For the Provincial Wesleyan. Rev. John Wesley, M. A. PREACHING ON HIS FATHER'S TOMBSTONE, IN EPWORTH CHURCHYARD. By S. O. Full "Not being permitted to preach in the Epworth Church, I stood near the east end of it, on my father's

It was the holy hush of eve, And Epworth's domes and spires, Shone in the mellow, sunset glow, Like Dothan's chariot-fires; And eager crowds came from the streets. Converging at the spot Where oft the heralds of our God Had told of mercy bought.

No bell rings out inviting sound-No chapel-portals ope— No vaulted dome doth echo back The words of faith and hope: For he who to that throng would preach. Upon that balmy night, Must stand without the Epworth Church, Out in the waning light.

He led it to the place of graves-That sinful, surging crowd-"He sought the living 'mong the dead," The sleeper in his shroud; And standing on his father's tomb He raised his hands and cried, "Ye must be saved by grace, through faith" In Christ the Crucified.

Soft, rose-tint hues were blushing there, And manly health and bloom, And bending age with silvery locks, All quivering for the tomb; They hearkened all-perchance the sire Was speaking through the son,-A voice from out the solemn grave-It was for every one.

No angel-legions saw they there-No chariots of fire-No singing seraphs hovering o'er, All wraped in pure desire; Alas! for clouded human sight! The holiest of that scene, Was hidden by the mortal veil Hung death and life between

A rich reward hath righteousness,-True greatness hath a crown, That will survive all worldly wreaths And laurels of renown: A mighty host on earth can stand. And bless John Wesley's day, A mightier host in heaven can rise, And laud him there for ave.

But he is again feeling the paddle—his brain swims and throbs for a moment, and his senses are gone, he has sunk into a swoon; another strength expenses lump of clay. The stroke, when his master perceives he is beating a senseless lump of clay. The stroke of the paddle ceases, and he says to his companions, "I believe he is dying." DISASTER TO A TRANSPORT—MILITARY DISCIPLINE—An unfortunate disaster, though not attended with loss of life, occurred on this coast ten days ago. The transport Miles Barton, with nearly 400 men of the 3d Buffs on board, struck on a sunken rock eastward of Agulhas, and has become a total wreck. The misfortune occurred in the clarkness of midnight, and while a heavy sea was driving before a south east gale; but so admirable were the discipline and coolness of the men, and the skill and firmness of the officers, military and naval alike, that on the following day every soldier was landed in perfect safety on the adjacent shore. It was the brave old story of the Birkenhead again, where happily the courage and calmness displayed were rewarded, and were so well calculated to achieve.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE

The London Quarterly, (Conservative.)

The Westminster Review, (Liberal)

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine. ('Tory') The present critical state of European affairs The present critical state of European affairs render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written newsitems, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily journal, and the ponderous tone of the fufure historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events; and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific and theological charter, we arge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the predude to serious illness. Some fit of siekness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Filis, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstruction which make omewhere in the body, and ob-the try, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Fills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

DR. J. C. ATER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion. Prom Dr. Theodore Bell, of New Fork City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bitious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. BIR: I have used your Fills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathertic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of billows disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found.
