BIG ATTENDANCE AT CARNIVAL

One Hundred Skaters in Costume—
Good Musical Programme—
List of Skaters.

The Fancy Dress Carnival held on Friday evening in Bridgetown rink was very largely attended and over a hundred skaters were in costume. Non costumed skaters and spectators attended in large numbers. Besides town people and visitors from surroundings, there were also present a number from Middleton, Annapolis, Lawrenceport and Paradise.

The ice was in excellent condition and Bridgetown band rendered a good programme. Everything combined to make the evening's proceedings pleasant and satisfactory.

We give below a list of costumed skaters in so far as it was possible to secure it. Excessive modesty on the part of gentlemen skaters makes their number seem small on paper. However they were all there with bells on.

The judges were—Mr. and Mrs. Churchill Sallows, of St. John, and Mrs. W. C. Fiendel, of Middleton. Prizes went as follows:

Most Brilliant Costumes:—Ladies—First, to Mrs. F. M. Graves, as "Starlight"; Second, ladies, Miss Blanche Smith, as "Debutante"; Gentlemen:—Murray Orlando as Valentine.

Most Original:—Ladies—Miss Bertha Fulmer as "Mah Jong"; Gentlemen—Eugene Poole as "Crusader".

Other costumes deserving special mention were Dr. Archibald, Lawrenceport, as "Clown"; Mrs. R. V. Arnold as "Circus"; Mrs. S. N. Wear as "Peacock".

After the judging, ice sports were put on. The High School boys race was won by Carmon Piggett, the other contestants being Chas. LeBrun and Charles Anderson. The three-legged race was won by Gerald Wear and Hector MacLean.

Ladies and Gentlemen's Race in pairs was won by John Roberts and Miss Hortense Griffin with Dr. Crowe and Miss Carrie Ruffee second.

The Mite Race had two contestants, Bennie Poole and Eugene Owens. Bennie won by a small margin.

SOCIAL AT UNITED CHURCH

Congregation Enjoying Fine Banquet And Hear Encouraging Reports In The Various Lines Of Activity.

On Tuesday evening the W.M.S. of the United Church served a banquet to the congregation. The dining tables were filled with plenty and after all had feasted sufficiently chairs were pushed back and the programme of the evening commenced. Music was furnished by the organist and members of the choir—the Pastor presiding throughout. The congregation had the pleasure of listening to reports from every department of activity in the church—some twenty reports were given. It was refreshing to learn that the work of the church was so complete and so thoroughly handled. The Treasurer, Mayor Hicks, bringing in his report, showed finances well in hand. Among the committees reporting were Parsonage Repair Committee, Conference and Centennial Committee, A.B.C. Carpet Committee. The last named informed the company that a beautiful carpet had been bought for the church and was waiting to be laid down. One of the most pleasant features of the evening was the calling to their feet of recent newcomers to the congregation and these were suitably addressed by Mayor Hicks. Mr. E. A. Hicks, in a very pleasing way, moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Dalrymple, thru whose enthusiasm, backed splendidly by the members of the W.M.S., the evening was such a success. Mr. Wentzell seconded the motion which was put and adopted enthusiastically. Mrs. Dalrymple replied. The evening was brought to a close by the singing of "Blest be the tie that binds". It is proposed to have this congregational social annually.

REMARKABLE AUTO TRIP MADE BY MR. HARRY MCKENZIE

Mr. H. T. McKenzie recently made an auto trip which undoubtedly stands as a record locally if not provincially. Leaving here on Monday he motored to Halifax and proceeded along the South Shore, calling on friends and customers, visiting all the towns, and returning through Yarmouth and Digby Counties back home again. The time occupied was just one week.

He experienced no troubles calling for mention, though in one or two sections of country there was rather too much snow for easy travelling. The success of the trip undertaken in February speaks volumes for the remarkable Winter which we are having.

Will our correspondents who now send news items arriving here Tuesday afternoon please try to get them in at least one day earlier? We are sorry to disappoint in any way, but it is impossible to publish in that week's issue contents of letters arriving Tuesday afternoon.

On Thursday at an S. P. C. meeting held at Kentville, Mayor A. E. H. Chesley, presiding, a letter was read from R. H. Murray, Halifax, stating that he would organize a branch of the Society in that town.

DR. BOYLE, PRESIDENT OF KING'S COLLEGE, GIVES SPLENDID LECTURE

Rev. Dr. Boyle, President of King's, gave a splendid lecture on Monday evening in the S. S. room of the United Church, taking as his subject, "The Future Canadian". He speculated on what the Canadian citizen would be like in, say the year 2001. To arrive at reasonable deductions he dismissed the present day Canadian most interestingly, referring to the East vs. West problem and the Cosmopolitan population of a considerable part of our country. He recommended that our immigrants be largely of Anglo Celtic stock. He went into the records as secured by the U. S. Army during the past war when it was shown that this stock was highest in intelligence. Our future was largely what we make it in and through education. Dr. Boyle closed his lecture with a decidedly optimistic note as to Canada's future.

Professor Linne, of Mt. Allison, will be the lecturer next Monday night.

BUSINESS MEN STRONG FOR HOME USE OF OUR OWN RAW MATERIALS

Canada's men of business success are now coming out strongly for the policy of manufacturing Canadian raw materials within Canada. During the past few days there have been pronouncements on this important subject by men of such varied interests as C. Howard Smith, President of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and a successful manufacturer himself; Sir Lomer Gouin, whose attitude seems to be a clear demarcation from the policies of the present Ottawa government; and Hon. James Lyons, Minister of Lands and Forests of the Province of Ontario.

After emphasizing that no nation can get rich exporting its raw materials to other countries to be manufactured into finished products, Mr. Smith declared that only by promoting manufacture of our raw materials at home could we provide a domestic market for the agricultural production of the country and thus insure prosperity not only for the farmer but for the business man as well. And only in this way could we give ourselves a favorable balance of trade, especially in our trade relations with the United States. Our exports to the United States consisted of our previous raw materials and our imports from the United States consisted almost entirely of highly finished products.

Mr. Smith was speaking to a gathering of paper manufacturers and he came out strongly for the embargo on pulpwood exports. He instanced asbestos as another raw material that we were exporting in such a way as to bring us but a very small revenue. We controlled the world's asbestos, 95% of the supplies being in this country, and yet last year the United States paid us $7,000,000 for raw asbestos that was made up into between $75,000,000 and $80,000,000 of fine asbestos articles in addition to many articles of a coarser nature.

Sir Lomer Gouin, in a notable address, reviewed the tremendous growth of the pulp and paper industry in Canada since Quebec and other Provinces passed legislation forbidding the export of raw pulpwood from Crown lands. He said:

"In 1910 we inaugurated a policy in the Province of Quebec by which we prohibited the exportation of pulpwood on Crown lands. The other Provinces followed, and the result is the following: In 1910 there were three paper mills in Canada, all fighting for existence. They produced in the same year 700,000 tons of manufactured pulp and paper. In 1922, 3,500,000 tons were produced. In 1910 Canadian mills consumed 900,000 cords of pulpwood; in 1922, they consumed 3,000,000 cords.

"We are told that one cord of pulpwood exported brings back to the cutter of the timber $6, and to our railways another $6, while the same cord of pulpwood manufactured in Canada brings to us $60. We read that in 1923 we exported 1,500,000 cords of pulpwood, valued at $13,500,000. If we had kept that pulpwood with us and manufactured it in our own mills, as we could, we would have received $87,000,000.

"The Dominion's increase in exports during 1923 was $130,000,000, of which pulp and wood products were $54,000,000. If we had manufactured in Canada this 1,500,000 cords of wood, instead of letting it go to the United States in raw condition, we would have added to that increase another $54,000,000, which we might have divided amongst our own lumber men."

Hon. James Lyons, Ontario's forestry minister, outlined the advantages that would accrue to Canada from keeping its raw materials, and particularly its wood pulp, at home for manufacture here.

"We got $14,000,000 for the pulpwood we sold in the United States last year," he pointed out. "If we forced this to be manufactured in Canada it would have meant the investment of many more millions in industrial development here; it would have provided employment for thousands of people; it would have been responsible for the building of thousands of permanent homes; it would have supplied a market for agricultural products that could not now be sold by the farmers; it would have given the National Railways many additional tons of freight; it would have provided large revenues in sales tax, income tax of employees, business profits taxes and municipal taxes.

Frank J. D. Barnjum, the dauntless fighter for a pulpwood embargo, said last week that conditions were now such that he did not plead with any government to pass an embargo but he dared any government not to put an embargo into effect. When the best brains of the country are agreed on this one point, it seems that Mr. Barnjum has stated a reasonable proposition.

For many years THE FINANCIAL POST has advocated restrictive measures on the export of our raw materials. Public opinion is now swinging strongly behind this policy for it is being realized that Canadian industry can best be built up in this fashion, and that we are playing the role of gullible fools in selling our exclusive raw materials to nations that allow these raw materials to enter free but which put up high tariff barriers against the import of the same raw materials when made up into finished products in Canadian factories and by Canadian workmen.

DEER SLAYER BOLDLY OPERATES ON SUNDAY NEAR CLEMENTSPORT

Clementsport.—Sometime last Sunday, early in the afternoon, a doe deer was shot in George Potter's pasture. The deer tracks were noticed and drops of blood. They led to the place where the poacher had dressed the deer and left the head, feet and hide. It is estimated that the dressed animal weighed one hundred pounds. The foot-prints showed that only one did the shooting. The matter was reported on Monday and Carmen O'Dell, the Game Inspector, from Annapolis Royal, looked over the scene of the shooting. He left the same evening in the freight.

Last year a deer was slaughtered near the main road, 1 mile from the village. The legal penalties do not seem to prevent the slaughter. A public feeling is growing here to protect game and shortly, if the law is broken, it will be a fairly easy guess to know among whom the law breaker is.

SOME SAD, BUT TRUTHFUL BOARDING HOUSE REMINISCENCES.

Boarders at thirteen boarding houses in a large city met on Thursday evening, not as an indignation meeting, but to talk over the different methods that might be suggested for inducing landladies to put more bed clothes on the beds. Resolutions were adopted expressive of the sense of the meeting, which the secretary was instructed to have transcribed and forwarded by mail to the proprietors of the boarding houses represented at the meeting. After the business that brought them together had been transacted, the boarders exchanged views on the subject of boarding houses, and discussed the different methods of bringing the landladies to terms.

Mr. Smith said he had suffered from stowed prunes at the table where he boarded for thirteen years. He had not touched a prune for eleven years, but a glass sauce pan full soaked in tepid water had been set beside his plate every night since he had been there. While he did not wish to complain, he thought the thing had been carried far enough, and he would be thankful if any gentleman present would suggest a method by which a boarding house keeper could be induced to give prunes a furlough.

Mr. Brown rose to his feet, and said, unaccounted for as he was to public-speaking, he could not let the occasion pass without relating his experiences. He said he had been troubled with prunes that way for six years, ten months and thirteen days. He got so that the sight of a prune set him into hysterics, and when he saw a barrel of them in a store it made him sea sick. Last summer, he said, he made up his mind to release prunes from their engagement at that house, if he broke up the business. He said he sat on the left side of the landlady at the table, and when she was not looking he put a dead mouse into her sauce dish. She took the mouse up on a tea spoon, and was just about to place it in amongst her false teeth, when he called her attention to the deceased. She shrieked, and took all the prunes off the table. He said there were no prunes for supper for some days, but at length they came again, and he put a mouse into a dish belonging to an old maid on the other side of the table. She was near-sighted and thought the prunes were these preserved crab apples with the stems on, and she took up the mouse by the tail, on that understanding, and bit it, hanging on to the tail with her thumb and forefinger. Brown said he felt as mean as an Indian commissioner when he saw her trying to masticate that crab apple, and when she gave it up and adjusted her glasses and looked at it, and saw what she had done and left the table, and the other boarders and the landlady looked at the mouse, he felt as though the days of prunes were numbered. That was last summer, and he has not seen a prune since, and he said he could conscientiously recommend the mouse plan.

As he sat down Mr. Smith asked what a good mouse trap would cost or if any gentleman had a second-hand mouse trap to sell. He said he would try it on his boarding house at once. Mr. Robinson said he had a mousetrap a spell ago, but it had got lost, and as he had found a piece of wire in his hash he had concluded that the trap had got into the hash cutter by mistake. Mr. Jones said that was not necessarily the case, as he had found wire in his hash also, and on tracing it up he found that a hairpin had been cut off in the flower of his youth.

Mr. Harvey, in moving to adjourn, suggested that the boarders form a society, and meet once a week for the purpose of exchanging experience and devising ways and means to better their condition. The proposition was acted upon favorably, and the society is to be known as the Boarders' Exchange and Anti-Hash Society. A committee was appointed to secure rooms, and it was agreed to meet every Tuesday evening.—MILWAUKEE SUN.

PAYING DEBTS PROMPTLY WOULD HELP BUSINESS

Pay your debts. It is all right to be economical, to be conservative about expansion in a time of business depression, but it is not all right to delay payment of bills that can be paid so as to keep more money on hand. If everybody were to pay bills normal times the result would be a stiffening up of business all along the line.

Make the money we have as active as it is possible to make it. If A pays B the $100 he owes him, B will pay C $100 and C will buy $100 more goods from D who will replace it by buying from E. And so on. But supposing A delays payment three months just to keep his funds liquid, business drops to that extent all round the line. Multiply A by 1,000 and these 1,000 A's would make a difference of many millions in the total of Canadian business done. "He is prompt pay," is one of the biggest recommendations business men desire concerning any man. We appeal to A to hurry up in the interest of all the rest of us. And in his own interest, too. That $100 has to be paid eventually. Why not now? Somewhere along the chain that nimble $100 will help others to pay A or buy from him. The sluggish dollar needs a touch of the whip.

The nimble dollar is the chief present need. What keeps the West in depression? Unpaid debts, nothing else. They are in process of being paid, and as that process quickens so will the West. That will make for prosperity and prosperity will attract immigrants. The immigrants will bring money. The money will spur up trade, and so on ad infinitum. Or it might be ad infinitum if prices would remain stable and prosperity not become a dream. When that time comes the proper advice will be "keep your head level and your feet on the ground." Just now it is "Pay Up". The sooner debts are liquidated, the sooner business will jump ahead!

FAILED TO SUICIDE
New York.—A suicidal leap of 135 feet from Queensboro Bridge into the East River was said to have earned for Peter Rubinsky the distinction of being the only man to survive the feat. He was fished out unconscious from two tugboat deckhands and revived in a Long Island City Hospital where surgeons said he would recover.

EXPORTS TO U. S. WERE GREATER

During the last three months of 1923, Canada exported farm produce to the U. S. valued at $22,275,802. In the last three months of the year previous the figures were $25,576,106. In the corresponding three months of 1920 before the higher U. S. tariff rates came into force the value was $95,691,457. There has however, been at the same time, a decline in prices. The quantity of Canadian wheat exported to the U. S. during the three months ended December was nearly double what it was in the corresponding period of 1922—17,260,473 bushels, valued at $15,961,490, compared to 9,172,155 bushels valued at $10,260,239.

Here and There

Manitoba is perhaps the most marrying province in Canada. For instance, in Ontario, there were 24,171 marriages in 1921, a rate of 8.5 per 1,000, while in Manitoba it was 7.7 per 1,000 of its 610,000 population.

Eastbound steamship travel from Canadian ports via Canadian Pacific steamships is heavier at the present time than for several years past at this season, a recent report declares. Bookings in some instances have run as high as 70 per cent increase over those of last winter.

According to a recent official compilation, out of every 100 people in Canada 51 live on farms. The 70,000 farms in Canada represent a $10,000 per farm, and produce an annual revenue of nearly $1,500,000, an average income per farm of $2,000 yearly.

From the opening of the crop year, September 1st, to the official closing of navigation, December 12th, the Canadian Pacific Railway reported the heaviest marketing of grain since the inception of the road. Grains loaded by the company also created a record for the season, having numbered 116,232. Grain marketed topped the 200,000,000 bushel mark.

Thirty-seven per cent of all automobiles in Canada are owned by farmers. Ownership of the balance, according to recent statistics, is made up as follows: business men and brokers, 15 per cent; salesmen and travellers, 16 per cent; professional men, 8 per cent; laborers, 4 per cent; contractors and livey men, 10 per cent; and miscellaneous and no occupation stated, 13 per cent.

When the Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Canada" left New York on January 30th for her great round-the-world cruise, she was the first Canadian vessel ever to complete such a voyage carrying a regular look-alike in the charge of experienced attendants, in addition to a free library. The stock includes many excellent recent books on travel, which will enable passengers to prepare themselves for the foreign lands they will visit, as well as a large number of novels by the best-known authors.

Of the total wheat exported from Canada in 1923, by far the greater proportion went to the United Kingdom, which took 45,315,391 bushels. The next largest was Germany, which imported 9,010,143 bushels. Italy came next, taking 4,919,112 bushels, and Greece next with 2,906,450 bushels. The exports of Canadian wheat to France during this period amounted to 1,323,268 bushels and to Belgium 1,075,215 bushels. These two countries totalled 2,398,483 bushels.

In the keenest competition, embracing all important agricultural districts of the North American continent, Alberta farmers won 43 prizes at the recent international stock and grain show at Chicago. Two grand championships—wheat, Major G. H. L. Strange and oats, J. W. Biglands—went to the province. Major Strange was also first with white field peas and Nunemaker Brothers, of Brooks, first with red clover seed. Major Strange's success is especially remarkable as he has only been a farmer four years.

The latest statements of the earnings and expenses of the Canadian Pacific Railway show that the strong position of that organization has been maintained, and that a steady improvement has been achieved in spite of the difficulties of the past few years. The figures for December show gross earnings of $10,158,874, working expenses of $10,158,874, and a net profit of $3,056,177, an increase of $401,922 over that of December, 1922. The 1923 totals show gross earnings of $155,837,629, working expenses of $155,837,629, and a net profit of $37,479,619, an increase of $1,177,210 over the total earnings of the road in 1922. Net earnings for this year were the highest since 1917 and gross earnings the highest since 1920.

A BEAR AT HIS FEET

Chester Basin—Otis Hatt had a thrilling experience with a bear recently. As the road he had been hauling over all winter got bad, he stepped to one side of a big bough to see if it would be safe to go over. When he stepped on the bough he saw two big eyes looking at him, and he realized he was standing on a bear's head. He shouted to his son to bring a gun which he had with him. The shouting fully awakened the bear and it arose and ambled away. The bear's fur was all frozen over with ice and it could hardly stand. But it soon lost its stiffness. Mr. Hatt chased the animal for several miles but could not get a shot at it, as the further Bruin went the smarter he got. Mr. Hatt had been teaming all winter past the bear, which had only a bough for a den.

WAR VETERANS FAVOR PROPOSAL

They Endorse Move To Dispense With Department of Civil Re-Establishment.

The Executive of the Nova Scotia Command of the Great War Veterans Association met in Halifax recently. One of the principal matters dealt with by them was to endorse the proposal made in Ottawa, and which was referred to in a despatch from the capital published in The Morning Chronicle, to dispense with the Department of Civil Re-Establishment and put the work of the Department under the Department of National Defence. In view of the economy which it is felt this will mean, the Executive of the Nova Scotia Veterans are sending to all the branches in the Province to support it, providing that the Defence Department administers the work of Soldiers' Re-Establishment as a civil branch and not under military regulations.

Those attending the Executive meeting were A. E. Andrew, Windsor; H. T. MacKenzie, Bridgetown; B. W. Roscoe, Kentville; R. R. Murray, Amherst, and H. F. Hamilton, Secretary.

FOR IMMIGRANTS

C. N. R. To Have Lunch Counter Cars To Cater To Comfort Of Newcomers.

Moncton.—Extensive preparations are being made by the C.N.R. to meet the heavy traffic which is expected in the Spring when immigrants begin to arrive in Canada in large numbers. At the Moncton shops four cars are being converted into lunch counter cars. A lunch counter, almost the whole length of the car, is installed together with a kitchen. A staff of five waiters are placed behind the counter and during the trip hot and cold meals are served to passengers. In addition to these lunch counter cars the C.N.R. will have in operation lunch-counter colonist cars.

DEATH ENDS AGONY OF ANNA POLIS MAN BURNED AT CARNIVAL

Lawrence Wear Succumbs To Injury An Hour Before Arrival Of Wife And Daughter.

Annapolis Royal.—Death, at noon Wednesday last, ended the terrible agony which Lawrence Wear had suffered since 8.30 o'clock Tuesday night, when his body was horribly burned as a result of his costume catching fire on the ice at the carnival here. Immediately the flames had been extinguished by other skaters, who wrapped their coats about the human torch. Wear was removed to the home of his parents, near the rink, and there, under the direction of Dr. Braine, everything possible was done to save the injured man's life. He died just an hour before the arrival in Annapolis Royal of his wife and four-year-old daughter, who had been visiting for a week in Windsor. Mrs. Wear was notified of her husband's precarious condition Tuesday night, and took the first train home, arriving here at 1 p.m. Wednesday.

Wear's body was removed to his own late home on Victoria Street and a short funeral service was held there Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock by Rev. A. Gibson, after which the remains were taken for interment to Woodlawn cemetery. Graveside services were conducted by the Odd-fellows of which Order the deceased was a member.

The late Lawrence Wear was a highly respected citizen of Annapolis Royal, where he was born thirty-eight years ago. He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wear. He was a shoemaker by trade, and was a returned soldier with an enviable record of overseas service.

Besides his wife and daughter, the deceased man is survived by his parents, two brothers and three sisters. Edward Wear, of Annapolis, and Town Councillor Douglas Wear are the brothers. The sisters are: Mrs. I. Rogers, of the Maritime Telegraph & Telephone Co., and Miss Winnifred, of Annapolis Royal, and Mrs. Harold Ritchie, of Boston.

An obstinate heart shall be laden with sorrows.

OBITUARIES

George Gordon.

The death took place at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital of Mr. Geo. Gordon, beloved husband of Lillie M. Gordon (nee Tupper). Funeral services were held at his late residence, 1 Cypress Street, Brookline, Mass., on February 18th.

Mr. Gordon was in his 67th year, and is a nephew of the late Donald Gordon. He married the daughter of the late Miner Tupper, of Bridgetown, N. S. He is survived by a widow and two daughters: Mrs. J. K. Elliott, of Brookline, Mass., and Miss Irene E. Gordon. Interment was at Mt. Hope Cemetery, Boston, Mass.

John K. Winchester.

Annapolis Royal.—John K. Winchester, a highly esteemed resident of Lower Granville, died at his home at an early hour last Tuesday morning, aged seventy-one years. The deceased had been in failing health for some time, and several weeks ago was taken to Halifax for treatment, but medical aid seemed unavailing, and after his return he sank rapidly.

Mr. Winchester was born at Lower Granville, in the house in which he died. He married a daughter of B. W. Shafner, who, with two daughters, survive him. One daughter, Mrs. Farrington, is at present in Lowell, Mass.; and the other, Mrs. M. W. Hale, is on her way home from Paris, France, and is expected to arrive this week with her husband.

Thirty-seven years ago Mr. Winchester moved from Granville to Lowell, Mass., where he spent twenty-five years with the Street Railway, returning to his old home in 1912. He was a staunch Liberal, one of the old school, and leaves a host of friends.

Mrs. Susan Mullen.

Bear River.—Last Saturday at noon there passed away a respected citizen, Mrs. Susan Mullen, widow of the late James H. Mullen. Although in failing health for some time, death came suddenly after two days' illness of arteriosclerosis. She is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Fred C. Harris, at home; Mrs. R. A. Harris, of Bear River; Mrs. Janie Ray, Cambridge, N. S.; seven grandchildren and a great grandchild, Mrs. Ella Eaton, of Upper Granville, is a half-sister.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS SOUNDER THAN YEAR AGO

The Royal Bank of Canada business letter for February says:

"At a time like the present, when business conditions are uneven, it is difficult to make any statement which will apply to the Dominion as a whole. The year 1923 we look on as having been a moderately good one, with certain striking exceptions, some favorable, others the reverse. We believe that 1924 is commencing with fundamental conditions sounder than they were at the beginning of 1923, and with sections of our weakest territory improved condition. Finally we see no reason why the improvement should not continue in moderate degree throughout the full twelve months of the present year."

ATLANTIC UNDERWEAR ANNUAL MEETING

Hon. O. T. Daniels Re-Elected President, A Position He Has Held Since Death Of First Pres., F. W. Sumner.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of Atlantic Underwear, Limited, was held on Tuesday afternoon at Moncton.

The Manager stated that last year the plant had produced to its largest capacity and turned out the most goods in its history.

The financial report met with the full approval of the shareholders in view of the difficulties which mills were undergoing as to competition with countries whose cost of labor and standard of living was much lower than ours.

This company has paid a 7 per cent. dividend on the preferred shares since its organization, and on Tuesday the Directors declared a half yearly dividend of 3 1/2 per cent. on the preferred, payable in April of this year.

J. L. MacDonald is the Manager and Secretary. Hon. O. T. Daniels was re-elected President. He has filled that office since the death of its first President, F. W. Sumner. B. P. Saunders, of Halifax, was elected a director in place of E. R. McDonald, retiring.

WHY EAT APPLES?

Because they are good to eat. When it comes to splitting this opinion of practically every normal human being who has ever had a chance at a good one into special reasons, we must admit large empty spots in our knowledge. The best analysis we can make shows quite a little water, some sugar, some more or less digestible bodies related to the starches and sugars, an acid and a little flavor, merely a trace by weight, but enough in odor value, from a good specimen, to scent a large room. The apple's fuel value is slight. It is neither that an apple cannot rot, they certainly do, but it is rare that they rot offensively. Lastly, they appear to supply, though in small amounts, minerals needed by the system in form in which the system can take them in.

How far they carry the curious and scarcely known "vitamines" is not certain, for we do not know what these really are, nor how many there may be of them, but the apple's acids and salts certainly have a gentle stimulating action upon the intestinal peristalsis, which is the pulsing motion which carries the digested food along.

Some think that they have a definite medicinal effect, and if a medicine is "what does you good" they surely have, but there is almost the certainty of an apple habit being established. This craving is only satisfied by the use of several apples per day, and in many cases their constant use has been followed by death between the ages of 80 and 90 years. Mr. Artemus Ward pointed out that it was no great virtue in an apple that one a day would keep away a doctor, since an onion a day would keep everyone at some distance, but the regular eating of one or more apples certainly lessens the need for "physics" of any sort. A fair amount of the value of apples to the human system remains from the ground fruit, and although the flavor is slightly the worse for the pasteurizing, the constituents remain unchanged. In many cases the only care taken is to exclude air from the container, while allowing the carbon dioxide to escape. This gas results from the oxidation of a part of the sugar, and so there is loss of food value, but, in spite of this, the fluid continues to be used as a beverage.—Rural New Yorker.

RECOGNITION OF HEROISM

"THE story of the Japanese earthquake disaster made appeal to Canadians for many reasons, and the Government of this Dominion did not hesitate to lend practical aid to the sufferers in stricken Japan, which staggered under one of the worst disasters in history. A ceremony the other day in New York, which gave recognition to Captain Samuel Robinson, who was in command of the Canadian Pacific steamer "Empress of Australia," which happened to be in the harbor of Yokohama at the time of the disaster, is particularly interesting, bringing to light the fact that this gallant officer of the mercantile marine was instrumental in the rescue of approximately three thousand persons. Honor to whom honor is due has been worthily and fittingly done in the presentation of the C.P.E. by the British Consul-General at New York, in the presence of a distinguished gathering, which included Mr. E. W. Beatty, Mr. Grant Hall and other high officials of the C.P.E. Canadians cannot help feeling a thrill of pride when reading the odyssey of Captain Samuel Robinson. The spirit which inspired Columbus and Vasco de Gama and M. Gerbault pervades the officers and the men of the British mercantile marine, and the gallantry of Canadian sailors today is not altogether different from what imbued those old seamen—Phoenicians, Vikings, Portuguese, Italians—who risked their lives in the earlier days. The world, we sometimes lament has no more mystery left and nothing more for explorers to do. From China to Peru, from Pole to Pole, all is known and mapped and even photographed. But we need not fear that British seamen will lose their gallantry and daring of past history because there are no more worlds to conquer. How many Canadian boys growing up today will read with a thrill of pride of the achievements of the officers and men of the good ship Empress of Australia in a time of great trial and difficulty in the burning waters of Yokohama—and will want to grow up and, if the occasion demands it in the days of the future, go and do likewise.

The old famous sea captains, Columbus and Drake, and all the rest who are gone "to the haven under the hill" did their work nobly, manfully and well, with their crews to help them. Captain Robinson's heroic endeavor will stand out as a bright, particular page in Canadian Pacific steamship history, where, taking immense risks, the morale, courage and proud sea history of the men of the mercantile marine were again exemplified in their brightest colors. It is well for the world that there are men of the Captain Robinson type in command of those great ships flying mercantile marine flags on the seven seas. The Government of Japan will take a suitable opportunity to give due appreciation of the valuable help rendered by the C. P. steamships and their officers for a service gladly rendered in token of our friendship and our common humanity. However clouded the outlook may be in other quarters, we have always been able to see a patch of blue sky over Japan, whose friendship is doubly precious to us in these days. If we reflect upon the possible consequences of a serious earthquake in our houses and streets in Montreal, we can form some idea of what happened in Tokio and of the dreadful devastation wrought in a few hours. The stoutest heart must have quailed in that Inferno where human beings were perishing by hundreds of thousands—so that we offer to Captain Samuel Robinson the heartiest of congratulations for his share in a noble work—nobly performed."

The foregoing tribute to Captain Robinson appeared as an editorial in the "Montreal Gazette," and is but one of many recognitions of his heroic actions. The passengers of the "Empress of Australia" have presented to the Pacific liner a tablet which commemorates the part she, her captain and crew took in the relief and rescue work at the time of the disaster, and prior to the sailing from New York on January 30 of the "Empress of Canada," which he now commands on world cruise, the "Montreal Gazette," and is honored the intrepid Commander at various luncheons and dinners, and demonstrated that his heroism has won for him universal respect and admiration. Canadian boys may, indeed, read with a thrill of pride of the achievements of the officers and men of the "Empress of Australia."

OBITUARY

John K. Winchester.

The death of John K. Winchester, one of our oldest and best known people of Karsdale, took place on the 12th inst., at his residence here after a brief illness. Mr. Winchester was born here 71 years ago. About thirty-five years ago he moved to Lowell, Mass., and for a number of years was employed on the railing systems there. Several years ago he returned to his old home here where he has lived ever since. He was a man of more than average ability, kind-hearted and public-spirited, always ready to assist in any good work. For upwards of two years he was the capable President of a Bible Class in his community. Politically he was an ardent Liberal.

He leaves a widow and two daughters, the latter residing in the U. S. The funeral took place on Thursday, Rev. Mr. Thomas, assisted by Archdeacon Watson and Rev. Mr. Durkee, conducting the services. Interment in the Episcopal Cemetery. A large circle of friends will hear with regret of his passing and extend their deepest sympathy to the bereaved.

NERVOUS INDIGESTION

Some Of Its Causes And How Relief May Be Obtained.

Many people suffer from nervous indigestion. The commonest causes are worry, over-work, lack of exercise, or a general run down condition of the system. It is a disease of the nerves rather than of the digestive organs, and is corrected by giving needed nourishment to the nervous system and building up the blood.

The treatment consists largely in rest, recreation and the use of a true tonic such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In addition, the patient should follow a careful diet, and avoid coffee and stimulants, these being unsuitable for nervous people. As one's nerves relax for nourishment upon the blood, the latter must be built up and made rich and pure, which is just what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do. If there is loss of weight and pallor, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are especially helpful. Mrs. Adolphus Villeneuve, R.R. No. 2, Apple Hill, tells us follows how she obtained relief—"I was so bad with nervous indigestion that I could not digest anything I took, and as a consequence was a great sufferer. I doctored for four months but seemed to be getting worse instead of better. I lost strength to such an extent that I could hardly go about. Then my mother came to see me, and urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I followed her advice and got a supply at once. After taking a few boxes I felt my strength returning, and I continued their use, until at the end of a few months I could eat anything I desired, had regained my old time health and strength, and was in every way a well woman. I am so thankful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me that I always advise their use when any of my friends are run down or ailing."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c. a box, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ROUND HILL PICNIC PARTY IN CALIFORNIA

Many People Well Known Locally Participate in This Pleasant Affair.

A number of former residents of Round Hill now living in Los Angeles and Pasadena, California, with their families, have united together as "The Round Hill Social Club".

On February 3rd they were out for a picnic in Brookside Park, Pasadena. The day was of the usual type here for the season. We sat around the picnic dinner table, out of doors, in the warm air, without wraps and in bare heads, needing no other protection than that afforded by the trees as a shade from the sun.

While we were most happily enjoying the warm sunshine of this wonderful land of our adoption, we did not forget the land of our birth, the far famed beautiful and beautiful Annapolis Valley. There were twenty-four of us present, and you might almost have fancied yourself in Round Hill, among the Spurr, Tupper, Healy and Dargies. The following answered the roll call: Frank Tupper and wife, Harold Tupper, wife and two boys; Miss Alice Tupper, George Spurr and wife (nee Crosby of Yarmouth); James Smith and wife (nee Crosby of Yarmouth); Harold Spurr, wife and daughter; Mrs. Jos. Brown (nee Dargie) and her husband and daughter; Hollis Pineo and wife (nee Jessie Dargie) and daughter and two sons; Granville B. Healy and wife.

We think they were about the best bunch that ever got together at home or abroad; and we fully intend to make it a permanent institution.

We do love this hospitable land of glorious sunshine, abounding in fruits and flowers, and most element in every season of the year, and yet, we wanderers from Round Hill, will never cease to cherish and to honor the country and the people from which we came; and so in this distant place, we join our hands and hearts together for the "Days of Auld Lang Syne".

Mr. Healy, referred to above, was formerly a well known and highly regarded citizen of this county where, he and the others mentioned, have a very large list of friends who will be interested in the picnic description. Mr. Healy graduated from Acadia University in 1870 and was a classmate of Mr. Harry Ruggles, barrister of this town, and the class of that year held a pleasant reunion some four or five years ago. Among Mr. Healy's relatives are Mrs. S. N. Weare, of Bridgetown, and Mrs. H. C. Barnaby, of Bridgewater.—(Ed. Monitor.)

MAJOR CALDWELL GOES TO WINNIPEG

It is officially announced that Major E. L. Caldwell, at present with "A" Squadron, R.C.D., has been transferred to Winnipeg to take over the duties of D.A.A.G. and Q.M.G. of Military District No. 10.

While we congratulate Major Caldwell on his well earned promotion we, in common with many others here, regret his departure from St. Johns, for since he has been among us he has earned the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact.

Major Caldwell is eminently fitted for his new position, having passed the Staff College Course in England, and served throughout the war, and at the conclusion was one of the three officers selected by the War Office to travel through Germany to report upon various conditions as then existing. He earned the appreciation of the War Office for his work in this connection. Courteous and unassuming, deeply interested in his work, we are sure he will achieve additional success wherever he goes.

Major Caldwell will report for duty at Winnipeg on March 1st.

The Major was a former resident of Centreville and his many friends in Annapolis County will be pleased to learn of his promotion.—(Ed. Monitor.)

It's good to have things that money will buy and it's good to check up once in a while and make sure that we haven't lost the things that money won't buy.—George Horace Lorimer.

CHILDHOOD INDIGESTION

Nothing is more common in childhood than indigestion. Nothing is more dangerous to proper growth, more weakening to the constitution or more likely to pave the way to dangerous disease. Fully nine-tenths of all the minor ills of childhood have their root in indigestion. There is no medicine for little ones to equal Baby's Own Tablets in relieving this trouble. They have proved of benefit in thousands of homes. Concerning them Mrs. Jos. Lunette, Immaculate Conception, Que., writes: "My baby was a great sufferer from indigestion, but the Tablets soon set her right, and now I would not be without them." Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

RAISED $250,250

St. John.—The grand total of money promised in the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage building fund campaign was $259,250, according to the figures compiled at the end of last week. The objective was $250,000.

The total received was $250,000. The several days ago it was estimated that about $11,000 had been subscribed in Moncton with half of that sum received in cash. The general committee is hoped to receive at least $10,000 from Kent, Restigouche and Madawaska Counties.

UNLESS HARMON GO, TURKISH WOMEN WILL SOON BE VERY SCARCE

Angora.—Polygamy and the harem may disappear from Turkey if the recommendations made by the Turkish parliamentary commission are adopted by the national assembly. On the grounds of economy, and because of the growing scarcity of marriageable women, members of the commission believe that the modern Turk should be content with one wife. They believe that if each man were to avail himself of the four wives permitted by the Koran there would not be sufficient women in Turkey to make possible one wife for every man.

The commission recommends also the granting to women of the right to divorce, as well as giving them recourse to the law courts for separation proceedings, instead of the present method whereby the husband has only to return the wife's dowry and say "Bezone," and the wife is cast adrift.

These principles in favor of monogamous marriages and modern divorce will be urged by deputies when the project comes before the assembly. It is certain to meet with determined opposition by peasants to whom four wives, which is the maximum number allowed by the Prophet Mohammed, may be often a source of wealth because they are all forced to work on the farm.

The modern Turk of the city finds it impossible to maintain such a harem because he has learned that Turkish women of the better class are fond of expensive dresses and pretty things. Silk stockings for three or four wives cost a lot of money. He has also found that if a man takes more than one wife he must take three. Two are impossible, he says, because they quarrel all the time, and the husband is bound to take her side and there will be no peace in the home.

But with three wives, it is explained, there is harmony, because the wives keep their quarrelling to themselves, and if one becomes too strong the other two will unite against her. Again, it is asserted, the modern Turk of education is very little influenced by the religion of his forefathers. Priding himself on his western ideas and education, he is content to leave his wavering belief in the laws of the Koran to the untutored masses and the peasants.

Finally, there has been a great change in the status of Turkish women since Mustafa Kemal built up the new Turkey. They now go about unveiled, speak to foreigners, ride on street cars and appear at public dances. Most of them are well educated and read American and French novels. Only recently a young Turkish priest named Ibrahim Efendi was arrested for publishing a pamphlet against the emancipation of women and the abolition of the harem. The public prosecutor demanded that he be sentenced to two years imprisonment for obstructing the application of liberal laws.

TO FIT UP CAMP SITE.
Digby Will Welcome Motor Tourist—Annual Banquet Meeting of Board of Trade.

Digby.—The annual banquet meeting of the Board of Trade was held in the Travellers Inn Wednesday and was largely attended. After the dinner had been disposed of, the Board settled down to its regular monthly business, the usual toast list being dispensed with, with the exception of a toast to the King.

The publicity committee had five meetings during the month and made several recommendations calling for quite a large expenditure for booklets, etc. Their recommendations were adopted and they were ordered to proceed with their work. Considerable interest was taken in the report of the committee appointed to select a camping site. They reported the most suitable place in their opinion was in Warwick Street, using a part of the present ball field and a part of the park adjoining. Their recommendations were adopted and they were instructed to get the site ready as soon as possible. The grounds will be lighted, a road built into them, water laid on, pavilions built, for dining and reading rooms, and toilet arrangements provided.

Other committees to report were those appointed to look into aquatic and bathing matters. These require more detail to be worked out and both committees were instructed to continue and report at the next meeting.

Various other matters of local interest such as electric wiring, increased insurance rates, etc., were considered and the foundations laid for further action.

MRS. MOHLNER'S ACHES AND PAINS Vanished After Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"Branchton, Ont.—"When I wrote to you for help my action was mostly prompted by curiosity. I wondered if I, too, would benefit by your medicine. It was the most profitable action I have ever taken. I heartily assure you, for through its results I am relieved of most of my sufferings. I have taken six boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, and I can honestly say I have never been so well before. I had suffered from pains and other troubles since I was fifteen years old, and during the 'Great War' period I worked on munitions for two years, and in the heavy lifting which my work called for, I strained myself, causing pelvic inflammation from which I have suffered untold agony, and I often had to give up and go to bed. Had doctors for several years without getting permanent relief, when I started to take your medicines."—Mrs. GOLDWIN MISENER, Branchton, Ont.

BIG DROP SHOWN IN CROP VALUE

Lower Prices Cause of Difference of $70,538,000 Between 1922 and 1923 Crops.

The aggregate value of all field crops in Canada in 1923 was $891,755,290, compared with $962,293,300 in 1922, a decrease of $70,538,000, caused mainly by lower prices applicable practically to every crop, says a return from the Bureau of Statistics. The hay and clover crop alone accounts for a decrease of $32,068,000, the average price per ton having fallen from $13.46 to $10.97. Total area under field crop in 1923 was 56,569,794, as against 57,189,681 in 1922.

Yield of wheat is finally estimated at 474,199,000 bushels, compared with 389,786,400 bushels in 1922, and with 269,233,810 bushels, the annual average for the five years, the value being $316,606,700 last year, compared with $329,419,000 in 1922, and $369,832,000, the five-year average. The average price received by the farmer for all wheat last year was 67 cents a bushel, as against 85 cents in 1922, and 81.37, the annual average for the five years, 1918-22.

Both in wheat and oats the yield last year was the highest on record for Canada.

Bigger trade means bigger money for the merchant, and prosperity to the home town.

Bigger money for the merchant means better buying for the consumer, because the merchant can afford to cut prices clearer by reason of his increased volume of business done. Bigger business means better business—both for merchant and consumer.

Obviously, the merchant can only get more trade by getting more satisfied customers, and the way to get more satisfied customers is to be able to sell goods at the most reasonable prices—at prices that give more value than the mail order house.

The merchant has got to have his profit—he's got to have his percentage, just as the farmer and the blacksmith have got to have their percentage. Some people act as if the merchant should have no profit at all—but this belief, is of course, nonsensical.

If the merchant does not get his legitimate percentage of profit he cannot stay in business. Neither can the fruitgrower or the blacksmith or the printer.

And we all want to stay in business, don't we?

If we are put out of business, our town dies. It is business that makes a town and keeps the contiguous district alive and flourishing.

Streets, houses, trees, churches and automobiles do not make a town. Trade is the important factor. Trade means that production and labor are the vital forces behind.

Production would be useless without an outlet through trade and commerce—except as a means of sustaining individual life, or bare existence.

We want more of life than a bare existence. We want the best educational and social advantages that make life worth living. We want and must have many, many things that only a hearty, interdependent community spirit and activity can give us.

To keep this berg intact we must live and let live. We must patronize one another and see that all worthy going concerns are kept going, adding new ones when occasion demands.

If all the business people were to combine and send their printing out of town the community would shortly lose the printers—one of its most important, progressive functionalities. If the farmers of the community boycott the merchants of the town, every live business man would be forced to get out of town—and so on until there would be no town, and no community worthy of the name.

Keep every dollar's worth of trade possible within the community and there will be work and business for each and every one, and the hundred and one accessory advantages that only live enterprise can supply.

It is not live enterprise to help kill your home institutions—it is but a plank for your own commercial and social coffin.—(Ex.)

WILL MAH JONG TAKE THE PLACE OF "BRIDGE"?

If it be true, as suggested in some quarters, that Mah Jong is likely to become the fashionable game even to the displacement of "bridge," then there will be a break in the continuity of our scientific table games, says the Manchester Guardian.

The passage from whist to bridge and from bridge to auction bridge and from auction bridge to contract bridge has been a steady sequence since the beginning of the century. Whist is merely a development of whist. One must admit, though that many devotees of whist would have been horrified by the various conventions aimed at "beating the game" which have been introduced into the most modern forms of bridge. But it may be said that we have had nearly two centuries of the same game, since it was in 1730 that Lord Falkenstein and other prominent persons met in solemn session at the Crown Coffee House in Bedford Row and proceeded with the help of Hoyle, to introduce the game into polite society. It cannot be claimed that whist asserted itself at once. It was played a good deal from the first, and was introduced at court, but it did not provide sufficient opportunities for taking huge sums for the "bucks" of that or the next generation. Yet it made its way steadily, and by the middle of the Victorian era it was firmly established.

Bridge has not yet completed 30 years of life in England, though it was played earlier on the Continent. Perhaps it has not deserved a life as long as that of whist, the variations in the rules have been too frequent and while claiming to be more scientific than whist, it seems to be degenerating into a mere series of mere-veloping conventions which are merely methods of signalling in various forms. Possibly also there is a limit to its evolution, the climax has been passed, and so the card playing world was ready for so complete a revolution as that suggested by the arrival of Mah Jong.

None are so fond of secrets as those who don't mean to keep them.

Use Sydney Basic Slag And Help to Provide Employment In Your Own Province

Our factory at Sydney, Nova Scotia, is capable of turning out all the Phosphate Fertilizer required by the farmers of Nova Scotia. In 1920 we manufactured over 35,000 tons, and paid out $100,000.00 in wages, but now some foreign slag is coming in, and Acid Phosphate manufactured in the United States is also being offered. Farmers, however, would really be consulting their own interests in, as far as possible,

BUYING ONLY GOODS MADE IN CANADA
Acid Phosphate, even when used in conjunction with ground limestone, does not give equal results with Basic Slag. All the Government experiments prove this when a farmer buys a ton of Basic Slag imported from abroad, he is 1. Depriving a fellow countryman of the wages which would be expended in producing these goods.

AND

AND ALSO
2. Depriving our own Railways, the Canadian National, of the increased revenue they would gain by hauling these goods from Sydney instead of Halifax or St. John.

Sydney Basic Slag of high quality does not cost any more than the foreign article, and is always delivered to the buyer in first-class condition. We will sell you a carload for cash, or if it would be a convenience to you to get a little time, we will accommodate you.

UNITED STATES GREAT INDEBTEDNESS TO FRANCE

Representative Little, of Kansas, delving into the State Department records at Washington on Tuesday, delivered a smashing blow at the attempt to put the screws on France to compel her to pay to the United States the $3,990,000,000 loaned her for war expenses.

Mr. Little uncovered the fact that the King of France in 1782 spent $33,930,000 to send the Rochambeau fleet to America to assist in the final overthrow of British power. This money the revolutionary government of the colonies agreed to pay. They did not pay it and it still remains unpaid.

Representative Blanton, of Texas, interrupted Mr. Little in the debate. "That is a mere bagatelle," he declared, "compared to what France owes us."

"Not at all," retorted Mr. Little. "That $33,930,000 at six per cent. compound interest amounts precisely to $133,325,258,000. That is what we really owe France. If she should come over here to collect she could deduct the $12,000,000,000 principal and interest which Europe owes us and still carry away more than $120,000,000,000."

"Yet we have never paid France a dollar of that Rochambeau debt."

THIRTY YEARS AGO—
I Remember:
When eggs were three dozen for 25 cents; butter 10 cents a pound; milk 5 cents a quart; the butcher gave away liver and treated the kids to bologna; the hired girl received two bucks a week and did the washing. Women did not powder and paint (in public), smoke, vote, play poker, rumble or shake the shimmy.
Men wore whiskers and boots, chewed tobacco, spit on the sidewalk and cussed; beer was 5 cents and the lunch was free. Laborers worked ten hours a day and never went on a strike. No tips were given to waiters and the hat check grafter was unknown. A kerosene lamp and a stereoscope in the parlor were luxuries.
No one was ever operated on for appendicitis or bought monkey glands. Microbes were unheard of; folks lived to a good old age and every year walked miles to wish their friends—a Merry Christmas.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE AT LOWER
GRANVILLE HEAR FINE AD-DRESS ON HEALTH FROM
MRS. (DR.) SMITH.

On Friday the Women's Institute of Lower Granville met at the home of Mrs. Jacob Robblee. The meeting was addressed by Mrs. (Dr.) Smith, of Granville Ferry, whose experience in health work in New York City has given her ample opportunity to know the truth whereof she speaks.

In brief she said:

Care of the teeth should begin away
back before the birth of the child.
The expectant mother should go at once to the dentist, state her case, have her own teeth examined, and if they are in any way diseased, have them put in order by the methods which the dentist will know are best suited to the circumstances. No child coming into the world can later have good teeth unless the mother has,
in this early formative time, included with the rest of her diet, the milk, fruit and green-leaf vegetables, which give the necessary vitamins and calcium and phosphorus.

At three years old, the first examination by a dentist should be made,
and thereafter at regular intervals, though life, in children every six months. The first little holes in the first teeth will be stopped with soft fillings. In this way a spot of decay may be stopped while still a small matter, and the infection may be kept from spreading to the other teeth
when much trouble, pain, ill-health and expense may result. In no case is the old adage more true—"A stitch in time saves nine".

At six years, the first permanent tooth appears—the sixth tooth counting from the front. These four teeth need particular watching that they may not become infected from the first teeth, and in their turn, infect the rest of the new permanent teeth. A child should early become accustomed to the regular use of the tooth brush. A very small child may begin, even if he only sucks the water off at first. Children should be encouraged to feel an interest in their teeth, and kept in all possible ways from fearing the dentist. Children, especially little girls, can generally be got to feel a pride in their teeth, and scented tooth powders help to make cleaning them pleasant. For adults no better cleanser can be found, perhaps, than Ivory soap. The diet should, of course, include the great vitamin foods, vegetables (especially the green-leaf kinds), and fruit and milk.

As to the effect of diseased teeth on the general health, Mrs. Smith said that, placed as the teeth were,
where the poison of decay would be carried all over the body, "decayed" teeth affected the health most seriously, causing diseased tonsils, etc., in the mouth itself, and ill health of the whole body, attacking particularly some part perhaps more liable to infection in any particular individual.
She cited as an example, the case of a boy who came under her notice in New York. His mother wished to take him to England, but it seemed impossible to bring his health up sufficiently for his heart to stand the voyage. As heart trouble is always caused in the first place by some infection, the mother was carefully questioned in order to find out the probable cause of this condition in the boy. Nothing was discovered to have been wrong, until it was found that, in his kindergarten days, his teeth had been in a fearfully diseased state, and this had left the boy with a permanently weakened heart.

Besides the usual disease of decay, which attacks the teeth, there is another serious menace to health in pyorrhea, which attacks the mouth and gums. This does not generally appear until the age of forty, and in its earliest stages it can be cured.

There have been wonderful cures of rheumatism, and the like, by extracting teeth, but dentists now are careful to remove only those which are surely diseased, and the X-Ray will always disclose any trouble in a suspected tooth. A tooth with a cavity so big you can put your tongue
in it is generally not worth saving,
and should be taken out at once.

These are only a few of the helpful remarks made by Mrs. Smith in her talk to the Women's Institute.
Her address should be particularly helpful to the mothers of young and growing children, and was well worth hearing for any one.

SEVERELY GASHED

Caledonia, Queen's Co.—Valentine
Godet, of South Brookfield, sustained a severe cut to his leg Friday while working at his timber property. In company with several men he was dressing logs. Having laid his axe against a timber nearby, he was standing upon a log which turned with his weight in such a manner as to throw him violently to the ground. In falling he struck upon the sharp blade of the axe, receiving a severe gash near the thigh. He was brought to Caledonia where his injuries were attended to. It was near this spot that Carl Cameron recently met his death from a falling timber.

PROSPERITY ON PACIFIC COAST

Not a Business Failure In Prince Rupert For Over Two Years.

Montreal.—"In five years fifty per cent of the grain grown in the Prairie Provinces will be shipped thru the ports of Vancouver and Prince Rupert," stated F. G. Dawson, of Prince Rupert, B. C. Mr. Dawson is one of the directors of the Canadian National Railways and is in Montreal on business.

Touching upon present conditions
on the Pacific Coast Mr. Dawson pointed out that the best indication of the prosperity of the Pacific Coast was to be found in the record of the business men of Prince Rupert, among whom no failures had been recorded for more than two and one half years.
This record, Mr. Dawson asserted, was without equal by any city of the proportionate population of Prince Rupert, in North America.

WONDER GIRL IS
MYSTERY TO SCIENCE

Chicago.—Willette Huggins, "wonder girl" of Chippewa Falls, Wis., who has gained partial recovery of her sight and hearing, was cured by suggestion, according to her physician, Dr. T. J. Williams.

The girl's right eye now is 50 per cent normal, her left ear is normal, the returning sight and hearing was acquired by the girl the latter part of December. She still retains the unexplained ability to read small type when blind-folded and to hear through vibrations on the rod of wood.

For months Dr. Williams studied one of the strangest cases in medical history—that of a girl though blind could see and though deaf could hear.
His experiments which have been exhaustive, are endorsed by the Chicago Medical Society.

"The cure is due to suggestion. I have been pouring suggestions of successful cure into her mind for a long time, said Dr. Williams.

"She accepted them and believed.
That is the important result to be obtained whether she will proceed further toward normal. Her new powers are so novel to her that she yet continues her old way of reading by the most sensitive touch that ever a mortal possessed."

Willette is now eighteen. Her vision was impaired from infancy. In 1919 she was entirely blind and deaf.
"I am wholly unable to account for her blindness or deafness," said Dr.
Williams. "Both must be due to central, probably cortical, pathological change."

LUMBER MILL DESTROYED BY

New Glasgow, N. S.—Fire breaking out about half past one this morning destroyed the wooden building corner of Forbes and Archimedes Streets

cupied by T. A. O'Brien, meat dealer.
There was $7,000 insurance on the building and $500 on the stock.

Parrsboro, N. S.—Lank and Tyrell's lumber mill at Canaan, near here,
was destroyed by fire last night.
The loss on which there is no insurance, is about $3,000.

MAKING HIS CHOICE

The well-known American poet and humorist, Mr. James Whitcomb Riley, tells a story of a negro elector who was asked after an election how he voted.

"Well, sah," he said, "I voted for the Republican. It was like this, sah:
The Democrats, they came and gave me fifteen dollars and the Republicans they came and gave me ten, and so I voted Republican."

"But why?" said the questioner,
surprised.
"Well, sah, I tho't they was the less corrupt of the two."
