INDIAN SLAYER STILL DEFIANT

Patriotic to Kill Wyllie, He Says HOPES TO BE HANGED Thon His Countrymen Will Take Vengeance, He Says

LONDON, July 12.—Madar Lal Dhinagri, the Indian student who shot and killed Sir Curzon Wyllie on the night of July 1 at the reception at the Imperial Institute and who also killed Dr. Lalooa in "self defense," was again arraigned in the Westminster police court today. On entering the court room Dhinagri assumed the same unconcerned attitude, the same unconcernedness of crime, that has characterized his conduct since the shooting. When he was asked if he wished to cross-examine one of the witnesses Dhinagri mumbled that he objected to the charge of murder, he said: "I did what you would expect an Englishman to do, I was perfectly justified in what I did. Dhinagri was committed for trial on a charge of wilful murder. Before his commitment the prisoner made the following statement in a clear, steady voice: "I don't wish to say anything in my defense, but simply to prove the justice of my deed. As for myself, I don't wish English law court has any authority to arrest me and detain me in prison or to pass a sentence of death upon me. That is the reason I do not have counsel to defend me. "I maintain that if it is patriotic for Englishmen to fight against Germans if they were to occupy this country then it is much more justifiable and patriotic in my countrymen to fight against the English. I hold that the English people are responsible for the murder of 30,000,000 of my countrymen during the last fifty years. They are also responsible for taking $100,000,000 every year from India to this country. "I also hold the English people are responsible for the hanging and deportation of my patriotic countrymen who fight against the English. I hold that the English people have no right to occupy India, and it is perfectly justifiable our aim to kill an Englishman who is polluting our sacred land. "After expressing surprise at the hypocrisy of the English people, posing as the champions of the oppressed in the case of the Congo and Russia, Dhinagri went on to say: "In case this country was occupied by Germans, and if an Englishman were to hear of it, he should see Germans walking about the streets of London with all the insolence of conquerors and should kill one or two Germans, then that Englishman would be upheld as a patriot by the people of this country. Certainly I am a patriot too, working for the emancipation of my motherland. "I make this statement, not that I am going to plead for mercy or anything of the kind. I wish that the English people would sentence me to death, for in that case the vengeance of my countrymen will be the keener. I put forward this statement to show the justice of my cause to the outside world, especially to our sympathizers in America and Germany."

THE WISE THROUGH GENTLE

By which simple but ingenious expedient the torrent of evanescent chatter was diverted to poor Ward, and the reader read happily ever after. STUART'S HUNT IN PACKS. In some years stoats appear to be more numerous than in others, and they are seen not in ones and twos, but in dozens, hunting together in small packs. Stoats will hunt together from scent and in full cry like a pack of hounds, one always keeping the line and followed closely by the others. This sight has been recorded by different observers who have also seen weasels hunting in the same way.—Fur News.

TORONTO, Ont., July 12.—A tourist hotel and half a dozen dwellings at Almie Harbor were burned on Friday night. The fire spread to the woods and the whole country was in danger until a heavy rain fall quenched the flames. The loss in the village is twenty-five thousand dollars.

SMITH DEFEATS STUBBS IN FIVE LEAP RACE

The disagreeable weather, assisted by a thick St. John fog which enveloped the grounds, brought only 200 spectators to the Victoria grounds last evening to witness a series of athletic events. The track was in the best condition possible and there was keen competition. Excitement was at a high pitch in some events. The Every Day Club secured the largest share of the honors. The 100 yards dash was the first event of the evening. Two heats were scheduled to be run, but after a consultation it was decided to run but one heat for the event. There were five starters in the race, which was captured by Covey, the scratch man. Drynan, with a handicap of two yards, finished in second position, with Willis in third place. The event was keenly contested. Covey stumbled at the start but soon regained his stride and finished about a foot to the good. Upon the completion of the arrangements of the handicaps the runners were sent away for the 80 yards. The contest was a splendid one between Stubbs and King for the premier honor. The latter assumed the lead, but Stubbs soon after the crack of the pistol. Stubbs, however, was not far in the rear. Coming under the final lap Stubbs caught his man and beat him out on the home stretch. King ran a game race, but stumbled across the line to bring out. One by one they dropped out until but five remained in the race. Ystion had about two hundred yards to the good after the second mile, although Coward, Reid, Watson and others were going nicely. Towards the end of the race Coward relieved the proceedings with a splendid spurt. Watson and Ritchie also ran strongly. Wallace, the scratch runner, came down the home stretch a winner by over a hundred yards. Woods, a local man, was second and Coward of Fredericton third. Reid and Ritchie tied for the fourth position. The time for the distance was 14:53.5. The 200 yards dash was also contested in one heat. Covey at scratch was first with Drynan second and Grieron third. The distance was run in 1:30 seconds flat. Darkness was descending when the five mile event was called on. King and Stubbs were placed on the scratch. A. D. Smith and Horseman were given fifty yards, while W. H. Smith received one hundred yards. Soon after the start A. Smith came almost to his knees and later assumed the lead. Stubbs caught Horseman and King followed about forty yards in the rear. Two miles were done in 11:17, with A. Smith still in the lead. W. H. Smith retired from the contest at two miles. At three miles A. Smith had about sixty yards. Stubbs was second, with Horseman third and King fourth. The time was 17:57. Soon after the third mile Stubbs started in to cut out the lead of A. Smith. The latter, however, was gamely and still had a lead of four miles, which were covered in 22:55. On the twenty-second lap, Stubbs caught Smith, but the former began to show signs of distress. Smith opened up about forty yards. Meanwhile Stubbs and King ran gamely. Smith was given the bell with about thirty yards to spare. He crossed the line with a fine burst of speed. Stubbs was second, with King third, and Horseman fourth. The time was 25:57. Smith was highly complimented on his splendid running and was given an ovation upon finishing. Competition in the high jump was keen between A. Magarity of the High School and J. A. Leach of the Victoria. The latter captured the event, with Magarity in second position. The height was five feet.

HOMING PIGEONS BREAK RECORDS IN LONG RUN

Winner Travelled 510 Miles in 9 Hours, 17 Min., an Average of 1,600.5 Yards a Minute. BALTIMORE, Md., July 12.—In a flight of birds of the Southern Federation of Homing Pigeon Fanciers, just concluded, a record that has stood for the past 12 years has been broken. The birds were liberated at North Bay, Ont., 510 miles from Baltimore, and to arrive covered the distance in 9 hours, 17 minutes, an average of 1,600.5 yards a minute. The previous record was 130 yards a minute. Nearly 500 birds were liberated at North Bay and of these 47 beat the previous record referred to.

FOUR LIVELY BANTAMS IN TEN ROUND BOUTS

Winners Were to Fight Again for Privilege of Meeting Attili But Results Were Not Conclusive. NEW YORK, N. Y., July 12.—Paul McGovern and Charles Goldman, Joe Coster and Joe Wagner, four of the best bantams in the world, met in four round bouts at the Victoria grounds at the Bedford A. C. of Ridgewood, McCovern and Goldman fought first, but Wagner had the better of Coster. It was announced that the winners would fight a week hence for the right to meet Monte Attili, of California, for the bantam championship, but as the McGovern-Goldman bout was inconclusive, there will have to be further preliminaries.

PITCHING SOME.

JERSEY CITY, July 12.—Lattie, of the Providence Eastern League Club, who was with the Detroit Americans earlier in the season, today pitched a no-hit game against the Jersey City team, but lost the contest, 2 to 0, because of errors which were made behind him. Lattie is a college graduate and is a brother of Cincinnati's new catcher.

FOG STOPS THE YACHTS

CUNY'S HARBOR, Me., July 12.—Very few miles easting were made today by the Eastern Yacht Club fleet in its cruise to Bar Harbor, for, as the yachts were starting for Pemaquid Point a thick fog-bank rolled in and stopped further sport for the day.

DOUBLE QUICK COMPOSING.

Sir Arthur Sullivan wrote the overture to "The Yeomen of the Guard" in twelve hours and that to "Iolanthe" in less space of time—from 9 p. m. to 7 a. m. But even this capacity for speed in composition is eclipsed by M. Bomgard, who for a wagger composed the music to a song in ten minutes. Mr. N. Trotere, however, is the composer of whom most quick time anecdotes are told. His beautiful song "Asthore" was both written and composed in forty minutes in Blanchard's restaurant. The melody of "In Old Madrid" was the result of a sudden inspiration. It came to the composer while on his way home from the equarium. Set it should escape him he rushed into a small public house in Rochester Row, seized a biscuit bag and on it jotted down the air. But Mr. Trotere holds the championship. It is said that he actually composed "The Bow of the Nile" wrote a letter and ran 440 yards to post it in eight minutes.

BRITANNIA STILL RULES WAVES, SAYS A NEW YORK PAPER. The Tribune Publishes Editorial on Features of the British Manoeuvres.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The Tribune publishes a long editorial on the British naval manoeuvres. "The mimic fleet of the British fleet this year," it says, "is noteworthy for more reasons than one. The scene and plan of the operations are highly significant upon the United Kingdom is deemed most probable, or least improbable, the revival of the red, white and blue divisions is interesting from historical and sentimental points of view. The discipline and the secrecy which are being maintained are strongly suggestive of the conditions of actual warfare. Moreover, the expedition with which the ships were put out to sea, for action and were equipped with all the latest war complements of men must have been exceedingly gratifying to the administrative officers of the Admiralty, and must have gone far toward correcting the suspicion of unreadiness."

The most striking feature of all, however, is probably the number of ships engaged in the manoeuvres and the enormous increase over other recent assemblages of the imperial navy. The increase is to be noted in nearly all classes of ships, and most of all in the important fighting classes, and in the feet as a whole it amounts to considerably more than 100 per cent. over the showing of the two great reviews of 1897 and 1902. Thus, of big battleships there were in Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee review, in 1897, only 21, and in King Edward's coronation review, in 1902, the same number, while in the present operations there are no fewer than 40. Of those powerful armored cruisers which are practically battleships there were in 1897 only 4 and in 1902 only 6, while now there are 27. Of those destroyers which Mr. Kipling has celebrated as the deadliest of all craft, "the choosers of the slain," there were 20 in 1897 and 32 in 1902, and now there are 117. Torpedo boats have increased from 20 in 1897 and 6 in 1902, to 73, while submarines, which were non-existent in the two reviews, now number 25. The totals are 165 in 1897, 125 in 1902 and 350 in 1909.

Not long after the great Chelsea fire some children in Newton, Mass., held a charity fair by which $15 was realized. This they forwarded to the pastor of a certain Boston church who had taken a prominent part in the relief work, with a letter which read somewhat as follows: "We have had a fair and made $15. We are sending it to you. Please give it to the Chelsea sufferers. Yours truly, etc. P. S.—We hope the suffering is not all over."

THE EVILS OF SMOKE.

'Any man who becomes a faddist can find most plausible arguments to back up the opinions which he chooses to advocate, but when a supposedly sane individual gets up and says that by suppressing the smoke nuisance in great cities seventy-five per cent. of those who now die from consumption could be saved, it is time to have his head examined. The International Association for the Prevention of Smoke, which is in reality composed to a large extent of manufacturers and smoke consumers, has recently concluded its session at St. Louis, Mo., and its chief officer, Mr. H. M. Wilson, chief engineer in the United States Geological Survey, read a paper on the loss occasioned by smoke; the actual damage to property in the destruction of merchandise, defacement of buildings, tarnishing of metals, injury to plant life and the increased labor and cost of housekeeping, he estimated at $800,000,000 annually. The smoke evil he declared to be one of the greatest dangers of modern times, destroying health, lowering human vitality and increasing the death rate. In the larger cities more than 20,000,000 live, and these suffer all the losses which make the grand total. His estimate means a per capita loss of $20.00 a year by every man, woman and child among the city dwellers. Mr. Wilson, in the preparation of his address on this subject, secured masses of information bearing on the question, but it is obvious that to a scientist of his standing should not be led into making so emphatically such definite statements, which, at the best, are really nothing more than guess work. There is no doubt that smoke means unhealthiness, it is equally true that the continual breathing of toxic smoke predisposes the lungs to tuberculosis, but certainly it should not be argued, as Mr. Wilson holds, that three-fourths of the death of consumption can be prevented if the smoke nuisance is eliminated. The fact that the death rate in the United States has increased almost in the same proportion as the consumption of coal should not be used as an argument in support of the contention that the smoke from this coal causes the larger number of deaths. The smokeless city is the ideal, and the day will come when this condition will be realized, but it will be not so much through the consumption of smoke as by the introduction of electricity to all those uses to which steam is now put.

THE COUNTY ROADS.

The supporters of the Hagan government are pointing with pride to the new highway act as an argument why St. John county should return a government supporter at the coming by-election. The fact that the revised act has been in force for a short time is given as an excuse for the fact, which is so painfully apparent, that the roads of the county are not in better condition. Miss the Staber house at Flatbush, where there can be no excuse for the manner in which the highways are approaching St. John, have been allowed to fall into disrepair during the past year. By even reasonable care it would have been possible to prevent the roads getting into such a disgraceful state and with the exercise of a little of the enterprise with which the government lays such vigorous claims, it would have been possible to have shown a marked improvement during the past season. No better example of the worst kind of roads with which the people have to be content could be found than the stretch leading to the back entrance of Fernhill Cemetery. A large amount of travel passes over this road as it forms the most convenient mode of access to the cemetery. If consideration for the living would not move the government's agents to look after this piece of road they might at least pay a little attention to its claims out of respect to the dead whose remains are bumped mercilessly over the rocks and ruts of this road on their last journey. It is true that the dead have no voice, but it would seem to be in rather bad taste to overlook a matter of this kind on that account. The government could do a whole lot to make itself popular with the people of both the city and county of St. John by having that highway act a chance to show what it can do on this particular stretch of highway.

REPUTABLE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE PAY OF THESE EXTRA CONSTABLES, WHILE THE MAYOR CONTENDS THAT THE MUNICIPALITY IS LIABLE FOR EXPENSE INCURRED BY HIS AUTHORITY.

On the other hand Mayor Douglas, having entered his protest against the militia—who by the way are not strikers—has declared that Chace Bay will not foot the bills. The militia department, however, will collect the money from the municipality, as, under the law, the Mayor is not the only one by whom troops may be requisitioned, and the request from Judge Finlayson being in every way regular, renders the municipality liable.

"AH GOD, FOR A MAN WITH HEART, HEAD, HAND, AND FEET."

One still strong man in a blatant land. Whatever they call him, what care I, Aristocrat, democrat, autocrat—one who can rule. —Tempsy.

YES, WE "ENDORSE" EACH OTHER RIGHT ENOUGH.

"Hear, hear," we cry, "t'was excellently said." Our hearts, no doubt, are of the proper stuff, and here and there a head—

BUT, WHEN WE LOOK TO FEEL THE GUIDING HAND.

Laid to the promised task betimes and now, Like patient oxen in the tithes we stand, With none to steer the plough.

OH, YOU HAVE HEARD US, YOU FROM OVER-SEA.

Have heard our statements, every brand and hue, Talk with a wondrous unanimity Of what we ought to do;

BUT THINK YOU WE SHALL DO IT? AH, GOOD SIR,

The thought is prompted by a guestly tact, Or you are misinformed of what occurs in the domain of fact.

NOT THAT WE SHIRK THE SACRIFICE TO PAY!

Nor that our ancient pride of race is lost; But our chosen leaders make delay, Stopping to count the cost.

A DECADE STOOD, IN THAT DISASTROUS YEAR

We put our finger on the cankered spot, Saying, "We'll have the surgeon's lancet, And let it clean forgot."

THAT IS OUR WAY, DOWN WHICH WE EVER DRIFT;

Hopeful that with the Hour will come the Man, We wait to call to action, stern and swift, To clinch the pondered plan;

AND STILL WE NEED A RULER WHO CAN RULE,

An arm to stem the iron white it flows, And we are left to let our fervour cool, And the good moment goes.

HONEST WE GRANT THEM; WE'RE AN HONEST BREED;

We talk and talk and talk of England's needs, And nothing's ever done!

POOR "WEARY TITAN" (THAT'S THE TERM THEY USE)—

Wearily I can't think why, unless for lack Of exercise to keep her splendid thighs From growing soft and slack—

'TIS TO THE SONS OUR CANDOUR MAKES APPEAL

(Trusting the family to bear the truth) That you should give her tonic stiff with steel, And so renew her youth;

YET NOT ASSUME THE CYCLOPS CAPTIOUS MOOD,

For such irreverence would become you ill, Since, at her worst and weariest, And she's a Titan still. O. S.

AGED COUPLE WERE BEATEN TO DEATH

And Not Suffocated When House Burned as Was First Supposed—Landlord Suspected

NEW YORK, July 12.—A coroner's autopsy today proved conclusively that Thomas Verity, 73 years old, and his wife, Cynthia, 61, whose bodies were found early yesterday in the ashes of the house at Patchogue, L. I., where they lodged, were not smothered by the smoke or burned to death. They had apparently been beaten to death in bed, while they lay asleep. The woman's scalp bore three gashes, one five inches long while the old man's head was badly cut.

AQUEDUCT RUNS THROUGH VEINS OF GOLD

Laborers Fight for Chance to Work in Trench—Pocket of Gold Found in Excavations

RANDBURG, Calif., July 12.—The water supply of Los Angeles from the filtered snows of the Owens Valley County will wind through strata of gold. Parts of the aqueduct are found to be heavy with veins, and in a number of cases pockets of gold have been taken away. Some places of the construction, laborers actually dig for, because of the chance of striking a pocket. From one stretch of excavation less than twelve feet long, samples of high grade ore were taken which in some instances show assays of $200.

OHIO FUNERAL BLOW ABOUT BY TORNADO

Hamilton, Ohio, July 12.—More than a score of persons were injured in a tornado that swept over the northeastern part of Butler County late today. At least nine persons were killed, including Mrs. Sarah Lloyd, a widow, who was struck by a flying fragment of a building, and killed instantly. Several other persons were injured, and a number of houses were damaged.

WELLAND CANAL TIED UP BY WASHOUT

ST. CATERINES, July 13.—A washout occurred yesterday morning at Lock 15 on the Welland Canal. The canal is tied up for now long no can say. Several vessels are waiting to get through.

BRIEF DESPATCHES

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 12.—With 90 million before him, Edward Payson Weston tonight proceeded on his way to San Francisco, where he will end his walk from New York.

STRENSBY, Ohio, July 12.—Mary Miller, of New Brighton, Pa., was killed and several others injured in an electrical storm which swept the camp meeting grounds of the Free Methodists here tonight. A testimony meeting was being held. Miss Miller had been the last to give testimony.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., July 12.—Howard A. Parsons, aged 90 years, was suffocated in a fire which destroyed his home at 12 Russell avenue, here late tonight. His body was found in his kitchen by the firemen after the fire had gained considerable headway. The dead man leaves a wife and children.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 12.—A storm of wind and rain that was particularly severe in the Missouri Valley tonight swept around until it had encircled Chicago, according to reports received by telegraph companies whose wires are in bad shape. Wires are down in every direction from Chicago. The storm extends from Louisville to Minneapolis and from Kansas City and Dubuque to Cleveland. It is reported to be working eastward.

AMESBURY, Mass., July 12.—Mystery surrounds the drowning this afternoon of Patrick Campbell, 55 years old, of this city, whose body was picked up off Hampton Beach, Campbell, who is an employe of the Atlantic Boat Company, started this afternoon in one of the company's boats for Bath, Maine. Nothing was seen of him until his body was floating later off Hampton Beach. There was no sign of his boat. He leaves four children.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12.—At a conference at the White House today it was definitely decided that the rate to be levied under the new corporation tax shall be reduced from two per cent. to one per cent., and that on re-drafting the measure, now in conference, along with the tariff bill to meet various objections that have been raised, due consideration shall be given to the demands of the Mutual Life Insurance companies, whose incomes would be seriously affected by the tax in its original form.

REGULAR MEETING

Mr. McLean's Resignation is Received—Other Matters Dealt With

The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held last evening in their rooms, Union street. H. Colby Smith, a new member, who was appointed to replace W. C. R. Allen, was extended a welcome and introductions followed.

After reading and accepting the minutes of the last meeting, applications from about fifteen graduates holding teachers' licenses were read and referred to the teachers' committee.

The applications for increases from Miss Robinson and Mr. McKinnon, and four months' leave of absence from Miss Warring were also referred to the teachers' committee, with power to act.

Chairman R. B. Emerson then read a letter from W. A. McLean, tendering his resignation as principal of Albert school, to take up his duties as inspector.

After accepting the resignation it was moved that a testimonial be sent to Mr. McLean for the faithful performance of his duties during the past thirty years.

Pauline W. Livingston sent a letter of thanks for alms received during her illness.

A letter of resignation was accepted from Clara W. Fritz.

The Board of Education, through W. S. Carter, sent a communication declining to make any arrangement for more holidays for the city schools.

This letter caused considerable discussion and upon motion of Mr. Colwell the following committee were appointed to wait upon the government: The chairman, Mayor Bullock and M. Coll.

A further effort will be made to secure the desired additional holidays.

An application received for the position of janitor of Winter street annex, was referred to the following committee: M. Coll, J. V. Russell and Mayor Bullock, with power to act.

Dr. Bridges considered three convictions had had the desired effect and former truants had attended more regularly since. Wm. Curtis, Roland Lemon and Harry Noakes had been dealt with.

Applications from Ira H. Humphrey and H. P. McPate for positions on the teaching staff were referred to the teachers' committee. A communication from Miss Curry re the Manual Training staff, was also referred to the committee.

It is expected that the new school building on Winter street will be in readiness for the fall, as only the upper floor remains unfinished.

Mr. Geo. E. Day reported that the lot recently acquired by the board on Newman street ready to be fenced in.

The ground will be neatly appreciated by the children of that school.

Trust Officer McManis reports twelve irregular and four total truants for the month of June.

The board then adjourned.

A NEW LINE OF TALK

Unexpected Experience of a Drummer

In a Car With a Pretty Girl.

"Is this seat engaged?" he asked of the prettiest girl in the car, and, finding that it wasn't, he put his sams box in the rack and braced himself for solid enjoyment.

"Pleasant all," said the girl, looking for him before he could get his tongue unknotted. "Most bewilderly day, isn't it?"

"Oh, yes; thanks," murmured the drummer.

"Glad it's resumed the girl cheerfully, "You don't look so. Let me put my shawl under your head, won't you? Hadn't you better sit next to the window and let me describe the landmarks to you?"

"No, please," she murmured. "I'm doing well enough."

"May I buy some peanuts or a loaf of bread? Suppose I slip an arm around your waist. Just lean forward a trifle, please, so that I can."

"You'll—your hand to excuse me gasped the wretched drummer, "don't think you'll rest your head on my shoulder? No one will notice just lay your head right down and I tell you stories."

"Very comfortable; and the poor drummer looked around helplessly.

"Your scarfpin is coming out. Let's fix it there," and she arranged a deftly. "At the next station I'll give you a cup of tea, and when we arrive at our destination you'll let me call you!" And she smiled benevolently right into his pallid countenance.

"I think I'll go and smoke," said the drummer as he hauled down his gris sack and made a bolt for the door. Puck.

Recently accepted the invitation of his old chum Potts, Briggs Journey over to the little seaside town for a few days' rest. Whilst going out for a quiet walk one evening, Potts noticed his neighbor, Hland, sitting in his garden idly enjoying a cigar, and of course, observed customary greetings and passed on.

"Decent chap is Hland, you know Briggs. Very charitable and considerate, and causes a lot of money to be distributed among the poor and aged."

"Glad to hear it, old fellow. I'm sure," replied Briggs. "Your friend is retired, I suppose?"

"No—oh, no," said Potts, rather eagerly.

"What does he do, then?"

"Oh, he's the district officer for the old-age pensions," remarked the jovial Potts.

And Briggs then laughed good-humoredly.

SPONGE FINDING.

The Work on the Florida Coast Controlled by Greeks.

There are two places where sponge fishing can best be studied--Tarpon Springs, on the west coast of Florida, and Batabano, on the south coast of Cuba. In Florida the business is conducted with all the ceremony and science which the money of a New York corporation can control. In Cuba, on the contrary, it is pursued with all the primitiveness and leisure associated with sponge fishing since classic times.

In Florida the fishing is mostly done by professional divers. Greeks who have migrated from the Old World to the New to follow their calling. In the Greek quarter at Tarpon you may see Greek houses, Greek costumes and hear the Greek language. Even the boats from which the divers work, boats of immense strength, 40 feet by 16 feet, are brought from Greece. The divers in the Gulf wear diving suits of the most modern and perfect make. The dress is heavily weighted with lead and leaden shoes are worn. The men carry only a large sponge bag.

The sponges are found at about a hundred feet, and the diver walks along, gathering them as he goes. The boat followed him on the surface, pumping fresh air to him and hauling up the full and lowering the empty bags. The diver often remains down for two or three hours, continually walking and gathering. The diving suits are so perfect and the water so clear there is little risk except from sharks. These monsters infest the Gulf waters and many are the thrilling encounters the divers report. The divers carry no weapons and a knife would be worse than useless. If one shark was driven off or even killed the first trace of blood would bring a dozen more circling around. The suits are so heavy it is impossible to move away. The only course when a man-eater appears on the scene is to remain absolutely still, for the shark will not touch anything it thinks dead. This is a counsel of perfection for it requires more than ordinary nerve to remain motionless with a man-eater nosing around.

At Batabano the Cuban fishermen still employ the old sky glass and rake methods which were in vogue in Florida before the latest commercializing methods revolutionized the industry. The Cuban goes out in a small chalupe, a cross between a river boat and a canoe, carrying his professional instruments. These latter drop a pole 20 to 30 feet long fitted at the end with a three-pronged rake, and a large bucket from which the bottom has been knocked out and substituted by a piece of ordinary window glass. By means of this glass the sponges can be distinctly seen on the bottom of the sea.

With no small skill the rake is brought into play, the sponges harpooned and the catch brought to the surface. The whole process of sponge fishing in a shallow skiff without upsetting and at the same time to spy out sponges through the glass bottom of an inverted bucket and further to acquire those sponges on the end of a 50-foot pole is a complication of arts.

The sponge being an animal it is necessary to kill it. This is done by exposing it for several hours on the broad decks of the boats. In summer they soon die, but in winter it takes a long time owing to the weaker force of the sun. After death they are brought ashore and put in the cradles. These are enclosures made on the seashore by setting stakes a little apart from each other. The sponges and flow of the tide wash the animal matter from the sponges and the work is completed by manual labor. They are then taken to the packing-house, graded, string and baled. --Florida Times-Journal.

GLASTONBURY, THE VALHALLA OF EMPIRE

Two interesting suggestions have been made with regard to the Empire. One is that Glastonbury Abbey (handed over to the Church of England the other day) shall be made a cemetery for the Empire, and the other is that there shall be a special room in the National Portrait Gallery for the men who have built up the British Empire.

The first suggestion is due to Rev. C. L. Marson, who outlined his project in the Nation. "It was the religious centre in which grew up the work of the makers of England--Alfred, St. Dunstan, Edgar, and Athelstan. It was the burial place of King Arthur, and the home of his romance. Thus English, Irish, Scots and Welsh are equally concerned in it. It is the one shrine in all the Empire where each wave and race of men has worshipped continuously at one altar.

"For over three centuries and a half the sacred acres have been widowed and desolate. Now there is life stirring there once more. Something is to be done. "What we really want is what some jovial pagans of the Press call a Valhalla, what might be better described as a cemetery for the Empire, where each one of the new nations should have a portion, with power to send the bones of those who delight to honor or lie in that holy ground, with as much faith and hope as they can muster.

A REMINDER TO NEW LANDS. "Imagine what it would be to visit Glastonbury and muse not only of those who have done great things and thought mighty thoughts in a remote spot, but on those who have seen and known and loved and obeyed--the men who led us, not only in battle and in law, but in song, in color, in witty invention, discovery, exploration, and in any great deed or thought. "What a fine reminder to the new and naked lands, to breed, not millionaires, wheat kings, corn, beef, oil, or tomato king, but men whom all the states would equally delight to praise and approve. What finer reproof could be given to the inhabitants of any quarter of the Empire than to notice that their share of the plot was empty or filled with braggarts and loyal nobodies?"

Several local physicians leave today for Charlottesville, P. E. I., to attend the 15th annual meeting of the Maritime Medical Association being held July 14th and 15th. Among those who will attend are Dr. A. Pierce Crockett and wife, Dr. G. Corbett, Dr. G. A. Corbett and wife, Dr. S. Skinner, Dr. G. G. Melvin and wife, Dr. W. B. McVey and Dr. H. D. Fyfe of St. John, and Dr. Atherton and W. C. Crockett of Fredericton.

The session opens at 10 a. m. Wednesday, and after routine business Mayor Prowse will give an address of welcome to the delegates. Dr. P. C. Murphy of Timaru will preside. During the convention the following papers will be read by local physicians: "When to Operate in Suppuration of Middle Ear," Dr. A. Pierce Crockett; "Demonstration of Skiagrams with Special Reference to Fractures," Dr. G. Corbett; "Etiology of Consumption," Dr. W. B. McVey; "Case of Cerebral Tumor," Dr. Murray; "Meningitis," Dr. Atherton; "Dr. S. Skinner. The treatment of tuberculosis will receive considerable attention, as several well informed men will read treatises, among them being Drs. A. Murray, Sarason, N. Y., J. W. Finlay, Prescott, Arizona, and M. C. Dickson of Londonderry, N. S.

ENTERTAINMENT for the visitors will include excursions on the river, a visit to the asylum, smokers, concerts, etc., which should prove most enjoyable.

GREAT SHAKUP AT WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12--The greatest "shake-up" that ever has occurred in the person of the Department of Commerce and Labor took place today when approximately 300 employees were reduced and the resignations of about ten others were accepted. This action was taken by Secretary Nagle as the result of an investigation into the "efficiency record" of the employees in his department. The reductions were made, it is stated.

THE KETTLEDRUM

It is an Instrument That is Pretty Difficult to Handle. The kettledrum has been so far improved that it has a pitch; in fact, it contains the large range of four notes. It is, as its name shows, a copper kettle, or basin, covered over with skin, which can be tightened or loosened by screws placed around the edge. Drums of this shape were used by the Romans, and even earlier by the Greeks and Phoenicians. But they were not known in western Europe before the crusades.

Although it may appear so, the kettledrum is not at all an easy instrument to manage. For in order to set each of the four notes the player has to turn all the screws and adjust the parchment area. For this reason kettledrums are often used in pairs, one tuned to the keynote, the other to the fourth below. In this way the drummer has always the two chief notes in the scale to work upon, and if the composer has not exacted much from him he will have quite an easy time. But when a change of key is approaching it is quite exciting to watch the drummer screwing and unscrewing the drum and lightly tapping to hear if the pitch is true, and if we recollect that he often has to tune his drum while the whole orchestra is lifting up its voice we realize that he must be no mean musician, that he must possess an exquisitely sensitive and well trained ear and a steady hand and nerve as well--Justice K. MacDonald in St. Nicholas.

NOW A SEA SERPENT.

Python Escaped From Steamer After Fight With Captain and Crew.

(New York Evening Post.)

In the course of the last few weeks watch ships coming from Asiatic ports for sea serpent yarns. The British freighter Indragama, now discharged from cargo at the Bush docks, solved the need for a plentiful crop while crossing the Indian Ocean, swimming lazily in the ship's wake with head well up in its new role of sea serpent.

Even when the Malays and Lascars who sought safety aloft refused to return to duty, it was time to change tactics, but some of each shift were perched on the crossbeams, and others safely battened down in the forecastle. Both disregarded orders until the captain and his mates had lugged the big box containing the other two pythons up on deck and convinced them that the snakes were still in captivity.

This was only one of several exciting incidents logged by the Indragama's captain after leaving New York in December last. While running from Cebu to Singapore, in April, smoke was discovered, about 5 o'clock one morning, coming from the forward hold. All hands were piled, and when the hatches were uncovered flames burst out in the faces of the men. Second Officer Cox and two seamen were scorched and overcome by the fumes.

It was found that fire had started in a lot of hemp, and when the hatches were opened, the draft caused it to burn brightly. Finding it impossible to fight the fire with the hatch opened, Captain Evans ordered the covers put on and battened down. This was accomplished with great difficulty in the face of the flames.

Then the crew started to build a false bulkhead athwart decks, while the engineers were ordered to cut the rivet heads in the deck plates over the hold. It was not an easy job, for the deckplates were hot. By the time the bulkhead was constructed and the water-tight, to serve as a dam, the engineers had completed their task, the forward hatch being riddled with holes. The pumps were then started and the deck flooded. The immediate bulkhead kept the water from working aft, and it filtered through the bolt holes to the burning cargo below.

Snakes and fire were not the only features of the voyage. In the Japan Sea a succession of typhoons struck the vessel, keeping her officers on the bridge for seventy hours, in an effort to carry the ship through to safety. As sitting climax the steamship ran into to a hurricane just south of the Gulf Stream, and a lively twelve hours ensued.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., July 12.--Three minutes after the steel steamer, Isaac M. Scott and John B. Cowie, had collided in Lake Superior early this morning, about a mile and a half off Whitefish Point Lighthouse, the Cowie had gone to the bottom in 29 fathoms of water, carrying with her 14 members of her crew. The Scott, although barely damaged about the bows, put back to this port, where she arrived this afternoon, with part of the crew of the Cowie. A heavy fog was responsible for the collision. The Scott, a new boat on her maiden trip to the head of the lakes, had just straightened out her course up the lake when the Cowie loomed up through the fog, only a few feet away down bound with 8,000 tons of iron ore in her hold.

CLOCK MADE OF BICYCLES.

A clever Frenchman named Alphonse Daham has constructed a timepiece twelve feet high, composed entirely of bicycles or their component parts. The framework is a huge bicycle wheel, round which are arranged twelve ordinary sized wheels, all fitted with pneumatic tires. A rim with in the large wheels bears the figures for the hours, the figures themselves being constructed of crank rods. The hands are made of steel tubing which is used for the framework of bicycles. The minute strokes on the dial are small nickel-plated pieces. The top of the clock is an arrangement of twelve handle bars. The clock strikes its hours and the quarters, bicycle bells, of course, making the chimes. The pendulum is made of various parts of a bicycle frame. It is said that the clock, besides being a curiosity, is an excellent time piece.

OSTRACIZED DEPUTY.

PARIS, July 8.--M. Bandon, who carried through the law increasing the salaries of himself and his colleagues in the French chamber, has made himself so unpopular that no electorate will have him and he has been obliged to withdraw from politics.

Conditions and General Information of the Contest!

THE CONTEST IS OPEN TO EVERYONE

Any person residing in the territory in which The Sun or the The St. John Star or Weekly News circulates is eligible to enter the contest.

The contest manager reserves the right to reject any nominations.

Votes will be issued on paid-in-Advance subscriptions to The Sun, Star, and Weekly News.

A coupon will also be published in The Sun and Star, which, when neatly cut out, name filled in, and brought or mailed to the Contest Department within ten days, will count as votes.

The first thing to do is to enter your name as a candidate, then either call, write or phone The Sun office for a receipt book with which to secure subscriptions. Then let all your friends know you are in the contest and request them to save their votes for you.

Candidates may nominate themselves or may be nominated by their friends.

No employe or member of employe's family of The Sun Printing Co. can enter the contest.

All special vote ballots issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the contest, and they may be voted at the discretion of the candidate or subscriber.

Votes are not transferable.

Votes will be allowed on subscriptions secured anywhere in Canada, But subscriptions must be paid in advance to secure votes.

The votes will be counted and canvassed by a committee of prominent citizens.

In case of a tie the prize will be divided between the contestants tying.

Any questions which may arise will be settled by The Sun Printing Co., and its decisions will be absolute and final. Nominations must have the address of the candidates.

How to Win a Valuable Prize

Send in your nomination. You will find a nomination blank printed on another page. The nomination blank is good for 1,000 votes, which gives you a fine start.

Then enlist the aid of your friends and neighbors. Use your telephone. Let everyone know that you are a candidate before they promise their help to a mere enterprising candidate.

Be ambitious and determined to win. If you have friends you cannot see at once, write to them.

You can get votes and subscriptions anywhere, from the other districts as well as your own.

Votes will be given on new subscriptions and renewals of old subscriptions that are paid to you in advance.

Call or send to The Sun and Star office for a receipt book. The Contest Manager will be glad to have you call so that he can explain anything you do not understand. Telephone or write to him if you cannot call, and a representative will give you full details.

Secure every Daily Vote Coupon possible. But work for the Special Ballots. They count the most.

Ask your friends to help you. If you belong to a church, society or any organization, let your fellow members know that you expect their help. It will be freely given if you only ask before it is given to some other candidate.

Don't forget that the children can do the most effective work in collecting Daily Coupons, as well as secure you many paid-in-advance subscriptions.

Should your father, brother, mother, sister or friends belong to any organization, get them to secure the votes and assistance of the members of the organization.

Do not let a day pass without securing some subscriptions and votes. The steady, persistent work is what will make you the winner of a valuable prize. Keeping everlastingly at it always brings success.

Any one, anywhere, can vote for any candidate. Candidates can secure votes and subscriptions anywhere.

It is easier to ask questions than to correct mistakes. Do not hesitate to ask questions. The Contest Manager is at The Sun office to help you.

Do not get discouraged. Once nominated do not drop out. You can win. These valuable prizes will be won by some one. Why not by you!

Your Friends Will Help You

Hundreds of people will have no personal friends in the contest. You can secure their friendship and subscriptions if you only ask them. They will also secure votes for you from their friend.

A little organization among your friends for systematic work in your interest will go a long way toward making you the winner of the Grand Prize.

Increase Your Vote Each Day

For further information phone or ask for Contest Manager who will be glad to answer any questions.

TWENTY-ONE-KNOT STEAMSHIPS FOR C.P.R. ATLANTIC LINE

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy arrived at St. Andrews on Sunday with his two daughters, who have just returned from a season spent in one of the leading educational institutions of the old country.

Seated on the broad veranda of his beautiful seaside home yesterday afternoon he discussed with a Sun reporter very freely and very courteously a number of topics of public interest.

With respect to the running of Sunday trains he said it was only an experiment, one that had for its object the comfort and convenience of the travelling public.

He insisted the popularity of the Grand Trunk Sunday trains out of Toronto.

He said the company had had in mind some radical changes. These changes were demanding a larger and better type of steamers, and it was in the mind of the company to transfer some of their large boats from the Atlantic.

He mentioned the popularity of the Grand Trunk Sunday trains out of Toronto.

MAINE TROUBLED BY PLAGUE OF INSECTS

Two Species of Bugs Devastating Crops of Farmers in the Northern State

Breed Rapidly and All the $25,000 Appropriated by Legislature Needed to Eradicate Them.

BANGOR, Me., July 12.—Close students of the Old Testament claim that Maine is now suffering from an infliction of bugs and other devastating insects that is worse than the one which fell upon Egypt in the days of Moses.

There are two species of bugs in strips that are proving very costly. The yellow-and-black squash beetle is gnawing cucumbers, pumpkins, squashes, melons and allied plants to the ground as fast as the leaves appear.

Many thirty Maine orchards are practically leafless and clad in a gray network of web spun by the apple tree caterpillars, which are very abundant, especially east of the Penobscot River.

Residents of Plymouth, Newport, Dixmont and adjoining towns in Penobscot county have been in a state of alarm since the appearance of the pest.

APPRECIATION OF A BRITISH AMBASSADOR

Here is a very bright appreciation of Mr. James Bryce, the British Ambassador to the United States.

JOKE ON BRITISH EMBASSY. "However, the right Honorable James Bryce, P. C., Ambassador, has a sense of humor. Make a speech at the unveiling of the statue of John Witherspoon? He repeated when they asked him: 'Certainly! I shall be very glad.' Just as if he was accustomed to making speeches once a week at the unveiling of the lives and public works of intense, but deceased, persons who were wont to hurl distance and tea and other deadly weapons at the door of the Embassy with one eye and read with the other eye.

WATCHMAN HOLDS THE RECORD FOR ACCIDENTS

Massachusetts Man Has Broken Hands, Ankles and Skull and Has an Injured Spine.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 12.—One of the watchmen on the steamer New Haven visiting between this port and New York, Joseph P. Vollemere, a native of Antwerp, Belgium, thirty-one years old, who has a record for meeting with accidents, though his record, he looks much younger than that, is and is proverbial for cheerfulness.
