ABOUT BIG PAPERS.

The Toronto World has an excellent article upon waste as applying to big daily newspapers.

Just now it looks as if newspapers were to be judged by their weight.

The World itself is an admirable example of a daily paper for people who have to earn their bread should be.

MONEY AND TRADE.

THE DAILY ROUND OF LIFE IN AND ABOUT TORONTO.

What the People are Doing and Saying and Thinking About—Brief Notes Gathered Everywhere by Wide-Awake World Reporters.

"Shrimpink" is a new shade. Bats are more stylish than ever. Felt poke bonnets are imported for autumn.

Tortoiseshell glass is the novelty in fine glassware. There are 171 patients at the general hospital.

New fall gowns have touches of yellow through them. The county council meet in about three weeks' time.

Flah is imported for trimming hats, bonnets, dresses and wraps. Potatoes are being shipped to the other side in large quantities.

Orange color is used in the decorations of libraries and reception rooms. Myrtle green will be the fashionable color for ladies' dresses this winter.

Eight car loads of immigrants arrived from the east yesterday evening. Mr. Erasmus Jackson of the Newmarket Era was in town yesterday.

All Saints' day. Services in the Roman Catholic and Anglican churches. Rev. T. C. Adams will be farewell at the Riverside Baptist church to-night.

The jurors were relieved from duty at the assizes yesterday and the court closed. Four passenger coaches for the Toronto, Grey and Bruce railway arrived from Montreal yesterday.

Annexation meeting at Yorkville Thursday night. Representatives of the city and village corporations will speak. The police at Winnipeg have been raiding the gambling-houses of that city.

When will the police of Toronto follow suit? Mrs. Shields, a housewife's wife at Seaton village, has taken her husband's medal and gone to live with another man. Shields will prosecute.

In county court chambers yesterday, in Bell v. Rowe, an overvalued tenancy case, an appointment for argument on the 8th inst. was made. There is a stagnant pool of rather pond about 200 yards north of the Don station. There are plenty of snails in the neighborhood within this nuisance.

Peter Woodward, carpenter, fell from a ladder in Lamley street yesterday and broke his collar bone. He is now laid up at his home on St. Patrick street.

Mr. George B. Stock the well-known oil man met with an accident at Montreal by which he sustained a fracture of the arm. He is now laid up at his home in this city.

Wm. Humphrey, a supe of a travelling show, was yesterday brought down to jail from Newmarket for stealing a coat from the American hotel. He was tried by Reeve Jackson.

Mr. McFarlane has another big sale on hand, viz. the elegant household effects of Dr. Whittier, at that gentleman's residence, Bloor street, to-morrow. See advertisement.

The orders for the contemplated books continue to be received. A number of orders are being filled, o.c.d. by the publishers in the U.S., the person giving the order taking the risk of confiscation.

The Oshawa cabinet company have a new and elegant stock of furniture on hand at their warehouses, 97 Yonge street. The stock is well worthy the attention of intending purchasers.

Hallowe'en was not forgotten at the Girls' home last night. Games, singing and a scrambling for nuts and apples passed away the evening. There are now 103 girls in the home, all reported as being in good health.

Two men on Sunday recovered a $125 gun belonging to Mr. Robert of St. C. C. Y.C. from the water at the club wharf at the island. The gun had accidentally fallen into the water. The owner gave the men five dollars.

Chief Fawcett passed through here from St. Thomas yesterday en route to Kingston with Patrick O'Neil alias Howard, who has been sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for burglary and attempted murder of a policeman.

Frank Morton, a colored youth, was knocked senseless by a runaway horse at Adelaide and Jarvis streets yesterday afternoon. He was not seriously hurt. The horse belongs to Mr. George Tyrrell. The buggy was pretty well demolished.

Dr. Wild lectures at Shaftesbury hall to-night. "The prophet Jeremiah's visit to old Ireland." Of course there will be a large audience, as the doctor has always something original, amusing and interesting to say on this, one of his favorite themes.

The pastor of the Bloor street Methodist church administered a timely and fitting rebuke Sunday night to the young men and boys who made a practice of talking aloud and running in and out during the highest devotion. The constables will attend to them in the future.

As Mr. Guinane, shoe dealer, Yonge street, was driving with Mrs. Guinane along King street on Sunday, the buggy caught in the street car track, broke the wheel and threw both occupants into the road. Mr. Guinane will enter an action against either the street car company or the city.

The Toronto gymnasium, on York street south of King, is now in first-class running order. Already there is a large class of general exercises. A bar class will be formed next week. All who wish to join should do so at once and get the advantage of an early start. Classes are held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

Last night Dr. Wm. H. Clarke, organist of the Jarvis street Baptist church, delivered a lecture in the church on "Sacred music in its relation to public worship." He took the view that the use of fine music was consistent with the spirit of the highest devotion. A vote of thanks was tendered to the lecturer.

She asked him to get her some invivables and he said he would. On Sunday night, as they strolled up Jarvis street, she asked him about them. "Well," he replied, "I want to every place I could think of and they all tried to palm off some things on me they called invivables—but I could see them plainly enough and wouldn't be fooled."

Heron Pirch lectured last night at Shaftesbury hall to a good audience, on "Latter and his time." The chair was occupied by W. H. Howland. The lecture, which occupied about two hours in delivery, was eloquent, and was frequently interrupted by the applause of the audience, who afterwards passed a hearty vote of thanks to the lecturer.

At the annual general meeting of the shareholders of the consumers' gas company yesterday, the following gentlemen were duly elected to the board for the ensuing year: Jas. Austin, Dr. L. W. Smith, Samuel Platt, M.P., Mr. Baldwin, A. L. Gilmour, John Eastwood, I. C. Gilmour, John Crowther, H. Cawthra, Geo. Gooderham, Frank Smith and James Scott. Mr.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Huntley Street Sewer—The Lennon Dismissal—The Street Railway—The City Engineer's Report—The City Engineer's Report.

The council met at the usual hour last night. Present: Ald. Denison, Crocker, Blevins, Adamson, Irwin, Baxter, Clarke, Hallam, Bell, Kent, Lake, Taylor, Bowler, Ryan, Carlyle, Fleming, Love, Lobb, Steiner, and Treves.

The principal business transacted was in reference to the mutilated contract and a question of privilege raised by Ald. Baxter, both of which are reported elsewhere.

The report of the committee on the construction of the sewer at the intersection of the following clause of the report: "Your committee, regarding the proposition to provide funds for the reconstruction of Huntley street sewer by the council to present year when the work which has been already dealt with by the council in the present year when the estimates were under consideration, cannot report concurrence therein, unless under direct instructions from the council; they therefore recommend that the clause of the report referring to the same be struck out. This clause was struck out, and the clause of the report recommending the reconstruction of the sewer at a cost of $124,000 was carried.

Frank Morton, a colored youth, was knocked senseless by a runaway horse at Adelaide and Jarvis streets yesterday afternoon. He was not seriously hurt. The horse belongs to Mr. George Tyrrell. The buggy was pretty well demolished.
