

Every Day They're Getting Younger
And Younger - These Kid Prodigies

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Why, when Johnny was only a year old he said this and that... Remember when mothers used to brag about the precocity of their offspring in this manner? They don't do it any more—not in just that way! Nowadays a proud parent has to be big to prove that "when Johnny was a week old he picked out 'Nearer My God To Thee' on the piano with one year in order to cause any kind of utter a-tall. Babies are supposed to be ready for "prep" school at one and college at three.

Witness the extremely early "take-off" accomplished by Master John Salvatore, who was left on the doorstep of a Minneapolis athletic director when 12 days old—now, at 10 months, able to chin himself, walk, talk, and deliver a Jack Dempsey on the jaw to any obnoxious baby-talking stink.

Going with one better is Teddy Wright, Jr., also 10 months old, who like many another youth seems to crave life with a circus, but unlike the others, has begun at a very early age to prepare for it.

Teddy, Jr., can chin the bar, walk on his hands, turn eight somersaults in succession, swing head down from the rings, swim and float. Ah, but wait—the palm for precocity must go to young Miss Norma Loeb, a Chicago sub-deb of nine weeks who has been sitting alone for a month, walks with assistance, looks you in the eye like a saying teller and takes setting-up exercises!

President of the Thistle Curling Club, C. F. Sanford, President of the St. Andrew's Curling Club, H. C. Simmonds and F. W. Coombs. They were escorted to the Royal Hotel where they had breakfast. At ten o'clock play began in the Thistle, St. Andrew's and Carleton rinks.

A pleasing incident this morning was the presentation by J. A. Sinclair, to the visiting curlers of handsome badges bearing the inscription "Royal Caledonia Curling Club, New Brunswick, 1923" in the centre is the New Brunswick coat of arms. The presentation of badges of the St. Andrew's Curling Club was made to the visitors by C. F. Sanford. The visitors replied fittingly by expressing their appreciation of the thoughtful acts. Colonel Robertson-Aikman, Hamilton, is the captain of the Scottish team.

The rinks presented a very attractive appearance this morning, being decorated with the colors of the club in whose rinks the contests were being carried on, as well as with flags and bunting. In the Thistle rink were numerous Scottish quotations, having a bearing on the games. The ice was reported in excellent condition and all the rinks were keenly contested. The picturesque costumes of the curlers and the extra appreciation of the curlers made scene long to be remembered. The shouts and sallies of the players left no doubt as to the origin of the expression, "the roarin' game."

On Thistle Ice. In the Thistle rink, beginning at ten o'clock, Scotchmen from Lanarkshire and Renfrewshire crossed brooms with New Brunswickers from Seckville and Bathurst. At the conclusion of play dinner was served in the rink and this afternoon play was resumed at three o'clock, teams from the Thistle Club and Moncton competing against the same Scotch players as curled there this morning. Players this morning and results were:

Avoid Harmful Grit
Peppodent cures the film and removes it without harmful scouring. Its polishing action is so soft that it cleans without scratching.

Two other needs
Investigators also found two other things essential. So Peppodent multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the cause of tooth decay. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

Old-time tooth pastes had the opposite effect. They reduced those natural tooth-protecting agents in the mouth.

Some 50 nations use it
Careful people of some 50 nations now use Peppodent, largely by dental advice. You see the results in glistering teeth wherever you go today.

Combat the film on teeth
Every careful man or woman should learn what it means to fight film. Dentists urge it. Millions of people have profited by it. All the world over are seen the results, such as you would gladly have. Ask for this 10-Day Tube.

Film is dingy
You feel on your teeth a viscous film. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tooth brush used in old ways does not effectively combat it. So countless teeth are dimmed and ruined by it. Film absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. It forms the basis of cloudy coats. Tartar is based on film. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film.

New methods now
Dental science has in late years found two ways to fight that film. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, without any harmful scouring. Able authorities proved these methods effective. Then a new-type tooth paste was created, based on modern research, and the opposite effect. They reduced those natural tooth-protecting agents in the mouth.

BOARD ORDERS TEACHER RETURNED

Claimed That Marriage Did
Not Justify Her Dismissal—Gets Back Pay.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 9.—Marriage is not an act becoming a woman teacher and does not justify her dismissal, State Commissioner of Education John Enright ruled. He ordered the reinstatement of Mrs. Clara Plumer Nonnemen as a teacher in the Hoboken schools. She will be paid back salary from Feb. 1, 1921.

Mrs. Nonnemen married in June, 1920, and went abroad. She requested leave of absence until Dec. 31 of that year, or Jan. 31 of 1921. She was notified that the leave was granted to expire Feb. 1, 1921. When she returned in December, 1920, she was informed that her marriage had automatically terminated her employment by the Hoboken School Board.

"The teachers tenure law very definitely prohibits the dismissal of any teacher under tenure except for inefficiency, conduct unbecoming a teacher or other just causes," said Commissioner Enright. "No rules of a board of education can be effective if in contravention of a statute, and it is therefore very obvious that in order for appellant's violation of respondent's rules to legally justify her dismissal sufficient cause must constitute the offenses described in the tenure law as justifying dismissal of a teacher.

"Plainly, the violation by appellant of respondent's rule regarding absence cannot in itself be considered inefficiency, incapacity or conduct unbecoming a teacher, and cannot therefore be sufficient cause under the tenure law to justify her dismissal.

"Neither in the opinion of the Commissioner can the so-called violation of respondent's rule regarding absence for six months or more without leave be deemed in this case insubordination or conduct unbecoming a teacher so as to justify dismissal under the tenure law." The Commissioner had rendered a similar decision last June in regard to the dismissal of Mrs. Nonnemen because of her marriage. The Hoboken Board appealed this decision to the State Board of Education, which sustained the Commissioner, but ordered testimony to be taken on the charge that the teacher had been absent without leave for at least a month.

Many a Tear in Strange Eyes at
News of Passing; Was Henchman of Sullivans, Friend of the Poor Always.

New York, Jan. 8.—Max J. Porges, a powerful henchman of the Sullivans in "de Eight," who served for eight years as alderman from that East Side neighborhood, died last week at Lenox Hospital. When news of his death got abroad in the district, now the 2d Assembly District, Schwartz's undertaking rooms at 312 Fifth Street, to which the body was taken, were thronged with mourners.

With the passing of the Clan Sullivan the influence of Max Porges waned somewhat, and his interest had relaxed in the latter years of his career. But his wife, Barbara, is as keen a politician as ever, and is executive chairman of the women's action of the Democratic party in the district.

Porges was seventy-nine years old, and many of those who braved the cold to stand for a moment beside his body were feeble with age. Among them were men and women who had been saved from eviction in times gone by through the timely aid of Alderman Porges, Deputy Sheriff or District Captain Porges, as the case might have been at the time. The kin of others had been saved from Potter's field through his intervention, or, in bitter weather, a ton of Porges coal had been dumped in front of their tenement.

"De Eight" turned out in force to do honor to the memory of his old leader and if the shades of Big Tim and Little Time and Florie chanced to return to their old haunts they must have gleaned much interesting and comforting information for the conversation was all of the good old days of the Sullivans, in which Porges had played so prominent a part.

Porges was brought to this country by his parents in 1856. At an early age he had to shift for himself. In 1876 he opened a saloon at Forsyth and Rivington streets, and until his retirement a few years ago, that corner was his headquarters.

For a time he maintained an unprofitable alliance with the Republican party, but when a coveted nomination to the Board of Aldermen was given elsewhere, Mrs. Porges put her foot down and thenceforward Porges chanced his fortune through his own initiative and reaped the reward of their faithfulness. Not only did Max serve eight years on the Board of Aldermen, but for five terms he was deputy sheriff and during the many years that he was a captain in his district his authority was upheld unquestioningly by the Sullivans.

Besides his wife, Porges is survived by a son, A. J. Porges, a division chief in the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

CHILDREN PLEASE SAVE

With Her Husband in Prison, and Nines

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 9.—Prohibition agents who surprised Mrs. Mike Swartz at Boggs Run while she was operating a still, headed the pleas of her nine children and refused to arrest her. Mike Swartz, the husband, is in a Federal prison for robbing a freight car.

When the officers entered the Swartz home they found a still, 100 gallons of mash and some moonshine. The children pleaded with the agents to leave their mother at home with them. Mrs. Swartz told the officers that after her husband was taken to prison she found it hard to make a living and finally turned to the manufacture of moonshine in an effort to keep the children from want.

The officers confiscated the still, mash and liquor and told Mrs. Swartz she could remain with the children until the next term of court, when she will answer to a charge of violating the prohibition act.

Four Women Battle for His Affections—All Wounded

New York, Jan. 9.—The affection of one man was the prize that four women fought for until they were cut and bruised so badly they collapsed in the home of Arthur Cole, 50 years old, an auto mechanic, at 409 West Fifty-third Street.

The women who battled for fifteen minutes for the affections of Cole described themselves as Mrs. Henrietta Dalton, 30 years old, of 641 West Fifty-second Street, whose right index finger was severed; Mrs. Mary Harmon, 28 years old, of 787 Ninth Avenue, whose right breast was slashed and an eye blackened; Miss Anna George, 28 years old, of 517 Tenth Avenue, who has a stab wound in the right leg, and Miss Margaret Clarke, 29 years old, of 601 West Forty-third Street, who is suffering from bruises and lacerations.

Cole invited Mrs. Dalton and Mrs. Harmon to his flat last night. Some time during the evening Miss George and Miss Clarke joined the party and the strife for Cole's attentions began.

There had been much drinking among the five persons, it was testified to later in West Side Court, and toward morning the women came to blows. After they had punched and kicked each other about the apartment a knife was drawn and each of the women received wounds or scratches.

A tenant in the apartment house blew a police whistle, which brought Patrolman Harry Reinhart of the West Forty-seventh Street Station.

Dr. Cohen of Bellevue Hospital dressed the women's wounds. The women and Cole were placed under arrest on charges of disorderly conduct. When the patrolmen searched the apartment they found thirty-three empty whiskey flasks. Every window in the apartment was broken and the furniture lay scattered about the room.

The five were later fined $10 by Magistrate Charles E. Simms with an alternative of five days in jail. Mrs. Dalton and Mrs. Harmon paid their fines, but the others were taken to prison.

SCRUBWOMEN SAY FUND A FRAUD

Paid Money in Through the Year—Not Satisfied.

New York, Jan. 9.—Fifteen women employed as scrubwomen and cleaners in the Hudson County Court House complained to Assistant Prosecutor of the Jersey City that they had been cheated by a firm in Manhattan which had induced them to invest money every week throughout the year to be repaid them by Christmas.

Mrs. Johanna Walsh said that she had paid over $200 to the company in return for which she had received Christmas stamps redeemable at Christmas, but did not receive the money. Mrs. Anna Lynch said that she had received a check for $125, but that it had been returned marked "no funds."

Mrs. Johanna Walsh was alleged by the other investors to have induced them to invest their savings in this way. She and another woman had an argument which resulted in a fight.

Mr. Vickers got in touch by telephone with the firm which had been selling Christmas stamps to clubwomen and talked to a man who assured him that the firm was honest and solvent, that there was some mistake and that he would hurry over and have it all straightened out by 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Five o'clock came and did not appear.

Atherton Smith reported for the ways and means committee. The resignation of Mrs. Richard Hooper as a member of the board was received with regret. Mrs. S. E. Elkin was appointed to fill the vacancy.

What does food economy mean to you?

DOESN'T it mean good living at low cost? Foods that are "short" in nourishing value and "long" in waste are never economical.

The food, Grape-Nuts, is economical to the last serving in the package, because every golden-crisp granule really contributes to body-building.

Grape-Nuts offers the sturdy nutriment of wheat and malted barley in unusually compact form—a comparatively small amount providing exceptional nourishment. The 12-ounce package contains about 16 servings—costing about one cent each.

Every bit of Grape-Nuts is real food, uniquely free from the bulky waste found in many other food products.

Made from wheat and malted barley, Grape-Nuts has the benefit of 20 hours' baking which so changes the starch of these grains that easy digestibility naturally results.

Eaten with good milk or cream, Grape-Nuts is a complete food, which creates energy without taking away energy. And the gradual accumulation of power is the greatest of all food economies, since reserve energy is what counts most, either in the sudden emergency or the long grind.

A food for economy—a food for health! And a food with a charm of flavor all its own.

CARNIVAL WEEK
PLANS ADVANCED

Times Entrusted With the Selection of a Carnival Queen — New Headquarters Ready for Business — Encouraging Reports.

The executive of the Rotary-Y. M. C. I. committee met yesterday afternoon and plans were advanced for events in connection with the skating meet. Things are progressing satisfactorily and everything points to the success of the great meet. Headquarters have been secured for the executive in the Bank of Montreal building and it will be a busy place from now on.

F. W. Kelly reported at a meeting of the executive yesterday afternoon that the new headquarters had been prepared for the use of the executive. The New Brunswick Power Company was furnishing light free; Jones Electric Company supplied the fixtures; the New Brunswick Telephone Company had installed two telephones; the furniture had been supplied by H. McLellan, fire marshall, D. J. Corr, secretary of the Y. M. C. I., and A. C. Skilton, manager of the Bank of Montreal; Commissioner Thornton arranged for the inspection of the lighting fixtures and will also assist in the matter of an illuminated sign showing the location of the headquarters of the executive.

The executive received a report yesterday that it was impossible to have the carnival officially opened by an artillery salute, on Feb. 10, as had been planned, but it had been arranged to have a full dress guard of honor and a military band on hand on the occasion of the official opening of the carnival by the Lieutenant-Governor and Premier.

The military ball will be conducted on Thursday night of carnival week by the members of the garrison officers' mess, assisted by one ladies' organization in the city in the matter of catering, ticket selling and such like. This ball is planned to be a brilliant affair and it is expected to be a huge success.

The executive announced yesterday that plans had been formed to erect a grandstand at Lily Lake, to accommodate 4,000 or more people. Forty-four boxes, on a level with the ice, also will be erected and, while a few of these will be for guests, the majority of them will be for use of the public. The committee in charge of the public tent, the carnival week had placed the fee for the boxes, each of which will accommodate six persons, at $20 for the three days' racing. This sum includes tags such as will be sold for the meet.

In the main part of the grandstand a block of 800 seats in the centre of the stand, from the ice back, will be sold at $5 each for the three days' sport; this sum also will include the balance of the seats in the stand will be sold each day at fifty cents, in addition to the fifty cents general admission. It was announced that H. H. Sheehan would have the seats on sale by the end of this week.

The secretary announced yesterday that he was in communication with several vandeville acts, which he considered would brighten up the meet between races.

To Select "Miss St. John."
The matter of choosing "Miss St. John" then came up and the executive rejected to allot to the Evening Times-Star the task of taking charge of the arrangements for the selection of the carnival queen. It was announced that Mr. Fitzgerald had offered to conduct a beauty contest for the purpose of selecting "Miss St. John" which would provide a suitable carnival costume for the winner.

In this connection a letter was read from J. J. Fitzgerald, of the Montreal winter sports committee, saying that there was practically definite assurance that Miss America would be there for their carnival and asking if Miss St. John could go to Montreal for the week of February 5. Regarding the request of the local committee that Miss Canada should come to this city, Mr. Fitzgerald declared that this probably could be arranged for February 12 and 13.

Another banner sporting event, which W. R. Gidding is trying to arrange, is a basketball game between the crack team from McGill University and a local club, probably the Trojans. This game should prove a snappy one as both teams have earned enviable reputations.

A bowling tournament, probably on Monday afternoon and evening of the big week, will be held, although on a little later in the season, it is not certain that any outside teams will enter. However, the tournament will be held between the local teams, and if any outside teams wish to compete they will receive a hearty welcome.

A very favorable report was received from the chairman of the sportsman's show, which will open on Monday night of the carnival week. The chairman announced that he had been in communication with Premier Foster and the Premier had expressed himself greatly in favor of the idea. The Premier had instructed L. A. Gagnon, chief game warden, to make a written report to Hon. C. W. Robinson, minister of lands and mines, and

This report was to be submitted to a meeting of the government to be held here today. The president and secretary of the executive were appointed delegates to go before the government, if so requested, today.

The executive announced yesterday that other matters connected with the carnival were not definitely settled as yet, but committees were working steadily on them. These events included horse racing, the fancy dress carnival, the Fair of Nations and the proposed hockey match between a New Brunswick team and the McGill hockey team. These matters would be settled later.

The Royal Arms chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire met last evening at the residence of Mrs. E. S. Stephenson, 111 Orange street, with the regent, Mrs. W. H. Turner, presiding. The treasurer reported that the sum of $15 had been sent to the Wright street Protestant Orphans' Home, and reports were also given of the packing of Christmas baskets for needy families. A nomination committee was appointed preparatory to the annual meeting. At the close of the business session a social hour was enjoyed, and Mrs. Stephenson served dainty refreshments.

FIVE POLICEMEN KILLED ON DUTY

In New York City Last Year — Not a "Cushy" Job.

New York, Jan. 9.—Sixty-nine heroes of the Police Department are officially honored in General Orders 99, issued from the Police Commissioner's office. The list includes the names of five men killed during 1922 while on duty, eight who received honorable mention for exceptionally meritorious efforts and fifty-six cited for commendation because of unusual courage and efficiency. The names of the five killed on duty will be added to the bronze tablet at Police Headquarters. This list includes one lieutenant, one acting detective sergeant and three patrolmen. Lieutenant Albert L. Duffy of the Headquarters Division is cited as having been killed by the explosion of a moonshine still which he was investigating on July 22. Lieutenant Duffy was so severely burned in the explosion that he died ten days later at a hospital.

Acting Detective Sergeant John J. Moriarty was shot down in a chase of burglars who had entered 306 Fifth Avenue, Manhattan. The burglars attempted to escape by way of the roof, exchanging shots with the police who pursued them. A bullet lodged in Moriarty's neck and he died a week later.

Patrolman Douglas W. Hay was killed after he had served a summons on Michael Fradino, of 3892 Third Avenue, the Bronx. Fradino ran after the patrolman and fired three shots at him, one of them entering his back and inflicting fatal injuries.

Patrolman Arthur Loewe was shot in a burglar chase on Eighth Street, Brooklyn, and motorcycle patrolman Frank S. Mundo was killed in a collision with an automobile on Fourth Avenue, Brooklyn.

G. W. V. A. ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR

S. C. Tippett was last evening re-elected president of the local branch of the G. W. V. A. Reports of various officers showed the society to be in excellent condition financially and otherwise. There was a considerable gain in membership.

The election of officers took place at last night's meeting and resulted in the election of the following officers by an unanimous vote: President, S. C. Tippett; vice-president, Dr. G. B. Peat; second vice-president, W. J. Ryan. The members of the executive elected were: R. Y. Ganong, J. V. Shea, O. A. Reed, H. B. Roberts, A. E. Speight, W. H. Harrison and J. B. Harton and E. C. Weyman have the matter in hand and are arranging for those who wish to attend. Already more than thirty former students of the University have accepted the invitation to be present, and the dinner is likely to be a most successful one as the first announcement has been most favorably received among U. N. B. men. The Alumni meeting will be held immediately after the dinner.

SOME ESTIMATES ARE REDUCED

At a meeting of the finance committee of the Municipal Council yesterday afternoon the estimates for the General Public Hospital were cut to the extent of $5,300 and other pruning done.

In the case of the Board of Health, $100 was cut off a miscellaneous account and $400 was deducted from the salary item for the Child Welfare nurse—making a total of $500. An amount of $500 for a furnace for the Municipal Home, however, was included in the new estimate, so that it leaves the Board's estimate of $25,411.42 unchanged. The Children's Aid Society's statement was presented by A. M. Belling. It showed an estimated expenditure for 1923 amounting to $9,775. The usual grant of $5,000 was voted and, in addition, an amount of $500, which was not paid on last year's warrant, was ordered paid this year.

The General Public Hospital's estimate was revised on several items. The coal and wood account was reduced from $15,000 to $14,000; the drugs and medicines was reduced $500, from $5,000; the dry goods account, from $3,500 to $3,000; the furniture and fixtures, from $2,500 to $2,000; the gas light and power estimate, from $4,000 to $3,200; salaries, from $66,900 to $54,900. This is a paring of $30,900 from the original estimate.

An amount of $4,680 for balance due for remodeling the Epidemic Hospital and also the architect's fees, both of which were included in the estimate, will be withdrawn from the estimate and will be met by a bond issue. An item of $2,522.08, placed in the original estimate as due on the county warrant, was deleted—thus making the total estimated receipts for the year $33,425.05. The councillors placed this at an even $35,000. This makes a total of $117,242.25 as the hospital warrant for 1923.

TUG CAPTAIN RESPONSIBLE

Captain L. A. Demers, Dominion wreck commissioner, has forwarded from Ottawa the finding of the commission which investigated the sinking of the launch in which Dr. Rutherford was bound to board the Caraque. The responsibility is placed on Captain McKinney, of the tug Neridi, which collided with the launch. The report says that Captain McKinney was guilty of unseamanlike conduct and severely criticizes him although his certificate is not dealt with.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 201. VACUUM TUBE CHARACTERISTICS.

Under the broad classification "vacuum tubes" is included the various types of evacuated glass bulbs used as transmitters, rectifiers, amplifiers and detectors. Tubes employed in the radiation, reception, or amplification of radio waves are of the three electrode type, the bulb containing three metallic elements, namely, grid, filament and plate. Transmitting tubes range in power from those with an output of a few watts and having the dimensions of a small electric light bulb, to the powerful transmitter tube capable of developing 100,000 watts of high frequency power.

In tubes used for radiating a comparatively low amount of energy the small dimensions of the plate permit but a fraction of an ampere to be conducted, due to the excessive heat which develops if larger currents are used. For transmitting tubes of 100,000 watts the plate consists of a heavy copper tube and the great amount of heat generated may be dissipated by immersing the tube in a tank and subjecting the surface of the tube to a constant cooling, circulation of water. This tube is approximately three feet in length with a diameter of three and one-half inches at the base. The feet in length with a diameter of three and one-half inches at the base. The feet in length with a diameter of three and one-half inches at the base.

Vacuum tubes of the two electrode type are in general use as rectifiers for the conversion of alternating current into direct current. Of the three electrode types used in the reception of radio signals, the degree to which the bulb is evacuated depends upon the service for which it is designed. Tubes employed as amplifiers are termed "hard tubes" have a high degree of evacuation and are operated with a comparatively high plate voltage. It is necessary not only to extract the air within the bulb but also to carefully remove the air from the walls of the bulb and from the metallic elements which constitute the filament, grid and plate.

Detector tubes, or "soft tubes" as they are commonly known, are not as highly evacuated as amplifier tubes due to the fact that the presence of a small amount of gas renders them much more sensitive for use as detectors than tubes from which the gas has been exhausted to a greater degree. Helium, neon, carbon dioxide, nitrogen and argon are gases employed in certain tubes to improve the detecting properties. Tubes with high vacuum seldom operate satisfactorily in parallel, whereas tubes of low vacuum seldom can sustain the same quantity of gas and operate poorly in parallel, due to their different characteristics.

For increasing the emission of electrons, the tungsten filament in many types of tubes, is coated with oxides such as calcium, barium or thorium. An oxide-coated filament, in addition to giving off electrons freely at a lower temperature than is required in the case of a pure metallic filament, also evaporates the same quantity of electrons with approximately half the amount of power. For this reason tubes employing oxide-coated filaments operate very satisfactorily as detectors or amplifiers.

The tungsten filaments of transmitting tubes should be operated at constant voltage rather than at constant current as the filament life at constant voltage is approximately three times greater than at constant current. In tubes employed as detectors or amplifiers, it is important to operate the filament at as low a temperature as possible consistent with good service and thus prolong the normal life of the filament which, with good care, should give an average service life of 1,000 hours. BURNED HOSPITAL WILL BE CLOSED

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Kingston, Ont., Jan. 8.—The Sydenham Military Hospital is to be closed. This announcement follows the destruction last Wednesday evening of two of the buildings connected with the hospital. Sydenham Military Hospital was opened in Kingston in 1919 by the government and patients suffering from the effects of the Great War were taken into the hospital. In 1920 the hospital was taken over by the D. S. C. R. and has since been in operation under that department. There are at present 140 patients in the institution being taken care of and several of these are bed patients. The patients will likely be transferred to Montreal or Toronto.

Detroit, Jan. 8.—Embarrassed and humiliated because his wife, Fern, indulged upon smoking cigarettes in bed at midnight; annoyed because she rolled on the floor, screaming and kicking when she was angry, and mortified because she came to his place of business to make trouble, Roy F. Fletcher has filed a bill for divorce with the Wayne County Clerk. Fletcher further claims that neighbors heard his wife's disturbances of temper and that she was not a good housekeeper. She refused to get the meals, he stated, preferred to sit around reading cheap novels, and made a point of disagreeing with everything he said.

New York, Jan. 8.—Her clothes ignited by contact with a gas range while she was ironing, Mrs. Mary Malone, thirty-five years old, of 2,192 Eighth avenue, ran to a bedroom of her apartment, then downstairs to the apartment of a neighbor, setting the house on fire as she progressed. The neighbor, Mrs. Anna Delevan, threw a rug about the woman, smothering the flames. Mrs. Malone was taken to Harlem Hospital in a serious condition after Father Baylan, priest of the Church of St. Thomas the Apostle, in West 118th street, had administered last rites.

Paris, Jan. 8.—(Associated Press.)—The Correctional Tribunal holds that the expression "Boche," even if not preceded by the wartime "dirty," constitutes a grave insult when applied to a French-Alsatian. The court has just sentenced a Frenchman to pay a fine of fifty francs and damages amounting to 300 francs for applying the objectionable term to an Alsatian named George Dreyfus. VOCATIONAL EDUCATION IS TAKEN UP Provincial Government Discusses Various Phases—A Colonization Plan.

Vocational education matters occupied the entire attention of the Provincial Government at its opening session here this morning. Consideration was given to the matter of co-ordination of various features of education, including the work of the education department and the vocational training board, elementary agriculture, home economics, domestic training and elementary commercial education. No definite decision was arrived at and the discussion will be continued this afternoon. Premier Foster is presiding at the session.

Andrew Fraser Mitchell, who is in the city, will meet with the Government and take up a proposition which is in reality a colonization scheme. In India at the present time there were about 6,000 people who had been assisting in the government of that country but who, under the recent policy of the British government, had been replaced by native Indians and were now out of positions though possessors of some means. The idea was available to each would be in the vicinity of $90,000 besides which each would be receiving incomes approximating $3,000 a year. The idea was to bring these people to New Brunswick and place them in colonies. Their money could be invested in the industries of the province. Besides the Anglo-Indians Mr. Mitchell would also bring Scottish and English farmers here.

U. N. B. Senate.
The University of New Brunswick Senate will meet here tomorrow and immediately after adjournment will go before the Government with some matters which will be discussed at the meeting.

CUT NIGHT TRAIN SERVICE

After Sunday, January 14, the night express train service between St. John and Halifax will be cut in half, trains leaving St. John at 10:45 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings and leaving Halifax on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings. This was one of the first train services inaugurated when the Intercolonial Railway service between St. John and Halifax was commenced. It was said today that the amount of traffic was not found to be sufficient to keep the regular daily service running and it was decided, for purposes of economy, to put the new schedule in force.

Part of the travelling public will be inconvenienced, but special arrangements have been made to provide for the suburbanites from here to Hampton. On nights when the express does not leave St. John, the usual suburban train will be run, returning here morning when no train will arrive from Halifax.

N. B. LUMBER CUT

Predicton, N. B., Jan. 9.—The lumber cut on crown lands last year was about 100,000,000 feet.

A. T. Murchie, chief scaler of the crown land department, said today that the estimate of the probable lumber cut on the crown lands of the province, which he had given out in December as 200,000,000 feet, was being amply supported by estimates which he has since received from the lumber operators. In fact, said Mr. Murchie, it looks as though this estimate will be exceeded and may run to at least 210,000,000 feet. These figures, compiled from the returns filed by lumbermen, looks as though they are conservative estimates. Usually, unless something unforeseen occurred to hinder operations, the returns at the end of the season showed increases over the original estimates.

THE CASARCO CLEARED FROM BEAVER HARBOR

The Canadian Auxiliary sloop Casarco No. 7, which was cast upon the shoals at Third Cliff on the Massachusetts coast on Sunday morning, has been cleared from Beaver Harbor, an out-port of the Port of St. John on December 5 for Gloucester, Mass., with James Lovatt of Beaver Harbor in command. This is the last record which the local shipping authorities have of the little craft or her crew. The shipping master here, said that he had no record of her having sailed from this port and could give no details of the personnel of her crew. Nothing could be ascertained here of the boy, Joseph Hopkins, said to be a New Brunswicker, and the surviving member of her crew.

The Times was in telephone connection with Beaver Harbor this afternoon and it was learned that the Casarco No. 7 had not returned to that port since her clearance of December 5. At that time she took a cargo of fish and fish refuse. When she sailed she had a crew of three, her skipper, James Lovatt, his brother, John, and a stranger who was not known to the people of Beaver Harbor, but who was thought to be a native of St. John. It was said positively that the Casarco at that time was carrying no liquor and if she had any aboard, it was thought that she had picked it up after discharging her fish cargo at Gloucester.

GRAND JURY OUT ON BESSIE PARKER CASE

Judge Barry Opens Circuit Court and Speaks of the Crime Charged Against Woman.

The January sitting of the circuit court opened this morning with His Honor Mr. Justice Barry presiding. There was a full attendance of the grand jury which fact was favorably commented upon by his honor and to them was given the first case on the docket an indictment of murder against Bessie Parker. The grand jury heard the several witnesses but up to two o'clock had not returned any finding. The Crown is represented by Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., and E. J. Hennessey, while the prisoner is to be defended by G. W. Fowler, K. C., of Sussex and E. S. Ritchie.

Judge Barry gave a very definite and somewhat exhaustive explanation of the duties of the grand jury before placing the case in their hands. He said that he regretted that he had not a more complete knowledge of the evidence submitted in the case but this could be attributed to the fact that it was not until this morning at breakfast that he had had an opportunity to look into the several depositions. Why they had not been presented to him before he did not know. He barely allowed him time to look over one case. His Honor read from the statute the definition of murder and pointed out the difference between it and homicide explaining at some length the difference between culpable and non-culpable homicide. He pointed out the seriousness of the charge scathingly denounced the practice of abortion and condemned those of any walk of society who endeavored to procure it in any way. The case must be decided either for or against a true bill by the grand jury solely upon the evidence and upon their finding in favor of a true bill the other jury would then determine whether or not Mary Frontin had been murdered or whether it was a case of manslaughter, or perhaps the jury would find the prisoner not guilty. Even in the interests of the state and of the prisoner there must be the fullest consideration of the facts submitted. There had been some mention of Mary Frontin having made a dying declaration but he did not have it before him and could say nothing about it. He left the case with the jury inviting them to give it the most careful possible attention. About 1:30 p. m. the jury adjourned for lunch.

The grand jury was composed of W. L. McAlary, foreman, G. L. Ingram, R. Shanklin, D. J. Owens, R. M. Tobias, A. C. Fraser, J. H. Scribner, H. Rowley, A. C. Gregory, Edw. Hargrave, E. A. Brown and J. D. Adams. There were three theft cases upon the criminal docket.

The docket is as follows:

Criminal—

- The King vs. Travis, charge of theft; The King vs. Broad, charge of theft and the King vs. McAuley, charge of theft.

Civil—

- Scott vs. Fleming, et al, J. H. A. L. Fairweather.
- Non-jury—
- Richards vs. Barbour, J. A. Barry.
- Richardson vs. N. B. Power Co., K. J. MacFarlane.
- N. S. Co. Ltd., vs. C. P. R., W. B. Wallace, K. C.
- Webber vs. B. N. A. Assurance Co., C. F. Hamilton.

ESTIMATES ARE GONE INTO AGAIN

Further consideration of estimates was taken up at a meeting of the Municipal Council finance committee held this morning in the County Court office. The estimate of the General Public Hospital received further attention but was not passed as some matters in connection with the epidemic hospital have yet to be dealt with. The estimate now stands at $117,642, which is about $5,000 less than the original estimate submitted.

The St. John County Hospital warrant was passed at $68,605.01. The original estimate of $89,700, leaving net expenses of $21,095.01, but to this were added uncollected taxes amounting to some $12,000. It developed however, that the overdraft in the bank on account of the County Hospital was $4,488 and this was added to the estimate and $1,000 taken off the coal items, $1,000 off household expenses and $200 off light and power, leaving a net total of $68,605.01.

The estimates of the Municipal House were passed at $24,411.42; and the Board of Health, $25,411.42; and Children's Aid Society, $5,600.

BARGAINS

Some of the most remarkable values among the mark-downs are in large easy chairs and rockers. Not the ones made to sell cheap, but the big, comfy, luxurious ones which are always the most popular in the home. Ones that seem to have the drawing power of a magnet, so surely are the tired ones who come in drawn to their welcoming depths. Sometimes we sell part of a Chesterfield suite, leaving one chair in a covering which cannot be matched and, as we cannot complete the suite we are compelled to reduce prices of the odd pieces, in many cases offering them below cost. If you are looking for supreme comfort, come and look over the red tags.
