GETTING READY FOR GREAT GAMES IN PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—The Philadelphia Nationals began tuning up today for the world's series with the Boston Americans, which opens here on Friday.

Speculation as to how the rival managers will use their pitchers in the coming struggle for premier baseball honors, seems to be attracting most attention at present.

Mayer and Demaree, however, are not lost sight of in the various pre-arrangements.

Notwithstanding that on form the Bostonians are considered to have the advantage of the Phillies, followers of the game here call attention to last year's series between the Athletics and Boston Braves.

One familiar scene in connection with the big series, will be lacking here this season.

Mrs. Jones and family also received a cablegram yesterday from Major Jones reading "All's well."

BALAGLAVA CHARGE IS REPEATED BY AUSTRALIANS AT DARDANELLES

Magnificent and Hopeless Charge of Australian Light Brigade Against the Turks Equals the Crimean Feat.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Oct. 4.—As illustrating the difficult and desperate character of the fighting in the Dardanelles, at the same time paying tribute to the fighting qualities and heroism of both Australian and Turk, Captain C. E. W. Bean, official press representative with the Australian forces, sends the following description of the "glorious charge" of two Australian Light Horse brigades at Anzac.

ONE IN SIX CAME BACK. The attack of these two brigades occurred at a spot where natural obstacles made success impossible, but the movement was regarded as necessary in order to draw Turkish troops away from points where real advances could be made successfully.

VOLUNTEER "LIGHT BRIGADE." This charge differed from that of the Light Brigade," says Captain Bean, "in that it was made by horsemen who had volunteered to fight on foot, or in any other way, provided they could get to the Gallipoli peninsula and help the other Australians there.

ONLY LASTED 15 MINUTES. "It was all over within a quarter of an hour," but in the extreme southeastern corner of the Turkish trench there did appear for just two minutes a small flag indicating the presence there of a group of our men.

MAC CABLES "ALL'S WELL" "All Well" is the word received this morning by Mrs. M. A. Colquhoun from her husband, Lt.-Col. Colquhoun of the 4th Battalion. The good news comes in a cable dated "Field Post Office, October 3rd." Judging from the cable, the Canadians are not in the thick of it, although seemingly fighting.

A sturgeon caught in Dundalk Bay, County of Louth, Ireland, has, after a telegram of acceptance, been sent to the King. It is over 9 feet long and weighs 336 lbs. The sturgeon was regarded in the past as a royal fish, and under an act of King Edward II, it could always be claimed by the crown when it was taken in British waters. Caviare is made from the roe of the sturgeon.

the cabinet of M. Radoslawoff took over the affairs of the country over two years ago, its position never has been shaken. After all there is nothing provocative in its policy for anyone and, it is astonishing to see the attacks made in part of the foreign press against its attitude of the Bulgarian Government.

MUST CHOOSE TO-DAY. London, Oct. 4.—Bulgaria must make its choice to-day for an open alliance with the central powers and Turkey or for neutrality. When her decision will be made known publicly rests with the censors, but it is regarded unlikely that there will be delay in satisfying the widespread anxiety to know the best or the worst.

LONDON UNDECIDED. There is a marked division of opinions in London as to which side King Ferdinand and Premier Radoslawoff will choose. Notwithstanding all the signs of hostility toward Serbia on the part of Bulgaria, the opinion is expressed by some well informed diplomats that Bulgaria will not fight, and that even though the government should elect to go to the Bulgarian people would resist such a policy.

TROOPS IN READINESS. If action by the entente powers should become necessary when Bulgaria is in a great danger to the central powers, they argue that plans must have been laid down weeks ago when it was supposed the German armies were likely to force a decision in the east and before the unexpected mobilization of Greece and the formidable offensive of the allies in the west. Since the plans for the Teutonic campaign against Serbia were conceived, Russia has brought the matter to a standstill.

Bings and Bings have the time of their lives until after many unpleasant experiences borne with fortitude, "Old Dutch" is able to prove his identity by the aid of his partner, Mr. Rockmorgan, then Bings and Bings gracefully retire and "Old Dutch" and Violet come into their own again. Harry Rockmorgan marries Violet and we are left with the agreeable feeling that in his old age the inventor is provided for.

Altogether "Old Dutch" is an agreeable offering; witty, pungent, tender, human; and aromatic. Aromatic—it smells good, so to say. A World Film offering: "Old Dutch" will rank high—tender and laughter alternate as you look at it. Well, if not tears, gulps, for Lew Fields can be pathetic as well as humorous. "Old Dutch" is a very pretty story; prettily told and played by a fine cast, which includes Vivian Martin, the brightest light star in the World's Film firmament.

The Situation.

Russia has called Bulgaria in no uncertain tones, and in this step has the united backing of the other Allies. King Ferdinand and his ministers will either have to repudiate any alliance with Germany or else fight on the basis that they are at one with the Kaiserites. No other country at any time ever had matters "put up" to it in more direct shape, and the step will make the issue clear, one way or the other, in very short order. Ferdinand manifestly wants an active alliance with Berlin; his people, for the most part, do not, and unless he has taken utter leave of his senses their ruler should even yet back down.

The fact that the British and the French are jointly landing troops at the Greek port of Saloniki is further evidence of the decision of that country to throw in her lot with the Allies. This is a very important incident and is more than likely to hasten the fall of Constantinople. Roumania is still on the fence, but, according to all human calculation, cannot long remain so, and she will have no difficulty in seeing in which direction her best interests rest.

The initial rush of the Allies' offensive in the Western theatre has died down, as was generally expected. Always when ground is lost by either side there are violent counter-attacks, which have to be guarded against, so that a second general advance does not seem likely to be attempted for quite a while. However, the British General reports the recapture of two trenches previously lost, and the French also have made some slight advances.

The Russians continue to do well in Galicia, and they are reported to have halted Hindenburg on the road to Minsk. Germany has latterly been awakened with a rude jolt from the dream that the Bear had been crippled badly enough to lay up for repairs.

The Lesser Kaiser.

As before pointed out in these columns, King Ferdinand has long aimed to be the Kaiser of the Balkans.

We all remember how the Bulgarians fought and how they triumphed; with what dash and organizing power, with what splendid qualities of hardihood, discipline, self-sacrifice and consuming patriotism. And we all remember the tragic aftermath; how in a fatal moment Ferdinand, grasping at too much, lost nearly everything; how the league he had helped to form well-nigh destroyed him; how his crowning success proved to be his undoing, and how at the sword's point he was forced to sign a bitter and humiliating peace.

There is no doubt that the genius for intrigue is in his Coburg blood. His mother, the Princess Clementine, the daughter of Louis Philippe and one of the ablest women of her day, with all her father's shrewdness and a good deal more charm and generosity than he ever possessed, dedicated her son almost from boyhood to the study of statescraft. She was determined that her youngest and best-loved boy should be something more than one of the hapless group of unemployed Highnesses and, that he should not lead a futile life as a mere officer in the Austro-Hungarian army. She meant that he should be a King. To that end she trained him with a woman's faith in the thousand-to-one chance.

When Alexander, Prince of Bulgaria, was kidnapped, and the Principality was left without a ruler, Europe was scourged for a successor acceptable to both Russia and the Triple Alliance, and Ferdinand's chance had come. He was induced to offer himself for what was at the time the most thankless task in the whole world of diplomacy, and, journeying in secret down the Danube, entered Sofia in August, 1887, in his twenty-sixth year. Bulgaria was then in a state of chaos, and its real ruler was Stambouloff, the able but curt and remorseless son of an inn-keeper, the precise opposite of the cultured, half-French, half-Austrian aristocrat, with his elaborate perfumed manners, who had mounted the throne.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

DETROIT TIGERS MAKE A RECORD

Finish in Second Place After Winning One Hundred Games This Season.

Detroit, Oct. 4.—Detroit, playing its last game of the season defeated Cleveland six to five, and established an American League record. The Tigers won 100 games this year, something no club in the league which finished in second place had previously accomplished. Cobb also set a base stealing record. His theft of second base in the second inning gave him an unofficial total of 97 stolen sacks.

At Chicago—Chicago made a clean sweep of the series with St. Louis yesterday, when they won their final game of the season six to two. Score: Chicago 6, St. Louis 2.

Chicago Federals Won the Pennant

Chicago, Oct. 4.—In the tightest league race ever staged the Chicago Federals narrowly won the flag by winning the second game of a double-header from Pittsburgh after having dropped the first game. Darkness held off just long enough to permit the Chicago team to take the title and put Pittsburgh in third place. Three runs in the sixth inning of second game, however, settled the ownership of the emblem. The enormous crowd went wild over the victory. The scores were: Pittsburgh 5, Chicago 4; Pittsburgh 0, Chicago 3. The first game went to eleven innings, while the second was called after the visitors' half of the seventh inning.

The league race was in doubt until the final game was played yesterday, as for weeks past there had been a constant shifting of positions on the part of Pittsburgh, Chicago and St. Louis, the Missouri City not being eliminated until Saturday, when a defeat by Kansas City put it out of the running. The three teams finished with only a little over three points separating them.

GREAT FLEET OF AIR-SHIPS ATTACK ENEMY'S LINE

Sixty-five French Aeroplanes Dropped Bombs on Laon and Vouziers.

London, Oct. 4.—The French, persistently pressing toward Hill No. 140, their immediate goal in Atois, yesterday made further progress, capturing a German blockhouse and a series of entrenchments on the southern edge of the Givenchy Woods. Farther to the south supporting troops during a night hand-grenade attack overwhelmed the Germans, and, according to official admission by Berlin, captured another section of trench. The Germans also claim the capture of part of a trench in the Champagne.

THE GERMAN CLAIMS

Berlin, Oct. 4.—The following official statement was issued yesterday: "In the afternoon enemy monitors directed a fruitless bombardment against the neighborhood of Westende. Repeated attempts by the British during the night to regain territory lost by them north of Loos were completely repulsed with heavy losses. After bitter hand-to-hand fighting in certain quarters the enemy abandoned his attacks here. East of Souchez a French advance failed, notwithstanding the employment of a considerable quantity of gas grenades. An enemy attempt to make an attack from Neuville against hill positions east of that place was repulsed with very heavy losses to the enemy. In a nocturnal hand grenade engagement following this attack we lost a section of trench extending over a length of forty metres. Yesterday the French repeated their infantry attacks in Champagne. Enemy artillery fire continued with varying intensity. South of Le Mesnil the enemy was driven out of a trench section projecting toward our position, suffering considerable losses in prisoners. During a hand grenade attack for the possession of a position northwest of Ville-sur-Tourbe we maintained the upper hand. To-day bombs were dropped by French aviators on the neutral city of Luxembourg. Two Luxembourg soldiers, one workman and one shop girl were wounded."

CLOSE TO LAST LINE OF ENEMY, SAYS FRENCH

British Marshal's Official Report Shows Steady Advance.

British Headquarters in France, via London, Oct. 4.—The following special order of the day has been issued by Field Marshal Sir John French, Commander-in-Chief of the British army in the field. "We have now reached a definite state in the great battle which commenced on the 25th instant. Our allies in the south have pierced the enemy's last line entrenchments and effected large captures of prisoners, guns and tents. The French army on our immediate right has heavily engaged the enemy but has brilliantly succeeded in securing an important position known as the Vimy ridge. The operations of the British forces have been most successful and have had great and important results. On the morning of the 25th the first and fourth corps attacked and carried the enemy's first and most powerful line of entrenchments, capturing from our extreme right flank a Grenay to a point north of the Hohenzollern redoubt, a distance of 6,500 yards. This position was exceptionally strong, consisting of a double line, which included some large redoubts and a network of trenches and a bomb-proof shelter. Dugouts were constructed at short intervals all along the line, some of them containing large caves thirty feet below the ground. The eleventh corps in general reserve and the third cavalry division were subsequently thrown into the fight, and finally the division. After the visitations attendant upon every great fight the enemy's line and second line posts were taken. A commanding position known as Hill 70 in advance of Loos was finally captured. Our line established and consolidated in close proximity to the German third and last line. The main operations south of the La Basse canal were much facilitated and assisted by subsidiary attacks delivered by the Third and Indian corps and the troops of the second army. Great help also was rendered the operations by the Fifth Corps and the troops of the second army. Some important captures were made. We also are much indebted to Vice-Admiral Buxton and our naval comrades for the valuable co-operation of the fleet. Our captures have amounted to over 3,000 prisoners and some 25 guns, besides many machine guns and a quantity of war material. The enemy has suffered heavy losses, particularly by subsidiary attacks by which he has vainly endeavored to wrest back captured positions, but which have all been gallantly repulsed by our troops. Our capture of the press to the army under my command my deep appreciation of the splendid work they have accomplished, and my heartfelt thanks for the brilliant leadership displayed by Gen. Sir Douglas Haig and the magnificent spirit, indomitable courage and dogged tenacity displayed by the troops of the old and new army, and the territorial, who have aided with one another in the heroic conduct of the campaign through battle, and by the officers and non-commissioned officers. I feel the utmost confidence and assurance that the same glorious spirit which has been so marked a feature throughout the first phase of this great battle will continue until our efforts are crowned by final and complete victory. 30th of September, 1915. J. D. FRENCH, Field Marshal Commander-in-Chief British Army in the Field. FROM KING AND KITCHENER

REPLY TO THE KING

The field marshal, Commander-in-Chief, has received the following message from the King, dated the 30th of September, 1915: "I heartily congratulate you and all ranks of my army under your command upon the success which has attended the gallant efforts since the commencement of the combined attack. I recognize that this strenuous, determined fighting is but the prelude to greater deeds and further victories. I trust the sick and wounded are doing well. GEORGE R. AND I."

REPLY TO HIS MAJESTY

SILVER ANNIVERSARY SERVICES AT SYDENHAM STREET CHURCH

Great Crowds, Eloquent Sermons and Ideal Weather Combine to Make the Day Historic in Annals of the Church.

That the Rev. W. Smyth, pastor of Sydenham Street Methodist church is a preacher second to none in Brantford was the fact borne home on any strangers to Terrace Hill who attended the service last night. The occasion was the silver anniversary of the founding of the church, and crowds were turned away at both services, the edifice being filled to capacity.

A VERY GREAT SUCCESS
The whole day was a very great success, and the large number of people who turned out were more than rewarded. Dr. Henderson of Wellington St. Church, preached in the morning, while in the evening, the pastor, assisted by Rev. C. H. Wolz, of Springford, conducted the service. Many strangers attended the evening service particularly, and were more than agreeably surprised at the eloquence and intellectual power of the pastor. Mr. Smyth delivered a powerful sermon, and in other statements that all people are born belonging to God, showed that not a tincture of Calvinism had penetrated into his theological views.

OLD BOYS' QUARTETTE
A pleasing feature of the evening service, as well as the Sunday school rally, was the rendition of Gospel hymns by the Old Boys' Quartette, composed of Messrs A. McWebb, C. McWebb, A. Gidney and A. Scruton.

DR. HENDERSON.
Dr. Henderson took as his text I Kings, 6:14, and based his sermon on explaining the meaning of the symbolism of the temple. It was a wonderful structure, built of the most perfect material, its walls glistening with burnished gold. The temple itself was small, but the grounds about it, containing other buildings were of an immense size.

NOT A SOUND OF HAMMER
The temple was built in silence. All necessary hammering, and planing and chiseling was done miles away in the quarters of Phoenicia, and the woods of Lebanon. So, pointed out the rev. gentleman, in this day the silent forces in moral and spiritual life were the most potent. As the temple was of the best, so all our work dedicated to God should be of the highest. Even our places of worship, while ignoring vainglorious display, should show forth the magnificence of the Deity.

THE SYMBOLISM
In conclusion, Dr. Henderson explained how the chief articles of furniture in the temple were symbolic. Divine justice, law and mercy were there, and the high priest, entering the holy of holies, sprinkled blood to atone for the nation's sins. Christ was the atonement, and the veil separating the innermost sanctuary of the temple from the outer concourse of people was rent in twain so all could enter.

REV. MR. SMYTH
Dozens of people were turned away at the evening service, conducted by the pastor. Mr. Smyth is a splendid speaker, possessing a clear voice, employing correct and simple diction, and makes his whole sermon cohesive and reasoned, without the aid of a note. He was followed closely throughout, and the congregation heard from him a sermon worthy in all respects of the auspicious occasion.

THE TWO SONS
He chose as his text the story of the prodigal son. He dwelt particularly on the son who stayed at home. The prodigal was, at best, a pitiable figure. Scarcely had he arrived at manhood when with confidence and audacity, he demanded his portion, and then going far from home, so as to be free from all restraints, he plunged into the wildest dissipation.

REDEEMED BY HUNGER
Reduced to utter privation, hunger and poverty called him home. It was not so much a change of heart as the thought of his father's wealth which made him repent. And so, declared the preacher, what a sight we have, in body, and carrying in his mind ineffaceable remembrances of his evil courses.

TOO MUCH SYMPATHY
The church-to-day pays too little attention to the steady, faithful worker, who is always true to the cause. There is a tendency to emphasize the redemption of the lost when such a redemption occurs. Children are not taught sufficiently enough that from birth they belong to God, and if they so will their lives they need never stray from home.

MUST REAP THE HARVEST
No matter how great a sinner a man is, he can be redeemed, but he must reap the harvest of his folly. His way is much the harder. Men should ordain their lives like the son who stayed at home, a steady, faithful whose pathway in good deeds becomes daily more easy.

APPROPRIATE MUSIC
Appropriate music was rendered during the services. The choir sang anthems acceptably, while in the morning Mrs. Leeming sang "Nearer

My God to Thee." A gospel song was sung at the evening service by Sydenham Street Old Boys quartette.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SESSION.
The Sunday school session in the afternoon proved to be a most enthusiastic gathering. Perhaps the largest attendance in the history of the school was recorded—238. The superintendent, Mr. Wm. Kinzie, had asked that each scholar bring a copper for every birthday they had had, as a birthday gift to the redecoration fund, thereby hoping to raise $25. The response was an agreeable reply, it amounting to $42.35 in addition to the regular collection. To say that everybody were pleased is only expressing a fact that was quite apparent. On the platform were seated the first teachers and officers of the school—Messrs Dr. Lowery, R. W. Brooks, Robt. Hall, A. J. Dungey, E. Brearly, A. Scruton, G. Miller, G. Markie, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Phillips. Also former superintendents, Isaac Hewitson and W. Eascott. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Smyth, and Rev. C. H. Wolz of Springford, a visitor in the city were also present. The opening prayers were offered by Messrs A. Scruton and G. Markie. Mr. Brooks called the roll of those present 25 years ago, and quite a number responded. He also made a few brief and appropriate remarks. Mr. George Alderson called the roll of the present teachers and officers. The Old Boys Quartette rendered a pleasing selection. Mr. Hewitson, read the lesson for the day, followed by a solo by Mr. George Miller. The birthday offering was then received. The speaker of the afternoon, Dr. David Lowery, the first superintendent, and who is looked upon by many as the father of the school, was then called upon. He was given the Catsquaque salute, and the reception which was tendered him, must have warmed his generous heart. To say that the Doctor was pleased to be present, was only to do credit by his manner of address and the expression of his countenance, and the feeling was reciprocated by the large audience. He made one of the racy and understandable addresses to the scholars for which he is noted, and the attention accorded him, showed that it was thoroughly appreciated. Mr. David Whyte, rendered a solo, followed by prayer by Mr. Wolz. The afternoon was a thoroughly enjoyable one.

SHORT HISTORY OF THE CHURCH.
Sydenham Street church was begun as a mission of the down-town Methodist churches in 1890. The church was opened Oct. 31 of the same year by Rev. John Kay, president of the Hamilton conference, and at the time pastor of Wellington St. church, assisted by the pastor of Brant Avenue church, Rev. James Aude. Within little more than a year the church became self supporting.

WORKINGMAN'S CHURCH.
It is essentially a working man's church. It is a fact related with pride that there is not a moneyed man in the church. Nevertheless $8,000 was raised last year and the church is free of debt. They have purchased a splendid parsonage, and the church is well officered.

TEA MEETING TO-NIGHT.
To-night an old-fashioned tea meeting will be held, to be followed by a concert, which judging by the programme will be of exceptional merit. The meeting to-night will close the anniversary services.

The response for contributions to the redecoration fund was liberal and it is hoped that to-night's proceeds from the tea-meeting will be sufficient to take care of the whole expenditure. A very handsome church calendar was prepared for yesterday's occasion and was distributed freely to the worshippers.

IN FIVE MINUTES NO SICK STOMACH, INDIGESTION, GAS

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes. Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of "Pape's Diapesin", then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why it relieves sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation. This city will have many "Pape's Diapesin" cranks as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery. Get some now this minute and rid yourself of stomach misery and indigestion in five minutes.

FRENCH OFFICIAL

By Special Wire to the Courier.
 Paris, Oct. 4, 2.28 p.m.—French troops have continued to make progress to the north of Arras, according to the announcement given out by the French War Office this afternoon.

There has been almost continuous fighting between the trenches accompanied by artillery exchanges, in the vicinity of Nourouin and Quenneviers.

There has also been artillery fighting in the Champagne district.

A squadron of French aeroplanes has thrown down some forty shells of heavy calibre on the railroad station at Mettle.

THE PROBS

"We have continued to make progress to the north of Arras in the forest of Givenchy and Hill No. 119. Here we occupied the cross roads of five highways."

"There has been almost continuous fighting with hand grenades and bombs accompanied by artillery fighting from each side, in the vicinity of Quenneviers and of Nourouin."

"In the Champagne district there has been artillery fighting in the evening two counter-attacks on the part of the enemy to the north of Meunil were repulsed. The night passed quietly on the remainder of the front."

"One of our air squadrons had thrown down on the Sablonais railroad station at Metz no fewer than forty shells of heavy calibre. Other French aeroplanes have continued to bombard the lines, junction points, and railroad stations behind the German front."

ROBERT WARWICK

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Major-General Sir Sam Hughes to-day received the following cable from Sir Max Aitken, general representative of the Minister of Militia in France:

"Canadian headquarters in France, October 3.—During the latter part of the period, September 20-30, a combined British and French offensive has been steadily developing. Fierce fighting has taken place at various points along the allied line in weather alternating brilliant sunshine and torrential rains.

"Progress has been made on our front. Hostile fire has been somewhat heavier than usual, and the enemy's artillery has been more aggressive, but with little net results. The enemy's aeroplanes and snipers have been particularly active.

"On the morning of Saturday, September 25, a demonstration was carried out by our divisions. The German trenches were heavily manned, and our artillery, machine gun and rifle fire are believed to have caused numerous casualties. The enemy's official communique stated that an attack had been made by us and had been repulsed with heavy loss. This, of course, is false.

"Reports indicate considerable movement of troops in the rear of the enemy's lines opposite our front. Our working parties have repaired the slight damage to our wire and parapets caused by the enemy's shell fire, and have been continuously employed improving our lines. Our patrols continue to be very active at night.

"Major H. H. Matthews has assumed command of the 8th Infantry Battalion."

This fruit medicine gradually toned up the nerves and actually relieved the paralysis. By the use of 'Fruit-a-lives' I grew stronger until all the palsy left me. I am now well and attend my store every day."

ALVA PHILLIPS.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "Fruit Laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, mother! A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a fifty cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the wrapper. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

The mail train from Ennis, Ireland, the other night, while travelling between Clare and Carrigrohane, was struck by a moving train of Ardsallus about four miles from Ennis, ran into a number of cattle on the permanent way with the result that three bullocks were killed. The train went on to Ennis station, and it was then found that the guard's van at the rear was missing. The train was steamed back the line for about a mile, when the van was found on the rails still in charge of the crew.

Mr. Charles Sheppard won the October cup, presented by Mr. W. B. Preston, Saturday afternoon, with the following scores: 80. Mr. W. F. Paterson and Mr. A. S. Towers tied for second place, with 85.

The following players qualified to play off (match play) for the Webby medal, and are drawn as follows: N. D. Neill and Schell; Fitton and Sheppard; Towers and Martin.

A team of about twenty players will motor to Galt on Thursday, weather permitting, to play the return match with the Galt and Waterloo Country Club.

An interesting situation is developing in the Cookstown district in connection with the scutching of flax. The workmen are becoming scarce, as the remuneration, which is all "piece work," is no more now than fifty years ago, and young men will not learn the trade in consequence. A couple of years ago the scutchers attempted to improve their position and held meetings for this purpose, but for lack of combination they were defeated.

The high price of flax last winter and the increased acreage this year has led to a renewal of the movement. This time the initiative has been taken by the mill-owners, who are all farmers, with water-power on their farms, and employing the families of scutchers on the land, as well as providing laborers' cottages as a rule. At present the men who were inadequately paid, and added their own grievances in having to pay what is popularly known as "the two insurances"—the fire and life contribution to the National Health Insurance, and the insurance which is invariably taken to cover the liability under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

The following players qualified to play off (match play) for the Webby medal, and are drawn as follows: N. D. Neill and Schell; Fitton and Sheppard; Towers and Martin.

A team of about twenty players will motor to Galt on Thursday, weather permitting, to play the return match with the Galt and Waterloo Country Club.

An interesting situation is developing in the Cookstown district in connection with the scutching of flax. The workmen are becoming scarce, as the remuneration, which is all "piece work," is no more now than fifty years ago, and young men will not learn the trade in consequence. A couple of years ago the scutchers attempted to improve their position and held meetings for this purpose, but for lack of combination they were defeated.

The high price of flax last winter and the increased acreage this year has led to a renewal of the movement. This time the initiative has been taken by the mill-owners, who are all farmers, with water-power on their farms, and employing the families of scutchers on the land, as well as providing laborers' cottages as a rule. At present the men who were inadequately paid, and added their own grievances in having to pay what is popularly known as "the two insurances"—the fire and life contribution to the National Health Insurance, and the insurance which is invariably taken to cover the liability under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

ROBERT WARWICK

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Major-General Sir Sam Hughes to-day received the following cable from Sir Max Aitken, general representative of the Minister of Militia in France:

"Canadian headquarters in France, October 3.—During the latter part of the period, September 20-30, a combined British and French offensive has been steadily developing. Fierce fighting has taken place at various points along the allied line in weather alternating brilliant sunshine and torrential rains.

"Progress has been made on our front. Hostile fire has been somewhat heavier than usual, and the enemy's artillery has been more aggressive, but with little net results. The enemy's aeroplanes and snipers have been particularly active.

"On the morning of Saturday, September 25, a demonstration was carried out by our divisions. The German trenches were heavily manned, and our artillery, machine gun and rifle fire are believed to have caused numerous casualties. The enemy's official communique stated that an attack had been made by us and had been repulsed with heavy loss. This, of course, is false.

"Reports indicate considerable movement of troops in the rear of the enemy's lines opposite our front. Our working parties have repaired the slight damage to our wire and parapets caused by the enemy's shell fire, and have been continuously employed improving our lines. Our patrols continue to be very active at night.

"Major H. H. Matthews has assumed command of the 8th Infantry Battalion."
