

THE ACADIAN

AND KING'S CO. TIMES.

HONEST, INDEPENDENT, FEARLESS—DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Vol. XIII.

WOLFFVILLE, KING'S CO., N. S., FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1894.

No. 20.

THE ACADIAN.

Published on FRIDAY at the office
WOLFFVILLE, KING'S CO., N. S.

TERMS:
$1.00 Per Annum.

(IN ADVANCE.)

CLUBS of five in advance $4.00.

Local advertising at ten cents per line for every insertion, unless by special arrangement for advertising columns.

Notice for advertising advertisements will be made known on application to the office, and payment in advance is required, although the same may be written over a fictitious signature.

Newspaper communications from all parts of the county, or articles upon the topics of the day are cordially solicited. The name of the party writing for the ACADIAN must invariably accompany the communication, although the same may be written over a fictitious signature.

Address all communications to
DAVIDSON BROS.,
Editors & Proprietors,
Wolffville, N. S.

Legal Decisions
1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office—whether directed to his name or another's or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the payment.

2. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay up all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post Office, or removing and leaving them uncollected for some time, is evidence of intentional fraud.

POST OFFICE, WOLFFVILLE
Orders of $5.00 to $25.00 P. M. Mail are made up as follows:
For Halifax and Windsor close at 7:10 P. M.
Express west close at 10:30 A. M.
Express east close at 4:35 P. M.
Kentville close at 10:00 P. M.
Geo. V. Barr, Post Master

PROVINCIAL BANK OF HALIFAX
Open from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. Closed on Saturdays at 1 P. M.
G. W. Mason, Agent.

Churches.
BAPTIST CHURCH—Rev. T. A. Higgins, Pastor—Services: Sunday morning at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.; Sunday School at 10 A. M. Half hour prayer meeting after evening services every Sunday. Prayer meeting on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7:30 P. M. All are welcome. Strangers will be cared for by Oscar W. Ross, J. J. Chisholm & Mrs. B. B. Ross

METHODIST CHURCH—Rev. D. J. Bennett, Pastor, 44 Andrew's Church, Wolffville: Public Worship every Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.; Sunday School at 10 A. M. and the Pastor's Bible Class (open to all) at 7 P. M. Prayer Meeting on Wednesday at 7:30 P. M. Chalmers' Church, Lower Horton: Public Worship on Sunday at 11 A. M. Sunday School at 10 A. M. Prayer Meeting on Tuesday at 7:30 P. M.

St. GEORGE'S CHURCH—Sunday services at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Holy Communion 1st and 4th at 8 A. M.; 2d and 4th at 11 A. M. Service every Friday at 7:30 P. M. Rev. Kenneth G. Hind, Rector.
Frank A. Dixon, J. Wiggins, Robert W. Ross, Jr., Wagoners.

St. FRANCIS (R.C.)—Rev. M. Kennedy, P. P.—Mass 11:00 A. M. on the fourth Sunday of each month.

TEMPERANCE.
WOLFFVILLE TEMPERANCE SOCIETY meets every Monday evening in their Hall at 7:30 o'clock.

ACADIA LODGE, I. O. O. F., meets every Saturday evening in Temperance Hall at 7:30 o'clock.

CRYSTAL Band of Hope meets in the Temperance Hall every Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

APPLE TREES for SALE.
For the Fall and next Spring trade, at the

Weston Nurseries,
KING'S COUNTY, N. S.

Orders solicited and satisfaction guaranteed.
ISAAC BEAUF, PROPRIETOR.

Palpitation OF THE Heart, Nervous Exhaustion AND Stomach Trouble.

My daughter, Mrs. Mars, has been suffering from the above diseases for years, and employed all the leading Physicians in Rockland and specialists in Boston, but got no relief. They said it was caused by a bad state of the blood. She could not sleep nights; bowels constipated, and palpitation of the heart so bad she could hardly walk. She has taken 4 bottles of and Skoda's Little Tablets. Now she can work every day, eat well and sleep soundly. I can never express my gratitude.

Skoda's Discovery,

MRS. S. E. CROWELL,
Rockland, Me.

Medical Advice Free.
SKODA DISCOVERY CO., LTD., WOLFFVILLE, N. S.

DIRECTORY.

OF THE
Business Firms of WOLFFVILLE

The undermentioned firms will see you right, and we can safely recommend them as our most enterprising business men.

BORDEN, CHARLES H.—Carriages and Sleighs Built, Repaired and Painted.

CALDWELL, J. W.—Dry Goods, Boots & Shoes, Furnitures, &c.

DAVIDSON, J. B.—Justice of the Peace, Conveyancer, Fire Insurance Agent.

DAVIDSON BROS.—Printers and Publishers.

DR. PAYZANT & SON, Dentists.

DUNGANSON BROTHERS.—Dealers in Boots of all kinds and Feed.

HARRIS, O. D.—General Dry Goods, Clothing and Gent's Furnishings.

HERBIN, J. E.—Watch Maker and Jeweller.

HIGGINS, W. J.—General Coal Dealer. Coal always on hand.

KELLEY, THOMAS.—Boot and Shoe Maker. All orders in his line fully performed. Repairing neatly done.

MURPHY, J. L.—Cabinet Maker and Repairer.

ROCKWELL & CO.—Book sellers, Stationers, Picture Framers, and dealers in Pianos, Organs, and Sewing Machines.

RAND, G. V.—Drugs, and Fancy Goods.

SHAW, L. W.—Importer and dealer in General Hardware, Groceries, and Tinware. Agents for Frost & Wood's Floor Shaw J. M.—Barber and Tobacconist.

WALLACE, G. H.—Wholesale and Retail Grocer.

WITTER, BURPEL—Importer and dealer in Dry Goods, Millinery, Ready-made Clothing, and Gent's Furnishings.

HAWKER'S TOBACCO WILD CHERRY CIGARETTES

WILL CURE THAT COUGH TRY IT!

IT HAS CURED HUNDREDS of even the most obstinate coughs. It is a powerful expectorant, and its use is recommended by the most eminent medical authorities.

IT WILL CURE YOU.
For sale by all Druggists and general dealers. Price 25¢ and 50¢ a bottle.

HAWKER MEDICINE CO., Ltd.,
St. John, N. B.

For Service.

The thoroughbred Jersey Bull, "Leather," No. 257, will be at the stable of Andrew Brown, Wolffville, until further notice.
Grand Prix, Dec. 8, 1893.

RHEUMATISM

WHEN THE D.E.L. MENTHOL PLASTER IS USED

POETRY.

Close the Door.

Now close the book and lay it away—
The Old Year's Book; we've read it
Through;
Lest after last and by and by
We have turned the pages, both I and you.

What it has told us full well we know;
Each for himself the story has read;
A bitter tragedy, full of weep—
Alas! they have found it who meant
their hand.

And some have read of trial and pain,
Of weary burdens, so hard to bear,
Of bright hopes crushed, again and again,
Turning its pages in blank despair.

"A pleasant story," others may say,
Telling us more of joy than pain;
Almost sadly we lay it away—
Would we might read it again!"

And some have read it with love's own
eyes,
By the light that love alone can give,
While the pages glowed with love's surprise—
And life were joy, and 'twere joy to live.

But close the book, the story is old;
Lay it away with a smile or a tear;
Written in black, or written in gold,
We open the book of another year.

"He Knows."

I see not a step before me
As I tread on this year,
But the past is still in God's keeping,
The future his mercy will clear.
And what looks dark in the distance
May brighten as I draw near.

It may be the dreaded future
Is less bitter than I think—
The Lord may sweeten the waters
Before I stoop to drink.
But if March must be March,
He will stand upon the brink.

It may be that he is keeping,
For the coming of my feet,
Some gift of such rare blossoms,
Some joy so strangely sweet,
That my lips will only tremble
With the thanks they cannot speak.

Oh, happy, blissful ignorance!
'Tis better not to know,
It keeps me still in the gentle arm
That will not let me go,
And hushes my soul to rest
On the breast that loves me so.

SELECT STORY.

CONVINCED.

Peter Carver pushed his chair back from the table, and surveyed the faded little face on the opposite side of the tea-tray.

Faded enough now, though she was barely 27. You would hardly have believed how fresh and pretty Carry Carver had been on her wedding day. Her husband saw the change, but somehow he supposed that all women faded just so.

"There is so much to do, Peter, and the children demand so much of my time," pleaded the weak wife.

"If I were manager in this household things would happen very differently." "I have no doubt of it," said Carry quietly.

"There is no earthly reason," went on Mr. Carver, ignoring the sarcastic meaning of her tone, "why the work shouldn't be done, and you dressed and enjoying yourself, cultivating your mind or something at 11 o'clock every morning that you live. Wishing up a few dishes, sweeping a room or two—what does it all amount to?—Why, my dear, don't you see the folly of asking for a servant to help you do nothing at all?"

The morning sunshine crept down the pale green wall paper, sprinkling drops of gold on the few little green plants that Peter called a waste of time, and lay in soon splendour on the carpet, and still Carry Carver stood there, thinking—thinking.

"Carry! Aren't you going to get up this morning? It is half past seven, and—"

"I cannot, Peter," groaned Carry, turning her face away from the light. "I am suffering dreadful pains in the foot I sprained last night."

"Well, what shall I do?" "You must just take charge of the housekeeping yourself, Peter," said Carry, blinding a smile in the folds of her pillow. "It's only for a day or two and I don't know why help you can obtain. It won't be much you know."

"That's true," said Peter, somewhat encouraged.

"Please darken the room, and keep the children away, and don't speak to me if you can help it. Where's my packing basket?" "The least bit of attention almost drives me wild!" Peter shut the door with distracting caution and went down stairs on creaking tiptoes. As he passed the nursery door a duct of saliva oozed on his ears:

POETRY.

Close the Door.

Now close the book and lay it away—
The Old Year's Book; we've read it
Through;
Lest after last and by and by
We have turned the pages, both I and you.

What it has told us full well we know;
Each for himself the story has read;
A bitter tragedy, full of weep—
Alas! they have found it who meant
their hand.

And some have read of trial and pain,
Of weary burdens, so hard to bear,
Of bright hopes crushed, again and again,
Turning its pages in blank despair.

"A pleasant story," others may say,
Telling us more of joy than pain;
Almost sadly we lay it away—
Would we might read it again!"

And some have read it with love's own
eyes,
By the light that love alone can give,
While the pages glowed with love's surprise—
And life were joy, and 'twere joy to live.

But close the book, the story is old;
Lay it away with a smile or a tear;
Written in black, or written in gold,
We open the book of another year.

"He Knows."

I see not a step before me
As I tread on this year,
But the past is still in God's keeping,
The future his mercy will clear.
And what looks dark in the distance
May brighten as I draw near.

It may be the dreaded future
Is less bitter than I think—
The Lord may sweeten the waters
Before I stoop to drink.
But if March must be March,
He will stand upon the brink.

It may be that he is keeping,
For the coming of my feet,
Some gift of such rare blossoms,
Some joy so strangely sweet,
That my lips will only tremble
With the thanks they cannot speak.

Oh, happy, blissful ignorance!
'Tis better not to know,
It keeps me still in the gentle arm
That will not let me go,
And hushes my soul to rest
On the breast that loves me so.

SELECT STORY.

CONVINCED.

Peter Carver pushed his chair back from the table, and surveyed the faded little face on the opposite side of the tea-tray.

Faded enough now, though she was barely 27. You would hardly have believed how fresh and pretty Carry Carver had been on her wedding day. Her husband saw the change, but somehow he supposed that all women faded just so.

"There is so much to do, Peter, and the children demand so much of my time," pleaded the weak wife.

"If I were manager in this household things would happen very differently." "I have no doubt of it," said Carry quietly.

"There is no earthly reason," went on Mr. Carver, ignoring the sarcastic meaning of her tone, "why the work shouldn't be done, and you dressed and enjoying yourself, cultivating your mind or something at 11 o'clock every morning that you live. Wishing up a few dishes, sweeping a room or two—what does it all amount to?—Why, my dear, don't you see the folly of asking for a servant to help you do nothing at all?"

The morning sunshine crept down the pale green wall paper, sprinkling drops of gold on the few little green plants that Peter called a waste of time, and lay in soon splendour on the carpet, and still Carry Carver stood there, thinking—thinking.

"Carry! Aren't you going to get up this morning? It is half past seven, and—"

"I cannot, Peter," groaned Carry, turning her face away from the light. "I am suffering dreadful pains in the foot I sprained last night."

"Well, what shall I do?" "You must just take charge of the housekeeping yourself, Peter," said Carry, blinding a smile in the folds of her pillow. "It's only for a day or two and I don't know why help you can obtain. It won't be much you know."

"That's true," said Peter, somewhat encouraged.

"Please darken the room, and keep the children away, and don't speak to me if you can help it. Where's my packing basket?" "The least bit of attention almost drives me wild!" Peter shut the door with distracting caution and went down stairs on creaking tiptoes. As he passed the nursery door a duct of saliva oozed on his ears:

POETRY.

Close the Door.

Now close the book and lay it away—
The Old Year's Book; we've read it
Through;
Lest after last and by and by
We have turned the pages, both I and you.

What it has told us full well we know;
Each for himself the story has read;
A bitter tragedy, full of weep—
Alas! they have found it who meant
their hand.

And some have read of trial and pain,
Of weary burdens, so hard to bear,
Of bright hopes crushed, again and again,
Turning its pages in blank despair.

"A pleasant story," others may say,
Telling us more of joy than pain;
Almost sadly we lay it away—
Would we might read it again!"

And some have read it with love's own
eyes,
By the light that love alone can give,
While the pages glowed with love's surprise—
And life were joy, and 'twere joy to live.

But close the book, the story is old;
Lay it away with a smile or a tear;
Written in black, or written in gold,
We open the book of another year.

"He Knows."

I see not a step before me
As I tread on this year,
But the past is still in God's keeping,
The future his mercy will clear.
And what looks dark in the distance
May brighten as I draw near.

It may be the dreaded future
Is less bitter than I think—
The Lord may sweeten the waters
Before I stoop to drink.
But if March must be March,
He will stand upon the brink.

It may be that he is keeping,
For the coming of my feet,
Some gift of such rare blossoms,
Some joy so strangely sweet,
That my lips will only tremble
With the thanks they cannot speak.

Oh, happy, blissful ignorance!
'Tis better not to know,
It keeps me still in the gentle arm
That will not let me go,
And hushes my soul to rest
On the breast that loves me so.

SELECT STORY.

CONVINCED.

Peter Carver pushed his chair back from the table, and surveyed the faded little face on the opposite side of the tea-tray.

Faded enough now, though she was barely 27. You would hardly have believed how fresh and pretty Carry Carver had been on her wedding day. Her husband saw the change, but somehow he supposed that all women faded just so.

"There is so much to do, Peter, and the children demand so much of my time," pleaded the weak wife.

"If I were manager in this household things would happen very differently." "I have no doubt of it," said Carry quietly.

"There is no earthly reason," went on Mr. Carver, ignoring the sarcastic meaning of her tone, "why the work shouldn't be done, and you dressed and enjoying yourself, cultivating your mind or something at 11 o'clock every morning that you live. Wishing up a few dishes, sweeping a room or two—what does it all amount to?—Why, my dear, don't you see the folly of asking for a servant to help you do nothing at all?"

The morning sunshine crept down the pale green wall paper, sprinkling drops of gold on the few little green plants that Peter called a waste of time, and lay in soon splendour on the carpet, and still Carry Carver stood there, thinking—thinking.

"Carry! Aren't you going to get up this morning? It is half past seven, and—"

"I cannot, Peter," groaned Carry, turning her face away from the light. "I am suffering dreadful pains in the foot I sprained last night."

"Well, what shall I do?" "You must just take charge of the housekeeping yourself, Peter," said Carry, blinding a smile in the folds of her pillow. "It's only for a day or two and I don't know why help you can obtain. It won't be much you know."

"That's true," said Peter, somewhat encouraged.

"Please darken the room, and keep the children away, and don't speak to me if you can help it. Where's my packing basket?" "The least bit of attention almost drives me wild!" Peter shut the door with distracting caution and went down stairs on creaking tiptoes. As he passed the nursery door a duct of saliva oozed on his ears:

POETRY.

Close the Door.

Now close the book and lay it away—
The Old Year's Book; we've read it
Through;
Lest after last and by and by
We have turned the pages, both I and you.

What it has told us full well we know;
Each for himself the story has read;
A bitter tragedy, full of weep—
Alas! they have found it who meant
their hand.

And some have read of trial and pain,
Of weary burdens, so hard to bear,
Of bright hopes crushed, again and again,
Turning its pages in blank despair.

"A pleasant story," others may say,
Telling us more of joy than pain;
Almost sadly we lay it away—
Would we might read it again!"

And some have read it with love's own
eyes,
By the light that love alone can give,
While the pages glowed with love's surprise—
And life were joy, and 'twere joy to live.

But close the book, the story is old;
Lay it away with a smile or a tear;
Written in black, or written in gold,
We open the book of another year.

"He Knows."

I see not a step before me
As I tread on this year,
But the past is still in God's keeping,
The future his mercy will clear.
And what looks dark in the distance
May brighten as I draw near.

It may be the dreaded future
Is less bitter than I think—
The Lord may sweeten the waters
Before I stoop to drink.
But if March must be March,
He will stand upon the brink.

It may be that he is keeping,
For the coming of my feet,
Some gift of such rare blossoms,
Some joy so strangely sweet,
That my lips will only tremble
With the thanks they cannot speak.

Oh, happy, blissful ignorance!
'Tis better not to know,
It keeps me still in the gentle arm
That will not let me go,
And hushes my soul to rest
On the breast that loves me so.

SELECT STORY.

CONVINCED.

Peter Carver pushed his chair back from the table, and surveyed the faded little face on the opposite side of the tea-tray.

Faded enough now, though she was barely 27. You would hardly have believed how fresh and pretty Carry Carver had been on her wedding day. Her husband saw the change, but somehow he supposed that all women faded just so.

"There is so much to do, Peter, and the children demand so much of my time," pleaded the weak wife.

"If I were manager in this household things would happen very differently." "I have no doubt of it," said Carry quietly.

"There is no earthly reason," went on Mr. Carver, ignoring the sarcastic meaning of her tone, "why the work shouldn't be done, and you dressed and enjoying yourself, cultivating your mind or something at 11 o'clock every morning that you live. Wishing up a few dishes, sweeping a room or two—what does it all amount to?—Why, my dear, don't you see the folly of asking for a servant to help you do nothing at all?"

The morning sunshine crept down the pale green wall paper, sprinkling drops of gold on the few little green plants that Peter called a waste of time, and lay in soon splendour on the carpet, and still Carry Carver stood there, thinking—thinking.

"Carry! Aren't you going to get up this morning? It is half past seven, and—"

"I cannot, Peter," groaned Carry, turning her face away from the light. "I am suffering dreadful pains in the foot I sprained last night."

"Well, what shall I do?" "You must just take charge of the housekeeping yourself, Peter," said Carry, blinding a smile in the folds of her pillow. "It's only for a day or two and I don't know why help you can obtain. It won't be much you know."

"That's true," said Peter, somewhat encouraged.

"Please darken the room, and keep the children away, and don't speak to me if you can help it. Where's my packing basket?" "The least bit of attention almost drives me wild!" Peter shut the door with distracting caution and went down stairs on creaking tiptoes. As he passed the nursery door a duct of saliva oozed on his ears:

POETRY.

Close the Door.

Now close the book and lay it away—
The Old Year's Book; we've read it
Through;
Lest after last and by and by
We have turned the pages, both I and you.

What it has told us full well we know;
Each for himself the story has read;
A bitter tragedy, full of weep—
Alas! they have found it who meant
their hand.

And some have read of trial and pain,
Of weary burdens, so hard to bear,
Of bright hopes crushed, again and again,
Turning its pages in blank despair.

"A pleasant story," others may say,
Telling us more of joy than pain;
Almost sadly we lay it away—
Would we might read it again!"

And some have read it with love's own
eyes,
By the light that love alone can give,
While the pages glowed with love's surprise—
And life were joy, and 'twere joy to live.

But close the book, the story is old;
Lay it away with a smile or a tear;
Written in black, or written in gold,
We open the book of another year.

"He Knows."

I see not a step before me
As I tread on this year,
But the past is still in God's keeping,
The future his mercy will clear.
And what looks dark in the distance
May brighten as I draw near.

It may be the dreaded future
Is less bitter than I think—
The Lord may sweeten the waters
Before I stoop to drink.
But if March must be March,
He will stand upon the brink.

It may be that he is keeping,
For the coming of my feet,
Some gift of such rare blossoms,
Some joy so strangely sweet,
That my lips will only tremble
With the thanks they cannot speak.

Oh, happy, blissful ignorance!
'Tis better not to know,
It keeps me still in the gentle arm
That will not let me go,
And hushes my soul to rest
On the breast that loves me so.

SELECT STORY.

CONVINCED.

Peter Carver pushed his chair back from the table, and surveyed the faded little face on the opposite side of the tea-tray.

Faded enough now, though she was barely 27. You would hardly have believed how fresh and pretty Carry Carver had been on her wedding day. Her husband saw the change, but somehow he supposed that all women faded just so.

"There is so much to do, Peter, and the children demand so much of my time," pleaded the weak wife.

"If I were manager in this household things would happen very differently." "I have no doubt of it," said Carry quietly.

"There is no earthly reason," went on Mr. Carver, ignoring the sarcastic meaning of her tone, "why the work shouldn't be done, and you dressed and enjoying yourself, cultivating your mind or something at 11 o'clock every morning that you live. Wishing up a few dishes, sweeping a room or two—what does it all amount to?—Why, my dear, don't you see the folly of asking for a servant to help you do nothing at all?"

The morning sunshine crept down the pale green wall paper, sprinkling drops of gold on the few little green plants that Peter called a waste of time, and lay in soon splendour on the carpet, and still Carry Carver stood there, thinking—thinking.

"Carry! Aren't you going to get up this morning? It is half past seven, and—"

"I cannot, Peter," groaned Carry, turning her face away from the light. "I am suffering dreadful pains in the foot I sprained last night."

"Well, what shall I do?" "You must just take charge of the housekeeping yourself, Peter," said Carry, blinding a smile in the folds of her pillow. "It's only for a day or two and I don't know why help you can obtain. It won't be much you know."

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 5, 1894.

Meeting of Council.

Council met at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening. Present the mayor, councillors Thomson, Bars, Sawyer and G. W. Borden. Minutes of regular and special meetings read and approved.

Bill from Geo. Lynch for board of Amelia Spencer was read and laid over till next meeting.

Resolved that the matter of the residence of Amelia Spencer be referred to the recorder for further investigation and report at next meeting. Moved by coun. Bars, seconded by coun. Thomson. Com. on old school building, reported that the contractor had thrown up the contract for work on old school building and the com. had taken the work off their hands and were completing it.

Coun. Sawyer raised the question as to whether anonymous petitions should be received by the council. On motion was Resolved that the council in future take no notice of anonymous petitions. Moved by coun. Bars, seconded by coun. Thomson.

Bill was read from the Acadia Edison Electric Light Co., for lighting the streets and town building, $68.70.

Resolved that the bill of the Acadia Edison Electric Light Co., be referred to special committee on street lighting.

Petition was read from twenty-four rate payers resident within the town limits but outside that portion included in the limits of the street lighting, asking that they be exempted from taxation for the street lighting until such time as the light service is extended to their respective localities.

Resolved that the petition of Colin W. Roscoe and others re the street lighting be laid on the table until next meeting. Moved by coun. Starr, seconded by coun. Bars.

Resolved that the clerk be instructed to get printed such necessary papers as may be required by the Scott Act Inspector. Moved by coun. Sawyer, seconded by coun. Starr.

Resolved that the mayor and coun. Thomson, Bars, and G. W. Borden be a committee to confer with the committee from the county council in reference to the proportion of rate between the county and the town of Wolfville. Moved by coun. Starr, seconded by coun. Sawyer.

Resolved that the clerk be instructed to ask the municipal council to appoint a com. to confer at Wolfville with a com. from the town council of Wolfville to adjust the rate of taxation between the town and county. Moved by coun. Sawyer and seconded by coun. Bars.

Coun. Starr on behalf of the special com. on street lighting reported, stating that there are now forty lights in operation, and recommended that the lights be extended on Main street, west to residence of J. W. Bigelow, and east to Scott's corner, also through College avenue extension and Keen street, and up School street to residence of C. W. Roscoe, necessitating the placing of about twenty-two additional lights.

After considerable discussion on the subject of street lighting the council adjourned until Wednesday evening of next week.

Wedding Bells.

The Congregational church at Kingsport was the scene of a very quiet but pretty wedding on Wednesday morning Dec. 27th, when Miss Leoto Tupper, eldest daughter of Mr Benjamin Tupper, was united in marriage with the Rev. James M. Austin, pastor of the Congregational church of Sheffield, New Brunswick. The marriage took place at 9 o'clock, a. m. The church was prettily decorated and though so early in the morning a large number of friends were present to witness the ceremony. The bride, accompanied by her father, looked very pretty, dressed in a handsome travelling costume of navy blue serge trimmed with beaver, with hat and gloves to match. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jacob Whitman, of Yarmouth. The brides were Miss May Tupper, sister of the bride; and Miss Bliss Franklin, of Wolfville. Immediately after the ceremony Mr and Mrs Austin took the train for St. John, en route for their new home, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends. The number of handsome and useful presents of which the bride was the recipient is an evidence of the esteem in which she is held by her friends here. The people of Sheffield are to be congratulated upon securing such a sympathetic and amiable Christian worker among them. Cor.

Pleasant Social at Long Island.

A very unique and pleasant affair took place at Long Island, on the evening of New Year's day. All the heads of all the families of the Island, met in their neat little chapel, bringing tables, of great variety, most tempting to the appetite, and in vast abundance. They had also previously invited many friends from Grand Pre and Horton Landing to join them in their joyous demonstration of brotherly love and united good will. To say that this was a joyful occasion, is not enough; it was a grand affair, a sumptuous feeding of body, mind, and soul. Eating, conversation, music and speeches, made the home "fly on angel wings," and time to separate came all too soon. Long Island has long been the home of industry and wealth, these are now blended with kindness and friendship. Were such gatherings in our village would be productive of good results. Cor.

The Mother and the Boy.

A PAPER READ BY MRS. E. N. A. BIRDAL BEFORE THE MOTHERS' MEETING OF THE WOLFVILLE W. C. T. U.

The eloquent and powerful Dr. Adolf Stuckler, the famous court preacher of Germany, who assisted Mr. Moody in evangelical meetings among his own countrymen at the World's Fair in Chicago, held a meeting especially for German mothers.

About 45 mothers were assembled, to whom Dr. Stuckler spoke with such wisdom, tenderness and power, that all hearts were profoundly moved, and tears flowed freely. The speaker's own soul was deeply moved as he spoke of the duties and responsibilities of mothers, and the strength and tenderness and power of mother love. He paid a beautiful tribute to his own mother, and said that what he was, he owed to her.

How many of the great and good men of all ages have given a like testimony, and have attributed all their greatness and success to their mother's teaching and example.

The mother of Washington by the habits she inculcated, and the principles she taught, made it possible for him to be the father of his country.

Spasna Wesley was an admirable mother, and it was her custom to give each of her children an hour a week, on a fixed day, for religious conversation and prayer. Obedience, reasonableness, steadfastness of purpose, calm authority, tender affection, were combined in this justly celebrated woman. And all these qualities by her training and example were remarkably reproduced in her son John, and fitted him to be the founder of the world wide Christian organization which still bears his name, and his principles and character his memory.

The example and success of these mothers of noted men should inspire all mothers with loftier ideas, and stimulate them to noble endeavors for the young lives committed to their care.

That the father is a powerful factor in the home training, everybody knows, that he ought to be one still more powerful all earnest men confess; but forever it remains true that each boy's life says to each mother "This heart first caught its steady stroke, This blood, its crimson hue from thine." Or as the quaint old proverb has it, "God could not be everywhere, so He made mothers." And to the everlasting credit of those guardians of the young let it be said, there can be no higher recommendation than to say, "He is a mother's boy."

The highest praise that Arab speech bestows on a young man is that he is "a brother of girls." And this a mother's boy is sure to be.

So long as an open way can be kept between a boy's soul and that of his mother, all will be well with him. But the trouble with so many is, that while they are caring for other things, their boy drifts away from their love and confidence; and so the requiem of a mother's life will be, "While I came and went the child was gone." The good impressions that might have been made on wax, must now be carved on marble.

Every boy is or ought to be a walking interrogation point. The wonders of his own being, and the world around him, furnish topics for endless questionings. This is the wise mother's opportunity, when she will teach lessons of truth and purity.

Mamma what makes that man walk crooked? the boy asks as the awful object lesson of a drunken man crosses his path. Then let her teach him that the body is God's temple, and that into it must not be put anything that defileth and that this man now so foul and degraded, was once pure and innocent, and that he began by drinking cider and beer, and smoking cigarettes.

She can teach him that the laws of nature are but the methods of God's ever present action, and that "He is not far from every one of us, but in Him we live and move and have our being." Defended from the impure habits, and the alcoholic and nicotine indulgences, a boy has the foundation upon which a solid character can be built. The four sides of a successful manhood can thus be described, sobriety, integrity, industry, gentleness.

But the mother herself in order to do all she would wish for her boy must constantly pray to the God of purity and truth, pure and sincere, that her boy will never lose faith in goodness or parity. And then realizing her own weakness, as she oft times sees her best efforts thwarted, and all her love and devotion spurned, her cry will be to Him who alone can change the heart and make the life truly pure and noble.

The supreme thought then is: that a mother shall patiently do her best, to teach, to guide, and guard, but ever in humble dependence upon the Almighty power.

"The bravest battle that ever was fought, Shall I tell you where and when? On the maps of the world you will find It not."

"Twas fought by the mothers of men, Not with cannon or battle shot, With sword or nobler pen."

Nay, not with eloquent word or thought, From mouths of wonderful men; But deep in a walled-up woman's heart, Of woman that would not yield, But bravely, silently bore her part— Lo! there is the battle field.

No marching troops, no heroic song, No banners to gleam and wave, But oh! these battles they last of long, From babyhood to the grave.

Oh, ye with banners and battle shot, And soldiers to shout and praise! I tell you the highest victories fought, Are fought in these silent ways.

O, spotless woman in the world of shame, With splendid and silent scorn, Go back to God as white as you came, The kindest warrior born!"

W. S. WALLACE, MERCHANT TAILOR.

New Goods! Latest Patterns!

My trade has increased so fast that I have been obliged to procure another lot of Fine Scotch Suitings and English Trouserings—all of the very latest Styles. Call and have a look at them. No old stock to select from.

N. B.—Ladies wanting buttons covered to match their dresses or saques should see my Button Coverer.

Agent for "White" Sewing Machine.

SPEEDING SLEIGHS.

To arrive: a small lot of Burg-land's Celebrated Truss Beam Speeding Sleighs---Light, Neat, Strong and durable.

FOR SALE LOW BY BROWN, MUNRO & CO. Wolfville, Dec. 29th, 1893.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the ACADIAN.

Last night's mail brought me the first number of the Acadia Orchardist published at Wolfville, N. S. As should be the feelings of every patriotic citizen on learning of the existence of an enterprise which promises to be a real benefit to his town, I began an examination of it with pleasure. From its name I naturally inferred that the new paper was the ACADIAN of our own town in a changed form or at least connected with it. I was quite surprised to learn that it was none other than one of the semi-weekly issues of the Kentville Advertiser, hitherto known as the Orchardist, having its name and place of publication changed to suit the purpose of the publisher. Wolfville people may greet the new adventure with pleasure. I do not think they will. The question at once arises, What is the purpose of the publisher? After speaking of Wolfville as the centre of agricultural and horticultural interests, the

DEAR EDITOR,—Being waited upon by three colleagues, who claimed to be the ones referred to in your paper, they complained of being handled without gloves, and said they had been told by you that they were not to be so treated. It was very ungentlemanly on my part. (I suppose or setting up colleagues.) Well, perhaps two of them were hit a little too hard, as they said they had only nudged each other and smiled at the third, who, by the way, said he was rudely awakened by being asked to keep quiet or leave the seat. This request having offended his collegianity, he admits that he did all he could to annoy the hearer, and I presume to assume some others, which he thinks was perfectly right on his part. I trust this will satisfy my wounded friends, and restore their good names, and my advice to the sleepy one is, not to indulge in such luxuries in church in the future. Thanking you, dear Editor, I am still, HERRIN.

It being customary for the ministers of the various churches to exchange pulpits on the Sunday beginning the Week of Prayer, on Sunday next, Rev. Mr. Fraser takes Rev. Mr. Gronlund's service at Greenwich in the afternoon and will occupy the Methodist pulpit here in the evening, while Rev. Mr. Gronlund will preach in the Presbyterian church in the afternoon. On Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Wright and Rev. Mr. Fraser will exchange pulpits at Lower Hants.

Please Take Notice. The School of Horticulture will be opened at Acadia College class room on Tuesday, Jan. 9th, at 2 o'clock p. m. All persons wishing to join the class will please attend. TULLOCH.

W. J. Balcom

has secured an Auctioneer's license and is prepared to sell all kinds of Real and Personal Property at a moderate rate.

Pale Faces

show Depleted Blood, poor nourishment, everything bad. They are signs of Anemia.

Scott's Emulsion

the Cream of Cod-liver Oil, with hypophosphites, enriches the blood, purifies the skin, cures Anemia, builds up the system. Physicians, the world over, endorse it. Don't be deceived by substitutes!

Scott's Emulsion, 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800, 900, 1000, 1100, 1200, 1300, 1400, 1500, 1600, 1700, 1800, 1900, 2000.

WINDSOR ADVERTISEMENT.

CARVER'S DRY GOODS IMPORTING HOUSE.

WE PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THE FOLLOWING LINES: GLOVES, CORSETS, HOSIERY.

PERRIN'S FRENCH KID GLOVES! (EACH PAIR GUARANTEED)

"P. N." AND Madam Warren's Dress Form CORSET!

Finest Imported Hosiery.

We will pre-pay the postage on either of the above lines.

WE KEEP ONLY SUPERIOR GOODS. TRY US.

I. FRED CARVER.

FURS!

CALL AND SEE THE Latest Styles

AND MOST Fashionable Furs!

In CAPES, COLLARS, MUFFS, CAPS, &c. And note the LOW CASH PRICES Quoted for FIRST CLASS GOODS

AT WHITE HALL! KENTVILLE.

XMAS! SILVERWARE!

LATEST DESIGNS IN Card Receivers! Cake Baskets! Biscuit Jars! Berry Dishes! Butter Dishes! Pickle and Table Castors!

Cutters, and Bread Knives, Table and Pocket Cutlery, Skates in Nickel and Plain Steel, Sleigh Bells, Robes and Blankets.

J. L. FRANKLIN. Wolfville, N. S., Dec. 13th, 1893.

Big Mark Down!

IN MILLINERY!

Hats Marked Down to Cost.

10 PER CENT. DISCOUNT OFF WINGS, ALSO! Full Line Stamped Goods which will be sold at a reduction for the next 2 Weeks.

Stamping Done to Order, Very Cheap.

Handkerchiefs from 50c. Call and see the goods.

Wolffville, Jan. 4th, 1894.

C. A. Hardwick's

Rugs. Rugs. Rugs. Rugs. Come and Inspect if You are in Need of Rugs!

ALSO, Whips, Brushes, Combs, Rubber Goods, &c. Harness of All Description Made to Order. GOOD STOCK! GOOD WORK!

Repairing and Cleaning Harness.

Wm. Regan, Wolfville, N. S.

SUDDEN CHILLS & COLDS.

AT THE COMMENCEMENT OF AN ATTACK TAKE A TEASPOONFUL OF PERRY DAVIS' PEPPERMINT CURE.

AND THE CURE IS MORE SUDDEN THAN THE CHILL.

To Let.—Dwellings House situated on Main street. Apply to C. H. BORDEN, P. O. Box 223.

WOLFVILLE Drug Store!

Seasonable & Reliable GOODS!

Buttermilk Soap, one of the best Soaps made. Very pure and nicely scented.

Almond Cream, for chapped hands and face, rough skin, use after shaving, etc. Ahead of any "cream" on the market. Large bottles, 25c.

Astringent Cordial, quick and certain in its action—for all "summer complaints" (so called).

Pulmonic Balsam, "the kind that cures."

Mixed Spices, PURE—For Pickling.

Flavoring Essences and Extracts!

Geo. V. Rand, Wolfville, Nov. 1st, 1893.

Furnished House TO LET!

To let (furnished) convenient cottage adjoining the Episcopal church in Wolfville, recently occupied by Rev. G. C. White. Possession immediate. For particulars apply to the subscribers.

B. SIDNEY CRAWLEY, ANDREW DE W. BARSE. Wolfville, Dec. 26, 1893.

LADIES' BAZAR.

Ladies interested in Needlework will find a Full Line of Art Goods at the Bazar.

Work stamped and commended if desired. There is a growing demand for superior fancy and domestic wools, and the Bazar is prepared to fill the bill. Try the Antigonish Mill yarns for knitting hose. English Fleecy for slippers, rugs, wraps, &c.

M. A. Woodworth, Webster St., Kentville, N. S.

Everything For Xmas.

TEN CENT VARIETY STORE, INCLUDING an endless assortment of Children's Toys, of all kinds, Books, Christmas Cards, Cakes, Cigars, and Plates, Handkerchiefs, Soaps, Towels, Stamped Goods, Perfumery, Essences, Nuts, Raisins, Candies, Home made and Imported. A fine assortment of Tinware, very cheap. Feather Dusters, Whisks, Stationery, Blacking, Blousing, Black Lead, Needles and Thread, and a variety of other articles. And have also a lot of New and Handsome Patterns for Stamping, and am prepared to do Stamping of all kinds.

MRS W. TEMPLE PIERS. Wolfville, Dec. 15th, 1893.

Municipality of Kings.

The Council will meet at the Court House in Kentville on Tuesday, 9th January, 1894, at 10 o'clock.

All accounts against the Municipality must be filed in the office not later than 31st December, 1893, or they cannot be considered at the January term, 1894.

By order, L. DE V. CHIPMAN, County Clerk. Kentville, Dec. 9th, 1893.

DENTISTRY.

The subscriber will be at his office in Wolfville every Thursday & Saturday!

Everything in Dentistry. J. E. MULLONEY. 6mos.

PARTNERSHIP NOTICE!

We the undersigned, respectively beg leave to notify the public that we have this day formed a co-partnership to be known as Higgins & Vaughn, for the purpose of carrying on a general coal business; and trust that by strict attention to business and fair dealing to meet the public patronage.

W. J. HIGGINS, O. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

YOU SAVE

SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS Cure Headache and Dizziness.

The speedy relief afforded by these tablets is well known to all who have used them. Headache, Dizziness, and all other ailments of the head and brain are cured by these tablets. They are sold everywhere.

For Cold Weather: Just Received.

Men's Felt Telescope Boot, with Grain Leather where exposed to wet and Felt Sock that can be taken out and dried.

Men's Felt Buckle Boots, foxed with Grain Leather.

Men's Felt Congress, good to wear under Overshoes. Ayer's No. 1 Oil Tanned Larrigans, in Men's, Boys' and Youth's.

Overshoes of All Descriptions--Ladies', Misses', Children's, Men's, Boys' and Youth's.

C. H. BORDEN, WOLFVILLE.

Pure Lard, Spiced Ham Bacon, Sugar-cured Ham, Bologna Sausages, Ham, Chicken and Tongue, Golden Fines Haddies, Fat Smoked Herrings (in boxes), Fat Split Herrings (in tins), White T. & C. Codfish, Choice Pollock, 3 cents a lb.

Fresh N. B. Buckwheat Flour, Golden and Maple Syrup, Just the thing for Panakes.

For Porridge we have: Superior Rolled Oats and Wheat, Diced Wheat, Snowflake Hominy, Gold Dust Cornmeal, Grits (in bags), etc.

Call on us for: Superior Teas and Coffees, Fine Fruits and Confectionery.

New Stock in: China, Glass and Earthenware, Lamps and Lamp Fittings.

Fresh Eggs and Butter wanted at 20c. We also handle Oats, Beans, Tallow, Dried Apples.

R. PRAT.

N. B.--We wish you a happy and prosperous New Year. R. P. Wolfville, Dec. 29th, 1893.

How the Seminary Closed.

The last days of the term were not wholly devoted to written examinations, and packing for the holidays. On Sunday evening the usual prize meeting was conducted by Miss Graves, and mingled with the stirring and appropriate hymns, were expressions of praise from nearly everyone present. The unprecedented degree of health that has prevailed, the hearty devotion of the pupils, to study and their daily duties, and the fact that several have been led through the quiet, penance everyday influences of the Seminary to give their hearts to the Divine Master, are among the reasons for deepest thankfulness.

On Monday, written examinations were continued, but at 7 o'clock occurred the customary Christmas banquet, instituted by the principal fourteen years ago at the close of the first fall term of the Seminary. A "feast of good things" it proved indeed to be.

The tables were arranged in a quadrangular shape, the least dining room presented a brilliant appearance, as with merry hearts the gaily costumed participants were gathered around the tastefully decorated tables. Many of the costumes were strikingly fine and elicited rounds of applause as the procession, led by Miss Graves, filed through the long upper corridor. While marching along the inviting tables, singing heartily "In the way we have to Acadia to drive dull care away," a still more brilliantly grotesque picture was presented. After the repeat, numerous speeches were called for from teachers and students after which a new feature was introduced, in the awarding of certain tempting prizes offered by teachers upon the different floors. After other brief speeches, all joined hands and sang "Auld lang syne," perhaps with deeper feeling than ever before; cheers were given and the motley array passed out of the dining room to continue festivities in the rooms and corridors.

On Tuesday morning, the devotional exercises were arranged to harmonize with the Christmas season, and all united most heartily in the responses and beautiful hymns. The principal then announced that desiring to give the closing day an especial emphasis she had selected the services of several teachers, which was received with hearty applause.

After a brilliant dunt by Franklin Suck and Miss Sawyer, Miss Burnett gave two charming readings, Miss Frey sang "O Salutaris" with particularly fine effect, and Miss Fitch played a beautiful selection on the violin. All then united in singing a Christmas hymn, after which the surprise was contained by appropriate remarks by the principal, in which she announced that as a means of strengthening the ties which bind Acadia's teachers and of fostering good fellowship certain "school orders" had recently been formally adopted by the staff of teachers, and with these she proposed to decorate all present. This proposal was met with hearty cheers. The teachers then came forward upon the platform for decoration, followed by the long file of pupils, and to be decorated with the significant dark and light blue bits of ribbon, to feature the colors of the Seminary.

The principal then made further brief but pertinent remarks upon the significance of the colors, as symbolizing not only fidelity to the school, but fidelity to self and to each other, after which "God save the Queen" was heartily sung as a fitting close to these inspiring exercises.

The pupils then disbanded to engage in the evening written examinations, animated with a new purpose to be true to the colors of the Seminary. W. H. V. Dec. 29.

Nine-tenths of the cases of headache are caused by a disordered stomach. Dr. C. D. C. relieves headache instantly, and cures indigestion.

Born. Shaw--At Wolfville, Jan. 1st, to Mr and Mrs D. B. Shaw, a daughter.

Died. Wallace--At Wolfville, Dec. 29th, Walter, son of the late Theo. Wallace, aged 23 years.

REDUCTION SALE! --OF-- DRY GOODS!

AND MEN'S FURNISHINGS!

AT THE GLASGOW HOUSE.

Ladies' Mantles & Jackets. Cloakings & Ulster Cloths. Dress Goods! FURS!

AT 30 PER CENT. DISCOUNT! Men's and Youth's Overcoats & Reefers at reduced prices.

--- WE WANT CASH! --- COUNTRY PRODUCE TAKEN!

O. D. HARRIS, Wolfville, Jan. 1st, 1894.

XMAS PRICES!

Dollars do the Business Every Time! We will Sell for Cash: 1 bbl. Cornmeal, $3.00; 3 bbls. $8.75. 1 bbl. Choice Family Flour, $4.00; 3 bbls. do, $11.75. 1 bbl. "Five Roses" $5.00; Feed Flour, and Chop Feed, $1.50; Bran, $1.20 per bag of 100 lbs. 6 lbs Onions, 10c. 2 gals. Molasses, 90c.--and all other kinds of Goods at same rate, of which we have a Large Assortment. 5 gallons Best American Oil, $1.15.

FRESH EGGS AND BUTTER WANTED, AT 20 CENTS. HARRIS & HARVEY. Wolfville, Dec. 8th, 1893.

T. A. MUNRO, Merchant Tailor.

A Nice Line of Seasonable Goods for GENTLEMEN'S GARMENTS always on hand. BEST GOODS AND LOWEST PRICES! WOLFVILLE, N. S.

"New Silver Moon" BASE BURNER.

Made by the Barrell-Johnson Iron Co., of Yarmouth--with upper and fire-pots--leads; others follow. Have on hand a complete stock of Stoves--Cooks (coal and wood), Parlor Stoves, Shop Stoves! Lot of Second-hand Stoves Very Low for Cash. The principal item made further brief but pertinent remarks upon the significance of the colors, as symbolizing not only fidelity to the school, but fidelity to self and to each other, after which "God save the Queen" was heartily sung as a fitting close to these inspiring exercises. The pupils then disbanded to engage in the evening written examinations, animated with a new purpose to be true to the colors of the Seminary. W. H. V. Dec. 29.

L. W. SLEEP. Wolfville, Oct. 12th, 1893. Auction Again! Saturday Afternoon & Even'g, JANUARY 6th, IN THE Palmeter Store. General Goods. Don't Miss It. Wolfville, Dec. 13th, 1893.

XMAS.

Full supply of everything for the Fall Trade. Call early and avoid the rush. A fine assortment of Raisins and Currants, Florida Oranges and Lemons, Dates, Figs and Tamarinds, Sweet Potatoes, Cranberries and Grapes.

Fred. J. Porter, 124 Main St., - Wolfville, N. S. 1893. - 1894.

TWENTIETH Holiday Season!

BURPEE WITTER'S

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS! Just opened, suitable for the HOLIDAY TRADE! CONSISTING OF Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes!

And a Large Variety of Fancy Goods, and Useful Articles, suitable for Presents. SPECIALTIES: LADIES' FINE CASHMERE HOSE, LADIES' BLACK CASHMERE GLOVES, LADIES' CORSETS--BEST MAKES.

BARGAINS: BOYS' OVERCOATS MARKED DOWN, LADIES' MANTLES AT COST, CHILDREN'S ULSTERS AT COST, BOYS' SUITS AT COST. Good Table Butter, Dry Apples, Good Socks and Yarn taken in exchange for Goods. Burpee Witter. Wolfville, Dec. 15th, 1893.

1893. XMAS! 1893. AT CALDWELL'S!

BAMBOO GOODS! Fire Screens, Easels, Bric-a-brac, Paper Racks and Umbrella Stands.

BENT WOOD GOODS! In Rockers, Easy, Hall and High Chairs. MUSIC CABINETS! In Walnut and Oak.

Centre, Fancy & Rustic Tables. Ladies' Secretaries.

Men's Fur Caps! Men's Fur Coats! Ladies' Fur Muffs, Capes & Collars.

The above with a variety of other goods are to be had at CALDWELL'S. Wolfville, Dec. 13th, 1893.

DR. WM. A. PAYZANT, DENTIST.

ALL KINDS of dental work done. Crown and Bridge work a specialty. Office upstairs in Shaw's new building, opposite American House, Wolfville.

THE ACADIAN. WOLFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 5, 1894.

Local and Provincial. Now writes 1894.

The Municipal Council will meet at Kentville next Tuesday.

Mr. John Harris of the American House, has left for a short visit to friends in Bridgetown and Bear River.

Mr. Chas. S. Fitch has handed us a pretty calendar of the Calcedonian Insurance Co., for which he is agent in this town.

Loos--Between St. John's church and Capt. Geo. C. Johnson's last Sunday morning a black case containing prayer and hymn books. Finder will oblige by leaving at ACADIAN office.

The annual meeting of the Wolfville Fire Co., will be held in their room this evening. The meeting is an important one and a full attendance of the members is requested. Officers will be elected for the coming year, and other business will be transacted.

A course of lectures, under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U., is being arranged for to take place during the coming months. The first of this course will be given on Monday evening, January 15th, by the Rev. W. F. Parker, of the Emmanuel Baptist church, Truro. For further announcements see posters.

We have received a copy of Fict-Me-Up, the new paper recently started at Pictou by Mr. Albert Dennis, formerly of the Standard. It is an eight-page journal, well printed and filled with interesting matter. Mr. Dennis is a bright newspaper writer, and will make a success of his new venture. We gladly welcome it to our table.

There was a good attendance at the rink on New Year's night, and a very pleasant time was had. Among those present were a number from Hantsport and other neighboring places. The ice was in fair condition and well covered with skaters. The Wolfville band furnished a choice programme of music which was greatly enjoyed by all. A restaurant, at which hot coffee and other refreshments could be had, proved a pleasant addition to the enjoyment of the rink.

An English Prince, who takes Clinton as his English name, spoke in the Baptist church on Sunday and Monday evenings, giving an account of his life and the customs of his people. He is now a student at Bates College, Lewiston, Me. He lectures during vacations to earn money wherewith to continue his studies. His father's throne, he says, is occupied by an uncle of the Prince. It is the avowed purpose of Mr. Clinton to return to Africa at the completion of his course of study and to teach his people Christian truth.

The Presbyterian congregation of Wolfville and Lower Horton sent a purse of $110 to their late pastor, the Rev. Mr. Ross, as a Christmas gift. Mr. Ross has acknowledged the receipt of the same and thanks the donors, both the members of his late congregation and other personal friends, for their thoughtful remembrance of him in his retirement. He also reports that he is strenuously ill.

The street lights have now all been placed in position and besides presenting a very pretty appearance are found to be a great benefit to those who are compelled to be out after night-fall. Some complaints are made that the light is not distributed to the best advantage, but this will no doubt be remedied in time. In some cases extending the distance another pole so as to bring the light on a corner would be an improvement. We would suggest the importance of placing a light pole near the railway station, as it is in a very dark locality and strangers frequently have difficulty in finding their way on a dark evening.

We claim of "Elegant Almond Cream" that it is the best and purest in the market for the relief and cure of chapped lips and hands and rough skin, etc. Beautifully perfumed. Try it only 25c. Dispensary.

Gaspereau.

Mr. George B. Bates met with a serious accident last Friday. He was chopping in the woods and the axe slipped, struck his foot and nearly severed three of his toes. The wound was dressed by Dr. Borden and is doing fairly well.

Our Division met at usual Saturday night and elected the following officers: W. P.--Fred M. Davidson. W. A.--Josephine Engler. R. S.--Mrs. Fred Davidson. A. B. S.--Dr. Gertrude. F. S.--Peter Gertrude. G. S.--Lizzie Dumasson. Chap.--Ralph Davidson. Con.--Kenneth Hunter. A. Con.--Maggie Kenny. I. S.--Mabel Dumasson. O. S.--Frank Gertrude. P. W. P.--Adelbert Caldwell.

The work of repairing the church is completed and it will be opened for service Sunday, Jan. 7th. Three services will be held during the day. Prof. Keirstead of Acadia College, will occupy the pulpit in the morning (11 a. m.); Rev. M. P. Freeman in the afternoon (3 p. m.); Rev. A. Cochran in the evening (7 p. m.). Mr. Richard Harris has opened a barber shop in the rear part of R. O. Forsythe's store and drives quite a trade on Saturday nights.

Fire along your dried apples. We want two carloads. Will pay 5c. cash or 6c. trade. F. J. PORTER.

Woodman--Woodworth.

A very pretty wedding occurred, Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr and Mrs Frank Adler, No. 13 Fygonson avenue, the contracting parties being Miss Annette I. Woodworth, a cousin of Mrs Adler, and Mr James M. Woodman, of Wolfville, N. S.

The handsome parlor in which the ceremony was performed was tastefully decorated with potted plants and flowers. A cosy bower was formed in the recess of a large bay window, with a blue and white fur rug. A huge ball of snowy wool, with tongs of roses, was suspended in the center and beneath that the happy couple stood while the priest was tied by Rev. Charles Nicklin, of Springfield.

The bride looked exceedingly attractive in a handsome cream cashmere gown, en traine and with cream lace trimmings. She wore a veil and carried a bouquet of Jasqueminot roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Ora Cook, was charmingly attired in white silk with cream satin trimmings, and Miss Florence Woodworth, a little white gown, acted as maid of honor. Mr Dwight F. Fuller was best man.

About 40 friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony which took place at 8.30 o'clock, and afterward showered the happy couple with congratulations and good wishes. The reception lasted till nearly midnight and an elaborate collation was served.

A profusion of beautiful presents testified to the regard of a wide circle of friends. At a late hour Mr and Mrs Woodman departed, amid a white cloud of flying rice and a fusillade of old shoes for the wedding tour which will terminate at their new home in Wolfville, Nova Scotia.

Among the guests who graced the nuptial festivities were: Councilman and Mrs Arthur J. Haynes, Mr and Mrs Charles Woodman, Miss Woodman, Miss Annie Parker, Miss Stetson, Mrs McCee, Miss A. Porter, Mr H. Fuller, Mr and Mrs H. Collins, Miss Grace Shaw, Miss A. Woodworth, Miss Cunley, Mr H. Fuller, Mr W. Fuller, Mr E. Read, Mr and Mrs R. Adams, Mrs A. C. Adler, W. A. Reid. --Somerville (Mass.) News.

Some persons have confounded the new so-called horizontal paper, the Acadian Orchestrator with the Acadian. We wish it to be distinctly understood that we have no connection with the paper whatever. The venture is something entirely different from anything that has been as yet published from the ACADIAN office. We concur fully with the sentiments of the letter in another column of this issue written by one of the citizens of the town regarding the paper in question.

The Wolfville band have secured the services of a new instructor, Mr Joseph Adams, who has recently become leader of the 76th band of Windsor. Mr Adams is a thorough musician, having had large experience as leader of an army band. He will be in Wolfville one night each week. We expect our band under his direction to make great advance.

Don't physic and physic to cure indigestion. K. D. C. is not a physic. It cleanses and strengthens the stomach without weakening and destroying the tissues. Try K. D. C.

WOLFVILLE Drug Store! Seasonable & Reliable GOODS!

Intermittent Soap, one of the best soaps made. Very pure and nicely scented.

Almond Cream, for chapped hands and face, rough skin, use after shaving, etc. Ahead of any cream on the market. Large bottle, 25c.

Antiseptic Cordial, quick and certain in its action--for all "summer complaints" (so called).

Pulmonic Balsam, "the kind that cures."

Mixed Spices.

PURE--For Pickling. Flavoring Essences and Extracts!

Geo. V. Rand, Wolfville, Nov. 1st, 1893.

Furnished House TO LET!

To let (furnished) that convenient cottage adjoining the Episcopal church in Wolfville, recently occupied by Rev. C. White. Possession immediate. For particulars apply to the subscribers.

E. SIDNEY CRAWLEY, ANDREW DE W. BARSS. Wolfville, Dec. 26, 1893.

LADIES' BAZAR.

Ladies interested in Needlework will find a Full Line of Art Goods at the Bazar.

Work stopped and commenced if desired. There is a growing demand for superior fancy and domestic wools, and the Bazar is prepared to fill the bill. Try the Antigonish Mill for knitting hose. English Fleecy slippers, rugs, wraps, etc.

M. A. Woodworth, Webster St., - Kentville, N. S.

Everything For Xmas.

ONE CENT VARIETY STORE.

INCLUDING an endless assortment of Children's Toys, of all kinds, Clocks, Christmas Cards, Maps, Charts, Plates, Handkerchiefs, Soaps, Pins, Stamped Goods, Perfumery, Cakes, Nuts, Raisins, Candies, etc. made and imported. A fine assortment of Tinware, very cheap. Leather Dusters, Whisks, Stationery, Crockery, Blenders, Black Lead, Candles and Thread, and a variety of other articles. And have also a lot of new and Handsome Patterns for printing, and am prepared to do printing of all kinds.

MRS W. TEMPLE PIERS. Wolfville, Dec. 16th, 1893.

Municipality of Kings.

The Council will meet at the Court House in Kentville on Tuesday, 9th January, 1894, at 10 o'clock.

All accounts against the Municipality must be filed in the office not later than December, 1893, or they cannot be considered at the January term, 1894.

By order, I. DE V. CHIPMAN, County Clerk. Kentville, Dec. 9th, 1893.

DENTISTRY.

The subscriber will be at his office in Wolfville every Thursday & Saturday!

J. E. MULLONEY.

PARTNERSHIP NOTICE!

The undersigned respectfully beg to notify the public that we have formed a co-partnership to be known as Higgins & Vaughn, for the purpose of carrying on a general coal business, and trust that by strict attention to business and fair dealing to the public patronage.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

W. J. HIGGINS, C. M. VAUGHN. Wolfville, Aug. 1st, 1893.

After the Editor. "Cap'n, are you the editor of this paper?"

A Butter and Egg Farm. Of all the combinations I believe a butter and egg farm is the best, and to illustrate I will tell of a model farm.

Professor Blackie and His Students. A good story appeared lately in the Acadian of Professor Blackie, of the University of Edinburgh.

Quest Victoria has just erected a monument on her Belmore estate to commemorate the Duke of York's wedding.

THE WHITE RIBBON. "For God and Home and Native Land." Conducted by the Ladies of the W. C. T. U.

Extravagant Language. Although temperance men who are styled by people who sincerely deplore extravagant language, cranks, fanatics, extremists, etc., are so far as they are recognized as representative men, very careful with regard to all their statements.

Life Insurance and Temperance. A Massachusetts life insurance company's instructions to its medical examiners contain the following: "In consideration of a risk nothing is more important than the habits or the applicant respecting the use of stimulants and narcotics."

TAKE NOTICE. During the year the goods devoted to advertising MINARD'S REMEDY will contain expressions of our sincere thanks from people who speak from personal experience of the benefits of the best of Household Remedies.

Some one has said: "He who marries for love gets a wife; who marries for position gets a lady; who marries for fortune gets a mistress. If you are sick your wife will nurse you, your lady will visit you, or your mistress will enquire about your health."

Scraps for Odd Moments. Minard's Linctum cures Burns, etc. He who would see himself as others see him, let him run for office.

It will not help your own ego to throw stones at your neighbor's truck patch. Garfield Tea cures sick-heads.

Minard's Linctum relieves Neuralgia. Are you editor of this paper? No, sir; I'm the man the town tells how to run it.

Wonderful Benefit. Rev. Robert C. Parsons, Springfield, Ont. writes: "I have been using your Pink Pills, and have found a wonderful benefit from them."

His Sufferings Ended. The pains that once troubled him, now trouble him no more. MARRIAGE, Jan. 8th, 1894. C. C. Conklin, aged 35, a married man and a well-known resident of this town, has suffered all his life with a severe form of neuralgia.

WORKS. The great benefit of all kinds of ailments, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, etc., is cured by the use of the GOSWELL'S GOUT AND RHEUMATISM CURE.

SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS. Cures Headache and Dizziness. Some one has said: "He who marries for love gets a wife; who marries for position gets a lady; who marries for fortune gets a mistress."

When we assert that Dodd's Kidney Pills Cure Backache, Dropsy, Lumbago, Bright's Disease, Rheumatism and all other forms of Kidney Troubles, we are backed by the testimony of all who have used them.

MILLER BROS. CALL AND SEE OUR STOCK! IMPORTERS & DEALERS FOR THE BEST CANADIAN & AMERICAN Pianos, Organs, and Sewing Machines.

Photo Studio. --Lewis Rice, of Windsor,-- HAS OPENED A Branch Gallery at Wolfville. Rooms open first Monday of each month, to remain one week. Jan. 2-6, Feb. 5-10, Mar. 5-10.

TO BUILDERS: Just received a consignment of No. 1 Pine Doors, Sashes, Mouldings, Gutters, &c., etc.

Livery Stables! In Connection With American House. I shall be happy to see all my old customers and as many more new ones during the coming season.

SOMETHING NEW! Bensdorp's Royal Dutch COCOA AND CHOCOLATE. ROYAL BELFAST GINGER ALE. Highest price for Eggs. G. H. WALLACE, Wolfville, August 15th, 1890.

Mail Contract. SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the Postmaster General, will be received at Ottawa until noon on Friday, 25th January, for the conveyance of Her Majesty's Mail, once per week each way, between Aylesford and Dalhousie Road, under a proposed contract for three years and ten months from the 1st March, next.

Established 1868. Telephone 738. This is the fastest steamer plying between Nova Scotia and the United States, and forms the most pleasing route between above points, combining safety, comfort and speed.

FOR SALE. One Boiler and Engine, near B. T. Wick Station, of 40 horse power, nearly as good as new, which will be sold at bargain and on easy terms.

W. P. BLENKHORN, House & Decorative PAINTER. Wishes to inform the General Public that he has again opened business in Wolfville, and by honest work and attention to business hopes to merit a fair share of public patronage.

WOODILL'S GERMAN BAKING POWDER. A Great Offer. GREAT PAPERS. GREAT PREMIUMS. WE are in a position to offer THE ACADIAN and the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, for one year for $1.75.

LAUNDRY & DYEING. These are our lines and we do the Best in the Province. One trial will convince you.

UNCAR'S LAUNDRY AND DYE WORKS. 66-70 BARRINGTON ST., HALIFAX, N. S.

1893. THE ACADIAN. 1893. Yarmouth Steamship Co. (LIMITED). GOING WEST.

GOING EAST. Annapolis leave 8:00, 12:45, 3:25, 6:10, 9:00, 11:45. Kentville leave 8:00, 11:00, 1:45, 4:30, 7:15, 10:00.

W. & A. RAILWAY. Monday, 24 Oct., 1893. GOING WEST. Halifax - Yeo 9:45, 11:30, 1:15, 3:00, 4:45, 6:30, 8:15, 10:00, 11:45.

Amherst, N. S., May 27, 1893. The Grodier Dyspepsia Cure Co. GENTLEMEN: I am 71 years of age. Have been afflicted with sick headache most all my life, which developed into Dyspepsia of a mild type about twenty years ago.

WANTED. Reliable men to sell our choice and hard Nursery Stock, and Seed Potatoes, full and complete list. Many varieties can only be obtained through us.

FOR SALE. A DESIRABLE HOUSE AND LOT IN WOLFVILLE, Apply to Geo. H. Patriquin, Wolfville, Nov. 25th, 1893. Jan 25

GOING WEST. Halifax - Yeo 9:45, 11:30, 1:15, 3:00, 4:45, 6:30, 8:15, 10:00, 11:45.

GOING EAST. Annapolis leave 8:00, 12:45, 3:25, 6:10, 9:00, 11:45. Kentville leave 8:00, 11:00, 1:45, 4:30, 7:15, 10:00.

Amherst, N. S., May 27, 1893. The Grodier Dyspepsia Cure Co. GENTLEMEN: I am 71 years of age. Have been afflicted with sick headache most all my life, which developed into Dyspepsia of a mild type about twenty years ago.

WANTED. Reliable men to sell our choice and hard Nursery Stock, and Seed Potatoes, full and complete list. Many varieties can only be obtained through us.

FOR SALE. A DESIRABLE HOUSE AND LOT IN WOLFVILLE, Apply to Geo. H. Patriquin, Wolfville, Nov. 25th, 1893. Jan 25

FOR SALE. A DESIRABLE HOUSE AND LOT IN WOLFVILLE, Apply to Geo. H. Patriquin, Wolfville, Nov. 25th, 1893. Jan 25

FOR SALE. A DESIRABLE HOUSE AND LOT IN WOLFVILLE, Apply to Geo. H. Patriquin, Wolfville, Nov. 25th, 1893. Jan 25