EXTRAORDINARY FACT.—The Cincinnati Enquirer gives the following account of a singularly romantic episode in life which occurred recently: About six years since, a lady named Mrs. Martha Wood, accompanied by her son, his wife, and a couple of children, arrived in this city from New Bedford, Mass. She stated that she was a widow of some twenty-four years' standing, her husband having lost been mate of a whaler which had been at sea. The family have resided for a great portion of the time on Liberty Street,
 Mr. Wood, the son, working at his trade, which is that of a cooper.

Yesterday morning, a gray-headed and toil-worn man called at the residence of the family, and seeing Mr. Wood, inquired for the widow, who being called into the room, while gazing intently at the stranger, whose eyes were fixed mournfully upon her, requested to know his business. "Do you not know me, Martha?" said he, and as the sound of his voice, like the memory of an olden melody, met her ear, she gave vent to a hysterical cry and fainted in the arms which were opened to receive her.

The tale is soon told. The ship in which he had made his last voyage from New-Be-dford was cast away in the South Sea islands, and he was one of the few who escaped a watery grave. After enduring almost unheard of privations, he succeeded, after thirty years' absence, in reaching his native land. From a brother of his wife, he learned their present location, and arrived here to find her whom he had left a young and blooming bride far advanced in the evening of life, while the infant upon whose lips, when last he saw him, he had imprinted a father's kiss, and who could then scarcely lisp his name, was now a stalwart man and the head of a family. How many hopes and fears must have agitated the heart of the old mariner, as he again set foot, after his long pilgrimage, upon his native soil.

A TRIBUTE TO THE ST. LAWRENCE.
 —A correspondent of the N. Y. Courier & Enquirer pays the following eloquent tribute to the River St. Lawrence:—

A river where every mile of its shore is thronged with the wild or beautiful—a river which begins in giant size and retains it, augments it, till it goes out in the gloomy grandeur of the Northern Gulf—
 a river which now in broken waves leaves the gloaming granite edge of its islands and inlets, more numerous than were the legends by which the oriental story-teller beguiled the anger of the Sultan, and then breathes out in lakes, each one of breadth and volume sufficient to be a famous thing in its own right—a river which woke the melody of Moore, and on which Wolfe floated to his fight of victory—a river such as this will always be a chosen pathway for the tens of thousands of all lands who travel to see the bold and the beautiful.

About six times the usual amount of winter wheat, it is said, has been sown in West 2d Missouri this year.

The best and most conclusive reason for an effect, that we ever remember to have heard, writes a western correspondent, was one given by a one-idea Dutchman, in reply to a friend who remarked,
 "Why, Hans, you have the most feminine cast of countenance I have ever seen."
 "Oh, well," was the reply; "I know de reason for dat; mine moder was a woman."

"A BOLD STROKE FOR A HUSBAND."
 —A new method is now adopted by ladies of a "certain age," to obtain the partners. An intellectual, pleasant looking, prettily dressed female, just turned of thirty, invests twenty-five cents in a daguerrotyp for her own sweet self, which she carefully drops on the sidewalk of a crowded street. Somebody picks it up; finds out the owner—and marries her
 of course!

Upon the conclusion of a marriage in a village church, the bridegroom signed the register with "his X mark." The pretty young bride did the same, and then turning to a lady who had known her, as the best scholar in the school, whispered to her, while tears of love and admiration stood in her bright eyes.
 "He's a dear fellow, Miss, but cannot write yet. He's going to learn of me, and I would not shame him for the world."

The Great American Hair Tonic.
 Bogle's celebrated Hyperion Fluid, for the growth and preservation of the Hair is well known to be without a rival on this continent. Hundreds of imitations have started into an ephemeral existence, since the introduction of this unrivalled Hair restorative, and their doom been sealed, whilst Bogle's Hyperion Hair Fluid, with a popularity never attained by any other article, goes on "conquering and to conquer."
 There is no malady, which can affect the Hair, but can be cured by this incomparable preparation. To ladies it is invaluable; and on children's heads it lays the foundation of a good head of Hair. It is now patronized by Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain, and commands an extensive sale throughout Europe.
 Bogle's Electric Hair Dye converts red or grey hair into a beautiful black or brown, the moment it is applied, literally dyeing the hair without staining the skin and leaving the Hair soft and glossy without injuring its texture in the least; a decided superiority over all other Hair dyes.
 Bogle's Amole Shaving compound renders that usually unpleasant operation (shaving) a decided luxury.
 Bogle's Hebraic removes Freckles and tan from the face in the shortest possible time, and is acknowledged to be the very best article for beautifying the complexion.
 To be had, wholesale or retail, of W. Bogle, 227, Washington street, Boston, U. S.
 And by all Druggists and perfumers throughout the Canada, United States and Great Britain. W. R.
 WATSON, Agent for P. E. I.

GILMAN'S HAIR DYE.
 The best article ever used, as hundreds can testify in this city and surrounding country. Read! GIL-MAN'S LIQUID HAIR DYE instantaneously changes the hair to a brilliant jet Black or glossy Brown, which is permanent—does not stain or in any way injure the skin. No article ever yet invented which will compare with it. We would advise all who have grey hairs to buy it, for it never fails.

 ventor and Sole Proprietor.

 in Fancy Articles, throughout the United States.

FROM THE UNITED STATES.

Congress met on the 2d inst., but owing to the complicated state of parties resulting from the late elections no choice of Speaker had been made up to the 6th, the latest date from Washington, and until this matter is disposed of, the President's Message will not be delivered, nor any other business transacted. Contrary to general usage, the President's Message has not been communicated to the Press in advance of its delivery, so that that document, which will be of much interest to all British subjects, is not yet before the public. The news from Central America is not interesting. The filibusters Kinney and Walker still continued to meet with success in their expeditions, and volunteers from California were flocking to their standards. The new Nicaraguan government, of which the latter was a member, and de facto head and director, had been formally recognized by the American minister at Grenada, the Capital of the State, thus showing in the most unmistakable manner the approval with which the American government look on these piratical aggressions. The Boston Courier says, "it can scarcely be supposed, that so grave a step," as that alluded to, "would have been taken by our minister, without his having in advance authority and direction how to use it." Already annexation is spoken of as an inevitable sequence to the events just transpired, respecting which the same paper says:

"Besides the external aspect of the Central American question, we have another, wholly within ourselves, to consider. It is this:—Are we ready to entertain the idea of another accession to the territory of the United States, if it shall come in the shape of more slave states?"

The foreign enlistment question has almost ceased to agitate the Union, although an effort still appears to be made by the government portion of the press to establish an impression, that the American Government has been insulted, and their laws violated by Great Britain, in the person of Mr. Crampton, for which the government of the latter country positively refused all explanation or apology. A letter on the subject, addressed to James Vandyke Esq., who was the prosecuting Atty. in the late foreign enlistment trials in Philadelphia, by the hon. Joseph Howe of this Province, has been published, which goes far to confirm the statement formerly attributed to Mr. Crampton, that the attempt to implicate him was a vile scheme concocted by worthless foreigners and filibustering Americans, in the hope of embroiling the two nations, and that the American Government followed up these prosecutions, more for the sake of the political capital to be made from it, than for the purpose of vindicating the national honor. If the United States is a land of slavery, fortunately it can at least boast a free press, otherwise this testimony might have been suppressed by Mr. Attorney General Cushing, as easily as he prevented any evidence being given on the trials above mentioned, but such as suited his own dishonourable purposes. Mr. Howe brings documentary evidence to prove, that Mr. Crampton, previous to countenancing any steps for procuring recruits, had obtained the written opinion of an eminent American lawyer, as to the correct interpretation of the neutrality laws, and that in all that he did he in no way exceeded what he had a perfect right to do, as conceded by that opinion. That the law was violated, he admits, but these violations were by irresponsible persons, who either exceeded their instructions or else acted solely on their own responsibility, with the object of making money or for worse purposes. These are the persons, upon whose testimony Mr. Crampton has been implicated. Mr. Howe's opinion of their character and credibility may be inferred from what he says of Hertz, the principal witness:

"Hertz was not, and never had been a soldier. He was simply a Jew Crimp of great pretensions. Bustling, active, boastful, and mendacious. Judas Iscariot, in his younger days, might have been just such a person. My very first impression of him was, that he would not only sell his Saviour for thirty pieces of silver, but the President of the United States, and Mr. Crampton both, for half the money." This language is much more forcible than elegant, and is not such as is expected from one gentleman addressing another; but probably Mr. Howe thought that from the conduct of Mr. Vandyke and Mr. Cushing in conducting the prosecutions, he had a right to question their claim to the title, and that doubting their appreciation of a more courteous phrase, he must couch his contempt for them and their minions in terms which they can understand.—Pictou Chronicle.

The new ship Black Watch, owned by Geo. McKenzie, Esq., of New Glasgow, recently noticed in our columns, was wrecked at Bay St. Lawrence, near Cape North, on the 24th ult., three days after leaving port. The crew all saved, but much bruised and frostbitten. Capt. Menzies had his family on board and one of his children, aged about two years, was drowned in the surf; its body was afterwards recovered. A large quantity of clothing and other goods, the contributions of members of the Presbyterian Church of Nova Scotia for the use of their Foreign Mission, valued at about £250, which was on board the Black Watch, to be forwarded to England to Mr. Geddis at Ancitum, by the mission ship John Williams, has been lost. This is a severe blow to the friends of the mission, and the loss will be severely felt by the devoted laborers in Ancitum, who must find their means of usefulness much restricted for the want of these necessary articles, until they can be replaced.—Pictou Chronicle.

NEW TELEGRAPH.—The New York Herald announces the formation of a mammoth telegraph company, which proposes to lease old lines or build new ones, so as to bring under the control of one concern a network of wires leading from New York to every prominent business point in the Union. They have leased all the direct lines between New York and Nova Scotia, the management of which they will assume in January. They propose in the spring to build new lines to the South and West. The newly invented telegraphic machine, which this company intends to employ, is, if it performs what the inventor claims for it, the most wonderful realization of the inventive faculty that the world has yet seen. It is the work of a citizen of Kentucky, before unknown to fame, and is known as Hughes' Electro-Magnetic Printing Telegraph. The patentee claims for his machine, that it will deliver messages in printed words with a celerity before unheard of—that it can be operated by any person who can read—that for strictly private messages, it can omit intermediate stations—and that it requires but one wire, upon which messages can be sent each way at the same time, that is, from Boston to St. John and from St. John to Boston at the same time! The Company have purchased the right for North America for $100,000. The agent of the inventor has gone to Europe to secure patents. The London Times has offered a large sum for the right for England.

SAMUEL ZIMMERMAN, owner of the Clifton House, on the Canadian side, two years ago paid $12,000 for 200 acres of rockland, from his premises to the suspension Bridge on the Canada side, now called Elgin. An offer of £240,000 from a company, last week, for the same purchase, deducting the lots already sold at the bridge, which amount to some £20,000, was refused.

THE MILK VEIN.—We often hear, in the description of cows, the "milk vein" spoken of as though it communicated with the udder and supplied to it the milk. Mr. Stephens says:

"There is also another fallacy in regard to the milking properties of a cow, which should be exposed—I mean the notion of a large milk vein below the belly indicating the milking powers of the cow. The vein, commonly called the milk vein, is the subcutaneous vein, and has nothing to do with the udder, it belongs to the respiratory system, and is the means of keeping up an equilibrium in the blood between the fore and hind quarters. This vein certainly indicates a strongly developed vascular system, which is favourable to secretion generally, and no doubt is so to that of the milk among the rest."

The weather for the past two weeks has been boisterous and unsettled, there having been several heavy gales of wind, principally at night, and accompanied with slight squalls of snow. On Friday afternoon, it blew a gale from the north-east, which caused the tide to rise in this harbor, higher than it has been known before within the memory of any person residing here. All the wharfs were flooded, and many of the cellars on Water street were filled to the depth of from two and a half to four feet, causing a good deal of damage to such goods as could not be removed. An accident occurred on board the steamer George McKenzie on the same evening and from the same cause. On her last trip from Pictou on that day, on attempting to come to, at her wharf at New Glasgow, the tide which was running up the river with considerable strength, caught the boat and swept her against the bridge with such force as to smash the paddle-boxes, and break down the smoke pipe, which fell on deck, seriously injuring the captain, and another person less severely.—Pictou paper.

The telegraph line between Antigonish and McNair's Cove has been out of order so that no messages could be transmitted for nearly three weeks. The submarine wire across the strait of Canso has also been damaged, so as to prevent the transmission of messages, but we have not heard whether to such an extent as to render it necessary to take up and relay the cable.

DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE.—An accident of a most distressing character, which resulted in the death of Mrs. Barbara Harris, relict of the late Mr. Isaac Harris, and second daughter of Mr. Robert Dawson, of Pictou, occurred in that town on the 20th inst. While engaged in some domestic employment she was terribly scalded with a kettle of boiling water that she expired the same evening, after suffering the most dreadful agony for ten hours. It is not clearly known how the accident occurred, she being alone at the time. The deceased was about 22 years of age, and leaves an infant daughter fifteen months old. The amiable character and Christian virtues of Mrs. Harris had endeared her to a very large circle of friends, and her sudden decease has cast a gloom over the whole community of Pictou.

HALIFAX, Dec. 9.

THE RAILWAY.—The Gazette of Wednesday contains a statement of the Traffic on the Nova Scotia Railway, and the incidental expenses, in three periods, between the 8th June and 22d November, 1855. The Trains commenced running on the 8th of June—four trains per day—to 9 mile station, 6 miles, two months, and to Sackville, 8 miles, one month. The returns for the quarter ending 8th September, give the number of miles run 4,466, and the passengers carried from station to station 17,602.

The Revenue received during the same period was—£1,018 4 3
Against which are the expenses, including maintenance of Way, Locomotive charges, repairs, traffic charges, and depreciation of rolling stock. 437 15 4

Net Receipts. £580 8 10
The second period is from the 8th to the 21st September, when the running of the trains was accidentally interrupted—four trains a day—the miles run during that time being 656, the number of passengers carried, 3,258, and the gross earnings of the road, £174, 11s. 6d.

The trains recommenced running on the 22d October, from which time to the 22d November, the number of miles run was 1,315, the passengers carried, 4,715, and the gross receipts, £272 13s. 7d.—Recorder

A WELL MERITED TESTIMONIAL.—It is gratifying to learn that the inhabitants of St. John's, Newfoundland, comprising all classes of the community, have determined on presenting a testimonial of their respect and esteem to F. N. Gisborne, Esq., the able and indefatigable introducer of communication by Electric Telegraph into that Colony. The plate agreed upon for this purpose is to be manufactured in London, and will be completed at an early date. The whole of British North America is deeply indebted to Mr. Gisborne for his exertions in securing and perfecting the Electric Telegraph in the several Provinces.—Chronicle.

At Woolwich, on Thursday, one of the cast-iron guns taken at the capture of Bomarsund underwent an experimental trial. The gun, a 56-pounder, has been bored for our Lancashire shells, which on this occasion were heavily filled with lead to the weight of 2cwt. 8lb. each shell, and fired 7lb. of powder. The Russian metal, contrary to all expectation, withstood the experiment unharmed, when a second round was fired with the same result. A few more of this class of guns, likewise captured at Bomarsund, are lying on the arsenal quay, and are to be subjected to a like change in their calibre. Colonel Wilnot, Capt. Boxer, and the officer who accompanied them in their inspection of the continental foundries, have returned to Woolwich with the conviction, that our foreign neighbors are supplied with gun materials far superior to our own.

Our clandestine trade with Russia was frankly confessed to in a case which came before the Southwark magistrate, on Wednesday, in which a laborer was charged with stealing a quantity of Russian tallow from Mark Brown's wharf in that city. Mr. Combe asked, who the tallow belonged to? One of the owners of Mark Brown's wharf said, that the tallow had just come from Russia, consigned to an English firm; and it was unloading at the wharf, to be bonded for the owners:—

"Mr. Combe—'You say, this is Russian tallow, and unloading from a vessel just arrived; how is it that you have Russian tallow from that country when we are at war?' Wharfinger—'Easy enough, sir. We have large dealings with Russia, although we are at war, and our money is extensively received there in return. Nearly all our tallow comes from Russia.' Mr. Combe—'How does it come from Russia, when all her ports are blockaded and the war is proceeding?' Witness—'It comes through Prussia, your worship. The tallow in question came from Memel, in a Dutch vessel. Mr. Combe—'What part of Russia does this tallow come from?' Wharfinger—'From St. Petersburg. It is there sold by the merchants on English account to the care of a Prussian firm, who convey it through Russia and Prussia to Memel, where it is publicly shipped to England. Not only tallow comes into the market largely from Russia, but hemp, flax, and dyewoods. We are constantly receiving those sort of goods; but tallow is declining, so much so, that the prices are much higher, having risen to 73s. the cwt.'"

There are some things upon which men continue to differ most unaccountably, and those of a nature which it might be supposed there would be the greatest unanimity; one of these is climate. Ask any of the old people of your acquaintance, whether the winters now are milder or more severe than when they were young; many will say, that the winters are more open than formerly, and tell long stories about sleighing in November, and that at Christmas, the rivers were invariably frozen over. Others will seem to accede to this truth, but then on recollection, they will count up such a number of open winters during their youthful days, that one is compelled to think, that the climate has undergone no very material change for the last half century at least. There is, we apprehend, as yet, too much forest and waste land between this and the Pacific, in which immense masses of snow accumulate, over which the atmosphere, to a certain height, is deprived of its caloric or warmth, and when set in motion by electrical or other causes, becomes the chilling blasts we experience after the month of October. The British Isles are warmer than these Provinces, though situate under more northerly parallels of latitude; this is accounted for by the westwardly and north-westwardly winds blowing over large portions of the open water of the Atlantic. The Oregon territory is said to possess a most delightful climate, and this is also accounted for by its proximity to the Pacific. We are inclined to think, that this correct method of accounting presented by different temp same parallels of latitude though warm in summer, as cold, if not colder the winter season. THE HEART KNOWETH ITS OWN BITTERNESS.

Oh judge not by the outward smile
The bliss thy brother feels,
For oft, too oft, a laughing face
A breaking heart conceals.

Too oft the smile of seeming joy
Is but a mask to hide
The inward throbbings of a heart,
Whose joys long since have died.

Full many a source of grief is there,
Thou may'st not—cannot know
Although thy passing glance may note
No trace of inward woe.

Full many a sorrow-mourning thought
Is working darkly there,
Although that smiling life and eye
No trace of sorrow bear.

The rose that in the scabrous smile
Appears most bright and gay,
Oft in the bosom bears the worm
That eats its life away.

So hidden 'neath a smiling brow
Some spring of woe may lie,
Some speechless grief that seems to seek Relief in tear or sigh.

TO THE EDITOR OF HASZARD'S GAZETTE.

Sir;

It has been reported that one or two Government measures have been refused the Royal assent; if true, we are curious to know, if Responsible Government is the same as it was two or three years ago, when a Despatch was received disallowing the One-Ninth Bill, the Council then unanimously tendered their resignations to His Excellency, but were not accepted; and in the following Session Mr. Pope said, he had obtained leave from His Excellency, and rose to state the reasons why the Council had resigned to the House, but was disallowed from doing it, by Mr. Coles saying there would be better opportunities by and by. Sir, if the principles of Responsible Government are carried out now, the same as they were when the One-Ninth Bill was disallowed, the Council of course will tender their resignations, and if His Excellency accept of them, a General Election must be near at hand.

Your most obedient servant.

LIVER COMPLAINT.

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, such as Constipation, inward Piles, fullness, or blood to the head, acidity of the stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, disgust for food, fullness or weight in the stomach, sour eructations, sinking, or fluttering at the pit of the stomach, swelling of the head, hurried and difficult breathing, fluttering at the heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, fever and dull pain in the head, deficiency of perspiration, yellowness of the skin and eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, Limbs, &c., sudden flushes of heat, burning in the flesh, constant imaginings of evil, and great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by DOCTOR HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON, German Medicines Store.

No. 120 Arch St., one door below Fifth Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not equalled, if equaled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cases attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of Invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are vital safe, certain, and pleasant.

Testimony from Maine. CAPT. DANIEL ABBOTT, Brooklyn, Maine, July 16, 1843, says: "I was taken sick one year ago, last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charlottetown, S. C. At the latter place I took medicine and prepared a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of 'Hoofland's German Bitters' in it, I sent for some immediately, this was about 10 o'clock, at 11 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me, that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man. I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charlottetown and the West India Islands ever since. I have now given up going to sea, and reside in this place, where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

JOE B. HALL & Co., Presque Isle, Araratook Co., Maine, April 24, 1854, say: "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters, we think Mr. Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story."

Messrs. Joe. B. Hall & Co.—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries, I will state that my daughter, aged about 16 years, had been complaining of a pain in her side, for six or seven years, and about the first January last, was taken down and confined to her bed. The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by "Hoofland's German Bitters" I was induced to try it in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years. She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters. WILLIAM CLARK, Salmon Brook, Araratook Co., Me.

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are ENTIRELY VEGETABLE, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases.

For sale by respectable dealers and stereokeeps generally.

We are inclined to think, that this must be the most correct method of accounting for the anomalies presented by different temperatures under the same parallels of latitude. The Crimea, although warm in summer, would appear to be as cold, if not colder than this Island, in the winter season. Now, that the Mechanics' Institute is a corporate body, it may become the nucleus, if its members will only exert themselves, of a scientific institution, the records of which should abound in thermometrical, meteorological and barometrical observations. There is scattered about in the files of the different newspapers, a considerable amount of this species of knowledge, which would be well worth the labor of condensing and arranging under their different heads. And we would suggest, that a moderate premium for a collection of this sort would reflect credit upon the Institute, and be the means of rescuing from oblivion an interesting series of facts. It would be of no small consequence also, to compare the results with the observations of philosophers in Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Russia, tables of which are not hard to obtain. We should then see, that we are not so badly off in point of climate as many people suppose, that there is nothing to prevent Prince Edward Island from becoming not only distinguished for agricultural productions, but that philosophy, literature and science may be made to flourish here, as well as in other countries we have just enumerated. It was said on Tuesday evening so night at the Soiree, that the Island had produced no man of science, or mechanic of eminence. We trust, that this reproach will be soon wiped off; there is a sufficiency of talent and genius in the youth of the country, but it has had as yet, very imperfect and insufficient culture. The day is not to dawn, we hope, upon a different state of things, and as the country advances in population and riches, so it will progress in the higher matters of intellectual wealth, and not be afraid to send her sons to the uttermost ends of the earth, having first, like a conscientious parent, furnished them with an education, that will enable them to cope with the men of any country. We intend to take up the question of Education very shortly, and trust to be able to rouse the public mind to greater exertions on this all-important subject.

Mrs DALY, as Patroness, and the Ladies of the Committee of Management of the Bazaar, beg to acknowledge the receipt of a communication from the Committee having charge of the Temperance Hall in this City, generously granting the gratuitous use of the Hall for the purpose of holding the Bazaar on the 27th inst., for raising a fund to aid the poor of the City, for which benevolent act they tender their united thanks.

Mrs. Daly and the Ladies of the Committee also acknowledge the receipt of a communication from Mr. Lobban's Band, offering their gratuitous services for the same charitable object, and which kind offer they thankfully accept.

POLAR BEARS.—There are a couple of these inhabitants of our Northern Seas, on exhibition in Halifax; the Morning Journal says: themselves of the opportunity offered in visiting the Store opposite the Engine House, wherein the two White Polar Bears are exhibited. The creatures are a novelty, and well worth seeing. They appear to be quite docile, until disturbed; but the moment the female bear is annoyed, she pounces upon the male, with all the impetuosity of a tigress, as if he was the aggressor; and the poor gentleman, after undergoing a considerable tearing, utters a growl or two, calmly resigns the breeches, and quietly submits to female preponderance. These beasts are very stout limbed; they devour fish or meat, very greedily, and Mrs. Bruin must be helped first, or otherwise there will be a row in the cage, and Master Bruin suffer for all. These savage and ferocious animals throw themselves into innumerable positions, which are both amusing and interesting; and they appear to be possessed with a good amount of sagacity, for when Mrs Bruin is fatigued, Mr. Bruin very politely lies down for her pillow.

[From the Boston Daily Chronicle, Nov. 27.] THE STATE OF THE WAR AT THE END OF THE SECOND YEAR.

Whoever may wish to understand, thoroughly, how vast is the advance that has been made by the Allies in the war, has only to cast his mind's eye back to this time a year ago, and contrast the things that now are with the things that then were.

Whoever may wish to understand, thoroughly, how vast is the advance that has been made by the Allies in the war, has only to cast his mind's eye back to this time a year ago, and contrast the things that now are with the things that then were.

It may feed the hopes of the Russian sympathizers to tell them of the Crimea not having been conquered, of their friends the barbarians still holding the "North side," of the strong positions occupied by Gortschakoff and his lieutenants, and of the repulse of the 18th of June—but it is all useless clamour.

sought on the one side, and stubbornly defended on the other, Hundreds of millions of people gazed upon the awful conflict and watched its fluctuations.

But, in the same proportion that victory would have been beneficial to Russia's interests, must defeat prove injurious to them. She has received a terrible blow.

In Asia, the Russians have accomplished nothing, and have been defeated in all their attempts to establish themselves in Turkish territory. In Kamtschatka, they have run away, after destroying all their works, which is all that could have been done by their enemies.

WARNING FROM MONTESQUIEU.—The following warning against attempting the conquest of the Turkish Empire was written by Montesquieu, in his "Grandeur et Decadence des Romains," in 1721.

A young amoroso, at a political festival gave the following toast:—"The Ladies.—We admire them, because of their beauty; respect them, because of their virtue; adore them, because of their intelligence; and love them, because we can't help it!"
