THE LION'S EYE IS ON SIAM.

Britain May Take a Hand in the Fight

at France Shells Bangkok.

LONDON, July 3.—In reply to a question

as to the situation in Siam, Sir Edward Grey, Parliamentary secretary of the Foreign Office, stated that one British warship is already at Bangkok, the capital of Siam, another is on the way, and a third is ready to proceed there if her presence is required.

France, he added, warned the Siamese

Government that a French fleet going to Saigon might be sent to Bangkok if the situation demanded its dispatch to the capital.

The French Government has given the assurance that the British Government will receive notice before a fleet is ordered to Bangkok.

Britain has a large and promising trade with Siam. Many Englishmen and Scotchmen are in business in Bangkok itself.

But, as a correspondent of the London

Times lately pointed out, the British interests are not the only interests Great Britain

has in the preservation of Siamese independence.

Siamese are unexceptionable

neighbors, the correspondent naively writes. Then, after elaborating on the intelligence of their sovereign and the remarkable capacity of the Siamese for the assimilation of European civilization, he strikes a home blow:

"We cannot conceal from ourselves the unpleasant truth that our French friends

questions whenever they come in contact with us. No approach upon their part towards our frontier can be viewed with indifference by British statesmen.

"The proximity of Russia to our northern borders imposes heavy military and financial burdens upon India and a load of anxious care upon the responsible guardians of that empire. Any marked advance by France towards our eastern boundaries,

more particularly under the present re-

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—J. H. Tripp, of Toronto, is in the city visiting his parents.

—The Presbyterian Sunday schools will picnic at Port Stanley on July 13.

—Band concert by the Seventh, on Wednesday, at Victoria Park.

—The steamer Joe Milton brought over 60 passengers from Cleveland yesterday.

—Mrs. Cavanagh, Winnipeg, and her sister, Mrs. Rawlings, of Forest, have been visiting Mrs. Gray, King street.

—Mr. Carl Beal returned yesterday (Monday) to Toronto and resumed his position with the Grip Printing Company.

—Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Rogers and Miss Jennie Campbell, of Cleveland, have taken a cottage for a month in Port Stanley, where they have many friends.

—The Flora arrived at Port Monday morning from Cleveland, and left at once for the other side in order to commence her regular run. She carried about 50 passengers from Port.

—The crowds down the river yesterday were the largest of the season. Capt. Foster's steamer was loaded every trip. A good many people stepped at Woodland Cemetery to decorate graves.

—Mr. J. A. McCausland, of Tilbury Center, occupied the pulpit at St. George's Church last Sunday evening. He was a student of Huron College and reflects credit on the institution. His sermon was impressive and his delivery excellent.

—About 500 people took advantage of Court Forest Quay's excursion to Detroit on Saturday and quite a number went on to Cleveland. The outing was one of the best of the season. The accommodation was perfect, and everybody had a good time.

—There were only ten drunks in the Police Court cage yesterday morning. Three were remanded until the 5th, one until the 4th, Joseph Axton and Ben. Chas. Walsh were both fined $2, and the rest were discharged. A young man named Berryhill paid $1 for indulging in a bicycle ride on the beach.

—The anniversary services of the King Street Methodist Church Sunday proved very interesting. Rev. C. Smith and Rev. Joseph Philip preached morning and evening respectively, and the children assisted in the musical exercises. The open session of the Sunday school in the afternoon was addressed by Rev. W. J. Clark and Rev. B. Clement.

Big Crowds at Port Stanley.

—The M. C. R. perhaps awoke to the fact yesterday that the Port Stanley summer excursion business is a pretty big item. Over 3,000 tickets were sold from this city, and there were between 7,000 and 8,000 people at the lakeside. Extra trains had to be put on, and the service was satisfactory. Every train passed off merrily and without accident at the Port. The crowd is an indication of what cheer faces will do. The experiment might be tried a little oftener.

—London's lovely ladies like lovely colored pills, so they now all take Duncombe's Dark Pills, No. 2.

Of Interest to All Travelers.

The New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company has issued the fourth book of the Four-Track series, or "Hudson River Pleasure on America's Greatest Railroad," a publication which is not only one of the handsomest works of the kind ever gotten out, but is full of information for the summer tourist who wants to go somewhere and does not know how to take the initial trip. This book of over 350 pages tells the traveler about all the places he is most anxious to see, shows him how they look, and explains the best way to reach them. There are 300 pen and ink sketches and wood engravings, and the letter-press is furnished on the principle that he that runs may read. The wonderfully varied scenery of New York State is not alone described and portrayed, but the far West, and even "A Trip to Japan" are in the greatest source of true wisdom. "Travel is the greatest source of true wisdom," is the motto of the book. A copy will be sent free to any address upon receipt of five-cent stamps, by George H. Daniels, general passenger agent, Grand Central station, New York.

Very Suitable.

—If you have a nice watch and want to get it nicely framed, you can get a white and silver, white and gold, or ivory frame put on it at a very low price by taking it to E. N. Hunt's, 120 Dundas street. To every cash purchaser of $1 worth or more of goods he will present a prize. yw

In these days when dry lumber and shingles are essential, and are specified by architects, it is necessary to know where to get what will fill your bill. A call on W. D. WILLES & Co. will convince you that they have what will suit you, and at right prices. Yard corner York and Adelaide streets. Phone 789. yw

AN UNBIASED VERDICT.

[Monetary Times.]

"The theory of the members of the Canadian Government, who are carrying on this tariff inquiry, is that protection is to be continued until the several manufacturers are self-supporting; and that manufacturers are to be kept on to equalize while duties are to be kept on to equalize the difference between the rates of interest and wages in Canada and foreign countries."

The pretense is that the farmer is to share protection along with the manufacturer. This is a feat which no tariff can accomplish. It is a feat which no tariff can accomplish. It is a feat which no tariff can accomplish.

How is it attempted to be done? By imposing duties on farm produce. But the country grows such produce in excess of its own wants; the surplus, which finds a market in England, has to be sold at a price determined by the proportion of the world's supply to the world's demand; and the price obtained for the surplus fixes the price of the whole, including what is required for the country for consumption. The tariff put on here has no effect in determining the English price, which the Canadian, like that of every other exporting country, has to follow. If from local or accidental causes the Canadian price is sometimes enhanced through the duty, the incident only marks the exception to the rule; and we should delude ourselves if we accepted an exception for the rule. This is what we are asked to do.

Of the case of the farmers, the largest body of producers in the country, protection cannot equalize the difference in wages and in interest. It is obvious that it fails to attain the first object of its existence. And it fails to equalize the rates of interest in as it can equalize the rates of interest in two different countries, only by enhancing profit through an increase of price. It equally fails, in its application to agriculture, to equalize the rates of interest in the same way. In the second place, it fails to be continued until an equalization of the rates of wages and interest between Canada and other countries is, by some experienced process, brought about. It is not, as one expert to see the day when the rate of interest in Canada will fall to the Dutch level? Does any one expect to live on the same day when wages will be on the same level? Is the leveling process to proceed? Is the leveling to be upwards or downwards, or is it to move from both directions at the same time? The chances are that these same talk glibly about the future equilibrium of wages and of interest on money, have never attempted even to imagine how the process is to be worked out. One thing is certain: exaggerated protection, while it lasts, imposes sacrifices on the community by enhancing prices to the whole body of consumers. This might be borne with if the compensation were sure to be paid in the near future; but if we are to wait for the benefits which the sacrifice was intended to purchase until interest and wages attain a common level, in different countries, the sacrifices will bring nothing but disappointment.
