WHITE'S CASE GOES OVER UNTIL WEDNESDAY NEXT

Motley Assemblage of Offenders Before Police Court Today --- Good Friday Drunk is Fined $8 --- Several Disorderly Boys Dealt With.

Only three prisoners sat on the bench in the police court this morning. Thomas Murphy admitted being drunk and was fined $4 or 10 days jail.

Archer Reid, for being drunk on Good Friday afternoon, was fined $8. H. Pickett asked that the fine be reduced to $4 so that the prisoner could pay it and slip on the scupper Rooker today. Reid was sent to jail for the present.

Thomas McMaster of Fort Howe, reported by William Connell, aged 17 years, and Frank Crawford, aged 18, for disorderly conduct on March 18th. The case took up considerable time as the complainant accused Connell of drinking out of a bottle, and also stated that the boys yelled Rubber and Hoo, Hoo, Hoo, and that they were simply calling on a boy named Pierce, who lived in the same house as that in which Mr. McMaster resides.

George Lawson, George Smith and Leslie Cox were reported by Officer William Sullivan for shouting, outside the German street Baptist church on the 8th inst., and also for kicking Gilbert Purdy's door. Officer Sullivan stated that the yelling of the youths was disgraceful. They were placed in cells for a few minutes and when they were brought back into court they were badly scared. Judge Ritchie lectured them severely and allowed a fine of $8 to stand against each of them for their future good conduct.

Hebert McGuire, another boy, was charged by Col. White, D. O. C., with disorderly conduct on the Barrack green. Mr. Jones stated that the barrack green had of late become a resort for men and boys, who acted disorderly. Judge Ritchie requested Mr. Jones to report the next man, woman or boy that entered the barrack green without permission.

William Morris, arrested for being drunk and keeping a house of ill fame on Sheffield street, admitted the first count but pleaded not guilty to the second. E. Ritchie appeared for him. Officer McCallum stated that prostitutes resided in the house, and that Morris conducted a beer store there also. The judge, on receiving an affirmative answer to whether or not the shop was licensed, made several comments about such a state of affairs, and added that he hoped that the investigation now on would do some good in that particular.

As officer McCallum desired another witness the case was stood over. Harry B. White, charged with fornication, was brought into court this morning, and on the consent of H. A. McKevon, C. P. Taylor, White was remanded until Wednesday.

Mrs. Goldsmith, wife of the Australian, arrested for being drunk and violently resisting the Carleton police on Wednesday night, asked that her husband be allowed his liberty, as he was the only support of herself and two children. Goldsmith's case will be considered this afternoon.

WHAT WINNIE WON

BY SUSIE WILLIS.

"Now," concluded the Rev. Mr. Kingsley, "I want all of you to do one good deed this week and next Sunday you shall tell me all about it and the one who has done the most good shall wear this beautiful medal for a whole week."

Winnifred stared, fascinated. There was Captain Post, the constable, who wore a medal every day; and Winnie, who had a beautiful gold one representing the bicycle championship of Devon County; but that evening, Winnie Halgren, might wear this glistening decoration for a whole week—her infantile mind refused to grasp the proposition even while she puzzled her brain to think what she might do.

She was still full of the subject when, at the supper table, Mrs. Hartley, mentioning the proverb little pitchers began to gossip about local affairs.

"It's a shame the way Eunice Ellison keeps the minister dangling," she declared. "It would be real charity to put him out of his misery."

There was more of the talk, but this fragment lingered in Winnie's brain. Charity meant doing good. Dangling meant something about hanging. She could not imagine Eunice Ellison hanging the minister, but surely Mrs. Hartley should know, and a great light came upon her. She would induce Eunice to stop hanging the minister and the medal should be hers for a whole week.

It was Thursday, before she found opportunity to visit Eunice and it was with great solemnity that she tolled up the front steps and rang the bell.

Usually she paid her visits informally and came in the back way, but she felt that somehow this was different and to the astonished maid she made the request that she might see Miss Eunice.

Winnie's games were varied and entertaining, and Eunice, supposing that she was playing at calling, entered into the spirit of the occasion and welcomed her guest with due courtesy instead of catching her up and kissing her as was her wont.

"I want you to stop hanging our minister," began Winnie after she had bestowed her chiefly person upon a chair which offered the least violence to her dignity. "I come just about that."

Eunice blushed. "I'm not hanging the minister," she protested. "Whatever gave you the idea?"

"You are so," persisted Winnie. "Mrs. Hartley said it, and I asked Bobby and he said hanging was to hang so that you would."

Eunice frowned and Winnie troubled. Perhaps she too, would be hanged. It must be unpleasant to have when the thought of that glittering badge.

Eunice was at her side in an instant. "I am not hanging the minister, darling," she comforted. There is another meaning to the word not at all like Bobby's interpretation. He is right, dear, I am not hanging Mr. Kingsley."

"Not even?" demanded Winnie. "Not even," she responded, wistfully adding, unconsciously, "He hurts me more by his silence. It only he would speak."

THE DOVE OF PEACE HOVERS OVER ZION

Dowie Likely to Get $1,000,000, Be Reinstated in Power and Then Resign.

Chicago, April 13.—Peaceful settlement of the strife between John Alexander Dowie and those of his followers who recently rebelled under the leadership of Wilbur Glenn Voliva is in sight, according to statements made tonight by the legal adviser of both Dowie and Voliva.

After an all-day conference, Emil C. Wetten, representing Dowie, tonight said: "We are hearing a peaceful solution of this question tonight from what we have been at any stage of the proceedings. We have changed our minds relative to the transfer of the ownership of the property of Zion City by Voliva to Deacon Alexander Grammer to be sold, and will await further developments."

"Dowie, before the transfer, sent Voliva a telegram revoking the power of attorney." According to the contestants, the decision of the court on the validity of the telegraphic revocation of the power of attorney will decide in whom rests the control of Zion City. On this question Attorney Wetten said: "The telegraphic revocation of the power of attorney is absolutely legal, and will stand in any court of law."

At the termination of today's conference, which was participated in by V. V. Warner, legal adviser of Zion City; Jacob Newman, counsel for Voliva, and Attorney Wetten, representing Dowie, Mr. Newman said: "Dowie and his advisers admitted today that we have in our possession documentary evidence to the effect that Dowie and his advisers admit that ninety-five per cent of the property of Zion City belongs to the church, and that five per cent belongs to Dowie. This would give to Dowie $1,000,000, and to the church $10,000,000."

Orate Unharmed Under Steamer. Diver Lahey brought up from the bottom of the C. P. R. berth at Sand Point yesterday a crate of dolls which fell overboard some days ago. It was intact when recovered and from that circumstance it is argued that there is plenty of water at the C. P. R. berth. The crate was being taken ashore from No. 1 hatch of the steamer Lake Champlain when it went into the tide. Since then the steamer has been shifted about so that the point where the crate lay would be about midships of the vessel.

Diver Lahey found the crate ten feet out from the wharf and under the steamer's keel, and it is held that if there was insufficient water at the berth the bilge of the steamer would have crushed the crate. That it did not do so is taken to mean that at all tides there has been more than enough water for the Lake Champlain and she draws about 24 feet.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bailey and R. M. D. Henry, of Woodstock, were registered at the Royal yesterday.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is not really a sickness, but a symptom. It is a symptom that a certain set of nerves is acting. Now the ordinary nerves that enable you to walk and talk and act—but the Automatic Stomach Nerve over which your mind has no control.

Do not have room here to explain how these tender, tiny nerves control and operate the stomach. How they break them down and cause indigestion. How minute wires then send the brain, the stomach, and every trouble through sympathy. I have room to explain how these nerves may be treated and strengthened. I will send you a free book on this subject. It tells how the stomach governs digestion and a telegraphic revocation of the power of attorney will decide in whom rests the control of Zion City. On this question Attorney Wetten said: "The telegraphic revocation of the power of attorney is absolutely legal, and will stand in any court of law."

HARD COAL STRIKE THOUGHT TO BE INEVITABLE NOW

Philadelphia, April 13.—There was but little hope for industrial peace in the anthracite region today among the most interested in the coal situation. One and all seemed convinced that nothing short of an unexpected intervention of some sort can now prevent a coal strike, or rather the declaration on the part of the coming mine workers' convention that a strike exists.

It is regarded as settled according to the general belief in the region that the mine operators have gone as far as they will go. The following was the word which came over the telephone to Scranton from New York today from an important official in one of the largest coal companies to the local office there: "There will be no more compromise. There will be not one jot conceded by the operators. That is definite; that is settled. There will be no more counter-propositions, just a simple refusal to consider the miners' latest proposition."

J. J. Winslow, of Frederick, was registered at the Royal yesterday.

HE HAS BEEN FIFTY YEARS ON THE DEEP

There are not a great many captains who can boast of being fifty years on the briny deep, but that is the distinction enjoyed by Capt. Braze, of the Allan liner Tausman, now in port.

Yesterday the Tausman's commander celebrated the golden jubilee of his starting to sea. A Telegraph reporter boarded the steamer at No. 2 berth, Sand Point, and asked the veteran navigator some questions with reference to his long years afloat, but Capt. Braze declined to speak.

WINTER PORT TRADE.

The Times ventured the prediction many weeks ago that the value of the exports by the steamship lines to the United Kingdom and South Africa this season would easily be $20,000,000. That was really an under-estimate, and it now appears probable that the total will be in excess of $23,000,000.

Such a record of business, carried on with far without mishap of any kind, is not only one to be looked upon with satisfaction by the citizens, but must create a strong impression, favorable to this port, in the minds of the people of the western provinces, who may have given to the claims of this port less serious attention in the past than they deserved.

Of the total value of this season's shipments nearly 40 per cent is represented by products of the United States. The wheat shipments thus far total nearly 4,000,000 bushels, in addition to much other grain. The value of the wheat shipments to date is about $1,800,000, and shipments to date is about $1,800,000.

There has been of late some discussion of the conditions at Sand Point. That season opens is so evident that the fact would not need to be stated, had not some of the city officials obviously failed in their duty. The nationalization of the port has been suggested as the best means of securing needed improvements, and that is obviously the most desirable and effective course of action.

It is much to be regretted at such a time that the citizens should manifest such astonishing apathy with regard to the personnel of the city council which must deal with this and other very important matters. It is now too late to put in the field a thoroughly representative citizens' ticket, but the electors should choose from those candidates nominated the most intelligent, experienced, and progressive men.

There is entirely too much apathy on the part of the people during ten or eleven months of the year, and even as the civic elections approach there is no general display of interest in the result. But the trade of the port is growing, and the record for the season now drawing to a close has been phenomenal. The new council must be urged and compelled by public sentiment to see to it that no indulgence on the part of officials or lack of intelligent effort on the part of the council itself stands in the way of increasing development.

Since the above article was written, the value of two more winter port cargoes has been learned. They bring the total up to $20,139,338.

SHEEP-FARMING.

An effort is being made in Nova Scotia to encourage the sheep-raising industry. The provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia are both suitable for sheep-farming. English visitors for years past have remarked upon the fact that the diversified nature of the country made it particularly well adapted to this purpose. But as yet there has been no attempt to develop the industry on a large scale.

equate to the local demand. This province is admirably adapted for sheep raising on a large scale, and it is felt by those who have given the matter study that something should be done to encourage the industry.

In connection with efforts to encourage a stable class of farmers from the old country might very well go an extension of the sheep-farming industry.

DRINK BILLS.

The American Grocer states that the per capita expenditure for all kinds of stimulating beverages in the United States last year was $18.03, of which $2.08 was for tea, coffee and cocoa, and $15.95 for alcoholic stimulants. A cable from Berlin gives the following statement of Germany's drink bill: "Germany has an enormous drink bill. Each inhabitant consumes a yearly average of 0.12 quarts of wine, 129 1/2 quarts of beer and nine quarts of brandy. For a population of 63,000,000 people the liquor expenditure is $272,288,000. The average for male citizens over fifteen years would be $37.36. By contrast, German expenditures for schools were $80,722,000, for working people's insurance $104,244,000, and for the army and navy $23,847,000."

In today's Times is given an account of the charges of heresy made against the Rev. Dr. Craspey in what will be a famous trial. Concerning Dr. Craspey's dispatch from Rochester, New York, on Thursday said: "Friends of Dr. Craspey of this city have arranged that if he is willing, or should leave his rectorate at St. Andrew's Church he may take an academic post at Columbia University. It is understood that Columbia has offered Dr. Craspey the chair of ecclesiastical history and that the offer holds good no matter how the trial results. Dr. Craspey will not discuss the matter at present but says that in case he should be convicted by the ecclesiastical court his future has been definitely arranged."

Referring to the report on education from which extensive quotations were made in the Times yesterday, the Hartford Times observes: "The Massachusetts Commission on Technical Education reports to the Legislature that in matters of opportunities for a superior knowledge and skill in productive industry Massachusetts is far behind Europe. This commission is Massachusetts's shame, and Connecticut and various other States are guilty of a similar deficit of provision for technical education."

Canadian bank clearings for March aggregate $297,307,483, a gain of 9.2 per cent. over March last year, while the aggregate for the first quarter is $907,883,635, a gain of 21 per cent. over the preceding year.

SCORED ANOTHER HIT.

A large audience was at the York Theatre last night to hear the opera of the Little Duke by the New York Opera Company. The performance was excellent and was much enjoyed by those present. The singing by the company in the Little Duke in the convent, under the direction of Helene Selinger, was particularly good, and very funny. Miss Florence and Miss Campbell, as the Duke and Duchess, were in beautiful voice. Both have become favorites with the St. John theatre-going public. The Little Duke will be given this afternoon and evening, and should draw crowded houses, as it is a gem of an opera, and is in good hands.

MR. SHEPPARD EXPLAINS.

To the Editor of the Times: Sir,—Will you allow me space in your valuable paper to contradict some statements made in the Sun newspaper of Tuesday last, that I along with two other gentlemen went to Dr. Wm. Christie's office on Thursday previous and asked him to contribute to a pool for the election of a certain clique of candidates and thereby become a member of the clique. I did not make such a proposal, nor did I hear anyone else make it.

In reference to my interview in the Sun, on Monday night last, at about 11 o'clock, as it is the man came to my home, I answered the bell and he asked me if I was Mr. Sheppard. I answered yes. He told me he understood I belonged to a clique or combine in trying to elect certain aldermen. My answer was not true. I asked him who he was. He gave me his card, and said he was a Sun reporter. He then told me he had heard I went to Dr. Christie's office and asked him to contribute to a pool to elect certain aldermen. I asked him to show me the card. He replied I did not have it. He then asked me if I would lose my day and work for any of my personal friends. The reporter says that several questions were put to me and that there could be no mistake but that I was the person designated by Dr. Christie. Why, sir, I told him that I was the man he was after. The reason I denied was that he always put the question that I was at the doctor's office asking him to go into a pool. In conversation with Mr. Sheppard, I told him he ought to see Dr. Christie and get his support. Mr. Sheppard said he would go with him on Thursday evening. On my way out of the Sun office, I saw Ald. Sproul. When Mr. Sheppard and I came back Ald. Sproul was across the street. He came over and went in with us. After we went in Dr. Christie asked us what he could do for us. I told him we had come to see if he would help those men on election day. His reply was that he did not intend to take any part in the election or to go into any combine, for he had not care who went to the council or not. If a good man came out he would retire, for there was no money in it for him, and the only man he would go down in the ward and work for was Dr. Frink, if he went at all.

I asked him if he had not a talk with Mr. Kenny, he said the only time he had spoken to Mr. Kenny was the night George Blair made him acquaintance. We then, after bidding him good night, left his office, and on the way to the Sun office I was reported to have said he was very independent. Well, sir, if he was, he did not speak or act as if he was.

The news I heard about the interview was on Saturday evening from City Councilman Geo. A. Blair. He advised me and the other two gentlemen of asking Dr. Christie to contribute to a pool. I denied it in very strong terms. Mr. Blair told me that Dr. Christie had offered him fifty dollars on Friday evening to put in a pool if he wanted it. Now, sir, in conclusion I challenge anyone to come forward over their own signature and say that I have asked a single man to go into any combine or to contribute to any pool. Unless they are willing to swear to their statement the same as I am prepared to do to any statement that I have made or may make, I will take no notice to any more talk. I remain yours, BENJ. L. SHEPPARD, 83 City Road, April 13th.

MISS MAUDE ADAMS, PHOTO BY SARGENT.

New York, April 12—Morris Gottlieb is usually in love with Maude Adams. The fervid actress, as a sequel, is being treated in Bellevue as an insane person.

For seventeen weeks Morris has stood in the wings of the Empire Theatre, watching his goddess enthrall thousands with her performance in J. M. Barrie's "Peter Pan." He has even helped her to obtain the golden opinions of those who have witnessed her success.

Morris, who is thirty-nine years of age, is an electrician, and in that capacity was present at each performance of "Peter Pan." He looked after the lighting, or rather helped to, and it was while doing so that his love for the actress took deep root, until last Friday he could stand it no longer. Knowing the futility of his infatuation and fearing he might do his goddess some harm, he walked into Bellevue Hospital and asked to be treated for insanity. He explained to Dr. M. S. Gregory the whole story, and the latter, appreciating the method in Gottlieb's madness which led him to ask to be put under restraint, acceded to his request and kept him a prisoner. Monday Gottlieb, although still declaring that his adoration of the actress was unchanged, told Dr. Gregory that he had passed the danger mark and had become resigned to the futility of his love. He, therefore, asked to be released. The doctor did not agree with him, hence Gottlieb's appearance in the Yorkville Police Court before Magistrate Mayo.

While waiting for his commitment papers to be drawn Gottlieb, who is a small man with a reddish moustache, said: "I admit that I was, and am, in love with Maude Adams, but I am now back in my own senses, and realize that, although I may love her, she would never stoop to love such as me."

"I misunderstood her kindness to me for affection. I have been in the theatre seventeen weeks, night after night, and I as well as everybody else have fallen under her charms. Of course, she is kind to everybody. She is a queen among women. At the time I was 'bug house' I had the thought in my mind that, inasmuch as I am an honest man, I had the right to lay siege to her heart and win her if I could. I wrote her letters, but she never replied. All I ever got from here were pleasant smiles."

"Send her word that a little man who was crazy in love with her is back in his senses again, and tell her that the doctors want to prove him insane and send him out to the asylum. Ask her to help him out of the trouble. If she is not at her house, let's go to her house, No. 22 East Forty-first street, and get her to come as soon as she can and set him free."

The man who then led off by the detective, talking about his love.
