"PAT" Jay, Strathroy, was reported killed in Wednesday's casualty lists, and Pte. Nelson L. Gough, of Alvinston, reported wounded.

WHY all this talk about scarcity of labor? Listowel High School advertised for two teachers and seventy-seven applications were received.

FARMERS around here had splendid weather for haying. The crop was put in in much better shape than usual and is undoubtedly the largest crop in many years.

MRS. R. H. STAPLEFORD received a telegram on Wednesday from her husband at Camp Borden which stated that he has been promoted to Staff Captain on the 8th Brigade.

A NUMBER of citizens are complaining of the disregard bicyclists show towards their rights by persisting to ride on the sidewalks during the summer season when the streets are in excellent condition for wheeling.

MR. BEN CRAIG has a narrow escape from serious accident Tuesday. While cementing a well at rear of the Taylor Block a board on which he was standing gave way precipitating him into the well. Luckily he escaped with only a few bruises.

TWO young ladies from Watford went boating at Port Frank last Sunday, capsized the boat, and had to stand in nearly five feet of water until two gentlemen paddled from shore to rescue them. They are trying to keep the matter quiet, but O, my! nearly everybody knows about it.

WHEN the new telephone directory is issued in August, the a's and b's attached to numbers will be done away with. The new letters will be w and j. There has been considerable confusion experienced over the a's and b's and it is believed the substituted letters will do away with this trouble.

NEW blouses, middies and wash skirts for Saturday. —SWIFT'S.

THE entrance results came to hand on Saturday and were posted up outside the Guide-Advocate office a short time after being received, much to the satisfaction of the young people who had been waiting very anxiously for some time for the news. They can now settle down and enjoy the holidays in earnest.

LETTERS of as late date as July 6, received from soldiers in the 70th state that very few of the 70th are now in England and those are employed as instructors or on special duties. All the officers are said to have gone to the front except Lt.-Col. Towers and Quartermaster Mackenzie. The destinations of the officers and men are not known.

THE weekly meeting of the Patriotic League was held in the Lyceum on Thursday afternoon. The member's present worked on hospital supplies. Donations of money or old white linen can be left with Mr. A. G. Brown, Mr. E. D. Swift or at the Lyceum every Thursday afternoon. Any ladies who take an interest in patriotic work will be welcome Thursday afternoon. —M. Osborn, Sec.

WATFORD PEOPLE had an excellent opportunity on Friday night of watching a partial eclipse of the moon, which was particularly clear because of the favorable weather conditions. A little after 10 o'clock a dark shadow began to cover the face and at a quarter to 12 the greatest point of eclipse was reached. No clouds showed in the sky, and the clear atmosphere gave a rare opportunity to see the phenomenon.

AS noted last week Miss Alice May Pearce passed away on July 12th, after a long and tedious illness extending over two years which she bore with much patience. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Pearce, Huron Street, to the Watford cemetery, the Rev. S. P. Irwin taking the service. The pall bearers were R. Brock, T. Glenn, D. Roberts, I. J. Hastings, N. Chatterton, and W. Williamson. Interment in Watford Cemetery.

MRS. W. J. THOMPSON will have charge of the Topic at the Epworth League, and Prayer Service this Thursday evening in the Methodist Church at 8 o'clock.

BRITISH expenditures have now reached a total of more than $38,000,000 daily, according to a statement made by Reginald McKenna, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

PERSONS who are forever asking the question, "How long will the war last?" should consult old Father Time. He's the only man who knows exactly how many weeks will elapse before Germany will admit her defeat.

ROBT. Johnston met with a nasty accident on Saturday evening. While erecting a hay loader a prop under the steel frame dropping on Mr. Johnston's head making an ugly gash which required three stitches to close. His cheek was also cut.

THE Wednesday half holiday will be observed by the merchants of Watford this summer as before, commencing on Wednesday, June 7th, and continuing until the end of August. Make a note of this and do your shopping in the morning. —ms-tf

FARMERS are very busy from daylight till dark just now picking potato bugs. The bugs are a veritable plague this year, as the potato plants are simply covered with them. The plants are in good condition otherwise, being healthy looking and well blossomed.

BOYS' khaki pants, bloomers and overalls. —SWIFT'S July Sale.

ALL persons in Watford and the surrounding country who have old books and magazines which they wish to donate to the 149th Battalion please leave them on Saturday, July 22nd at the store under Dr. Hicks' office where they will be looked after by the members of the Kewpie Club. —Sec.

HISTORIANS will divide the great war into three parts, the first being the great German attack; the second being the period when the Allies held on, waiting their time to strike, and the third the period of the German retreat and ultimate defeat. We seem to be getting pretty well into the third part now.

"YOU are complaining in America of thirty-cent gasoline," writes a Britisher to an American friend, "but that means to you thirty cents a gallon; what would you say if it meant, as it does to us at this moment, thirty cents a quart! When gasoline went up to $1.25 a gallon, I put up the car and got my old reliable bicycle."

THE results of the School of Bayonet Fighting and Physical Training held in London from May 15 to June 10 is announced. The following noncommissioned officers have completed the 21 days' course and are qualified to act as assistant instructors. The certificates will be issued shortly. 149th Overseas Battalion —Sergts. A. W. Murphy, G. O. Trick, Corps. C. H. McLean, S. G. Richardson, J. S. Young, Pte. E. H. Webster.

SINCE 1912 the paper contained in a thousand letterheads has advanced in price over 50 cents on the cheaper grades, and on some of the more expensive papers 75c and $1.00; colored cardboard exact doubled in price; colored poster paper has advanced 25 per cent; book paper and cover paper has advanced 37 per cent, and memorial cards 35 per cent. As a matter of fact there is not a thing which enters into the printing and publishing business that has not advanced in price.

MR. W. A. CORK, government inspector of Mutual Fire Insurance Companies was here last week making his annual inspection of the books of the Lambton Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Co. He called at the Guide-Advocate office on Friday and reports that the company is in a very flourishing condition with a large surplus on hand and invested in debentures. He said the Company was to be congratulated on having such an efficient secretary in the person of Mr. W. G. Willoughby, whose books are exceptionally neat and well kept.

ACCORDING to the records of the casualty office the total number of killed, wounded and missing during the heavy fighting on the Canadian front since June 2nd is a little less than the grim record of St. Julien. The casualties so far received aggregate between eight and nine thousand, including several hundred reported "missing." Practically all the casualties of the first three weeks of June, during the period of the heaviest fighting, have now been received and next of kin have been notified. The total of Canadian casualties since the outbreak of the war is now more than thirty thousand.

WHITE wash skirts in repp, duck, drill, at July bargain prices. —SWIFT'S July Sale.

Pushing the hands of the clock an hour ahead may be all right—some say yes and some say no—but it wouldn't make the birds sing any earlier in the morning.

ALVINSTON Free Press:—"It is said, and we can see no reason for disputing it, that there are four or five of the most promising horses in Western Ontario to be found at the Alvinston race-track under the eagle eye of Trainer John Roche. Besides Texas Jim, who is known abroad as well as at home, there is P. A. McDiarmid's Win Fast, Harry Laird's son of Uno, Dan McIntyre's grey, Jim Kenny's pacer and others. Every one of these horses has the breeding and the speed, and miles under twenty are as common as flies. And the track is in splendid condition."

OVER 500 Bandsmen will be engaged for the musical program at the Canadian National Exhibition. In all over 20 bands have been engaged to play at various times and there will be nearly 400 each night in the massed concert in connection with the Federation of Empire Spectacle. The musical festival will be led by Conway's famous band of soloists, the Director of which has the reputation of being the king of program makers. There will be concerts throughout the grounds every hour of the day and well into the night.

WHEN about to close a jar of preserved goods, the housewife very often finds herself short of a rubber band, or else the last one breaks. A very good substitute can be made from newspaper. This is better than other paper, because, as plumbers say, "it packs better." They often use it to make small pipe joints air and water-tight. Cut several layers of the paper the required size, put them on the can and screw the lid down as tightly as possible. If preferred rings of soft leather, cut from the tops of old shoes, may be used, but they are not as satisfactory as those made from newspapers.

MRS. F. TANNER has received information regarding the death of her son Lieut.-Col. Tanner. "He was wounded in the abdomen by a bursting shell while superintending the loading of the wounded into Ambulance cars and although he knew he was mortally wounded he stood by till every man was removed to a place of safety before asking for assistance for himself. He was wounded the evening of June 2nd and lived till 3.30 in the morning of June 4th. He was laid to rest in the Military Cemetery about one mile and a half out of Poperinghi and was given a full military funeral. There were friends from almost all the Canadian units present. His grave was covered with flowers. The grave will be marked by a cross with his name on it and will always be cared for. He was to have had a promotion in the near future. Extract from Chaplain's letter."

MR. Warren K. Cook, Toronto, who was visiting here over Sunday, entertained a number of citizens to an exhibition of automatic machine gun firing on Monday morning. The gun used is an Italian invention and is called the Revelli. It is manufactured in Canada by Canada General Electric Co., of Toronto, Mr. Cook being their representative. The features of the gun are simplicity, lightness and rapidity of fire. It has two barrels and shoots 50 shots a second—3000 a minute—and the barrels can be used separately or together. Its range is 1200 to 1500 yards and the bullets, which are a trifle larger than a .32, will penetrate three inches of hard wood at 500 yards. The velocity of the bullets is 325 yards a second, and the gun is guaranteed for 25,000 rounds. The exhibition was a very interesting and instructive affair and Mr. Cook's kindness in giving the demonstration much appreciated by all who witnessed it.

BROOKE

St. Andrews B. & E. will hold their reopening services on July 30th. Morning service 11 o'clock, evening service half past seven. Service as usual on Sunday July 23rd.

Tuesday afternoon July 25 the Tipperary Red Cross Aid will hold their annual meeting at Mrs. Thos. Corestine's. All members are asked to be present in order that the year's report may be completed.

The Red Cross Society 6th line west will hold a "Garden Party" in the orchard opposite Bethesda Church, on Thursday August 6th. A first class program is anticipated. Watch for particulars next week.

The 6th line west branch of the Red Cross Society met at the home of Mrs. Squires on Wednesday of last week. Notwithstanding the intense heat, a large number were present and a number of garments and hospital supplies were completed. Mrs. Snell the president, took charge. The invitation of Mrs. Walter Thrower to meet at their beautiful new home on July 26th was heartily accepted.

Mr. McMeans, Dominion Government Seed Inspector paid an official visit to R. Williamson, Sutorville, who is growing several acres of mangle seed. Mr. McMeans reports the crop of Mr. Williamson to be one of the best in his inspection which goes to show that even Lambton County is capable of producing seed that heretofore has largely been grown in Germany. Quite a number throughout the province of Ontario are experimenting with small amounts this season. The government purposes giving all assistance possible in order to put the seed growing in Canada on a profitable basis.

A Few Reasons Why We Need Hydro

Forest with its own electric light plant, costing $35,000 only three years ago, has voted in favor of Hydro. There's a reason.

Sarnia's electric plant cost that city $175,000 a very short time ago. They have decided by an overwhelming majority to install Hydro.

Strathroy owned its own electric plant. Since installing Hydro the rates have been reduced to consumers nearly one third and the financial statement of the light department shows a net surplus of $480.00 for the last six months.

The Hydro Commission will not advise the use of their power unless certain that the revenue derived will meet all expenses. No town using Hydro has yet reported a deficit.

Would Watford be an exception and Hydro a failure here? We should say not, when every like hamlet in the country has proved it a success.

More light with greater candle power will make our back streets at night as bright as noon-day, and the cost will be less.

If you do not use Hydro it will not cost you a cent.

What we now pay for street lighting will more than pay the debenture rate each year.

Cheaper lamps will naturally reduce your lighting bill for the year. Hydro lamps are much cheaper.

Don't let the opportunity to keep up with other towns pass. Vote for the by-law.

Amherstburg Bowling Tournament

The Amherstburg Bowling Club will hold its Fourth Annual Tournament, on Monday and Tuesday, August 7th and 8th. As last year's event was practically spoiled by rain, Amherstburg bowlers are arranging to make it up to their friends from Western Ontario this year by putting on some splendid stunts. In addition to the Old Boys, Amherst House and Park trophies and prizes with same, four beautiful Special prizes have been donated as a fourth event, by S. J. Johnston of Detroit, Honorary President of the Club. Constant work on the greens have put them in first class condition, and the grounds are a bower of beauty surrounded by flowers and shrubs. The usual moonlight dance will be given the first evening. It may be interesting to our readers to be reminded who won the trophies in former years: Old Boys, 1913, R. Fairall, Leamington; 1914, A. Pow, Ridgeway; 1915, N. Cornwall, Walkerville. Amherst House, 1913, Dr. Rogers, Essex; 1914, Dr. Watson, Windsor; 1915, Dr. Teeter, Amherstburg. Dr. Park trophy, 1913, W. H. Wilton, Leamington; 1914, N. Wigle, Kingsville; 1915, Dr. Dounsbury, Wheatley. Mullen Special, 1914, Broad of Windsor; Stephenson Special, 1915, J. H. Sutton, Amherstburg.

The garden party given by the young people of the Women's Patriotic League on the beautiful lawn of Mr. Robert McKenzie, was very successful. The young people deserve praise for the excellent manner, with which everything was arranged and carried out. The gate receipts amounted to $144.50.

Sarnia, July 14.—The police are keeping a sharp lookout for supposed deserters from military units. A long list has been furnished by the officers of men who are now absent without leave. So far the police have been successful along this line, and have turned over a number of the absent-without-leave men to their commanding officers.

Mount Bridges, Ont., July 18.—Arthur Drover, an eighteen-year-old English boy employed by R. A. Williams of concession 1, Caradoc, suddenly ran amuck to-day. He was apparently made insane by the excessive heat, and attacked Mrs. Williams with an axe, wounding her seriously in several places. Then he fled toward Dawn township, where his brother lives, stopping in his flight at the home of Mrs. Cushman, whom he struck with an axe that he found in the woodshed. After knocking her unconscious, Drover continued his flight and was captured by officers near Melbourn. Both of the axeman's victims will recover, it is reported.

WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Russian torpedo boats are said to have destroyed 54 enemy sailing vessels in the Black Sea in one day. This is a record worth while.

Here is Sir Mackenzie Bowell at the age of ninety-two setting out on a four thousand mile journey to the Yukon, while a whole lot of young fellows are not enlisting for fear they would get seasick crossing the Atlantic.—Toronto Star.

The Imperial Parliament will be asked to so amend the Rhodes Scholarship Act that German students will in future be denied the privileges of attendance at Oxford. Thus a portion of Rhodes' dream vanishes into thin air.

Toronto Star—In the eastern country when two men have a lawsuit a candle is lighted for each man and the one whose candle holds out the longest wins. It is much the same in Canada. When two men get into a law fight the one whose dough hangs out longest wins.

An intimation comes from Ottawa that Patriotic Fund expenditure, having exceeded all expectations, new problems will have to be solved to meet the added burdens which are daily being placed on the fund through the steady recruiting which is going all over Canada. There is a possibility of taxation being imposed directly on the people of Canada, and with this in view a committee is to be appointed by the Patriotic Fund, to enquire into the matter of direct taxation and to approach various schemes of revenue raising for this purpose. The fund has enough money now to last it some months, but the last appeal made by the Duke of Connaught, for $8,000,000 in January, was calculated to last till the beginning of 1917. Ten millions were secured. It is not that people who pledged themselves to subscribe certain sums each month to the Patriotic Fund are not paying, for this is not the case, but the demands have become very heavy.

The United States, which is in the habit of regarding Canada as a settlement somewhere to the north of them, and endowed with little reason, if any, as proven by the vote on Reciprocity, might do well to take an example from this country in the matter of going to war. The Americans apparently intend to send green troops into Mexico which has probably, the most villainous climate possible, and this without camp life training. No matter what the Mexicans may be able to do, there is no possible doubt what the climate will do, and a great many unnecessary hardships will be the result. Also in the matter of soldiers' pay. The rates as published show an American private receives pay at the rate of fifty cents a day and it does not appear that his wife or descendants get a cent. Canada may be lax in some regards, but her public men understand that when the man of the house is called to war, the government that calls him must look after that house.—Times.

How to Run a Hotel

The editor of the Simcoe Reformer hands out this without any charge: "The proprietor of a leading hotel at London, and an excellent one at that, recently declared that his dining-room had habitually shown a loss of $2500 per year. Very little to wonder at though, when one reflects on the fact that the hotels, by clinging to very restricted hours for serving meals, have driven the mass of the public to the restaurants. The far-seeing hotelman who wishes to live through until the pendulum swings back to license, it is not likely to be a very prolonged period, will get busy and try to run a better hotel than he ever did. And one of the things he will do will be to fire his 'American' dining room and substitute a cafe in which his patrons will be made to pay for what they ask for."

Not Sufficient.

A publican was prosecuted recently for selling a bottle of whisky during prohibited hours. A bottle of whisky similar to that sold was produced as evidence. The jury heard the evidence and retired to the jury room. They presently returned.
"My Lord," said the foreman, "the jury are quite satisfied as to the sale of the bottle, but they are not sure of its contents. May they have the bottle to satisfy themselves?"
"Certainly," declared the judge.
After a brief period the jury filed into the box again.
"Well, gentlemen, have you reached a decision?" asked the judge.
"No case, my Lord," said the foreman.
"There was not enough evidence to go round."

The Whole Thing

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger.
A soldier in a hospital, on recovering consciousness, said: Nurse, what is this on my head?"
"Vinegar cloths," she replied. "You have had fever."
After a pause
"And what is this at my chest?"
"A mustard plaster. You have had pneumonia."
"And what is this at my feet?"
"Salt bags. You have had frostbite."
A soldier from the next bed looked up and said:
"Hang a pepperbox to his nose, nurse, then he will be a cruet."

Holloway's Corn Cure takes the corn out by the roots. Try it and prove it.

Humanty Classified

The world is divided into four classes:

- First. Those who do not know and do not know that they do not know—these are the 'fools'—leave them.
- Second. Those who do not know and know that they do not know; these are children—teach them.
- Third. Those who know and do not know they know; these are asleep—arouse them.
- Fourth. Those who know and know they know; these are wise men—follow them.

To have the children sound and healthy is the first care of a mother. They cannot be healthy if troubled with worms. Use Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

Shears for trimming grass, mounted on wheels and with the handles so extended that they can be used by a person standing upright, have been patented by a Canadian woman.

An electric heater to be placed in a bathtub after it has been filled, to raise the temperature of the water to any desired degree, has been patented by an Ohio inventor.

A spark plug with two gaps, producing the sparks at once, is finding favor in England, the idea being that one gap is sure to work even if the other becomes clogged by soot.

Avoid harsh purgatives for children. Rexall Orderlies are sure, safe and gentle; 15c and 25c. Sold only at Rexall Drug Stores.—J. W. McLAREN.

A New York electrician has invented a device, small enough to be carried in a pocket, which enables a person to use a telephone without persons near him overhearing his conversation.

Boys that make a flapping noise as they pass through the water and leave a plainly seen wave have been invented in England to be towed behind vessels to guide following ones in togs.

For measuring cloth in a roll without unrolling it there has been invented a device that passes a thread between its folds and at the same time automatically measures the thread.

A wire clip, to be screwed into a door frame, has been invented for holding milk bottles out of the reach of cats and dogs.

Next to the United States, Germany has the greatest number of telegraph officers and the largest line mileage among nations.

It Makes New Friends Every Day.—Not a day goes by that Dr. Thomas Electric Oil does not widen the circle of its friends. Orders for it come from the most unlikely places in the west and far north, for its fame has travelled far. It deserves this attention, for no oil has done so much humanity. Its moderate cost makes it easy to get.

Waste steam from its municipal water and light plant is used by an Indiana city to heat its courthouse and two public schools.

In Europe the hydrogen, which is a byproduct of the manufacture of oxygen, is utilized to harden oils for use in the soap industry.

A power loom has been invented that is said to weave Oriental rugs that so closely imitate the genuine hand-made ones as to defy experts.

Luck means rising at six o'clock in the morning, living on a dollar a day if you can earn two, minding your own business, and not meddling with other people's. Luck means appointments you have never failed to keep, trains you have never failed to catch. Luck means trusting in God and your own resources.

Thomas Taggart, aged about 60, a well-known Mount Brydges carpenter, was found dead on the road between Delaware and Mount Brydges. Taggart was on his way from London, where he had driven earlier in the day. His horse was found grazing by the roadside. Heart failure may have caused his death.

No better protection against worms can be got than Miller's Worm Powders. They consume worms and render the stomach and intestines untenable to them. They heal the surfaces that have become inflamed by the attacks of the parasites and serve to restore the strength of the child that has been undermined by the draughts that the worms have made upon it, and that their operation is altogether health-giving.

• No warping, bulging or breaking at the centre of heat—the strain is taken up by the two-piece fire-pot which permits no ashes to cling or clog.

MODISH SUIT.

A Smart Model Put Up In Blue Serge For Wear.

Durable, popular, ubiquitous navy serge gives this good looking outfit, cut with a box plaited jacket and skirt.

ULTRA LINES.
An unusual finish is gained by a white organdie piping around the coat to match the collar. The slashed belt is also interesting.

FOR SUMMER SHOWERS.

Gay Umbrellas Are Appearing Like Broken Off Bits of Rainbows.

It is not a bit too soon to get ready for summer showers. Indeed, one need not regret the gentle downpour if she is provided with one of the new umbrellas made of silk taffeta in green, blue, burgundy, prelate, orchid, dull yellow or African brown. The color choice is broad, so that the costume or the salient tone thereof may be matched.

These silks are waterproof, and the color looks no worse after its summer bath. The handles are quite short and are said to be copied from the stick of the British or French officer. There is no handle in the usual sense of the word, but instead there is a heavy cord loop run through a perforation in the handle, and this is swung over the wrist.

One advantage of the new umbrella is that it may be used for sun protection quite as well as for the rain defense. One feels less foolish starting out in the morning under a cloud, as if were, umbrella in hand or raised above the head, and finding herself equally prepared when the sun unexpectedly pierces the clouds later in the day. Moreover, the gay color seems to anticipate the appearance of the rainbow.

Kitchen Helps.

In order to keep lettuce fresh for an indefinite time put the head in a glass containing water and place it in the icebox or some other cool, dark place. The roots will absorb the water, which should be changed daily, and keep the lettuce fresh and crisp.

If you would save your hands from unsightly vegetable stains always peel or scrape potatoes, turnips, etc., under warm running water.

When your grocer sends you hard lemons and you want them for immediate use let them stand for a few hours in water, and they will soon become soft and juicy.

A home "cold storage" for eggs may be made by placing two inches of wood ashes in the bottom of a tin pail. In this stand on the small end as many fresh eggs as will fit easily without letting them touch. Over these sift a couple of inches of ashes and adjust another layer of eggs. When the pail is full cover it tightly and place in a cool place, and the eggs will keep perfectly for an indefinite time.

On Ironing Day.
One will find it a great help on ironing day to have a goodly supply of clothes hangers at hand. As soon as a garment is ironed slip it over a hanger. Each hanger will hold a number of the same kind of garments, and in putting the clothes away all that is necessary is to place the hangers in the closet. In this way many pieces do not have to be handled twice and wrinkled clothes are avoided.

Strawberry Shortcake For Two.
A large cupful of prepared flour, a teaspoonful of lard. Mix with cold milk, mold into two large biscuits and bake in quick oven. Split through center and butter and pour over same one box of strawberries which have been mashed with one and one-half cupfuls sugar. Serve with whipped cream or ice cream.

Needs.
Husband—Now, then, what are our needs? Wife—Well, the house needs painting, we are all out of kitchen utensils, the dining room rug is threadbare, the bathroom must be decorated, and I've simply had to order some clothes.—Judge.

Faultless in Preparation.—Unlike any other stomach regulator, Farmelee's Vegetable Pills are the result of long study of vegetable compounds calculated to stimulate the stomachic functions and maintain them at the normal condition. Years of use have proved their faultless character and established their excellent reputation. And this reputation they have maintained for years and will continue to maintain, for these pills must always stand at the head of the list of standard preparations.

"Unseen—Unseen"

When the boy gets his pocket full of tops, knives pencil, etc., he goes to his companions and with the words "unseen—unseen" they swap bargains.

To a certain extent this is true of the mania for buying on the part of many people, especially in the rural centres, at far-away establishments. By persistent advertising these establishments have worked up a mighty business, and in their dealings they are faithful with their customers. But in a great many cases people stock up a lot of unnecessary things, and keep them because there is no way of disposing of them, but to use them or wear them. In the cities they tell us the disposition to trade at the big departmental mail order places is passing, and the trade is being spread over. The editor of the Orillia Packet in the following describes a condition now in Toronto as follows:

Noting the increase of prosperous-looking, well stocked shops and stores in many parts of Toronto, a week or two ago, the writer remarked to a city friend that evidently the departmental houses were not having things altogether their own way. The answer was the assurance that city people, in a general way, are less and less doing their buying at these large establishments. A number of reasons are given. Intimate acquaintance has at last convinced buyers, at close quarters, that taken all round, the average prices in the departmental stores are not lower than in the smaller shops. The personal relationship between buyer and seller becomes more intimate in the smaller shops and that is a binding quality. With years, the objection to going about the city carrying Batons or Simptons label has become emphasized. Thousands of garments, all of a kind, mark the wearers, among knowing people, not merely as belonging to the ready-to-wear class, but even to a cheap species of that genus. Again, Toronto folks have had it forced upon them, that it is highly undesirable to centre trade in two or three immense establishments, to the depreciation of the value of property eligible for business purposes in all parts of the city. Possibly like considerations will in time come to force themselves upon people in the country and the smaller towns,

Sergt. Geo. Newman, of Sarnia, is among the wounded.

H. Fraleigh has hemp on his farm, near Forest, nearly six feet tall.

Chaplain Carlyle of Windsor is returning home from the front.

The Theford paper will not be published this week. Annual holiday.

Wm Reid, a well-known resident of Middlesex for many years, died at his home in Metcalfe last week, in his 77 year.

Delaware township has an outbreak of rabies, and the township council has ordered that all dogs be muzzled immediately.

David McMillan of Sarnia, was thrown from his auto on Saturday and had his right leg broken in three places, also was severely bruised about the body.

John McAlpine, at the River Thames, has a field of oats from which a sample measures 56 inches in the straw. His other crops are equally good.

Carrie Lightfoot, eight-year-old daughter of John Lightfoot, living near Alvinston was terribly burned on Friday when a can of coal oil exploded in her hands. She succumbed to her injuries on Saturday.

The residence of W. Volk, who lives north of No. 18 school house, Sauble Valley, was burned down last week. A spark from the chimney lighting on the roof is supposed to have started the fire. Most of the contents were saved.

Girls and boys under fifteen years are not allowed on the streets of Alvinston after 8.30 in the evening unless accompanied by their parents. The constable gives notice in the local paper that the law will be strictly enforced.

A. Wark, 2nd line, Plympton, met with a serious accident. When he was getting into the buggy the horse started suddenly, his foot slipped and caught in the buggy, and he was dragged for some distance, causing severe bruises and cuts.

Mrs. A. D. Urline, of Hamilton, formerly of Dutton, was robbed of $30 while visiting Buffalo. A man representing himself as an immigration officer told her that she must deposit $30 with him, as no one without that amount could enter the country.

John McMahon of Petrolia has on two occasions been reported dead. In making the correction the Topic says:—"To see him cavorting about the bowling green would convince anyone that his youthful days are far from being spent, and here's hoping so."

Letters received in Sarnia to-day, from members of the 70th Battalion state that the greater part of the battalion had gone to the front in drafts of 100 to 200 at a time. Lieuts. Garvey, LeSueur and McCormick were already in France at time of writing, July 4-5. Major Fred Gorman, Capt. Grainger, of London, and Lieut. Menish, of Strathroy, were leaving to join the 4th Canadian Mounted Rifles. Lieut. Stewart Cowan was also under orders to join a mounted rifle battalion in France. He, Cowan and Jas. Mackenzie were still in England with the artillery.

Late tomatoes, in a good many places, are reported to be in poor condition with the prospect of only half a crop. While the tops look good a blight appears to have struck the under part of the vines. This condition prevails to a greater extent on land affected by wet weather. Grubs have also been doing some damage.

If every farmer would follow the example of Wm. Martinson of Howard, the Belgians would soon be provided for. This genial Howard farmer dropped into The Herald office the other day, and announced that his hogs that week had brought him a nice little sum, and he wanted to leave a five dollar bill of it for the Belgian Relief Fund.—Thamesville, Herald.

The marriage of Captain H. A. Trainor of Lambton's 149 Batt. and Miss Edna Pearl Smith took place at the home of the bride's parents in Cornwall last week. Capt. Trainor, who was formerly local manager of the Bell Telephone Co. in Sarnia, is well known in Watford where best wishes for a long and happy married life are extended himself and bride.

The Western Fair

The amusement programme at the Western Fair, London, Ontario, Sept. 8 to 16 promises to be an especially attractive one. Here are a few of the acts under contract. Lawrence and Hurfills, a comedy chair act, which is simply wonderful. "Dix's Dog and Pony Circus," this is the act the older people like to take the children to see. Taisier Bros., two Japs doing some wonderful feats. Rice, Sully and Scott, a comedy rubber act, something new and novel. The Dayton Family, twelve people who give a remarkable exhibition. The four Aerial Bells, the greatest aerial artists, and others. The new steel Grand Stand, with every seat a good one, will be filled no doubt twice daily. A grand display of fireworks by the International Fireworks Co. of London every night. The Meyerhoff Carnival Co. will fill the Midway with a fine lot of good clean shows. Two speed events on the track daily. Everything will be in full swing at this year's exhibition September 8th to 16th. All information from the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario.

George Stephens, ex-M. P., and for many years a prominent business man of Chatham, died Monday.

The consumption of cigarettes in Canada has been increased during the war. In the last fiscal year the aggregate number entered for consumption at the Inland Revenue Department was 1,168,097,845, of which 86,936,545 were entered for "army and navy stores"; 49,900 heavy cigarettes, and 95,363 pounds of tobacco came under the same head.

Toronto

Toronto, July 18.—The market at the Union stockyards to-day was a repetition of that of yesterday. The general tendency of the stock was easy and sales drabby. Prices held about steady, with few exceptions. Butcher steers of a very choice quality moved quite readily, but the medium classes sold slowly throughout the market. Butcher cattle held fairly steady, but the sales were slow. Butcher cows were one of the lowest items, easing off to 50c a hundred lower. The sale was slow and very drabby. Butcher bulls were about steady. Stockers and feeders were in no demand. Milkers and springers held at firm prices.

Light sheep continued to hold the small stuff division, but heaviest were in very poor demand. Choice weals sold freely at steady prices. Common and medium calves were in slow demand. Hogs in very small numbers, but prices held fairly steady. Spring lambs in fair demand at firm prices.

Receipts to-day, 24 cars, 327 cattle, 118 calves, 233 hogs and 131 sheep.

The Story of a Castaway

By CLARISSA MACKIE

It was a morning of early spring in New York harbor. On the shores of the two rivers that flow east and west of Manhattan Island and the great bay south of it yachts were being overhauled, their engines oiled, their sails repaired, their furniture uncovered. Indeed, everything was being done to prepare them for commission.

From the dock of a yacht club in the East river a party was pulled in a dinghy to a trim auxiliary craft anchored a short distance out in the river. It had already been prepared for a lengthy trip. They were Dr. and Mrs. Mortimer and their daughter, Evelyn, a girl of eighteen. Frederic Doerr, engaged to Evelyn, went out with the others to the yacht, but after going down the companionway, ostensibly to inspect the cabin, but really to bid each other a fond goodbye, the young couple returned to the deck, and Doerr was pulled ashore. There he lingered while the anchor of the yacht was got up and began to steam down the river. Then, with a last wave, which was returned by his young fiancée, he turned away.

Dr. Mortimer and his family were bent on a cruise in southern waters. It was late in the season for a land trip to the south, but not on the ocean, and it was their intention to visit Cuba, the Panama canal and other objects of interest, remaining ashore only a day or two at a time.

They had reached a point off the coast of Florida and were steaming along at midnight in a fog when there came a crash. Those in their berths below arose, dressed hastily and went on deck. Down in the hold the water was coming through a hole. Dr. Mortimer examined it and, believing that the yacht would surely sink, went on deck again and told his wife and daughter that they had better prepare for such a result. Mrs. Mortimer preferred to die aboard the yacht rather than commit herself to the black waters, but Evelyn, remembering her lover and that it was her duty to try to live for him, suffered her father to get together articles for a raft, and when he had bound them together and lashed her to it he launched her upon the deep.

This was unfortunate. The water did not gain in the yacht as rapidly as had been expected, and when dawn came and the fog cleared away there was a steamer on the port bow not a mile away. Assistance was immediately afforded, and the pumps were manned. Before the day ended the yacht was in condition to pursue its journey and arrived safely at a Cuban port.

The sun shone down on the stretch of white beach on the fringe of palms bending in the soft south wind. Blake Worthing at the wheel of his motorboat idled in these pleasant Florida waters, wondering if it was time to return to his cottage on the beach and waiting for his mother's signal that luncheon was ready.

Something strange came bobbing over the waters toward him. In the distance it looked like a gray island. Later it resolved into various articles of a ship with a human being lashed upon it. As soon as Blake made this discovery he turned the motorboat about and met the approaching raft.

When he had made it fast to his own craft he gently touched the sea soaked bundle of humanity and discovered it to be a girl—a girl so pale and lifeless that he believed her to be dead.

His mother met him at the little pier and took the bundle from his arms. She was a tall, majestic woman, strong and vigorous and young.

"Where did you find her, Blake?" asked Mrs. Worthing.

"I'm going over to Barnacle after the doctor—do the best you can for her, mother," said Blake, as he changed his wet clothing and hurried off up the beach.

Mrs. Worthing put the castaway into her little spare room under the cottage roof, and with the help of Mandy, the maid, she endeavored to bring consciousness to the girl.

But in vain. It was not until after the physician had arrived and worked over her for another hour that at last the girl opened a pair of forgetment blue eyes and smiled faintly at the anxious face bent above her. Then she went to sleep.

She did not awake until morning, and Mrs. Worthing discovered that while she remembered many things about the dreadful wreck of a vessel bound for South America, she could not piece together her past life or identify herself completely.

"My name," she said slowly, "is Evelyn Ames—my father is Dr. Ames—and we were taking a vacation—father—oh, my poor father!" Then she broke down and cried because she could only guess her father's fate. She could not even remember where she had lived, and although Mrs. Worthing and her son labored patiently to brighten the dulled memory their efforts were in vain.

"Please don't bother about me. I cannot remember," she would cry wearily.

Mrs. Worthing was not ill pleased at this. She had always longed for a daughter, and now she proposed to adopt Evelyn Ames for her own. Blake, who had fallen in love with the beautiful castaway, smiled secretly and thought that if he had his way the stranger would be his mother's daughter, but she would also be his wife.

And in the meantime the Worthings could find no trace of the nameless vessel on which Evelyn had sailed for Rio Janeiro. There had been no vessels lost, and investigation showed that there was no physician by the name of Ames who might be the father of Evelyn. They advertised and wrote letters, and in the end they were no wiser than before.

Then one fair morning, while the sun shone on the summer seas and the wind murmured among the palms, Blake Worthing told Evelyn of his love. Blushing she gave her heart and hand into his tender keeping. Mrs. Worthing, delighted at the outcome, gathered them both to her heart.

It was when the engagement had been two weeks old that a blow came to Blake Worthing. He was preparing to go to Barnacle, where the offices of his fruit industry were situated, when he heard a sharp scream from the front veranda.

He dashed downstairs and found Evelyn gazing, pale and wide eyed, at the ocean.

"Dearest, what is the matter?" he asked.

She shuddered and hid her face in her hands.

"Oh, Blake, I have remembered!"

"Remembered? That is splendid, dear. Tell me."

"My name is Evelyn Ames Mortimer—my father is Dr. Ames Mortimer of New York—and, oh, Blake, how can I tell you?" Her slender shoulders shook with sobs.

"Tell me," he gently urged.

"I cannot marry you," she breathed.

"Why not?"

"I have remembered"—tragically.

"You have remembered what?"

"That I am already engaged."

"You are engaged? You were engaged when you sailed away? And you had forgotten that?"

She nodded listlessly.

"Then you do not love me," he said, rising and drawing his hands away from her grasp.

But she clung desperately to him.

"Ah, I do—I do love you, Blake! This is the misery of it all. I look back and think of Frederic Doerr, and I wonder how I could have dreamed of marrying him."

"Let me think it over, Evelyn," said Blake as he went away. All day while he dictated letters or interviewed customers Evelyn's pale, frightened face came between. Toward night he sent a telegram to Frederic Doerr's address in New York, and the second day afterward he met him at Barnacle station and took him to the cottage.

Frederic Doerr was a tall, thin, dark man with grave eyes and a preoccupied manner. He appeared to be extremely nervous when speaking of Evelyn, although he talked freely of her father, Dr. Mortimer, who had been saved.

He told Worthing how the Mortimers had sailed on a private yacht, and in the excitement following a collision, with visions of immediately sinking, Evelyn had been lashed to a raft and cast adrift.

The storm tossed yacht had reached a Cuban port, and Dr. Mortimer, although giving his daughter up for lost, had made every effort to find her. It was strange that the threads of inquiry instituted by the Worthings and Evelyn's father had never crossed. "She has told us of her engagement to you," said Blake in his blunt way. "You will want to see her alone, I suppose."

"If you please. I think you and Mrs. Worthing had better be present," said Doerr nervously.

So when Blake told Evelyn that he had brought her fiancée to see her and that her father was still living her joy in the latter news was dampened by the approaching interview with the man she had ceased to love.

"I must keep my promise to Frederic," she assured Mrs. Worthing, as they descended the stairs. "He said once that he did not care to live if I would not marry him."

Mrs. Worthing smiled wisely, but her arm tightened around the shrinking girl's waist as they entered the living room.

"Evelyn!" cried Doerr, starting forward with outstretched hands. "How delighted your father will be! I wired him at once of your safety."

He made no attempt to embrace her, and Evelyn was manifestly relieved.

The Worthings turned to leave, but Frederic Doerr put out a detaining hand.

"Please do not go," he said, with embarrassment. "There is something I must confess, and Evelyn will need her friends around her. I am ashamed to say that—his voice dropped almost to a whisper—I have been faithful to Evelyn Mortimer, one of the sweetest girls God ever created! Believing her to be dead, I permitted myself to be attracted by another woman—and, to make a long story short, I am married. I am no longer free."

Frederic Doerr did not expect the demonstration that followed his news.

Mrs. Worthing clasped her hands and cried for joy, while Blake opened his arms to receive Evelyn Mortimer.

"Why, nobody seems to care very much," remarked Mr. Doerr, with a whimsical smile.

Then Mrs. Worthing took him outside and explained, and while they were gone Blake and Evelyn sealed their betrothal with a long kiss.

"You belong to me, sweetheart," whispered Blake. "The sea gave you to me—you drifted into my heart."

WATFORD ASTONISHED BY SIMPLE MIXTURE

Watford people are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. ONE SPOONFUL removes such surprising foul matter it relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. Because Adler-ika acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Taylor & Sons, Druggists.

Apple Snowballs.

Boil two teacupfuls of rice in milk until nearly done; then strain it, pare and core as many apples as there are portions to be served, put a small quantity of sugar and a clove in each apple, lay on a small floured cloth, covering each with rice, tie each ball separately and then boil until the apples are tender. Half an hour will usually be enough. Serve with a good Rocky mountain sauce.

Scarcity of Bottles.

Empty bottles are being collected and sold by Boy Scouts in Belfast. The scarcity of bottles at present makes this a very remunerative occupation. The movement originated with the Boy Scouts' Association, of which the Lord Mayor is president, the idea being to raise funds to provide a recreation hut at the front.

Escaloped Cabbage.

Cook cabbage in boiling salted water until tender, drain and chop if desired, put in a buttered baking dish, pour over a white sauce, cover with buttered crumbs and bake until brown.

Raisin Clusters With Salted Almonds.

What Is Uric Acid?

THE CAUSE OF BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM, GRAVEL AND SUDDEN DEATH.

Ever since the discovery of uric acid in the blood by Scheele, in 1775, and the bad effect it had upon the body, scientists and physicians have striven to rid the tissues and the blood of this poison. Because of its over-abundance in the system it causes backache, pains here and there, rheumatism, gout, gravel, neuralgia and sciatica. It was Dr. Pierce who discovered a new agent, called "Anuric," which will throw out and completely eradicate this uric acid from the system. "Anuric" has proved to be 57 times more potent than lithia, and consequently you need no longer fear muscular or articular rheumatism or gout, or many other diseases which are dependent on an accumulation of uric acid within the body. Send to Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., for a pamphlet on "Anuric," or send 10 cents for a trial package of "Anuric Tablets."

If you feel that tired, worn-out feeling, backache, neuralgia, or if your sleep is disturbed by too frequent urination, go to your best drug store and ask for Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. They are put up in 50-cent packages.

Doctor Pierce's reputation is back of this medicine and you know that his "Golden Medical Discovery" for the blood and his "Favorite Prescription" for the ills of women have had a splendid reputation for the past fifty years.

Doctor Pierce's Pellets are unequalled as a Liver Pill. One tiny Sugar-coated Pellet a Dose. Cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

SHRINES IN CHINA.

One on Mount Omei Often Lures an Enthusiast to Death.

On the climbing hill roads in western China on the lower slopes of Omei, the sacred mountain, may be seen now and then a motley procession of Chinese of all ranks wearing strings of "cash" around their necks and carrying yellow bags, bound for the presence of the many shrines. The strings of cash are for the mendicants, inseparable concomitant of worship in the orient.

The road leads upward through forests of ash and pine, pleasantly cool after the heat of the eastern plains. Some of the weatherier are carried on uncomfortable little wooden saddles strapped to the backs of coolies, but the majority seek salvation on foot. As one pants higher and higher one comes to the first of the monasteries, a new structure, low and cool. Almost all the monasteries are new.

Mount Omei is uncomfortably close to heaven in some ways. Lightning bolts strike the buildings frequently, and the whole top has been burned over again and again. Nevertheless more than 2,000 monks dwell here, and to fulfill all their duty the pious must burn tapers before sixty-two shrines. There is the Hall of the Tranquil Heart and the Gate of Heaven, through which you come to the Monastery of Everlasting Joy.

The most beautiful spot on Mount Omei is a jutting ledge above an almost bottomless precipice. The spot is called the Rejection of the Body. Many a mystic, intoxicated by endless distance and dizzying height, has solved here all the problems of religion by a single step over the brink—Argonaut.

Vastness of South America.

The vastness of South America is little understood. I travel about 30,000 or 40,000 miles each year trying to cover my circuit. It takes me longer to go between the extreme points, from Panama by steamer down the west coast and on through the strait of Magellan to Antofagasta, Paraguay, than it would take to go from San Francisco to Cairo and back to Glasgow.

You think of Bolivia as a little country. It is as big as Germany, Austria and England. Peru is as large as all the United States from Nova Scotia to Indiana, from Canada south to the gulf. Argentine equals all the United States west of Omaha. Brazil is as large as the United States with another Texas added. The resources of that vast area are in keeping with the bigness of the continent.—Homer C. Stuntz in World Outlook.

How a Bird Dresses.

As bird fashions do not change, two suits a year are quite enough for most birds, but they need to take great care of them. Each separate feather must be cleaned and looked over and the useless ones pulled out. These feathers are not packed close together, you know, but lie loose and have places between filled with air. When a bird wants to get warmer he lifts his feathers so that these air spaces may be larger. But if his feathers are tangled or wet and dirty he could not raise them, and soon he could not keep the head in his little body and would, of course, die.

Voters' List—1916.

Municipality of the Village of Watford County of Lambton.

NOTICE is hereby given that I have transmitted or delivered to the persons mentioned in section 9 of "The Ontario Voters' List Act," the copies required by said sections to be transmitted or delivered of the list, made pursuant to said Act, of all persons appearing by the last revised assessment roll of the said Municipality to be entitled to vote in the said Municipality at elections for members of the Legislative Assembly and at Municipal Elections, and that said list was first posted up at my office, here at Watford on the 3rd day of July, 1916, and remains there for inspection, and I hereby call upon all voters to take immediate proceedings to have any errors or omissions corrected according to law. Dated at Watford this 2nd day of July, A. D., 1916. W. S. FULLER, Clerk of Watford.

Niagara Falls, July 17.—The Ottawa Customs authorities have sprung a surprise on persons crossing the lower bridge by placing a woman Customs inspector at the Canadian end of the bridge. Mrs. White, the woman Customs officer, has subjected the purchases of feminine shoppers to a rigid scrutiny, and it is said that she has already collected a tidy sum in duties. It is believed that this is only a temporary measure to curtail petty smuggling, which is alleged to have been extensively carried on.

EAST LAMBTON ENTRANCE RESULTS

Fred Winnett of the Oil Springs Public School heads the list in the Inspectorate obtaining 550 marks out of a possible 650, being about 85%. Of 240 pupils wrote in the Jr. H. S. Entrance examination in East Lambton and 142 were successful. The number writing this year is somewhat less than usual owing to the fact that some 25 boys availed themselves of the special regulation exempting them from the examination on the ground of employment on a farm. Their applications for certificates will be forwarded to the Department when they have completed their term of service which will probably be about Sept. 1st.

To pass requires a total of 60%, as well as 40% in each subject, while those who obtained 75% or over of the total have passed with honors. Names are in order of merit in each centre.

Some Raspberry Recipes

RASPBERRY CROWN
2 Tablespoons water, 2 tablespoons corn starch, 1 cup boiling raspberry juice, 1 egg, pinch of salt, lemon extract. Cook until creamy. Put into moulds. When cold serve with raspberries or whipped cream.

RASPBERRY TAPIOCA
Put 1/2 cup tapioca into a kettle, cover with 4 cups boiling water and cook until transparent. Stir into this 1 pint of raspberries, adding sugar to taste. Pour into a mould. Serve cold with cream.

RASPBERRY CAKE
1 Cup white sugar, 1/2 cup butter, 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons buttermilk, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon soda, nutmeg, 1 cup raspberries, (to be added last). Bake in layers.

RASPBERRY VINEGAR
Put 1 quart of raspberries into a suitable dish, pour over them a quart of good vinegar, let it stand 24 hours, then strain through a flannel bag and pour this liquor on another quart of berries; do this for 3 or 4 days successively and strain it; make it very sweet with loaf sugar; bottle and seal it.

GOOD RICH BLOOD MEANS GOOD HEALTH

Just a Little more Rich, Red Blood Cures Most Ailments.

The lack of sufficient rich, red blood does not end merely in a pale complexion. It is much more serious. Bloodless people are tired, languid, run-down folk who do not enjoy life. Food does not nourish; there's indigestion, heart palpitation, headache, backache and nearly always nervousness. If this bloodlessness is neglected too long, a decline is sure to follow. Just a little more rich, red blood cures these troubles. Then you have new health, new vitality and pleasure in life. To get more rich, red blood the remedy is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. No other medicine increases and enriches the blood so quickly or so surely. This is not a mere claim. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done this over and over again throughout why thousands of people always have a good word to say for this medicine. Miss Gertrude Haffner, Kingston, Ont., says:—"About two years ago I was suffering greatly with anaemia, so much so that I had to give up my situation. I became so weak that I could scarcely walk without help. I had no ambition, no color, no appetite and was constantly troubled with headaches and 'thazy' spells. I was taking medicine from the doctor, but it did not do me a particle of good. One day a friend asked me if I had tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Though as the result of my condition I was greatly discouraged I began the use of the Pills, and thanks to that good friend's advice after using a few boxes I began to feel much better. Under the continued use of the pills I gained in weight, my color came back and I grew gradually stronger. I looked so much better that people would ask me what I was taking and I had no hesitation in giving the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I am so grateful for what this medicine has done for me that I will do all I can to extend its use." You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Ten nurses from London and Western Ontario have been instructed to report to Major Bell, assistant director of medical services, at headquarters, London. They will be assigned within a short time for overseas service, but detailed instructions have not as yet been secured.
