An Appeal

to sensible men whose pocket books are not hard of hearing

If you could save ten dollars on your next suit without sacrifice of quality, style or workmanship, you would gladly do so. Is not that so?

Well: It is possible now for the first time. Never before could you buy a standard high-grade trade-marked suit much less than $25, but with the advent of a revolution has taken place. It is now possible to get an all-wool, hand-tailored, smartly styled suit at a saving of $5 to $10, for Bachelor Suits are sold in this store at $16⁵⁰. More wonderful still they are fully guaranteed

"THE Bachelor" SUIT

Come in—look them over. Pick one out and take it home. If it does not give perfect satisfaction, then bring it back.

Honestly, now—if this was not wonderful value for $16⁵⁰, do you think such a guarantee could be given?

MERCHANT RETIRES FROM BUSINESS

C. M. Sherwood of Centreville Will Take Life Easier After Many Years Activity

Centreville, March 26.—C. M. Sherwood is moving to Bath, having sold out his interest in the business here to Lee Brothers. He still retains the saw mill and some property in connection with it.

Mr. Sherwood was the pioneer of the cash system in this section of the country and made a success of his business here and is retiring with a handsome competency. He moved here from Middle Simonds 27 years ago and built a fine store 50x75 feet with a basement full size. He kept reaching out for business, as opportunity offered buying up adjacent property. He bought from Mrs. Getchell the old grist mill and water power and built and equipped one of the finest flour mills in the province. Then he put in an electric plant and our village is the best lighted little town in the province. After purchasing the Howard White property he used the first floor for furniture and made a fine opera house upstairs. A few years ago the store business was made into a joint stock company and since that time Mr. Sherwood left the store management largely in the hands of Leroy Lee.

Mr. Sherwood has been a useful man for Centreville and will be much missed. We wish him every success in his new home. Lee Bros. are now the principle stockholders of the Sherwood business and we wish them success.

The masquerade ball Friday evening in Sherwood's Opera house was a great success. About 60 were in attendance and music was furnished by Elsie Dell's orchestra from Mars Hill. Dancing was indulged until a late hour. A nice lunch was served at midnight. The costumes were original and exceedingly good.

The assessors for the parish are getting ready lists for the year. Taxes will be very high on account of the patriotic contribution by the county council. However in this section we find very little kicking. Almost every one feels it is his bounden duty to pay up and look pleasant, when he does not want to fight.

A. A. H. Margison has bought a new automobile; Howard Pryor has got his new McLaughlin-Buick; and S. W. Burtt has purchased an Overland.

Ennis Perkins, youngest daughter of S. A. Perkins, was recently married in the west. She left here about three years ago with her married sister, Hazel, for California.

Miss Bertie West, daughter of George West, is spending her Easter vacation at home. Miss West is attending school at Mars Hill.

Howard Burtt, mayor of Woodstock honored our village by his presence Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Burtt.

Miss Nellie Cody is home again after spending a few days in Woodstock a guest of Mrs. James Gibson.

Robert Dickinson spent Sunday in Woodstock with his wife and brand new baby.

A. G. Fields and wife of Woodstock spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James O'Hara.

S. W. Burtt and Mrs. Burtt spent Saturday in Woodstock.

National Liquid Gall Cure, for horses, is all its name implies—and more. Ask your dealer for it.

Knoxford Notes

The special services in the United Baptist church lasted five weeks the church well filled except on the stormiest nights. They were conducted by the pastor Rev. W. J. Hurlow kindly relieved several times by a brother pastor, Rev. W. S. Johnson, of Centreville. The results are encouraging, older Christians being strengthened, neglectful ones restored and nearly a score of others professing saving faith in Christ. When weather conditions permit baptism will follow.

Mr. Hurlow at the close of the Sabbath evening service announced his decision to accept the call of the church to remain for another year—the sixth.

Mrs. Fred Williams returned to Chicago last week.

GRAND FALLS LOCALS

R. W. McLaren went to Presque Isle Monday on business.

Mrs. Carrie D. Walker who has been visiting in Rochester, N. H., and Haverhill, Mass., all winter returned home Friday of last week.

Mrs. J. J. Evans has been quite sick with the gripe but is some better.

J. L. White returned from Fredrickton Friday.

Miss Verna Giberson is home again from Limestone.

Miss Hazel Price spent Sunday with Miss Helen Hallett.

Mrs. H. C. Glenn entertained the young people's society and Mission band to a treat of maple candy Friday evening. There were about thirty present. All enjoyed themselves very much and before leaving gave three rousing cheers and a tiger for their hosts.

The Adult Bible class was entertained on Wednesday evening at Mrs. George Bradley's. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Staar left on the down train Thursday for Waterville and other American cities.

Mrs. M. J. Estabrooke is the guest of Mrs. A. A. Dixon this week.

O. B. Davis is the owner of a fine McLaughlin-Buick car. A. Estey also has a fine new car.

The funeral of Thomas Soucie, an old resident of this town who died on Sunday, March 25, took place on Tuesday morning. Mr. Soucie was about 70 years of age and leaves five sons and three daughters, his wife, and a large number of relatives to mourn their loss.

Mrs. W. S. Hay and children who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Estabrooke left today for their home in Grisford, Maine.

Miss Amy Estabrooke was in Van Buren Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Watson of Limestone were in town Friday visiting friends.

Mose Beaulieu had all the fingers of his hand taken off in Burgess mill one day last week.

Mrs. J. Henniger had a quilting party Friday afternoon.

Mrs. McManus who has been visiting in Bairdsville the past week returned home Monday.

A CHRISTIAN PROTEST

Anonymous letters generally are reprehensible and productive of no good. One that appeared in The Observer last week under the head of "A Christian Protest" was mild and gentle enough in tone, and certainly the spirit of the writer was not vindictive.

Village busybodies, who would do well to let some of the revivalist's truths sink into their own souls, impute a motive on the part of The Observer for printing the communication and attempt to fasten the authorship upon village clergymen whom they fancy are jealous. As far as religious matters are concerned The Observer has no criticism at any time if manifestly the work is sincere. This is a country of free religion—and a free press. As concerns the authorship of "A Christian Protest," which was only mildly critical and not bitter, it may clear the atmosphere if we state, what is true, that it was not written by a clergyman, nor by a resident of this village; but the writer, by a long life of manifest faith and abundant good works, has shown clearly that he "walks with God."

Bristol Events

Mr. Boyer of Fredericton Jct. was the guest over Friday of Mrs. H. N. Banks. Mr. Boyer held a short Bible Society Meeting in the Baptist church Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Boyer and their daughter, Mrs. O. R. Merritt and six children, returned to their home on Wednesday to Albert.

Mrs. Ena L. Britton of Upper Wicklow spent the week-end at her home here.

Messrs. Grant and Gilmour of Penniac are visiting their aunt, Mrs. John Rogers.

H. W. Annett of Hartland spent Friday evening with friends in Bristol, returning Saturday morning.

N. R. Jensen spent Sunday at his home in Hartland.

Mrs. Kenneth DeNoble is rapidly recovering from an operation for appendicitis which she underwent at the Fisher Memorial Hospital, Woodstock.

All speak of the fine entertainment given by Miss Helen Estabrooks and her pupils in the hall on Friday evening. The pupils all did remarkably well and the full house testified to the patronage of the people. The proceeds, which amounted to $55.75, is to be contributed to the Red Cross Society.

Mrs. William McIntosh, Esdras, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. S. N. Banks, over Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Jones visited her cousin, Miss Mary Giberson, in Bath last week.

Miss Ella Jones of Florenceville spent Sunday with Mrs. Belle Lockhart.

Mrs. Stanley Carle of Florenceville was the guest over Sunday of Mrs. A. O. Phillips.

Mrs. Laing of West Glassville is visiting her son, Gordon Laing, at the Bristol House.

Irvine Jardine returned to Fort Fairfield on Saturday.

Mrs. Isaiah Giberson is seriously ill with pneumonia.

The girls and boys of our school enjoyed a half holiday on Thursday afternoon for the purpose of coasting.

Ebbett—Foster

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. DeLancy Foster, Lansdowne, on Wednesday afternoon, March 14, when their youngest daughter, Leveda, became the wife of Ray Ebbett of Peel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Quigg in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Ebbett will reside in Middle Simonds. The best wishes of a host of friends will be extended to the young couple.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

Bath News

The marriage of Miss Dora Bramley to John Brown took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bramley, here on Wednesday last the 21st. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. A. Ross of Florenceville. The young couple after refreshments and receiving the congratulations of their friends, left by south bound express for a short wedding tour. The wedding was a very quiet one owing to the absence of the two brothers of the bride at the front.

Mrs. D. T. Day returned Saturday from a pleasant visit with her sisters in Bangor.

Miss Rita Boone of Calais is spending the week end in town, the guest of Mrs. D. T. Day.

Mrs. Samuel Gatchell of Lime-stone is spending a few days with her brother, G. S. Larlee.

We regret to learn that Matthew Bohan has been ill for the past week, and will be glad to see him around again.

Mrs. Tracey is quiet ill with rheumatism. We wish her speedy recovery.

Harry Boyd of Woodstock was in town over Sunday, the guest of Wiley Day.

Rev. Henry Hartt occupied the pulpit of the United Baptist church on Sunday evening last.

The snow is fast disappearing and the farmers are busy taking advantage of the roads.

Mrs. Edward Colwell of Lansdowne is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. W. Parlee.

Rev. Father Ryan of Woodstock spent several days last week at Bath and Johnville.

C. F. Gallagher arrived home on Saturday from his trip to Boston.

Greatest Rule of Health

With all differences in regard to disease, its cause and treatment, doctors are of one mind in regard to the one greatest rule of health, viz: "Daily movement of the Bowels." The car was designed to be an efficient, economical, easy running and easy riding automobile for the man who does not care to invest in a six-cylinder model and it fulfills all these functions admirably.

The specifications alone are sufficient evidence to the man who knows motor car values. Read them and compare them point by point with other makes of cars selling under $1000.00.

We already have many orders for this model and our output for 1917 is fixed. The demand will doubtless be greater than the supply, but orders will be filled in rotation. Send for literature.

I FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought The Joy Of Health After Two Years' Suffering

MADAM L. BLANETTE

85 St. Rose St., Montreal, April 4th.
"For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant headaches, and had palpitation of the heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the constipation was terrible. I suffered from pain in the back and kidney region."

I was treated by a physician, a lawyer and a half and he did me no good. I tried "Fruit-a-tives" as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was completely improved and twelve boxes I am now well. Now I can work and live as usual. No headaches, no palpitation, no heart trouble, no constipation, no pain in back and kidney region. I feel like a new being and it is all due to "Fruit-a-tives" that gave me back my health."

MINERAL RESOURCES

A Marvelous Deposit of Sulphide in Northern Manitoba

Approximately ninety miles north of the Pas, in the region of Schist and Pine Flon lakes, is a marvelous deposit of sulphide ore, renewable not only for its richness in copper and gold. The people of Manitoba have not yet realized the great wealth that lies buried in the soil of their province. When Manitoba ceased to be a "Postage Stamp Province" it became something more than a province of paper bounds. The addition of the "New Manitoba" or the "Added Territory" made Manitoba a maritime province, with a seaboard on Hudson's Bay, shortly to be reached by the Hudson's Bay Railway, extending from the Pas to Fort Nelson, the provincial resources were known to be increased by great areas of timber and agricultural lands, by almost unlimited water powers, by a rich fur trade and by thousands of lakes teeming with fish. It was not until the recognition that the 100,000 square miles of virgin territory was destined to furnish one of the great mineral fields in the world.

Training of Boys

"No boy, unless he has skill and knowledge, can make a success," said Dr. W. A. McIntyre, addressing Boy Scouts in Winnipeg. "He must also be possessed of character. Service is the crowning grace for boys. A serviceable boy in every way, is the country's greatest asset. To be this the boy must be kind, be patient, be able to get along with his fellows, be strong in these things, they will be strong in all things."

Home economic societies in Western Canada want the rural school board supplanted by a municipal board with at least two women on it.

Championship Singles

By G. A. White

It was the day of the big regatta. Pierce was entered for the championship singles. So was Drake. And the knowing ones conceded that the fight for first place would be between these two. The still more knowing ones picked Drake to win, and Pierce himself could not help but see that the former was in splendid physical trim. No tobacco, nor bitters, strict training times were part of Drake's code. He was a clean-liver, while Pierce could not boast the same. The other entries were in no wise dangerous, from the coaches' point of view. The mists of morning had not wholly cleared when Pierce pulled into the clubhouse from his early try-out. Drake's shell bobbed on the water just below. He, too, had been sculling in the early mist, and was evidently now gone in, leaving his carft tied in clear water by the pier. It was so very early that none of the others were about, but as Pierce stepped out on the wharf, Cy Bassell, a lounge of the waterfront, came ambling down. Cy was one of the shady characters always to be found wherever athletics are in vogue. Cy was crooked—there was no denying the fact that he was mighty crooked. "Hello, Pierce," he said by way of greeting. "Been having a spin?"

"Yes, final try-out," the other replied. "The race comes on in an hour or two."

"Any chance?" Cy nonchalantly inquired.

"For what?"

"To win."

"Everyone has a chance. I suppose I have one."

"Not if Drake rows," Cy asserted emphatically.

This was just what Pierce expected to hear, but he lost his temper all the same.

"What the deuce do you know about it?" he said, warmly. "Keep your opinion till it's asked for."

Cy chuckled his tongue in the roof of his mouth. "Saw him on the course last night," he observed.

That's a lie. Drake never rowed the course last night. Everyone in the bunch did, excepting him.

Cy Bassell chuckled knowingly. "What time did you fellows quit?" he asked.

"At dark."

"That's where you're fooled. Drake rowed the course after the moon got up—about ten, I think. And, say, he hit a clip! He hasn't been showing been showing you dunces half the speed he has. There wasn't a blessed soul in sight when he came down, and I tell you he let out. I was in the bushes by the turn, and, of course, he thought no one was near. Rowing?—talk about speed! I saw him, Pierce, and say—he'll beat you just twenty lengths."

The face of Pierce looked decidedly blue at this news, as Cy saw it. Suddenly he changed his tone.

"Look here," he said sharply, "you want this race?"

"What's it worth to win it?"

Pierce looked at him, Cy winked one eye. The former's hand went into his coat where it hung, and a crumpled ten-spot passed over to the lounge.

failed. Something was wrong. "Pierce! Pierce!" broke on his ears with tremendous tumult, and he knew he had lost by half a length.

He tumbled out on the pier, half-dazed. His heart was beating wildly with the strain. Throngs congratulating Pierce were mixed with friends sympathizing with him. All was a strange babel. Through the maze, he caught sight of Kate Lawrence's figure, and his shame smote him. The passing club men shut her form out for a moment, and then big Hal McCaulay pushed through.

"Good Lord, Drake, that stroke of yours should have won by lengths," he cried. "What's wrong with your shell?"

"Nothing," Drake said dully. "I guess the best man won."

"Guess the best man won. Your shell pulled like lead. Let's see her, boys."

They pulled up Drake's shell. The judges all standing around, and the minute it came out of the water McCaulay gave a roar.

"Foul play! Foul play!" he shouted. Across the bottom of the shell, a half hoop of flattened metal was screwed.

Drake jumped into the group like an angry bear. "Look here, Pierce, you'll have to square yourself of this. Did you put that hoop on?" he demanded in a white heat.

"No I didn't," Pierce answered.

"No, he didn't," piped a screechy voice, "but he gave me a ten-spot to make him win. It's a phoney ten—that's why I'm splitting on him! and the scrawny fingers of Cy Bassell flung the crumpled bill in Pierce's face."

Pandemonium reigned, and the judges were in a quandary. In the confusion Drake caught the gaze of Kate Lawrence, and from the look in her eyes he knew he had won.

PROVIDE HOT LUNCHES IN WESTERN SCHOOLS

A Welcome and Thoughtful Innovation in Many Rural Schools on Prairies

In looking over the Manitoba weeklies, it is interesting to note the increasing frequency of mention of the progress of an improvement in the country schools which is of the first importance, and deserves all possible help towards making it general throughout the Province. The improvement referred to is the provision of hot lunch for the children at the schools. The Bingham School District has been added to the list of High School Districts in which there has been inaugurated a system of providing a hot meal at the noon hour for pupils who have a long drive to school and have to eat their mid-day meal in school. At the Wawanesa School, where there is a Noon Hour Club in this connection, 510 meals were served on the first thirty-four school days since this system was established; the average cost was for necessities, such as tea, sugar, etc., 11 1/2 cents per pupil served.

Inspector Falls, of Neepawa, tells of a young child attending school in his District who formerly used regularly to bring his lunch home unopened at night. This was a delicate child, to whom a cold lunch did not appeal. Last term the teacher in the school decided to introduce the hot lunch idea. Every day the children now have one hot dish and a hot drink, and from the day this began the child referred to has eaten his lunch regularly, and taken his little pall home empty every night. His health has improved, he enjoys his school life as he did not before, and he is making headway. The movement to make this hot lunch at noon general in the schools is a movement of fundamental importance to the cause of educational progress.

30 CENT "CASCAETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Stagnant Liver and Bowels—They Work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

"Lead him, Drake! Lead him—he can't stay it out. Go ahead, old man, go ahead—ahead!" screamed his comrades. Drake replied with a quickened stroke, but he could not gain on Pierce. His shell seemed heavy and lifeless under his pull. The last buoy was passed, and the situation had not changed. Drake's friends became frantic as they swung into the home stretch. Pierce still led, and, as his hand came, he struck the limit of his

LAYING FOUNDATIONS OF NORTHERN ALBERTA

Pioneer Farmer Who is Showing How to Develop a Hitherto Fur Country

L. H. Adair, who, with his brother, farms 2,200 acres of land at Scenic Heights, in the Grande Prairie district, is one of the successful men of the north country—a man who is demonstrating the capabilities of the country in a practical way, and not only is putting money to his own credit at the bank, but is inducing others to follow his example and take up a land claim in that fertile region. Mr. Adair raised over 60,000 bushels of grain in 1916. In addition to farming, Mr. Adair runs a large saw mill, and with the true spirit of pioneer co-operation and neighborhood friendliness he is supplying lumber from his mill to those settlers who may require it for building, in order to equip their places for the mixed farming which he believes to be such an essential feature of the agricultural industry in that country, if it is to be established upon a secure foundation of assured prosperity.

The coming of railway communication to the Grande Prairie district has inspired a general desire to erect modern buildings of a permanent nature. The pioneers always had faith in the country, but the far away frontier life and the long haul to market did not encourage the immediate erection of many modern buildings on the homesteads. But already there is a sign of the transformation of the former wilderness to a comfortable and prosperous homeland. The livestock industry is rapidly becoming of the greatest importance in the district, and Mr. Adair is doing well both in beef cattle and hogs. "It is a beef country," said he, in discussing the outlook, "and there is no better in the world. We are too far from a market at the present time to make dairying profitable. I believe that the time will come when we will be able to ship out our milk and cream and butter, but just now the long distances and the lack of storage facilities makes it out of the question."

But a few years ago the northern part of Alberta was known principally for its supply of furs. This season the fur catch has been fairly good, and quite a lot of furs have been shipped out of the Grande Prairie district. Many coyotes and foxes (some of the valuable black variety) have been caught. The crusade against coyotes and foxes will tend to assist the further development of the raising of poultry and sheep.

FARM GARDENS

Will Assist in Keeping Down the Cost of Living

How a farmer can take a right hand swing at the high cost of living is explained by G. J. Barager, a Manitoba farmer. His remedy is a farm garden wherein vegetables and fruits are grown as a side issue to the main work on the farm. He says: "Ask many farmers why they have not a garden. They say they have not time. They should rather say they have not the inclination."

"I can say, though, that I can raise one-third of what my family needs in the garden. To have a supply of vegetables is a great factor in keeping the doctor away. Nothing keeps the housekeeper in better temper than having a good garden and a full cellar. The boys and girls will always take a great interest in fruits, flowers and vegetables if they are given a chance, and it will help keep them on the farm. How large should the farmer's garden be? That depends on requirements, from one-quarter acre to one acre will be ample and part of it should be planted in small fruits, gooseberries, currants, etc."

"The question of soil, whatever it may be, can be successfully overcome. Vegetables can be grown successfully on the lightest loam or heavier clay. Having selected a site for the garden, make it permanent and it can be manured from year to year, and there is no possibility of having the soil too rich. The plants in an easy matter but the garden cannot be left to itself. It must be increasing work with the hoe. Keep down the weeds, and form a dust mulch and the garden will be a success. It is a great mistake to use any old seed, the best seed from the most reliable houses should be obtained."

THE BACON HOG

Farmers Are Advised to Raise the Type Acceptable to British

The economic value of the bacon hog on the British market is an important topic. According to Mr. Duncanson, who has been talking to the public for many years on this topic, the farmers of Ontario began to change from the thick fat to the bacon type of hog about twenty years ago. During the next eight years, as a result of that change, an export trade to England in bacon and ham was developed to the extent of fifteen million dollars a year. What is needed is that a clear knowledge of the situation be propagated among the farmers, so that the best type of bacon hog be produced, that the bacon be prepared and preserved in the way the British people like best.

Encouraging Settlers

The Ontario Government has planned a systematic course of training for intending settlers in connection with the experimental farm at Montet. Temporary accommodation for thirty or forty men will be available. While working, the men will be fairly remunerated, and when they are sufficiently trained to be located on farms they will receive loans for securing tools, machinery, and live stock up to $500. Repayment will not be required for three years, and after five years' residence each settler will become an owner.

To mark cattle for identification an inventor has patented stud buttons that can be clamped through their ears.

Serve Save Produce

EVERY ONE CAN do something for his country

Some can bear arms
Some can produce food
Some can make munitions
Some can give money
It is the privilege of all to help.

YOU CAN SERVE by Fighting—Working—Saving—Giving

This is NATIONAL SERVICE
Are YOU doing your part?

ALL EYES turn now to the Canadian Farmer, for he can render the Empire SPECIAL SERVICE in this sternest year of the war.

But—our farms are badly undermanned—25,000 men are needed on the land.

With insufficient help, the Man on the Land fights an uphill fight to meet the pressing need for Food.

CITY and TOWN can help.

Municipal Councils, Churches and Schools, and other organizations, both of men and women, can render National Service by directing all available labour to the Land.

Farmers themselves can exchange labour. School boys can assist.

Were you raised on a farm? Can you drive a team? Can you handle fork or hoe? If you can't fight, you can produce. Spend the Summer working on the Farm.

Let every man, woman and child in the Dominion who has access to Land, no matter how small the plot, make it produce Food in 1917.

On Monday The Observer office was cheered by a real harbinger of spring in the shape of a beautiful butterfly, spanning nearly three inches from tip to tip of its gaudy wings. The little airplane thing was brought from Coldstream by Jed Cook who discovered it fluttering among Mrs. Cook's houseplants.

J. E. McCollom has received from his son, Lieut. F. A. McCollom of the Royal Navy, an exact replica, in iron, of the medal that was awarded the German submarine crew that sunk the Lusitania. It is an interesting souvenir, yet, smacking of German savagery, is a thing that to gaze upon makes an honest man's blood boil.

J. W. Stevens, a native of Somerville, and who has many friends here, recently submitted to a very serious operation for stomach trouble at the General Public Hospital of St. John. He had been in ill health for years but the physicians encourage him to believe his complete restoration is possible. At the hospital he was pleasantly surprised when Miss Sarah McMullin, a Hartland girl, was detailed to attend his case.

The following changes in real estate have recently been made in Stickney: Marvin Shaw of Middle Simonds has sold his farm to Arthur McLean of Stickney, who sold his farm to Edgar Ebbett. James McLellan has bought the Ed Waugh and sold his farm to Leon Tompkins. Mrs. Moses Brown has sold her farm to Coun. E. W. Melville and she has moved to the village of Stickney. John Drake is making arrangements to purchase a farm near Bristol.

The recital given by Miss Helen Rankin Estabrooks at Bristol on March 23 was a great success and thoroughly enjoyed by all those present. The selections were well rendered and Miss Estabrooks deserves much credit. The stage was tastefully decorated in evergreens and flags. Home made candy was sold during the evening. Miss Estabrooks and her pupils wish to thank the local talent, the ladies of Bristol and others who so kindly assisted in making the entertainment a success. The sum of $55 was realized which will be given to the Red Cross.

H. N. Boyer has just unloaded 1 car Tobique plaster, 1 car Sydney basic slag, 2 cars Darling's fertilizer. The kind the farmers of Arcostock swear by. There is sure to be a shortage. Place your orders now and save delay or disappointment.

There will be a meeting of the People's Union Agricultural Society on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Those who have not yet made settlement for their fertilizer materials are urged to attend and do so. The question of securing vitriol will also be discussed.

Mrs. James Hamilton and son of Hannah, Alberta, who have been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Scott Sipprell, and relatives in Woodstock, has returned to her home in the west. She was accompanied by Master James Sipprell.

Keith & Plummer Limited have received their spring stock of wall paper—six thousand (6000) rolls of various designs and prices. They also offer a number of odd lots, three to ten rolls each—good stock—for less than present wholesale prices. These are snaps.

The winter that is slowly succumbing to the more salubrious spring that is a-dancing up the world will go on record as one of the most severe of mortal ken. Among the creatures of the earth to suffer most from its rigors are the wild things of the forests. D. J. Coughlin, who returned last week from the Miramichi country says that the snow there is six feet deep in the woods and caribou and deer may be run down and caught easily by bare hands. He cited numerous instances where this was done. One day he saw a beautiful doe exhausted in the roadway. He and his companion cared for and fed it and the poor thing recovered. A caribou, exhausted, was also brought to camp for its refreshment, but it was so far gone that it died during the night.

"I FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING"

"FRUIT-A-LIVES" Brought The Joy Of Health After Two Years' Suffering

MADAM LAPLANTE
35 St. Rose St., Montreal, April 4th.
"For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant Headaches, and had Pulpitation of the Heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the Constipation was dreadful. I suffered from Pain in the Back and Kidney Disease."

I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried "Fruit-a-lives" as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no Headaches, no Pulpitation, no Heart Trouble, no Constipation, no Pain or Kidney Trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was "Fruit-a-lives" that gave me back my health."

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

Mrs. Lavina Gregg

The death took place at Rowena on Sunday, March 18, of Mrs. Lavina Gregg, widow of the late Nathaniel Gregg, of Centreville. Mrs. Gregg was seventy one years of age, and spent most of her life near Centreville. Since coming to Rowena she has won the respect of all and her death will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

The deceased had been in good health until a short time ago, when she succumbed to an attack of pneumonia. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. George West, Centreville, Mrs. George Reed, Glassville, Mrs. Byron Gibson, Jacksonville, and Myrtle at home, also four sons, Telford, of Mars Hill, Frank, Jack and William of Rowena. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at Rowena. The Rev. Neil McLean conducted the funeral service.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new other compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while freezezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.
