SOCIALS WIN OVER LOCALS

Halifax Players Score 13 to 5 Over Bridgetown Juniors—Gained Most in First Three Innings.

The Halifax Socials and others composing the Junior team which played on Wednesday afternoon last came here with the stated purpose of trimming the local team and succeeded by a score of 13 to 5.

Bridgetown boys while playing brilliantly in spots put up on the whole, the poorest ball of the season, getting away to a very poor start. Dorey, the regular pitcher was not in form and was pretty severely pounded four safe hits being got in him in the third inning. His support too was of a ragged kind with the result that the local team at the beginning of the fourth inning faced a score of 8 to 1 against them.

Ronnie Longmire went into the box and a few other shifts in position were made which stiffened up play materially. The visitors were held scoreless till the seventh inning when they added another tally. By this time the locals had secured five runs, but during the eighth and ninth innings the visitors by dint of good hitting and error by their opponents increased their lead by 8 runs. The Halifax boys had an excellent battery and on the whole were better batters of the two teams.

The receiving end of the local battery always turns out gilt edged ware. Even with everything working smoothly it is very possible the visitors would have won out but the contest would have been a very interesting one. The local boys have had a very successful season, losing only two games out of some seventeen played; and next season with some attention to the weak spots should do even better.

POETS NIGHT AT SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY AT HOME OF MRS. W. R. MILLER.

On Saturday evening the home of Mrs. W. R. Miller was the scene of a genuine surprise party, the occasion being Mrs. Miller's birthday. A goodly number of friends gathered at this hospitable home where the time was very pleasantly spent in a social way. During the evening Inspector M. C. Foster made a neat speech expressing the purpose of the gathering and read the following original poem and made the presentation of a handsome umbrella to which was attached contributions of the visitors in verse of much merit. Mr. Foster's appropriate poem follows:

From friends sincere, from loved ones dear,
From town folk and from neighbors,
We greet you here, and wish you cheer
On your birthday.

The time slips by, we see it fly,
The years speed quickly onward,
You will not stay whatever we say,
On your birthday.

From morn till night, your heart keep light,
And glow in love for others,
They'll remember you with heart so true,
On your birthday.

So fill with cheer your home so dear
In bright and gloomy weather,
I'll return to you with interest due
On your birthday.

A gift we bring, a very small thing,
To keep us in remembrance,
You know quite well our love to tell
On your birthday.

In days to come remember some,
Your friends so true and tender,
Whatever your lot forget us not,
On your birthday.

Lack of space prevents the inclusion of many, which were witty and to the point. We will however, introduce a series attached to coupons presented along with the gift. We understand Mrs. Hopkins was the author. They are good and apt in their reference and are as follows:

No. 1.
With auto lessons now get busy,
But do not learn to drive a Lizzie,
For with this number here, I'll say,
You win a nice new Chevrolet.

No. 2.
A pleasure now 'twill be to cook,
Pies, puddings, cakes from any book
This little slip makes all the change
'Twill bring to you a nice new range.

No. 3.
With coupon No. 3 my dear,
You'll hear on days that's fine and clear,
From friends both old and new you've met
By using a new Radio Set.

No. 4.
Now if from work you want a rest,
Choose any spot you like the best,
Just leave them all—Don't give a rip
Here's fifty dollars—a nice little trip.

SUCCESSFUL INSTITUTES

Five Held in District Under Direction of Inspector Foster—Full Attendances And Much Interest Manifested.

Last week concluded a series of most successful Teachers Institutes held in several centres in the Annapolis, Digby Inspectorial district. The attendance at these was practically a hundred per cent and the gatherings under the direction and arrangement of Inspector Foster were highly beneficial and inspiring to all present.

The first Institute was held at Middleton in the McDonald building. Lessons were taught in Geography by Miss Mary FitzRandolph and a lecture by Miss Prudence Corkum of Lawrencetown, given on primary work in the first four grades. This address was of great value to other experienced teachers present as well as to the inexperienced. Principal Bush took an active part in discussion and did everything possible to make the Institute a success. Fifty-four teachers were in attendance.

On Monday an Institute was held in the Bridgetown High School attended by fifty teachers. Lessons were taught in primary work by Miss Evelyn Beattie and Miss Beryl Hayden, the former taking word drill and reading and the latter arithmetic. Miss Muriel Miller taught intermediate arithmetic. Annapolis Royal staff of teachers was present and took an interesting part in the discussions. Principal Archibald of the Bridgetown High School participated and made many helpful suggestions. Prof. L. A. DeWolfe, Director of Rural Science and Editor of Junior Geography, present at Mr. Foster's request and gave an interesting talk on this book. The book in question is very favorably regarded by teachers generally and shows an up to dateness not exhibited in Geographical books in use in N. S. for a long period of years.

The Bear River Institute was held on Tuesday and was attended by 35 teachers. Visits were made to the room of Principal Wright who taught a lesson on the Geography of N. S., while Prof. DeWolfe took up Junior Geography and other work. Miss Withrow taught a lesson in Primary Arithmetic and Miss Henry a Nature lesson and its correlation with English and drawing. At Weymouth on Friday the concluding Institute attended by 50 teachers was held. The teachers present were quite largely those from the district of Clare where as the school problem is different from other parts of the district in respect that these schools are bi-lingual. Miss Lucie LeBlanc principal of Concessions school spoke interestingly on the teaching of

EDITORIAL

OVERHEAD EXPENSES TOO HIGH.

Mr. J. A. Banfield, of Winnipeg, and an old Quebecer, now President of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, who has been in Ottawa for the annual meeting of the Association takes the ground, says the Quebec Telegraph, that there is no reason for calamity in this country, and deplorable the gloomy spirit which he finds prevailing in portions of the East. He declares that the basis of profit for the retail merchants is on a par with what it was in 1912, but that the overhead expenses has increased from 40 to 50 per cent. Merchants are suffering from too much style, he remarked sententiously, and quoted as an instance the boot and shoe trade. Manufacturers keep on inventing new styles, which the public was quick to adopt. The consequence was that merchants became stocked up with goods that were almost unsalable. A Hamilton exchange with whose views on the subject the Telegraph is in accord, says that Mr. Banfield has undoubtedly put his finger on a potent source of trouble. The policy which he deplors might be all right for the manufacturers, keenly competing amongst themselves for novelties, but it is unquestionably bad for merchants and for the consuming public. The era of extravagance following the war has left its wake and made conditions doubly difficult for stable trading. People have been educated into buying only the very latest fad in clothing. Unless it is the "dernier cri," it is taboo. So long as prosperity was abounding and all had plenty of money to gratify their whims, no doubt this hectic flight after fashion was conducive to a quicker and larger turnover. But conditions have changed; the movement of goods is not so rapid as it was, and the accumulation of stocks is a serious matter for the retailers. After all, the remedy lies as much with the public as with the manufacturers. If the latter cannot be persuaded to content themselves with the production of stable, conservative lines, customers at least, are at liberty to exercise their discretion. It stands to reason that what is good for the merchants is, in the long run, good for the manufacturer, and it is certainly best for the pocket-book of the purchaser that fashion should not be too frequently or too violently changed. There is no doubt about the justice of Mr. Banfield's charge. Not merely the merchants, but the public at large is suffering adversely from "too much style." There is need for revision of prevailing ideas as to what is "good for trade."—(Recorder).

HOPE FOR THE BEST.

London Daily News: The great implement (Daves plan) through which economic salvation is sought is admittedly extraordinarily complicated, and must be liable, like all very intricate delicate machinery, to complete interruption by relatively very trivial causes. It is rather like setting up this delicate machine, extraordinarily susceptible to the least atmospheric disturbance, to work in a chamber charged with all sorts of explosive gases, and hoping first that the gases will not really reflect it, and secondly that no one will strike a match. It is impossible to wonder that such a recipe for peace excites in many quarters, even allowing for the enormously important facts that America has at last been persuaded to take a hand and France and Germany to shake hands, almost a much anxiety as hope.

THE TRUCULENT PACIFIST.

Le Temps (Paris): We should not forget that those who really and truly wish to assist in the maintenance of the peace which France has deserved by a miracle of self-denial and sacrifice, must first aim at the establishment of peace among the French people themselves, who, more than ever, are in need of civic unity and national concord that they may reach an end of the innumerable difficulties which are being multiplied beneath their feet by a situation of ever-growing perplexity. Yet too often we see pacifists casting anathemas at their fellow-citizens, reviving the old, barren, inflammatory issues, which we had thought long ago settled and forgotten, appealing to evil passions and raising the cry of "Peace for ever" with an angry demeanor, as though they wished to start a quarrel with this curious manoeuvre with their more honorable compatriots.

SPELLBINDERS WARNED.

Providence Journal: Spellbinders should be cautioned against rushing the radio. When, the other evening, thousands of families heard Mr. Davison accept his nomination, all the Republican families got mad, although Democratic family circles may have rejoiced. A whole lot of non-partisan listeners in wanted bedtime stories. "I am particularly straid of the small boy and girl and their comments under these conditions," says the wary Mr. Butler. He may well be. The radio is serving for the first time in a national campaign. The public menace is that under the impulse of partisan zeal, animated as a child with a new toy, it will be sadly abused.

SETTING A PRECEDENT.

London Express: No Colonial Secretary can possibly bring full efficiency to his task who is in ignorance of the aspirations and opinions—yes, and the grievances—of the Dominions and Colonies under his charge. For this reason the Daily Express welcomes the visit of Mr. Thomas to South Africa. It should be followed, as occasion permits, by visits to the remaining lands of the Empire. In future no Prime Minister should appoint to his Cabinet as Colonial Secretary a man who has not made such personal acquaintance with Imperial conditions. Mr. Thomas makes a beginning. It is also a beginning by the Labor Government of a realization of the full meaning of Empire?

THE CARTWHEEL RETURNS.

Boston Globe: Announcement from the Treasury Department in Washington that the "cartwheel" silver dollar of a generation ago is to be returned to circulation, because of the expense of keeping paper dollars in condition, is like to cause the tailors no little work. For the silver "cartwheel" had a strange faculty of wearing holes in pockets, even though the time during which each of these silver disks abided with one was brief.

THE GOLDEN RULE IN DAILY LIFE.

London Daily Herald: The knowledge that helps us to be wise and kind and helpful is simple and easy to find. It can be found in books which almost all households possess, which can be bought very cheaply. They contain wisdom which many learned people never have and never will possess. It is not intellectual co-operation we need so much as mutual tolerance and generosity, the effort to look at everything from the other fellow's point of view.

REMEMBER THE TITANIC.

Columbus State Journal: Man's mastery of the elements is now complete, if nothing happens.

THE CHARIOT OF STATE.

Savannah News: Nobody can say nay to the proposition that it requires horse sense for a stable government.

HARPLY "PROSPEROUS."

Wall Street Journal: Farmers expect a prosperous year in spite of drought, insects, frost, crop experts and political affairs.

WHAT'S A PROGRESSIVE.

Baltimore Sun: A genuine Conservative is a man who thinks the West rather impudent to lift its voice concerning political matters.

WOMAN MINISTER ATTACKS OWN SEX.

British Cleric Asserts Most Modern Feminists Are Unfit For Home-Making.

Urges Serious Study of Job.

London—England has been given the spectacle of the modern woman attacking the modern woman—or Britain's first woman Minister Miss Margaret Bondfield, criticising the attitude of many modern women to the home. She utters what she describes as "a very strong indictment" against the most vocal section of modern womanhood. "This section appears to think," she declares, "that to be an architect or a doctor is to be something superior to the homemaker." "The fact of the matter is" she continues, "that a large number of women are not fit to be homemakers because they have never addressed their minds to it as a vocation. They have regarded it as merely an opportunity to satisfy instinctive cravings, to express themselves, and to have a husband who will give them a good time." Miss Bondfield is another sort of feminist whose premise is that progress depends far more on women than men, and that this responsibility challenges women to make homemaking the greatest job of all, one requiring "the greatest intellectual effort and the most sustained service—the infinite capacity for taking pains which amounts to genius."

"I have very little patience," she says, "with the woman who wants to leave husband and children to the care of paid workers, while she herself seeks outside work because it is more intellectual."

OBITUARY.

Mrs. (Rev.) R. M. Jost.

A dispatch from Louisburg, C. B., this morning conveyed the depressing news of the death of Nellie, wife of Rev. R. M. Jost. She had been ill for some months past and last spring at the Sydney, C. B. Hospital underwent a severe operation. Following that Mrs. Jost failed to improve and as her symptoms showed a decline she, accompanied by Mr. Jost, went to Boston for special treatment. There it was found another operation was necessary, but owing to the advanced state of her trouble Mrs. Jost received little or no benefit. En route to Louisburg Mr. and Mrs. Jost spent a week or so at their cottage at Markland. At that time her condition, for her family and host of friends, was most discouraging, consequently, the deplorable news received this morning was not unexpected.

Mrs. Jost was a native of Truro. She was formerly Miss Nellie Tupper and previous to her marriage to Mr. Jost had always resided in that town. Following their marriage Mr. Jost was on various Methodist circuits until about twenty years ago he took charge of churches on the Acadia circuit. After that Mr. Jost was a resident of Acadia or Yarmouth until a year ago when he went to Louisburg to take charge of the church in that town. In those several circuits and during their sojourn here Mrs. Jost made a host of friends who will be grieved to hear of her passing. She was always a devoted worker of the church wherever her husband was stationed, and her interest in his work was untiring. Mrs. Jost also possessed a ready gift as an organizer and in that respect was always of great assistance in the development of the work of her beloved church. Particularly did she show a keen interest in the young people's organizations and it can be said that through her kindly influences the destinies of many have been directed along the levels of the highest ideals.

Mrs. Jost was about 50 years of age and besides her husband leaves one son, Archibald, of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff, Yarmouth; and two daughters, Misses Dorothy, of the nursing staff of the New England Baptist Hospital, Brookline, Mass., but now at home; and Eleanor, also at home; also several brothers and sisters in the United States.—Yarmouth Herald.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Restored to Health By Taking "Fruit-a-lives"

Made of Fruit Juices and Tonics

The most convincing proof of the true worth of "Fruit-a-lives" as a medicine for women is found in the letters written by them to "Fruit-a-lives". For instance:

"I suffered with all the symptoms of female trouble, pains low down in the back and sides, constipation and constant headache. A doctor advised an operation. I started taking "Fruit-a-lives" and this fruit medicine completely relieved me of all my misery."

WASTE AND NEGLECT OF EXPERT ADVICE COST CANADA HUGE SUM IN WAR SAYS SIR ARTHUR CURRIE

Montreal.—That neglect of expert advice and Government waste has resulted during the war in a loss of one hundred and fifty million dollars, while the Government had sent to England one hundred thousand men who were unfit for service and were a dead loss to Canada, was the startling pronouncement of Sir Arthur Currie, late commander of the Canadian corps in France, in an address here last evening. Many of the men who were unfit were now in hospitals, a considerable proportion of them never having been in France, he said. Sir Arthur continued: "The expert medical advice which was available was apparently in many cases ignored. "Expert advice at the beginning of the war said that the Ross rifle was no good, and it was not; yet succeeding units came over to us armed with the Ross rifle. "Expert advice said the harness we had was not of the right kind yet succeeding units came out with it. "Expert advice said that the Oliver equipment was not suitable and yet unit after unit came over equipped with the Oliver equipment." Sir Arthur denounced political "blackmail," where sectional interests, superseded national and where governments had too often behind them "the threatening and sinister power of the prejudiced vote."

Canadian Pacific gross earnings for July totalled $14,888,877, against $15,677,835 for the same month last year, a decrease of $789,159. But in order to meet this reduction, operating expenses were reduced by $1,968,686, thus for the month being $12,544,115, as compared with $13,507,802 for July, 1923. Thus the net earnings for the month showed an increase of $269,527 over those of the same month a year ago. For the 7 months of the year to July 30 gross earnings showed an increase of $3,017,265; operating expenses an increase of $1,924,018 and net earnings an increase of $1,093,251.

Here and There

More than one hundred and fifty traders from the Far North arrived in Edmonton, Alta., recently bringing with them fur sales to the value of approximately $500,000.

Tarzan Second, the largest wooden scow in the world, was launched recently at the Wallace shipyards, Vancouver, B.C. She is 1,000 tons burden and has 300,000 feet of British Columbia lumber in her make-up. The scow is to be used as a carrier for a great pile-driver for Sydney E. Jenkins Company.

Two dinosaurs have been located in the Red Deer Valley, Alta., near the Canadian Pacific Railway line this summer, by the University of Toronto expedition, composed of four scientists who prospected for several weeks in the gorge and are packing up the prehistoric monsters for shipment to the Royal Ontario Museum. Another skeleton has been located by the Geological Survey of Canada.

One of the outstanding features of Canadian trade with the Orient during the past year or so has been the remarkable increase in wheat flour exports. Imports of Canadian wheat flour into Hong Kong in 1923 were the largest on record, showing an increase of 100 per cent in volume over those of 1922. The figures and values were: 1922, 79,585 barrels, valued at $126,060; 1923, 151,821 barrels, valued at $249,044.

Zane Grey, the famous novelist, recently caught a 750 pound tuna fish, constituting what is believed to be a world's record. The sea monster was successfully captured after three hours and ten minutes of grilling endeavor off the Nova Scotia coast, and towed into Liverpool harbor. Mr. Grey's prize is a species of the blue fin family. The record before this catch was held by J. E. L. Ross, the well-known Montreal sportsman and financier, who caught a 710 pound tuna.

One of the most remarkable achievements in art printing yet produced in Canada and one which finally disposes of the idea that such work cannot be satisfactorily handled by Canadian firms is found in the new booklet issued by the Canadian Pacific Railway dealing with the forthcoming 1925 Round the World cruise of the company's steamship "Empress of France." The booklet contains 40 pages of text and color illustrations, the latter exquisitely combining many brilliant hues in a number of highly imaginative designs.

Canadian Pacific gross earnings for July totalled $14,888,877, against $15,677,835 for the same month last year, a decrease of $789,159. But in order to meet this reduction, operating expenses were reduced by $1,968,686, thus for the month being $12,544,115, as compared with $13,507,802 for July, 1923. Thus the net earnings for the month showed an increase of $269,527 over those of the same month a year ago. For the 7 months of the year to July 30 gross earnings showed an increase of $3,017,265; operating expenses an increase of $1,924,018 and net earnings an increase of $1,093,251.

TRY TO STOP TROUT PREYING ON SALMON EGGS NEAR ALASKA.

Anchorage, Alaska.—Under a plan adopted by the United States bureau of fisheries, it is hoped to increase the salmon pack of the Cook Inlet section of Alaska from 200,000 cases in recent seasons to 500,000 within the next few years.

According to William Studert, in charge of salmon protection, the depletion of salmon in southwestern Alaska has been due to failure to conserve the spawning grounds as to over-fishing. Mr. Studert declared the greatest enemy to the salmon were Dolly Varden trout, which preyed on the eggs in the spawning grounds up streams and caught the salmon minnows before they could swim to safety.

"One trout," he said, "captured in a stream while the salmon fry were traveling to the ocean revealed 70 odd fry in its intestines. To stop these inroads we have decided to destroy the trout."

Surveys are being made of every stream used by salmon to reach spawning grounds in the lakes. The streams are being cleared of obstructions and made navigable for the salmon. The lakes will be sealed and the trout transferred to lakes not used by salmon.

An Irishman escaped from prison through a tunnel which he had constructed secretly.

After two days of freedom the fugitive was captured, and asked to explain how he had done with all the soil he removed in building the tunnel. Fearing to incriminate any of his accomplices, he replied: "You see, it was like this—I dug another hole and hid everything that came out of the tunnel."

AUTO KILLS DEER AND IS DITCHED.
Amherst.—A motor party from Sydney, en route to Boston, had a narrow escape on Monday evening when passing along the Wallace Bay Road near the Graham Farm. A deer sprang out of the bushes at the roadside and dashed probably by the brilliant lights, stood in the middle of the road. The car was travelling at a high rate of speed, struck the deer, killing it instantly and then took the ditch. One of the occupants was thrown a distance of 20 feet but beyond a shaking up no one was seriously injured. Three wheels of the car were shattered. Repairs were made at the Pusswash Garage and the party resumed their journey on Tuesday.

MOON NO EFFECT ON THE WEATHER.

Sir Frederick Stupart, Superintendent of the Meteorological Service of Canada and Director of the Magnetic Observatory at Toronto, was in Halifax last week.

Asked if the Moon did actually have any effect upon the weather, Sir Frederick said: "We believe it has no effect whatever."

This certainly is much against the old-time theory of belief that the Earth's climate is very considerably controlled or affected by the phases and position of our attendant satellite—the Moon.

GOLD MINING IN NOVA SCOTIA.

Prospects of a Revival of the Industry (Canadian Mining Journal.)

That Nova Scotia is a great mineral country and should be developed, is the expressed opinion of Edward A. Patterson, a prominent Mining Engineer of London, who at the request of Premier Armstrong visited the Province and made special inquiry into the possibilities of gold mining under the new impetus of arsenical ores. In his opinion there is no reason why mining cannot pay if practical methods are followed. Those now in use are fifty years behind the times. A better policy, one that shows that the government means business, must be adopted. To allow people to hold large claims indefinitely without any work of development is tying up the industry.

Mr. Armstrong, while in Britain, was most active in interesting capital in the mineral resources of Nova Scotia, and to a large degree he succeeded in causing British investors to inquire into the facilities and policy under which the mineral is developed. "As I find it the policy is not attractive to the investor. By that I mean that the system of allowing people to hold leases indefinitely and not force them to develop these claims or release them from their responsibilities, is preventing others from taking hold and making them pay. This is the first difficulty in the way." The natural obstacles which have to be overcome are not nearly so great as in British Columbia and Ontario and there are advantages of seaboard which these Provinces do not possess. But the people must have greater faith in their Province, if it is to go ahead.

Gold mining has not succeeded in the past because of the lack of practical and highly scientific methods. He compared Nova Scotia to the Transvaal and said that the South African gold fields were not rich because they had enormous leads, for they had not, but because small leads were scientifically and technically developed—a thing never attempted in Nova Scotia.

The government will assist by opening up a model mine, by the use of expert engineers who would advise and by other means not necessarily financial.

Asked as to what he thought of the arsenical feature of gold mining in Nova Scotia, Mr. Patterson said, "The time will come when the government might very well render assistance to the mining development of the province by considering some practical aid toward the establishment of a reduction work commensurate with the proved amount of arsenical ore available. At present it may be a little too early, but that phase can be very carefully considered."

In conclusion, Mr. Patterson said, "There is no reason these mines in Nova Scotia cannot pay, if you go about it in the manner in which it has been done in the Transvaal and take up the proper methods of treating ore. Combine this with sympathetic government assistance. I do not mean financial assistance, but the government can assist in many ways such as I have already mentioned and by the furnishing of water power when practicable; all this with the co-operation of real mining engineers. There is a very bright future for the province in the development of its mineral resources. This is in accord with the paper published by Sir Stophard Brunton in the Canadian Mining Journal Society of Nova Scotia recently and his other writings and speeches on this subject."

NEW U. S. DRIVE ON TO CAPTURE BRITISH AUTOMOBILE TRADE.

Tax on Horsepower is Last Bar Americans Must Overcome to Conquer Market.

English Machines Cost Tremendous Price.

Ideal Country For Motoring, But Parking And Garage Facilities Are Lacking.

London.—The removal of the duty on foreign automobiles has cleared the track for the last drive by which the cheap American car can capture the British market. That drive is against the system by which automobiles are taxed nearly $5 per horsepower, which works out, for example, to more than $100 a year for the owner of a Ford.

The fight on the horsepower tax has been waged unsuccessfully for years. The great thing to be said in its favor is the revenue it produces, about $65,000,000 a year, and there is some difficulty in finding an equitable substitute. The chief suggestion is a tax on gasoline, but this would be more cumbersome to collect and easier to evade.

American car makers are now using new tactics in their campaign to flood the British market. Henry Ford has announced that he will build a great London factory, employing 10,000 men and turning out 500 cars a day and paying a minimum wage of 75 cents an hour—if the tax system is altered. Other American manufacturers would undoubtedly follow his lead on the same conditions. For it is behind the horsepower tax more than behind the tariff wall of the McKenna duties, that the British manufacturers have repulsed the American invasion.

Price Figures Compared.

A British average-price car will have a horsepower of from eight to fourteen, as against the American's twenty or thirty. Right from the start the British car costs $60 to $80 a year less to operate. The British manufacturer builds a motor which consumes less gasoline than the American. It is nothing for a British car to do thirty-five miles per gallon. Gasoline costs about 45 cents a gallon, so the saving matters. But the price of the British car is from $1000 to $1500, from double to treble the price of an American car of the same general specifications.

But despite their disadvantage of greater gasoline consumption, the American cars, if relieved from the horsepower tax would have easy going in dominating the British market. England is a hilly country, and the American car is a better hill climber. The Americans know more about standardization, and can organize a better distribution of parts, which makes repair easier and cheaper. And once the Americans are here in full force, they can institute the purchase by instalments, which is not widely practiced by British makers.

Country Ideal For Touring.

America has four times as many cars per capita as Great Britain, and yet Great Britain is a much more ideal motor country. The national and local authorities between them spend $200,000,000 a year on roads, and the results, from the motorist's standpoint, are glorious. The country is spider-webbed with the most complete system of highways and byways in the world. The weather is touring weather the year around, making a car a twelve-month investment.

Unquestionably, in ten years, motors will be as numerous, relatively, as in America, and some one is going to reap the business. Will it be the British themselves? The Americans think not, and their hopes to capture the market are certainly strengthened by the fate of the British automobile manufacturers since the armistice. The only British company to pay dividends consistently has been Rolls-Royce, which manufacturers only for those who can afford a $10,000 car.

The companies making cars which were expected to be popular have all been in trouble, and only recently, the largest combine in Great Britain dashed spectacularly on the rocks. At the last annual meeting the stockholders were advised to liquidate and were told that they would probably not get a penny for their $30,000,000 investment.

Multitude of Motorcycles.

Hitherto the motorcar has been a rich man's luxury and the Englishman wanted to move faster than a bicycle on a country road he either bought a motorcar or bought a motorcycle. One encounters more motorcycles in the country than automobiles, although the price of almost any standard make, side-car included, is more than a cheap American car. A man with an income less than $5000 does not think of owning his own car, but with barriers removed against the American invasion it is supposed that men with incomes as low as $2000 will go in for motoring.

But before the entire British population can theoretically be loaded simultaneously in automobiles, as is the case with such States as Iowa and California, the British have much to learn about providing for the man who "drives his own." The chief lack today are parking and garage facilities. London streets are too narrow even for taxi-ranks, let alone the thousands of cars of driver-owners. Total parking space in the downtown area would probably not hold a thousand cars. This means that before any great increase of sales can be expected provision must be made for garage room, and on a large scale.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON FORESTRY.

Q.—How does the summer of 1924 compare with previous years for forest fire losses in Canada?

A.—Most favorably. The national timber loss this year has been extraordinarily small, although some sections suffered badly in the earlier months. Credit is due to the moist weather, increased vigilance by the forest services and greater care by the general public.

Q.—Is it better to set out a tree plantation in the Spring or in the Fall?

A.—Spring is the better season. The Ontario Forestry Branch says: "Fall planting is sometimes done between the middle of August and the middle of September, but will only be successful when the soil is moist well below the root systems of the young trees. Trees planted in the Fall are frequently injured by heaving and where there is no snow cover, suffer considerably from exposure. On low or very wet fields planting may be done only in the autumn."

Q.—Are our Canadian lumbermen doing enough reforestation to assure a future timber supply?

A.—Hundreds are asking the question, but it is the wrong question. The future of the forests depends chiefly on fire prevention and that is primarily the job of eight million Canadian citizens who cause the fires. Dr. Clifton D. Howe, one of the sanest Canadian authorities on forestry never fails to tell his audience that Canada's biggest job is not to plant baby trees, but to guard from devastation the fifty million acres of young forests now growing. It is that fifty million acres that Canada will have to depend upon for the future timber supply.

RATES STRUCTURE OBSOLETE, SAYS MINISTER.

Vancouver.—The freight rate structure of Canada is obsolete; it must be thrown into the melting pot and completely recast, for Canada must be divided into two transportation slopes, the East and the West, and the railways must work for the people," stated Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, in an address before the Lawyers' Club here.

Dr. King declared that for many years the railways had been working on a policy of expediency. Instead of rates being worked out on an economic and scientific basis, they had simply been altered from time to time by adding or subtracting to or from the original tariff as recurrent circumstances dictated. Today no one knew where they were.

COSTLIEST IN LAW HISTORY OF DOMINION.

Total Costs to Country Estimated Close to $200,000, Eight Trials in All.

Toronto.—Costliest trial in the history of Canada—such is the prediction of legal experts in regard to the succession of Home Bank cases now under way.

Conservative estimates are that the trials will cost between $150,000 and $200,000. There are, in reality, eight trials, for each of the directors and officers accused is to face the charges against him separately.

"I would say that the fees of counsel would average about $200 each per day" was the statement of a member of the legal profession. There are some eighty witnesses, coming from Vancouver to Montreal, and their expenses will be heavy. The local witnesses are allowed $1.60 a day, but mileage at the rate of 20 cents a mile is allowed as expenses to witnesses from out of town.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT HARMONY

At about 5.30 on Monday morning a fire was discovered in the barn of Mr. Whitfield Robart, which resulted in the destruction of the barn, the dwelling-house and practically all their contents. The family were in bed when the outbreak was discovered, and some of them had to make their escape in their sleeping attire. A number of horses, cows, calves and pigs were in the barn, and nearly all of them perished. It is a mystery how the fire originated, and cannot be accounted for, except on the possibility that a tramp may have been sleeping in the hay and for some purpose lighted a match. It is reported that there is some insurance on the buildings.

 English and emphasized the value of teaching through objects and the learning of language direct instead of through the medium of translation.
 Miss Annie Leary, Principal of Weymouth North School taught a lesson on Primary Arithmetic. Miss Adele Comeau, Primary teacher at Comeauville, taught a lesson on number work. The bi-lingual problem with primary pupils was also discussed. In all there were nearly 240 teachers present at the various institutes held through Inspector Foster's district, a practically 100 per cent. attendance. Discussion was animated and the gatherings were all highly successful. The small institutes instead of one large central one, had the effect of getting a full attendance, greater opportunity to discuss and undertake school problems. Being held this way at the opening of the term it gave Inspector Foster an opportunity to meet his teachers thus early and discuss problems with them and offer suggestions as required.
 Inspector Foster is to be highly commended in the success which attended his arrangement of the programmes, time lay out, etc., and the teachers are to be complimented for their hearty and enthusiastic co-operation in the work, the whole result being stimulating and helpful to all the school staffs in the district. The presence of Prof. L. A. DeWolfe always popular and helpful was highly appreciated.

DAWN OF WOMANHOOD
 A Time of Difficulties When Watchfulness is Needed.
 Some girls upon the threshold of womanhood drift into a decline in spite of all care and attention. Even strong and usually lively girls become weak, depressed and irritable, and listless. It is the dawn of womanhood—most important in the life of every girl—and prompt measures should be taken to keep the blood rich and pure. If your blood is not in a healthy condition at this stage, the body becomes ill-nourished and other ailments develop. If the health is not maintained by a sufficiency of rich red blood, all sorts of weaknesses are likely to arise. Remember this, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have saved thousands of girls and women from being life-long invalids, because of their wonderful blood-making properties. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to young women whose health was failing has been proved over and over again. These pills are the most reliable blood builder, fortifying weak nerves and creating the liberal supply of red healthy blood which a girl needs to sustain her strength. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LIGHTNING DELAYS BLOSSOMING IN APPLE TREE.

Ye editor's usual Monday morning "blues" did not materialize this week. It was developing well along to maturity, however, but was promptly nipped in the bud, so to speak, when into our sanctum walked Mike Bent, fairly staggering under the weight of a huge bouquet which, when he laid it down, completely covered our massive desk. The floral offering was nothing less than an armful of beautiful pink and white apple blossoms, such as are common enough around the latter part of May or the beginning of June, but rarely seen in September. The mystery was explained when Mike imparted the information that one of his promising young apple trees had been struck by lightning early in the spring. The tree, in consequence, had produced no fruit this season, but during the last few days, as though to atone for its delinquency had blossomed forth into a profusion of exquisite bloom.—Berwick Register.

GATE RECEIPTS OF CAMP MEETING LARGEST IN HISTORY.

The Executive Committee of the Berwick Camp Meeting Association was in session here last Thursday. Those present from outside the town were Rev. A. B. Higgins, Hantsport, President; Rev. B. J. Porter, Truro, first Vice-Pres.; W. K. Sterling, Hantsport, second Vice-Pres.; and Rev. W. Harry Rackham, Lawrenceton, Secretary-Treasurer. The local members were B. H. Lee, third Vice-Pres.; R. S. Spicer and Rev. A. R. Reynolds, Supt. of Public Worship.

The Secretary-Treasurer reported the financial results of the Camp Meeting of this year as being most satisfactory. The gate receipts were the largest in the history of the association. The condition of the property was given careful consideration and provision made for necessary improvements. Plans were also made for the Camp Meeting of August, 1925.—Berwick Register.

LITTLE ESKIMOS GOBBLE CLAMS FROM WALES' STOMACH EAGERLY AS WHITES CALL FOR ICE CREAM

Among the Polar Eskimos there is an entire absence of those ferocious crimes which often bring the southern natives into collision with the Canadian law and the Northwest Mounted Police, according to Dr. MacMillan.

Owing to the normal surplus of men in the tribes, the women are frequently "swapped" as wives and in some cases two men enter into a partnership to support one wife. But strange to say, this condition seems to cause very little trouble. MacMillan says he has known of but one case where death resulted and this was a young man who tried to make himself the Don Juan of a whole tribe. The men shot him and turned him adrift in his kayak.

He attributes the ferocious crimes of the southern Eskimo to their contact with civilization, and the peacefulness of the Polar tribe to their remoteness from white men. About the only modern vice the Polar people have is a fondness for tobacco. They also like coffee which was introduced by the Danes.

They possess firearms, but of the oldest breech-loading type.

Before coming home, the explorers presented their Eskimo guides and drivers with flour, biscuit coffee and other supplies, including tents, and also gave each man a modern Mauser rifle and 1,000 rounds of ammunition apiece.

Dr. MacMillan is chock full of amusing anecdotes about the Eskimos. For instance, although they roam, they roam only within certain limits and to certain settlements of their people. For hears, they go to Cape York; for deer and walrus to Etah; for ducks eggs to Littleton Island; and various other Polar delicacies are obtained at other points.

One of the strangest sights, however, is to see them surprise and kill a walrus which has been digging clams. The mouth of the animal is so built that he shells the clams just as we do peanuts, spitting out the shells and swallowing the clams.

When the natives think he is full, they kill him, take out the stomach, split it open and then sit round a circle dipping out the fresh clams from the stomach to the children, who eat them as greedily as little whites gobble up ice cream.

Dr. MacMillan says his party obtained some clams in this way and they made an excellent chowder.

EVERY INDUSTRY IS PROSPERING

Brilliant Economic Revival Which began in France in 1922 Continues.

London.—Striking details of the brilliant economic revival in France, which began in 1922, are given in an official report by Mr. J. R. Cahill, commercial counsellor to the British Embassy in Paris, which is issued by the Department of Overseas Trade.

"The entire population of France continues in full employment," says Mr. Cahill, "and her production has been consistently retarded by the dearth of labor.

"Reconstruction of the devastated areas, for the purpose of industrial output, may be said to be terminated. The damaged or destroyed mines, which yielded 1,500 tons in January 1919, yielded last May more than 1,200,000 tons, and the total output of the area will soon exceed the pre-war figure."

The same tale of prosperity is told of nearly every other industry—woolens, cotton, jute, metallurgical, engineering, ore mining, potash, chemicals, silk, lace, motor-cars, dye, etc.

FOR JOY OF GOOD HEALTH

Manitoba Woman Thanks Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Crandall, Manitoba.—"When I was a young girl at home and working I had terrible pains, almost more than I could bear, and I was not regular. These troubles kept me so tired all the time that I had no strength and no ambition to join in with my friends and have a good time. I was just tired and miserable always and life just seemed as if it was not worth living. I saw so much in the papers about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then I had a friend who had taken it and told me about it, so I got some. Every month after taking it I got stronger and I soon did not suffer every month. It stopped the pains and helped me in other ways. Then when my babies were coming I was tired and worn out the first three months and ached badly. I took the Vegetable Compound and right away it made a new woman of me and able to do my work, and it helped me through confinement. You see I am a farmer's wife with a big house to look after, and three babies now. I have told ever so many women about your medicine. Just last week I got a letter from my old chum in the East. Her baby was born fifteen days before mine and she told me she was not feeling very well, her back aches so much, and that she is going to take the same medicine I took. You can use my letter and I hope some one will be helped by it."—Mrs. Jos. H. Kidd, Box 56, Crandall, Manitoba. C

LAW SUIT POSSIBILITIES.

(From Canadian Forest and Outdoors Magazine.)

Recently a firm of lumber manufacturers in British Columbia was mulcted to the extent of several hundred thousand dollars for damages caused by a forest fire which, starting outside their boundaries, passed across their limits and destroyed a soldiers' settlement. The defence claimed they were not responsible as the fire originated off their property and every effort to block it proved unavailing. The court held otherwise.

Now comes a news despatch from Duncan, B. C., intimating that settlers plan to take action claiming damages for forest fires originating in the burning of logging debris.

This introduces a new problem, which, however, contains possibilities not altogether favorable to the settler, camper, cottage owner, or other small property holder. Only a few weeks ago a California court delivered a judgment, imposing the entire costs of fire fighting, amounting to $2,500, on a pair of amateur fishermen whose negligence had caused a difficult conflagration. If the assessing of costs on lumber companies is adjoined good law and in the public interest, the logical development surely is to apply the same medicine in liberal doses to those who, by their settlers, campers, fishermen, or other property of the industrial corporations. It is to be feared that the total damages listed against the settler, for example, will far outmatch in any season the billet d'oux handed to the lumberman. A few seasons ago a settler, clearing land by fire in order to grow five dollars worth of potatoes, let loose destructive forces that swept away a half million dollars worth of white and red pine. Three years ago in New Brunswick, fishermen accounted for almost half the timber loss. What about damage suits in these instances? What about a joint suit of provincial government and limit holders against, say, two hundred fishing parties to recover three million dollars worth of ruined resources?

The thing has great possibilities. It would certainly bring home to the public the drastic truth that forest destruction is due not to the axe but to the ignorance and thoughtlessness of thousands of woods travellers. Let's have a docket full of law suits: The King vs Sans Souci Campers' Club for $550,000 worth of young growth destroyed by carelessness; B. V. D. Lumber Company vs. Richard Roe, champion bait caster, for $20,000 worth of pulp loss set afire; The Pulp and Paper Workers' Union vs. John Doe, prospector, for ten weeks unemployment because of low water due to forest fires. It would make a stimulating document if we could once place the blame for forest fire and ask the carefree children of our Personal Liberty regime to show cause why they should not pay to the State and industrial companies a forfeit of $15,000,000 annually.

CANADIAN GOVT FINANCING.

Ninety Million Treasury Gold Notes Sold to New York Firm.

Ottawa—The Canadian Government is announced, has sold to the Chase Securities Corporation and Bayer and Company, of New York City, $90,000,000 one year four per cent. treasury gold notes due September 15th, 1925, the proceeds of which are to be used in connection with the retirement of maturing treasury bills exceeding the amount of the new issue.

The treasury bills were, it is understood, taken over at par. They form part of the $200,000,000, approximately, of obligations coming due this year. These consist of Victory Bonds, amounting to $107,000,000, which fall due on November 1st, and $93,000,000 of treasury bills.

The balance between the ninety million dollars sold today and the ninety one million dollars of treasury bills maturing will be met out of cash.

A domestic loan will, it is expected, be floated to meet the maturing $100,000,000 victory loan. Final decision in this regard has, however, not been reached.

The maturing treasury bills bore interest at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent. In today's sale, therefore, the Dominion Government will gain in interest rate to the extent of one and one quarter per cent. Maturing bonds bear an interest rate of 5 1/2 per cent.

'NORTHLAND' CARRIED 25,000 PASSENGERS.

Yarmouth.—With the departure Wednesday the steamer "Northland" which had been on the Boston-Yarmouth route for the summer months took her last trip for the season. She will be replaced on Thursday by the Prince Arthur, under Captain A. L. McKinnon. The North Land has made a marked success of the season's traffic and has been popular with all the traveling public. Nearly 25,000 passengers have been carried by her since she came on for the summer season. She also had extensive space for carrying automobiles which has been a further inducement for tourist trade as heretofore difficulty has been experienced in obtaining accommodation for cars.

TIDAL FORCE FOR POWER.

The possibility of using the tidal force of the Bay of Fundy for the generation of electric power has long been mooted, although it has hardly reached the experimental stage as yet. But in the Old Country, owing to the increasing cost of coal and lack of big rivers and mountains to furnish water-power, the Government is considering the possibility of utilizing tidal power as a means of generating electricity. The harnessing of the Severn, proposed by Sir Eric Geddes, is being investigated as to its practicability under Philip Snowden, the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

The Severn is the greatest tidal estuary in Great Britain. A barrage below Bristol, only 115 miles from London, would develop 500,000 horse-power, create a lock basin of twenty-seven square miles for shipping, save a fifty mile detour for a heavy road traffic and permit the laying of valuable railroad trackage.

The Snowden committee will report only upon the geological formations which underlie the dam site. The cost of the project, even before the war, was guessed at as $150,000,000. The Severn project is in vastness second only to the proposed power and ship development of the St. Lawrence River by Canada and the United States. The creation of a great hydro-electric development probably would encompass an industrial revolution in the British Isles.—Morning Chronicle

"Well, sir, it looked like I was going to have to give up my job, but Tanlac kept me on the payroll and, of course, I'm strong for it," is the striking statement of Wm. Cranker, 84 Louis St., Brockville, Ont., who for 30 years past has been employed by the Canadian National railroad.

"My stomach went wrong 10 years ago and then I gradually got out of fix in lots of ways. I couldn't eat or sleep to do any good for nervousness and indigestion and had got to where I simply had to drag myself to the railroad yards in the mornings. "I could feel the good effects of my very first few doses of Tanlac clean to my finger-tips. This was two years ago and three bottles put me in such good shape that I have not had to spend a cent for medicine since. I eat and sleep fine, never miss a day's work any more and feel fine. You just can't beat Tanlac."

WINDSOR WAR MEMORIAL.

It was decided that the first step in this direction would be a drive to collect all subscriptions already made.

SAYS RESOURCES BARELY SCRATCHED.

Colonel Hatch, of Ottawa, Stresses
Need of Greater Development.

Ottawa.—The need of developing to the fullest possible extent the natural resources of Canada was emphasized by Col. Arthur L. Hatch, of Hamilton, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, at the Merchants and Manufacturers' Day luncheon of the Ottawa Fair. Col. Hatch pointed out that Canada stood third amongst the countries of the world in great resources.

It possesses half of the forest area of the British Empire. Canada contained 90 per cent. of the cobalt of the world, 80 per cent. of the asbestos, 85 per cent. of the nickel, four per cent. of the gold of the world so far discovered and four per cent. of the copper of the world so far discovered. The mines produced in 1923 $214,000,000 worth of metals and the surface was scarcely scratched, and there was an increase this year of 20 per cent. over last year. Canada stood second in the world in coal deposits. Its waterpower was estimated at 18,000,000 horsepower and $700,000,000 were invested in its development. Canada had splendid transportation necessary for efficient manufacturing. It had 39,773 single miles of steam railways and 1725 miles of electric railways. It operated 5,000 steam and sailing vessels.

Two-thirds of the capital invested in Canadian industries was Canadian capital, showing that Canadians had faith in their own country. Col. Hatch said. Canada had 440,000,000 acres of land fit for cultivation, and only 34,000,000 acres were being cultivated.

SWINE CLUBS MAKING A HIT IN NOVA SCOTIA.

Editor Monitor,
Dear Sir:—

Some time ago I sent you some information regarding the organization of a Boy's and Girl's Swine Club at Lawrenceton and I understand that this appeared in your paper at a later date. Since that time this club which has been the first of its kind in Western Nova Scotia, has been making good progress and the young pigs which each member started off with in the spring are developing into excellent Bacon Hogs.

The members, which consists of seventeen, sons and daughters of farmers in the vicinity of Lawrenceton, have been taking great interest in club work and are looking forward with anticipation to the Club Fair which will be held in the Demonstration Building, Lawrenceton, October 16th. The prizes for pairs of Bacon Hogs are as follows:

- 10 to 15 entries—
- 1st—$10.00; 2nd—$9.00; 3rd—$8.00;
- 4th—$7.00; 5th—$6.00; 6th—$5.00;
- 7th—$4.00; 8th—$3.00; 9th—$2.00;
- 10th—$1.00; and one dollar for each succeeding entry of merit up to 15th prize.

At the same time liberal prizes are given for judging and it is surprising how many of the members have taken to judging of these live hogs. The Club meets each Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. and instruction is given in judging by some member of the Dominion Live Stock branch. The best judges will be picked to represent the Lawrenceton Boy's and Girl's Swine Club as a team to compete against teams from other clubs in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Arrangements are now being made to have the winning team from Inter-Provincial Contest sent to the Royal Fair at Toronto in November. A meeting of Swine Club members and their parents was held at 8 p.m. Thursday the 18th in the Demonstration Building at Lawrenceton.

For your information I might say that we have ten Boy's and Girl's Swine Clubs in Nova Scotia and during the next month some two hundred and fifty pairs of Bacon Hogs will be shown by these members. In places where the membership is of sufficient size the hogs are sold alive and shipped in car lots. This putting the Swine Industry on a more permanent basis.

So much impressed was he with the quality of Nova Scotia apples that he proposes, it possible, to have a kiosk erected at Wembley for the sole purpose of advertising Nova Scotia apples. Mr. DaCosta believes in intensive advertising and his firm is among the foremost in using every possible means of presenting their wares before the public of Great Britain. ## CANADA'S LOAN OF $200,000,000

Spirited Competition in New York For The New Financing.

New York.—Negotiations between the Canadian Government and New York bankers for placing a portion of a Dominion loan in this market were reported underway today. To meet requirements of $200,000,000 for maturing victory bonds and treasury bills, it was indicated that Canada would follow the advice of the New York bankers by floating a long term of internal loan of $100,000,000 and selling an equal amount of short term securities in this market.

Spirited competition for the Canadian financing was said to have developed between two banking groups, one headed by J. P. Morgan and company and the other by the Chase Securities Corporation. The Morgan firm was understood to have advised the Dominion's representative on the general set-up of the loan, recommending certain provisions to ensure the stability of its exchange.

The $100,000,000 Canadian loan sold here in 1922 was underwritten by a banking syndicate headed by J. P. Morgan and Company when the Dominion Government issued its $50,000,000 refunding bond issue last year, however the sale was handled through Dillon Read and Company.

will be a comparatively new field for his firm. Mr. DaCosta thought that the transportation facilities might be improved for the handling of apples from this Province. He suggested that the producer and the transportation companies get closer together and co-operate more thoroughly. He cited the need of this in the shipment of Gravensteins for the English market. In order to secure the highest price these apples should be placed before the consumer in the shortest possible time after being picked. Therefore, Mr. DaCosta advised that the producers of Gravensteins in the Valley should co-operate with the transportation companies in these apples would be picked only a reasonable time before they were to be shipped to Halifax and aboard the ship ready for sailing. This in order to avoid any delay in Halifax. Mr. DaCosta left Halifax yesterday via New York for London.—Chronicle.

PROMINENT BOTANIST VISITING HOME TOWN.

Middleton.—R. R. Gates, Ph. D., F.L.S., one of Nova Scotia's most distinguished sons is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gates, of this town. For the past three years Dr. Gates has been head of the Department of Botany at the University of London. Out side of his university work, Dr. Gates leads a very busy life, and during the past few years he has been closely associated with the advanced biological and botanical work and movements of England, and in connection therewith holds several important positions. He is on the Council of Botanical Gardens in Regent Park, London, is an editor of the British Journal of Experimental Biology, and Secretary of the society. Incidentally during the summer months of the past two years he made extensive travel through Norway and Italy, visiting the lakes and studying vegetation in these countries.

Among Dr. Gates' publications are three books, many articles for magazines and over eighty papers of scientific nature. His last book, Heredity and Eugenics, published by MacMillan & Co. last year, is the result of many years of careful study, experiment, and investigation, and is recognized as the highest authority in the subjects under discussion.

The occasion of Dr. Gates' visit to this country at this time was the annual meeting of the British Association for the advancement of Science, which meets somewhere in the British Empire each year. This year it met in Toronto and was attended by about five hundred delegates. Among the matters discussed were various Canadian problems of industrial, economic, and forestry nature. Dr. Gates was on the program, opening a discussion on Species and Chromosomes.

At the close of the association, Dr. Gates was the guest for four days, of the Government of Ontario, inspecting forest areas, relatives to combating diseases of forest trees, many of which are being destroyed by fungus growths. He then visited Wood's Hole, and St. Andrew's, inspecting the Biological Laboratories at the Marine-stations at these places.

He expects to sail on the 20th of this month to resume his teaching and studies at the University of London.

Mahone Bay.—On July 24th, 1924, Wm. F. Joudrey, Inspector under the N. S. The Inspector, in trying to get a sample for analysis was interfered with by Meisner, and it was only on the third attempt, and after Constable Wawner, who was assisting the Inspector, forcibly restrained Meisner that he succeeded. On his return to Mahone Bay Inspector Joudrey laid an information against Meisner for interference with an officer while in discharge of his duty. Meisner evaded arrest until last week. He was fined $50 and costs $17.55 and in default of payment forthwith two months in jail.

At time of writing he had regained partial consciousness but the full extent of his injuries had not been ascertained.

153 OUNCE GOLD BRICK PRODUCED AT MOLEGA CALEDONIA.

A gold brick weighing 153 oz. was taken last week from the gold mine at Molega, owned and operated by Joseph Lennihan. This is the result of the first clean up since Mr. Lennihan took over the mine last summer. The fifty tons of quartz which yielded the brick was taken from the new lead only recently discovered. There are now two five stamp crushers running at the mine, and eighteen men are employed.

The Heister property at Molega is also showing quartz with a promising show of gold.
Some work of a primitive kind is also going on at the old Whiteburn mine which old settlers believe to be rich in gold. F. M. Forrest with Mr. Giles, of Halifax, has started hand crushing with an idea of proving some quartz lately taken from an old lead.
