

The Presidential Contest.

While we in Canada are getting over the excitement attendant on our elections, the free and independent across the lines are warming up to their work, and are now in the thick of the fight which invariably precedes the election of President.

Mr. Wanless is an enthusiastic and gifted Scotsman, who in his leisure moments has in these "Poems and Songs"—to use his own words—"endeavoured to recall the scenes of his early years—to bring up, in imagination, the brave lads and bonnie lassies that we forgot together with in the days of the lang syne, and to describe, on this side of the Atlantic, the wimpling burns, the gowan braes, the bonnie glens, the heather-clad mountains of our native land: the land where Wallace and Bruce wielded the patriotic sword, and where Ramsay, Burns, Scott, Tannahill, and many more sang the songs of love and liberty."

Mr. Wanless intends to be in of his few days to dispose of a few copies of work, and we advise all who can understand and appreciate its contents to secure a copy.

ELECTION NEWS.

MONCK LOCAL ELECTION.—Dr. Haney of Pelham, has been nominated by a large convention of the Reform party, to fill the place in the Ontario Assembly vacated by the resignation of Mr. McCallum.

MR. PATTERSON'S QUALIFICATION.—The Ministerial papers are making a great noise about Mr. Patterson, member elect for South Brant, not having the proper qualification required by law.

THE ELORA "TIMES" ON THE BRIBERY QUESTION.—Our friend of the Elora Times has not yet got over his chagrin consequent on the defeat of Mr. Drew in the North Riding.

THE EARL OF SHAFTESBURY has begun the building of a "workingman's town" near London. Each of its twelve hundred houses will have a little plot of ground for garden purposes.

A singular accident lately occurred in Germany. A basket maker had a quantity of willow switches stowed away in a cellar. Going down to fetch some, his remaining away too long seemed strange, and another person went to look for him. This man did not return either, and two others went down. All four were killed by the fermentation of the green willow switches.

Poems and Songs.

BY ANDREW WANLESS.

We have pleasure in calling attention to a neat little volume with the above title, which has been presented to us by the author, Mr. Andrew Wanless, late of Brantford, and now living in Detroit.

We have been highly pleased with our somewhat hasty perusal of this volume, but have read enough to convince us that the author is possessed of no ordinary share of poetic talent.

Mr. Wanless intends to be in of his few days to dispose of a few copies of work, and we advise all who can understand and appreciate its contents to secure a copy.

A Most Valuable Work. We are glad to learn that our citizens have so fully appreciated the merits of Dr. Kitto's History of the Bible.

An estimable young man named Jas. Drennan, living in Hamilton, was thrown from his horse the other morning, dragged a short distance, and kicked under the left ear while on the ground. He is in a critical condition.

Mr. CURVIES, of Ancaster, drove over the edge of the mountain at Hamilton on Saturday night last, and his body was jammed under the wagon so that he was with difficulty extricated. Strange to say, neither he nor the horses were hurt.

A YOUNG MAN named Reid was examined by the magistrates of Brantford, on Monday last, and committed for trial for having violated the person of a young woman by the name of Robinson, who lives on the 2nd line, West Chingacousy, while she was in the act of going after the cows on Sabbath evening.

As the crowd in the bar-room of the North American Hotel, Port Dover, were waiting for the result of the election or rejoicing over the victory, part of the floor gave way, and fifty or sixty persons fell into the cellar, a distance of seven or eight feet. As fortune would have it, no one was seriously hurt, but all badly frightened. The sills and joists were rotten, was the cause of the accident.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—A daring attempt at burglary was tried at St. Catharines on Saturday night, on the exchange office of Messrs. D. Curtis, Haynes & Co., but owing to the vigilance of the Police it was a failure, as the burglars were caught in the act, but managed to make good their escape. Shots were exchanged, but without doing any further injury than breaking some windows and disfiguring the counters.

On Saturday last the employees of Messrs. McPherson & Co., wholesale boot and shoe manufacturer, Hamilton, presented Mr. C. E. Sprague, late of Guelph, with a handsome gold signet ring, as a token of their esteem. Mr. Sprague is about to leave that city to take charge of the establishment belonging to the same firm in London. Accompanying the ring was an address, to which a suitable reply was made.

STRAFFORD RACES.—The entries for the Stratford races, on Wednesday and Thursday next, closed on Saturday night. Forty-four horses are there to compete for prizes. There is some excitement among racing circles there. Arrangements have been made with the Grand Trunk Railway to carry passengers from Goderich, Sarnia, London, Guelph, Brantford and intermediate stations at half rates, and a good attendance is expected, if weather permits.

FIRE IN WROXETER.—In this village, on Saturday evening about seven o'clock, a fire broke out in the tin-shop occupied by Mr. R. Pauler, spreading each way, until the entire block, with the exception of Mr. J. Inglis's store, was totally destroyed. The principal losers are Dr. Smale, Messrs. Veal, Hood, Wilson, Lennox, Hauler, Krntson and Billingsly, nearly all of whom are partially insured. The estimated loss is $30,000. The fire is supposed to have originated from the explosion of a coal-oil lamp.

THE ENGLISH CRICKETERS IN TORONTO.—The English cricketers played in Toronto on Monday, against twenty-two of the Toronto Club. The attendance of visitors was far better than has hitherto been observed at such matches. More than five thousand persons must have been present in the afternoon. The grand stand was well filled, and outside the ring the people were quite sufficiently crowded. The English Eleven made a score of 243 runs, with eight wickets down. Of this Grace, one of their players, made the extraordinary number of 142 runs. Play will be resumed to-day.

County Judge's Criminal Court.

Before His Honor, Judge Macdonald. Monday, Sept. 3d.

THE LISTWELL BARBER'S ATTEMPTED RAPE CASE.

Samuel Butler (the now notorious Listwell Barber, who has a most peculiar eye, that gives him a most unprepossessing appearance) was arraigned on the charge of having attempted to commit a rape upon the person of his adopted daughter, Angelina Butler. Mr. Peterson, County Attorney, prosecuted for the Crown; and Mr. A. Dunbar appeared for the prisoner.

ANGELINA BUTLER SWORN.—Am 14 years of age; My mother is a white woman; I have lived with my mother until she left Butler; don't know if Butler is my father; after my mother left Butler's house, I went to Harrison and hired with Mrs. Robert Allan; Butler came up to Harrison and saw me; and after some conversation he wished me to come down town with him; afterwards wanted me to go for a walk with him into the country; when we got there he took hold of me by the shoulders, and laid me on the ground; (The evidence here is unfit for publication.) I was trying to get away from him when Mr. Lane and another young man came up; Butler and I then got up; when I was on the ground he told me what he wanted.

Cross-Examined.—When he told me what he wanted, I said, "Pshaw, I don't want you;" had no idea what he wanted; was not afraid to go into the woods with him; had often slept with Butler before this; Butler has always treated me well; made no noise of any account.

GEORGE LANE SWORN.—Lived at Harrison; observed Butler and the girl near the house; heard Butler insisting on the girl going with him in the direction of the bush; the girl was lagging behind at the time; several persons in the village suggested that they should be followed and watched; I and others did so; when we came to the spot where they were, found Butler with her; Butler got up when he saw us, and the girl got up and walked off pretty smartly; she seemed somewhat agitated; did not observe whether her clothes were disarranged; he called the girl back, in order to show us how they were lying; laid her down on the ground for that purpose.

Cross-Examined.—The time would be between six and seven; the place would be within a quarter of a mile of a house; do not remember that Butler asked the girl what he was doing, and that she did not answer.

MOSES FREELAND testified to much of what the previous witness, Lane, had sworn to, adding that he had come upon Butler and the girl somewhat unexpectedly; observed that the girl's clothes were up above her knees; afterwards Butler got up and walked a couple of steps, and then turned round and asked me if his pants were unbuttoned, holding his hands in front of him, as if he were not sure whether they were or not.

Cross-Examined.—Heard no noise; was quite close to them when I discovered them; heard Butler say to her, "Angelina, was I doing anything to you?" and she replied, with her head down, "No sir."

Re-Examined.—The girl appeared to be entirely under his control, and to say just what he wished.

The respective counsel having addressed the Judge against and on behalf of the prisoner, His Honor discharged the prisoner, on the ground that, from the evidence adduced, there was no proof of want of consent on the part of the girl.

DANIEL SLOON, who pled guilty on Thursday, 29th ult., of stealing silver spoons, &c., the property of Mr. Robert Forbes, Dundas Road, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment with hard labor.

Base Ball Match. On Monday a match was played between nine of the hotel keepers of Guelph, and nine of the hotel keepers of Fergus, on the grounds in Fergus. The Fergus men not having a sufficient number to make up the nine, were assisted by three of the Fergus B. B. Club. The match was well contested, and the scores pretty even, but the Guelph men came off first. After the match the Guelph men were handsomely entertained at a splendid repast, in Mr. Hefferman's Royal Hotel, and every kindness was shown them. The return match will be played here on Tuesday next. The following is

The New York Times having been engaged for the greater part of the summer in giving pie-pie to poor children, has had its editorial heart warmed up to all kinds of children. The summer school holidays in New York a couple of years ago, were only four weeks; this year they were increased to nearly seven weeks. The Times now proposes that they should be further extended to thirteen weeks, or, at the least, eleven; that is that they should close on the 15th of June or 1st of July and remain closed until the 16th September.

Town Council.

The Council met on Monday night. Present—the Mayor in the chair, Messrs. Kennedy, Snider, Stevenson, Crowe, Howard, Massie, Bruce, Coffee, McMillan, Robertson and Bell.

Mr. Stevenson presented a petition from 150 ratepayers, in public meeting assembled, asking the Council to see that the provisions of the act respecting tavern and shop licenses be strictly carried out within the corporation. Reported to License Committee.

Mr. Bruce presented the report of the Relief Committee to the effect that in consequence of the number of poor people in town who were unable to pay rent or maintain themselves, the Committee recommend that a house be rented for their accommodation, and that a person be procured to take care of them, till a permanent poor house be established in town.

Mr. Massie presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to confer with the Directors of the Central Exhibition, with a view of securing the holding of the Provincial Exhibition for 1873 in Guelph. The Committee met the Directors of the Society, and after a consultation, and obtaining their views of what was necessary towards securing the Exhibition, they recommend that a resolution be passed by the Council to be presented at the meeting of the Board of Directors, pledging the Town to provide the necessary accommodation, and that the members of the committee be a deputation to wait upon the Directors of the Provincial Exhibition, during their meeting in Hamilton, to use their efforts in connection with the members of the Central Exhibition in securing the object in view.

On motion of Mr. Bruce for the adoption of the report of the Relief Committee some discussion took place on the feasibility of establishing a temporary poor house.

Mr. Massie thought the starting such a house would lead to a great deal of expense, and have a tendency of drawing poor people to the town, whom they would be obliged to care for.

Mr. Bruce said something would have to be done for the maintenance of some of the poor people now dependant on the charity of the Town. He instanced one who was on the eve of being turned out of his house, and of another who was totally helpless and paralytic. He thought that a small house might be got at a low rent, and some person to take charge of them at a less amount than what the Town is obliged to pay for them at present.

Mr. Stevenson favoured the proposal of the Committee. They had duly considered the matter and were of opinion that the course recommended was the best, both for the recipients of the Town's charity and for the interests of the Town.

Mr. Robertson adverted to the growing expense for relief. He referred to the offer of a Poor House made to the Town some years ago by Mr. Elliott, and said that at that time the expense of aiding the poor was only $700, and the calculation made then by the Council was that to maintain indigent persons in a house, such as that offered by Mr. Elliott, would cost $1,500. That was the reason why the Council did not at that time accept Mr. Elliott's offer.

Mr. Bell moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Howard, that the report be referred back to the committee with power to make suitable arrangements with the ladies of St. Joseph's Hospital, or elsewhere, for the maintenance of the indigent persons under the charge of the said committee. The amendment was carried.

On motion of Mr. Massie the report of the special committee on Provincial Exhibition was adopted.

In answer to Mr. Robertson, Mr. Massie stated that all the Town would be required to do would be to provide sufficient accommodation for the Provincial Exhibition, which at the outside would not cost more than $2000 or $3000.

Moved by Mr. Massie, seconded by Mr. Bell, that the Mayor is hereby authorized, on behalf of the Corporation, to give the necessary guarantee to the Director of the Provincial Exhibition at their next meeting, to be held in Hamilton, that in the event of their selecting the Town of Guelph as the place for the holding of the Exhibition for 1873, that the necessary accommodation for the same will be provided by the Town. Carried.

Mr. Stevenson asked whether the work at Gow's bridge was to be gone on with as the season was advancing.

Mr. Bruce and Mr. Kennedy stated that the work had been let, and that the contractor was going on with it.

The Council then adjourned.

Raymond's New Sewing Machine Factory.

Mr. Raymond has let the contracts for the erection of his new Branch Sewing Machine Factory on Yarmouth and Suffolk streets, the site of the old branch factory, which was burned down last Spring. Mr. Geo. Pike has got the mason work, Messrs. Geo. & Alex. Bruce, the carpenter work, and Messrs. Collins & Lynch the painting and glazing. The factory will be 110 feet long by 30 feet deep, and will be two stories high. The contract price is $3,800. The work will be commenced immediately, and will be completed about the 15th December, so that we may expect the factory to be in running order about the new year. The new branch will be devoted to the manufacture of Raymond's well-known single thread machine, and his new Household machine, some of the movements of which he has recently patented, and which we have no doubt will yet become a great favourite. We congratulate Mr. Raymond on the steady progress he is making in the manufacture of sewing machines, and trust that this enlargement of his business now contemplated, will be as profitable to him, as it will advantageous to the town.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

DEATHS FROM CHOLERA IN INDIA.

Court Martials at Versailles.

Bavarian Ministerial Crisis.

Grand Banquet to Mr. Stanley.

Louisville "Straight" Convention.

French War Indemnity.

Egyptian-Abyssinian War.

London, September 2.—A despatch from Bombay reports that the cholera is raging in many places in India, and numerous deaths daily.

Paris, September 2.—A court martial is sitting at Versailles for the trial of Communists, and has passed a sentence of death on Lafrancois and Cluseret, by reason of their contumacy in refusing to appear and answer the charges against them.

Munich, September 2.—A crisis has occurred in the Bavarian Ministry, and the members have tendered their resignations to the King.

London, September 2.—A grand dinner was given by the Savoy Club, on Saturday evening, in honor of Henry Stanley. A large number of gentlemen, social and scientific circles, were present, and Mr. Stanley was the recipient of the warmest congratulations upon his discovery of the great African explorer.

Louisville, Ky., September 2.—Large accessions to the delegations arrived by trains to-day, so that it now looks as if the convention would be composed of 400 or 500 delegates. Nearly all the States are represented; there is however an absence of prominent men from the South. A scheme to break up the convention or interfere with its deliberations is reported and causes some excitement.

Paris, September 2.—A payment of an installment of five hundred millions of francs, of the war indemnity, has already been effected by France.

London, September 2.—A special despatch to the Daily Telegraph states that the King of Abyssinia has sent an ultimatum ordering the Egyptians, who threaten to invade the country, to retire for Bogos, but the Egyptians refused and continued their advance. Several Abyssinian Chiefs had already submitted to the invaders.

Salt Lake, September 3.—The receipts of silver bullion from Nevada and different parts of Utah have increased to about $25,000 per day. Heavy rains and floods in the southern portion of the Territory have caused extensive destruction of property. In some of the mining districts in the neighboring mountains there is ice at night half an inch thick. An early and severe winter is anticipated.

New York, September 2.—A despatch from Massowah, Abyssinia, says if Munsinger Bey, commander of the Egyptian Army, gains the first battle in Abyssinia he will advance as far as Adowa easily. The fanatic Mussulmen are expected to rise against the Christians in case of the success of the Egyptians. The Abyssinian army is at Hamojon, two thousand strong, awaiting orders. Munsinger Bey is at Fardfield and his camp is behind Keren.

Base Ball Notes. A very closely contested match marked the third championship match between the Eckfords and Athletics on Saturday, at Philadelphia, the last inning closing with a tie score of 5 to 5. The Eckfords then disputed a decision of the umpire and retired, thereby forfeiting the game, 5 to 0. In Boston the Mutuals played their 6th game of the championship series, on Saturday, and for the sixth time were defeated, the score being for the third time 4 to 2. Both the Boston and Athletics will visit New York this week. The championship record for the close of August is as follows:

CHAMPIONSHIP RECORD.

Team	Games won.	Games lost.	Games played.
Boston	28	9	37
Athletic	18	7	25
Baltimore	15	13	28
Mutuals	17	10	27
Eckford	2	13	15
Atlantic	2	15	17

These are exclusive of the games won and lost with the disbanded nine.

The Mutuals and the Athletics play on the Union ground, Williamsburg, this afternoon.

A. THALE, the left fielder of the Atlantics, was drowned on Sunday afternoon, while out fishing. Deceased fell out of the boat, and the stream carried him out of the reach of his companions immediately.

CANADA AIR LINE.—The track-layers on the Canada Air Line (Great Western) are now within five miles of St. Thomas, which they expect to reach by the 13th. The ballast train is also at work. The line is expected, will be ready for traffic from Glencoe to St. Thomas by December.

The Rinderpest has again made its appearance in Continental Europe, and cargoes of cattle to England have been seized and condemned. The result of course is that the price of butcher's meat rises. At the great sale of lamb; in the south of Scotland, the prices have ranged from $1.50 to $1.75 above those of last year.

Mr. Gladstone has been honored by the Germans. He is now a German doctor. Dr. Gladstone has received his degree from the Faculty of National Economy at the University of Munich. The same honor has been conferred upon the Earl of Shaftesbury and Mr. John Stuart Mill.

The Times says the crops about Wingham will turn out a little short in quality and light in quantity, late oats especially. The fall wheat was struck with the rust to some extent, but not to detract very materially from a fair yield.

The Presidential Contest.

While we in Canada are getting over the excitement attendant on our elections, the free and independent across the lines are warming up to their work, and are now in the thick of the fight which invariably precedes the election of President.

We have been highly pleased with our somewhat hasty perusal of this volume, but have read enough to convince us that the author is possessed of no ordinary share of poetic talent.

A Louisville dispatch says Charles O'Connor, of New York, the eminent lawyer, will be the choice of the Convention for President.

ELECTION NEWS.

MONK LOCAL ELECTION.—Dr. Haney of Pelham, has been nominated by a large convention of the Reform party, to fill the place in the Ontario Assembly vacated by the resignation of Mr. McCallum.

MR. PATTERSON'S QUALIFICATION.—The Ministerial papers are making a great noise about Mr. Patterson, member elect for South Brant, not having the proper qualification required by law.

The President of the Ontario Council is no longer local member for South Bruce, but such was the bungling of the Costigan Bill, that Mr. Blake is eligible for re-election; and if the electors choose to say so Mr. Blake can remain another session in the Local House, and it is very desirable on many grounds to have him there for another session, which will complete a moiety of the Legislature of the present Ontario Parliament.

THE ELORA "TIMES" ON THE BRIBERY QUESTION.—Our friend of the Elora Times has not yet got over his chagrin consequent on the defeat of Mr. Drew in the North Riding.

An English gentleman has arrived in Nova Scotia from England, to choose a suitable spot for a new English settlement.

BIRTHS.—WOOD—WILLET.—At Guelph, on the 3rd inst. at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, H. Hatch, Esq., by the Rev. E. B. Harper, M. A., Mr. John B. Wood, G. R. E. Detroit, Michigan, to Miss Maria Willet, of Guelph.

SOUL-GOING.—At the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. W. S. Ball, Mr. John Sole, Jr., to Jane, only daughter of Mr. W. B. Collins, all of Guelph.

WANTED.—To-morrow (WEDNESDAY) About 30 Hop Pickers.

SODEN'S PUBLIC CAB.—The subscriber having purchased Mr. D. Coffee's splendid Cab, begs to inform the public that it will be at their service at all times, either by the hour, the day, or any other way, at the most moderate charges.

HEATHER'S Stove and Plough Depot.—The subscriber would call the attention of the public to Kinney's Patent Improved Stove Furniture, by which pots, kettles, frying pans, etc. are so constructed that smoke, smell and steam from frying meat or other cooking are conducted up the chimney as perfectly as in the old-fashioned fire-places.

A singular accident lately occurred in Germany. A basket maker had a quantity of willow switches stowed away in a cellar. Going down to fetch some, he remaining away too long seemed strange, and another person went to look for him. This man did not return either, and two others went down. All four were killed by the fermentation of the green willow switches.

Poems and Songs.

We have pleasure in calling attention to a neat little volume with the above title, which has been presented to us by the author, Mr. Andrew Wanless, late of Brantford, and now living in Detroit.

Mr. Wanless is an enthusiastic and gifted Scotsman, who in his leisure moments has in these "Poems and Songs"—to use his own words—"endeavoured to recall the scenes of his early years—to bring up, in imagination, the brave lads and bonnie lassies that we foregathered with in the days of the lang syne, and to describe, on this side of the Atlantic, the wimpling burns, the gowany braes, the bonnie glens, the heather-clad mountains of our native land: the land where Wallace and Bruce wielded the patriotic sword, and where Ramsay, Burns, Scott, Tannahill, and many more sang the songs of love and liberty."

We have been highly pleased with our somewhat hasty perusal of this volume, but have read enough to convince us that the author is possessed of no ordinary share of poetic talent.

Mr. Wanless intends to be in town a few days to dispose of a few copies of his work, and we advise all who can understand and appreciate its contents to secure a copy. We would gladly give a sample or two of his productions, but have only room for the following three or four verses, taken from a piece entitled, "Folk should aye be equal yokit."

A Most Valuable Work.

We are glad to learn that our citizens have so fully appreciated the merits of Dr. Kitto's History of the Bible. Never in our opinion has there been any work circulated in Guelph calculated to do so much good for so reasonable a price.

We are informed that out of over 200 ministers in Ontario that have been called upon only three have refused to take the work. If parents who complain that their children do not take an interest in books of a religious character, and that their houses are full of good books which are not opened from one year to the other, would put Dr. Kitto's History of the Bible, instead of dry and heavy Bible Dictionaries, commentaries, etc., into the hands of their families they would soon find that their children do take an interest in works of a religious nature.

CHAPTER XVI. GEORGE'S INTRODUCTION TO ARDGOVAN—HE OVERHEARS AN IMPORTANT CONVERSATION, AND FORMS A DELIGHTFUL ACQUAINTANCE.

"A grand place, this," he said, "a noble place. I wonder what kind of a man I shall find its owner to be. Not very amiable, I fear, since he acted so cruelly to the Bruces. Ah, yonder is the house, and not so spacious as I would have supposed."

As he drew near, loud boyish shouts came to his ear from a paddock surrounded by a belt of shrubbery.

"My pupils," thought George, as he stepped aside and peeped over the fence. He was right. Three boys were in the paddock, one of them, the elder, seated on an ass, which he was kicking unmercifully, while the other two were cudgelling it from behind, much to "Neddy's" dissatisfaction, who kicked and did all in his power to throw his rider.

"Ah, I must strive to introduce to them more elevating amusements than that, by and bye," thought George, as he turned away and walked forward to the house.

The servant threw open the dining-room door and announced him. George entered, and, looking round, found the room empty. The centre portion of the large window being open, he concluded that the person whom the servant had supposed to be there had passed through on to the terrace, and would soon return. He therefore sat down near the open window to await their entrance.

He was sitting thus admiring and enjoying the splendid scene which we formerly described as visible from this window, when the figure of a man coming across the park caught his attention. At first he gave little heed to the approaching figure, but as it came nearer he suddenly started and looked keenly and inquiringly.

Could it be possible? Was he not deceived by a chance resemblance? He thought he must be, and continued to look, waiting for the moment when the resemblance which had been conjured up would pass away, and the figure and features resolve themselves into those of some one he had never seen before.

But no—no. As the figure drew near, his first impulse was confirmed. It was the passenger in the coach in whom he had become so particularly interested—the stranger whose history and circumstances he so much desired to know, and whose name the guard had told him was Nathan Garret.

Astonishment kept George riveted to the chair, yet instinctively he grasped the heavy damask curtain, and drew it partially before him, that behind its folds he might watch the movements of this man, whom he had never for a moment expected to find at Ardgovan.

So far as George could make out, he was making straight for the house—and not only so, but for the window at which he sat; and, what was still more astonishing to the youth, he waved his hand seemingly to himself, though in a moment or two he found he was mistaken in this, for presently they stepped into George's view from the terrace, and close to the window, a tall man, somewhat past middle age, whose countenance was naturally harsh, cold and haughty, but which at the moment had upon it an expression of keen inquiry.

He stood gazing in the direction of Nathan Garret, and evidently awaiting his approach. Though almost close to the window, he did not cast his eyes within, or probably he would have seen the youth seated by the curtain. The latter was so overcome by surprise as to make no motion, so that his presence remained undiscovered by the two without.

"Returned at last, Garrett," said the tall man, as the other came up to the steps and joined him on the terrace.

"Yes, Captain, here I am," returned Nathan. "Did you think me long?"

"So long that I have made myself believe that something of importance has occurred. Is it so. Quick, tell me in no matters such as ours, suspense is not to be borne."

"Well, Captain, you are wrong. No thing has occurred. He remains exactly in the same state."

"Ha! say you so? What a weight of anxiety do your words remove from me! I don't know how it is, Garrett, but I have been in a strange dread during your absence—particularly to-day. I felt as if something was approaching us, and threatening us."

"Bah," interrupted Garrett, "what can approach us so long as Colville does not regain his reason? And of that there are no more signs than have been for all those years back."

"But the doctor has always said there is a chance. You can dispute that."

"Of course I can't dispute it, and that is why I take such a long journey now and again."

"And is the new doctor of the same opinion as the former one?"

"As old Poorsman? Well, yes, much the same. He says there is a possibility. 'Course it; that is what gives us perpetual annoyance, and makes us for ever insecure."

"Fshaw! I don't think there is much room for apprehension," remarked Garrett. "If the madness has stuck to him for twenty years, there's precious little likelihood that it will ever leave him. Upon my soul, I don't think we need concern ourselves any more about it, especially since the other quarter seems quite safe."

"The other quarter," repeated the Captain. "Have you learned anything in that direction?"

"Nothing. That is what has kept me so long. I was a day or two in Edinburgh making what inquiries I could."

"And you could get no trace of them?"

"Not the faintest. After her death, he seems to have disappeared utterly. I have no doubt he is dead long ago. I always thought he had as consumptive a look as she had, if not more. Depend upon it, Captain, he is gone, and with him our danger."

"Oh, I know what you mean. Well, if the risk is still above water there is not the slightest fear that we shall strike upon it. Who knows but he has become a tramp, a vagabond, perhaps a felon; but whatever he is, or wherever he is, there is not the least likelihood of his proving a trouble or a danger to us."

"Ah, well, we shall hope so," said the Captain, with something like a sigh, as he turned towards the open window, followed by Garrett.

Then their eyes fell upon George, and as he rose the curtain fell back, leaving his form fully revealed to their view.

"My God!" gasped Nathan Garrett, springing back as if at the sight of an apparition, and staring at the young man in rigid, ghastly horror.

The Captain was equally startled, though not so horror-stricken, and he angrily demanded to know who he was, and what he was doing there.

PRESENTATION TO MR. J. N. TARBOX.—The Hamilton Times says: It has for some time been generally understood among the numerous friends of Mr. John N. Tarbox that he was about to retire from the management of Wanser's Sewing Machine Factory, an establishment which he has conducted most successfully for eleven years past. Mr. Tarbox's partnership has been dissolved by effluxion of time, and some months ago, Mr. R. M. Wanser returned from Europe and resumed charge of the factory. The employees in the eleven departments of the works selected Saturday night as a fitting occasion upon which to give a general expression of their satisfaction with the relation in which they had stood with their late manager, and accordingly, at 7:45 o'clock on that evening, they assembled at the factory to the number of about 400. They immediately formed a procession, headed by torch lights, a band of music accompanying, and proceeded to the residence of Mr. Tarbox. Here he was presented with an address, expressive of the esteem in which he was held, and the relations which had so long subsisted between them. Accompanying the address were a fine mantel-piece clock and a silver tray, ice pitcher and goblets. Mr. Tarbox made an appropriate reply. Mr. Wanser followed in a speech. He spoke of his own high appreciation of Mr. Tarbox's ability as a man of business, and worth as a private citizen. He presented him with a beautiful diamond pin, and Mrs. Tarbox, with a splendid diamond ring.

Reports from Patras state that the current crop will be 10,000 to 15,000 tons less than last year. The first shipments commenced about the 10th August. It is thought that fine fruit cannot be plentiful, and a low range of prices for common kinds is expected.

A Chemical Food and Nutri-tive Tonic.

Without Phosphorus no thought, say the Germans, and they might add, no action. Since Phosphorus and the Compounds are known to be the motive power of the nervous and muscular system. They constitute more than half the material of the human body, being found in every tissue, and their presence is absolutely essential to nutrition, as they promote the conversion of albumen into the food into tissue, which is the vitalizing agent of pure, healthy blood. They are now coming into universal use in Europe and America in the treatment of febrile, nervous, and venereal diseases, which are caused by impoverished or poisoned blood; and in diseases of women suffering from irregularities, obstructions and exhausting discharges; in pale, many children, and in all conditions of nervous debility, and in nervousness resulting from bad habits, excessive use of stimulants and tobacco, and all that which tends to exhaust the vitality. The medicinal value of this Tonic is made doubly certain by the fact that it is a powerful agent in the treatment of all the above mentioned diseases, and is a great favorite with the Physicians and Public. Sold at $1.00. dw

The Largest of any Company in the World.

This Society has led the van in the insurance world for many years; it has introduced more improvements and given greater impetus to the business than any Life Company in the United States, and is deserving in this respect of the praise and gratitude of the community.

There are many reasons for selecting the Equitable Life Assurance Society.

1st—No company has such large annual transactions, thereby infusing into its business a constant accession of fresh and selected lives which is one of the greatest advantages.

2nd—Liberal in dealing with all claims, and settling at the same time, a due regard to the security of its present large body of policy-holders by a firm resistance to any attempt at imposition.

3rd—Perfect organization in every department, which renders official information easily attainable and secures a complete administration of the affairs.

4th—Being one of the most progressive institutions of its kind in the world, it is ever prepared to meet at all points west of the improvements in the business that science can suggest.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society issues every recognized form of policy, and especially the SAVINGS FUND INSURANCE plan which the Company introduced. This new plan has become very popular, as equalizing among those who are insured under the advantages which arise from the profits of the business, without in any respect infringing upon the normal reserve for which Life Insurance was first instituted.

The EQUITABLE feels that it has the strongest claims upon public confidence. Under the management of the public, it is and the principles by which it is guided, perfect security is given for the future, than which no greater inducement can be held out to all who wish to insure their lives.

For further information regarding the different kinds of Policies issued by the Society can readily be obtained at
