Mayor Adams.

Interment took place at the Presbyterian Cemetery at Matapedia.

The great respect in which Mr. Stiles was held in the community was shown by the very large attendance at the funeral cortege being one of the largest ever seen in the place.

Among the flowers that covered the casket were beautiful cut flowers from Mr. and Mrs. Percy Baker, Mary Babain, Arthur Brown, Solomon Bernard, Gordon Thompson, Frank Bernard, Wilfred Babain, Lawrence Audet, Edward Butler.

The late Judge Stiles was born at Salisbury, Westmorland county. When first coming to Matapedia West, it was in the capacity of school teacher. After teaching in that school a number of years, he made his home in the place and resided there ever since. He was a consistent member and deacon of the Campbellton Baptist Church.

His life was one of helpfulness, and a friend to whom he found no need, regardless of race or creed. He has been in failing health for some time, and everything was done that loving children could devise to prolong his life, but he passed peacefully, though rather suddenly away on the afternoon of September 26th, and was buried on the 28th, which date was the deceased gentleman's birthday. He is survived by one brother, R. J. Stiles of Salisbury; one sister, Mrs. Graham Powers of Salisbury, Westmorland Co. He is also survived by four sons and two daughters. Cameron A. of Colorado; Enoch H. of Washington; George W. of Dawsonville and John at home. The daughters are Margaret and Maude at home.

VERDUN HEARS MR. LLOYD GEORGE

British War Minister Pays Striking Tribute to Its Gallant Defenders

While a cannonade raged overhead, Lloyd George, the British War Minister, last week delivered a speech in the casemates of the Verdun citadel which moved the defenders to tears.

"None of the military feats with which French history is filled," he said with a hushed voice "shows more than does the defence of Verdun the highest qualities of the French army. This victorious resistance will be immortal because Verdun not only saved France, but our great common cause and the whole of humanity."

"Upon the heights surrounding this citadel the evil power of the enemy has been broken like a furious sea against a granite rock. I am deeply moved to come in contact with this sacred soil. In the name of the British Empire I express their admiration. With me they bow their heads before your sacrifice and glory."

After a dramatic pause, during which all heads were bent, the British War Minister raised his hand with a gesture that made all officers leap to their feet, and lifting his glass he said:

"To France! To her fallen heroes!"

IRISHMEN CHARGE

LIKE AVALANCHE

Sweep Three Lines of Trenches Before Taking Breath.—Death Has no Terror

With the British Army, Sept. 10.—The Irish charge at Guillemont was one of the most astonishing feats of the war. It was almost too impetuous. They went forward, pipes playing, with an irresistible assault. The English who fought with them tell that they have never seen anything like the way in which the Irishmen dashed ahead.

"Like a human avalanche," said one of the commanding officers threw pieces of chalk after the men, shouting, "Good luck!"

They stormed the first, second and third German lines, sweeping resistances away and not stopping to take breath. The men were lifted up by "Fey" the Scots call it. Death held no terror for them after months of dull and dogged fighting in the trenches. They were elated at getting into the open and meeting the enemy face to face. The only fault of their rapidity was that it left no time to safeguard the ground behind them.

The English riflemen on the right had more solidity, but they were so inspired by the Irish dash and pipes that those in support could hardly be restrained from following.

One Officer Captures Twenty-one. "I nearly blew my teeth out whistling 'em back," said an English Sergeant. But discipline prevailed. The English battalions have been recruited since the first phase of the war, but an officer who was once with the Guards said that no soldiers of any army in the world could have attacked in a finer and more disciplined way than the young riflemen with their ice cold self-control, but afire with the resolve to win.

The Germans began sniping from the rear. A young gunner officer who had come behind the infantry, "just to look round," as he put it, discovered a split in a rock leading to an underground chamber where twenty German soldiers and one officer were hiding. Surprised but holding their revolvers ready, they surrendered, quietly clicking their heels and saluting. The officer, a polite fellow, offered the Corporal a gold watch for a souvenir.

The prisoners, an odd 600, were in a pitiful condition. The enemy face had prevented them from getting rations for three days. Their spirit was broken and they were trembling with fear. One officer captured clearly had been in command of the garrison of Guillemont. When he passed the prisoners' case, all sprang up and saluted him with profound respect. He was the only man who maintained a proud indifference regarding his capture. He stood very straight, and still, as if careless whether he lived or died. Two officers with him clung to the necks of their British captors, crying "Mercy!"

Nearly 2,000 Wiped Out.

Another officer fell to his knees, lifting his hands in an attitude of prayer. One man pulled out a photograph of his wife and children as his strongest plea for his life. But the British had no thought of taking their prisoners' lives. It was hard for some of them to be sorry. They thought of the moments when these men from their dug-outs had flung bombs to the 485 and then had disappeared into their holes, coming up with an air of innocence and meekness.

One British Sergeant hit in the hip by a shell captured four without help and ordered them to carry him on a stretcher to the dressing station. He arrived smoking a cigarette, with his prisoners as stretcher-bearers.

Of the German garrison of 2,000 hardly one escaped. All were dead, wounded or prisoners. Two battalions were wiped out.

Diner.—This is a very small piece of chicken you have given me, waiter. Waiter.—Yes, sir, but you will find it will take you a long time to eat it."

"What makes you sit there and toot that horn?" "Charley told me to," said the fair one, "so I won't hear the things he says while he's fixing the machine."

SLIGHTED

"I do wish," observed Mildred, "that Santa Claus had brought me a new doll for Christmas."
"But your old doll," her mother answered, "is as good as ever."
"So am I as good as ever," the little girl retorted, "but the doctor brought you a new baby."

The things some wise men try to teach I don't pretend to follow. I simply let 'em make a speech while I stand by and holler.

More Beautiful Walls at Lower Cost

Paper has been used to cover walls because in the past there was nothing better at prices within reach of the average home.

About 5 years ago, Fresco-Tone, the wall finish satisfying modern ideas of beauty, durability and cleanliness, was perfected. Although far superior to paper, its cost was no greater. Now wall-paper has risen to almost prohibitive prices—but the cost of Fresco-Tone is practically the same as before.

Fresco-Tone is not a kalsomine. It is a durable oil finish, possessing the soft, velvety beauty of water-colors with the tough permanence of high-grade oil paint. It may be applied direct to plaster, or over paper, burlap, or wood; has no porous fibres to catch dirt and germs, and when soiled may be washed with soap and water. Fresco-Tone is made in 20 beautiful shades, is easy to apply, and low in cost as compared to other wall coverings.

Fresco-Tone one or two rooms this Fall and by Spring you will want your whole house decorated in the same delightful way.

REAL SUFFERING IN HOMES IN GERMANY

Pitiful Letters Taken From Prisoners—Tell of Widespread Want in Homeland

British Headquarters in France.—A great quantity of interesting documents continues to be captured with each batch of prisoners taken, including diaries kept by the soldiers and letters which they have written but not posted, as well as letters received by them from their people at home. The contents of many of them are so extraordinary that one wonders why the military censorship permits them to go through. From a great mass of extracts here are some of the complaints on the subject of the food supply, the name of the town from which the letter comes being prefixed:

Barmen.—People think that it cannot last much longer, for hunger is rife, though no one dares to say so; still the condition of affairs is indescribable.

Mulheim.—If the war lasts much longer we do not know what will happen with regard to food, etc. We cannot and dare not write all about it to you.

Strehla, (Elbe).—Here the food supply is much worse than in the army. There seems no prospect of its ending. It will get much worse. Even on Saturday we cannot obtain any meat or sausage.

Munich.—We now have bread cards, milk cards, meat cards, butter cards, flour cards, sugar cards and soap cards. We shall also have egg cards.

Mulheim.—Here everyone is thin owing to the many meatless and fatless days. It is really wretched. . . . People have to stand from 3 o'clock in the morning to obtain a few grams of potatoes.

Freiheit.—You know I only get 28 lbs. of potatoes a fortnight. That's what we have to live on; besides which I have to give our live stock something.

Berlin.—From Aug. 1 one will not be able to obtain clothing or footwear without tickets, and even then things are so dear. Shoes will be up to 40 marks (£2); they already cost 26 marks. What will become of it all? There are now 2 lbs. of potatoes every 12 days.

Berlin.—Will this fearful, horrible war never come to an end? One feels already so dejected, with no end in sight. A colleague of mine who is at the general command in Berlin told me it cannot possibly go on much longer, and it must come to an end in the autumn. Here every day shopping becomes worse. After August 1 clothing material can only be obtained by cards, and all winter boots must be soled with wood.

Charlottenburg.—We have no more potatoes here, they are so scarce. They give us cards and then there is nothing to be got.

Hamburg.—I can never get more than one pound of butter; everything here is so scarce, and we get no more potatoes.

Kenrow.—Things are getting worse and worse with us. We have been more than a week without meat. We poor people have to be worried and to endure hardship in the trenches while others sit here and feed themselves fat in order to worry the poor folk still more.

Kothen.—Now you have to eat your bread dry. At the midday meal there is no meat, or if you get any, only very little.

Schoppnitz.—For two months I have had no fat at all. I don't know how I shall live.

Berlin.—The food is always very bad, but there is enough to prevent one from having to die of starvation.

GROWLS AT RICH AND USHERS. And so the story goes on, often with little family details intermingled which leave no possible doubt of the truthfulness of the writers. One writer says that from shell factories in Baden and Hanover the hands are being turned off, so "I think the war will soon be over."

All sorts of scraps of evidence are put forward to show that the end is near, evidently only to bolster up the writers' own courage; and in many letters there are ugly growls against the rich and idle and the "usurers" who continue to live in comparative comfort while the people suffer. That the suffering is real no one who reads this intimate evidence can doubt.

THE ASTOUNDING ANZACS

Superhuman Exploits at Poziers.

Three Men Who Took Fifty Boches

British Headquarters in the Field, France.—I have recently come in contact with some of the Australian troops who took part in the fierce fighting around Poziers.

One officer told me that he could count upwards of sixty German field batteries. They limbered up and galloped away as soon as our guns opened on them. Their infantry do not like to meet the Anzacs at all. On the occasion of the last advance beyond Poziers they launched no fewer than four counter-attacks, and as these involved fighting on even terms, they all came to the same end.

"In one of these efforts to retake what we had won," said a battalion commander, "compute that 4,000 Germans advanced towards us. Save for a few of them who hid in shellholes, and those who may have gained the cover of the copse, none returned."

"I forgot myself and spoke angrily to my wife," remarked Mr. Meekton. "Did she rebuke it?"

"For a moment. But Henrietta is a fair-minded woman. After she thought it over she shook hands with me and congratulated me on my bravery."

At one point of the line held by about sixty Anzacs, half a battalion of Prussians advanced to the attacks, their intention being to cut off the Australians. The latter waited until they were through, mounted the paradises, and opened fire. Two Lewis guns were brought into play, and in the end the only Boches who survived were those who gave themselves up as prisoners.

Machine Gunners' Feast.

It was during this affair that a machine-gun party performed a feat over which the Anzacs are still chuckling. About fifty Germans approached the emplacement. The gun-server found that he had only three cartridges left. These he popped off, at the same time telling his companions to shout lustily to the Boches to surrender. A shower of dirty hands leapt in the air.

Then came the problem how three men were to tackle fifty. The gunner kept his machine ominously waving on the group while he sent to the rear for an escort, which presently arrived, and shepherded off the whole "bag."

"They are dirty dogs," said one man. "In one of the counter-attacks, delivered just at dawn they put half a dozen of our men, whom they had picked up in shell-holes, into the front of their advance. We were naturally reluctant to fire on our own people, so we put a splash of machine gun bullets about their feet. They took no notice of this so we aimed higher. But they had reckoned without their host, for the six Anzacs came bolting towards us shouting, "Let 'em have it boys; never mind us!" and while they all got safely back into our lines, we crumpled up the Boches in proper style."

GERMAN DIAMOND SOUP ON BRITISH CENSOR'S MENU

Success has crowned the efforts of the British censorship officials to apprehend certain "diamond runners" believed to have been attempting secretly to conduct a German diamond trade. The World correspondent learned from high sources to-night that a very valuable consignment of these diamonds had been found in a large pot of soup in the galley of a trans-Atlantic liner.

This shows you to what lengths these diamond runners go to conduct their business," said The World's informant. "It was certainly one of the richest pots of soup ever concocted."
