

MRS. GLOVER ASKED TO RECALL PAST

Widow of Murder Victim on Stand Repudiates Insinuations That She is Guilty Party.

Twice Married to Glover, First Time Illegal -- Search for Hattie LeBlanc's Letter.

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 1.—A verbal duel between Mrs. Lillian M. Glover, widow of Clarence F. Glover, and Melvin M. Johnson, the leading counsel for Hattie LeBlanc, who is on trial for the murder of Glover, held the interest of the court room for the whole of today's sessions, and was not concluded when court adjourned.

The cross-examination by Mr. Johnson, who had announced yesterday that he intended to show that Mrs. Glover had the motive, the capacity, and opportunity for the murder of her husband, covered today much of Mrs. Glover's life since she came to Boston from Cape Breton, and dealt minutely with her actions and feelings on the day and night of the murder and the few days that followed.

Mr. Johnson brought out the fact that Mrs. Glover was twice married to Glover, once in Boston in 1890, and a second time in Providence ten years later. She said the second ceremony was because she understood that the first was not legal. She admitted certain falsehoods regarding her birthplace, and her name, when certain discrepancies in her testimony with that given at other hearings were pointed out.

She said that she sent for Hattie LeBlanc, who lived near her own birthplace, clothed her, and finally found her husband with her. She took the girl away for a week, but sent her back, and on the fatal night, November 20, 1890, Mr. Glover took both women to a football game.

One of the liveliest incidents of the day was over some letters, said to have been written by Hattie LeBlanc, which Mrs. Glover admitted holding. These letters had apparently disappeared, but Mr. Johnson was very anxious to get them and became so insistent that the district attorney started to defend the woman. Judge Bond, however, ordered the district attorney back to his seat. Just before the close of the forenoon session Mr. Johnson asked you to know any reason why Hattie LeBlanc should have shot your husband? Mrs. Glover replied that she did not.

Mrs. Glover told of being in nearly a dozen occupations from the time she reached Massachusetts until she bought the Waltham laundry in 1896, with her own money. She admitted that she was familiar with firearms and had used a revolver at a target. Coming to the night of the murder she said she went to the hospital where her husband was dying, accompanied by a police officer, but after starting up stairs to see Mr. Glover, she retraced her steps, because she felt faint and also because she heard Mr. Glover vomiting. She further understood that he was operated upon. An hour later she left the hospital without seeing him, and a few minutes after reaching her home, she was told of his death. She accounted for the greater part of the time on the fatal evening, saying that she was in the house until called to the hospital.

A great part of the day was spent in denials. Mr. Johnson asked the woman a hundred questions which contained insinuation, and all were denied with more or less vehemence. Mrs. Glover throughout the day, was cool and collected, but Mr. Johnson many times seemed exasperated and raised his voice until he was shouting his questions. When the fencing between the widow and the lawyer closed for the day, Mr. Johnson was still unconvinced that Mrs. Glover did not know the whereabouts of Hattie LeBlanc's letters, and she was urged to go home and find them. She promised to look for them, but said that nearly everything of value had been taken from her house.

Tuberculosis Commission Will Recommend To Government That Sanatorium Be Situated At River Glade.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Dec. 1.—It is understood that the report of the anti-tuberculosis commission has been received by the provincial government and that it recommends the acceptance of the offer of Mrs. James C. Jordan, widow of the deceased millionaire, son of Eben Jordan, of the firm of Jordan and Marsh, Boston, of her beautiful $50,000 home at River Glade, Albert county, for a tuberculosis hospital.

Mrs. Jordan was formerly Miss Stiles of Albert county and owns the beautiful summer residence at River Glade about five miles from the Intercolonial Railway, between Pettitcodiac and Sallsbury. When her husband died he left her upwards of one million dollars as well as the large amount of property he had given her during his lifetime.

The residence is admirably suited for a tuberculosis sanatorium and legislation will probably be passed at the annual session of the legislature for conducting the institution and it will likely be opened as a sanatorium for tuberculosis patients in the early summer of 1911. Premier Hazen and the members of the provincial government arrived here this evening and the monthly meeting of the executive council for December commenced tonight, being held somewhat earlier than usual on account of Premier Hazen and Provincial Secretary Flemming going to Ottawa to attend the interprovincial conference on Dec. 9.

This evening the members of the executive were engaged largely in dealing with routine business of the usual schedule. They will be here tomorrow in session.

TROUBLE OVER SCHOOL MATTER

Trustees of Riverside Consolidated School Fail To Agree On Teachers Complaint—Refer To Attorney General.

Albert, Dec. 1.—The monthly meeting of the trustees of the Provincial Consolidated Schools was held this afternoon and proved one of the most difficult sessions of the year. During the whole of the present year there has been more or less friction with W. C. R. Anderson, the principal, with the parents. The principal then asked the trustees to support him in the stand he had taken, but at the meeting today attended by Trustees Prescott, Barber and Downie and others, there was not unanimity of opinion. The principal thereupon tendered his resignation. The majority present refused, however, to accept it, Eugene Coup, secretary of the trustees, tendered his advice to the meeting, but it was decided to refer the matter to the Board of Education and the Attorney General. The latter will be communicated with at once.

REJOICING IN LISBON

Lisbon, Dec. 1.—The anniversary of Portugal's independence of the Spanish yoke, and the fête in honor of the new flag of the republic, were celebrated today amid great popular rejoicing. The new colors were hung on Independence Monument in the Avenida Liberdade in the presence of the cabinet ministers and a great gathering of people.

MONCTON BRIEFS. Moncton, Dec. 1.—C. S. Berry, the Moncton grocer, reported some days ago as having left town, returned voluntarily today and was arrested on a billable writ, by one of his creditors. It is reported Berry will make an effort to settle. The store of Dickson Taylor at Port Elgin was burglarized last Sunday, a

GOVERNMENT PRESTIGE DIMINISHED IN DEBATE

CHATEAU DRUMMOND ARTHABAS KA

Nationalists Voted With Laurier in Division Which Followed Strong Opposition Speeches—Hon. Mr. Foster Exposes Liberal Predilection for Race and Creed Cry in Days Gone By.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Dec. 2.—The division took place at 2 o'clock this morning. Mr. Borden's amendment was defeated by 126 to 70. Mr. Monk, and Messrs. Paquet, Lortie, Nantel, Blondin and Gilbert, voted with the government. The Monk amendment was defeated by 129 to 67. Mr. Verville voted for the amendment. Col. Sam Hughes voted with the government.

The address was not passed, as Mr. Aylesworth tomorrow will make a statement on the Hague award. In this connection it is to be noted in the amendment to the navy bill moved by R. L. Borden last session it was set forth: "That no permanent policy should be entered upon involving large future expenditures of this character, until it has been submitted to the people and has received their approval."

In the course of his remarks on that occasion Mr. Borden said: "Proceed slowly, cautiously and surely. Lay your proposals before the people and give them if necessary, opportunity to be heard. The will of this country today is that these different proposals ought to be submitted to the people and the people ought to be permitted to pass upon them before any permanent policy of this kind is engaged in."

"I am as strong as any man in the duty of Canada to participate upon permanent basis in the defence of this Empire and to do our reasonable share in that regard. I say that to attempt to force a policy of this kind upon the people of this country without giving them an opportunity to say yes or nay, with regard to it, would be one of the worst mistakes that would be made by any man."

DOMINION STEEL CO. TO KEEP STRIKEBREAKERS

Springhill, Dec. 1.—That the purchase of a controlling interest in the Springhill mines by the directors of the Dominion Steel Co. will not bring about any change of policy with regard to strike conditions, is made evident by the telegram received tonight by the officers of the company and which will be posted tomorrow.

Special to The Standard. Springhill, Dec. 1.—To all the officials and agents of the company: At a meeting of the board held today J. H. Plummer was elected president of the company and Hector McInnis, vice-president. I am desirous by the president to express the hope that every officer and employee of the company will continue to perform their customary faithful duty and to assure you on his behalf and on the behalf of those whom he represents, that there will be no interference with any officer or employee who serves the company with ability and industry. E. LAFLAMME, Secretary.

ELECTIONS ON NEXT AUTUMN

Report Credited At Ottawa That Laurier Will Abandon Trip To Coronation And Prepare For Verdict. Ottawa, Dec. 1.—There is a persistent rumor current tonight that the Government has determined to appeal to the country next autumn, and that with this in view, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has abandoned his proposed visit to London for the coronation, and so soon as parliament rises next May will devote himself to a tour of Quebec, the Maritime Provinces and Western Ontario, where he will seek to educate the people on the naval question.

The reason for this change of front is said to be the demand of the Ontario Liberals to seek the endorsement of the Government's naval policy at the hands of the electorate, as though they intend to vote against Mr. Borden's amendment for an immediate general election to test public opinion on the naval proposals. They feel that an election next autumn after the proposed tour of the Premier, will save the situation for the Liberals in Ontario. The oft repeated statements in parliament that nine out of ten constituencies in Ontario would vote against the order in council navy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, have been seriously taken to heart by the supporters of the Government from Ontario, and hence the demand for a whirlwind campaign of education and a snatch verdict at the polls.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster. The only speech made in the afternoon was Mr. Foster's. Mr. Foster in opening dealt with the record of the Liberal party on the race and creed cry business. He went no further back than 1896, and he accumulated a remarkable number of examples.

ROBERT M'ELROY PASSES AWAY

Well-Known Lumberman in Carleton County Dies After Lingering Illness—Had Made His Own Way. Woodstock, Dec. 1.—Robert McElroy of Grafton, the well known millman, who has been in failing health for some time, died at his home this afternoon aged 61 years.

He is survived by seven children, Mrs. Wallace Gibson, Mrs. Warren Hale, Misses Lou and Jean McElroy, and Messrs. George, Everett and Harry. Deceased was a member of the Foresters, joining the order in Dec 1891 and was transferred to Court Regina in Woodstock, in 1895. He was a Conservative in politics. Mr. McElroy was a native of York county and was a self made man, for after obtaining an elementary education he drifted into various commercial pursuits but mainly was engaged in lumbering, being connected with a mill plant in his native county. Subsequently he came to Debec where he conducted a hotel.

About 16 years ago he took possession of a mill erected by Hale and Stickney in 1875 in Grafton which he conducted successfully until about a year ago, when he sold it to the firm of McElroy and Murchie, the former being his locan George. Since his locan in Grafton he has er-

BALFOUR POLICY MAY LOSE VOTES

FOR SECOND TIME UNDER ARREST HERE

Amherst, Dec. 1.—Fire matters took another sensational turn tonight when D. M. Ferguson was re-arrested in St. John on another separate and distinct charge of arson. Ferguson and Miner were brought to Amherst yesterday, the former from St. John, the latter from Campbellton. After arranging bail to appear at the preliminary trial next Wednesday, Ferguson left for St. John to complete some business in that city. Some sensational evidence came into the hands of Chief Carter later in the day, which led to another information being laid against him and a second warrant issued for his arrest. Ferguson has owned a brick block on Victoria street containing three stories, two of which he occupied himself, and the centre store was occupied by A. J. Crease, druggist.

On September 9, a small fire was started in the cellar of Mr. Crease's house at 11 o'clock in the evening. No damage was done. The fire was discovered by young McDonald, who was also the first to locate the sections to his arrest this evening. It is currently reported in town today that the Canadian Bank of Commerce has purchased the Douglas block situated at the corner of Church and Victoria streets. The building was formerly occupied by the Union Bank prior to the merger with the Royal Bank. It is one of the best sites in Amherst.

Special to The Standard. Amherst, Dec. 1.—There is a possibility of an unlooked for result in the attempt of A. J. Balfour, the opposition leader, to remove tariff reform from the immediate field of politics. The question looms larger than ever in the campaign tonight, inasmuch as that Mr. Balfour himself, in a speech at Reading, was fain to explain that his party had not altered its views on this subject, and that tariff reform was still a chief plank in the party's constructive policy, but, he explained, the Unionists needed to obtain the formal and explicit consent of the people thereto. The policy of referendum, he said, was consistent with the true idea of popular government.

The fact is that Mr. Balfour's announcement on Nov. 29, that he was willing to submit tariff reform to a referendum, has rather sundered than knit his party and supplied the Liberals with another effective argument against tariff reform, namely that Mr. Balfour has been compelled to side track it.

Reply Of Premier. The interest in the speeches tonight centred in Premier Asquith's reply to the opposition leader. This was delivered at a great meeting at Wolverhampton. The Premier said:—"We are living in times of rapid movement, when it is a relief to wake any morning and not find some fresh part of the constitution reconstructed."

He described Mr. Balfour's "turn about face" on the questions of reform of the House of Lords and tariff reform as unique—almost indecent. He said that he could not imagine a greater caricature of the referendum than in putting a few abstract questions to the people without concrete embodiment of their proposals. If any one but a sane and responsible statesman had contemplated such a scheme he would be called a mad man.

After a study of the working of the referendum in foreign countries, the premier continued he had arrived at the conclusion that it had proved a most unsatisfactory and disappointing method of obtaining public opinion. Winston Spencer Churchill, the home secretary, displays untiring energy. He addressed several meetings at Dundee tonight and will deliver two speeches at Chester tomorrow. From there he will go by special train to Grimsby, where he will speak at midnight, replying to a speech which Mr. Balfour will make earlier in the evening. And in order to ascertain the nature of Mr. Balfour's address, special relays of motor cars will convey a verbatim report of this to the home secretary at Sheffield, enabling him to study the address on the train.

SAYS ST. JOHN IS NOT ONLY WINTER PORT

Senator Ross, Of Halifax Takes Exception To Remark Of Senator Edwards—Latter Meant "Best" Port. Ottawa, Dec. 1.—In the Senate today Senator Wm. Ross said he desired to call attention to what he regarded as a remarkable statement made by Senator Edwards yesterday when he said that St. John was the only port in eastern Canada which could be resorted to every day in the year. Senator Ross said the statement should not have been made as there were the ports of Yarmouth, Lunenburg, Halifax, Louisbourg, County Harbor and Arichat.

Senator Edwards said he should have been more explicit, as what he had intended to say was that St. John was the best harbor in the east which was always open. Sir MacKenzie Bowell called attention to the fact that there were three vacancies in the Senate, one from Quebec, one from Nova Scotia and one from Prince Edward Island. He suggested that in filling them the government might select someone who were not already in the House of Commons. This would enable the government to avoid the awkward situation which might follow the opening of constituencies.

After his speech at Grimsby, Mr. Churchill will return to Manchester, where he will speak on Saturday afternoon. He will go from there to Chester for another Liberal demonstration on Saturday night—a heavy 24 hours programme. The home secretary will have a special guard of detectives against suffragist attentions.

Members Of Staff On Transcontinental Entertain Their Friends With Ball At Capital—St. John Band Present. Special to The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 1.—The Engineers of the staffs of Residences 7 to 15, on the National Transcontinental Railway, were hosts at a brilliant affair at the Queen Hotel tonight, the affair being given as an entertainment of their friends prior to the completion of the work on the line for the G. T. P. in this province. About 150 were present and the patronesses were Mesdames C. O. Foss, Horace Longley, A. R. Foster, R. H. Cushing and G. M. Foster.

The committee in charge of the affair were Messrs. A. F. Foster, C. O. Foss, M. M. Black, C. B. Crossdale, R. M. Armstrong and R. M. Downing, who is secretary. A St. John orchestra, led by A. E. Jones, rendered a programme of fifteen dances which were appropriately named to follow the progress of railway construction work from "location" down to "final estimate."

There was a report in circulation today that the members of the orchestra were to be charged a city license by the civic authorities, but this was not done as it became known that the orchestra's services were donated by St. John people.

Portland, Me., Dec. 1.—With a load of her deck load of pulpwood washed away and after a continuous battle of six days with heavy seas, the steamer St. Andrews arrived here tonight, from Seven Islands, P. Q. Captain Nansen declared it the roughest trip he had known in years. The ship was not damaged, but several tons of her cargo, 4,262 tons of pulpwood, were swept from her decks. Several five buildings including his store and he had by his upright business methods and courteous treatment established a reputation as one of the most respected citizens of Grafton and Woodstock.

LATE GOSSIP FROM LONDON Ric and Poor to Aid 50,000 Strikers

Society Women Bound to Bar Uninvited Guests -- Queen Sets Style--Merits of British Soldiers Discussed.

London, Nov. 21.—No meeting of European sovereigns is complete without a hunting expedition, and the deer drive which the German emperor arranged last week for the benefit of the czar of Russia was of truly regal dimensions. It took place for the first time in the Kaiser's new preserves at Oranienburg, some thirty miles out of Berlin.

The deer—red deer, fallow deer and roebucks—had so increased in numbers since their removal from the Grunewald forest five years ago that there were over 5000, a third part of which were put at the disposal of the imperial guns. For miles round the tract was guarded by troops, and no ordinary mortal was permitted to gain a glimpse of the proceedings. A nearly 500 deer fell to the guns of the party at the big drive, the czar shooting nineteen and the Kaiser fifty. One superior twenty-two pointer brought down by the czar so delighted him that his host has given orders for the antlers to be preserved and forwarded to Russia.

The change of many costly gifts between the two imperial families. The Russian monarch brought for the Kaiserin as a present from the czarina some fine sapphires set in a pendant, and for the Kaiser's daughters three priceless pearls. The Kaiser presented his guests with some of the most beautiful specimens of Berlin royal porcelain, which the factories have ever produced, while for the little czarvitch he ordered a miniature automobile, a switchback railway and a merry-go-round.

The German monarch has always been a great admirer of Nicholas II's beautiful consort, who was, before her marriage, Princess Alix of Hesse, and the Kaiserin has never concealed a somewhat unreasonable jealousy of the czarina, both before and after her marriage. The two ladies never visit each other, and though the Kaiser is generally master of Germany, and his household, even he seems to be afraid of certain lectures, and this fact is believed to have accounted for the delay in the meeting between the two monarchs.

How to keep the unbidden guest away is a problem which London hostesses have been obliged to solve in a drastic manner. The other day, in a note printed in the fashionable news columns of a London paper, a well-known hostess requested all her guests invited to dine at a West End hotel to bring their cards of invitation. This request, new to London society brought sympathetic appreciation from other society women, who declare that the evil of uninvited guests crowding in at fashionable functions has grown to an intolerable extent.

One who recently gave a dance at a West End hotel for 250 guests found the rooms crowded with 400 people, all of whom pretended to have received invitations. It is impossible to separate the sheep from the goats in such a crush, and the hostess in annoyance had to pay a bill 60 per cent heavier than she had given to the caterer.

Some of these intruders are now pretty well known by their faces. Most hostesses have seen them repeatedly, but nobody seems to know exactly who they are. With a respectable front they are said to have attended, uninvited, practically every social function that held out a prospect of a good time. But their day is over, if "no card" means the production of invitation card" becomes a standing order.

However, little Queen Mary's opinion may affect fashions for adults, for what of dressing her children is being copied all over England. She believes in the plain and useful sailor costume and all young ladies from 3 to 12 years of age in the kingdom are being dressed in this fashion.

The boom in sailor suits throughout England has been astonishing. In London 50 per cent more perquisites are being sold than a year ago.

The princes wear sailor blouses of dark blue serge, short trousers and leggings, with reefer coats and cadet caps or sailor caps. Princess Mary wears a full dark blue serge blouse with white collar and short pleated skirt, reefer coat and sailor hat. Before long it will be exceptional to find an English child without a sailor suit.

Within a few weeks the British Parliament will be asked to pass the naval prize bill, a measure which will have a far-reaching effect. It is the legislative outcome of the declaration of London, signed by the representatives of the naval powers, including the United States, in February of last year, the object of the powers being to settle certain vexed questions of international law in naval war.

Some months ago a special committee composed of representatives of English mercantile, shipping and insurance interests was appointed by the London chamber of commerce to discuss the declaration of London, which, though signed, has not yet been ratified. The committee's report which was issued the other day is distinctly condemnatory.

The most important article in the declaration of London deals with "conditional contraband" which includes all foodstuffs. Such contraband is liable to confiscation. This clause, according to the committee, jeopardizes the supply of foodstuffs in war and the effect would be famine or famine prices, as neutral carriers would be unwilling to run the risk of conveying food to Great Britain. Shipments to neutral continental ports, on the other hand would involve no risk at all. The report adds:

"The irony of this danger to Great Britain is enhanced by the fact that such neutral continental ports may actually be supply ports relied on by the enemy, and that the enemy would even be permitted through such ports to import food for his armed forces openly and exempt from capture."

The committee therefore considers that the declaration of London appears to have been framed without sufficient regard to the fundamental difference between the situation of Great Britain and neutral powers.

One of the 6000 strikers who sold 62,000 newspapers in one day for their Relief Fund.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—All classes and kinds of people are flocking to the aid of the striking workers of ready-made clothes sold both at wholesale and by mail order to the entire country.

Poorly fed, poorly clad, the strikers have been in the streets for several weeks, bravely, they willingly suffer now for the benefit of their fellow workers.

All Chicagoans, from society to the slums, from church to saloon, are helping them, and the rest of the country is expected to follow the good example by adding in money to buy clothing and shoes for 2000 needy families and for 5000 hungry babies.

Physical dentists, barbers and lawyers have offered the strikers free services. Actors give benefit performances. Teachers, moving picture shows, dry stores and other business men devote their profits on certain days. Teachers feed and clothe the hungry. The "No Vote Tax" league, college students, teachers, ministers, have all helped.

Unions send donations by the thousands. Business men of prominent Chicago have appealed to the police to treat strikers gently.

Mrs. Frances Quire Potter, one of the nation's leading suffragists, and Miss Katherine Tomlin, the Wellesley school history teacher, who has collected money wherever men and women gather—in workshops as well as women's clubs. The exclusive "No Vote Tax" league, college students, teachers, ministers, have all helped.

Despite the hearty support in these many ways those in charge at the women's trade union league headquarters, 275 LaSalle street, say there is urgent need for more and make a scrubbing how on a score of occasions his wife had been persecuted and insulted by German men and women. She was left alone by her husband.

In many other forms this want of manners impresses itself on the stranger in Berlin. Shop assistants, street car and motor conductors, petty officials of all kinds are not the sole offenders. There is a want of ordinary civility on the part of the entire public.

SAINT JOHN, FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 2, 1910

THE KING'S VISIT TO INDIA.

The decision of the King to visit India accompanied by the Queen, and to hold a coronation durbar at Delhi on January 1st, 1912, brings forcibly to mind the vastness of the Empire upon which the sun never sets, and impresses upon us the fact that the sister nations within the Empire, busy with their own affairs, know comparatively little of this great territory teaming with millions who also owe allegiance to the British Crown.

Of all the conquerors, who, in centuries gone by, crossed the Himalayas into Bengal, or who brought their ships to the shores of the peninsula, none ever ruled over dominions approaching the extent of those in India governed by King George. The Portuguese who built Goa, the French who founded Pondicherry, never made these cities more than mere provincial capitals. Even the empire founded by Baber and extended by Akbar and Aurangzeb never reached so far south as Madras, while the power of the Marhattas and the Rohillas was a purely local one. The Indian empire extends today from the Himalayas to Cape Comorin, and from Baluchistan to Mandalay. Within these boundaries the countries of such vast extent as Bengal, Madras and Bombay, Burma and the Malay states, Nepal, the Punjab and Kashmir.

Three hundred millions of people, speaking 147 languages, some Christians, some Hindus, some Mohammedans, Sikhs, Jains, Parsees, and Animists, are scattered throughout the country. No less than 200,000,000 of these people live by agriculture, 18,000,000 are laborers, 17,000,000 are employed in producing food, 12,000,000 are weavers, 11,000,000 are engaged in service, and the remainder in manufactures of various descriptions. A considerable number of this population inhabits the great towns, of which there are twenty-eight of all upwards of 100,000 inhabitants, the largest of all being Calcutta, with a population of well over 1,000,000. The great mass of the population, however, are the agriculturists, or ryots, who live in the innumerable tiny villages on incredibly tiny wages.

When the King enters the city where the Peacock throne once stood, at the head of the Indian princes and the British pro-consuls, the world will see a pageant such as it has probably never seen before. The marvels of the great durbar which marked the coronation of Edward VII. will pale before the durbar when the first of the English kings takes his seat personally in the old Mughal capital as Emperor of India. The acclamation with which the King's decision to visit the country has been received there shows how firmly set, in spite of all expressions to the contrary, the British raj really is. No matter what the symptoms of unrest may be, the Indian people realize that for upwards of half a century the pax Britannica has run in the peninsula, and anybody who knows what the history of India was in the days when war and bloodshed were an almost daily issue in the lives of the people, can imagine what the security and justice they have enjoyed during this half century must have meant to them.

"India," Lord Morley once said, in a memorable phrase, "is our only real empire." The great Overseas Dominions have sprung from colonies into self-governing commonwealths. In India this is different. The factories which the early traders planted in Madras and in the mouth of the Hughli, have knit together and expanded until the English raj has stretched itself to the borders of Afghanistan and Tibet, under the administration of a line of pro-consuls which began with Clive and Hastings, and which, in spite of some mistakes, and doubtless many errors of judgment, has held the scales of justice as truly as it is possible for human hands to hold them.

MR. BONAR LAW AT MANCHESTER.

Mr. Bonar Law, speaking recently in Manchester, delivered a powerful arraignment of Free Trade, and it is significant that in that home of an outgrown fiscal policy this effective champion of Tariff Reform was cheered to the echo by a large audience which he carried with him from the outset. The Manchester Guardian gives the following account of the meeting:—"One of the points made by Mr. Law was this:—When hard times come, and the demands of the domestic markets fall off in Germany, the United States and other protected countries, the manufacturers of those countries maintain their production by exports to the one market that is open to them—that of the United Kingdom. Also it is precisely in such times that the foreign tariff walls prove the most effectual barrier against British goods. What is the position of the British manufacturer and the British workman? In periods of depression British industries and their employees get a smaller share of their own domestic market, and a smaller share of other markets as well. Here are some facts. The year 1907 was a good year in the cotton trade in the United Kingdom and in Germany. Last year was a bad year in both countries. Last year as compared with 1907 Britain's exports of cottons to Germany fell off to the extent of nearly $2,000,000. That meant that the Germans got a larger share of their home market. But that was not all. Last year, in spite of the lessened consumption in every direction, British imports from Germany of cotton actually increased to the extent of half a million. Contrast the position of the workmen of the two countries. The German workman in the bad time scores in both ways; he gets a larger share of his own market and he gets a larger share of the British market. The British workman loses at both ends of the scale; he gets a smaller share of the German market and a smaller share of his own home market as well.

"Even in the cotton trade the home market of Great Britain is the largest of the British manufacturers' markets. It is already undermined by foreign competition, especially in bad times. Yarns aside, British imports from Germany twice the quantity of manufactured cotton goods that it exports to that country. England's trade with Germany consists more and more in the export of goods which have employed the least labor and more and more in the import of goods which have employed the most labor. British exports yarn and imports finished goods. Take the woollen trade. British exports yarn and imports cloth. Take the iron trade. Britain exports almost nothing but raw iron, and its ports are filled now with imports of German finished goods.

"Mr. Law proceeded:—Change your fiscal system and you will enjoy for the first time in the cotton trade an advantage which is enjoyed now by all your rivals—security in your own home market, an advantage which is great at all times but always greatest when it is most needed, that is in periods of trade depression. The courageous propagandist made a deep impression upon the meeting, and it is possible, but perhaps not probable, that his candidature in the home of Cobdenism may prove successful."

Mr. Law's success in this stronghold of Free Trade is all the more interesting, as the Toronto News points out, because of the fact that he abandoned his former safe seat at Dulwich in order to contest one of the Manchester divisions.

ADVERTISING A CITY.

The secretary of the Fort Worth, Texas, Chamber of Commerce, in a preliminary report of an investigation to ascertain how much money is annually spent in municipal advertising by cities of the United States, says that Buffalo and Parkersburg, W. Va., spent each $100,000; that Poughkeepsie, Memphis and Portland, Me., spend each $50,000; that Houston, Texas, spends $25,000, Des Moines $30,000, and Huntington, W. Va., $25,000. "This is interesting," says the Vancouver World, "but it would be still more interesting to know how they spend the money, for it is the manner, and not the amount that counts in municipal, as well as other advertising. The easiest thing in the world is to spend money; the art is in spending it so as to get results and make real progress. And it is an art worth learning, for publicity of the right sort is the locomotive that moves a business or a city to the front."

"It is the same with a city as with an individual. Before advertising there must be something to advertise. No amount of publicity will draw business to a manufactory or a mercantile establishment which has not something worth while to offer. But just as in modern days a business cannot be made to succeed without advertising, neither can the advantages of a city be known without some means of publicity being employed. This, just as in private business, should be judicious. It is not the amount a man spends in advertising which tells, but the manner in which it is spent."

The appointment of a publicity agent has proved effective in large cities. It would prove effective in St. John. There is no city in Canada today which has brighter prospects for development. The Advertising Committee of the Board of Trade has done much to make the advantages of this city as a distributing centre more widely known, but no voluntary committee, handicapped for lack of funds, can accomplish what a paid publicity agent could do. There is much truth in the old saying "everybody's business is nobody's business," and it can be applied very forcibly to St. John when this question is considered from a practical standpoint.

JAPAN'S COMMERCIAL TREATIES.

Japan has given due notice of her intention to terminate her commercial treaties which went into effect with most of the leading nations on July 17, 1899. They were to be in force for twelve years, subject to termination, at the end of that period, on a year's notification in advance.

The existing treaties, soon to be abrogated, contained a stipulation of fixed rates of duty on 150 specified products, when imported into Japan; and it is partly in order to be free, to levy protective rates on those articles that the Japanese government has sought a free hand.

The move has caused considerable dissatisfaction in Great Britain, and recently a deputation of British merchants waited upon the Foreign Secretary to ask that steps be taken to keep English exports to Japan upon their present favorable footing. Sir Edward Grey replied that Great Britain could do nothing to prevent Japan from enacting a protective tariff. The policy of Free Trade robs the government of power to bring protected countries to terms by threats of retaliation.

Current Comment

(Winnipeg Telegram.)

But let there be no misconception as to the verdict of the electors of Arthabasca. Canada stands to lose no more from the election of the Bourassa candidate than from the election of the Government candidate. The only difference between Laurier and Bourassa is that one does in secret what the other advocates in the open. And as between the stiletta methods of Laurier and the open aggressiveness of Bourassa there are a good many Canadians who would shed no tears over a Bourassa victory in Arthabasca.

(Montreal Gazette.)

Two Paris journalists, in prison for encouraging violence during the recent strikes, demand that they shall be treated as political prisoners. There is a queer idea in vogue in some quarters that murder and maiming of men becomes less heinous than it otherwise would be if the perpetrator declares that he had some political purpose in view when he indulged in his criminal instincts. Such idea has no basis in the Ten Commandments and should not have any in man-made law.

(Toronto Mail and Empire.)

Although the Nationalists are of color, they are not "in it" with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the father of the cult. They do not like Imperialism; but there is not one of them, so far as is known, who has announced in the language of Sir Wilfrid that the goal of his ambition is the separation of Canada from the British Empire, as the ripe fruit falls from the parent tree. Many people do not like the Nationalists, and with reason. Much less can they like the founder of the party.

(London Free Press.)

The fine moderation that was once the distinction of British public men has nothing in common with the utterances of Mr. Lloyd-George, who goes up and down "breathing out threatenings and slaughter." It is significant that the Unionist journals print all his speeches in full, believing they will really react on the minds of common-sense Englishmen.

RHEUMATISM?

Mrs. Frances Wyatt, 25 Guy Avenue, Montreal, says "I have found Zam-Buk most shing and valuable for rheumatism stiffness of joints and muscles. I fered long and acutely from rheumatism, and tried one liniment after another in vain. I also took medicines internally, but it remained foam-Buk to effect a cure."

Zam-Buk seemed to penetrate to the very seat of the pains, ring them completely out, and I am quite cured."

Zam-Buk is also a sure cure for piles, ulcers, cold sore chapped hands, cuts, burns, scalds, sores, babies' rashes, and all n injuries and diseases. All druggists stores 50c. box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

NEW MANUFACTURING CONCERN IN CITY.

General Machinery Will be Made by A. R. Williams Company, Capitized at $99,000.

Messrs. Alfred R. Wiams and Thomas A. Hollnake, Tanto; Manning W. Doherty, St. John Frederick W. Kitchin and Robert K. of Brantford, are seeking incorporation as The A. R. Williams Machine Company, Limited, of St. John, to carry on a general machinery business in this city. The authorized capital is $99,000, of which $50,000 is in up.

Mr. Doherty has been in St. John since the first of the week completing the work of organization and arranging for premises in which carry on the business. Owing to a difficulty of securing a site suitable to their needs no property has as yet been acquired. Options have been secured on several sites, however, and an announcement of their decision will be made at an early date.

The company will handle wood-working, sawmill and iron-machinery, safes, vault doors, engines, boilers, marine engines, belting, a full line of machine shop supplies. They have the exclusive agency in the Maritime Provinces for the manufacture of the lines they will handle and will make St. John their headquarters and distributing point. It is the intention of that eminent and successful manufacturer to build a large warehouse here and carry a full stock in all these lines. This will be a great convenience to purchasers of the Maritime Provinces. For a long time the need of such a depot, has been felt but no firm hitherto has had the courage to carry the stock required. The new company hopes to get in business here by the first of January.

Mr. Doherty, who is organizing the company, will act as manager here. He has recently been connected with the Canadian Machine Company, of Galt, Ont., and previously was manager of the Sussex Manufacturing Company, of Sussex, N. B., for four years.

More Fine Pictures - the Nickel.

Abraham Lincoln's Jemmy, is a film story at the Nickel today that will contain an unusual element of interest—a sidelight upon the character of that eminent American president finely portrayed ad magnificently photographed. This is one of the new Pathé American pictures, the first to be shown at the Nickel. The comedy element in the new bill is of unusual merit, notably the Slig comedy The Four Flushers, a young man in Chicago who told tall tales but finally was called to book for his boasting. Davy Jones' Wife is a Vitagraph comedy of great mirth-provoking possibilities. Miss Isabel Foley will sing a new song. The Cannon (the) for today and the remainder of the week is a continuation of the Japanese views, but dealing in a general way with the empire as a whole. The charts are being greatly enjoyed by discriminating people. On Monday the Nickel will have the great championship baseball game in motion pictures, the struggle between the Philadelphia Athletics and the Chicago Cubs. Mr. Floyd M. Baxter will be the vocalist.

RECORDER BAXTER TO DEFEND MR. CROCKET.

Frederick, Dec. 1.—The preliminary examination in the libel action brought by R. W. McLellan against Jas. H. Crocket, managing director of the Gleaner, as a result of the recent newspaper controversy, was this morning postponed by J. M. Marsh, until next Wednesday morning, owing to the inability of Col. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C. of St. John, who is to act as counsel for Mr. Crocket, to be present.

BELLEISLE.
 Belleisle Creek, Nov. 30.—Bert Freeze, son of W. Freeze met with a serious and painful accident one day last week. He, with his father, was trimming firewood when in some manner the former's hand came in contact with the axe inflicting a deep wound. Dr. Fraser was at once summoned and found it necessary to take a number of stitches in the wound. During the past week Belleisle has been visited by a severe wind and rain storm.

Coal Mine Transfer. Wednesday evening J. H. Plummer announced that it has been arranged that a controlling interest in the stock of the Cumberland Coal and Railway Company will at once be transferred to the leading directors of the Dominion Steel Corporation. The securities of the acquired company are a bond issue of $1,000,000, and $2,000,000 of stock, and although the directors have taken the controlling interest personally, it will, of course, be eventually merged with the big company. The deal will probably lead to a speedy ending of the Springhill strike and to railway extension from Springhill Junction to Pughwash.

READY TO TAG DAY

Arrangements are Complete for Great Effort of Ladies in Aid of Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign.

The campaign to raise funds for the prevention of tuberculosis which has been most effectively organized will be prosecuted in earnest today, when 300 young ladies will tag the citizens of St. John as often as they will allow.

The object of today's tag day is to raise funds for the better equipment of the rooms in which the work of the free dispensary is carried on. These rooms have recently been placed at the disposal of the society by the city, but they require much attention before they will be of the most effectiveness. It is to provide for such changes that the money realized from this tag day proceedings will be devoted.

It is hoped that all citizens will leave their homes this morning prepared to respond liberally to the efforts of the taggers as the cause is a good one and the proceeds of the day's work will be well expended.

The workers will assemble in the assembly rooms this morning at 9 o'clock for their start and all are requested to be on time.

Tagged motors at the disposal of the committee will patrol the streets of the city proper, north and West Ends, throughout the day, and will be at the service of any of the workers going or coming or desiring to return to headquarters for refreshments.

MISS HOPPER AWARDED $250; POLICE TO APPEAL CASE

Jury find in Favor of Plaintiff in False Arrest Charge Against Police Officers Arising Out of Raid on Metropolitan Hotel—Long List of Questions Answered.

The jury in the case of Gertrude Hopper vs. Chief of Police Clark, Sergeant Campbell, Detective Lucas, officers Marshall, Bankine and Sheehan known as the Metropolitan Hotel raid false arrest case, after being out two hours returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $250 in the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon before his honor Mr. Justice Barry. The amount sued for was two thousand dollars.

His honor concluded his charge to the jury at twenty-five minutes to three, and left a number of questions for them to answer. At half past five they returned to the court and through Charles M. Lingley gave their answers to the questions and named the amount of the damages.

Recorder Baxter for the defendants moved that in view of the answers a verdict be entered for the defendant. Mr. Mullin asked for a verdict for the plaintiff.

His honor ordered a verdict entered for the plaintiff with leave to the defendants or W. Walker Clark to move the full bench for a verdict for the defendants.

Recorder Baxter said that the case will be appealed and in the meantime all proceedings are stayed.

The other cases against the police arising out of the raid will not be tried at this circuit.

Argument of Counsel. Mr. Mullin addressed the jury at some length at the morning session. A man's house was his castle, he said, and this principle of English law was applicable to this case. He termed the scheme hatched between Rupert Wry and the police as a "dastardly plot." Wry was the "Machiavelli" of the Chief of Police. Lucas's act in opening the window was an act of burglary, and if he had been killed it would have been justifiable homicide, declared counsel. Mr. Mullin termed Sgt. Campbell as the unfortunate scapegoat of the Chief. There was sufficient evidence placing a large measure of responsibility on Chief Clark.

Recorder Baxter said that as Recorder he came into the case, he was not there to raise any technical defence. He contended that the "plot and conspiracy" arranged between Wry and Lucas was a very small element in the case. He claimed that no case had been made against the Chief, and asked His Honor to instruct the jury accordingly. As to the amount of damages, Mr. Baxter said that the method of entering the hotel must not be taken into consideration.

His Honor referred to the arrest of Browne and Maggie McParlane, and claimed that this was not the outcome of a pre-arranged plot. He summed up the evidence as to the reputation of the house, and claimed that it was proved beyond a doubt that it was a resort for improper persons. He said that Miss Hopper was the victim of the unfortunate conduct of her stepfather, and should look to him for damages. The police had reasonable and probable cause in arresting the plaintiff as being an inmate of the house. As to the question of damages, counsel claimed that they should be nominal if they considered the arrest not justifiable.

LOBSTER MEN UP IN ARMS

Claimed That New Regulations Will Result in Destruction of Packing Industry-- Delegation to Ottawa.

A rush meeting of New Brunswick lobster packers was held at Moncton on Nov. 28th, to protest against the carrying out of the new regulations regarding the catching of the soft shell lobster and the method of making traps.

The following resolutions were passed unanimously on the motion of J. K. Loggie, seconded by R. O'Leary: Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting the enforcement of the new regulations regarding the protection of the lobster industry will mean the total destruction of this most important industry in this province, causing great loss to the packers and fishermen; and

Resolved, That this meeting respectfully urge the government to delay the enforcement of the proposed new regulations for at least one year, so that the department may further investigate the questions affecting this industry; and

Resolved, That this meeting emphasize its unalterable opposition to Sections 11 and 17 of the proposed new regulations; and the packers feel that if these regulations are enforced, they will not be able to operate their factories the coming season; and

Resolved, That the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, or the authorized officials of that department, be requested to meet the lobster packers of this province in convention assembled and ascertain their views before making any change in the old regulations.

A delegation of four, viz. O. M. McLanahan, Sheldale, J. Kerr, Loggie, Chatham; Geo. Windsor, Bathurst; Fred Macoe, Port Elgin, with the following substitutes, R. O'Leary, Richbuck, James Anderson, Burnt Church were named to go to Ottawa, interview the government and present their case. Those interested say that this industry, being one of the most valuable in the province, employing many thousands of fishermen and hands, should not be injured by drastic regulations. It is to be hoped that matters can be satisfactorily arranged.

Refuses to Instruct. His honor refused to instruct the jury to find a verdict for the chief. Mr. Mullin would ask your honor to instruct the jury that should there be evidence that the chief did something subsequent to the arrest he thereby becomes liable.

His honor further instructed the jury that there was some evidence that Lucas thought the arrest was wrongful when he did not enter the names of Mrs. Goggin and Miss Hopper on the arrest book. As to the manner in which an entrance to the hotel was effected, his honor instructed the jury to disregard that altogether. His honor thought it a singular thing that the house was not raided before. Coming to the question of damages, his honor said that the jury could give exemplary damages if they thought it warranted.

Mr. Mullin asked his honor to instruct the jury that if there was evidence to show that if the arrest of the plaintiff at its inception was wrongful and afterwards the chief aided to keep up the wrongful imprisonment, then the chief is liable for the entire damage. His honor instructed the jury accordingly.

The Jury's Answers. The jury answered the question as follows:— 1—Was the manner in which the house was conducted improper so as to make it a bawdy house? Ans.—No. 2—Was the plaintiff imprisoned? Ans.—Yes. 3—What persons were concerned in

MAROONS MAKE HIT IN JAPAN

The Chicago university team is making a hit in Japan, as is evident from the following from the Mainichi Dempo, printed in English:

The Chicago team left for Osaka yesterday morning, where they go at the invitation of the Osaka Mainichi Shimbun. They will give three matches there with the Waseda team, who have also been invited by the same paper.

Throughout the seven matches here the Chicago team proved to be victorious, and they left behind them not only the unbroken record of victory, but also a more important impression on the minds of the public here of their excellent behavior entirely beyond reproach even in minor details.

The team's behavior throughout the game was exemplary and well worthy of the great university they represent.

In the United States the east claims almost a monopoly of politeness and refinement. The west is generally considered as rough and unrefined. But from this west we had the pleasure and satisfaction of welcoming here a baseball team most exemplary not only in the skill of the art, but also in their conduct on the field.

We believe and expect that in Osaka also the same thing will be placed to their record and such happy impressions left behind will doubtless go a long way in keeping up the traditional friendship now happily existing between the United States and our country.

Moore Loses to Abe Attel

ATTEL BEATS MOORE EASILY

New York, Dec. 1.—Abe Attel of California easily defeated Pal Moore of Philadelphia in a 10-round bout at the Fairmount A. C. last night. It was a poor match. Moore was outclassed from start to finish by the featherweight champion and at the last bell Abe's only mark was a slight trickle of blood from the nose, while Moore's face was terribly bruised and both his eyes were closed.

Attel forced the pace in the first round and sent a couple of hard left hooks to the face. Moore came back with a few left hooks to the body, but they were without steam. In the second Attel played for the stomach and jaw and was all over his opponent.

Moore came back in the third with lefts to the body, but made no impression on Attel, who kept up a series of cutting left jabs to the face and head. In the fourth Attel shot right to the jaw and Moore went down for the count of nine. Abe's nose was bleeding and Moore's eyes were puffed up at the bell.

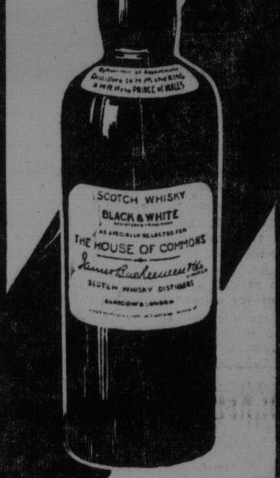

Moore surprised the crowd in the seventh by putting Attel down with a right swing. Abe sat in the middle of the ring with his legs crossed, laughing, waiting for the count of nine, when he sprang to his feet. In fighting marked the remainder of the round.

In the eighth, both of Moore's eyes were closed and he was bleeding profusely. The ninth was all Attel's, although Moore was game. Moore landed left and right to the head in the opening of the tenth and final round, bringing blood again from Attel's nose. This angered the champion and he fought furiously for a knockout but without avail.

Attel's ring generalship proved too much for Pal and "Abe" still remains the premier featherweight of the world. He administered to Pal the worst beating that husky lad has ever had passed over to him.
