DEATH OF REV. WM. DOLLARD

News was received here on Tuesday of the death of Rev. Wm. Dollard, a priest who labored in St. John for several years, and who had a large circle of friends by whom he was beloved. Father Dollard was born at Kilkenny, Ireland, on May 1st, 1861, the son of Michael Dollard and Anastasio Quinn. His father was nephew of the Right Rev. Wm. Dollard, first Catholic Bishop of New Brunswick, and his mother was a sister of Rev. James Quinn and Rev. Edmund Quinn, both of whom were attached to his diocese for many years. Older residents will particularly remember Father James Quinn, who spent many years of his life in active labor in this city, and died at a good age while parish priest at St. Stephen. Father Dollard received his early education at Waterford, and was graduated from St. John's College in that city. Coming to New Brunswick he taught a year, and then went to Laval University, Quebec. There he was ordained deacon by the Cardinal-Archbishop of Quebec. In January, 1884, he was ordained priest in the Cathedral here by Bishop Sweeney, and for three years labored in St. John. When Milltown was separated from St. Stephen, Father Dollard was placed in charge of St. Stephen, where he lived for a long time and was exceedingly popular with the people. Then for a year or more he was on the staff of St. Joseph's College, Memramook, and afterwards was given the parish of John's ville, Carleton Co. A few years ago he went to Minas, and latterly had been laboring at South Brewer, his death taking place at the rectory there. He had been ill for some time. Father Dollard was a man of varied attainments—an eloquent preacher, a brilliant lecturer, and a pleasing writer in poetry and prose. By numerous friends throughout the province his death will be very deeply regretted. Among his surviving relatives is his brother, Rev. J. B. Dollard, of Toronto diocese, priest and poet.

Maine Sardines Higher

Telegraphic advices have been received here by the representatives of Maine sardine packers to announce an advance of 10¢ a case in the quotation of quarter oils to take effect on August 24, making the price f. o. b. Eastport $3.10. It is claimed that the high cost of oil, cans, labor etc., discounting the short pack to date and a heavy consuming demand, making it necessary for the packers to get more money for their goods is responsible for the advance. It is reported on good authority that fully 700,000 cases of domestic sardines have already been sold for delivery out of this season's pack, while the total output to date amounts to less than 250,000 cases, practically all of which has already gone into consumption. The demand continues active and packers are not at all disposed to contract freely. Should consumption continue at the present rate, a further rise in prices is looked for. There have been few fish packed in key opening cans so far this season, owing to the inability of the packers to get that style of package. The only factory equipped to make key opening cans is located in the spring. The result of the scarcity key openers has been to increase the demand for top top cans. U. H. Dudley & Co., representing the Seacoast Canning Company made a statement to the effect that stocks of sardines are very much reduced owing to the light run of fish and a good general demand from all parts of the country. At the present rate they have not over a week's supply of quarter oils in drawn cans, their stock of quarter mustards in drawn cans is nearly exhausted and they are over sold on three quarter mustards in key cans. Of key opening quarter oils none will be available before September and probably only in small quantities, then. There has been active buying of all grades of fancy and standard one-quarter oils and three quarter mustards. Key opening quarter oil, 1-4 oil, $3.20; keyless 1-4 oil, $3.00; sardine oil, 3-4 mustards, 3¢-4¢; sardine oil, 20 tins, $2.55 f. o. b. Eastport. Fishing Gazette.

Old Things Wanted Are Being

Twenty-year-old Bragosa Bradley Stoor, an English girl, is one of the most noted evangelists of her native country. In the past month she has preached to thousands of hearers and has converted at least 400. Miss Mary Matthews, of Kansas City, Mo., has succeeded her father as rural mail carrier to make sufficient money to continue for college life. An epidemic of husband desertion has struck Chicago, according to one attorney who has filed 22 suits for divorce on this ground. Mrs. Joseph Friss, who lives on South Manitowish Island, and is the skipper of the launch "Reliance," is reported to be the best captain of the great lakes. Elizabeth Dady, woman who was boycotted and "unfavorable" in merchants, started a liquor crusade which resulted in the city's going "dry."

Angered at the suit for divorce which his wife brought against him, Paul Ashley, of Des Moines, Ia., has set out to starve her, she tells the court. With a three-year old contract with the government at a salary of $1,000 a year, Miss Delia D. Rice, teacher of deaf students at Minnola, has but one scholar. After tracking her husband through three states, and spending $1,000 and putting in four months of her time, Mrs. Charles O. Towsey, of St. Louis, finally found her deserting spouse in Chicago and had him arrested.

In order to get her money's worth of water, Mrs. Amanda Light of Lebanon, Pa., turned on the spigot and was arrested on the charge of wasting water. Elizabeth Steger, of Cleveland, died to death after having her teeth pulled. Claiming to have been fleeced out of $5,000, her entire fortune, Miss Mable Snyder, of Cleveland, O., has brought suit for the recovery against two prominent business men of this city. When Lieut. Heddlemer of the Chicago police force, inspected the "corpse" of a woman found dead on the street, he was much surprised when he jumped up and beat him in a foot race. To save the life of her four-year-old daughter who was frightfully burned Mrs. H. F. Dillig and her friend Mrs. William Pollock, of Grand Junction, Col. gave up sufficient cuticle from their arms.

Rules For Knockers

Here are a few rules for knockers to follow if they would be a success: Oppose improvements; Mistreat public men; Run the town down in a stranger's ear; Go to some other town to trade; Do not invest a cent; Lay out your money somewhere else. Be particular to discredit the motives of public spirited men; Lengthen your face when a stranger speaks of locating in your town. If a man wants to buy your property ask him two prices for it. If he wants anybody's else discourage him. Refuse to see the merit in any scheme that does not exactly benefit you. Run down your newspapers. Run down your officers. Run down everything and everybody but yourself. Talk in the shops and leading places of how bad times are, of how everything and everybody is going to the "demerition bow-wow." Free, for Catarrh, just to prove merit, a Trial Box of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Get me send it now, it is a snow-white, creamy, healing, antiseptic balm. Containing such healing ingredients as Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., it gives instant and lasting relief to Catarrh of the nose and throat. Make this your first and see for yourself what this preparation can and will accomplish. Address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Large jars 50 cents. Sold by all dealers.

A Chat With the Girls.

I heard somebody, perhaps it was a prude, say the other day that fashionably accomplished young ladies consider it a disgrace to enter a kitchen or know how to make a loaf of bread. Now we know some sensible girls who do not consider themselves disgraced if they are found helping their mothers, and moreover we know that what the above mentioned prude said is true in many instances.

Society at the present day deprecates that girls shall be what they call accomplished; and to fulfill this demand the mothers of Christendom teach their daughters that a knowledge of all that belongs to life's duties at home is not one of the requirements, that manual labor must be combined with drawing room cultivation. And so their lily hands slip idly over the piano keys; they wait in the most approved style; sip a little French or German, quote poetry—and society says that they are accomplished. Doubtless they are, and by-and-by, as all modern fashions do, they win a husband.

Now is there one of their boasted accomplishments that will help to make or bless a home? We know that music is pleasant, and home is not home where there are no songs or sweet harmonies; but a knowledge of the piano will not help a woman discharge her daily duties, and a smattering of French or an ability to wait gracefully, will do but little towards preparing a palatable dinner for a husband when he comes home hungry.

Modern girls have not less ability than our grandmothers had; the evil all lies in the principles inculcated in early years, if mothers will teach, by word and deed, that idleness is an accomplishment, then what may we expect? Where shall we look for the true women, the blessed homes in the years to come? The woman who would fill life's station nobly and well, cannot learn too much. If she sits in her home, she will fall in all; for there rests the basis of her ultimate success.

GOOD BUT EXPENSIVE.

There aren't many religious stories told about Rear Admiral Bob Ryans, but now they say on the best authority that Admiral Fighting Bob was the cause of some unpleasantness in St. Thomas'. When the admiral arrived in the church a bit early on Sunday forenoon he found only two or three worshippers ahead of him scattered about the dim interior, and so he picked a good comfortably cushioned pew a few rows from the chancel. Scarcely had he sunk back against the cushion when the banker who owns the pew bustled up the aisle, but halted with chagrin when he saw the interloper. The pew owner stamped to the rear of the church and after scribbling on his card sent an usher with the note that said: Do you realize, sir, that you are occupying a pew for which I pay $1,500 a year? The admiral fingered the card with a smile of amusement. Then he pulled out his own card and wrote: Well, it's an excellent pew, but you're paying too damn much for it. And all alone throughout the subsequent services he sat and sat and sat.

Provincial General

Electors this Fall? (Special to Globe.) FREDERICTON, Aug. 21.—The impression is growing that there will be a provincial general election this fall. Many officials of the various departmental offices in this city are kept travelling in the country, and promising public works, etc., to people in a manner which forecasts an election.

HERE IS A SPORTING STORY FROM THE BORDER.

CALAIS, Aug. 17.—Three young men from Milltown, N. B., went out into the country lately to spend the day and left their horse standing under the shade of the whispering pines whilst they commended with nature some little distance away. They were started by the neighing and snorting of their steed and upon reaching the spot where the animal was tied they witnessed an exciting encounter between a bull moose and the horse. The monarch of the forest just happened along and found the horse encroaching upon his domain and very naturally resented the intrusion. He made a run for the unfortunate steed and a low-on collision was almost a sure thing when the old horse's fighting blood got up and, instead of waiting to be rammed like a fishing boat in a fog, he stood upon his hind legs and caught the bull moose a sweet fair upon the nose with both forefeet. Both animals sat down suddenly to think the matter over, the moose from the surprise of the attack and the horse because he lost his balance and it would doubtless have gone hand with the latter, which was encumbered with harness and rigging had not the young men set upon the forest king with yells just as he was about to resume the one who remembers the noise which Milltown man is capable of making when out for a good time will pardon the moose for his sudden and undignified retreat.

How to be Neighbourly.

At no time is the friendly neighbor popular or more appreciated than when a near by resident is ill or otherwise in trouble. Then it is important to show the true generosity of your nature by the skill and thoroughness with which you promptly offer assistance. No matter whether you are on the calling list of your neighbor or not, do not be restrained from giving him both help and sympathy in his hour of need.

Do not make your attempt to aid in any but the best and most practical fashion, and do not hold back lest you may not be needed. Don't begin by saying whether there is anything you can do, but by actually doing something.

There are people who are scrupulously careful to call at the door of a near resident and say: "Is there anything I can do?" or "If you need help please remember that I am quite at your service," or they send a servant with a polite message, and conclude that their whole duty has been accomplished. So it has after a fashion. But of such a pure civility affected persons are not apt to take any advantage, whereas they will probably be generally grateful and really helped if you begin by showing them at once some small yet appreciable attention.

Will Buy Sheep For Province

FREDRICKTON, Aug. 19.—T. A. Peters, Deputy Commissioner of Agriculture, will leave this week for Ontario to purchase sheep which the provincial government will import under the provisions of the act passed at the last session of the legislature allowing for an expenditure of $55,000 for the importation of heavy draft mares, horses and sheep. Mr. Peters will likely expend upwards of $2,500 for the importation on his coming mission. He will go from here to the Toronto Fair and there he will meet breeders and arrange for purchasing. Mr. Peters expects to purchase between seventy-five and one hundred lambs and shearlings. Sheep are high in price and have been for two years or more. There is no prospect of prices falling off at all. It is expected that the average price paid for shearlings will be about $25, while lambs will not likely cost so much. The entire importation will be brought here and re-sold in this city during the Fredericton exhibition.

Preacher vs. Editor

A preacher came at a newspaper man in this way: You editors do not tell the truth. If you did you could not live; your newspapers would be a failure. The editor replied: You are right and the minister who will at all times and under all circumstances tell the whole truth about his members, alive or dead, will not occupy his pulpit more than three hours on Sunday, and then it will be necessary for him to leave town in a hurry. The press and the pulpit go hand in hand with white-wash brushes and pleasant words, magnifying little virtues into big ones. The pulpit, the pen, and the gravestone are the great saint-making triumvirate. And the great minister went away looking very thoughtful while the editor turned to his work, and told of the surpassing beauty of the bride, while in the fish-boat was lonely as a mud fence.

A feat necessitating nerves of steel was performed at Leicester, England, by Miss Lydia Akiers, the 15-year-old daughter of a local builder. While climbing Mount Sigieta, an Alpine height of over 5,000 feet, they were suddenly overtaken by a terrible thunder storm. The whole party was struck to the earth by lightning. Two were killed instantaneously, the bodies being completely carbonized, while four others were so horribly injured that their lives are despaired.

OTTAWA, Aug. 21—It is probable that the bye-elections to fill vacancies in the House of Commons, will be held about the middle of September, probably on the eighteenth or the nineteenth. Nominations will be a week earlier. There are four vacancies. They are St. John City and Council where the vacancy was caused by the death of Dr. A. A. Stockton, Northumberland, caused by the death of Edward Cochrane, Wellington, caused by the death of Thomas Martin, and London, vacated by the resignation of Hon. Charles Hyman. It is probable that the final fixing of the date for the elections will be considered at a meeting of the Government on Saturday, and that the writs will go out early next week.

Wedding Bells.
The church of the Holy Rosary, St. Stephen, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday morning at six o'clock, in which the principals were Miss Mary K. Fitzmaurice only daughter of Mrs. Edward Fitzmaurice of St. Stephen, and Mr. Michael E. Walsh of Milltown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thos. Lavery, pastor, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, two of our most estimable and popular young people. The bride was attired in white silk chiffon applique with hat to match and her brides-maid, Miss Addie Armstrong, of Milltown, was attired in blue silk with all-over trimming. The groom was supported by Mr. James Fitzmaurice, brother of the charming young bride. After the ceremony, the happy young couple returned to the home of the bride on King street, where a wedding breakfast was served, and later Mr. and Mrs. Walsh left on the Washington County for a visit to Bangor, Portland, Boston, Providence and New York. The bride's travelling costume was of black silk with hat to match. The out of town guests included Thos. Callaghan of Boston and Jas. Walsh and daughter of Bangor. Numerous and beautiful wedding presents attested to the popularity in which both bride and groom are deservedly held.—St. Croix Courier.

 Thos. R. Kent will begin boring a test well this week in the river parishes of Sunbury and Queens. He has finished boring an artesian well for the village of St. Mary's and struck a splendid flow of Compared with last year, there was a great decrease in the number who went

 Most of the crowd were Nova Scotians, very orderly, and one of the best that has

 A beautiful monument is about completed at the works of Tayte Meating & Quincy Granite. It is to be erected in the Waycott lot in the cemetery yesterday afternoon for St. Andrews.

 Capt. Paul C. Robinson had quite a compliment paid to him by His Excellency Earl Grey, who congratulated him on the way he navigated the Curlew on the trip from Digby to St. John, in spite of the very unfavorable weather conditions.
 His Excellency also praised the smart appearance of the ship and crew.
 We have been receiving complaints from subscribers about delay in receiving "Greenies." Mail for Deaver Harbor, Black's Harbor, Pennfield and Utopia is taken to St. John and brought back next day—if train has not taken to the woods—Paper is mailed Wednesday and the delay can be attributed to the postal authorities. The mail arrangement is about as bad as possible, but there is apparently no remedy.
 Leaving the track and finding a resting place anywhere in the neighborhood is coming to be regarded as a habit with locomotives and cars on the N. B.
 Southern. A ballast train was the offender yesterday, and the place selected was near Giles' crossing, below Musquash.
 In consequence the St. Stephen fire was considerably delayed last evening while a break down crew was putting matters right. Both trains were expected to arrive in Carleton at an early hour this morning.—Telegraph.

 Work on the public wharf is to be commenced at once, and pushed forward as rapidly as possible. It is said the engineer has recommended that eight feet be taken off the western side,

 What promised to be a fierce battle took place one evening last week, between two aspiring pugilists of a nearby town. In the first round of a session that was supposed to go ten, both contestants were reeled with a nameless terror and sat down. During the few minutes that the "fight" was on no dents were made on the anatomy of either pugilist. Each was willing to fight hard but didn't, and their side stepping towards home was marvellous.
 To the few spectators who came to see real fighting it was more than they had gained for, but it was never believed that both would be so soon in the land of dreams—in their little beds.—The referee gave the fight to both and silently stole away.

From Courier's column of 30 years ago
 The musical jubilee at George was a very enjoyable affair. The usual sports were indulged in, such as archery, air gun, etc., for which liberal prizes were given. In the foot racing Ham Vickroy of Calais won the hundred yard dash against Henry Baldwin, Frank Hibbard, Fred Bogue and J. Boyle in thirteen seconds. Three hands, the St. George,
 I. O. O. F. of St. Stephen, and the Calais band furnished music. The dinner and supper provided by the young people of the place were excellent. Colonel Wel-more greeted the approaching excusionists with a salute of welcome. The people greatly enjoyed the day and express desire to go again.

Satisfactory Clothing for Boys

This season has developed numerous innovations for the betterment of Boys' Clothing and careful makers will welcome the distinctly novel features that characterize our Fall Display.

A healthy boy is an active boy, and it is marvelous what an extraordinary amount of rough usage to which he subjects his clothes in the strenuous exertions of every day life.

With this thought before us, we endeavored to select garments that possessed all the prestige and attraction of prevailing modes, but more than that, had a strength and durability that would insure satisfactory service. Our efforts are well rewarded, for the firm we have now assembled is beyond comparison from every view point of style, quality, and staying power.

If all the boys here would buy The Lion Brand, we don't think there would be a better dressed lot of boys in Canada. Our new styles this season surpasses anything we have ever shown. Better fitting, better made Boys' Suits are not made in Canada today, and we are the only people here selling this famous brand.

Come to us boys for your new Fall Suit; all styles and all prices.

The Lion Brand label on the suit is a guarantee that they are good.
