THURSDAY EVEN'G, JULY 23, 1874.

Town and County News

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE.—We understand that Mr. P. Ryan, of the west ward, has lost a valuable cow by poison.

THIS EVENING.—A special meeting of the Council is to be held this evening, when the affairs of the Road and Bridge Committee will be discussed.

PIC-NICS.—This afternoon two pic-nics are being held; that of the Wesleyan Sabbath School in H. W. Peterson's grove, and that of the scholars connected with Chalmers' Church S. S. in Beech grove, (Mr. Gow's.) Parents and friends are invited to participate.

CONGREGATIONAL S. S. PIC-NIC.—The annual Sabbath School Pic-nic of the Congregational Church was held on Tuesday in Mr. Goldie's grove. The children turned out in full force, while the attendance of members and friends of the congregation was larger than on any previous occasion of a similar nature.
Games were entered into with zest by young and old, and the hours passed in the enjoyment of good things added much to the enjoyment.

GRASSHOPPERS.—We learn that the grasshoppers are committing sad havoc in some parts of Puslinch. Mr. Wm.
Anthony, who lives on the Brock Road, has had ten acres of wheat, five of oats, and three of buckwheat totally eaten up, and a meadow partially destroyed by these pests. The loss will fall heavily upon Mr. Anthony. This (Thursday) morning the grasshoppers are travelling towards Guelph in myriads, having reached as far as the first toll gate.

POLICE COURT.
(Before the Police Magistrate.)
July 23.
Nancy Dolan, for vagrancy, was sentenced to two months at hard labor.

A fire broke out in Ridgeway on Tuesday morning and destroyed about $20,000 worth of property.
A monument will be erected in commemoration of the Foam disaster, so soon as the other three victims' bodies have recovered.

BALLOON ASCENSION.—Prof. Wise of the Franklin Institute, of Pennsylvania, has the question of erecting a balloon on the Mountain as well as below it. Some of the fields have been badly injured by the midge, which has also got into some spring wheat that has been examined.
The yield is thus impaired. In some places the crop of hay is very light.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE is charged with plagiarism. In its August number several pages from Mr. Taylor's "Past Life on a Modern Highway" are incorporated in an article on "The American Railroad."

THE HAMILTON TIMES says that the harvest of fall wheat has begun on the Mountain as well as below it. Some of
spring wheat that has been examined.
places the crop of hay is very light.

OSERVATORY FOR WOODSTOCK.—At a public meeting in Woodstock on Tuesday night, held for the purpose of considering the question of erecting an observatory in the town, a committee was appointed to prepare a feasible scheme for its accomplishment, and there is very little doubt of success in the enterprise.

TEACHERS.—Hamblin Smith's Statics, Cheriman's Mechanics, Todhunter's Advanced Algebra, Galbraith and Hough-ton's Arithmetic, Trigonometry, Mechanics, and Optics, Balfour Stewart's Physics, Chambers' Mathematics, also a large and cheap stock of School and Gift Books at Anderson's Bookstore.

ENTERPRISE.—We learn from the Nor-west that a new tri-weekly stage has been put on the line of travel between Portage la Prairie and Winnipeg, by Mc-Kenney & Bros. The horses are splendid animals, and the wagons are fitted with all the latest improvements. The stage leaves Winnipeg on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday; and the Portage on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday.

THE SANITARY JOURNAL.—We have received the initial number of this bi-monthly, edited by Dr. Edward Playter, of Toronto. Its typographic appearance is very neat, and its contents interesting.
The purpose of the Journal is to diffuse a knowledge of the causes of disease; to arouse public attention to the amount of preventable disease in our midst; and to exhibit the results of proper living as manifested in improved health and longevity. We believe this new venture will receive a hearty support.

BEYOND NEAR PEBDINA.—The Nor-west of the 13th inst. says:—The news of the butchery of two families in Sioux Indians, created quite a sensation in town. Rumor immediately swelled it to the massacre of the whole Boundary Commission. There were about a hundred Sioux in the party which committed the degradation, and they were mounted on shod horses, which was probably the foundation of the rumor referred to.
Traders, however, just arrived, say that the Commission was not molested. The U. S. troops, together with a party of the Mounted Police, started after the marauders, but were not able to overtake them.

AN INVALUABLE INVENTION.—Thomas Turner, track foreman on the G. W. R. at Preston, has invented a new method of laying rails, which is simple, easy to construct, and not very expensive; it is of great strength, and works with the same accuracy under any circumstances.
A train coming from no matter what quarter, cannot meet with an accident at this switch if it is on the track, and, as the arrangement is open to the wheels of the locomotive itself. It can also be applied to any track and worked by the old semaphores, no alterations to them being required. The railroad authorities have not yet decided upon putting any one of these inventions upon their line, but only wait a thorough test before doing so.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE MERCURY

Affairs in Spain.

The Tilton-Beecher Scandal.

Beecher's Reply to the Charges.

How Tilton's Statement Came Out.

London, July 22.—The Times Paris special says that a Committee of thirty agreed to the Electoral Bill, firing the age of the voter at 25, providing for the elections by arrondissements instead of departments, and giving an additional number to every 50,000 inhabitants.

Algerian papers fear that trouble with the natives is impending, having heard that 10,000 muskets and 500 ewt. of powder are imported across the Tunisian frontier weekly.

Advices from India represent that the cholera has broken out among 50,000 pilgrims assembled in Poore for the Juggernaut festival.

The floods in the North have subsided.
The southern districts are still without rain. The little that has fallen in some sections has done no good.

Madrid, July 22.—Senor Castelar delivered a speech yesterday in which he declared that the programme of his party demanded the establishment of the Conservative Republic. Extreme Republican theories only divided them from the Liberals, who were their best allies. Senor Sarz has been appointed Minister of Spain to Mexico. The Carlists shot every 10th man of the Volunteer Battalions captured at Cuenca. Gen. Dominguez is in command of the Republican army in Catalonia. Gen. Pavia will soon take the field in Central Spain with 14, 000 men and 80 guns.

New York, July 22.—Tilton states that the publication of his statement was unauthorized by him; that there were but two copies of it, one in his possession and the other in the possession of the Committee, who would rue the day they gave the statement to the public. He said he had struggled for peace for four years, but now the struggle had come he felt victory was his because he was in the right. The Clerk of Plymouth Church says Beecher will make a prompt statement.

Rev. Dr. Holliday, Assistant Pastor of Plymouth Church, says he would not believe anything against Beecher, if fifty Tiltons said it, and nothing from Tilton will shake the confidence of the Church in Beecher.

At a meeting of the Beecher Investigating Committee yesterday, Tilton was questioned as to many portions of his statement, to which he answered without hesitation. He declined to submit the original documents contained in the statement. On being cross-examined, he burst into tears and requested exemption from further examination, which was granted.

The legal adviser of Beecher says the investigation will exonerate Beecher, showing the charges of criminality unfounded.

New York, July 23.—Augustus Maverick, of the Brooklyn Argus, acknowledges in a card the sole responsibility for the publication of Tilton's statement. As an old friend of Tilton, and as groomsmen at his wedding, he sided him in copying the statement read before the Committee, and in Tilton's absence made another copy for publication. His excuse for the act, which was unknown to, and contrary to the wish of Tilton, is that he became so thoroughly struck with the perfection of Tilton's defence, that he felt sure it would carry weight with the public.

New York, July 22.—This evening Mr.
Beecher had a consultation at his house with several of the Deacons of Plymouth Church, Mr. Sherman, Mr. Ross, and General Tracey when a statement of Mr.
Beecher's case was prepared for publication. Mr. Beecher intends to prepare a full statement for the Investigation Committee. He recognizes the importance of preparing a full answer to the charges made against him. Owing to the change in Mr. Tilton's social and religious views, his wife's confidence in Beecher's judgment had lessened. During those years, Mrs. Tilton's mind was greatly exercised lest her children should be harmed by views which she deemed virtually false and dangerous. Beecher was suddenly and rudely aroused to the reality of the danger by the disclosure of domestic distress, and of the likelihood of the separation and scattering of a family, every member of which he had tenderly loved. The effect on Beecher of the discovery of the state of Mr. Tilton's feelings, and the condition of his family surpassed in sorrow and excitement anything that he had ever experienced. That his presence, influence, and counsel had brought to a beloved family sorrow and alienation, gave, in his state of mind, a poignantness to his suffering which was indiscrib-able. Even to be suspected of having offered, under the privileges of a peculiarly sacred relation, an indecorum to a wife and mother, could not but deeply wound one so sensitive to the honor of womanhood. In this state of mind, Beecher gave expression to his feelings in an in-

Notes of a Trip to Manitoba.

On arrival at Winnipeg we found the hotel accommodation better than expected, our hosts of the "Davis" house doing all they could to make us comfortable.

Popular amusements being rather scarce, the want is made up by the billiard table; and the twenty tables in this city of three years' growth, are all fully patronized during the evening by all classes, from the Government official off duty to the half-breed, who has come in from his farm to enjoy city life.

Winnipeg may be shortly described as one long main street of over a mile in length, running from the Hudson Bay Fort on the south to Point Douglas on the north, with the Red River flowing half a mile distant on the east side, and the level prairie stretching out as far as the eye can see in the west. It is a fine site for a city, which is being rapidly built up, containing at the present time between 3,000 and 4,000 inhabitants.

The houses are mostly of wood; but good clay for brick-making being in the immediate vicinity, a good many houses are now being built of white brick. City property has increased enormously, good building lots on the main street having been sold for $2,500, and others on the side streets in proportion. The city is laid out for over two miles out on the prairie, where small lots have been sold from $100 upwards; and the ever-increasing land speculation will tell soon it is bound to be a large city, and will do his best to make you believe that city property is being sacrificed even at these prices.

They are getting the land fever bad, as the numerous real estate agencies and auction sales testify. One great drawback to the proper settlement of the best part of the city is the reserve of 500 acres by the Hudson Bay Co. This land is owned by the old partners of that corporation resident in Britain, and is held at very high figures. In fact just now it is withheld from sale, waiting the improvement of its surrounding property, when it will again be put in the market. Another evil of this reserve is the policy of the Company to draw the city all down near to their property, and the Government appears to give in partly to this. The new custom and land offices are being built on this property, and had it not been for an earnest and just protest, the post-office would have been moved from the present centre of the city to fully three-fourths of a mile nearer the Hudson Bay Fort. The possible question is not settled yet, and Mr.
Mackenzie's Government is not likely to blame for their dilatoriness in this and other questions of vital importance to the city. The city is well governed, having a full staff of police; and the various street improvements show that no time will be lost on the part of the citizens to do their duty.

The land around Winnipeg is all first-rate prairie, and all fit for settlement; but being mostly reserved for half-breed claims is not open for settlement.
This may appear strange to those seeking for land, but when the treaty was made and the land given over to the Canadian Government by the Hudson Bay Co., certain reserves were made.
Amongst them, land was provided for all the half-breeds and their children at the date of the treaty, such land to be exempt from taxes for nine years. The half-breeds were to choose their own settlements, and the result was that all the townships near Winnipeg have been selected by them as well as the best townships on the south side of the Assiniboine, and several good townships and parts of townships through the Province. What good land is not taken by them has already been taken up by settlers, so that those now going in have to go farther into the interior. There are also the Hudson Bay Co.'s reserve of two sections, and the school reserve of two sections, in every township in the Province, which two reserves alone amount to one-fifth of the land. It would have been far better for the Dominion Government to have given a cash equivalent for all these reserves, and left the whole country open for the settler, as it will come to the same thing in the end. The half-breeds will sell out their claim to speculators, and the Hudson Bay Co. won't sell their 1,280 acres in each township till they get their own price for it, and the settler will have to deal with them, instead of the Government as he ought to have done. There is plenty of good land open for settlement. One of the best settlements in the Province is at Palestine near Westbourne, over 80 miles west of Winnipeg. The land in that neighborhood is well wooded and well supplied with water. Then there is another good settlement near the Pembin mountains, called the Boyne settlement, about 70 miles south-west of Winnipeg. A good deal of the land has been taken up even west of these settlements, and should the railway go on, the country will soon fill up.

No doubt the climate is extreme, much the same as Ontario. In summer there are severe thunder storms; and in winter the severe frost often goes into the ground six and eight feet, only comes out gradually all summer. This is said to be an advantage, keeping the roots damp and moist.

Wheat, oats and barley looked fully as healthy and strong as in Ontario, and down in the Kildonan Settlement the spring wheat was of a rich dark color.
The land must be rich, having been cultivated for over forty years and no manure put on it, as can be seen by the old heaps of manure lying all along the banks of the Red River.

The great want of the country at present is a cheap and speedy route. The Dawson route is of no avail for heavy traffic, and the Red River steam boat route being a monopoly, owned mostly by the Hudson Bay Company, the charges are exorbitant. The rate for bonded goods from Canada, being $50 per ton from Montreal to Winnipeg, whereas the charge for American free goods for the same distance is $25 per ton, just half. The competition of flat boats carrying American goods causes the difference; but as it is said the steamboat company also carries nearly the entire cost of each of their steamers and barges every trip, a lower freight might satisfy them. One result of this discriminating charge in favor of American

BASE BALL ITEMS.
Yesterday afternoon, the second nine of the Silver Creek Club, of this town, played with the Unions, of Rockwood Academy, on the grounds of the latter.
Up to the end of the sixth innings the game was well contested, but towards the latter part of the game the superior batting of the Silver Creek began to tell, thus running up their score to such an extent as to leave the Unions far in the background, as will be seen by the score appended—

A match between the first and second nines of Raymond's shop will be played on Saturday afternoon, at five o'clock, on the Exhibition Grounds. A good game is expected.

Yesterday afternoon, a match was played between the workmen employed in the varnishing department of Bell's Organ Factory, and a picked nine selected out of six other departments, who, with the assistance of an outsider not belonging to the shop, succeeded in vanquishing the "Knights of the varnish pot" by 19 runs. Nothing daunted by their bad luck thus far the defeated yesterday hold themselves now as still prepared to play any nine that may be picked from any other single department in the shop. At the close of the match the score stood 15 to 34 in favor of the picked nine.

The Independents of this town have innings a side. Gall 41; Chatham 149.

Majority for Chatham 108.

CRICKET.—The following teams have been selected to play in the matches on Friday and Saturday next against Brampton and Chatham. The Secretary requests any gentleman who will be unable to play to forward at once his name to the Vice-President. Brampton—Friday, July 24.—Messrs. Oliver, Wells, Grange, Philadelphia will send a strong team to Halifax to compete in the cricket tournament about the 20th proximo. J. O.

Howard, President of the Toronto Club, requests the various clubs in Ontario to send in the names of their best men, in order that a strong team may be selected to represent this Province. The fare to Halifax and back, per Grand Trunk, will be one and one-third fare. The hotel expenses in Halifax of each competitor will be paid.

Our Sidewalks.
To the Editor of the Mercury.
Sir,—Recently having occasion to pass along Dublin street, I was not a little surprised to notice that a new sidewalk was being laid down on the South side of Oxford street, between Dublin and Glasgow—on that side of which street there is not a single house. If the sidewalk had been laid on the North side of the street, I for one would not offer any objection. But that a sidewalk, four feet in width, should be laid down in a place where perhaps not a dozen persons would pass during a whole week, most certainly displays a wanton waste of our town funds. Why not lay down a sidewalk along Dublin street from Oxford to Green, along which in the spring of the year it is impossible to travel without sinking ankle-deep in the mud, and where there are dwellings on every lot? I hope the electors of the West Ward will, at the next election, place men on our Council Board who will see that sidewalks are laid down in places that will be an accommodation to the citizens of the Ward generally, and not for the purpose of enhancing the value of the property of a single individual.
Yours &c.,
WEST WARD.

Guelph, July 22nd.

goods is that the most of the grocery, hardware and iron trade is thrown into the hands of the Americans, and St. Paul and Minneapolis are reaping a rich harvest from the Red River trade. On the landing at Fort Garry can be seen stoves from Quincy, Illinois; furniture and farming implements from Minneapolis; and general merchandise from Chicago and St. Paul; and unless our Ontario wholesale men look sharp, the whole trade of the country will be done in the States. The speedy and effectual remedy for this is railway communication, and our Dominion Government should lose no time in building the Peninsula branch of the Pacific Railway. No doubt there is a gap on the American side; but let Canada do her part, and the Americans are not going to be so blind to their interests as not to finish this gap to make the connection. When this is done goods can be sent in bond all by rail from Canada for half the present cost, and in one-third of the time. Unless this is done, and done at once, Manitoba is of very little use as an outlet for the surplus population of Canada. To sum up, let the Dominion Government stop their officials from dabbling in land operations (that the Globe slightly hints at); let them go on with the public works promised; and the Canadian Pacific Railway with the branches; and Manitoba will settle up as fast as any of the Western States ever did.

Guelph Evening Mercury
THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 23, 1874

The Government has granted a reserve to the Sioux Indians who now reside at the Turtle Mountains in the North-West Territories. A surveyor has been sent to lay out the new reserve, which is at the confluence of the Little Saskatchewan and Assiniboine Rivers. About 150 families, or 700 persons, will be settled there. These Indians express themselves well satisfied with the reservation, and no doubt their removal to a distance from the border will prevent further accessions of their kindred from the other side of the line.

The Canadian News, published in London, England, denies the assertion which has been going the rounds of the Dominion press, that Hon. Wm. McLaughlin is its editor. It also defends the Ottawa Administration in an article in reply to the one in the Standard severely condemning Mr. Mackenzie's Pacific Railway policy, and accusing the Ministry of annexation tendencies. The concluding sentence of the News' article is as follows:—"The Standard might with advantage peruse the Budget speech of the Finance Minister and the discussions which have taken place in the press and Parliament of Canada, and its only just inference would then be that the Pacific scheme of the late Government was impracticable, while that of the present Government is feasible, and that it is the plan of prudent and honest statesmen."

As a natural consequence of the over crowding of a city like Chicago by people who must live and eat, even when work is most scarce, every device is resorted to in order that the necessities of life may be obtained. Bass-wood hams and wooden nutmegs may not be so palatable or strengthening to the consumers as hams and nutmegs of the proper kind, but then the vendors make a living by selling them, and that is the principal consideration, in their minds at least. This system of adulteration and false representation has been carried on to such an extent as to cause a public inquiry into the quality of the articles that find their way to the dining tables of Chicagoans; and a careful investigation shows that adulteration is the rule and not the exception. Specimens of tea, coffee, sugar, soap, baking powders, cream tartars, and syrups, obtained in the ordinary course of trade, from the most respectable grocery establishments in the city, were subjected to analytical tests, and the results arrived at are calculated to disturb the equanimity of those who have been feeding on the adulterated stuff.

The Yacht Disaster.
On Wednesday forenoon the burial of the bodies of the lost crew of the yacht "Foin," took place as Niagara. A party of about forty gentlemen, among them Rev. Salter Givins, went over from Toronto in the morning, and proceeded to the English Church. Here the four coffins containing the bodies had been placed side by side in a large grave, very deep and about eight feet square. The names of the deceased were engraved on plates on the lids: Charles Anderson, ———, Vernon, James Murray, R. C. Henderson. Prayers had been read in the church by the Rev. Dr. McMurray; Rev. Mr. Givins performed the same ceremony at the grave before the earth was thrown in. There were very few people present except those who went from Toronto. The grave was dug to so great a depth that if the bodies of the others who were lost are recovered they may be placed by those who rest there now. The body of Mr. Vernon was fully clothed, and was covered with an old cloth coat, leading to the presumption that he had been steering at the moment of the vessel's going down. The searchers are still out on the lake east of the disaster, but the wind has continued in the same direction during the past three days, and the likelihood is that the bodies, if they have floated, are drifted out from the shore. A rumour was passed on Wednesday that a body had gone ashore on the American side with another body, but it turned out to be incorrect.

WISCONSIN DRUGGISTS celebrated the Glasgow Festival by marching in procession to the Holy Trinity Church, and hearing an elegant sermon from Rev. Mr. Pritchard. The audience was so large that many were unable to gain entrance.

The Insect War on the Western Crops.
The recent reports of vast swarms of grasshoppers in the grain-growing States of the North West are of alarming interest, and the inquiry comes, is there no remedy? The eminent American Agriculturist, Dr. B. A. Gould, writing from his observatory at Cordova in the Argentine Confederation last fall, reported an enormous number of grasshoppers then frequenting that part of South America. One train of them he computed to be five miles in width, literally darkening the sun, and borne northward in a dense band not less than two thousand feet thick. They were evidently drifted in the strong trade wind blowing along the Andean Sierras, and appeared to be entirely at the mercy of the wind. Is it possible that, as the winter of the southern hemisphere closed, these roving clouds of grain-destroying insects have migrated, with spring, across the equator and entered the Western States? The question, however, propounded by him at first sight, is not so easy to dispose of. Whatever answer we may give, the observations of Dr. Gould show, at any rate, a congeniality of the soil and climate occupied by these dangerous insects in both hemispheres. The Argentine Republic, lying under the shadow of the Andes, with its undulating, treeless pampas, swept by the howling pamperos or westerly mountain winds, corresponds precisely with the geographical position held in the United States, swept by the Rocky Mountain winds and subjected to great thermometric extremes. This striking fact may prove suggestive of the conditions under which these insect armies breed, and, if the hint is pursued by the sagacious and scientific agriculturist, may lead to some method of predicting or preventing their ruinous invasions. The habits and haunts of such insects are of national importance to determine and to make known, for they often threaten national famine. The Colorado beetle, whose true domicile is the Rocky Mountains, where it feeds on a species of wild potato, had, in 1859, advanced eastward only as far as Omaha. Leaving behind it flourishing colonies, it entered Iowa in 1861, and crossed the Mississippi into Illinois in 1865, reaching Canada and New England by slow marches in 1870. It is said that its passage across the Atlantic is a mere question of time, if it has not already been effected. If it enters Europe and finds there a congenial home the potato crop and garden crops generally must suffer immense depredations. But we refer to the subject of these insect ravages on the grain and garden crops to show the necessity of some corrective. It is incredible that well directed and patient investigation of agricultural scientists can supply no remedial agent, or devise no method of destroying the young while in the ground. The invasion of such swarms of grasshoppers as Dr. Gould leisurely observed for two days over the arid plains of La Plata it may be beyond human power to deal with. But not so the ordinary bands which die in the soil in the Western winter and germinate with the warmth of spring. Cannot some relief be provided by the original investigators of agricultural science?

J. C. Schmitz, the German pedestrian, who commenced a walk of 300 miles in three days on Saturday at noon, in Brooklyn, has completed 200 miles forty minutes ahead of time on Tuesday.

IT IS NOT WHAT YOU EAT BUT what you digest that makes you strong. Unless the food taken is perfectly dissolved, assimilated and converted into pure blood, general nervous and physical prostration inevitably result; the whole system is impoverished; degeneration of the organs and tissues follows, and if there be hereditary predisposition to scrofula or consumption it will surely be developed and the constitution gradually broken down. The foundation of good health and a sound mind is a vigorous stomach and perfect nutrition. Dr. Fowler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya is Nature's own remedy for derangements of the digestive organs, purely physiological, harmless, and positively certain to restore nervous and muscular force.

Mr. A. D. Campbell, school teacher, of Owen Sound, (formerly teacher in the Georgetown Academy), has been presented by the pupils of the class preparing for the Teachers' Examination, with a silver fruit basket, valued at $14. Accompanying the presentation, is the following address:— On behalf of the pupils of the Teachers' Class which has been under your instruction, allow me to present you with this fruit basket as a slight recognition on our part of the valuable instruction which you have imparted during the time we have been under your charge. We feel that you have had our interest at heart, that you have labored diligently for our success, and spared no pains to contribute to it. If our improvement has been equal to your desire and efforts to effect it, then our success is assured; and we trust that we have shown our full appreciation of your valuable lessons in our best and most earnest efforts to prosper by them. By this token we mean not a reward in the sense of remuneration, but a memento of affection and esteem, which we all feel as pupils towards you as our teacher." At the close, Mr. Campbell made a suitable reply, thanking the pupils for their valuable memento, and wishing them success.

The mail from Moorhead rarely gets into Winnipeg on time, and general dissatisfaction is the consequence. It is said that a letter received in Toronto from one of the Manitoba Mounted Police states that sickness prevails, principally scurvy, from subsistence upon salt provisions, eaten without vegetables. The letter also states that it is expected a battery from Kingston will be sent up as a reinforcement.

On Tuesday last a lady named Mrs. Van Wierman, of London, and her daughter, were drowned in attempting to drive across the river Thames, in a buggy, the bridge having been carried away. In one part of the river was a deep hole, into which the buggy dropped and was overturned. The cries of the struggling women attracted a number of men, but they could render no assistance, and both ladies were drowned.

FOWLER'S PILES AND HEMORRHOIDS.—This justly celebrated remedy has more evidence of real merit than any other preparation for Piles in existence; the best evidence in its favour is that "never fails to cure," which assertion thousands who have been cured will vouch for and confirm. It also cures scrofula, salt rheum and all diseases of the skin. (See special notice.)

The conductor of the Quebec and Portland express, which left Montreal at ten o'clock on Monday night, is reported to have thrown a man named Frank McCarron, from the train, when within a few feet of Victoria bridge. McCarron rolled down the embankment, which is at this point steep and rugged, and was found by the police, to whom the affair was communicated, insensible, but happily escaped with no more serious injury than very severe bruises.

Marshall Wood has sent in his little bill for constructing the model of the Parliamentary grounds. It is $30,000. He estimates the cost of the work at $300,000. The cost of a marble bust of Sir John A. Macdonald in the Parliament Library is probably covered by this sum, though not mentioned. Unfortunately, it is not the only bust of that statesman which Canada has had to pay for.

TWELFTH JULY IN ORCHARDVILLE.—Our correspondent at Orchardville says that the Battle of the Boyne was commemorated in that place by a grand procession on the 13th inst., in which three lodges, with their bands, were represented. A sumptuous dinner at Irving's hotel followed, after which an oration was delivered by Rev. Mr. Dudley, of Durham. A large crowd was in attendance, and everything passed off peaceably.

Upwards of 18,000 female signatures, among them being those of Florence Nightingale, Harriet Martineau, Mary Carpenter, and Anna Gore Langton, have been attached to a memorial which has been addressed to Mr. Disraeli, praying him to support the Bill for removing the electoral disabilities of women. In his reply the Premier has acknowledged the honor paid him.

On Thursday, a man who was intoxicated tried a race with a Grand Trunk freight train, at Port Colborne, and succeeded in coming in ahead by just enough to save himself and the horses he was driving from being smashed. The wagon was badly damaged; the man was thrown out and narrowly escaped being thrown into the canal.

To Correspondents.

Write upon pages of a single size. Cross all your 't's, and neatly dot your 'i's; On one side only let your lines be seen—Both sides filled up announce a Voracious Green.

Correct—yes, re-correct—all that you write. And let your ink be black, your paper white. For spongy foolscap of a muddy blue Betrays a mind of the same diaphanous hue. Punctate carefully, for on this score Nothing proclaims the practised writer more. Then send it off, and, lest it merit lack, Enclose the postage stamps to send it back; But first pay all the postage on it too. For editors look black on "six cents due," And murmur as they run the offusion due. "A shabby fellow and a wretched bore!" Yet ere it goes, take off a copy clean—Writers should own a copying machine; Little they know the time that's spent and care.

In hunting verses vanished—who knows where? Bear this in mind, observe it to the end, And you shall make the editor your friend.

Some of the foreign markets having been supplied with a spurious Worcestershire Sauce, upon the wrapper and labels of which the names of Lea & Perrin have been forged, L. & P. give notice that they have furnished their correspondents with power of attorney to take instant proceedings against Manufacturers and Vendors of such, or other imitations by which their right may be infringed. Ask for Lea & Perrin's Sauce, and see Name on Wrapper, Labels, Bottle and Stopper.
