Force Their Way To Archbishop Suffragettes Interview Head of Church of England THEY LEAVE DISSATISFIED

Rev. Dr. Davidson Declines Their Request to Interfere With Forcible Feeding Until He Has Had Both Sides of the Story

(Canadian Press)

London, Jan. 29.—A band of militant suffragettes today besieged the Archbishop of Canterbury, the English primate, in Lambeth Palace and eventually forced him to capitulate and receive one of their number in order to discuss the question of the forcible feeding of their comrades undergoing sentences in jail.

The women were headed by Mrs. Dacre Fox, and it took them upwards of an hour to secure admission to the old palace on the banks of the Thames a little above Westminster. They declined to listen to any attempt on the part of those in the house to temporize and finally, seeing the futility of trying to escape from his obdurate blockaders, the archbishop allowed Mrs. Fox to enter.

The head of the Church of England listened sympathetically to the suffragettes' appeals, but he refused definitely to commit himself.

Mrs. Fox told him that if he believed torture was ever justifiable he could not be a real Christian. She said he had only to use his personal influence to put an end to the system of forcible feeding. The archbishop said he had received daily protests from all sections of the community against forcible feeding. He declared that he could not give a definite answer to the suffragettes' appeal, until he had heard the other side fully. He continued:

"All I can do is to promise you my very earnest consideration of the matter."

Mrs. Fox thereupon informed Archbishop Davidson that she was profoundly dissatisfied with his reply. She presented to him a copy of the Suffragette newspaper and also Miss Christabel Pankhurst's book and said she hoped his perusal of them would open his eyes to the necessity of action.

PROBATE COURT

The probate court today took up the matter of the estate of John Donovan, hill poster. He died on February 20, 1911. His sister, Mary Ellen Driscoll, was appointed administratrix, but having failed to conform to an order of the court she was removed from office, whereupon the late Homer D. Forbes, barrister-at-law, was appointed administrator de bonis non. He having died before sufficient time had elapsed to administer the estate, on the petition of the next of kin, now residing in Boston, Richard S. Goulet, of the same city, a barrister-at-law, was appointed administrator de bonis non, he giving the Canadian Surety Company as bondsmen for the due performance of his duties. F. J. G. Knapton, is proctor for most of the "at in kin; John A. Barry for some of them.

The court also took up the matter of the estate of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Roberts. She died in December last. He was accordingly sworn in as such. There is no real estate; personal state, including the leasehold, valued at $500. J. King Kelley, K.C., is proctor.

GETTING RESTLESS

British Capitalists Want Some Action Re Mexico

TOO LONG DRAWN OUT

Some United States Asking Towards Clearing the Situation

(Canadian Press)

London, Jan. 29.—The relations of the United States with Great Britain in regard to the Panama Canal tolls, the controversy between Washington and Tokyo over the California alien land ownership legislation and President Wilson's policy toward Mexico, are the subjects of lengthy despatches today from British correspondents in Washington, but there is a singular lack of editorial comment on these questions.

The Pall Mall Gazette is the only newspaper to mention Mexico. It says President Wilson has laid himself open to a charge of having chafed up "No Huerta" and then run away and it concludes: "It is a position that becomes worse for the prestige of the Washington government every day on which nothing happens."

Financiers Restless.

Financiers here interested in Mexico are becoming impatient at the lack of action shown by President Wilson. A meeting of the Mexican section of the London Chamber of Commerce is to be called to discuss the replies to a circular recently sent out to its members, asking them for their views as to whether it would be advisable for Great Britain to join with France and Germany in asking President Wilson to take some steps to adjust the financial position of Mexico.

The summons sent to Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico, to come to London for a conference, has created no surprise here, as it was announced on January 5 that this would be the first step toward his transfer to Brazil. The six months for which he was appointed to Mexico will expire in the middle of February. Thomas B. Hoher, as first secretary of legation in Mexico, will naturally act as charge d'affaires until the successor of Sir Lionel is definitely appointed which will occur after his transfer to Rio de Janeiro. Charles Murray Marling, now counselor of embassy at Constantinople, is still the only diplomat appointed which will occur after his transfer to Rio de Janeiro. Charles Murray Marling, now counselor of embassy at Constantinople, is still the only diplomat appointed which will occur after his transfer to Rio de Janeiro.

W. H. Simpson, formerly stationed in Amherst has been appointed I. C. R. station master at Petitcodiac. The latest information regarding the accident at Springhill Junction on Wednesday indicated that the little McKenney children are in precarious condition. The children were being hauled on a hand sled by a larger boy. Their attention was distracted by the passing of an express and they did not notice a freight train backing out of the siding. They were crushed between the trucks and sleepers.

New York, Jan. 29.—Wrestling promoters here have been trying to bring Frank Gotch, heavyweight champion, to New York for three bouts with foreign stars. He was offered $25,000. "I will not leave my farm again," he replied to the New York offer, "and I positively had given up wrestling forever. My wife and I have gone over the situation," he wrote, "and nothing will induce me to change my mind. The call of the foreigners and the big offers of New York purses will never make me leave my farm again. He suggested that Beell and America get together and let the winner defend the title, saying that he was willing to accept the fight in favor of the better of the two.

Full One Per Cent Cut In Bank of England Rate Is Cheery Cable News Today

The business world will read with relief and pleasure the news that the cable brings today—a reduction of one per cent in the Bank of England discount rate.

Since the first of the year, conditions have been improving and the bank rate has gone down from five per cent, but only by fractions. Now comes a full one per cent cut, placing the rate today at three per cent.

A city banker, commenting on the news, declared it remarkable and said it must be because of improved conditions, for the Bank of England was in closest touch with the financial world. While it would not affect St. John at once, it was a good sign of brighter days and it struck him as interesting that the re-bound from depression seemed to come suddenly and the spirit of optimism again prevailed.

A letter from Calgary is interesting also at this time. It reports business conditions brightening nicely there.

Here is the London cable:—London, Jan. 29.—The Bank of England was enabled today, in consequence of further world-wide ease in the monetary situation and of the strong position of its reserve, to lower its minimum discount rate by one per cent, making it three per cent. This was the third reduction since the beginning of the year. The last diminution was announced on January 22, when the rate was reduced from 4 1/2 to 4 per cent.

SPEAKS OF THE PAVING LAW

Mr. Agar Sets Out The Position of Commissioners On The Question

A spirited defence of the city's paving policy was made by Commissioner Agar in conversation with a Times reporter this morning. "The commissioners are the servants of the electors," he said "and we are here to carry out their wishes and not to force upon the city anything that the citizens do not wish. The statements which have been made that we are trying to force the new bill through the legislature are far from correct. The bill has been talked of for the last year and when it was drafted its terms were published in the local newspapers so that everyone might become familiar with them and be in a position to make any criticism they wished."

"The bill has merely been presented to the council and laid on the table without any of the commissioners being asked to comment thereupon regarding it. I know of no other piece of civic legislation which has been presented in a manner to give such opportunities for discussion and criticism. This does not look as if we were going to force it through."

"Regarding our attitude on the subject I might say that when the present commissioners took office the department which showed the most apparent signs of neglect was the street department. In the past, large amounts of money had been spent on the streets but there was very little to show for it and there was much to be done. A comparison with other cities showed that we were twenty five years behind the times in the matter of permanent pavements."

"If we were to do anything to change this situation a systematic policy was necessary. We secured the present act but it has not proved entirely satisfactory and we are now seeking to improve it."

"Opponents of the bill seem to object to the policy of asking the abutters to pay for a share of the improvements but, on the other hand, we have always had to face the criticism that the whole city has been taxed to pay for pavements in certain districts from which the other citizens reap no benefit. A permanent pavement is an asset to the adjoining properties and it seems only fair that those who benefit directly should contribute towards the cost."

"If we are to have good streets, somebody must pay for them and this has seemed to be the fairest plan. So far the comments and criticism have been from those opposed to the bill and I think that it is time we heard from some of the other citizens who wish to see the city advanced and who would like to have a permanent paving policy which would enable us to present at once as good a pavement as any other city of the same size. If any one has a better plan we would like to hear about it."

"It is no pleasure for us to try to force anything upon the citizens and we have no intention of doing so. If the majority of the citizens do not support this policy we will have to conclude that we are ahead of the times and go back to the old system of patchwork repairs but before doing so we would like to hear from the citizens who are interested in seeing the city advanced."

DANCE BETWEEN COURSES

MONTREAL FREAK AT A DINNER IN THE WINDSOR

Montreal, Jan. 29.—Montreal received its latest lessons in social functions last night in the introduction of a supper dance at the Windsor. The tables were placed in a decorous quadrangle and the middle space was left clear for dancing. The bare boards had been polished and waxed and the fiddles tuned and on went the dance.

Some came in very formal evening dress and others very informal business, clothes, but none, it was said, for the ladies that their frocks were quite of the latest mode. The women, heard the offer read at their meeting. While gratification was expressed, it was decided to place the matter in the hands of the committee.

EARL DENIES IT

Fitzwilliam Defends Alleged Alienation Case

IS CLOSE FRIEND OF KING

His Majesty Writes That He Must Clear Himself at Earliest Moment—Reply Declares Absolute Innocence

(Canadian Press)

London, Jan. 29.—Earl Fitzwilliam has instructed his lawyers to fight strenuously the allegations contained in a petition naming him co-respondent in the Leslie Melville case.

In papers already filed, the earl emphatically denies suggested misconduct with Mrs. Melville and states that the associations with her were strictly platonic and of a friendly character.

A great deal of correspondence will be produced before the court, including letters exchanged between the earl and Mrs. Melville. It is understood that the petition is claiming big damages from the earl on the ground of alleged alienation of his wife's affections. The sum of $100,000 has been mentioned. It is this claim for damages which the earl insists on resisting to the utmost.

King George is greatly concerned in his favorite friend's troubles and has written him privately to the effect that he must clear himself of the accusations at the earliest possible moment. The earl's reply was an assurance of absolute innocence, and a recital of his personal views regarding his citation as co-respondent.

The policeman is suffering from concussion of the brain, and the city prosecutors waited until hospital authorities declared him out of danger, before they released Clabby and McQueen.

WEDDINGS IN THE CITY

Barrett-Brennan.

A marriage of interest was solemnized yesterday morning in Holy Trinity church when Rev. J. J. Walsh officiated at the wedding of James Barrett of East St. John and Mrs. Cora Brennan. The wedding was solemnized at 5.30 a. m., and was witnessed by several friends. The groom was attended by Percy Ennis, while Miss May Kelly assisted the bride. Many pleasing wedding remembrances were received. The bride and groom are very popular about the city. Mr. Barrett has been engaged in the barber shop of the Victoria Hotel for some time. They will make their home in this city after their return from Nova Scotia, where they went on a honeymoon trip.

Smith-Travis.

A pretty nuptial event took place on Wednesday morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception when Miss Teresa M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Travis was united in marriage to Michael Smith. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a blue tailored suit with black hat trimmed with ermine and white plumes. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Travis, who was dressed in grey with blue hat. Wm. O'Brien cousin of the bride, was best man. The bride's traveling gown was of blue, and she wore a hat to correspond, and a Persian lamb coat. The honeymoon trip includes Boston, New York, and Philadelphia. Following the wedding yesterday a reception was held at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in St. John.

McCaftery-Donahue

A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening in Holy Trinity church, when Rev. J. J. Walsh united in marriage Miss Annie Agnes Donahue, daughter of Dennis Donahue, to James Daniel McCaftery. Both are of this city. The bride wore a pretty blue silk gown with hat to match. She was given away by her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Kathleen Donahue, while James Whelan, of Kent county, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. McCaftery have many friends in and about the city, and this was shown by the many beautiful and useful presents received.

THOSE TAG DAYS

Representations have been made to Mayor Frink regarding the custom of holding tag days in the city, and complaints have been made that there seems to be danger of abuse of the privilege. It has been suggested that if tag days are to be permitted at all they should be allowed only for the benefit of local undenominational institutions.

Development Of Our Shales

Offer Of Oil For The Battleships Of Britain

THE ALBERT PROPERTY

Big Company Said to Be Prepared to go Ahead and Ultimately to Give Employment to Eight Thousand Men

(Canadian Press)

Montreal, Jan. 29.—Following closely upon the announcement of Lord Murray of Elibank that the British government had failed in its negotiations to secure South American oil fields, comes a statement that "Oil Processes Limited," a Canadian concern, capitalized at £1,400,000 sterling, approximately $7,000,000, is prepared to supply all the oil needed for British battleships.

"Oil Processes Limited," has been incorporated recently at Ottawa and has a charter that enables it to enter all sorts of business, from the manufacture of oil products to the building of ships and railroads. The head office is to be in Ottawa and Ottawa men are named as the directors, with an Ottawa firm, Perkins, Fraser and McCormick, as the legal advisers. However, it was said in Montreal last night that the real control is held by English and French capitalists.

The company recently acquired the shale lands of Senator Donville, of Rothesay, N. B., at a cost of $400,000. These shale lands, situated in Albert county, some eighty miles from St. John, are said on expert opinion to contain at least 1,000,000,000 tons of shale. From this the company expects to manufacture general salubrious of ammonia and oil for various purposes, principally fuel. It is said that when the concern is thoroughly established there will be work for 8,000 men.

The lands are on the line of the Mackenzie and Mann Railway, and adjacent shale lands owned by the railway magnates.

COACHMEN AT DEPOT

NOW HAVE A 'PHONE

A telephone has been placed in the coachmen's room near their stand in the Union Depot. Sixteen of the cabbies have decided that it will be to their advantage to have a 'phone at the depot, and amongst them they have put up $48 for the privilege. It is not a case where all share in the benefits derived, for there is a lock attached to the receiver and this prevents the instrument being used except by those having a key—that is all who have given their quota to its maintenance. When there is no one in the waiting room, and the incoming train is late, it can be used by the cabbies if the men are at the stand, as a side has been placed in position. The arrangement has worked very satisfactorily thus far.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Two women walked to a stall in the county market this morning, the older remained on the outside, while the other went in and engaged as to prices of meats. The woman near the outside benches seemed interested in the stock of eggs, butter, etc., on display, but in reality was more concerned in placing beneath her cape a five-pound tin of corned-beef. She accomplished her object, but another stall-keeper had detected her act, and informed the one from whom she had stolen. He followed her to the door of the market and caught her just as she was putting the can of meat into a basket carried by her associate. He asks you in service to the public by advertising his goods in the newspapers which your customers read.

The Solid Gold Twins

These two 34 karat angels of good fortune are called WEIR-CHANDISE and SERVICE. When they are wedded in the successful bond of ADVERTISING they become parents of all the children of PROSPERITY.

Mr. Local Dealer: The work of the manufacturer might be said to end when he makes a good article and sells it to you at a fair price. But he is too wise to stop there. He assists you in service to the public by advertising his goods in the newspapers which your customers read.

The manufacturer has already done a little more than his share. He expects that you will at least let the public know that you have the goods. He expects you to furnish service. Only to the extent that you do give service are you entitled to a profit.

Think the right kind of service with the work of the manufacturer and see how fast your business will grow.

The Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, World Building, New York, will gladly furnish without charge to manufacturers contemplating newspaper advertising campaigns special data on local conditions in all parts of the United States and Canada.

TUMOR IN THE STOMACH

Completely Removed When She Took "Fruit-a-tives"

Newbury, Ont., April 4th, 1914.

"Some years ago I was sick in bed and thought I was going to die. I had a growth in my stomach, which the doctors said was a Tumor and they said that the only thing to do was to go to the hospital and have the tumor cut out. I dreaded an operation although both doctors said it was the only cure. I said I would die before being operated on.

At this time, my mother in Alvinston sent me some "Fruit-a-tives" and induced me to try them as she had heard of another woman who had been cured of a similar growth in the stomach by taking "Fruit-a-tives."

To please my mother, I began to take "Fruit-a-tives" with the happy result that they cured me. I have not been to see a doctor since and my health is first class.

"I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" every time I get a chance and I will be glad to have you publish this letter as some other woman may now be a sufferer from the same trouble and "Fruit-a-tives" will cure her."

MAKING MEN FOR CANADA

(Times Special Correspondence.)

London, Jan. 14—Sir Robert Baden Powell, chief scoutmaster, is making good use of the 800 acres of land in Sussex given to him for the purpose of establishing a training farm for Boy Scouts and he has now in operation one of the most valuable institutions of this kind in England. There is only one disappointment in the work. The farm was established to train young men for farming and stock raising in the old country, but a great many of the students are going to Canada; those who have already gone out have created good impressions that there are many requests for more.

Training farms are not generally regarded with favor in Canada, and only the other day the assistant superintendent of emigration here declared that the agricultural colleges did not turn out the kind of men required for Canada. But the Baden Powell farm is no easy training school and the young men who go there will be equipped to do anything on a farm, and to do more than many men of the farm laborer class. In the management of horses and stock they are trained to be "horse masters." Their knowledge of horses does not stop at knowing how to keep in the saddle of a half-trained or mischievous animal. They know its anatomy and are taught how to treat its ailments. When it breaks down they have to treat it under the supervision of a professional man when the illness is complicated.

When the cows are calving or the lambing season is on, they have to be ready to sit up all night with a sick animal or to rise at any hour to go to its assistance. They learn the properties and suitability of soils and are well grounded by lessons and lectures in theory as well as practice. And they have to depend upon themselves. The are taught to become real men.

What Is Your Occupation?

There are many occupations where the eyes are used constantly for close work. With proper lighting and the eyes in good condition, a large amount of this kind of work may be done without injury to the eyes.

But if there is any eyestrain to begin with, such work aggravates it, in many cases, very rapidly. The result is often apparent in the worker's loss of efficiency. He works more slowly and his work is not up to standard in quality.

Worse than this, working under such conditions for any length of time may injure the eyes permanently.

Relief from eye-strain, ease and comfort for your work, and security from permanent injury to your eyes are what our perfectly fitted glasses secure to you.

LADY ASHBURNHAM AT AN EARLY COURT

Formerly Miss Anderson Of Fredericton

LONDON SOCIETY NEWS

Tribute to Sir Frederick Williams Taylor—Lord Dufferin May Be Next Ambassador to Paris—News of Canadians

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, Jan. 17.—The Lord Chamberlain's announcement that the court lists are already filled up for the whole of the season comes somewhat sooner than usual this year, showing that the number of applications for a summons, far from diminishing, is on the increase. Many more claims are to be repeated if all those who desire to be presented to Their Majesties, attend.

As a result of their husbands' accession to the family honors, is a Canadian Lady Ashburnham, formerly Miss Anderson, of Fredericton, N. B., who with her husband, the new Earl of Ashburnham, came to England last year. Lady Ashburnham, daughter of the late Lord Petre, whose claim to the peerage title only was established last year after being dormant for sixty years, is, too young to be presented at court for some years. Audrey, Baroness Petre, who successfully advocated the claims of her little girl, is a daughter of Professor W. R. Clark of Toronto. She married the fourteenth baron and since his death, six years ago, has lived a quiet life in Essex. It is understood, probably about with Lady Furness she may visit Canada during the year.

The Princess of Cocho Behar is also, I am told, to pay a visit to Canada this summer. She married the son of Sir Charles and Lady Mander, and in that way has close associations with Canada. Every Mander is a daughter of Henry N. Pain, a former M. P. for Halifax, N. S. She is frequently the hostess of Canadian friends who visit this country. Lady Mander possesses some beautiful diamonds which were presented to her by the citizens of Wolverhampton when her husband relinquished the peerage. She is an extensive traveler and exceedingly well read. The Mahamanal of Cocho Behar is a very remarkable figure, and has done much for the work of the Bank of India, particularly in the matter of education. Her husband was an intimate friend of King Edward and a great sportsman. He was succeeded by his eldest son, who died a few months ago, and the second son is now ruler and married to Princess Indira of India.

Tribute to Sir Frederick Williams Taylor

A remarkable tribute was paid to Sir Frederick Williams Taylor at a farewell dinner at the Savoy Hotel organized by J. G. Collier, C. M. G., and the managers of the Canadian banks in London. Every British bank of note, including the Bank of England, was represented, as well as the most prominent British and international bankers of the world. Sir Frederick Williams Taylor, with his daughter, Miss Brenda, will sail on the Olympic next week.

On the same steamer, Hon. Adam Beck of the Ontario cabinet will return home. The few months he has passed in his country home in Derbyshire have been largely spent in the hunting field. He has attended almost every meet of the Meynell Hunt and his health has been excellent since Lady Curzon's death and it was only this week that the pearls were removed to adorn her daughter.

Of Age This Year

One of the young men who is very much in the public eye just now is Lord Titchfield, the heir to the Duke of Portland, because of the fact that his majority will be reached this year and because of his friendship with the Prince of Wales. He has the genial manners of the Cavendish-Bentleys, and lately he has been dancing a good deal at country houses with Lord Curzon's debutante daughter, the Hon. Mary, who, if not as beautiful as her late mother, is as witty as her father.

She does not see eye to eye with her father, but for all that they are most devoted to each other. She recently gave Lord Titchfield a long lecture on what a landlady should be. She says she intends to keep all her money in her own hands "if" she marries and she has great schemes for the "lifting" of the masses.

She and her sisters have been begging the father to take them to Switzerland for the sports and it transpires that Lord Titchfield and the prince were also anxious to be in the same quarter if only their respective parents were willing. But they were not.

The Hon. Mary is to wear her mother's bridal veil to decorate her court train at her coming out. It is of historic lace and was once in the collection of Queen Marie Antoinette. The gown however, will be simplicity itself in pure white satin with an inner drapery of palest green silk which the French are so fond of using when they want to produce a certain tone of white becoming to very young girls. I am told she is to wear several of her late mother's jewels, notably her pearl necklace, which she received as a gift from the late Lord Curzon and which she will wear a pearl bracelet which was a gift of Queen Alexandra to her mother. When Lady Curzon was going out to India as vicerine her late mother gave her a check for $800,000 to buy jewels, it being imperative for her Excellency to well provided with such ornaments so as to impress the native princes and their ladies. These have been lying in Curzon's bank ever since Lady Curzon's death and it was only this week that the pearls were removed to adorn her daughter.

GLORY OF ANOTHER NOTED LONDON BOHEMIAN HOME HAS BEEN FADING AWAY

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, Jan. 17.—"Rule" has fallen on evil days. Like many other famous homes of bohemianism in London it has found it impossible to thrive in the changed conditions. Although the outgoing proprietor blames "iniquitous legislation" there is no doubt that the glory of the old place, which in its day sheltered Thackeray, Voltaire, Wilkie Collins and Dickens as well as most of the great figures of the stage, has departed, and with it the profitable trade that follows in the wake of celebrities.

"Rule" was the celebrated "Oysteriana" of Thackeray and probably is the best known oyster restaurant in the world. Here came Voltaire and among the men who frequented it in its heyday were famous sporting dukes and lesser fry of the British nobility. Around its familiar walls hang a wonderful collection of playbills, mementoes of the time when Charles Mathews, Charles Kean, John Philip Kemble and others passed in and out of its swinging doors. In those days the Strand was the centre of theatrical London, but for upwards of a generation now there has been a steady movement in a north-westerly direction and Maiden Lane, wherein "Rule" is situated, can now boast of only the stage door of the Adelphi and the offices of a few of the music-hall agents.

The various opinions that the measure does not go far enough were summarized by the permanent officials of that department fully informed them of the system of the department and the powers which it exercised over the borrowing and finances of English municipalities. The passing of the legislation is interesting as illustrating how advice by people on this side may bring about improvements. It is nearly two years since I recorded the opinion of a London banker that a measure of this nature would be beneficial, and since that time the advice has been repeated in many quarters. The opinion is expressed that the other provinces will find it advantageous to introduce legislation of a similar nature.

Tory correspondents at Ottawa have been trying for some time past to convince their readers that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had weakened in his attitude toward free food, and that he and his followers dare not say in the House of Commons what he had said in speeches in the country.

ST. JOSEPH'S

The University of St. Joseph has contributed much to the cause of higher education in this province. During the fifty years since the institution was established many men have gone forth from its walls to occupy positions of honor and responsibility in Canada.

The general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia says he sees no reason why the progress of Canada should not be steady and regular; but he utters a word of warning, when he says we should guard against trying to force the pace.

The city council yesterday failed to deal with the police report, ostensibly on account of the absence of Commissioner McLellan. It was stated, however, that the council's communication had been returned to Premier Fleming, with the objectionable clause referring to the government struck out.

It is pleasing to observe that the patriotic services of the St. John Standard and Moncton Times have been recognized. The Moncton Times received a somewhat larger reward, being closer to the headquarters of the Intercolonial Railway, and its receipts from the government last year amounted to $21,884.

TAX REFORM COMING

The members of the city council who heard the recent address by Mr. James R. Brown on tax reform were evidently much impressed, and it was decided yesterday to ask Mr. Brown, who is returning to the province, to address the council and those civic officials who have to do with the question of the city's revenue.

The work of individual men and women in community development is work in the public service, similar in its objects to that performed by the bravest of soldiers and most patriotic of statesmen. No person entering the service of the public in this way need hope that his efforts will meet with universal approval nor even that his purposes will be commended as being wholly disinterested and prompted solely by concern for the public welfare.

As well as a duty. The work of the true statesman always demands more than that gives. What would become of the nation if every man in it placed his own petty, private, personal, pecuniary affairs above the public welfare? What may be expected to become of the rural community if its citizens are so engrossed in serving their own selfish ends as utterly to neglect the vital interests of the community at large?

The leader in each small rural community who seeks to stimulate enterprise and promote progress must expect to meet opposition, and must expect to be misunderstood and must expect to be subjected to much of the criticism that would be directed against him if he were seeking public office at public pay.

The citizens of each small rural community are offered the greatest opportunity for public service that has been offered in generations. The work they may perform in aid of their community is most important at the same time that it is easily within their power and capacity. No man ought willingly to hesitate to admit that his whole capacity for service is exhausted in supplying the needs of himself and his immediate family. Surely there is some margin left after that duty is performed.

Certainly every man can rise above so low a conception of duty as that. There is work for all in community development and all should enlist in the cause, prepared to do their duty up to the limit of their capacity.

USE THE SCHOOL BUILDINGS AS SOCIAL CENTRES

Some Information For St. John People Concerning This Great Movement and Its Results

VIII.

Clarence A. Perry of New York told in one of his addresses on the school-house as a recreation centre the following story:

"One evening, some years ago, a young man of very bad local reputation entered one of the New York recreation centres. He had come with the avowed purpose of cleaning out the place. I don't know whether he had any authority from the health department or not, but he felt that he was on a sanitary mission.

"Shortly after getting in and seeing the clean-limbed athletes at their work, his purpose changed. The gymnast, who was in charge of the boys, asked him if he would not like to line up with the other fellows and take part. When his turn came, to his great mortification and chagrin, he was not able to perform as well as the other fellows. After the class was through the gymnast took him aside and gave him some special instructions. He was there again and again, and the gymnast gave him special attention. In a short time he became more proficient than any of the other fellows in that particular group. The principal had noticed and found out that he was a leader of a gang which had terrorized the neighborhood for several years, so the wise principal asked him if he would not like to bring his gang and organize a basketball team, saying he would be glad if he would enter a team and play the "Dreadnoughts," or some of the other teams playing there. "The invitation was accepted, and in order to form a team and do the business necessary to entering the tournament, the gang was assigned a class room for a meeting place. In order to carry on the ordinary business meeting, they found they could not all speak at the same time, and the club organizer found an opportunity to give them some instructions in Robert's Rules of Order. In a short time this gang was carrying on business meetings in the recreation centre. They formed a team and entered the tournament and became very conspicuous basketball players.

"It was finally suggested to them that perhaps their group would like to form a debating club and enter their debates—a new sort of a game—and the fellows went into it. In order to play they found it necessary to find out something about the subject they were to talk about, and so the library came into use. To make a long story short, it was but a short time before the erstwhile tough was the leader of a very respectable debating society in a New York centre.

"This illustrates very well the method of moulding character which is carried on in the recreation centre."

SCORES EXPRESS CONVERSION AT VICTORIA STREET REVIVAL

Dr. Burrows gave the first of a series of addresses on the "Art of Soul Winning" yesterday afternoon at 2.30 in the Victoria street Baptist church revival. At the evening service the building was crowded to the doors. The evangelist's text was II Kings 18. 88, "The Fire of the Son Fell." Our God is one of power, he said. Wherever you look His manifestations are mighty. It is splendid to meet men of strength. No man can be strong who has idols. When men set up their idols they are mighty forces for good.

All people are not converted in the same way. Submit to God's method of conversion. God is the author of variety. The first witness of conversion is your own conscience. You know when you have surrendered all. Then you will get the witness of the Spirit.

There are several things which will precede conversion—Restitution, confession. When you have built your altar, the fire of the Lord will come. Altar means separation, death, and then God manifests Himself.

Dr. Burrows a clear and striking preacher of the Gospel. Crowds of people last night gave themselves to God and the work.

NOMINATIONS FOR THE LEGISLATURE VACANCIES

The Calais correspondent of the Bangor Commercial says:— A Charlotte county, N. B., convention to nominate candidates for the legislature to fill the vacancy created by the appointment of Surveyor General W. C. Chase's Nerve Food. The convention will be held in St. Stephen on Thursday. There will be a lively time according to present indications. Milltown has a candidate in the person of Dr. W. H. Laughlin, while St. Stephen has three who are talked of as possibilities, including ex-Mayor Watson Grimmer. Just what the count of delegates here in mind cannot be determined at this time, but it is possible that they may have a candidate who will upset the plans of the politicians

END OF DEBATE

Vote in Parliament Tonight—What Will Western Conservatives Do?

(Special to Times) Ottawa, Jan. 29.—The debate on the address will be finished today and the main estimates will be brought down at once. It is hoped a division on the free wheat amendment will be reached by six o'clock. The house is looking with interest to the way the western Conservatives will perform. It has been practically stated by the government that the duty will not be taken off wheat to matter how many farmers' organizations ask for it. The western Conservatives are expected to shirk the vote as far as possible.

The estimates are expected to be heavy. Finance Minister White and Premier Borden are still sick, and the passing of the estimates may be undertaken by Hon. Geo. E. Foster.

Sir George Ross, Liberal leader of the house, is suffering from a severe attack of grippe, and has just left for his home in Toronto. Hon. F. R. Cochrane, leader of the Conservatives, is expected to be back when the senate resumes on February 1st.

OREGON PINE TO BOSTON BY WAY OF THE CANAL

Preparation For Large Wharf Facilities For Pacific Coast Products

Boston, Mass., Jan. 29.—Preparations for handling an enormous amount of Oregon pine at the Panama wharf, which shall open in April are taking form. Those behind the scheme will announce full details when the financial arrangements have been completed with the Oregonians. Dredges are deepening the channel to a large wharf in Charlestown that has trackage facilities for 3000 cars. It is planned to devote this terminal exclusively to Pacific coast lumber products. The tentative schedule arranged for bringing a shipload of Oregon pine to this wharf every ten days. Two big mills on the coast are to saw exclusively for this market. The biggest feature of the scheme is the wharf, which is to be built on the Pacific coast. The Oregon mills are also to saw frames for the eastern markets. Arrangements have also been made to handle large quantities of Washington shingles. It is planned to push the western lumber here.

THREE TRAINMEN ARE KILLED IN COLLISION

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 29.—Pennsylvania passenger train from New York to Pittsburg, Pa., today when it ran into an engine and a coal train west. Three men members of the crew were killed and several passengers injured.

The engine and the coal train were running at a high rate when, as it rounded a curve, the engine saw the lights of the freight train directly in front. He applied the emergency brakes, but the heavy engine crashed into the caboose, killing A. L. Ritchie, conductor of Youngwood, Pa., Leichter, brakeman, and not having enough money, he started to walk back. He only had about $4 and this was stolen from him by five men who came out of a car in the I. C. R. yard and attacked him.

Another robbery took place in the I. C. R. yard on Monday night. A watch and chain were stolen from Conductor Corbett of Halifax while he was sleeping in the car. The articles are valued at $100.

The preliminary examination of John Ryan and Patrick O'Brien, charged with assaulting Angus Dwyer, of Amherst, was begun in the police court this afternoon.

TWO ROBBERIES IN I. C. R. YARD

Angus Dwyer of Amherst was found on the I. C. R. tracks at Gilbert's Lane about one o'clock this morning badly cut about the face and hands. He was attended by Doctor Dunlap and told of having been robbed and beaten. Sergeant Smith and Policeman Briggs arrested two men who were identified by Dwyer. One gave his name as Jack O'Brien and the other, a Scotchman, refused to give his name.

Dwyer was almost unconscious when brought to the depot. He said he came here from Amherst and not having enough money, he started to walk back. He only had about $4 and this was stolen from him by five men who came out of a car in the I. C. R. yard and attacked him.

Progress of Aviation In The Year 1913

NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENTS

The Long Distance Air Journey of Vedrines—Practical Future of the Aeroplane In Civil Affairs Now Seems Assured

(Manchester Guardian.) On the purely scientific side of aviation 1913 will probably be looked back upon chiefly on account of those remarkable events which have broken down the divisions previously existing between one part of the science and another. No one challenges the convenience of dividing grammar into such parts as syntax and accident, and the same is true of aviation. It has taken centuries of nautical invention to reach the point where the science of type in which sterability and stability cannot be considered apart; in aviation it has taken only a few years to bring the almost complete breakdown of a roughly analogous distinction. The Dunne automatic stability machine, whose action has already been explained in our columns, is a step in the direction of a machine which should in itself provide the steering apparatus and the means of steadiness sideways and fore-and-aft. Then came upside-down flying of which the influence on the science of flight. Recently the sight of an aeroplane canted over more than 45 degrees would have brought the scientific man to an exclamation of either "very bad" or "exceeding outrageous treatment." Mr. Hucks and others can turn the machine's nose pretty much as they like, and they are not content with that. A more practical aspect of upside-down flying, however, is that the demand which is likely to be made for machines of this type will probably put an end to one type of accident which results from unexpected pressure acting on top of wings. What its influence on the science of flight is likely to be still difficult to say. The engine designer's first aim was to produce an engine which would be able to stop every few minutes. When he had removed what we may call the chance causes of stopping, his next object was to lengthen the run long enough to exhaust the fuel capacity of most machines without showing a serious falling off in power. The progress of the flight is not only progressing technically; it is making geographical conquests as well. When three years ago a somewhat unsuccessful aviation meeting was held on the polo ground at Heliopolis there must have been few witnesses of the fact that the engine designer's first aim was to produce an engine which would be able to stop every few minutes. Deadly Enemy Is Indifference

Citizenship and Democracy—Business of Living Not so Much Business as it is Life

(Canadian Finance.) It was held by them of old time that democracy of itself would usher in an area of general welfare. But new problems and perils come with the evolution of self-government. Here in Canada, as Archbishop Cody of Toronto, lately remarked in a sermon on citizenship, democracy is faced by the problems of unification, assimilation and efficient administration. In our cities democracy has to solve the problems of economic government, transportation, public health, education and the enforcement of such regulations as will make it easier to do right and harder to do wrong. If the nineteenth century was concerned with the creation of wealth the twentieth century will be concerned with the distribution of wealth, said the Archbishop. Behind all present restlessness is a vision for the gaining of fuller life for the average human being. Because that vision is great there will be exacting demands to keep impulse under the control of knowledge, the control of passion under that of reason, and the control of self-will under that of accepted leadership. Not long ago, in addressing a university audience in Winnipeg upon The New Individualism, President H. P. Whidden, of Brandon College, touched upon essentially the same problems. Time was when reformers in economics and in religion thought in terms of the individual. Free competition, in the view of laissez faire economists, was to solve all industrial problems. The personal appeal to escape from the wrath to come was often the key-note of religious exhortation. More lately has come a swing of the pendulum toward the opposite extreme. Social and moral regenerators tend to think of man in the mass. Somewhere between the poles, it may be hoped, the New Individualism will trace for mankind its equatorial "curve of progress." It is a maxim of pedagogy that knowledge proceeds from the part to the whole, and back to the part again—the real grasp of the latter being possible except through recognition of relatedness. So, too, the leading of the Time Spirit has passed beyond the concerns of the individual to those of society; and now presses onward toward the mark of the high calling of that New Individualism which will recognize each in all—and all in each.

WHY HE HARBORED HAITI WITHOUT KRAFCHENKO A GOVERNMENT

Winnipeg Man Says He Was Told Bandit Was a Mason and He Must Be Saved From the Gallows

Winnipeg, Jan. 28.—A new turn was given today to the evidence before the royal commission inquiring into the escape of John Krafchenko, when John Westlake, charged with aiding in the escape, declared that J. H. Buxton had told him that Krafchenko was a Mason and that he (Buxton) was a high Mason and for that reason Krafchenko was being helped to his freedom. Masons, Buxton told Westlake, did not believe in the noose, and for that reason he was working to save the desperado from the gallows. Buxton also told Westlake that he represented the upper strata of Krafchenko's friends, but that the bandit had plenty of friends in the underworld. When Westlake protested against taking Krafchenko into his suite, saying it was a serious matter, Buxton told him: "It will be a damned sight more serious for you if you don't." Westlake told the commission that he did not want to harbor Krafchenko but that he was frightened to do so. Westlake maintained that he had nothing to do with Hagel, Constable Reid or any other persons connected with the plot. All the arrangements with him had been made by Buxton. He will continue his evidence tomorrow.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health. When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time. FREE WHEAT MOTION STARTED PANIC IN GOVERNMENT BANKS

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—What occurred in parliament this afternoon was interesting mainly for the light it shed on what occurred outside of parliament, in the corridors and in the score and one of little agitated caucuses which seemed to monopolize the attention of government supporters. The opposition has unexpectedly shown its teeth. It produced considerable palpitation and something of a petty panic. One minister caustically declared to certain sympathetic supporters that the government had allowed itself to be badly outpointed and outmanoeuvred. It had permitted Sir Wilfrid Laurier to "draw" under the guise of what he termed "an innocuous general amendment," an unmistakable intimation of the government's fiscal position. It had encouraged its supporters and its press to herald stories to the effect that the opposition was quiescent and all but discouraged. And when the Liberals had gained the information they sought they suddenly showed fight and introduced a concrete and very embarrassing amendment. Hon. Messrs. Rogers and Foster shared or disputed the duties of leadership. When Dr. Neely concluded both rose, but the minister of public works took the floor. For ten minutes only Mr. Rogers railed and wailed. There was bitterness in almost every sentence. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had taken advantage of the government. The administration expected the debate to be concluded at the defeat of the Laurier amendment, which Mr. Rogers stated was only a piece of "childish twaddle." "No man knows better than the Liberal leader," the minister of public works denounced indignantly, pointing to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, "that in allowing one of his supporters to introduce this resolution he has broken every rule and every parliamentary practice which has ever obtained." It was both unfair and unparliamentary and there had never before been an instance of the kind to attempt to deal with the tariff question at this time in

THE UNEMPLOYED

To the Editor of The Times: Sir—Referring to my letter published in the Times on Monday last on the question of unemployment, I would like to point out that the estimates I gave were much understated. On reading the leader in the editorial columns of the Standard yesterday I find that your contemporary is making light of a serious question, and attempts by quoting figures from the Montreal Star to dispprove the statement made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier with regard to Canada's unemployed. Figures are given for St. John as having 200 unemployed, with the remark "less than usual"; other statements are given from Mayor Prink, Adjutant Cummings, and the secretary of the Associated Charities. The Standard is attempting to prove that things are all right and is now trying to make capital out of the "unemployed" question. With hundreds of people out of employment and many wanting even the bare necessities of life, it is nothing but a shame to mock those who are in distress by telling them that things are not so bad as they seem. Although it is very hard to obtain reliable figures of every person out of employment, the correspondent who gave the figures regarding St. John to the Montreal Star did not know much about the labor situation, for 400 men could be obtained from one labor organization alone in this city who have done little or no work for the past month or more; there are other organizations who are suffering to the same extent and to my mind 1,500 men or more could easily be counted out of employment amongst organized labor alone. I know whereof I speak, especially as I am in a position to stop them in a position to obtain the correct figures. Then what about the vast army of unorganized workers? Anyone who cannot see distress, and unemployment amongst them must have lost their eyesight. Because no one has applied for relief

St. John than is usual at this time of year. All I can say is that anyone inquiring into the water front condition will find that at present one could not buy a job. If the writer of the article in question would walk down the docks when the next ship arrives, think he would be surprised to see a number of men seeking employment. It is no use trying to make thin seem as they are not just for polite purposes, or to obscure the public view upon this question. If the Star would only advertise for men to do ordinary work I think that the staff would have such an ocular demonstration of unemployment that the advertisement would be withdrawn and the writ of the article on Canada's Unemployment would be a wiser if not a sadder man. Let city hall open a labor bureau, as we shall soon get a few facts to work on. F. HYATT St. John, Jan. 28.

DOUBLE DEATH DUTIES

Ontario Law Becomes of Interest To English Investors

(Times Special Correspondence) London, Jan. 14.—A letter from "Exterior," published in all the important London and provincial papers this week, causing comment in Canadian investment circles, and many of the papers see that the grievance referred to should be remedied. The letter runs: "A word of warning should be given to the benefit of persons who may contemplate investing their money in the shares of companies whose head offices are in Toronto or elsewhere in the province of Ontario. Many such shares are registered in this country and are transferred upon a London register, and it naturally might be inferred under these circumstances that, in the event of the death of an English holder of such shares, they would have to be regarded as English assets, and it is the case that such shares have to be treated under English law."

THE COST OF LIVING

To the Honorable Robert Laird Borden, Premier of the Dominion of Canada: Dear Sir:—If the commission which you have ordered to enquire into the cost of living does its work in anything like an adequate manner, it should be an untold blessing to this country.

It has happened more than once in the history of this continent that just at the very time when there should have been the greatest prosperity, business has had to face disaster, and bankruptcy has come as an epidemic. And even at the present day, with all the agencies for the production and exchange of wealth in the greatest efficiency, more so than they have ever been in the history of the past, we are likely to be plunged into depression, with its heart-rending train of misfortunes.

While industry is striving by every possible method to add to the wealth of the country, what function are the land speculators fulfilling? Do they change the desert into a garden, increase into fertility and security into abundance, as industry is doing all the time? Verily, and most emphatically, they are doing nothing of the kind.

If it is true, as is alleged, that with every increase in the population, the owners of the best sites can demand a greater and greater tribute from industry, thus dooming a large part of the

As one begins to get along in life, the vital organs grow less active and need assistance. Men and women of 50, 60 and 70 should read the following letter very carefully. It points the way to a happy, healthy old age and long life.

E. G. WOODFORD, Consulting Mining Engineer, 29 Broadway, New York. "Bought some of your GIN PILLS at Victoria, B. C. last September, I made inquiries in New York on my arrival there but was unable to obtain any information about them. Your remedy, I find at 60 years of age, to give me perfect relief and I regret very much that you have not made arrangements to have GIN PILLS on sale in New York and London, as I urgently recommend GIN PILLS to my friends of my age as being the one thing that does me good. I will be glad if you will send me a few boxes of GIN PILLS to my London address and a few to my office in New York by post if possible."

P. S. Since receiving the above letter from Mr. Woodford we have completed arrangements for supplying GIN PILLS to the British Public. Perhaps you are 60 years of age. You will find an occasional GIN PILL will keep you in perfect health and free from pain and disease.

McAVITY PLANT

To Cost Ultimately More Than $1,500,000

WILL EMPLOY 1,500 MEN

Arrangements With City Referred to Recorder—Counsel to Hear Single Tax Advocate

Consideration by the common council in a committee of the whole of a request by A. P. Barnhill, K. C., on behalf of T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., relative to a final assessment on their proposed new plant on the Gilbert property near the Marsh Road, occupied nearly two years at an adjourned meeting yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Barnhill pointed out in presenting the company's proposal that the firm was in no way trying to shift taxation on the present plant of the company, for this would be later entirely absorbed in the new plant.

His way by way of introduction, that the site owned by the company consisted of the land bounded by the Wesleyan cemetery, the Marsh Road, the Old Marsh Road and Westmoreland road, with the exception of one small section.

The I. C. R., he added, had made plans to lay a spur track through the property near Knapton corner. The execution of such a plan would be highly prejudicial to the interests of the company, and at the same time involve two street crossings—i. e. C. R. tracks over the street railway tracks.

Better All Round. The company had, moreover, prepared and submitted alternative plans for the proposed track and would strongly urge the use of such plans, representing that their own plans were equally advantageous for the railway and much more so for Messrs. McAvity.

Mr. Barnhill further said that T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., proposed to incorporate a new company with much increased capital in stock and 40 years bonds—this capital already being assured.

The initial plant, he said, would cost about $800,000 and some 350 men would be employed at the outset. A further outlay would bring this amount later to more than $1,500,000 and probably more than 1,500 hands would find employment in the plant. It was the intention of the company to concentrate all their different factories on the new site.

The firm would not in any way compete with other local manufacturers at present in business though some 50 lines of specialties were now handled by the company.

Proposed Agreement. Mr. Barnhill read the four sections of the proposed agreement, which are quoted here—

1.—The company to have the right to one spur railway track in connection with the property on a level with the ground.

2.—The amount of all taxes and rates, including water consumption, not to exceed $5,000 for a period of 40 years.

3.—A rebate from that amount to be allowed for the grant of an easement to the city for one trunk line sewer through the property.

4.—The right to be granted the company to carry wires along and under the streets for lighting and power purposes by poles or conduit.

Mr. Barnhill represented that the company would require a guarantee from the city that if a sewer were to be laid through the property this should be done before construction of the plant and that the sewer be made permanent in material and location.

The matter of fixing the taxes at $5,000 the present amount paid by Messrs. McAvity being about $6,000, inclusive of water dues, was discussed, but, while no decision was reached, the commissioners present spoke favorably of the proposition as an equitable one.

Mayor Frink said to the applicants that the council would deal with the firm as fairly as possible without securing the interests of the city. He felt everyone present was favorably inclined to the proposal and that an act, satisfactory to all, could be prepared by the recorder for presentation to the legislature at its next session.

Mr. Barnhill said the two most essential points for the company were that the I. C. R. should leave the property clear and that a level crossing be allowed.

The matter was finally left to Recorder Baxter to be taken up with Mr. Barnhill for further report to the council.

Other Business. Commissioner Hanson submitted a request from Oscar Wigmore for the privilege of cutting cordwood near Spruce Lake. On motion, the request was laid over for further consideration.

On the motion of Commissioner Schofield, Lots Nos. 880 and 881, Brooks division for the sum of $200 each.

T. A. Lockhart, having received a communication that the rent of the city lot occupied by him would henceforth be increased 10 per cent, asked in a letter if such policy was general in the city. It was moved and carried that Mr. Lockhart be advised that such was the case.

With reference to the police report, the matter was not taken up again beyond a few remarks being made, on account of Commissioner McAvity's absence. The Commissioner returned.

The Latest Victory For Carpenter

(FROM T. S. ANDREWS)

Milwaukee, Jan. 27.—The French light heavyweight champion, Georges Carpentier, scored another victory recently in France when he knocked out Pat O'Keefe, the Irish middleweight champion, in two rounds. O'Keefe had been putting up some very good contests both in Paris and London, and while everyone over there expected Carpentier to win, they figured that O'Keefe would at least go ten rounds with him.

However, the French pugilist did not wait, but hurried matters as he did when he stopped Bombardier Wells.

It is very likely that Carpentier will now be matched with Bandman Blake, an English middleweight who has been making quite a good showing in the last few months. If they meet, the chances are that Blake's manager will discover that he has met a serious rival, for he cannot hope to give away weight to a husky youngster like Carpentier.

The French champion has been handled very cleverly of late, for his manager has been careful not to select the hardest kind of game to put him against. At that, the boy has been showing wonderful form and is deserving of great credit.

Common clerk informed the council that the communication returned by Premier Fleming had been again sent to Frederick with the objectionable clause stricken out.

Commissioner Schofield brought up the point that the city had the power by recent legislation to appoint the chief successor should the office become vacant; he said the public did not seem to be aware of this.

On motion, it was decided that the council be authorized to publish proposed new acts, including the paving act, at such times as should be thought fit.

Commissioner Agar moved that James R. Brown, who had recently addressed the Board of Trade on the single tax system, be invited to speak before the council on city officials on his next visit to St. John.

The mayor remarked that the point of gradually introducing the single tax in any city had been strongly urged by Mr. Brown.

Commissioner Schofield thought the income tax and the personal estate taxes were absurd, and should be abolished as a first step.

Commissioner Agar's motion that Mr. Brown be invited to speak before the city officials was carried.

Before adjournment Commissioner Schofield called the attention of the council to the fact that the repairs of the North Market wharf were urgent. The matter had been discussed fully, but a bond issue was not formally voted then. The commissioner said he would have made a motion for such a bond issue had a full council been present.

The council adjourned.

THE PLAYGROUNDS

Some Facts From Census Recently Taken

642 CITIES ARE ACTIVE

In 111 the Support of the Movement is Entirely Municipal—Two Thousand Four Hundred Playgrounds Under Paid Supervisors

(Halifax Echo)

The business of play is now fairly well established in several hundred cities of Canada and the United States and is carried on at an expenditure of millions of dollars. This extent of the movement to provide playgrounds and leaders to make play and recreation a wholesome and efficient feature in the annual census taken by the Playground and Recreation Association of America. Every community of over 5,000 inhabitants in this country and the United States was reached by letter and over a thousand cities responded with specific answers to the questions as to whether children and adults in their play and recreation.

Six hundred and forty-two cities reported themselves active in the playground movement and many others said they were alive to needs of this sort and were working to establish play centers. One of the most satisfactory phases of the report is the showing of growth of municipal support. Less than ever in the history of the playground movement there are 111 cities in which the support is divided between municipal and private funds and 10 in which the work is supported wholly by private benefactors.

The census is for the year of 1913, and shows a total expenditure of $5,700,000 in the 642 cities where playground and recreation work is under paid supervision. This is a gain of over $1,500,000 over the year 1912. In eight further funds authorized bond issues are reported in 30 cities to the total of $2,388,000. The report shows that children in 70 cities have been given new playgrounds during the past year. The cities which became converts to the movement in the previous year had numbered only 45.

Play leaders appear to be now professionally recognized the continent over. Twenty-four hundred playground and recreation centers are under regular paid supervision, and more than 6,000 persons are making it their profession to serve the children in play and recreation. It is an enlistment of a thousand new workers in this line during the past year, and efficiency is so generally maintained that training classes for them are being maintained, and in 35 of these centres, 2,698 students are reported.

Leadership is regarded as the crux of the playground and recreation movement. Almost invariably the communities which have reported failure in the work they started have explained it by the fact that they had no leadership. The point is becoming so generally appreciated that the playground and recreation association says that supervised play is not to be widely extended during the coming year. "The playground or recreation centre without a competent supervisor or leader is not a playground, but a school without a teacher," the report adds, and it is further predicted that 300 cities now active in playground and recreation are likely to meet discouragement unless they bring themselves to realize the value of supervision.

The work of no means confined to vacation periods. In over 60 cities 833 centres were open all year round last year, and evenings are utilized more and more for the year-around work in the school houses. Altogether the wider use of public schools was seen in 137 cities of public schools were shown in many ways.

Two doctors said he had Consumption. DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP CURED HIM.

Mrs. John Eliff, St. John's, West Ont., writes: "My little boy was very bad with whooping cough and severe cold. I went to two doctors with him, and they said he had Consumption. He would cough all night long, with a dry hacking cough. I was persuaded to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and he was cured. I had five bottles, and they cured him. He rests well at night now, and is very happy. If he gets a cold we always give him Pine Syrup and he is soon better. I did not think I could raise him, but I am thankful to say Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup saved him from being a consumptive."

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the admission to all persons affected by the earlier stages of throat and lung trouble, as failure to take hold at once will cause many years of suffering, and in the end that terrible scourge "Consumption."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is about an equal for all affections of the Throat and Lungs. Price, 25 and 50 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

How is your Shakespearean Club getting on? "Splendidly. We learned two new steps last week."—Life.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE BANK, JOHN Y. PAYZANT, OCCUPIED THE CHAIR. General Manager Richardson, in his address, said in part: "It appears likely, immigration continuing in its present volume, there is no reason why our progress should not be steady and regular, but we should guard against trying to force the pace. Caution in this respect in the past would have prevented the unfavorable reception that some Canadian borrowers have met during the year."

"On the whole, I think there is every reason to look forward with confidence to a gradual but steady improvement in financial conditions."

"Nineteen hundred and thirteen was a trying year for all concerned, and especially for banking institutions, but I believe the worst has been passed."

FOR ST. JOSEPH'S

The Growth Demands Larger Quarters

A FORWARD MOVEMENT

Needs of College Presented at Public Meeting—Opening of Campaign to Raise Funds

In York Theatre, last night, a meeting was held in the interest of the University of St. Joseph. There was a representative gathering of prominent men on the platform, some of whom gave addresses before a good audience.

His Excellency Bishop LeBlanc, in opening the proceedings said in part: "This meeting has been called, as most of you know, to show the needs of higher education in the province. St. Joseph's University this year celebrates its golden jubilee, having been founded in 1864, and I would like to express the hope that the occasion will not be allowed to go by without an expression of esteem and good will for this institution, a number of former students of which are residing in the city of St. John, have been most assiduous in calling attention to its present needs. A large proportion of the clergy, as well as lawyers, doctors and other professional men living in the city, have been either students or graduates of St. Joseph's, showing how important an institution it is. Times have changed since it was founded, and it needs more building accommodation."

Rev. Dr. Guertin. Rev. I. Guertin, C. S. C., Ph. D., D. D., then gave an interesting address in which he traced the development of St. Joseph's since its foundation, and paid a high tribute to those who had been instrumental in bringing it to a high state of efficiency. "St. Joseph's has produced not only more than 100 priests, but judges, senators and members of the legislature at Ottawa and Fredericton. Former students will be found in many parts of Canada and elsewhere, not only in the church but among the laity. The work has been done quietly, and from my habit of following the career of former students I can vouch for the good work accomplished."

Dr. Guertin spoke of many men who had become ornaments of the church and the professions, after leaving the university, remarking that he could quote other successes by the dozen. "In the seminaries at Quebec and Montreal the long ago St. Joseph's men came out first in competition, while during the past year, in an examination, in May, for admission to the bar of the State of Maine, one of our students, the woman on the winning list was a St. Joseph man who made the record percentage in marks of ninety-eight. In the fall, at Montreal, in an examination in connection with the new medical board, when twenty-two presented themselves, again a St. Joseph man was first," he said.

Reference was then made by the speaker to the present needs of the college, involving the erection and equipment of new buildings at a cost of about $100,000, which would provide accommodation for twenty-five or thirty more students, and for the extension of the scope of the various courses.

Dr. Guertin, after saying that many contributions had already been received towards the extension fund remarked that "we are not working for ourselves, but for the good of the church and, therefore, for God. It is a work for you."

Letters of Regret. Letters were read from Premier Fleming, Chief Justice McLeod, and Lieutenant-Governor Wood, expressing regret that they were unable to be present at the meeting, appreciation of the good work of St. Joseph's and sympathy with the proposals to extend its usefulness.

Mr. Powell. H. A. Powell, K. C., was the next speaker, saying that he had always been a warm friend of the college, and that some of its staunchest friends were residents in Westmoreland county. In giving reasons why he thought the people of St. John should support the project, he said that the institution should appeal to them. In humorous vein Mr. Powell referred to the achievements of St. Joseph men in the realm of sport. He spoke in words of appreciation of several prominent men who had been students, including Bishops Casey, O'Leary and LeBlanc, the late Dr. McInerney, Judge Landry and Dr. Belliveau. In an impressive way Mr. Powell made a plea for aid in a grand work, grand for the province and for the world at large.

Commissioner M. E. Agar, briefly advocated the proposed work of college extension, saying that he would be glad to go all in his power to co-operate in it. L. P. D. Tilley, M. P. P., during a short speech said that Protestants and Roman Catholics should stand shoulder to shoulder in the matter now being presented to them, and that he was glad to be present to help in forwarding a splendid work.

Resolution. After J. E. Wilson, M. P. P., had given a short address in favor of the project, R. O'Brien moved the following resolution, which was seconded by D. Mullin, K. C., in a neat speech and adopted unanimously: "Resolved, That this meeting expresses its appreciation of the work done by St. Joseph's University in the field of education, and that it recognizes the support of the Catholicity of St. John the campaign now organized to raise funds for the greater needs of the university."

Mayor Frink made a few appropriate remarks, towards the close of the meeting, in which he expressed his pleasure at being present.

Several lantern views of the college and its surroundings were shown before the audience dispersed.

15,856 FENIAN VETERANS

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—In a preface of the first and second volumes of the auditor general's report of the last fiscal year, tabled in the Commons today, Auditor General Fraser calls attention to the fact that when the act authorizing a bounty of $100 each to Fenian raid veterans was passed in 1912, the minister of militia stated in the house that the estimated number to be paid was between 8,000 and 10,000. "Up to December 18, 1913," says Mr. Fraser, "16,856 warrants had been issued amounting to $1,636,856 and $868,800 above the highest estimate."

TAKE OVER IRON MINES OF GLOUCESTER FOR TERM ON A ROYALTY BASIS

Big Operations by English and American Capitalists Are Fore-shadowed

(Gloucester Northern Light.)
W. C. Parsons of the Canada Iron Corporation, who is in town this week, informs us that there is every likelihood of the early resumption of work at the iron mines on a larger scale than ever before. Negotiations have been in progress for some time with a party of American and English capitalists, and a deal is about to be closed whereby the capitalists are to take over the property for a number of years on a royalty basis, taking out this year about 200,000 tons, and increasing the output each year until facilities are provided for the shipment yearly of 1,000,000 tons.

The lessees are particularly desirous of making their shipments from Bathurst, and as soon as the dredging of the harbor has reached a stage where this is possible, they will erect docks, and have the shipments of the ore made from here. We understand that the dredging work is being completed this year, but it is now more important than ever that steps be taken to insure the carrying out of the dredging plans already promised, so there is here something for the town council and the board of trade to get busy at right away, so that the development of the port may not be in any way delayed.

ENTERTAINING VISITOR

Representative of London Daily Mail in City Today

W. F. Bullock representative of the London Daily Mail, is in the city today. Mr. Bullock makes his headquarters in New York, and is United States representative of the largest newspaper establishment in the world. He spent the morning in looking around the city. In a very pleasant chat with a Times reporter he expressed himself as highly pleased with what he had seen. This afternoon Mr. Bullock will visit the reversing falls, accompanied by George M. Robertson, manager of the local branch of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and will look over some of the harbor facilities, before leaving for Halifax.

Mr. Bullock has been the Daily Mail's American representative for some time. He has his office with the New York Times, Dr. Van Buren Thorne, a former New Brunswick, is the assistant city editor. Mr. Bullock has a relay from the Western Union cable in his office, while on the other side of the water there is a relay in the office of the Daily Mail and communication can be established almost immediately. As an instance he referred to the Johnson-Jeffries fight in Reno. The account of the fight was wired across the continent and the knock-out was announced in the office of the Daily Mail just one minute and a half after the time it occurred. This was, according to the time in England, about 11:45 and the first edition which goes to press at midnight contained the news of the fight in the headlines and about a column and a half fully describing eleven rounds.

Mr. Bullock said that the Daily Mail was published in Manchester, England, as well as London, and another edition was published in Paris, while only recently another was begun in Riviera, France, the idea being to have the Mail an every breakfast table in England and France. Special trains were sent out each morning carrying the paper to different parts of England.

Mr. Bullock corresponds for the numerous publications of Lord Northcliffe, besides the Mail. Asked about the report that Lord Northcliffe was about to relinquish control on several of his publications, Mr. Bullock said that this was without foundation as he was active as ever. He had heard nothing of the report.

Asked concerning his visit to the maritime provinces, Mr. Bullock replied that the interests of having British literature circulated among the Canadian people. "In looking over the magazines exhibited in your book-stores," he said, "I find that practically all of them are published in the United States." He remarked that it was strange that so few magazines were published in Canada and that since this was the case we should read the English literature in preference to American. In an every breakfast table in England and France. Special trains were sent out each morning carrying the paper to different parts of England.

ONE BOY IS FREED

Wilson Goes Home With Mother on Promises to Court

The six boys charged with stealing from various stores were brought up before Magistrate Ritchie in the juvenile court this morning. Only one was dealt with, however.

Arthur Wilson pleaded not guilty to stealing, although he said he had been with the other boys and knew what was going on. He admitted being a cigarette smoker and was warned that he must abandon the habit. Wilson was allowed to go with his mother when he promised that he would abstain from the cigarette habit and he was also told that he must be in his home by the time laid down by law. After a warning that if he were ever seen with a cigarette he would be brought to court and sent to the reformatory, the boy was allowed to go. It was shown that he had nothing to do with the robberies at the Royal Hotel.

The other boys will be dealt with this afternoon.

EAST SIDE WHARVES

Mr. Gutelius Writes to The Mayor For Plans of Area Affected

At the request of the F. P. Gutelius, general manager of the I. C. R., Mayor Frink has forwarded to Moncton a plan of the area at the south end of the city bounded by Charlotte and Britain streets, where it is proposed that the I. C. R. shall erect wharves and terminals.

The ownership of each lot which might be affected by the plans is shown and the nature of the title is indicated by the use of different titles. From this request it may be gathered that the I. C. R. management is considering the erection not only of one wharf on their own property, but also the second on the property which it would be necessary to acquire from the city and private owners.
