TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

DURING the past year the work of the Home has been carried on very satisfactorily. The Committee have great reason to thank God for his goodness. The health of the inmates has been on the whole very good. There are thirty ladies under our care at present. Two were called away by death during the year and five were admitted.

It is almost impossible to convey to the public who are not in the habit of visiting the Institution, any adequate idea of the amount of good that is being done in a quiet way. Our citizens, passing the building day by day and seeing nothing to attract attention, never think that there are so many old ladies whose latter days are made comfortable and happy by the comparatively small amount of money required for the maintenance of the Home. Those, however, who are engaged in its management, or who are in the habit of visiting it from time to time, are every day more impressed with the truly blessed character of the work. We can only cordially invite the benevolent public to visit the Institution, for we rarely find that those who come to see us, fail to help in our good work.

Miss Hall, the matron, and those employed under her, continue to discharge their duties in the most satisfactory manner. The house and garden always present such a neat and tidy appearance, as to be a standing certificate of their faithfulness.

The Treasurer's report will shew our present financial position.

During this summer the building will require to be painted, involving considerable additional expense. We confidently appeal to our friends for the additional aid required.

We gratefully acknowledge the receipt of the following generous bequests: The late Mrs. E. Binney, $1000; the late Mrs. J. Northup, $200; the late Mr. J. Metzler, $40, and the late Mr. J. U. Ross, $50.

The Committee also thankfully acknowledge the receipt of the legacy of the late Mr. Geo. H. Starr, $4000; which amount has been added to the endowment fund of the Home.

The Committee again tender their hearty thanks to Dr. Lathern for professional services, and also to the other physicians who frequently and kindly attended the sick during the year;—to the city pastors and all with whose kind assistance, the Committee have been enabled to maintain regularly the Sabbath afternoon services;—to the lady collectors, contributors, and all who have in any way aided in the work.

With gratitude to God for his goodness, we close the work of the past year and look confidently to the future, feeling that He will still be with us.
