But Canadian Officers Are Told for and against the Transvaal. That a Fight Is Not Expected.

Times' Comment on a Call for a ject is to gain time. Cabinet Council.

John Morley Says a Transvaal War Would be "Insatiate Folly."

London, Sept. 6.-Gen. Lord Wolseley, field marshal and commander-in-chief, ley, the African explorer, has written is in daily communication with the war is in daily communication with the war office, as are also Gen. Sir Evelyn office, as are also Gen. Sir Evelyn sible course for Englishmen to take is to trust in Mr. Jos. Chamberlain, who and Col. Hector Archibald McDonald, is now on trial before the nation and aide-de-camp to the Queen. Premier World. "If," Sir Henry writes, "these Salisbury will come to London today (Wednesday) from Walmer to confer with the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Jos. Chamberlain, and a berlain will have been proved no betcabinet council has been summoned for Friday, urgent messages having been sent to all the ministers, requesting their attendance. There is great activity at the admiralty, the war office cible old man in the Transvaal to deal and the colonial office.

The war office has issued a denial of sink below zero in the estimation of the report printed by the St. James' the world, and the decline of our influence and authority in South Africa will be hastened." The Press Association asserts that the officers of the Highland Light infantry at Devonport notified their men last evening to prepare for departure, probably on Thursday.

WAR NOT ANTICIPATED. Prominent military authorities state that some of the Canadian officers in the British army expecting to go to the Transvaal have been informed that the war office does not anticipate war, so that there is no opportunity for ser-vice in South Africa, either for them or any Canadian contingent. If any Canadian Transvaal regiment were formed, the organizers would be expected to land the regiment in England fully equipped.

A GRAVE SITUATION. London, Sept. 6.—The Times, which comments editorially on the gravity of the situation at the calling of the cabinet council at such an unusual period, says: "It would be unpardonable folly to shut our eyes to the sus-piciously dilatory character of Kruger's diplomacy and to the energy with which he is ultimately preparing for war. It is known that Gen. Sir Redvers Henry Buller has been selected to command the British forces should war fortunately come, but it clear duty of the government to take other steps besides the choice of a commander." The second edition of the Times, sued yesterday, contained a dispatch from Pretoria, under date of Sept. 4, saying: "The predominant view is that the last dispatch opens up the way to a modus vivendi, inasmuch as the proposals of Mr. Chamberlain (British secretary of state of the colonies) relating to the seven years' franchise, have been practically complied with. This is the result of the influence of Herr Fischer (the special agent of the Orange Free State) with the Raad. This dispatch, however, is at variance with the editorial views on the matter expressed by the Times this morning. JOHN MORLEY'S VIEWS. Right Hon. John Marey, Liberal member of parliament for Montrose Boroughs, in an address to his constituents this evening at Arbroath, dwelt upon the necessity of so shaping British policy in dealing with the Transvaal as to carry the friendly judgment of the Dutch population in South Africa, and not to divide the whole races. "There could not be," said Mr. Morley, "a more insentiate example of human folly than a war that would bring added burdens. War with the Transvaal would mean deep dishonor. TALK OF AN ULTIMATUM. The Daily Mail expresses the opinion that "the next move will be an ulti-matum, unless President Kruger yields. It declares that 15,000 men is the outside number that the Transvaal government can put in the field.'

KRUGER MAY NOT WAIT. The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "I learn from Boer sources that reliable news has been received at the Hague that President Kruger will not give Mr. Chamberlain an op-portunity to send an ultimatum, but will take advantage of the first sus-picious movement of British troops on the border to assume the offensive." The Morning Post has the following from its correspondent now at Pieter-maritzburg, capital of Natal: "Inspected the country carefully on the way from Johannesburg. The Vledt is not yet in condition for war opera-tions. The town of Newcastle is utterly unprotected. To seize it would astwenty miles of fighting over rought country, peculiarly suited to Boer tactics, before they could begin the first real action. The war office wants waking up.'

BOER PREPARATIONS. Cape Town, Sept. 6.—Arrangements are being completed for safeguarding telegraphic communication with the Cape in case of war between Great Britain and the Transvaal. Refugees to the number of 147 have arrived here. A million cartridges have been forwarded to Pietermaritzburg. Many Dutch farmers are leaving Bechuanaland for the purpose of forming laager across the frontier.

AT CAPE TOWN. A detachment of 30 Cape police has been ordered from King William's Town to Mafeking, which is in a rather unsettled condition. citement in Cape Town is at fever

NO HELP FROM GERMANY. The Neuste Nachritchen, Berlin.commenting on the news that the Germans in the Transvaal are forming a league to help the Boers, says: "We fear that this offer will entice the Transvaal government to carry their resistance against England further than is advisable." Other influential German papers continue to warn President Kruger that he need not hope to receive the least help from Europe.

It is reported that Hon. J. F. Hoffmeyer, the Afrikander leader, has telegraphed President Kruger that he cannot expect help from the Cape Colony in the event of hostilities. It is now believed here that Mr. Pakeman's arrest was due to a blunder on the part of the local public prosecutor.

Volksraad Fixed on Thursday for Important Debate-Will Discuss the Assembly of British Troops. Pretoria, Sept. 6.-The volksraad accepted Mr. Coester's motion to fix the debates to grow out of the interpellation of the government as to the as-sembling of British troops along the Transvaal borders for Thursday next. In presenting his motion, Mr. Coester referred to the "Jameson raid and other outrages and murders committed ly unprotected. Other burghers supported Mr. Coestter saying that while negotiations were proceeding all the British colonies were offering armed assistance. "And must the Transvaal remain silent?" exclaimed the burgher. "It is opposed to Christianity to conduct friendly negotiations and yet mobilize troops. We must know why the British troops are on our borders. The motion to wait until Thursday for the government's reply was agreed to unanimously.

The Municipal Convention at Hamilton.

Mayor Teezel Down on the Ward Sys tem-The Imperfect Assessment

Laws. Hamilton, Sept. 6.—The delegates to the municipal convention set for yesterday and today, in the city hall, did not show any alacrity in gathering together. Not more than a paker's dozen were present at 10 o'clock yesterday, the hour set forth for the commencement of the convention. Mayor Teetzel was unanimously chosen chairman, and he proceeded to welcome the delegates. The delegates were permitted to smoke in order to keep them from going to the ante-room to enjoy their cigars. The mayor spoke at some length, discussing the inequalities and anomalies of the assessment act. Referring to the municipal act, which will come up The Johannesburg correspondent of said he was personally in favor of a the London Standard says: "There lessening of the number of aldermen, seems to be some ground for supposing the fixing of a longer aldermant term the peace party at Pretoria has gained and the election of representatives from a temporary advantage, as the result the city at large. personal property: 'That the law as it now stands in assessing personal property or income is unjust, impracticable and impossible of equalization; that no basis is given to the assessor upon which his judgment can be brought to bear as in the assessing of real property: that each person be assessed for personal property or income should be required to make an annual return of personal property or income to the assessment department, as is required in Great Britain and the United States; that all incorporated companies, including banks, should be assessed as other individuals or partnerships; that revenue of persons from Dominion, provincial or municipal bonds should be assessed as other personal property, or income.' In speaking to his resolution, Mr. Pratt said it was impossible, under the present assessment act to arrive at any. true estimate of the value of the personalty a man, because there was no true basis on which to work. He was opposed to the exemption of banks. He thought they should pay taxes on per-City Solicitor Mackelean, in second-ng the motion, said he believed it.

SEIZURES OF PERSONALTY. City Solicitor Mackelcan spoke on seizures of personal property for taxes, and moved the following resolution, which was: That no sale of lands for taxes in any city shall be invalid by reason of there having been goods or chattels within the county belonging to or in the possession of the person assessed for the land or goods or chattels upon such lands liable to seizure for taxes, and of no levy by distress having been made on such goods or chattels for the payment of taxes due in respect of said

Ex-Ald. Cluff, of Ottawa, intrody ed the following resolution, which w seconded by Mayor Radford: "That, in the opinion of this convention, the clause in the assessment act by which property in each ward of a municipality has to be separately assessed should be amended so that companies should have the whole amount of the property belonging to the company assessable against the company, as a whole, at the head office or principal place of business within the municipality as a going concern."

Mr. Cluff, continuing, said he was opposed to exemption being granted the Y. M. C. A., which were now being incorporated to escape taxation. London's association had done so, and Ottawa's was about to follow suit. He objected to places of learning, which had become incorporated, going free, These were matters the convention should take up. Another was that of franchises. In his opinion no franchise should be allowed to run longer than ten years. The delegates were taken round the city, and up on the Mountain, and suitgold quartz in large quantities. The ably entertained by the city repre-

THE INDUSTRIAL

Attended by a Big Crowd in Spite of the Storm.

Toronto, Sept. 6 .- In spite of the train-storm, which lasted all yesterday morning, large crowds were on the exhibition grounds. The attendance from the city was swelled by large excursions from outside points, and as it was Germania Day, the Germans of Watersoo, Walkerton, Berlin, Preston and other points in Western Ontario came in. The societies of Buffalo and Rochester also arrived, bringing many Americans with them. The exhibit of cut flowers and fruits opened, and is certainly the finest thing ever seen here.

At a meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, held on the exposition grounds, Col. Webber, of Buffalo, commissioner-general of the Pan-American Exposition, spoke of the adwantage to Canadian manufacturers of exhibiting at Buffalo in 1901. Prof. Taylor, director of exhibits, also pointed out that the Pan-American would day of two of the victims of Monday be a great opportunity for Canadian evening's drowing accident at the eastmanufacturers to extend their trade. $3,000 - An Employe Robbed of Suspected.

Montreal, Sept. 6.-To the surprise of the Molsons Bank managers a forg-ery, which involves the sum of about $3,000, was discovered yesterday. The matter came as an entire surprise to the directors. It seems that the party suspected of the crime is employed at the bank. The bank officials do not care to give further details at the present time, further than to verify the statements already made. They seem, however, far more grieved at the idea of one of their employes being unfaithful to his trust than they do at the idea of losing the sum involved. Coming as it does so soon after the clearing up of the mystery of the Winnipeg robbery and the clearing of squi, has been appointed his successor, the skirts of so many of the employes Rev. Hugh Spencer, of Stirling leaves at the Prairie City branch of the bank, seems most unfortunate

Labori Makes an Appeal to the Kaiser.

To Allow Former Military Attaches to Testify at the Trial.

Tuesday's Court Martial Proceedings-Witnesses Make It Hot for Esterhazy.

Rennes, Sept. 6.—Maitre Labori yesterday telegraphed personal appeals to Emperor William and King Humbert to grant permission to Col. Senwartzkoppen and Panizzardi, military attaches at Paris in 1894, to come to Rennes to testify at the trial of Capt.

Dreyfus. This is the chief topic of conversation in the cafes and resorts of the journalists. The appeals were couched in eloquent terms, invoking the assistance of their malesties in the the assistance of their majesties in the name of justice and humanity. They were quite supplementary to the formal application that will be made by the government commissary, Major

The step is fraught with momentous consequences, as it affords Emperor William an opportunity again to assume his favorite role of arbiter of destinies of the world. No one would be surprised if Col. Schwartzkoppen, in the name of the Kaiser, should make a declaration that would practically decide the result of the trial. Both Schwartzkoppen and Panzizardi must consult their respective sovereigns before starting. Counsel for Capt. Dreyfus fully expect them to capt. Dreylus fully expect them to arrive here, if they come at all, to give their testimony on Friday, in which case the trial would probably conclude this week, and the verdict be delivered on Friday or Saturday. This is the view that obtains tonight differis the view that obtains tonight, differing somewhat from the feeling earlier in the day.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

Rennes, Sept. 5.-M. Cernushi, the political refugee and reported scion of not examined by the court during the time it sat behind closed doors on the second day of the fifth week of Captain Dreyfus' trial. The examination of the secret espionage dossier mentioned by Captain Cuignet yesterday, occupied the greater part of yesterday's secret session of the court.

When the open session of the court-martial began, M. Labori explained the purpose of the application by citing the fact that the court was now in an extremely delicate situation, and added that he had pointed out Major Carriere, Colonel Schwartzkoppen and Signor Panizzardi as witnesses he deemed necessary to summon.

Major Carriere did not think the government would ask another govern-ment for the restoration of documents. He suggested that the defense should obtain and submit the papers semi-officially to the court. He saw no ob-jection to hearing Col. Schwartzkop-pen and Signor Panizzardi if they consented to come. M. Paleologue said that while M. Labori's request appeared quite logical and just there were diplomatic considerations which made it inadmissible for the government to take such an inas was proposed by counsel for the defense. Colonel Jouanst said the court would decide the matter later. The first witness called was the reporter Basset whom the Matin sent to London to interview Major Count Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy. Witness deto him that he wrote the bordereau under orders from Colonel Sandherr, who was then chief of the secret intelligence bureau. The order, Esterhazy said, was to catch the traitor at the headquarters of the general staff, whom Esterhazy afterwards said was Captain Dreyfus.

Major Carriere here burst out with an extraordinary protest against Major Esterhazy's insinuations against Col. Sandherr. "I protest, he cried, "in the name and memory of Col. Sandherr against the insinuations introduced against him." M. Labori ignored this protest, which he styled "A ridiculous pretension." M. Labori then called upon Gen. Roget to testify regarding letters he had received from Major Esterhazy since the opening of this trial.

GEN. ROGET'S CONFESSION. Gen. Roget looked the ghost of his former active self. His face was careworn and showed little of that fighting spirit which first characterized his appearance upon the stage. He replied that he only opened one letter from Major Esterhazy, which he had forwarded to Col. Jouaust. Gen. Roget added that he declined to receive other

M. Labori then asked Col. Jouaust to have the letters read. Col. Jouaust at first declined, but M. Labori insisted so firmly that the colonel, after wrangling awhile, gave way and consented that the letters should be read. Col. Jouanst explained that he opposed the reading of the letters because they only contained personal attacks upon various parties and would only lead to a prolongation of the trial.

Gen. Roget then read the one Esterhazy letter which he admitted having opened. In this letter Major Esterhazy said he could not prove the existence of the alleged syndicate organized in the interest of Dreyfus and complained Talbot street, London. that the general staff had refused to give him a fair hearing.

Labori then put a series of questions intended to bring out the fact that the general staff had made use of Major Esterhazy even after he was known to be unreliable. Gen. Roget said he had not considered Major Esterhazy's avowals to be of any value M. Labori sought to question the general more closely on his statement that none of the generals of the general staff had any relations with Major Esterhazy, but Col. Jouaust declined to allow further discussion.

This led to another scene between the president of the court-martial and counsel for the defense, M. Labori declaring that Gen. Roget, who came more as a public prosecutor than as a witness, refused to reply to probing questions. A little later M. Labori pushed the question of Gen. Billot on what is known as the liberating docu-

Gen. Zurlinden then came upon the platform. He spoke a few words respecting the general staff's belief in Major Esterhazy. Demange asked Gen. Roget his opinion of Major Esterhazy.

"I have an absolute conviction," replied Gen. Roget, amid cries of "Oh," from the audience, "that Major Esterhazy is a stranger to treason."

Gen. Roget then delivered a short discourse in reply to the statement of "W. VAUGHAN, Registrar."

M. Desfonds Lamoithe on Saturday that the phrase in the bordereau, "I am soing to the maneuvers," showed that Dreyfus could not be the author of the bordereau. Gen. Roget maintained that M. Lamothe was wrong.

DREYFUS SPEAKS. Captain Dreyfus rose and in a clear emphatically insisted that the circular of May 17, 1894, announcing that the probationers would not go to the maneuvers was written in the clearest language, which the court would see if it were read. He reiterated that he had never asked to go to the maneuvers, for he was absolutely convinced that such a request would not be granited.

ESTERHAZY THE AUTHOR. M. Deffes, a reporter for the Temps testified that he saw Major Esterhazy in London and that the latter confess ed that he was the author of the bordereau. The witness added that he raised the question of the letter of Madame Boulance and brought away the impression that Esterhazy wrote the 'Uhlan' letter.

M. Trarieux, formerly minister of justice, was the next witness called. He made a long deposition in favor of Dreyfus, reviewing the history of the case and his own part in connection therewith. M. Trarieux's deposition closed the public session. He made a very telling speech, describing how his original belief in the guilt of Dreyfus was first shaken and then completely changed to conviction of innocence by subsequent developments and the noble conduct of M. Scheurer-Kestner, formerly vice-president of the senate. The letters exchanged between Gen. Gonse and Lieut.-Col. Picquart also strengthed his convictions. M. Trarieux delivered a very impressive pass-quart, and said he accused nobody. He belived however, that the chiefs were deceived. M. Trarieux recounted a conversation with a foreign ambassador, who declared, in a tone of great sincerity, that Dreyfus had never had relations with him or with any officer of his country, while, the ambassador added, he possessed documents proving the guilt of Major Esterhazy. M. Trarieux delivered a very impressive passage, recalling the execution on the charge of treason of the English Admiral Byng, who was afterwards found to have been unjustly condemned. M. Trarieux said that Frenchmen might well dread to have such a bloodstain upon their history as, through the execution of Admiral Byng mars the history of England. M. Trarieux said that Gen. Roget and Capt. Cuignet were wrong in the conclusion that they had political rerugee and reported sciol of Servian royalty who appeared on Monday before the Dreyfus court-martial as a witness for the prosecution, was a witness for the prosecution, was as a witness for the prosecution, was a witness for the prosecution. sador to whom he had previously re-ferred had affirmed that Major Esterhazy was the traitor, and the former minister declared in an emphatic tone that no parallel ought to be drawn between a model officer like Dreyfus and Major Esterhazy, who had not even the soul of a Frenchman. M. Trarieux, on alluding to the bordereau, was interrupted by Major Carriere, who said that while he opposed direct application to foreign govern-ments for documents mentioned in the bordereau, yet, if by a side wind the ducument could be produced, he certainly would be personaly be much pleased. This is practically an invitation to Germany to volunteer to communicate the documents in question. At the conclusion of M. Trarieux's testimony, which was a strong speech for the defense, and which apparently made an impression on the judges, the count-martial went behind closed doors and examined the secret espionage dossied. The court also deliberated upon M. request that application be made to Germany for the documents described in the bordereau. The decision was unanimously reached to reject the application, on the ground that the court was incompetent to inthe application, on the ground vite the government to take diplomatic steps to obtain the document in ques-tion. It was also decided to hear M. Cernuschi behind closed doors tomorrow.

The Western Fair.

The Western Fair draws near again with every prospect of maintaining, or surpassing the high average of success and proficiency attained in the past few years. The long and depressing drought has been broken, putting the farmers in a more comfortable mood for recreation and sight-seeing. The rains have been most timely, and the country can now afford a dry spell next week.

The volume of entries is such that the capacity of every department will be fully taxed, while it is needless to tell patrons of the Western that the quality of the exhibits in all agricullines will be the highest that conditions can show. Only one annual Fair on the continent-the Industrial—surpasses the Western in magnitude, but as an agricultural and live stock exhibition, it is generally conceded that the Western is second to none. It has become almost indispensable to the farmers of Western Ontario, as an educational factor in all that relates to husbanery, in its highest development.

A special reason why this year's Exhibition should make a new record in patronage is the general diffusion of prosperity which marks "the growing The laboring classes find work more plentiful and wages higher than for years, while the farmers are enjoying an area of comparatively high prices for nearly all their products, combined with fairly abundant crops. Naturally people are in a cheerful frame of mind and have more money to spend, so that the Fair should profit correspondingly, and doubtless The farmers will be more than usually well repaid for their attendance this year. They will see for the first time exhibits from several stock-growing States of the Union. These have boldly challenged comparison with Canadian stock, and will prove an interesting addition to the splendid exhibit in this department for which the Western is fam-Visitors will also find great improvement in other features. The mathinery hall has been practically doubled. Arrangements have been made to connect the whole group of buildings so that people may pass from one to the other under cover. The eating capacity of the grand stands has been greatly enlarged. These are only a few of the tokens of progress since the last Fair.

The means of transportation to and from the grounds were never more complete than this year. To the ordinary facilities will be added a special train service, capable of handling the largest crowds with ease, and also a line of omnibuses on Dundas street. under the management of labor organ-

The Municipal Convention.

The municipal convention in Hamilton this week is praiseworthy in purpose, and may be so in performance, although that is more doubtful. Little permanent benefit can be looked for until the public evinces a real interest in municipal government, or some system is devised which will encourage representative men to more freely enter the civic arena. This is a truth which the delegates should face candidly. Let flict half a dozen speeches on one audthem seriously discuss such alternatives lence. as government by commission, the reduction of the number of aldermen, and their election by general vote; the payment of allermen, and other methods which aim at improving or superseding the present system, so as to call more of the character and ability of the community into the public service. This personal equation lies at the root of the whole problem of municipal govern-

Municipal ownership should be a leading topic of discussion-one in which the London delegates should be peculiarly interested. In this connection municipal rights in relation to street railway corporations should be freely canvassed. Another fruitful theme is thre bonusing system, and it will be well If the convention puts itself on record against the principle of bonuses and exemptions, so as to strengthen the hands of those in the Legislature thands of those in the Legislature face of the earth, and Cy is a recog-who have worked for the abolition or nized authority on that sort of lying. restriction of the abuse. There are many other matters, street improvements, municipal auditing, tax collection, etc., in which there may be a profitable interchange of ideas.

The Labor Struggle in Denmark.

The great struggle in Denmark has been fought to a conclusion, and a fair compromise effected, after months of strenuous conflict between united labor on the one hand and the united employers on the other. The question naturally arises, why did not the respective parties get together and adjust their differences by arbitration, in the first place, and save all the bother and bitterness and cost? A combination of capital to keep down wages is no new thing. We see it in the combination of the street-railway-owning capitalists of the United States, who are understood to contribute to a common pool to meet the loss any street railway company may have to undergo in fighting their employes. It is a curious illustration of the ramification of capital that the will of the people of a Canadian city, in connection with a street railway strike, should be persistently interfered with and thwarted by the money of a body of combined United States capitalists.

To return to the great Danish strike, and its settlement by mutual concession, one lesson stands out with prominence, namely, that had there been some system of obligatory arbitration, as in New Zealand, the loss and trouble to either side would have been reduced to a minimum. The lesson for Ontario is obvicus.

Criticism From a Candid Friend.

[Bystander, in Weekly Sun.] It is not only a great misfortune for the Americans, but a serious condemnation of their system, that, with all the public virtue and ability which commonwealth contains, should have in this crisis of their na-tional destiny no better leaders than a maneuverer like McKinley and a declaimer like Bryan. Something must be very wrong when these two men can get to the front, and not only get to the front, but stand alone. Sor thing must be very wrong when, in a country full of first-rate men of business, and administrators, national financiers are in confusion, and the national administration breaks down. A constitution which precludes the existence of parliamentary leadership and shelves the president at the end of his term is no doubt largely at fault; but the main source of the mischief is the machine, which repels the best and ablest men from public life.

Generous Hamilton. [Hamilton Herald.]

Hamilton is a great union town. Labor is more thoroughly organized here than in almost any other town in the country. That is one reason why there are so few-comparatively few-strikes in Hamilton, and why the relations between employer and employed are genpleasant. Self-respect in each begets mutual respect.

The holiday is not being observed in Hamilton by any public demontration, because the Hamilton labor unions choose rather to go to London and Brantford to help their brethren in these towns who are holding big de monstrations today. Especially did Hamilton workers wish to take part in the London demonstration, the chie object of which is to strengther the hands of the London street railway employes in their long struggle with the company. It will be a dull day in Hamilton; but Hamilton will be dull in order that its two sister towns may be lively—and Hamilton people will be gratified, for Hamilton people are always magnanimous and unsel-

Ottawa, Sept. 6 .- The Governor-General's Foot Guards arrived from Al-bany, N. Y., yesterday, after having practically been in possession of the many years. Like the Burlington trip of the Forty-third, the outing was "He says he loves me better than stars and Stripes and the Union Jack sand the fraternizing of the American characterized by a co-mingling of the National Guardsman and the Canadian Tommy Atkins, that neither of the latter would have believed possible a few years ago.

royally, and the guards deported themselves in a manner befitting the treatment they received.

The Beauty That Attracts Men Is not so much in the features as in a clear, healthy complexion, and a plump body filled with the vigor and vitality of perfect health. Pale, weak, languid women are fully restored to robust health by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, a condensed food which creates rich, pure blood and new nerve tissues.

Many a woman carries to her grave some silly name her romantic noveleading mother gave her. No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly, and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market. One doesn't get rid of bills by tearing them up, but they are disposed of for the time being.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Ecled tric Oil-a pulmonic, of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial results.

Improvements May Yet Be Made This MEETING OF Fall, Says Secretary McElheran.

Although the near approach of the Western Fair doubtless kept many pupils from resuming school at the opening yesterday, overcrowding in some of the schools is already painfully apparent. This is particularly true of Victoria school. Principal McQueen says he will send the surplus to Maple avenue and Simcoe street schools. In Miss Johnston's room, which has a capacity of only 50 there are already 82 pupils. In Park street school four teachers, with full classes, are crowded into three rooms. Princess avenue school is also badly overcrowded. The city council is solely responsible for this state of affairs. In the face of such conditions they broke faith with the board of education in refusing to issue debentures for the enlargement of Victoria and Park street schools, and for a kindergarten at Princess avenue school, after having faithfully promised to do so. Secretary McElheran says the additions may yet be made this fall. as they are an absolute necessity.

Judge Ermatinger has given judgment on the motion made by W. A. Wilson, for Samuel Greer, to restrain John Thody from driving the stage to Aylmer for Aquila Pierce, of Aylmer. Thody formerly owned a stage in Aylmer and sold it out to Mr. Greer, agreeing not to drive another stage or compete with Mr. Greer. Judge Ermatinger finds that Mr. Thody has violated this agreement, and grants an injunction to restrain him from driving the stage hereafter.

Col. Jouaust Refuses to Let Labori Put Certain Searching Questions to the Army Witnesses.

The largest audience yet assembled in the Lycee was present when the open session of the court-martial began at 8:30 o'clock. Senator Trarieux, former minister of justice, at once resumed his deposition, which was interrupted by the adjournment of the court yesterday. M. Trarieux took up the testimony of Savignaud, the witness for the prosecution, who had claimed to have seen letters addressed to M. Schuerer-Kestner, formerly a vice-president of the senate, by Lieut. Picquart while Savignaud was Picquart's orderly in Tunis. M. Trarieux declared that Savignaud was A PERJURER, and that two officers visited Savignaud before the court-martial opened, M. Trarieux hinting that the officers drilled Savignaud on the testimony he was to give. Savignaud replied, reasserting the truth of his previous testimony.

Lieut.-Col. Picquart then arose and repeated his denial of Savignaud's story.

M. Trarieux delivered his testimony in an emphatic tone. He revived the testimony of the petit bleu, which, he said, he was convinced was authentic. He proceeded to comment upon the questionable role played by Commandant Lauth in the affair.

Commandant Lauth interrupted the witness, asking that he be allowed a hearing, and on the conclusion of M. Trarieux's deposition, Commandant Lauth confronted him. The commandant declared that he had acted honestly throughout, and that he had not the least doubt of Lieut.-Col. Picquart's falsification of the petit bleu in order to incriminate Major Esterhazy.

A striking incident occurred when Commandant Lauth, a moment later, asserted that Lieut.-Col. Picquart had

A RATIONAL FOOD CURE.

One of the well-known grocers in Washington, D. C., who supplies the food of many of the brainy, representative men of the country, say: have become an enthusiastic consumer of Grape-Nuts. It has constituted solely my morning and evening meal for the past eight months. Previous to this, worn out with overwork, broken down in health, dyspepsia having led to Bright's disease, heart trouble and what not, I was given up to die. food came to my notice through one of my customers. The name suggested something in the dessent line-dried fruit, prunes, raisins, or the like, and when I put it in the store, a glance at the label persuaded me to make a trial

I had at the store for my supper, a dish and a half dish, and was impressed, perhaps unfavorably, with its richness, perceiving at the same time how very appropriately the new food was Strange as it may appear, its effect was almost at once apparent. Seated that evening at my home, I remarked to the family that it was first time in a whole year that I had felt like myself. I was much elated and naturally attributed the change to Grape-Nuts. My improvement since then has been continuous, my health is better than ever before, I look ten years younger and am untiring in strength." (The gentleman does not care to have his name quoted publicly,

Now for the reason. The man or woman worn out with overwork or nervous prostration will find an mediate gain in strength by the use of Grape-Nuts and cream, because of the fact that the natural phosphate of potash obtained from certain parts of the grains, is one of the strong elements in Grape-Nuts, and this is presented to the system in the form demanded by mature; not as a drug.

The system takes up the needed particles of phosphate of potash and it is now known that the soft gray matter which fills the delicate nerve centers throughout the body as well as the brain and the solar plexus, can only be made and removed from day to day by the action of phosphate of potash on albumen. Albumen is one of the principal elements of all food, but unless albumen has with it in the sysof potash, it cannot be transformed inbrain matter without the action of this particular element, for there is no known way to make gray matter except by the combination of albumen and phosphate of potash.

Therefore, when one uses Grape-Nuts, he makes use of the best scientific knowledge of the day in the selection of food for invigorating and re-vitalizing the body. This food has be-come famous throughout the world, and it is to be found in every first-class grocery store. Grape-Nuts are made by the Postum Company at their factories in Battle Creek.

for the officers of his bureau, asserting that on one occasion Picquart had brought to the general staff, in the presence of Madame Henry and Lauth, a woman, Madame D, who was the wife of a magistrate, and Lauth, inti-mated, Picquart's mistress.

"CANAILLE!" "COOHOON!" Lieut. Picquart arose and cried: "I protest absolutely." At the same time there arose from the spectators a chorus of indignant cries of "Oh, canalile!" "Coohoon!" and "Miserable!" The gendarmes were ordered to repress the outburst of indignation which had been evoked by the conduct of Commandant Lauth in publicly naming a woman in a scandalous connection.

GEN. ZURLINDEN EXPLAINS.

Gen. Zurlinden, formerly minister of war, followed Commandant Lauth at the witness bar. Gen. Zurlinden spoke Serious Altercation Between the in justification of his action while he was military governor of Paris, and minister of war in the matter of the prosecution of Lieut.-Col. Col. Jouaust, president of the countmartial, refused to put the question on the ground that the court was engaged in the trial of Dreyfus, and not of the Picquart affair.

M. Labori, however, insisted, taking the ground that the Petit Bleu demonstrated the guilt of Major Esterhazy, and that consequently it was very important for Dreyfus. M. Labori then tackled Gen. Zurlinden, who admitted that the magisterial inquiry showed that the Petit Bleu was not tampered with when it first arrived at the intelligence department, and that consequently Picquart could not have been guilty, as alleged, of distorting the document.

A SENSATION CREATED. M. Labori asked that M. Paleologue, the expert of the foreign office, be consulted, with reference to the reading before the court of diplomatic documents, which established irrefutably the authenticity of the Petit Bleu.

M. Paleologue, who sits behind the judges, came to the front of the stage, and said that he did not know to what documents M. Labori alluded.

This declaration by the expert of the foreign office created a marked sensation in court.

Gen. Billot now confronted M. Trarleux in reply to the latter's criticism of him, Gen. Billot. He began by declaring that M. Trarieux had delivered an eloquent oration, but that it was special pleading for Dreyfus and Picquart and an arraignment of former ministers. Gen. Billot praised Lieut.-Col. Picquart for his services in the army and declared that he had the greatest confidence in him-a confidence which, however, he had since been compelled to withdraw. Then, discussing Picquart's investigation of the suspicions against Major Esterhazy, Gen. Billot said: "Even if Esterhazy should be proved a traitor, that would not prove Dreyfus innocent; for in cases of espionage it very often occurs that there are several accomplices.'

AN ALTERCATION. M. Labori wished to question Gen. Billot, and an altercation with Col.
Jouanst ensued. Finally M. Labori cried: "Allow me to remark, Mr. President, that It has never been said that Dreyfus had an accomplice in Esterhazy. Capt. Dreyfus, who heard Gen. Bil-

CLIMAX OF STRAINED RELA-TIONS.

This scene was the climax of the strained relations which have prevailed between the president of the court-martial, Col. Jouanst and M. Labori, principal counsel for the accused, almost from the very outset of the trial. M. Labori has many times bitterly complained that Col. Jouaust prevented him from putting probing questions, and for the moment M. La-bori abstained from asking witnesses such questions, fearing that by so doing he might do more harm than good to his client. In view of the manifest tritation displayed by the president of the court whenever M. Labori has ris-en to his feet in the last few days; however, the advocate resumed his former cross-examination methods, resulting in today's crisis. M. Labori was extremely excited, and hardly able to contain himself with indignation, and, when afterwards asked if he had and, when afterwards asked it he had cough, harder Averyant. UNFAVORABLE TO DREYFUS. Major Gallopin, an officer of the artillery, was then examined, he proved a rather unfavorable witness for Drey-fus, who he declared he once met on the Boulevard St. Germain carrying a voluminous package which he said contained secret papers treating of mobilization, and which he was carrying to the geographical bureau.

Dreyfus was questioned regarding this statement by Major Gallopin, and admitted that he sometimes took documents home to facilitate work; but he said he did not recall the particular incident to which Major Gallopin referred. This admission by Dreyfus made a bad impression, especially when the next witness, Major Hirsch-Anel depose that he heard Dreyfus express a desire to go to the maneuvers. Major Hirsch-Anel, however, could not remember the exact date. Capt. Dreyfus replied: "It is very possible that I expressed regrets that I would be unable to go to the maneu-

"In that case," said Mr. Bradbury, "we can only wish to ascertain the young lady's wishes in the matter." "No," interrupted Gerard, "I've more to say first. I have had a letter from Mr. Hunter, my employer, bringing aginst me a charge so extraordinary that it seems like madness on his part. He accuses me of having embezzled a sum of money. There was a dismayed silence. The poor young fellow had turned ashy pale while he was speaking. He refused to sit down, but he leaned against the mantelpiece as if his limbs trembled.

As Mr. Fleming, full of concern, went home to tell his wife and daughter of this new development in Helena's story, he met the head-master, who stopped him.

"Young Gladwyn is an old pupil of yours, I think? I'm a little disappointed in him. He's a clever fellow, and a first-rate telacher, but a bit uncertain at times. Last night he came to me and said he was compelled to be absent for two days. He gave no reason. It's odd, and not quite satisfactory."
So thought Mr. Fleming, but he had more than a guess at the reason of it.

CHAPTER XVI.

And where was George? The later hours of that gray November morning found him walking with long rapid strides up the old "corpse-road" that led from Kirk Andrew to Moss Head. Seized by the sense of the intolerable-ness of daily routine for the moment, dreading beyond everything the morrow's interview, when it was possible that he might either betray his own felings, or swerve from his obligations, he cut the knot with little regard as to how he should tie it up again, and after a hasty statement of his intentions to the head master, hurried up to London, caught the night train for the North, and astonished the Nag's Head by arriving there in time for a late breakfast.

That disposed of, he set forth again towards the ber ming of the ascent of Wardale Grey Man. He was still in the green valley, with thin, gray mists floating round him, with fresh new air blowing round his head, and time to think before him.

Less than two months ago he had been there, full of curiosity and interest, a new life, a new world, new experiences opening before him, his mind delighted both with the picturesque past of his ancestor's story, and with the dramatic present of Helena Wynne's.

How pleased he had been to recognize in himself the likeness to old Daniel's portrait, how much amused he had been with the tale of the "prophet's" youth, how he had sympathized with the impatience, the vehement impulses, patience of restraint! With what a curbous thrill he had recognized his

"I was mad, I suppose, to come here' he ithought, "but I'll have to get madness and see if there's sanity on the other side, I can't escape it."

He walked at full speed up the valley, across the few poor fields of Moss Head—till he came to the stile that divided them from the open fell. The mountain wind tore the mist asunder and the rugged head of the Grey Man looked through, as if on the watch for his coming. George started. It was like a vision.

The mist slowly cleared away altogether, and as he went forward the whole mountain side came into view. steep and stony after a time, but ginning with an enticing sheep track

George went on, the Grey Man was after all but a second-class giant, and lived only a few feet above the level morning she had been happy, and that now she was wretched. That which had gone from her was a joyful hope.
"I must go," said Gerard. "I shall go at once. Is it too much to ask that first I may see my cousin alone?"

I wed only a few feet above the level of the valley. With hardly any definite intention of reaching the summit, he began the ascent, and for the time, for everything in the interest of the scramble. THE CANADA CYCLE AND MOTOR COMPANY, Limited, is to be incorporated under the Ontario Companies' Act to acquire as going concerns the businesses, as manufacturers and dealers in Bicycles and Bicycle Parts, now carried on by the following well known Companies:

MASSEY-HARRIS COMPANY, Limited. H. A. LOZIER & COMPANY (Cleveland Bicycles), GOOLD BICYCLE COMPANY, Limited, WELLAND VALE MANUFACTURING COMPANY, Limited,

CENDRON MANUFACTURING COMPANY, Limited, including the Plant, Machinery, Tools, Stock-in-Trade, Fixtures, Patent Rights, Trade Marks, Trade Names, Copyrights, Good-will and Leaseholds of the above-named Companies in connection with their said business; and including also all the real property of H. A. Lozier & Company, and The Goold Bicycle Company, Limited.

THE COMPANIES.

The bicycle industry is one of great importance and magnitude in Canada. The constituent Companies are the leaders in the trade. Their Trade Marks and Brands are everywhere popularly known, and by reason of their world-wide reputation for unrivalled excellence some of the Companies enjoy a large and growing foreign trade which offers a favourable field for development, and which this Company proposes to extend.

The Companies give employment to about 1,700 men. Their outputs for the past year aggregated about 38,500 bicycles. The plant and machinery are of the latest and best equipment, and capable of twice that production with but small additional outlay in tools. The factory sites to be acquired by the Company are especially adapted for manufacturing purposes; have advantageous shipping facilities, and will permit of ample extensions to the existing buildings.

Each of the above-named Companies has covenanted not to engage for long periods of years in any business competing with the bicycle business of this Company.

NET EARNINGS.

The steadily progressive character of the business of the constituent Companies is shown by the following Accountants' certificate:

We certify that the combined net profits in the business of Bicycles and Bicycle Parts of the Massey-Harris Co., Limited, H. A. Lozier & Co. (Cleveland Bicycles). Welland Vale Manufacturing Co., Limited, Goold Bicycle Co., Limited, and Gendron Manufacturing Co., Limited, for the past three years, are as follows:-

> 1896-7 - - - $190,914.02 1897-8 - - - $304,907.03 1898-9 - - - $330,115.35

ADVANTAGES.

Amongst the advantages to be gained by this amalgamation of interests, the following may be enumerated:—

FIRSTLY-Reduction in selling and distribution expenses and advertising. SECONDLY-The economies and improvements in production arising from the practical knowledge of the members forming the Board of Directors, which will be available for each branch of the business. THIRDLY-The economies due to consolidation of management, manufactories, office work, and of buying, distributing, and financial

The Directors are fully alive to the desirability of conserving the individuality and initiative of the various businesses, and will not allow conselidation to act detrimentally in these matters, but there are obvious advantages to be gained, as, for example, in buying in large quantities in the best markets, in the supply of ample capital, and in the manufacture of a large output of high-grade wheels at prices to meet the demands of the public.

The Management of the Company will be in the hands of experienced manufacturers, who have been identified with the leading bicycle companies of Canada in the past, and have made a success of the business.

WORKING CAPITAL.

The Company will commence business without any bonded or mortgage debt and with a working capital in excess of $1,000,000, exclusive of the additional capital available from the issue of the Preference Stock in the treasury ($500,000).

The Preference Shares shall confer the right to a fixed cumulative preferential dividend of 7 per cent. per annum accruing from the date of payment by subscribers, to be provided for out of the net earnings of the Company before any dividends are paid upon the common stock, and the further right to repayment of capital in priority to the common stock, but they will not be entitled to further participation in profits or assets. If in any one year dividends amounting to 7 per cent. are not paid on the preference stock the deficiency shall be a first charge upon the net carnings of the Company and shall be paid subsequently before any dividend is paid upon or set apart for the common stock.

RESERVE ACCOUNT. The Charter of the Company will provide that 25 per cent. of the balance of the net earnings, after payment of the 7 per cent. dividend on the Preference Stock, shall be annually transferred to a reserve account in the books of the Company, the better to secure to the Preferred Shareholders the payment of the 7 per cent. dividend on their preferred shares, and such annual transfers shall be continued until the amount of said account reaches $500,000, at which sum it is to be maintained, and if it is at any time drawn upon it is to be in like manner restored and maintained. The amount required to pay 7 per cent. on the preference stock already taken by the Directors and that now offered to the public being $175,000, it is considered that such dividends are amply assured, and the above reserve account of $500,000 has been stipulated for in order that the position of the preferred shares may be rendered independent of any possible contingency.

Dividends will be payable half-yearly on the 1st days of May and November, or such other half-yearly dates as the Directors may determine.

AUTOMOBILES.

It is intended that an important part of the Company's undertaking will be the manufacture and sale of motors and motor vehicles. This branch of business is a natural outgrowth of the Bicycle industry, and is believed to offer a profitable investment for the capital and the large and successful experience in manufacturing which this Company will command.

Arrangements have been made to have the books of the Company regularly audited by Chartered Accountants. Application will be made in due course to have the stock of the Company listed upon the Toronto and Montreal Stock Exchanges.

$2,000,000 7 per cent. Preference Stock in the above Company will be offered for public subscription at PAR on WEDNESDAY, the 6TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1899, payable as follows: 5 per cent. on application and the balance of 95 per cent. on allotment. The right is reserved to reject or reduce any application, and subscription carries with it an agreement to accept such reduced amount. The failure to make payment when due forfeits the previous payment. In case no allotment is made the amount deposited on application will be returned.

Subscription Lists will open at the chief offices of the National Trust Company, Limited, Toronto and Montreal. and at the Head Office and Branches of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, the 6th September, '99, and close at 3 o'clock on the following day.

Forms of Power of Attorney to subscribe may be had on application to any branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, or to THE NATIONAL TRUST COMPANY, Limited, 26 King St. East, Toronto, Ganada Life Bld., Montreal,

A Great Bieycle Company.

The leading bicycle manufacturers of Canada have amalgamated their interests in the Canada Cycle and Motor Company, whose formation is now announced and whose preference stock is open for subscription. The names of the makers whose concerns are embraced in the new company are a guarantee for excellence of workmanship and industrial skill. Their special products are familiar to everyone, while the men who control the new organization, Walter E. H. Massey (Massey-Harris Company), Senator Cox, War-ren Y. Soper, of Ottawa, E. L. Goold, of Brantford, J. W. Flavelle, Hon. L. M. Jones and Mr. E. R. Thomas, are known throughout the Dominion as combining enterprise, shrewdness and integrity with financial stability. Under their guidance there can be no doubt that a brilliant future awaits the new aggregation. As there is at the present time much idle capital seeking safe investment at 4 per cent, and the banks are allowing only 3 per cent upon deposits, there is centain to be a heavy demand for the 7 per cent cumulative preference stock which is offered to the public. First-class securities of nature seldom bear so high a rate of interest, and when they do the public is apt to want very much more of the stock than is for sale.

Messrs. Meredith and Bartram Grow Personal in Arguing the Dam Case,

In Which Contractor Grant Is Charged With Endangering the Lives, Safety and Health of the Public.

Contractor Robert Grant, of Toronto, who is erecting the new waterworks dam at Springbank, appeared before Squire Lacey, at the court house yesterday to answer to the charge "of erecting a dam by which the water of the River Thames, at the time of the spring freshets, is caused to overflow the streets and highways of West London, thus creating a common nuisance, which would endanger the lives, safety and health of the public." W. H. Bartram, barrister, was the com-

Mr. Bartram examined his own witnesses, and Mr. Ed. Meredith and Mr. Geo. C. Gunn appeared for Grant. The crown was not represented.

A lively episode occurred during the examination, which nearly led to blows between Messrs. Bartram and Meredith. Mr. Bartram was in the box, and gave evidence to show that the erection of the waterworks dam in 1878 or 1879 had caused the freshets to become more severe, and that portions of West London had been inundated almost every year since. Mr. Bartram men-tioned the fact that on one occasion the water was two feet deep on his property, and his cellar was flooded. "But it is not my own grievance that I am airing," said Mr. Bartram, "it is the grievance of many ratepayers." "Yes," said Mr. Meredith, sarcastically, "you are patriotic enough to look after other people's grievances." Mr. Bartram did not take kindly to this remark, and replied rather warmly, that Mr. Meredith was one of the boodlers who were looking after other people's money. Mr. Meredith promptly called Mr. Bartram a liar, and more warm words followed. Mr. Meredith put his fist in Mr. Bar-tram's face and shoved his head back. Stepping out of the witness box, Mr. Bartram was about to rush at Mr. Meredith, when Detective Ward stepped in as a peacemaker. After two or three unsuccessful attempts to get at Mr. Meredith, Mr. Bartram returned to the witness stand, and informed Mr. Meredith that he was a dirty liar. "That is just like the Meredith tribe," he said. Both parties challenged each other to go outside on the lawn and settle, but Detective Ward prevented Mr. Bartram leaving the box.

Mr. Bartram was very indignant, and said, "It is just like a Meredith act, you dirty coward."

The cross-examination was resumed. but when Mr. Meredith happened to step within arm's length of the witness box, Mr. Bartram exclaimed: "Get away from me. I do not want you to hit me again. I want you to stand farther off. The court won't whole brood of you." At this juncture Squire Lacey warned the lawyers that if such a thing occurred again he would have to commit both of them to jail. Things went more smoothly after

After hearing the evidence of Mr. Bartram, Mr. Stinchcombe, Detective Ward, Secretary Elwood and Engineer Moore of the waterworks, Squire Lacey adjourned the case until Thursday afternoon.

Ajax, the trained zebra with the Norris Bros'. show, which was here last week, was killed in Detroit Monday by an electric car. As the zebra is an extremely difficult animal to train to driving, and as even after trained he is very easily frightened, the accident in question was not strange. An electric car moving rapidly along the avenue frightened Ajax so that he shied suddenly and with extraordinary force. In this way the zebra, wagon and driver were placed in front of the car before the motorman comprehended the danger. Before the car could be stopped the zebra was struck and killed almost instantly, the wagon was completely demolished, and the driver, James Keen, was thrown to

To the Editor of The Advertiser: In a recent issue of the Free Press an article appeared over the name of Mr. H. B. Now, all we wish to say is, that we are quite satisfied with the editor of the Banner, and the way he is conducting the paper, so that if Mr. Ashplant's article was written with a view of assisting the cause of labor, which we doubt, the least we can say is that it is a very strange method of assistance; and, in conclusion, we wish to state that we do not publish this as a challenge to a newspaper conflict, for hereafter we will not reply to any of Mr. Ashplant's writings on this ques-

WM. BURLEIGH, Treasurer. WHEAT AT FORT WILLIAM. Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 6.—The stock of wheat in store at Fort William is of 239,000 bushels, leaving in store 1. 012,000 bushels. Russian railroad trains have smok-

WARM WEATHER It's important that the bowels move freely every day.

Laxa-Liver Pills the best medicine to take.

Constipation is a serious matter at any time, but especially so in summer time. The heat makes the germs of fermentation and decay active, and soon the whole system becomes poisoned. Most of the fevers, inflammation, pimples, blotches, eruptions, sallow complexion, sick headache and general feeling of malaise, are due to impurities circulating in the system. People who want to keep healthy during the hot season should see to it that their bowels move regularly once a day. If through error in diet or other causes the bowels do not act naturally, take Laxa-Liver Pills. They aid nature in removing the effete and waste materials without causing any griping, weakening or sickening. A trial will convince you of their easy action and efficacy. When you find they do you good don't greatly in excess of last year. For the week ended Sept. 2, the receipts amounted to 37,000 bushels, with shipments forget to recommend them to your friends and neighbors.
