Death's Harveat

MISS MILLIE MARSHALL

At the Academy Home, Wolfville, on May 27th, Miss Millie Marshall passed to her eternal home, at the age of 27 years. Miss Marshall was born at Needham, Mass., but came to Nova Scotia when a child. She attended the Normal College at Truro and taught at Phinney Cove, Church Street, Cornwallis and Parrsboro. She graduated in the Business Course at Acadia Seminary. Although suffering for many years she was always bright and hopeful. She had many friends who loved her dearly. At 12 years of age she joined the Baptist church at Hampton, N. S., was baptized by Rev. R. B. Kinley, who passed away just one week before her. Her many friends feel great sympathy for the faithful, bereaved mother who is left alone to bear the loss of her last child. The funeral service was conducted by Dr. J. H. MacDonald. The interment took place at Hampton, where she was laid to rest beside her father and two brothers. Beautiful floral offerings testified to the esteem and love of her many friends.

MR. E. M. BECKWITH

There passed away on Friday morning last of heart failure, one of the best known and beloved citizens of Canning, E. M. Beckwith. Mr. Beckwith, who was 75 years of age, was the only surviving son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew Beckwith, of Upper Dyke Village. He married for his first wife, Miss Laura Wickwire, a sister of the late Dr. Wickwire, of Halifax. His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Mary A. Starr, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Starr. Mr. Beckwith was a devoted member of the United Baptist church, and was interested in all that pertained to the welfare of the town. The sympathy of the community is extended to the widow in the loss she has been so suddenly called upon to sustain.

In Blossom Time

THE WHOLE COUNTRY IS A PICTURE OF EXQUISITE LOVELINESS.

In a few days now the apple-blossoms will be at their best and the country-side will present a view of enchanting loveliness. Already the pink and white blossoms are much in evidence and many of the early varieties are in full bloom. There can be nothing more delightful than a section such as ours in blossom time. Every tree is a picture and the fragrance of the blossoms fills the air. During recent years the area of orchards in this county has increased wonderfully and in blossom time the whole landscape presents the appearance of a beautiful garden. Wolfville, as the centre of the orchard section, will be visited by large numbers of people during the next few days if the fine weather continues, and those who come will be well repaid for the journey.

Not Good Advertising

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN:

DEAR SIR,—During a drive down the Valley a few days since I noticed that practically all the farms were placarded, "This property for sale", with the name of a real estate agency attached. This, I should think, would be rather poor advertising for our country when the summer travel begins. Nowadays tourists mostly travel by the road in their own cars, and when they see that almost every farmer wants to sell his farm they will naturally wonder why. The only suggestion I have to offer is that the price wanted be included on the placard. When the passer-by saw the conditions under which a sale might be effected he would, perhaps, understand better that after all a good farm is not as undesirable a possession as it would otherwise appear. Wolfville Wins Baseball

DEFEATS KENTVILLE IN EXCITING GAME

The Wolfville boys won their first game in the Annapolis Valley Baseball League on Wednesday afternoon, defeating Kentville by the score of 4 to 3. The game was one of the best ever played in Wolfville, both teams putting up a splendid game. The visitors went to the bat first and scored two runs, Walsh and Simmonds scoring. In this innings Tingley scored for the home team. In the second innings Wolfville got two more runs, giving them the lead. The runs were made by Kenzie and Waterbury. Simmonds again circled the bases for Kentville in the third innings, tying the score. For the next five innings the game was a pitcher's battle, neither side being able to score. Both pitchers showed up well throughout the whole game. In the final innings Kentville again failed to score, and the local boys went to the bat determined to win. Baird went to bat first but was caught out. He was followed by Kenzie who hit out a two-bagger and the crowd went wild. Waterbury was struck out and Vaughn Henshaw went to the bat. The first ball pitched was wild and the catcher missed it, giving Kenzie a chance to get to third. Henshaw then made a safe hit and brought in Kenzie giving the game to Wolfville.

The local boys put up a great exhibition for their first game of the season, and it is no wonder more of the town people will turn out to encourage them. The team showed careful training and Dr. Coit is to be congratulated upon their fine showing.

The teams were as follows:

Kentville	Wolfville
Walsh	catcher E. Henshaw
Burrell	pitcher V. Henshaw
Porter	1st base H. Baird
Simmonds	2nd base E. Kenzie
Neary	3rd base P. Tingley
Lightle	short stop F. Eagles
Hile	l. field H. Evans
Spencer	c. field C. Schurman
Barnaby	r. field G. Waterbury

The referees were: Angus for Wolfville, and Youlds for Kentville.

Bad Fire at Londonderry

A disastrous fire visited the town of Londonderry, Colchester county, on Sunday morning. The fire broke out at 3.30, and fanned by a strong wind, raged with terrific intensity for two and a half hours. At the end of that time forty-seven buildings, including four churches and a school, were totally destroyed. More than twenty families are homeless and in all cases they have lost some, if not all, of their furniture. The fire started from the residence of Archie Lewis, a large double house, and it is supposed to have originated from a spark on the roof. The property loss is estimated at about $250,000 with very little insurance. About half the town was destroyed and it is not likely that it will be rebuilt.

President Cutten has returned from Toronto with a new dignity—or, at any rate, with a new degree. McMaster University has conferred upon him, 'honoris causa,' the degree of Doctor of Divinity. At the McMaster Commencement he delivered both the Baccalaureate sermon and the Commencement address to the graduating class. It seemed very fitting that he should be presented for his degree by Prof. E. M. Keirstead, himself for many years an honored professor at Acadia.—Maritime Baptist.

United States Journalists to Visit Wolfville

Several hundred American journalists, representing at least a thousand of the leading newspapers and magazines of the United States, are to tour Nova Scotia from June 7th to 12th inclusive. The National Editorial Association of the United States meets at Boston the first week of June. About two hundred of the delegates to that convention are expected to accept the invitation of the Canadian National Railways for a tour of the Maritime Provinces. They will reach Yarmouth from Boston on Monday morning and proceed to Halifax where they will spend all day Tuesday.

Wednesday they will be the guests of the Dominion Atlantic Railway. They will come to Kentville by special train that morning and have lunch there. Arrangements are being made to have cars from Kentville and Wolfville take them for a drive in the afternoon. The cars will probably leave Kentville at 1 o'clock and proceed down Belcher Street to Port Williams and around Starr's Point. From there they will go to Greenwich and via the Ridge road to Wolfville. They will spend a few minutes on the College grounds and then proceed through the town. From here they will go to Gaspereau and Grand Pre, where they will again board the train.

Boy Scouts' Annual Hike

The Boy Scouts of Kings county, representing the Wolfville, Waterville, Port Williams and Kentville troops, 70 strong, had their annual hike to Black River Falls on May 24th. Headed by the boys of the newly organized Kentville troop, the whole company started from the Wolfville club-room at 8.30 and marched through the town to the accompaniment of the blowing of bugles and beating of drums. They struck the path over the Ridge into the road which brought them to Stivers Pool at White Rock. After inspecting the dam and the Hydro-electric plant and fish ladder, they were rowed across the river and entered the woods where they struck the trail that wended to the Falls at Black River.

The day was happily spent in scouting games and wood-craft competitions, for which scout knives and chocolate bars were awarded as prizes as follows: For best collection of leaves of trees, Austin Rand, Wolfville; for best collection of wild flowers, Arthur Hale, Kentville; for fire-lighting, Malcome Wallace, Wolfville, and Walter Weaver, Kentville.

Prof. and Mrs. Cavicchia and son left on Saturday for Boston, Mass., where they will spend the vacation.

Notes and Comments

In every city in the United States horse driven vehicles are outnumbered by automobiles ten to one.

The back yard garden suffers sometimes because the man of the house would rather handle a spade on a card than the spade in the shed.

In applying tire chains, never use a tool to draw them so tight that they cannot creep. If the cross grip cannot move to a new position on the tread every time it touches the ground it soon cuts deeply into the rubber and the fabric, seriously weakening the strength of the casing.

Every Methodist minister in Canada and Newfoundland henceforth is to be paid a minimum salary of $1,500, with parsonage and horse-keep in addition, according to a decision arrived at by the Methodist General Conference Committee at Toronto last week.

American tourists visiting Canada do not require passports as a condition of entry to Canada from the United States or as a condition on leaving Canada for the United States, according to a statement just made by the Canadian Department of Immigration and Colonization.

The newspaper is still the cheapest commodity in the market. It is still the cheapest and best form of advertising, and if there are to be fewer newspapers than there have been they will be the more powerful and more capable of supplying the needs of the community in which they circulate.

What has become of the old fashioned word "earn"? Servants are "getting" high wages, bricklayers are "paid" a dollar an hour, and practically everybody is "making" big money. But nothing is heard about anybody "earning" anything. Has a conscience-stricken nation dropped the word?

Postmasters are out for a raise in their pay, which is all right and perfectly natural as things go today. Upon their integrity and faithfulness depends everything in the way of business. The rates have increased little if any for many years past, and their work has been vastly augmented besides in many cases being seriously handicapped. No sensible person will begrudge them as fair a compensation as the government can allow.

Neuralgia and Sciatica

CAUSED BY STARVED NERVES DUE TO WATERY BLOOD

People generally think of neuralgia as a pain in the head or face, but neuralgia may affect any nerve of the body. Different names are given to it when it affects certain nerves. Thus neuralgia of the sciatic nerve is called sciatica, but the character of the pain and the nature of the disease is the same. The cause is the same, and the remedy to be effective, must be the same. The pain of neuralgia, whether it takes the form of sciatica, or whether it effects the face and head, is caused by starved nerves. The blood, which normally carries nourishment to the nerves, for some reason no longer does so and the excruciating pain you feel is the cry of the starved, nerves for food. The reason why the blood fails to properly nourish the nerves is usually because the blood itself is weak and thin.

When you build up the thin blood with Dr. Williams Pink Pills, you are attacking neuralgia, sciatica and kindred diseases at the root. As proof of the value of these pills in cases of this kind we give the statement of Mrs. Thomas McGuire, North Malden, Ont., who says: "I have been a severe sufferer from sciatica, which attacked the sciatic nerve in the left leg. At times the pain was most excruciating and as a result of the trouble there was a distinct shrivelling of the leg. I could only hobble about by using a cane, and if I attempted to walk to the fields I would have to sit down every little while to ease the agony I felt. I was under medical treatment, but as there was no improvement shown, I was getting very despondent, as the trouble was effecting my general health. Finally a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills and I decided to do so. I took the pills faithfully for several months, finding a gradual and increasing improvement in my case until finally every vestige of the trouble had gone, and I was again enjoying the blessing of good health and freedom from pain. What Dr. Williams Pink Pills did for me seems almost a miracle and I hope that my experience may benefit some other sufferer."

If you are suffering from any ailment due to weak blood avail yourself at once of the splendid home treatment which Dr. Williams Pink Pills so easily afford, and you will be among those who rejoice in regained health. These pills are sold by all dealers in medicine, or may be had by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Talking Machine Popular Music

One of the greatest helps in the advancement of music in these latter days is the talking machine which almost since its inception has been a big factor in the development of musical knowledge and appreciation on the part of the public in the school and in the home. As a matter of fact talking machines and records have accomplished more in this direction than perhaps all the other mediums in the music trade and profession combined.

Since the war the American Continent has come to the front among the musical nations of the world. Every band or orchestra concert, every community musical festival or entertainment has its reflex in or on the talking machine which has both popularized the numbers for the singers and musicians and helped renew in many homes the echoes of the concert. All these events, too, have created a direct interest in all kinds of instruments that produce music.

Passing of Acacia Villa School

This school completed what was probably the most successful year in its long history on May 20th. During the sessions the dormitories were filled to capacity and a large number who applied were turned away. From circumstances which were, unavoidable the usual interesting Commencement Exercises were not held, so when the boys had finished their examinations they returned to their homes.

The decision of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson not to re-open in the Autumn will produce a feeling of profound regret through a wide constituency. It will not, however, be a surprise to those who for some time have been familiar with the conditions. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson have been responsible for the conduct of a large farm, an extensive general business and the school for a number of years. The impossibility of securing efficient indoors and outside help has made it apparent for some time that something must be dropped or the result would be physical disaster. To avert it there came the decision to close the School.

Acacia Villa has behind it a history of sixty years. It was established by J. R. Hea, LL.D., in 1852, and taken over by the late A. McNutt Patterson in 1860. Mr. Patterson was not only an educator by profession, but by genius and instinct. His ideal of education was that of the development of the whole man, and his peculiar endowment enabled him to make it actual. Many, including the present Prime Minister of Canada, who was first a pupil and then a pupil teacher in the school, who are rendering conspicuous service in every department of Canada's national life, remember with gratitude the restraint, the guidance, the inspiration, as well as the broadened outlook which came to them while they were under his influence. He is reverently remembered because he has enriched their lives.

In 1907, when the father was compelled because of the advance of time to lay down his responsibility, his son, Mr. A. H. Patterson, and his cultured wife took it up and have maintained the high tradition of the institution to the present. As a School for teen age boys it has had no superior in the Maritime Provinces. A boy in his teens, may retrograde under the most favorable conditions, but no where was he more safe than at Acacia Villa. Parents had confidence in the Management, when they sent their boys there. It was not only a School but a home. An hour in the School Office any evening would reveal this. The boys came to Mrs. Patterson with their wants and troubles as to a natural parent. Thus the high tradition of the founder was perpetuated and for the long period of 60 years Acacia Villa has contributed to what is best in life. The passing away of such an institution and closing of the door of such an opportunity cannot but be regretted by all who are interested in education in our Province.

Lady Astor's Maiden Speech

Sir John Rees, the Co.-Unionist member for East Nottingham, in the House of Commons last night, called attention to the hardship involved in maintaining in time of peace restrictions on liberty in respect of the consumption of liquor which were willingly tolerated in time of war.

There was considerable cheering when Viscountess Astor caught the Speaker's eye. As soon as it was known that she was speaking members flocked into the Chamber to hear the first speech ever delivered in Parliament by a woman.

Lady Astor spoke before a crowded House in a clear and well modulated voice, with just a tinge of nervousness, and her facts and arguments were well marshalled. She said she would not begin by craving the indulgence of the House. She was only too conscious of the indulgence and courtesy of the House. She knew it was very difficult for some hon. members to receive the first lady in the House. It was almost as difficult for some of them as it was a lady member of Parliament to come in. They need not be nervous about what Plymouth might send as its representative. She supposed that in the case of Drake and Raleigh, when they set out on their venturesome careers, some said: "Don't go—cruise around home waters." The same thing may have been said when the Pilgrim Fathers set out. But she thought the whole world had been the better for those venturesome and courageous West Country people, and she would like to say that she was quite certain that the whole world would not forget that it was the fighting men of Devonshire who sent the first woman to represent them in the House of Commons. (Cheers.) She wanted, as the first lady member, to show the same courage. It did require a bit of courage to address the House on the vexed question of drink. However, she would do it.

The convictions among women were reduced to one-fifth during the war after these vexatious restrictions were brought in. She could talk for five hours on the moral gain. (Cries of "Go on" and cheers.) If hon. members would stop drinking they would not cavil at these restrictions. Already, after these restrictions had been somewhat modified, some of this moral gain had been lost, for the convictions among women had been more than doubled. In the last year the convictions among men had been increased fourfold.

Lady Astor went on to say that she had as good sense of humor as any hon. member, but when she thought of the ruin and desolation as a result of drink she found it a little difficult to be humorous. She was thinking about the freedom of children. She was not so tremendously excited about what was called freedom of men. Men would get their freedom. She did not want to rob them of anything that was good for them, and she asked the House to consider seriously this question.

The real lesson of the war, so far as drink was concerned, was that State purchase got the largest amount of progress with the least amount of unrest. What made revolution? Reaction made revolution. (Cheers.)

She admitted that the time was not ripe for prohibition, but she hoped that some time England would come to prohibition. She hoped the time would come when England would go dry, but it was not ready, yet the time was ripe for drastic reform.

The House, Lady Astor added, must remember that women had now got the vote and would use it wisely, not for the benefit of any section of society, but for the benefit of the country as a whole.

She wanted to know whether the Prime Minister was master in his own house with regard to the drink question. She did not believe he was in the strangling hands of the trade and profiteers. They had not placed the Premier where he was. There were thousands of people who believed with him on the drink question, and there was a real awakening throughout the country in regard to it.

Lady Astor, when she resumed her seat, received a great ovation.

WHITE RIBBON BULLETIN.

$5,000 provision for your home — plus — $50 a month indemnity for yourself

Guaranteed to You Under Our New Special Indemnity Plan

It safeguards your income—

—protects your home, and——if you become permanently disabled—

—pays you $50 a month for life, and guarantees $5,000 to your family.

Whatever your income may be, a certain part of it is vital to your existence. Let us suppose that vital sum is

$50 a Month

That you must have.

But---

If some day, before you reach age sixty, you should become totally and permanently disabled through accident, paralysis, nervous break-down, blindness, rheumatism, or any mishap or illness that would leave you without an income and unable to earn a living—

How Could You Get Along?

From a financial standpoint that would be worse for you, for your family, and for your business than the loss of your life because, while your income would stop, your expenses would go on just the same.

Suppose, however, now that you are in good health, you take out a Canada Life Special Indemnity Policy—

Your Problem is Solved.

The Canada Life would become responsible for sending you $50.00 a month (or more, as you may have arranged) for the rest of your life.

When totally disabled you cannot earn premiums, so the premiums cease.

You will also need immediate funds. By allowing your dividends to accumulate for a few years you would have a substantial cash sum at your credit ready for an emergency.

The Policy will go on earning dividends which will be paid to you in addition to your income.

What Then?

It makes no difference how long you may live and continue to draw the monthly income, the Policy still carries the full $5,000 payable to your beneficiary. In other words, not one dollar of all that you receive in monthly payments will be deducted from the amount of the Policy.

Nothing Left to Chance.

This is the Policy you will want when you know how completely it does away with hazards that you are now taking. The premium required for all these benefits is very moderate.

Editorial Jottings

The street authorities should at the earliest possible opportunity have the work of re-surfacing Main street attended to. This should have been done long ago and the longer it is delayed the more difficult and expensive it will become. "A stitch in time saves nine" in this as well as in most other things.

The difficulty that has been experienced by the members of the Athletic Association in securing suitable grounds for an athletic field has suggested that when the work of filling in at the "bridge" has been completed enough area will have been reclaimed to furnish a very good athletic ground in a central part of the town. The "filling in" does not appear to be progressing very rapidly. Isn't anybody interested? The undertaking is not a big one and the expense required would be amply justified by the improvement made in that part of the town. In addition to this if a suitable field is thus provided for athletic sports it would seem that the work should be proceeded with as rapidly as possible. Here is a chance for some real service.

You've Got to be Warm to be Happy

A COLD HOUSE is more than disagreeable. It is miserable. There is no relief. Warm Air—the simplest and least costly of all heating systems, is the best for cleanliness, health and comfort. Stoves and base-burners throw their dust all over the house and only heat parts of it. They heat the same air over and over again. The Enterprise Blazer combines heating and ventilation and it furnishes the moisture your lungs must have. The is a comfort that you owe to yourself and your family—to your pocket-book, too—for it is a money-saver on the coal. After thirty-five years of furnace building, it is the most economical furnace we know how to make.

Health and Comfort

Furnaces look alike—but they differ. Talk the matter over with your dealer and write us for our free booklet on the subject—“Warmth and Comfort”. It will give you a lot of useful information.

Home Baking Helps

HOW A BIG INSTITUTION HELPS WOMEN WITH THEIR FOOD PROBLEMS

The extent of the educational work that is carried on by such a great manufacturer as the Royal Baking Powder Company is a revelation to those who have not heard of it before, and the house-keeper who keeps in touch with their activities receives all the practical benefits of a domestic science course with the theories extracted.

At Royal Headquarters an entire department, called the Educational Department, under the direction of a well-known Home Science Expert, is continually at work, creating new recipes that the housewife may have a variety of home-baked foods, devising new and easier ways of preparing old dishes to help save the house-keeper's time, and experimenting with economical food combinations to save the housewives money.

Many women do not realize the importance of home baking, the decidedly different results which different baking powders give and its importance in relation to the health of the family. The Royal Educational Department shows women how wholesome and economical is home baking. Nourishing foods are properly combined and leavened with an absolutely pure healthful baking powder—not a chemically built powder—but a real food product made from the cream of tartar of grapes. Good egg-saving cakes, home-made pastries, breads and delicious breakfast dishes which may supplant eggs at breakfast when variety is desired or eggs are high in price, are devised.

After each recipe has been given the “economy” test—to prove that it is inexpensive—the “method” test to prove that it is easy to make and practical, and the “taste” test—to prove that it is appetizing and delicious, it is ready for publication. Thousands of women read and use these recipes which are now appearing in our newspapers. If you have not seen them look for them in this newspaper for they will help you to give your family varied and delicious meals that are also economical even for these high-cost days.

Such a constructive work as that of the Royal Educational Department is of real practical value, and receives, as it truly deserves, the hearty approval and commendation of such mundane persons as you and I—who eat three meals a day.

Our Debt to the Cow

In 1492, when Columbus made his second voyage to America, the cow came with him. Her sons helped to till the soil for our ancestors, and slowly moved the products of the farm to the market. They went with man to the dense forests of the new world, helped to clear them for homes and made cultivation possible for the coming generation, and when the tide of emigration turned west-ward they hauled the belongings of the pioneer across the sun-scorched plains and great mountain ranges to new home beyond.

Truly, the cow is man's greatest benefactor. Hail, winds, drouths and floods may come, destroy our crops and banish our hopes, but from what is left the cow manufactures into the most nourishing and life-sustaining foods, and is she not foster-mother and life itself to countless thousands of little children all over this world of ours? We love her for her docility, her beauty and her usefulness. Her loyalty has never weakened, and should misfortune overtake us as we become bowed down with the weight of years, we know that in the cow we have a friend that is never known to falter. She pays the debt.—E. G. Bennett, Missouri Dairy Commissioner.

“I'm quite a near neighbor of yours,” said Mr. Bore, “I'm living just across the river.”

“Indeed,” replied Miss Smart, “I hope you'll drop in some day.”

Truro has adopted Daylight Saving time, to go into effect on June 13th and continue until August 29th.

An Established Reputation

The quality of KING COLE ORANGE PEKOE TEA needs no explanation. Its four years of service to the public has earned for it a reputation of which we are justly proud. From the first we claimed it to be “the extra in choice tea.”

Users repeatedly tell us it is all that and more. We shall see to it that it is never any less.

KING COLE ORANGE PEKOE TEA

“THE EXTRA IN CHOICE TEA”

There are five simple ways to tell good tea.

First, by the bright copper color of the tea when steeped.

Second, by the exquisite aroma.

Third, by the delightful, refreshing flavor.

Fourth, by the satisfying richness.

Fifth, by the economical strength.

Make a brewing and you will find all these qualities combined in Red Rose.

When Baby is Sick

When the baby is sick—when he is cross and peevish; cries a great deal and is a constant worry to the mother—he needs Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are an ideal medicine for little ones. They are a gentle, but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, banish constipation and indigestion, break up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. Concerning them Mrs. Philippe Payen, St. Flavien, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets have been a wonderful help to me in the case of my baby and I can strongly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cent a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
